SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

:o:

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th,

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

SANK IN THE PACIFIC

The British Ship Senegal Went Down With All on Board.

ENCOUNTERED A FIERCE GALE

Sailors on a Small Schooner Saw Her Silently Engulfed in the Stormy Sea—The Captain, His Young Daughter and Twenty-Seven Men Drowned.

SAN FRANCISO, Sept. 22.—The big British ship Senegal is at the bottom of the Pacific somewhere in lat. 30.17 n., long. 119.08, for it was about that locality that C. Olsen, a sailor on the schooner Mary Russ, saw her red light go out one stormy night at sea.

The Senegal was bound for San Diego to Tacoma with loose sand for ballast. She was a large iron ship of the latest design and was considered one of the best in the English marine service. The captain was accompanied by his young daughter and the crew consisted of 27 men. It was early in March when the vessel sailed and the only tidings was when Captain Thompson, of the schooner Mary C. Russ, wrote from San Diego, a few weeks ago, saying that he was in company with her on the night of March 18.

Olsen was on the deck of the schooner during the whole of that night at sea and he says that the storm that tossed the little ship about was the worst that he had experienced in the score of years that he had spent on the ocean. The Senegal, he says, was sighted just as darkness was closing in, beating up against a freshening north-east gale. By midnight the gale was at its height.

Olsen said he soon began to watch for the gleam of the Senegal's light. It seemed to him, in his dread of a death at sea, like a ray of hope. Sometimes she missed the light when his vessel rode the crest of a wave; but the Senegal was then down in the trough of the seas, and the next moment it would appear. The danger increased, and every man hung on for dear life.

Just before daylight the red light of the big ship appeared for the last time. The Senegal rose on the crest of a wave, as a squall more severe than its predecessors came down upon them. The red light gleamed, then went out for an instant. It appeared for a moment, then was lost altogether. In vain the crew of the schooner watched for it. It had gone out forever and with it went the lives of all her crew. When day broke about an hour afterwards the big ship was nowhere in sight.

American Trade Reviewed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Bradstreet's says: "The condition of general trade this week is an improvement over a week ago in that favorable features reported then have been maintained. The surprisingly good reports of business south and with some exceptions west are indicated by special advices from Baltimore, Nashville, Chicago, St. Louis, Portland, Oregon and San Francisco. Greatest activity is shown in dry goods, clothing, millinery and shoes. Wool, too, is active, one lot of 700,000 pounds having been sold to a Rhode Island manufacturer. Sales of millinery and dry goods are large, as well as those of lumber. Heavier exports of wheat from New York city, San Francisco and Montreal have further increased the weekly total of wheat (and flour as wheat) exported from both coasts of the United States and Canada within six days, such total being 3,537,000 bushels. Last week the like aggregate was 2,789,000 bushels. There are 218 business failures reported in the United States this week, against 223 last week.

The Brute Cheated the Gallows.

LAGRANGE, Ind., Sept. 22.—C. A. Jones, of this city, who was convicted of rape, committed suicide in jail by taking morphine. He left a long letter, denying his guilt and abusing the State attorney and all the witnesses for the prosecution. Jones was about 60 years old. He was well connected and a prominent member of the Oddfellows, Masons and other orders. His victims, several in number are under 14 years old, and told pitiful stories of his assaults and the means employed by him to accomplish his heinous purpose.

Killed by a Big Four Train.

LONDON, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Buell, sister of the Rev. W. L. Slutz, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church here, and the latter's two daughters, Mabel, aged 18, and Helen, aged 8 years, were struck by a west bound Big Four train while crossing the track three miles east of here. Mrs. Buell and child were killed and the young lady will probably die.

Collided With a Derailed Car.

BUFFALO, Sept. 22.—A derailed car was struck by a freight engine on the West Shore railroad 7 miles east of here yesterday. The car was shattered and the engine cab stove in. Head brakesman Shannon who was in the cab was so badly injured that he died within a few minutes. Fireman Lambkins was badly injured.

Breckinridge's Son Distinguishes Himself.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 22.—Desha Breckinridge, son of Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, stabbed J. D. Livingston and attacked Judge George B. Kinkhead late yesterday. The fight grew out of the late Democratic primaries. Great excitement prevails here and more trouble is expected.

GREEN IN THE DOCK

Preliminary Examination of the Alleged Murderer at Cornwall.

HIS COMPANIONS EXAMINED

Kearney Tells the Court of His Crooked Career—A Witness Testifies to Last Seeing the Murdered Man in the Company of the Accused.

CORNWALL, Sept. 22.—Charles Green, the alleged murderer of Patrick Cosgrove, consented to return without extradition proceedings. The preliminary examination of Green took place yesterday morning. The prisoner was defended by D. B. McLennan, Q. C., while James Dingwall looked after the crown's interest. The charge of the crown against Green was that of murder, to which, when read to the prisoner and he was asked for his plea, he replied in a firm voice, "Not guilty."

Patrick Henderson was the first witness at the examination. His evidence was almost the same as given by him at the coroner's inquest last Friday.

The most of the afternoon was taken up in the examination of Kearney. He proved a rusty witness to procure evidence from, and it was with great difficulty that the following evidence was dragged out of him:

"I have been in jail several times for drunkenness in Cornwall and elsewhere. I was also arrested on suspicion with the prisoner Green at North Lawrence for stealing butter, but was acquitted. I came to Cornwall from the Kingston penitentiary where I served a term of four years for manslaughter. I was sentenced at Barrie for the crime. I lived in Barrie two years."

Fred Smith, a native of Edinburgh, was the next witness. He said he was working at the gas house and Green came there about 12 o'clock at night and told him the story of the stealing of the plums.

The court house was crowded in the evening session which was begun at 7.30 and long before that hour the large court room was packed to suffocation, fully 800 people being compelled to stand up.

Continuing his evidence, Smith said: "I told Kearney when I saw Cosgrove in the shed that I thought deceased was the man that I saw going east towards the coal shed the previous night. I had a conversation with the deceased in the vicinity of the place where the body was found. He asked me where he could find a hotel and I directed him to the East End. I was only speaking to him a few moments when I saw a man across the street and shouted out 'Is that you, Charley?' He answered 'Yes.' I asked him if he had not been home. He said, 'No, I am just on my way home now.' He came over and I said to Green, 'Here is a man who wants some one to show him the way up to a hotel.' Deceased said he had no money. Green and deceased then went away together. I could not swear positively if the man I saw in the coal shed was the same one I saw the previous night.

The cross-examination failed to illicit anything new in the case.

Edward Harris was the next witness, but his evidence threw very little light on the case.

The examination was adjourned till to-day.

A FIVE YEARS COURSE.

The Amount of Study to be Required Of Students for the Methodist Ministry.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 22.—The final clauses of the report in the course of study were before the general conference yesterday. A hot debate marked the consideration of the committee's report in favor of substitution for conference boards of examination, a general board. The proposal to establish a general board was voted down.

The question of recognition of degrees aroused some feeling. "We know of men," said Chancellor Burwash, "paying $40 to bogus institutions for bogus degrees. We must put a stop to it."

Rev. M. C. McDiarmid pointed out that Canadian institutions conferred degrees some times under peculiar circumstances. Toronto University had granted L.L.D. "for eminent services in procuring books for the university library." The result of the debate was that the examining board of each annual conference was empowered to decide what degrees should be recognized. It was further decided that the course of study should be five years, three on circuit and two at college. The report of the boundaries committee for the new conference was adopted.

A Pembroke Burglar Sentenced.

PEMBROKE, Ont., Sept. 22.—The three Brison brothers, Joseph, Stephen and John, whose arrest on charges of being the authors of numerous burglaries, which have been occurring in the town and neighborhood for a long time past, were brought before Police Magistrate Mitchell for trial. John, who is a young man of about 25, unmarried, pleaded guilty. Joe and Stephen, who are married, pleaded not guilty. John was sentenced to a term of fourteen years in penitentiary. The preliminary trial of the others has been completed and Stephen and Joseph have been sent down for trial at the forthcoming assizes.

A Serious Stabbing Affray.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 22.—A disturbance was created at the G. T. R. depot on Clarence street, during which Wallace Temple was stabbed once in the left breast and once in the leg. He was taken to the hospital in the ambulance. The young fellow is resting easily at the city hospital. Still he is not out of danger. He has about an even chance of recovery. The police claim to know little about the affair, and no arrests have been made in connection with it. Temple is a son of Peter Temple, G. T. R. engineer.

Two Men Killed at Sudbury.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Mr. James McArthur, manager of the Canada Copper Company mines at Sudbury, writes that on Saturday last an accident occurred whereby two men were killed. The sad accident was occasioned by the falling of the roof of a shaft. Inspector Slaight will make the necessary investigation on behalf of the Government.

THE BATTLE IN YULA RIVER

Five Japanese Vessels Turned Tail and Were Chased by the Chinese—They Returned Next Morning and Torpedoed the Stranded Vessels.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Times to-day publishes the following despatch from Tien-Tsin dated Sept. 21:

"Wounded officers of the Chinese fleet confirm the original report of the engagement on the 17th instant. They say that the Chinese fleet arrived at the Yalu river on the afternoon of the sixteenth and remained outside of the mouth of the river while the transports were unloading. At 11 o'clock on the morning of the 17th they sighted the smoke of the Japanese fleet which was approaching in two columns. The Chinese vessels steamed out to meet them in two columns converging on the flagship. The Japanese fleet consisted of 12 ships while the Chinese had 10 ships. The Chinese admiral opened fire at a distance of 6,000 meters but the firing on both sides fell short until the opposing vessels came within 5,000 meters. The Chinese endeavored to come to close quarters but were prevented from accomplishing their purpose by the superior speed of the Japanese ships, which, keeping for the most part two miles off, manoeuvred admirably and made splendid shots with the long range quick-firing guns.

"The Chinese cruiser Chih Yuen, Captain Tang Shi Chang, early in the day closed with one of the enemy's ships at full speed, intending to ram her. Whether rammed or torpedoed, the Japanese ship turned over and sank. Four Japanese vessels then closed round the Chih Yuen and she was ripped up by shots under the water line and went down with all hands, including Purvis, the engineer.

"Meanwhile the battle raged furiously round the flagship Ting Yuen and her consort, the Chen Yuen. Nickolls, a gunnery officer on the Ting Yuen, was killed. The Japanese ships were difficult to identify, but it is known that the cruiser Yoshino received some damaging shots at close quarters. Some of the Chinese gunners devoted their attention especially to the Japanese cruiser Naniwa and succeeded in setting her on fire, but none of the Chinese officers saw her sink.

"At five o'clock the five Japanese vessels still engaged in the fight turned and fled. The Chinese vessels pursued, but failed to overtake them. Next morning the Japanese fleet returned and torpedoed the stranded ships. The casualties of the Chinese fleet were exactly as previously stated. The Japanese losses are uncertain. On comparing testimony from various sources it seems certain that four Japanese ships were destroyed and the remainder badly injured."

The Times correspondent in Shanghai telegraphs: "The Chinese authorities have strictly confined the Chinese fleet to the defence of the approaches to Pekin, specifying the limits within which the vessels are to cruise. Officers and men have been impatient to carry operations to the Corean coast and are embittered by the policy of the government."

The United Typothetæ of America.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—At the annual convention of the United Typothetæ of America selected St. Paul and Minneapolis as the places for holding next year's convention, the sessions to be divided between the two cities. The following officers were chosen: President, Cyrus H. Blakely, of Chicago; 1st Vice-President, F. L. Smith, Minneapolis; 2nd Vice-President, R. Ennis, St. Louis; 3rd Vice President, J. Sterns Cushing, Boston; 4th Vice-President, G. H. Bruce, Nashville, Tenn.; 5th Vice-President, Percy F. Smith, Pittsburg; 6th Vice-President, A. F. Rutter, Toronto, Canada; Secretary Everett Waddy, Richmond, Va.; Treas., Charles Buss, Cincinnati. Executive committee—Joseph J. Little, New York, chairman; David Ramaley, St. Paul; George H. Ellis, Boston; John R. McCaffridge, Philadelphia; E. R. Andrews, Rochester; C. S. Morehouse, New Haven, Conn.; and James Murray, Toronto.

The Election in Victoria.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Sept. 22.—The election in Victoria was fought mainly on the tariff issue in the form of protection against liberty of trade. Both sides were pledged in the event of success to make vigorous retrenchments. The government desired to assimilate the Victorian tariff of the Australian colonies with a view to paving the way to a federal tariff and eventually intercolonial free trade. The government was opposed at the polls not only by the regular opposition, but by the Reform League and the Free Trade and Democratic associations, the members of which demanded the largest measure of free trade compatible with a balanced budget, with a maximum standard of duties from 20 to 25 per cent. The returns show the election of 29 Ministerialists, 54 members of the Opposition and 13 Independents.

THE MASSEY-HARRIS COMPANY.

The New York Evening Post comments on the removal by the Massey-Harris Company of their workshops to the United States as follows:

"It is reported that a Canadian manufacturer, who employs 2,000 men, is about to remove his establishment to this country on account of the advantages offered under the new tariff. "That new tariff," he declared to an American, "will help your country immensely. By freeing raw materials it will cheapen the cost of manufactured goods both to manufacturer and consumer. It will draw to your side many manufacturing concerns of Canada which want a wider market and an opportunity to manufacture goods more profitably." This prediction may be fulfilled, remarks the Montreal Herald, should the Canadians adhere to the protective policy. They cannot prevent the migration of either capital or labour and the conditions in this country under the present tariff are certainly such as to attract manufacturers. We know of no reason we should not welcome Canadians who desire to take advantage of our improved system of tariff taxation, but at the same time we should regard it as more satisfactory if the Canadians would follow our example and reduce their duties. We should look upon their prosperity as ours, in full confidence that the demolition of the tariff walls erected upon the frontier would result in a mutually advantageous commerce of great extent. It is difficult to understand the state of mind of the Protectionists, who are ready to welcome annexation as something beneficial to both Canada and the United States, although the result would be to establish absolutely free trade between their inhabitants. In the case of such annexation the maintenance of tariffs would be felt to be absurd; and yet if they are beneficial when the inhabitants different rulers, it is hard to see why they become injurious when their rulers are the same."

MR. LAURIER AND THE "LEADER."

The Regina Standard employs the deadly parallel columns to show Mr. Davin's opinion of Mr. Laurier as Mr. Davin, and his opinion of him as editor of the Regina Leader. Here are the quotations as placed side by side by the Standard:

DAVIN AT THE BANQUET.	DAVIN IN HIS PAPER.
"It is not as leader of the Liberals of Canada that most of us here in the capital of the Northwest Territories entertain him this evening, but as a great Parliamentarian, as a man of adequate knowledge, as a master of expression, as a brilliant orator, a man, too, of kindly, lovable character."	"Mr. Laurier's visit has been a disappointment to everybody. The Winnipeg Free Press, we ourselves, alike, had imputed his fame as a speaker. There are at least six or seven men in the Legislative Assembly who could have done better, and the seventh man would have done as well. He was badly received. This may have damped his ardor, but the matter of his speech was bad—weak is the word—weak from the word go."

In commenting on this the Standard says: "Does anyone believe that we have in the Legislative Assembly six men who excel Mr. Laurier oratorically and a seventh who is his peer? The statement is false on the face of it. With all due respect to the Assembly, we venture to say that with the exception of Mr. Haultain there is not another of its members who compares with Mr. Laurier as a public speaker. The statement that Mr. Laurier was not well received is equally untrue. Apart from his position in Parliament, Mr. Laurier possesses qualities of head and heart which would ensure him a kindly reception anywhere. The Standard is in nowise attached to himself or his party, and in defending him against his backstabbing 'friend' our only motive is a desire to uphold truth and fair play."

HARVEY.

The Late John Smith.

On Tuesday, Sept. 18th, one of the oldest citizens of this township passed to his rest at the venerable age of 82 years, in the person of Mr. John Smith. The deceased gentleman was a native of Ayrshire, Scotland. He came to this country in 1855 and settled in the township of Asphodel, subsequently removing to Otonabee, where he resided for several years, removing to Harvey fourteen years ago, where he resided till the time of his death. In religion he was a Presbyterian and in politics a staunch Liberal. His partner died two years ago and he leaves behind him three sons, George and John, on the homestead, Henry R., provincial game warden for the district east of Toronto and Mrs. Cameron, of Asphodel. The deceased gentleman was held in very high respect, a circumstance shown by the large attendance at his funeral, which took place to the Lakehurst cemetery on Thursday last.

from scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, ought to be given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. For children who are puny, pale or weak, the "Discovery" is a tonic which builds up both flesh and strength. What is said of it for children applies equally to adults. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, and other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, as Dyspepsia and Biliousness, if it doesn't cure in every case, the money is returned.

A Common Trouble.

With many people in this climate there is a large portion of poisonous, purulent discharge which drops into the throat during sleep, and is swallowed. This disturbs the functions of the stomach, causing weakness of that organ, and producing indigestion, dyspepsia, nausea, and loss of appetite. There is no better remedy for these troubles than Eseljay's Liver Lozenges. They can be had at all drug stores at 25 cents a box or 5 boxes for a dollar.

BEARS IN VICTORIA COUNTY.

Two Bears Killed Near Woodville on Tuesday Afternoon.

On Tuesday afternoon the scholars of Lornesville public school, a few miles from Woodville, enjoyed a thrilling experience, recollections of which will serve to brighten their humdrum existence for many a day to come. While poking about a bit of woods in the vicinity of the school a couple of boys almost fell over a big she bear and a well-grown cub reclining at ease behind a huge fallen tree. Their surprise was of the intense order, as may be imagined, and the whoops emitted by them as they scurried from the spot would have elicited an approving "ugh" from a Comanche Indian. Upon meeting the other scholars their self-possession returned, and after telling their story and assuring their comrades that they would have killed the "varmints" then and there only that they did not want to euchre them out of a bear hunt, the larger boys, armed with stout cudgels and the school axe, advanced in close marching order upon the Ursus Americanus. When within 100 yards of the spot they saw Mistress Bruin and her offspring edging off towards the railroad track, and immediately gave chase. They raised such a hue and cry that the affrighted animals left the open and again plunged into the dense swamp. Meanwhile word had been conveyed to Woodville, and Mr. Neil McLeod, a well-known local nimrod, seized his trusty Winchester and started for the scene. He followed the animals to Donald Grant's woods, and while they were crossing a small open space, with unerring aim he put a bullet into each. The she bear was a very large one and was in good condition, but the cub looked as if it had not tasted a square meal since berry time. —Post.

AIR:—RED, WHITE AND BLUE.

O, dyes, used from ocean to ocean,
Ye Diamond Dyes, pure, fast and true!
No wonder that female devotion
And first thoughts are centred in you.
Ye bring, to each home, joy and pleasure,
And many a dollar ye save;
To every good housewife a pleasure,
A friend, a companion and slave.

CHORUS:

A friend, a companion and slave,
A friend, a companion and slave,
Diamond Dyes bring to all joy and pleasure
And many a dollar they save.

Diamond Dyes always ready for duty,
Working merrily, never forlorn;
Ye restore to brightness and beauty
Each garment soiled, faded and worn.
Throughout this extended Dominion,
All people have heard of your name,
And critics are all of opinion
That ye are entitled to fame.

CHORUS:

All people have heard of your name,
All people have heard of your name,
Diamond Dyes in this fair, young Dominion,
Have established a wonderful fame.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an- have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

CREEDON TALKS.

THE STURDY AUSTRALIAN IN PRIME CONDITION FOR HIS CONTEST WITH FITZSIMMONS.

He Tells Something of His Inner Life—Makes no Secret of the Means He Employs to Keep in Shape—His Manager Does not Believe in Doctors.

From the St. Louis, Mo., Chronicle.

As September 26th, the date set for the $5,000 battle between Dan Creedon and Bob Fitzsimmons, grows nearer, its uncertainty grows greater and the interest of the sporting world increases. While Fitzsimmons will no doubt be a hot favourite in the betting, yet the truth of the matter is, that but very few have got a true line on Creedon. While the wise men of the ring who have come in touch with him, are saying but little out loud, it is a well-known fact that Fitzsimmons' followers are finding in a quiet way all the Creedon money they want.

Personally Fitzsimmons has always believed that Creedon was easy game. But then, Creedon has improved almost beyond belief since he came to this country. The instruction he received while helping to train Corbett for the Mitchell fight did him no end of good, while his method of living and manner of taking care of himself has greatly improved his condition.

Some time ago it was reported that Creedon was a victim of muscular rheumatism and that his day as a fighter had passed. This has, no doubt taken many of the sporting fraternity over to the Fitzsimmons side.

Creedon is doing his training in St. Louis under the care of his foster brother, Tommy Tracy. He was seen in the office of his manager, Col. John D. Hopkins, by a Chronicle reporter, and among other things unbusomed himself regarding the "muscular rheumatism" story.

"In December last" (he laughed when the subject was broached) "I was giving sparring exhibitions with a variety and athletic company. We played a week's engagement in Boston. During Christmas week it was bitterly cold, the theatre in which we played was miserably heated behind the curtain. The dressing rooms were so cold that you could actually see your breath. My contract with the manager stipulated that I was to box two bouts of three rounds each, one of which was to be "try-out" with any local fighter possessed of an ambition to make me "bite the dust."

"Though my task was not a severe one, from a scientific point of view, the work was hard and monotonous and the perspiration streamed from my pores as I scampered from the stage into my cold, damp dressing room. I resisted the shock of these sudden changes until the night before we closed our engagement, when, as I was dressing preparatory to leaving the theatre, a sickening chill penetrated my back, my legs ached and I suddenly became sick at my stomach. I drank two hot whiskeys in a neighboring saloon, hurried to my hotel, and huddled up in bed.

"On the following morning on awakening, my right ankle was stiff and sore, and the muscles of my arm were swollen and pained excruciatingly.

"I rapidly grew worse. My physician ordered hot water bags for my feet and prescribed an alkali concoction for muscular rheumatism. Within a week I was unable to bear my weight on my feet.

"I discharged my physician in despair and tried enough so-called rheumatic cures to stock a fair sized drug store. By the advice of Col. John D. Hopkins, my manager, I purchased a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Col. Hopkins had read so much in the papers of the marvelous cures made by Pink Pills, and being a victim of periodical attacks of rheumatism, gave them a trial.

"Physicians be hanged, I have spent hundreds of dollars on 'em," here broke in Col. Hopkins.

"After using one box of Pink Pills," continued Creedon, "the pain gradually relaxed, my appetite improved, I started taking a second box, and the pain and swelling disappeared from ankles and feet, and the muscles of my arms were restored to their normal condition.

"I left for Jacksonville, Fla., New Year's Day, with Billy Delaney, trainer of Jim Corbett, to assist in preparing the champion for the international glove contest with Charley Mitchell. I had finished my second box of Pink Pills when I left Boston. The sudden change of climate, combined with the malarial atmosphere of Corbett's training quarters at Mayport, revived the pain in my muscles and I became alarmed at my condition.

I went up to Jacksonville and secured another supply of Pink Pills. The marvellous effect of these pills almost baffles belief.

"The Pink Pills battled successfully with the rheumatism and the seeds of malaria planted in my system by the damp nights spent on the Florida coast. I was in condition to begin work with Corbett after a few days rest and was rapidly restored to health, the muscles of my legs and arms being as strong and good as ever.

"I never in my life worked harder than during the Corbett training campaign at Mayport. The rheumatic ankles of a few weeks previous, were free from soreness and stiffness, as all visitors to Mayport who witnessed me play hand-ball and speed over the hard sand of the beach can attest.

"A remarkable feature is, that I plunged from the cold of the North into the dampness of the Florida climate after a rheumatic siege, taking no particular care of my health beyond the regularity of my Pink Pill treatment. I give you every detail of the case in order to end all further controversy about my condition. I never felt better in my life and, barring accidents, will be ready to fight the fight of my life on Sept. 26th."

I hereby certify that the foregoing interview is truthful in every detail.

Sig.) DAN CREEDON.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially valuable to athletes and those undergoing severe physical training. They act as a tonic and bracer, stimulate the whole system and keep the blood and nerves in the pink of condition." These pills also effect a radical cure in all cases arising from overwork, mental worry or excesses of any nature. Sold by all dealers at 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50—never sold in bulk or by the hundred.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

"Riplets" paid the northern lakes a visit for several days, spending a delightful time.

The third and fourth and last drive of the Gilmour & Co's logs are between Bobcaygeon and Pigeon Lake, some twenty-eight thousand logs in all. The last drive is closely following and probably connect with the other at Burleigh, which will form quite a mileage of saw logs.

The government dredge has been engaged for the past month at the Three Islands, Stony Lake, in dredging out the steamboat channel, which was apparently badly needed. The gravel excavated from the channel is loaded on scows and towed down to the dam, which is used for filling in around and about the same.

The steamers have discontinued their Saturday night trips to Stony Lake, the traffic having somewhat abated. Both boats have had a very successful season, despite the hard times.

Sportsmen will be interested in learning, and, at the same time, governing themselves accordingly, that partridge, woodcock, snipe, quail and plover or any other water fowl or game bird may be shot on and after September 15th. The sale or barter of partridge, woodcock or snipe is further prohibited until 1897. The law has been amended as to the trapping of beaver, sable, martin or otter, martin being struck out. Muskrats shall not be taken, hunted or killed from the first day of May to 1st day of January.

Mr. Con. Young, of Young's Point, is busily engaged in constructing a large wharf, for Mr. J. R. Stratton, at his summer residence, Stony Lake.

Mrs. H. J. Kearney, of the Point, is having her summer resort painted and thoroughly renovated. It looks too cute for anything approaching the Point. It is on the Douro side.

Mr. Thomas Spencer, of Apsley, shot two bears—a she and a cub, the other day, at Cedar Lake, Haultain, Burleigh township.

Mr. John Holmes states that he has five hounds to take a dose of poison again this season. He says he does not go deer hunting in "July." Straight goods. Make no mistakes, boys.

The Golden City, Capt. Reynolds in command, in conjunction with the G. T. R., ran an excursion from Peterborough to Chemong, via Lakefield, under the management of the Patrons of Industry. Some four hundred in all availing themselves of the delightful trip afforded. They had quite a time at Buckhorn on their return trip, on account of the logs. They were compelled to take the Chemong train to Peterborough, while the Lakefield brethren had to wait in town till the following day.

Pete. Phelan, the veteran guide of the Northern Lakes, is the same as usual and states that he had a most successful season of it. "Pete" is an old settler, and there is not a hole, corner or rock in the back lakes that he cannot locate in the dark.

A light suit of clothes and a cold wave, an umbrella and sunshine, go together—with a waterproof coat, a life preserver and a float,—so says Capt. Chas. Calcutt, with a double jointed crew, on boarding the Mary Ellen. The ploughers of the sea had their annual outing Wednesday through the northern lakes. Capt. Scollard, 1st mate Edy, 2nd mate Frank Young, and Engineer Marshaw used the boys handsomely. The fact of the matter was that the visitors manned the ship most creditably. Amongst the tars "Riplets" noticed the following on board, he being one of the party: Capt. Charles Calcutt, 1st mate James Tobin, better known as "Short Stop," Joe Young, engineer of the steamer Daisy, Capt. Claire Calcutt, Engineer Joe Rodman, Fireman "Dick" Lund of the City of Peterborough. Capt. Scollard saw that they enjoyed themselves, taking them through the chain of lakes, and giving them full command of the craft. They dined at the Burleigh Falls Hotel, where Manager Holmes had all the delicacies of the season awaiting them. After doing full justice to the viands, they left for upper Stony and other landing stages, arriving at Lakefield, whence they proceeded to the Tremont House. Here Manager Bowman had a spread fit for a queen awaiting them, which the boys relished in a slaman-like manner, after which they were conveyed by the overland route to town on the Lakefield flyer, arriving home about 8 p.m. Capt. Charlie extended a standing invitation to the boys of the Mary Ellen to a trip down the Otonabee, Rice Lake and River Trent, which was duly accepted, before the season closes, to enable them to have a salmon fish, which commences Oct. 18th.

Dr. E. H. G. Bronnell, Wm. Miller, wife and daughter, Rochester; E. W. Hadley, New Britain, Conn.; H. L. Ringwalk, Pittsburg, Pa.: Thos. L. Ringwalk, Omaha, Nebraska; J. A. McDonald, Medicine Hat, N.W.T.; R. T. Hartley, Peterborough; Miss Maud Morgan, Mr. Fred Tully, Warsaw; W. J. Thompson, J. L. Reynolds, Lakeport, N.Y., are having an up to date time with Mr. John Holmes and three guides. They are in readiness at any time and see that the guests are properly attended to in a good natured manner at a moderate rate per day, at the same time providing young frogs and craw fish for still fishing, trawling lines, canoes, skiffs, and clubs for trawling. John looks after the guests in such a manner that they have already engaged rooms for next season's outing.

The Government steamer Empire passed through Burleigh to-day with a scow load of boom timber for government purposes at Bobcaygeon.

Gilmour's alligator, "Trent," is at Burleigh.

The visitors registered at the "Lakeview" House, Young's Point, are as follows, being principally Americans:—The Messrs. Negal, Mr. Whitmore, Mr. O. Stone, all of Rochester, N. Y. At the Burleigh Falls Hotel, John Holmes Prop., are the following:—Russell Sage and Austin Osborne, the famous American millionaires, New York. The fact of Mr. Holmes having such distinguished visitors at his hotel is another proof of the popularity of Burleigh as a resort.

A Coming Musical and Literary Treat.

The Ladies, Aid Society of the Charlotte street church have been fortunate in securing the services of Miss Eva N. Roblin, the celebrated soprano soloist, to give a recital of music in Peterborough on Tuesday, Oct. 16th. She will be assisted by Miss Lillian Burns, an elocutionist of considerable ability, and also Master Wilfred La Rue, the celebrated Canadian boy cornetist, who has delighted audiences all through the province. Fuller particulars in connection with this treat will be announced later.

Conferring Encampment Degrees.

Last evening a number of the members of Hiawatha Encampment, No. 66, I.O.O.F., visited Lindsay for the purpose of assisting Guiding Star Encampment, No. 22, in conferring the Encampment degrees upon Grand Master Hoyle, of Cannington. After the ceremony speeches were made by the Grand Master and the visiting Oddfellows, including a speech from Bro. Jas. A. McGill, D.D.G.M., Peterborough. The Lindsay brethren then invited the visitors to the McConnel House, where an elegant spread was prepared, and the remainder of the evening was very enjoyably spent.

Inspecting the Trent Route.

Messrs. J. H. Balderson, B. A., secretary of the Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, Dr. Preston, M. P., Carleton Place, R. B. Rogers, superintending engineer of the T. V. C., Commodore Calcutt and others boarded the steamer Daisy, yesterday, and made an inspection of the Trent Valley Canal, taking in the waters of the Otonabee and Trent rivers. The route was pretty thoroughly inspected, and the party returned in the evening. Mr. J. H. Balderson visited the route from Healy's Falls to Balsam Lake, and was much surprised at the facilities the chain of waters afforded for navigation. It is stated that in a very short time tenders will be called for, for the construction of the nine mile section between Lakefield and Peterborough, and the six mile section between Balsam Lake and Lake Simcoe. Hydraulic lift locks will be placed on this section, and six locks will be placed one the nine-mile section, as against thirteen ordinary locks.

Best made, the latest styles and by far the cheapest clothing in Canada at Grafton & Co.

A special meeting of the members of the Board of Trade and all those interested in foreign trade is called for this evening at half-past eight o'clock sharp to meet the Hon. Mr. Howell, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Mr. J. S. Larke, Special Commissioner.

Painful Accident.

This morning about a quarter to ten Mr. James Dicks, a machinist in the employ of the Canadian General Electric Company, received a very painful wound on the right arm below the elbow. It seems that Mr. Dicks was in the act of passing between two machine lathes which were in operation, when his arm was caught in the gears of one of the machines and forced through before the machinery could be stopped. Drs. Halliday and Boucher are in attendance and were able to save the arm, and the unfortunate young man is doing as well as circumstances permit.

Effects of the French Treaty—Clarets at Half Price.

The Bordeaux Claret Company established at Montreal in view of the French Treaty are now offering the Canadian connoisseur beautiful wines at $3 and $4 per case of 12 large quart bottles. These are equal to any $6 and $8 wines sold on their label. Every swell hotel and club are now handling them and they are recommended by the best physicians as being perfectly pure and highly adapted for invalids' use. Address Bordeaux Claret Company, 30 Hospital street, Montreal.

Take it Home to Yourselves.

Mothers and fathers, don't you recall in your school days how much better you could write with a long new pencil than an old one?

Were not the problems easier to solve when you figured on a big "pad" you had just purchased?

Did you ever lose the reader, speller, or arithmetic when you had a nice new bag to carry the books in to and from school?

Now, be honest and fix up the children's outfit as though you were young again.

A few cents invested at the stationery department of the Peterborough Bookstore will give the children inspiration for study throughout the term. A. H. STRATTON.

The Major is Sanguine

The following article is taken from the Lindsay Warder:—J. H. Balderson, Esq., B. A., secretary of the department of railways and canals, Ottawa, with R. B. Rogers, chief engineer, of the Trent Valley Canal, Dr. Preston, of Carleton Place, and Sam. Hughes, member for North Victoria, inspected the route from Peterborough, via Lakefield to North West Bay, on Balsam Lake, and thence by carriage over the route across Eldon and Thorah to Gamebridge, on Lake Simcoe. They returned to Lindsay on Thursday night. The visiting gentlemen were greatly impressed with the grandeur, beauty and magnificence of the waters. The first section from Balsam Lake will be open for tenders in a very few weeks. Chief Engineer Rogers and his staff are deserving of every credit for pushing on the work so rapidly. Before very many months, the first five miles of the route will be completed, and the rest will be under contract. Mr. Balderson was most favourably impressed with the importance of the work, and greatly surprised at the magnificence of the inland waters of Victoria and Peterborough counties.

A Growl From Norwood.

The Peterborough Board of Trade has resolved to communicate with the railway companies and ask that cheap fares be granted on Saturdays as far west on the C.P.R. as Myrtle, and on the G.T.R. to to Omemee, and east on the Grand Junction to Campbellford. If the business men of the villages interested are alive to their own interests they will oppose the scheme "tooth and nail." The plea made by Peterborough in order to secure these concessions is that farmers want to go there to market their produce. This is all bosh. What Peterborough wants is to rake in all the spare cash they can at the expense of the village merchants. Enquiry at Norwood station, where cheap fares have obtained for some time, reveals the fact that that about one third of the people from this section who take in the Saturday excursions take with them produce to market. The village merchants pay hundreds of dollars to the railway company in freight charges, and it is decidedly unfair to them that the company should issue tickets at reduced rates to encourage the people to go to Peterborough to buy goods.—Norwood Register.

A Minister Married.

The Rev. A. J. H. Strike, the popular young pastor of Carrying Place, formerly of Tyrone, and at one time principal of the Ashburnham Public School, was wedded on Wednesday to Miss Emma M. Elford, eldest daughter of Mr. John Elford, Providence. The ceremony was performed at 3:30 p. m. by the Rev. S. J. Allin, of Amherstburg, uncle of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Wm. Jolliffe, of Bowmanville, and the Rev. A. C. Wilson, of Tyrone, in the presence of a large number of relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was prettily attired in cream bengaline and carried a beautiful bouquet of cream roses. Miss Florence, Tilley, of Bowmanville, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and was tastily costumed in pink cashmere with cream lace and passementerie trimmings, and carried roses also. The groom was ably supported by the Rev. W. S. Sanderson, of Welcome. After the ceremony the bridal party partook of a rich wedding repast and the happy couple left by the evening train to spend their honeymoon in the West before returning to their future home at Carrying Place. The presents were a very useful and valuable collection.

TWO YOUNG MEN SENTENCED.

For Interfering With Grand Trunk Officials and Property.

The two young men who figured so prominently in the railway incident at Fraserville on Monday night, came up for trial this morning. B. Weese was charged with stealing a ride on a Grand Trunk train without the consent of the officials, and D. Welsh for throwing a stone at a passing train with intent to do harm and of using threatening language. A large number of the train hands were examined as witnesses, and after hearing the evidence, the magistrate imposed a fine of $10 or ten days on young Weese, and sentenced Welsh to a year in the Central Prison.

A COMPLETE AND ELEGANT RESIDENCE.

The New Home of Mr. Mayor Kendry—Brief Description of a Complete, Elegant and Substantial Modern Home.

Mayor Kendry and family are removing to their elegant new home, corner George street north and Barnardo Avenue.

The new residence which has a pleasant southern and eastern exposure, stands in large grounds and exteriorally presents a dignified and imposing appearance. The style is Queen Anne, and the material of the walls is of Credit Valley sandstone, (the material of the Provincial Parliament buildings, Toronto), red Don Valley pressed brick and buff tiles. The first story is of Credit Valley stone, rock face work, with dressed window and door surroundings. The second story is of red pressed brick and the gables are of buff tile. From the belting course at the termination of the first story, a circular bay springs and passing up through the remaining two stories terminates in a conical roof, with suitable ornamental finials. This oriel springs from the north-east angle of the house from a huge dressed corbel of sandstone—a monolith—and has a pleasing effect externally besides being a very pleasant addition to the interior of the rooms it opens upon, the windows giving on three sides. The roof is of dark slate and gives an air of substantial elegance to the building, which is, indeed, a characteristic of the entire structure, both without and within. A broad concrete walk leads from the entrance on Water street to a roomy porch, which admits by the solid oaken door to an entrance hall about ten feet wide and about fifteen in length. This entrance hall is connected by a wide depressed arch with the really beautiful staircase hall, which is one of the most elegant features of the interior. This hall hall is finished in quartered oak and also

FLOORED WITH POLISHED OAK.

The newels, balusters and stair stringers are in oak enriched with carving. The hall is lighted with triple windows set in cathedral glass and contains a beautiful fire place, constructed of enamelled brick of a dark amber tint, and provided with ornamental wrought iron andirons. Underneath the stairs is a well lighted toilet room with marble fittings. To the right of the entrance hall is the main entrance to the drawing room, a fine spacious apartment 16x35 feet, divided centrally by folding doors and liberally lighted by three windows, one triple window in the front, one at the rear of the east side and by a broad square window at the front of the east side. This fine apartment has at the north end a fire place done in encaustic tiles, with brass fender and fittings. This room at the rear half is recessed about five feet, giving a minor mode of ingress from the entrance hall alongside the entrance of the dining room, which is connected with the rear half of the drawing room by folding doors. The dining room is also spacious, and is lighted at the north with a triple window, opposite which is a fireplace in quartered oak. This room has a panelled oak wainscotting, polished oak floor, oak woodwork, and the door casings, like the hall, have handsomely carved head and foot blocks. From the east side of the dining room access is gained to the kitchen by a large butler's pantry, fitted with hardwood shelving and other appliances. The kitchen is provided with a large pantry, which is furnished with one of Prowse's steel ranges of the most modern improved design. From the west side of the main hall a passage leads to the rear entrance, having on the right of it the kitchen, and on the left,

A COSY BREAKFAST ROOM.

From the outer end of the passage mentioned descend the stairs, leading to the laundry, fitted with stationary slate tubs, with hot and cold water pipes. There is also ample cellerage under the whole house.

The second story contains a large landing, the guest chamber with parlour separated by an arch, also the family bed chamber, with open fire place. From the upper hall a glass door leads to a conservatory over the porch and opening at the west on an open balcony. This floor also contains other rooms in the west wing including a fine large bath room, floored and wainscotted with English tiles; also a toilet room adjoining, fitted in cherry. Adjoining this is a large linen closet which would bring joy to the thrifty house wife's heart. This floor also contains the stairs to the third story, where there are six spacious bedrooms, well provided with roomy closets. Not only are all the rooms large and well lighted, but their finish and fittings are of the most modern and stylish character. The principal rooms on all three floors have moulded cornices and centre pieces. The walls of the drawing room are elegantly papered. Every room is lighted with incandescent electric lights, the principal rooms being provided with elegant electioliers. All the chief rooms are provided with electric bells; the breakfast and dining rooms with foot buttons, all connecting with a servant's indicator in the kitchen.

EXPOSED SANITARY PLUMBING

is employed throughout the house, the pipes being nickel, silver plated. The heating is by hot water, and all the halls and rooms have elegantly ornamented radiators. In fine, no detail of appointment or elegance necessary to make this residence one of the most substantial, well-finished and most complete residential structures in town, is wanting.

As befitting the residence of our chief civic official the work employed upon it was entirely civic. Mr. T. Rutherford was the contractor, and took care to employ only local artizans and workmen in the construction of this house.

The following were the chief subcontractors: Stonework, Robt. Smith; brickwork, T. McFadden; galvanized iron work, Breeze & Jones; plumbing, Daisy, No. 8, hot water boiler and Prowse steel kitchen range, Adam Hall; electric light, J. H. Greer; plastering, Thos. Sabin; painting, Ralph Carton; paper-hanging, S. Sharp; paper supplied by Peterborough Book Store. The grounds were graded by Mr. C. Dredge and an excellent job he made of it.

Altogether, Mayor Kendry's new residence is a handsome, substantial and comfortable house, worthy to be the home of the first magistrate, of the first town, of the first province, of the Dominion, and the EXAMINER wishes him many years of health and prosperity to enjoy the comforts and happiness his new residence is on its part, so eminently fitted to bestow.

THE VERDICT

IN FAVOUR OF

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'.Y

The very large crowds that attended their opening display Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were unanimous in their opinion that as usual they were AWAY AHEAD of all other competitors. Judging from the number of orders taken in Millinery and the number of Jackets sold in the Mantle Department, they feel satisfied that again this season they can say WE LEAD AND OTHERS FOLLOW.

Carpet and Housefurnishing Dep't.

Was the first on the ground floor that attracted the attention of the sightseer on entering this large establishment. The floor of the large Carpet room was divided into three separate compartments separated by handsome Portiers and Curtains, the like of which are only to be found in large city houses. The floor of each compartment was covered with carpet with border to match at prices ranging from 65c. to $1.50. Eiderdown Comforters and Pillows were an attractive part of the display. The Bamboo Easils and Tables which are a new department in this great concern were being bought up rapidly. Any who have not yet seen this grand display will be repaid by calling.

Dress Goods and Silks.

This department was beautifully decorated showing a variety of goods for day an evening wear, the like of which any store might be proud of. Every article marked in plain figures the visitors could at a glance see how very cheap these excellent goods were offered.

Hosiery, Gloves and Laces.

In this department was a beautiful display of Silk Hosiery and Gloves for evening wear. Kid Gloves in profusion. Handkerchiefs in Silk Lawn and Cotton to suit every taste and purse.

Underwear and Corsets.

In this department was a lovely display of children's wear including Infants Embroidered Cashmere Robes, plain and coloured Jersey Flannel Mantelings which were very much admired by every one. A large Linen Lace Quilt shown on a blue Sateen Lining was also very attractive. Pillow Covers and Shams attracted the attention of the ladies. Ladies' Skirts and Silk Shawls occupied a whole table in their display.

Men's Tailoring and Furnishings.

This important department was not behind the others in its display of Suitings, Neckwear, Underwear and Shirts of all kinds, at prices greatly in favour of the buyer.

The Staple Department

Made a lovely display of Art Sateens, Muslins and Cretonnes, and Fancy Linen Goods which is a special department in this establishment.

The "Elevator"

Was decorated with Portiers, &c., making it quite inviting to enter.

The Millinery.

The immense display in this department surpassed anything ever attemped in town. The walls being covered with silk and velvets ornamented by numerous birds, wings, flowers, etc. The Millinery was admitted by every one to be the most stylish and most beautiful in town. The low prices for Hats and Bonnets was the great surprise to every one.

The Mantle and Jackets.

In this department is to be seen the largest stock in this part of the Province, the Jackets shown being mostly 36 to 40 inches in length. Tight waists and coat backs with large lapels, were pronounced by every one to be the only stock in town that were the latest productions. Although the room is full of Jackets and Wraps every garment of this large stock is this season's new goods purchased in July and selected personally by one of the firm who visits Germany twice a year.

The Whole Display

is certainly a credit to this enterprising firm and very few towns can boast of such an establishment. This display will be on view during exhibition. All cordially invited.

A TERRIBLY FATAL RAILWAY WRECK.

THREE TRAIN MEN LOSE THEIR LIVES.

A Sleeping Cow on a Crossing Derails a Special Freight — Driver Johnston, Fireman Moloney and Brakeman Greenbury Instantly Killed—Frightful Wreck of Rolling Stock—Full Details of the Terrible Disaster.

At 3:20 this morning a terrible railway accident happened on the Midland branch of the Grand Trunk railway, in which an engine and freight train were wrecked and what is far sadder, three of the crew of the train instantly hurled into eternity, without more than a few seconds warning. The special freight from Toronto via Port Hope, due at Peterborough at 5:15 a. m., was running north at a rate of about twenty miles an hour, in charge of Conductor Fred Russell, Driver R N. Johnston, Fireman N. Moloney and Brakesmen Geo. Greenburg and Wm. Shields. Greenbury was with the driver and fireman in the cab of the engine, his place being there on account of there being no signal station at Frazerville, about three quarter's of a mile north of the site of the accident. Brakeman Shields was with Conductor Russel in the van. The train consisted of engine, tender, four box cars, laden with sundries next following, and eight empty flat cars with the van completed the train.

The special left Port Hope for Peterborough at 2:30, and everything went all right till Lusk's crossing, in Cavan, was reached. Here a cow was lying on the track. The pilot dragged the cow in front of it for about twenty yards, when the crushed mass of flesh and bones caused the engine to leave the track. She plunged along on sleepers for about a hundred feet, when she left the roadbed altogether, on the right hand side, and in the embankment for a distance of about forty feet, flopped over on her left side with her nose crushed through the fence, with the rear towards the track. The tender was evidently uncoupled shortly after the engine left the track, for it did not follow the engine, but keeping its independent momentum, was hurled about twenty feet in front of the prostrate engine, clear across the track to the opposite side, and about six or eight yards from the track. The box cars were all piled up in the most disastrous crush and confusion in front of where the engine stopped, and two or three of them formed a barricade at right angles to the track, some of them crushed into the appearance of a pile of lumber edgings. Six of the flat cars behind were thrown into all sorts of positions, while the last flat car and the van did not leave the track.

While the destruction of rolling stock was very great it dwindles into nothingness alongside the appallingly sudden loss of life. It must be remembered that when the accident happened Driver Johnston, Fireman Moloney and Brakeman Greenbury were in the cab of the engine. It is probable that when the engine made her crushing plunge from the road bed, that the cab was carried away and the three unfortunate men upon the track, and that the tender and the four lose cars took a flying leap over them without touching them; for their bodies were found pinned under the rear axle of a flat car which was behind the box cars, the front end of the flat resting on the top of the wreck at an angle of about forty-five degrees. The point where the three men fell was exactly opposite the steam dome of the engine which had peeled over on its side with its top facing the line of the track, in fact poor Johnston's body was found almost touching the steam dome. Next to him and partially on top of him was Greenbury, and under him was Moloney. The hissing steam poured from the broken globe of the boiler and vied with the darkness of the night in obscuring the dreadful work of death that had been wrought or was in progress, for Fireman Moloney was not dead when Conductor Russell reached the engine. The shock of the derailment threw him and Brakeman Shields, who were in the van, which did not leave the track—violently forward. As he recovered his feet he went out and proceeded to the engine, where his railway experience told him the unfortunate trio on the engine were to be found. When he arrived on the spot it was with difficulty that he could find his way to where the three men were on account of the thick volumes of steam that poured from the broken boiler. He heard Moloney shouting desperately, "O, take me out of this for God's sake!" Of course Conductor Russel could only stand in the vaporous darkness in agonizing impotence. He heard Moloney still crying out incoherently, and the last words he heard, uttered in a voice, weakened by the exhaustion of death, were "God bless you." Previously the poor man muttered some words indistinctly, among which was the word "army." Moloney lived about twenty minutes after the crash took place, but it is altogether probable that the two others were almost instantly killed and spared the agony that Moloney must have suffered during his twenty minutes conscious existence under the axle of the car which held the three men down.

Conductor Russell at once put himself in commudication to Millbrook, the nearest wire, and reported the calamity to Station Agent Hayden, and at 7 o'clock he went down by special train to Millbrook and an auxillary train was sent from Lindsay in charge of Conductor J. F. Jobitt, having on board Mr. J. Storer, who was in charge of the work of clearing up the wreck. The first care of the party was to release the bodies of the dead men from their imprisonment under the axle of the flat car, and as the representative of the Examiner arrived on the spot the body of Driver Johnston was being taken out. It was placed reverently on one of the lockers of the van, and shortly after the body of Greenbury was released and a very few minutes after, that of the remaining victim Moloney was brought into the van. The were found going, when taken from the pockets of their clothing. No opportunity was offered for the examination of the bodies, so that nothing can be said of the natures of the injuries that caused their death, though it is probable that the escaping steam had a large share in the work, for when the persons could be seen the flesh had an appearance that suggested the effect of steam and the clothing was damp. At once the bodies were placed in the van, the auxiliary took them to Millbrook, where they were placed in caskets.

Mr. R. N. Johnston, the driver, was about 36 years af age, and was regarded as one of the best men on the division. But he was singularly unfortunate. On May 31st, 1892, he was the driver of Conductor Stanton's train, which was derailed by a train wrecker. In that accident Fred Purdy, brakeman, was killed, and Driver Johnston so severely scalded and otherwise injured that it was months before he was able to handle the throttle again. Last June he was driver of the engine that killed a man named Wm. Deyell, who was. It was supposed, sleeping on the track. And now a few miles north of this he met his death in a terrible manner. He was not only a capable and trusted railway man, but highly esteemed in civic life, having been elected to the responsible position of deputy reeve of Lindsay. He was also an Oddfellow, a member of Durham Lodge, Port Hope, and a member of Faithful Brethren Masonic lodge, Lindsay. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. Wm. Pilling, town. He leaves behind him a wife and one child, a girl. In his younger days he resided in Ashburnham.

Mr. Shields, the rear brakeman on the train wrecked this morning, was also in the wreck of Conductor Stanton's train in May, '92.

N. Moloney, the fireman who was killed, was about 30 years of age, unmarried, and his home was Port Hope.

George Greenbury was about 25 years, has been married about a year and leaves behind a widow, who is not far from motherhood. No doubt the hearts of the whole district will go out in sympathy with the family and friends of those who have been so suddenly bereaved, and in such a terrible manner.

THE CAUSE OF THE WRECK.

The cause of the derailment was a cow, which was lying on the crossing. The animal belonged to a neighbouring farmer, Robert Lusk. If she had been standing on the track, she would have been knocked aside by the pilot and the train would have rushed on unharmed; but lying down, the pilot passed over the body, which was dragged along some sixty feet before the engine was made leave the track. She was the innocent cause of a catastrophe that brought three human lives to a sudden and awful close and destroyed a vast amount of property. The scene of the wreck was an awful one, the track being torn up for a distance of about 100 feet, and the sleepers were cut into deep grooves by the wheels of the cars, which ran for that distance upon them. The flat cars were flung about like so many shingles. The last flat car that left the track had only its front truck off the road bed; the next in front was thrown with its front end against the fence with its rear end lying on top of the next in front, which was thrown squarely across the track. The next flat rested on its side diagonally across the track and the next car was thrown diagonally across in an opposite direction. The front end of this car was crushed against the rear of the fallen engine. The next flat rested at its rear upon the track, the axles pressing down the bodies of the dead men, while its front was reared upon the heap of box cars that were shattered into a chaotic mass of splintered wood and crushed freight boxes. The crew of the wrecking train are busily at work and Roadmaster McNabb is giving the benefit of his advice and assistance. It is expected that the track will be cleared and made ready for regular traffic about 6 o'clock this evening.

THE CHEMONG REGATTA.

Successful Races on Chemong Lake Yesterday.

The annual regatta in connection with the Chemong Park Boating Association, was held at Chemong, yesterday, and was very successful. There was a good number present and the races were run off successfully by the following gentlemen:—Messrs. H. LeBrun and Sam. Ray, judges; E. Brown, referee, and F. Bell, starter:

Single canoe race, two mile course—one mile and turn.—1st, M. Howard, Rice Lake; 2nd, Geo. Taylor; 3rd, S. Nicholls.

Double canoe race—two mile course, one mile and turn—1st, Howard and Taylor; 2nd, Nicholls and Cow; 3rd, Johnston and Taylor.

Quarter mile canoe race, (dead heat.) This was a close race between Messrs. Geo. Fitzgerald Ralph Carton, George Fitzgerald (Smith) and T. Rutherford—too close for the judges to decide the winners.

THE "PROFESSOR" WILL BE BROUGHT BACK

To Answer to a Charge of Stealing a Coat at the Lakefield Fair.

"Prof." Connor, the chiropodist, who was arrested by Chief Roszel charged with having committed the Omemee burglary, was taken to Lindsay last evening on the 5.15 train, where he will stand his trial. When the authorities there are through with him he will be brought back to town to answer to a charge of stealing a coat at the Lakefield fair, which, it is alleged, he sold in town. By a letter received by Chief Roszel from Chief Newton of Belleville, it is learned that Connor has already served two terms for horse stealing.

Wreck in the Ohio River.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 22. — A disastrous wreck occurred at Davis Island dam in the Ohio river, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars as well as seriously impending navigation. The steamers Charles Brown, James A. Blackmore and Percy Kelsey figured in the smash-up which resulted in the sinking of half a dozen barges of coal. The current at the head of the dam was unusually swift. The tow boats were so very close together that they had very little room to get out of danger and were carried down against the head of the locks and stone piers. The steamboats escaped serious injury.

The Czar's Serious Illness.

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—A despatch to the Koelnische Zeitung from St. Petersburg says that the Czar's condition is such that he is still confined to his room, and that his departure from Spala for the Crimea has been postponed. The Vostische Zeitung's correspondent in St. Petersburg says that much uneasiness is felt in the capital on account of the Czar's illness, the exact nature of which is the subject of many rumors. It is believed generally that he is afflicted with a chronic and serious malady.

Fighting Forest Fires.

BRAINERD, Minn., Sept. 22.—Two hundren citizens have been kept busy fighting fires which have been burning up the brush wood about three miles south of the city since Sunday. The city has been filled with smoke all the week. Several stacks of hay and two horses have been burned. Fire completely destroyed the house of Wm. Geminder.

A Murder in the Territories.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—The mounted police department has been notified of a murder on the File Hills reserve last Saturday. The victim and his slayer were Indians, the latter having been employed by the police as a scout. He made for the international boundary and is still at large.

Sir John Starts for the Capital.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—A telegram has been received stating that Sir John Thompson is to return to the city at once. He will reach Ottawa to-night or Monday at the latest.

Truskey Will Be Sentenced To-Day.

WINDSOR, Sept. 22.—Truskey has been convicted of the murder of Constable Lindsay at Comber. He will be sentenced to day.

The Modern Beauty

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleansing action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs.

Good Cooking.

An eminent expert in the art of cooking says that "cookery is the art of putting every morsel to the best use; it is the exercise of skill, thought and ingenuity, to make every particle of food yield the utmost nourishment and pleasure, of which it is capable." There are many who enjoy very little of even the best cooked food. These could increase their enjoyment of the good things of life by the continued and judicious use of Ecoljays Liver Lozenges.

From the Crown of the Head To the Soles of the Feet
WE COVER ALL.

It is one thing to cover up your body, Robinson Crusoe like, with goat skins and tanned palm leaves. It is quite another thing to get well-fitting, neatly-made Suits, Boots and Hats of the latest designs, without paying an exhorbitant price.

MEN'S HATS!
MEN'S SHOES!
MEN'S CLOTHING!
MEN'S UNDERWEAR!
MEN'S FURNISHINGS!

ALL UNDER ONE ROOF!

This store appeals to Men—and to Women also. The field of trade is widening continually. Instead of confining ourselves to Clothing, we have, for the fall of 1894, brought together under one roof such things for men's wear as they have shown themselves to want.

The Goliath's of the Markets.

Just as buyers flock to the great emporiums like Eaton of Toronto, Carsley of Montreal, Mabley of Detroit and Wannamaker of Philadelphia, so do they crowd to Gough Bros. of Peterborough.

WHY! Because they are the Goliath's of the market—they touch the button and manufacturers pour out their wealth of Bargains to them.

CORRECTING A MISTAKE.—Who sells the cheapest goods—the merchant who is compelled to buy in one higgling market, and is tied down to one grasping manufacturer, or the merchant who has the freedom of all the competing markets and manufacturers of the world? Do men buy Hats cheaper where nothing but Hats are sold, or Boots cheaper where nothing but Boots are sold, or Clothing cheaper where nothing but Clothing is sold?

Might as well expect a farmer to do as well for his family by raising nothing but Pumpkins as if he raised a mixed crop.

HATS and CAPS.

Young men are usually quick to save money. We're able to discount the trade, because of unusual buying power. We go direct to the makers and insure fine qualities by knowing what to buy and what to let alone. The best is none too good for us. If you're a judge of quality, it won't take any talking from the salesmen.

On the finest Fur Fedora Hats we take off 35c., and ask only $2.65.
On the best Fur Felt Stiff Hats we take off 50c., and ask only $2.00.
On Men's Knockabout Hats we take off 20c., and ask only 85c.
On Men's Peak Caps, satin lined, we take off 25c., and ask only 50c.
On Men's Silk Hats, latest styles, we take off 50c. and 75c., and ask only $3.00 and $3.75.
Youths and Boys in same proportion.

BOOTS and SHOES

warranted not to crack, nor take in washing. Ours isn't the common kind of Boots and Shoes. If anybody can beat the quality, the style, the price, we'll quit the business.

On the best $3 Men's Selected Shell Cordovan Balmoral or Congress, with Dunraven toe, we take off 40c., and ask only $2 60.

On the best Men's Fine Waxed Hand-Made Balmorals we take off 35c., and ask only $1 25.

On the best Fine Patent Leather Oxford Shoes, turn soles, we take off 45c., and ask only $1.20.

On the best French Dongola Kid Button (common sense) we take off 62c., and ask only $1.98.

Misses', Boys', and Children's in same proportion.

THE ART EXHIBIT.

A Successful and Interesting Exhibit Assured.

The Art Exhibit at the Central Exhibition promises to be a most successful event, and one that will doubtless prove intensely interesting. Mr. D. A. Shaw, the artist, has worked energetically, and has succeeded in collecting for this exhibit between 150 and 200 canvasses, all by artists of recognized merit. About fifty of these have been contributed by members of the Toronto Society of Artists. Also the famous Blacksmith painting by De Lorme, will be there. It has been exhibited at the Kingston fair where it attracted the attention of all who visited the exhibition.

There will be no charge for admittance to the main art gallery.

How to Get a "Sunlight" Picture.

Send 25 "Sunlight" Soap wrappers (the wrapper bearing the words "Why Does a Woman Look Old Sooner Than a Man") to LEVER BROS., L't'd, 43 Scott street, Toronto, and you will receive by post, a pretty picture free from advertising and well worth framing. This is an easy way to decorate your home. The soap is the best in the market, and it will only cost 1c. postage to send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends open. Write your address carefully.

Wide Awake Soap is the best and cheapest in the world.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER.

To Beautify the Complexion—do not take the cosmetics, paints and powders which injure the skin, but take the easiest way to gain a beautiful color and a wholesome skin. Health is the greatest beautifier. The means to beauty, comfort, and health for women is Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Dull eyes, sallow or wrinkled face, and those "feelings of weakness," have their rise in the derangements peculiar to women.

"Favorite Prescription" will build up, strengthen, and invigorate, every "run-down" or delicate woman by regulating and assisting all the natural functions. It also lessens pain.

At some period in her life, a woman requires a general tonic and nervine, as well as a remedy adapted to her special needs.

You can find no other remedy that's guaranteed. If the "Prescription" ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

A positive cure for Catarrh—you'll find in Dr. Sage's Remedy. There's $500 reward for an incurable case.

Paine's Celery Compound Delivers Mrs. McKillop from the Terrors and Pains of Rheumatism.

The Disease Caused Terrible Agony.

Cords in the Palms of the Hands Drawn Up in Knots.

Sufferings and Tortures Ended After the Great Medicine was Used.

In the past, thousands have publicly declared that Paine's Celery Compound delivered them from the terrors and pains of rheumatism and terrible sciatica.

The same work is being done to-day on a vastly more extended scale. Martyrs to rheumatism are throwing aside the deceptive and worthless medicines that have no merit, honesty or solid standing, and are demanding Paine's Celery Compound from their druggists and dealers.

They see the wonderful results that have come from the use of Paine's Celery Compound to friends, neighbours and relatives; they also are aware of the fact, that every cure published for the encouragement of the sick and suffering comes from some responsible resident of Canada, who can be interviewed or written to.

To-day we give another strong and mighty proof of the never failing power of Paine's Celery Compound. The letter comes from Mrs. Mary McKillop, of Campbellford, Ont.; she says:—

"After using your Paine's Celery Compound I am of opinion that I should say something in its favour for the benefit of all who have not given it a trial.

"I was a sufferer from rheumatism for a long time, and endured great pain. The cords in the palms of my hands were drawn up in knots, and I despaired of getting relief. However, after using Paine's Celery Compound, I have banished all my pains and troubles, and find myself strengthened in every way.

"I think Paine's Celery Compound is the best medicine in the world for rheumatism and all nervous complaints, and I will always recommend it strongly. I particularly recommend your medicine to all weak and delicate women."

PRETTY THINGS IN GLASS.

Oblong salvers narrow rather than long curve gracefully on the sides and have a light festooned edge.

Some fruit bowls are basin shaped with raised flutes half way up, and a plain lustrous border above.

A large flaring fruit dish has a smooth surface and .... ornamentation is formed by the perforations.

A fruit dish intended for an apple or two, a few peaches and a bunch of grapes and suitable for only a very small dinner is platelike and mounted on a central standard. The edge of the receptacle is a rich band of raised work with perforations, and the dish has a distinct stamp of elegance.—Jeweler's Circular.

Scrofula humors and all diseases caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Summer Complaint, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt, safe and sure cure that has been a popular favorite for over 40 years.

The Chief Sued for Libel.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—Chief of Police Hughes states that he will have Messrs. McLean & Rogers, proprietors of the Montreal Herald, arrested for criminal libel, contained in a report published by the Herald of the address at the Christian Endeavor meeting, where a speaker said that Chief Hughes' personal character would not bear scrutiny.

A Builder's Bad Fall.

HAMILTON, Sept. 22.—James Vallance, builder of 18 Picton street, while working on a rafter on the Williamson's grain warehouse at the foot of Bay street, fell 35 feet to the floor below. His head was fearfully gashed and he probably sustained internal injuries of a serious nature. He has been unconscious since he fell. Mr. Valance is 60 years of age.

A Maritime Civil Officer Dead.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 22.—John E. Turnbull, Inspector of Dominion Government buildings for the Maritime Provinces, died yesterday, aged 76 years. He had been in poor health for some time. Deceased was one of the best known men in Maritime Provinces.

A Swindler Arrested.

WEEBWOOD, Ont. Sept. 22.—J. C. Stewart is under arrest here on a charge of swindling farmers by obtaining subscriptions from them on representations that he was the representative of Toronto papers. Steward received many subscriptions in advance.

Lord Brassey in Canada.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—Lord Brassey, the famous English politician and author, is in the city. He is accompanied by Lady Brassey. The party is on their way to Lord Brassey's settlement at Qu'Appelle and left for the west last evening.

QUEBEC, Sept. 22.—It is stated on the best authority that the Legislature of the province will be summoned for business on the 25th of October.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Sept. 22, 1894.

THE FARMERS' MARKET—On the street 500 bushels of wheat sold at 54c for white and 53c for red; 200 of barley at 42½ to 43c; one load of blackeye peas at 60½c, and 1,500 oats at 31 1-2 to 32c.

Wheat was lower in Chicago on large receipts and lack of elevator room, closing half cent lower for cash, with December unchanged. May corn lost ½c and cash 1-2c on the day for similar reasons. Oats declined 1-4c to 1-2c.

At East Buffalo all sheep and lambs were sold at Thursday's prices.

At East Liberty the sheep supply was fair; demand fair; extra, $3.30 to $3.50; good, $2.80 to $3.10; fair, $1.80 to $2.25; common, 50c to $1; yearlings, $1.50 to $3.50; lambs, $2.25 to $4.

The London stock markets were dull, closing a trifle better. The continued absence of sunshine is a really depressing factor. Americans were the best, closing firm with a further rise in Louisville.

The New York stock market was irregular. Its opening tone was firm, and in some stocks even in the Grangers, there were advances. At the close weakness was general.

A DISAPPOINTED MAN.

Thought he Was Going to Die Before Summer Was Out But He's Alive and Well and Working To-day.

Somerset, Man., Sept. 17th,—"Hard times" is the cry from farmers in this country. Arthur Coley, a farmer living near here, has had double reason to cry "hard times," for eight months ago he lay on his back in bed, a victim of Bright's Disease. He acknowledges that he expected to be dead before the end of the summer, but his expectations have been most pleasantly disappointed, and all summer he has worked on his farm just as though he had never known a day's illness. Last spring he began taking Dodd's Kidney Pills and a few boxes completely cured him, as they have every other victim of this disease, who have used them.

Dyspepsia arises from wrong action of the stomach, liver and bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters cures Dyspepsia and all diseases arising from it. 99 times in 100.

ADDRESS—McGILL COLLEGE.

Mrs. J. H. HORSNYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:

"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

Began to Grow,

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfulls. I used two bottles of and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."—Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1460 Regina st., Harrisburg, Pa.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years and always obtained satisfactory results. I know it is the best preparation for the hair that is made."—C. T. Arnett, Mammoth Spring, Ark.

BOWMANVILLE'S CENTENNIAL.

Anniversary of the Settlement of West Durham Celebrated With Enthusiasm.

BOWMANVILLE, Ont., Sept. 22.—The first day of the centennial celebration in connection with the first settlement of West Durham by the Burks, Trulls and Connants in 1794 was a decided success. The old settlers now living have entered with great zest into the spirit of the movement and the interest is heightened by the exhibition of old relics, the history of many of which was associated with the domestic life and character of the first settlers.

This country was settled chiefly by emigrants from Devon and Cornwall, in England, the Highlands of Scotland and the north of Ireland.

Among the very old residents taking part in this event, some of whom were the original occupants of the forest farms, are the following: Messrs. James McClellan, David Fisher, George Haines, P.M., James and Samuel Heal, William McGill, W. Pethick, Jonathan Stephens, Colonel F. Cubitt, Abram Young, W. Law, Mark Pront, Chas. Honey, Levi Vancamp, H.W. Burk, ex-M. P., Richard Windatt, S. Washington, Jacob Neads, Samuel Vanstone, John Frank, Calvin Tyler, E. G. Power, Jesse Trull, W. Bowman, Cyrus Munson, John Allin, John Chaplin, W. Foley, S. Snowden, Hector Beith and many others.

The presence of Hon. Edward Blake, who represented West Durham so many years, gives an added interest to the proceeding. Mrs. Blake accompanies him.

After the formal opening of the exhibition, the celebration being held in connection with the West Durham Agricultural Society's fall fair, the citizens and visitors repaired to the new music hall, where a first class musical programme was rendered by some of the descendants of the old families and very superior local talent it proved.

A fine speech on the early settlers was made by Mr. Jas. McFeeters, the first mayor of Bowmanville, and on the history of Bowmanville and vicinity by Mr. J. B. Fairbairn, son of the first postmaster and present occupant of that office. This address was rich in local incidents and well sprinkled with mirthful pastimes of old settlers.

Hon. E. Blake responded to loud calls with a very happy ten minutes' speech on his recollections of pioneer life. Colonel Cubitt, likewise by request, made a brief speech.

The programme will be continued today, when the Lieut. Governor, Hon. John Dryden, Dr. John Hoskin and other prominent men will take an active part.

Trade in the Dominion.

TORONTO, Sept. 22.—General trade is less active here than last week, due to demands for fall stock having being satisfied. General trade at Montreal is fairly steady in tone and prices of most staples are stronger. At Quebec shoe factories have been running on reduced time. Trade is unchanged at Halifax, but throughout Nova Scotia the fruit crop is satisfactory and the hay crop exceptionally good. Bank clearings at Toronto, Hamilton, Montreal and Halifax amount to $18,908,000, a falling off of more than 5 per cent. from last week, but an increase of nearly 4 per cent. from the week a year ago. There were 43 business failures reported from the Dominion of Canada this week against 38 last week, 47 in the week a year ago, 27 two years ago and 34 three years ago.

A Brantford Burglar's Record.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Sept. 22.—At police court yesterday there were five charges brought against Joe Gillies, the burglar. First, that on the sixteenth of September he broke into the residence of Alfred Kendrick, on the Jerseyville road, and stole a work box, two gold rings and a pocket book containing $16.64. Second, that of breaking into the residence of Elias Churchill on August 10th, stealing rare coins and other articles. Third, that of breaking into the residence of Herbert Roy, stealing a gold watch. Fourth, breaking into Tranquility public school and stealing rare coins. Fifth, that of assaulting policemen Adams when in the discharge of his lawful duty. The prisoner pleaded not guilty to the five charges and elected to be tried by jury.

Electricians Elect Officers.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—The Canadian Electrical Convention, which has been in session here for several days, closed its proceedings yesterday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. K. Dunstan, Toronto; 1st Vice-President, A. B. Smith, Toronto; 2nd Vice-President, W. B. Powell, Montreal; Secretary-Treasurer, C. H. Mortimer, Toronto. Executive Committee—Geo. Black, Hamilton; F. C. Breithaupt, Berlin; W. B. McFarlane, Montreal; T. R. Rosebury, Toronto; John Yuile, Guelph; J. J. Wright, Toronto; D. A. Starr, Montreal; Higman, Ottawa; Taylor, Peterborough. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Ottawa, the date of meeting to be left to the executive committee.

Archbishop Fabre Remains Firm.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—The rumor that is being circulated to the effect that the case of the Canada Revue Publishing Co. v. Archbishop Fabre, now en delibere before Mr. Justice Doherty, is to be settled by means of concessions on the part of the Archbishop, was emphatically denied by one of his Grace's legal advisers yesterday. His Grace will only agree to a settlement on the unconditional submission of the publishers of the Canada Revue and the withdrawal of their action.

Will Hold Meetings Semi-Annually.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 22.—The members of the executive committee appointed at the deep waterways convention met again yesterday morning in private, and adopted provisional rules for the association, which however, are not definitely shaped. It was decided that the convention should meet again in December next, the place to be decided hereafter. The executive board will meet again in Chicago on Oct. 15.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

CANADIANS WERE INDIGNANT

At the Speech Delivered by Senator Higgins at Ogdensburg.

OGDENSBURG, Sept. 22.—Speaking here yesterday Senator Higgins, of Delaware, said:

"I have accepted your invitation here to-day to discuss the subject of our relations with our neighbors in Canada; not only these relations, but also the interests of the people both of Canada and the United States and especially those of you who live along the northern border and engage in agricultural pursuits, and have been actually affected by the recent tariff legislation of the American Congress."

Mr. Higgins referred to the advantages enjoyed by the Canadian farmer over the farmers of the eastern part of the United States by reason of more fertile soil, lower wages, etc., the differences arising out of the agreement of the treaty of Washington, the seal fisheries and the encroachments of Canadian railways upon the internal-carrying trade of the United States.

He said no people can be assured of the stability of any prosperity that rests upon the vicissitudes of the legislation of a foreign government, and Canada can have no assurance that the American legislation of 1894 will stand more than four years longer.

In fact, only in continental unity, in the union of the people of Canada with the people of the United States, as equal states under our federal constitution can Canada be assured of the right to full share in our markets, and only by continental unity can all the outstanding differences and troubles be settled that arise inevitably out of the continent being divided as it now is.

In conclusion he said: "Four years of war, a half million of precious lives, two millions of lives maimed by wounds or disease, and 8,000,000,000 of dollars was the price we paid, and freely paid, that a strong power, both military and civil, should not be established on the south of the American union. Such a power cannot grow up on our north and not ultimately bring war and not proximately bring preparation for war.

"For Canada, as a nation of 5,000,000 people, we have a feeling of neighborly amiability and indifference. For Canada as a nation of 20,000,000 or 50,000,000, backed by the power and interlaced in interest with the British empire, we have, to say the least, very different feeling.

"The deceitful delusion held out by the lowered duties of the recent tariff act will not betray Canadians into the hope that, while remaining a separate people, they will have free access to our markets, whether for field, forest or mine. Both peoples will realize that all bickerings between them should cease, and that the great schism in feeling between the two branches of the English-speaking race will be healed when they shall be left to work out their destiny up on the continent, free from entanglement with the interests, the influences or the conflicts of Europe.

"Then, however, war may rage elsewhere, this continent, Canadian and American alike, will forever enjoy the blessings of prosperity and peace."

The Canadians who listened to the speech of Senator Higgins went home filled with indignation. They re-acted his imputation that they maintained their allegiance to Great Britain at the expense of their prosperity. His representation that Canadian prosperity could only be secured by continental unity also roused resentment.

Pierced by a Sword Fish.

HALIFAX, Sept. 22.—The steamer Elliott, which has been plying between Charlottetown and Boston, has been leaking of late. Every effort was made to find the leak but without success. It was decided to place the vessel on the marine railway at Pictou and have Captain Hill hold a survey. This was done, and what looked like the top of a bolt was seen protruding from the steamer's side below the water line. The ship had been struck by a sword fish and nine inches of the sword was imbedded in the side. A piece of the sword went through five inches of spruce plank and three inches of birch.

Charged With a Serious Offence.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 22.—Charles Simpson was arrested in Detroit by Detectives Searle and Wolff and brought to Windsor. Yesterday he was taken to Chatham to answer to the charge of criminally assaulting a 14-year-old colored girl at that place about a year ago.

East Huron Liberals.

BRUSSELS, Ont., Sept. 22.—Yesterday the Liberals of the East Riding of Huron met in the town hall in this place to nominate a standard-bearer for the next Dominion election. Dr. McDonald, the present member, was unanimously chosen.

Barns and Crops Destroyed.

MARKHAM, Ont., Sept. 22.—George Hoacke's barns were burned to the ground yesterday. The fire was started by the explosion of a lantern. Hoacke will lose the season's crop; insurance, $800 on buildings, $1,500 on contents.

Blew Open a Foundry Safe.

PORT HOPE, Sept. 22.—The office of J. H. Helm's foundry was entered by burglars and the safe blown open. Four dollars was the amount they got for their trouble. The door was completely blown off the safe.

Killed by a Cave In.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Sept. 22.—A clay pit at Gayhead, in which six or eight laborers were employed, caved in yesterday killing George Swain. The others escaped uninjured.

NO MORE SCIATICA.

Valentine Fisher is Cured of His Troubles to Have no Return—He is Doing a Flourishing Fruit Tree Business.

COLLINGWOOD, Sept. 10.—About a year ago a telegraphic despatch from here told how Valentine Fisher, who had suffered for years from sciatica, and who was so crippled by the disease as to be unable to work and was generally thought at death's door, was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. That the story was no fiction was known by all citizens of this place. That the cure is a permanent one is now just as generally known, for since his recovery, Mr. Fisher has been hard at work selling fruit trees for Chase Bros., of Rochester, N.Y., and has travelled the whole of this section for this firm with most gratifying success

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

ON FIRE WITH ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferings of Little Baby. Seven Doctors and two Hospitals Fail. Cured by Cuticura.

My baby boy, 5 months old, broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense; the eczema spread to his limbs, breast, face, and head, until he was nearly covered; his tortured agonies were pitiable to behold; he had no peace and but little rest night or day. He was under treatment at different times at two hospitals and by seven doctors in this city without the least benefit; every prescription of the doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $3 per week for medicines, and was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his sufferings were eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved and in nine weeks was entirely cured, and has now as clear a skin and is as fair a boy as any mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Humor.

CUTICURA WORKS WONDERS

Babies on fire, babies burning up, babies in agony from torturing and disfiguring, itching and burning, skin and scalp diseases. None but mothers realize how they suffer. To know that a single application of the CUTICURA REMEDIES will afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure, and not to use them is to fail in your duty. Think of the years of suffering entailed by such neglect. Cures made in childhood are speedy and economical.

Like Lightning.

The rapid action of the "great pain cure," Polson's Nerviline, in relieving the most intense pain, is a matter of wonder to all who use it. There is nothing surprising in its results, for it is made of the strongest, purest and most efficient remedies known in medicine. Nerviline cures toothache instantly; cramps in five minutes; neuralgia after two applications; rheumatism is at once relieved by its use; and the same may be said of all kinds of pain. Sample bottles, costing only 10 cents, at any drug store. The large bottles only 25 cents. Polson's Nerviline sold by druggists and country dealers.

Wide Awake Soap is a solid bar of pure soap that will not vanish like snow in hot water. Try it.

ARE WE LIVING ON TOP OF A GAS TANK?

A Bradford Natural Gas Expert Thinks so—Willing to Back His Belief by his Money.

Mr. Wm. Ferguson, of Bradford, Pa., has been visiting in Peterborough for the past few days. In Bradford, he is and has been for over 25 years engaged in the oil and gas industry of that city and vicinity, and has consequently become an expert. About four years ago, Mr. Ferguson was visiting in the town and his observations led him to the belief of there being natural gas underlying this town and vicinity. During his present visit, hearing of the indications of natural gas reported at Jermyn, in Otonabee, when a year or two ago, a feeble attempt was made to sink a well, Mr. Ferguson investigated the matter. He found that Mr. Pullin had only gone about sixty feet down with his well, but there are the strongest indications to Mr. Ferguson's practiced eye, that if he had gone the usual depth he would have encountered natural gas and in paying quantities. The average depth of the wells in Pennsylvania are about 1,700 feet, and as Mr. Pullin had only penetrated the crust of mother earth to a depth of 60 feet, he could hardly expect to strike a "gusher." During his stay in town, Mr. Ferguson has looked over the place pretty thoroughly in a prospecting way. He sees indications that there is natural gas underlying the town and thinks that the old Smith property, situated between Charlotte and King streets, is the most promising place to sink a shaft to the underlying collection of gas which Mr. Ferguson firmly believes is there. So substantial is his belief that he has made inquiries and towards the formation of a company for operating the sinking of a well, and there is reason to believe that he will be successful. His success in this direction is all the more probable from the fact that Mr. Ferguson is willing to show his faith by his works—by investing his own good money liberally in the enterprise. A well can be put down a distance of from 1500 to 2000 feet at a cost of a little over a dollar a foot. Action is being taken in regard to the formation of a company, and Mr. Ferguson will venture a considerable sum upon his faith in it—the probability that gas can be reached in paying quantities. A few days may furnish important developments. The advantages that would accrue to the town from striking natural gas in paying quantities are obvious. The uses of natural gas are numerous. In addition to the use of gas for light and fuel, it can be employed largely in manufacturing. If, as at Port Colborne, natural gas can be and is used to furnish the intense heat required for the manufacture of glass, why could it not be applied to the operation of smelting works? We have the iron ore close at hand—the terminus of some of our northern railways being ballasted with iron ore, and with natural gas in sufficient quantities, the question of smelting works would be solved, with natural gas. Smelting works and the Trent Valley Canal are coming at once. We should experience something very like a boom that would make us think that we had struck the commercial millenium.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Young men's rally on Saturday evening at 8 p.m. Good live meeting. Come and spend an hour with us. Meeting will be addressed by Mr. F. A. Briscoe, late secretary of the Y. M. C. A., London, Ont. Young man, come and bring a friend with you.

Gospel and Song Service on Sunday evening at 8.30 will be addressed by Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's church. All are welcome.

Riding to Save a Life.

A Georgia newspaper gave an account of the heroism of John Potter, a ten year old boy who rode a horse twelve miles to Macon for the purpose of calling a physician to attend his mother, who was believed to be dying with colic. The doctor could not be found, but a kind druggist gave the lad a bottle of medicine and ordered him to hurry home. The brave lad rode home, delivered the medicine, and then fainted from nervous exhaustion. The medicine cured the sick woman, and the boy as well. It is only necessary to say that the precious medicine was Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER, which never fails to cure disorders of the stomach. 25c. old popular price, for New Big Bottle

WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th.

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

LOSS OF THE KOW SHING

Captain Galesworthy Arrives in Canada from the Orient.

HIS STORY OF THE AFFAIR

The Europeans on Board Were Threatened With Death if They Surrendered to the Naniwa—The Captain Was Exonerated by the Court.

VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 24.—Among the passengers who arrived here last night from the orient per steamship Victoria was Capt. Thomas Rider Galesworthy who was in command of the Chinese troopship Kow Shing which was last month fired into and sunk by the Japanese cruiser Naniwa.

The sinking of the Kow Shing occurred, it will be remembered, shortly after the declaration of actual hostilities between China and Japan. She was an English steamer specially chartered by the Chinese Government to carry a force of 1,100 odd soldiers to Corea and was borne down upon by the Naniwa, flying the British flag, having left Shanghai before the war had been really declared. Her sinking by the Japanese came very near involving England in the orient trouble.

Capt. Galesworthy is on his way to England, having been ordered to report in person to the British Admiralty. To a reporter he said:

"We were flying the British merchant ensign when sighted by the Naniwa. It was 8.30 a.m. of July 25 that the Japanese cruiser signalled us. We were instructed to anchor forthwith, and did so. The Naniwa's captain sent a boat and we were boarded by the Japanese officer in charge, who first examined my papers and asked if the Kow Shing would follow him as a prize. I replied that I would not unless compelled, and then under protest, as I thought the law of nations permitted me under the circumstances to return to the port from which I sailed. The Naniwa's boats then pulled off. The Chinese troops on board our vessel were in command of two generals, who, as soon as the Japanese boat had left us, threatened to murder us if we surrendered. I then signalled to the Naniwa that our lives were in danger if we gave up our ship.

"The Naniwa's small boat returned about this time, but the Chinese soldiers were already in possession of our gangway and their swords were drawn. Had not Col. Von Hannikwi, of the German army, who was a passenger on board our vessel, intervened the Chinese would have murdered the five white men on board the Kow Shing, as well as the lieutenant in charge of the Naniwa's small boat. I was again asked by the Naniwa if I would go in her company, and again insisted that I had a right to return to Taku. The Japanese lieutenant again left us, saying that he would report to his captain what I had said. A few minutes later the Naniwa signalled "Quit the ship immediately." I answered by signalling "We are not alone; send a boat." The Japanese cruiser replied, "Boat cannot come."

"The Kow Shing and Naniwa held no other communication. The former steamed at once abreast of us and discharged a torpedo. That took no effect and then she swung a broadside of five guns. They kept on firing with big guns and Nordenfelds until the Kow Shing went down. At this time the Chinese generals were imploring their men not to surrender as the Naniwa had only 450 men while we numbered nearly three times as many; that if any of the five white men among us made the slightest movement towards surrendering the Kow Shing they would run us through without mercy. I was on the boat when the final signal to quit the Kow Shing was made but during the second broadside of the Maniwa's big guns I jumped into the water and was rescued by one of the Naniwa's boats about 300 yards from where our ship went under. Before the Kow Shing went down a shell exploded in the boiler, making a fearful din which rose above the general firing. The water after our vessel sunk was, for a time, full of Chinese soldiers who discharged their rifles at each other, preferring this death to falling into the hands of the enemy. The men on the Kow Shing gave no provocation until after the Naniwa had first opened fire.

Captain Galesworthy was completely exonerated by the naval board called to inquire into the Kow Shing's sinking, being complimented for great judgment and coolness displayed under trying circumstances.

Drowning at Parry Sound.

PARRY SOUND, Ont., Sept. 24.—Hugh Whitley, a young mechanic who arrived here lately from Belfast, Ireland, was drowned on Friday night. On account of the intense darkness he walked off the wharf into about 14 feet of water and was not recovered till life was extinct. A coroner's inquest was held when a verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.

Buchanan Gets Five Years.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 24.—The case against Buchanan for criminal assault upon the person of Maggie Patterson on July 29 was concluded on Saturday and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. The judge sentenced Buchanan to five years at Kingston.

A Hotel Artist Sandbagged.

DENVER, Sept. 24.—Paul Revere Forbes, the artist, who spends most of his time in Paris, was sandbagged here and robbed of his gold watch and money. He is not seriously hurt.

DEATH IN ITS TRACK

Iowa and Minnesota Swept by a Terrific Cyclone.

SEVENTY-FIVE LIVES LOST

A Large Number of Fatalities Reported From Different Districts in the Two States—A Whole Village Destroyed and Much Damage Done.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Sept. 24.—The cyclone which wrought death and destruction over such a wide and extended territory on Friday night started a few miles west of Emmettsburg, in Palo Alto county. In Iowa it went through the counties of Kossuck, Hancock, Winnebago, Cerro Gordo, Worth, Floyd, Mitchell, Chickasaw and Howard. Leaving Iowa it went through the counties of Moyer, Fillmore and Winona, Minnesota. In all of these counties serious damage is reported. The towns through which the cyclone passed after leaving Emmettsburg so far as reported are Ellington, Burge, Hayfield, Newton, Tomkins, Buffalo, Ruthven, Osage, Algona, Cresco, Burt, Plum Creek and Lowther in Iowa, and Waseca, Leroy, Springvalley and Homer, Minnesota. While the damage through these places is very great, it is light in comparison with that done throughout the country districts. The loss of life is estimated to be in the neighborhood of 75 persons.

ALGONA, Ia., Sept. 24.—Twenty six persons are reported killed in Kossuth county and 39 injured, some fatally, while the greater part of the town of Cylinder, 20 miles west, was badly damaged by a storm which swept over this section of the country. North of Cylinder, the family of Alix Goulden, four in number, was killed. At Whittemore, ten miles west of here, Robert Stephenson was killed and his wife fatally hurt. Nearly a score of people sought refuge in a house on the Durant place. All were more or less hurt and one woman will die. Near here Carl Derrick was injured and his wife fatally hurt.

One of Charles Lees' children is dead and Mrs. Lee is badly injured. George W. Beaver, living three miles north of Algona, had just gone home from the fair and entered the house with his wife and two children and an adopted boy, when the cyclone struck the house and demolished it. Beaver had the baby in his arms and with it he made his way north to the house of Christian Dan, his father-in-law, for aid. His wife was just dying when he returned and his little girl soon after expired.

Myron Schneck, wife and child, were carried 100 feet, and when found were lying on a heavy oak beam. Both were hurt, and Mrs. Schenck was unconscious. Horace Schenck, Myron's father, was covered up with a pile of lumber. His condition is serious, as he is 73 years of age. East of the river in Plum Creek township the house of George Holman was carried thirty rods, and dropped with such force as to wreck it. In it were Mr. Holman and wife and six children. One of the children was killed and four were injured, and Holman seriously hurt. An old man named Dingman, who lived a mile north of Holman's place, was killed, and seven more were killed north-east of Holman's. Orders are coming into local undertakers for coffins. A relief committee has been organized.

ELMA, Iowa, Sept. 24.—The town of Lowther, located three miles north of this city, which was unfortunate enough to be in the path of the cyclone, is now a mass of bent timbers and splinters. The damage done to Lowther and vicinity will exceed $100,000. A severe wind and rain storm struck Oelwein and gradually grew worse, when without warning those able to regain consciousness found themselves in corn fields or the open prairie. The width of the storm is estimated at half a mile and its course due east and west. It is reported that the village of New Haven, eight miles west of here, was entirely destroyed and several killed and wounded, but the report cannot be confirmed.

The presence of mind of Peter Brown, a farmer near Oelwein, undoubtedly saved many lives. Mr. Brown, awakening while the storm was raging and not knowing where to look for assistance, happened to think of the Chicago and Great Western train due about 10.30 p.m., and as the storm had somewhat abated he immediately started for the depot. On his arrival at the depot he found nothing but bent irons and timbers, the main track being literally covered with the remains of the depot and an elevator. He flagged the train, which arrived in a few minutes, and after an hour's work the track was cleared.

SPRINGVALLEY, Minn., Sept. 24.—Springvalley was struck by the cyclone, wrecking the residential portion of the city. The killed are Nehemiah Dodge, Mrs. Nehemiah Dodge, Frank Moshoz's child and C. C. King. Mrs. Hopefol is fatally injured and many others received serious hurts. Twenty buildings were totally destroyed and many others badly damaged. It is impossible to estimate the damage done.

CRAGE, Ia., Sept. 24.—Five persons were killed by the cyclone which passed five miles north of here on Friday night. Many persons were hurt and will probably die.

MASONCITY, Ia., Sept. 24.—A terrible cyclone burst upon North Cero Gorodo. The cyclone was awful in its suddenness and intensity and complete in its work of destruction. Four are dead and two fatally injured.

At Hayfield many houses were carried away and several people were killed and many wounded. In Bingen township, Hancock county, five people are reported killed. In Newton township one woman was killed and thousands of dollars' worth of property was destroyed. A message from Tompkins, calling for medical aid, states that several people were killed at that place. Later reports from Buffalo township state that seven people lost their lives. A number of others were severely wounded. In Bingen township, Hancock county, five people are reported killed.

Fatally Shot His Father.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 24.—Henry Frost was soon to marry, but his father threatened to cut him off from the family property and finally ordered him to quit the premises. Young Frost shot and fatally wounded his father and endeavored to murder a younger brother who interfered on behalf of the parents. Frost escaped.

DEATH IN A FIRE.

The Batt House, of Port Stanley, Burned to the Ground.

PORT STANLEY, Ont., Sept. 24.—The Batt house caught fire yesterday. The fire quickly spread throughout the house, the inmates of which all escaped in their night clothes with the exception of the porter, a young lad named John Dinneby, of Detroit. He appears to have been suffocated with smoke, as the trunk of the body was found wrapped in the blankets of his bed.

The fire soon spread to the barns and stables, and two horses were burned before they could be rescued. Alexander Brown's new barn, on the north, and M. Payne's frame house, on the south side of the hotel, were also burned to the ground.

An inquest will be held by Coroner Gustin, of St. Thomas.

Disappeared from Montreal.

MONTREAL, Sept. 24.—A small sized sensation has been caused amongst a number of leading business people by the mysterious disappearance of E. A. Benjamin, a well-known business man and social favorite. A couple of weeks ago Mr. Benjamin left on a business trip to Quebec whence he went to New York. There he met with his brother with whom he dined on the 11th, and then left for the station to return to Montreal. Since then not a word has been heard of him, and his whereabouts is a complete mystery. His friends expecting him back in Montreal and hearing nothing about him became alarmed, and have put the case in the hands of the detectives. His friends claim there is no reason why he should leave town as they say he was doing well.

Highway Robbery Near Chatham.

CHATHAM, Ont., Sept. 24.—While a farmer named Bevins was returning home to his farm in Raleigh, he was stopped by two colored men who choked him into insensibility and robbed him of $14 and some provisions. On regaining his senses he returned to Chatham and laid information which resulted in the arrest of Jesse Freeman, a cousin of the Freeman brothers now in the penitentiary for the murder of Policeman Rankin, over a year ago. The police are after the other man, said to be Duncan Vincent.

Abraham Weil Discharged.

HAMILTON, Ont., Sept. 24.—Abraham Weil, the alleged embezzler of Cincinnati, was brought before the county judge on Saturday and charged with stealing $3,223 from Mrs. Gottfried in Cincinnati on October 27. Crown Attorney Crerar said he had no evidence to offer, as the private prosecutor had received her money back and refused to come here to testify. Weil was discharged, and left for the west yesterday accompanied by his wife.

A Contemptible Trick.

MONTREAL, Sept. 24.—A private letter received from Rome in the city states that somebody has played a scandalous joke on the Roman authorities by sending a forged cablegram from Canada announcing the death of Cardinal Taschereau. As the cardinal was well known in Rome a service was held to his memory, at which the Pope was present. His holiness also sent his condolence to Canada when the truth became known.

Stave Factory and Dwelling Burned.

FLETCHER, Ont., Sept. 24.—Fire broke out yesterday at Stewart, a village about four miles south of here, consuming a stave and hoop mill owned by Smith Bros. and a house occupied by Jos. Sovey. Furniture was saved. Loss is estimated at $6,000, with $3,000 insurance.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1894.

THE PATRON M. P. P'S.

The Patron members of the Ontario Legislature met in session, at Toronto, last week, to consider their course in the Legislature. All members were present except Mr. Pardo, of Kent, who was engaged at court. Following is the report of the meeting as given out for publication :

Mr. Joseph L. Haycock, M. P. P. for Frontenac, was unanimously chosen leader, amidst the greatest enthusiasm, and Mr. John Senn, M. P. P. for Haldimand, was selected to perform the duties of secretary.

It was unanimously resolved that the united influence of the Patron party be used during the coming session to secure legislation as indicated by the following resolutions :—

Resolved, that there be an enactment to render it a violation of the independence of parliament to accept a pass from any railway, steamboat or other transportation company.

Resolved, that the payment of any sum for the Lieut.-Governor's clerk hire or servants' fees by the Ontario Government, or for the furnishing of a free residence or supplies of any kind to that official, be hereafter prohibited by legislation.

Resolved, that beyond the salary attached to any office there should be no allowance or gratuity to any employee of the government for living expenses, or for any other purpose.

Resolved, that, while we approve of the principle of the payment by fees, the amount retained by officials should be fixed at a fair remuneration for the services rendered, and that the balance of fees be paid into the treasury of the municipality and treated as general revenue.

Resolved, that a bill should be passed in accordance with plank number seven of the Patron's platform ; that the existing system of inspection of county offices be continued ; that office be held during efficiency and good behaviour, and that, where incompetency or irregularities exist in any office, the inspector shall lay his complaint before a non-partizan tribunal to be specified in the act.

Resolved, that clause sixteen of the medical act be repealed, and that the power of the medical council to annul the certificate of any physician regularly authorised by the faculty of any duly chartered college to practise medicine be abrogated and that all charges of fraud or wrong-doing made against any medical man shall be tried by the ordinary courts on the same principles and under the same procedure as applies to criminal acts committed by others ; also that all enactments conferring special privileges upon the legal fraternity be repealed.

The following resolution was passed by a standing vote of all the members :—

Resolved, that we pledge ourselves to vote and act unitedly on all questions declared by the majority of the Patron members to be Patron questions, and we hereby declare our determination to resist all attempts at coalition or affiliation with either of the existing political parties.

Plank number seven, says the Welland Tribune, referred to relates to the reduction of the number of members composing grand juries. Mr. Mowat has already announced his intention of leaving the question of maintaining the Lieutenant-Governor's residence an open one for parliament to deal with. No pronouncement is made with respect to the election or appointment of officials, and it may be noted that the course already pursued of payment by fees is endorsed. On the whole there is nothing in the platform that need for a moment embarass or prove dangerous to the Mowat Government. Mr. Haycock, the leader elect of the Patron contingent in the legislature, is himself a prounced Liberal, until recently holding the position of vice-president of the Reform Association of the county of Frontenac.

It is suggestive that the Empire publishes the report as above without a word of comment.

REVISION OF THE LISTS.

In order to correct the error in the first notice regarding the day up to which declarations for the preliminary revision of the Dominion voters' lists are to be received by the revising officers, the Secretary of State has issued a circular letter, pointing out that declarations will be received "up to, but not later than the fifteenth day of October." Some of the officers, however, who overlook the amendment of 1891, are still of the opinion that the last day for receiving declarations is October 1st. This is an error, and Liberals should not be misled by any such construction of the law.

There is also no reason for withholding declarations until the revising officer prepares his list, for two separate lists — one "names to be added and corrections to be made," and the other "names to be removed," — are to be prepared. In preparing both these lists declarations are accepted by the revising officer. These declarations must be submitted by the 15th of October next.

Important as it may appear to add names, it is still more so to have all "colonisers" and others not properly qualified struck off. Declarations requesting this can be submitted on the preliminary revision, and all income voters, whether on the old lists or not, must apply to be put on the new, before their names appear on the lists now being made up.

Children Who Suffer

from scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, ought to be given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. For children who are puny, pale or weak, the "Discovery" is a tonic which builds up both flesh and strength. What is said of it for children applies equally to adults. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, and other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, as Dyspepsia and Biliousness, if it doesn't cure in every case, the money is returned.

Dyspepsia causes Dizziness, Headache, Constipation, Variable Appetite, Rising and Souring of Food, Palpitation of the Heart, Distress after Eating. Burdock Blood Bitters is guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia if faithfully used according to directions.

A by-law in accordance with the above estimates and and rates was passed. On motion the collectors bonds was accepted and approved, and the following accounts passed :—Robert Jackson, cedar, $2.16 ; Wm. Porter, gravel, $11.16 ; Patrick Roach digging grave for late O. McGowan, $2, and W. T. Mather, coffin, $9 ; David Crowley, gravel, $11.50 ; Wm. Carter, gravel, $10.68; Edwin Howson, gravel, $3.65 ; R. Devlin, $20, for right of way and erecting a snow-fence on North Peterborough road, lot 29, con. 7 ; John Graham, gravel and damages $9 ; Wm. Manly, damages drawing gravel, $2 ; Robert Evans, gravel, $4.83 ; Archibald McIntyre, cedar, $2.16 ; J. H. H. Pallin, repairing road scraper, 60c. ; J. R. Stratton, printing, $30. But the big feature of the meeting was the presence of about twenty petitioners requesting the council under the Drainage Act, 1894, to have a ditch constructed, or rather part ditch and part the natural creek straightened and deepened. The estimated length is seven miles, and the estimated cost by some at $1500, and others away up into the thousands, commencing at the tenth concession east of Joseph Redmond's, who is one of the chief advocates of the scheme, and is noted as being far in advance of the majority of farmers in ditching and draining, thence running through the farms of Messrs. Scollie, Crowley, Bennett, Coombs, Deyell, Reid, Geo. Stewart, Matchett. Handbidge and others, emptying into the Otonabee river. The township would have to issue debentures extending the payment over a number of years, the parties deriving benefit from it to pay in proportion. There would be direct benefit and an outlet benefit to those running covered or open drains into it ; also an injuring liability to those whose lands it might injure, as the Ditches and Water Courses Act provides for drainage not to exceed $1,000.00, and as this ditch would exceed that amount, therefore, it will require to be done under the drainage act, which requires the appointment of a surveyor or engineer, (some of the parties got alarmed at the probable cost of an engineer, having had experience in that line a few years ago) for taking the levels, apportioning the work or cost to each and superintending. After considerable talk and consultation, they came to the conclusion to have George Stewart and James Wilson, township engineer, under ditches and water courses Act, to go over the course, with a view for the parties interested doing the work themselves.

Council adjourned to 15th of October.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability ?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability ; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance :

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them ; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says : "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay ; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached ; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability ; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

GLADSTONE AND LOCAL OPTION

As a Remedy for the Evils of Drinking—He Says It is a Failure.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Mr. Gladstone, in reply to a request for his views as to the proper method of dealing with the House of Lords, declines to express an opinion upon the subject because of his retirement from the leadership of his party. At about the same time, however, the ex-Premier has thrown a bombshell into the midst of the strongest group of followers by addressing a letter to the Bishop of Chester, against local option. In this letter Mr. Gladstone declare. that if local option pretends to be a remedy for evils for drinking it is little better than an imposture. The principles of the Gothenburg system he maintains to be the only one permissible or at all tenable and to the great amusement of both the Gladstonians and the Conservatives, adds that for long years he has been strongly of this opinion. The temperance party in Great Britain has been highly scandalized by this declaration, and their organ recalls the fact that when Mr. Gladstone last came into power it was largely in consequence of his having repeatedly pledged himself to secure the passage of a local option measure. Consequently during his encumbency of the premiership he approved the bill, and did not say a word in reference to the Gothenberg system. Since Mr. Gladstone's retirement Sir Wm. Harcourt, who is his successor in the leadership of the party, has renewed the pledges made, absolutely and unqualifiedly committing the Government to the introduction of a local option bill before the dissolution of Parliament.

In the course of his letter to the Bishop of Chester, Mr. Gladstone says: "I am glad to see that Chamberlain actively supports the Gothenburg system."

Sir Wilfred Lawson, M.P., president of the United Kingdom alliance for the suppression of the liquor traffic, protesting against the change of front, says that if the Liberals now depart from the recognized principle of their party and sanction even moderate drinking under the Gothenberg system, it will be the heaviest blow ever dealt to the temperance cause in Great Britain. His party, he declares, will refuse to accept any compromise. The influential British Weekly Review, (dissenting,) in commenting upon the declaration of Mr. Gladstone, says: "To what things are we coming to if Mr. Gladstone has taken the field thuswise against measures of his own cabinet? What does the reference to Mr. Chamberlain mean? It seems certain that the last and most astounding Gladstonian development is yet to be witnessed." This remark refers to a rumor that has been put in circulation that Mr. Gladstone has been advising Lord Rosebery to subordinate Home Rule questions to English social reform and try to come to terms with the unionists in reference to Irish affairs.

Two of the strongest and wealthiest labor organizations in Great Britain—the boilermakers and shipbuilders unions—have issued a joint manifesto denouncing the socialistic tendencies shown by the majority of delegates to the trades union congress recently held at Norwich. The manifesto says in part: "We differ fundamentally with the dreamy ideas advanced. The congress has ceased to represent the unions and has become a gathering of advanced socialists, who, were their ideas to prevail, ultimately result in restricted freedom and diminished resources. Progress would be arrested and in a short time the working classes would be placed in a condition of abject dependence upon the state. Collectivism cannot take the place of individualism, the men can never be absorbed by the crowd. If the shouters at the congress would work more for the unions and less in passing wild resolutions, it would be better for those they represent." This organized movement against socialist wire-pullers is supported by several other unions which wish to follow the old lines, limiting combined action to purely trade matters, as a apart from play.

The Free Labor Association, an organization which has been in existence some years, has suddenly sprung into prominence through the activity displayed by it in its opposition to the socialist members of the congress. The association publishes a report showing that out of 9,736,073 male workingmen in the United Kingdom only 3,109,014 are union members.

Much sensational correspondence appears in the daily newspapears arising from the discovery of a revival of the traffic in girls between the continent and London. It had been supposed that the traffic had been suppressed. The London Times published on Wednesday a story to the effect that a Frankfort girl, who had obtained a situation in London, had been saved from procuration only by accidentally getting the protection of an English lady, who sent her to the German consulate. The enquiries that followed showed that a systematic business of this kind is still carried on. The police are on the track of the persons engaged in the traffic and are actively assisted by agents of the purity society. Regarding the traffic in women in India and China, the purity society has obtained testimony from the sheriff of Singapore that within five years 4,100 girls, some very young, were landed in Singapore for immoral purposes.

A Brave Soldier Remembered.

OMAHA, Sept. 24.—Charles Schartow, of this city, has received an official letter from Emperor William of Germany asking him to visit that country at the Emperor's expense. The letter recalled a day, August 16, 1870, when the Prussian army were battling with the French at Mars la Tour and a mitrailleuse stationed on a hill was pouring shot into the Prussian ranks. Nearly 150 men had fallen under its fire and the invaders must silence the gun or fall back. Volunteers were called for, and 15 men responded. Schartow was one of these and was one of three that returned alive after the gun was captured. Schartow will accept the Emperor's invitation.

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25 cents.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

TO BE HANGED DEC. 14

Joseph Truskey, the Murderer of Constable Lindsay, Sentenced.

WINDSOR, Sept. 24.—Joseph Truskey, who was found guilty of the murder of Constable Lindsay of Tilbury Centre on May 3 last, was sentenced on Saturday to be hanged in Sandwich Jail on December 14. In pronouncing sentence Mr. Justice Robertson told the prisoner that he could hold out no hope of executive clemency, and that he had better lose no time in preparing himself for the fate that awaits him.

This is the first instance in which Mr. Justice Robertson has sentenced a prisoner to death and he followed the fashion of other judges of late in not donning the black cap.

When Truskey was searched before being conveyed to the cells there were found on his person over two plugs of tobacco and a sharp steel instrument.

The discovery staggered the jailer and his assistants. The prisoner had evidently been tampered with in the afternoon, and these articles conveyed to him. As Truskey nearly killed himself when arrested, and as he has several times since been heard to express his determination to defeat justice, the steel instrument could have been given him for no other purpose than that of self-destruction.

Truskey's victim was William Lindsay, a constable of the county. On account of the brutal killing of a horse the prisoner was obliged to pay a fine of $60. It was Constable Lindsay who laid the charge. Up to the time of the murder, the prisoner entertained a feeling of spite against Lindsay. The prisoner time and time again made threats against the life of the constable. Truskey came out of a hotel at Comber on the evening of May 3, and fired three shots at Lindsay, who was about 20 feet away. Truskey then fled from the scene of the crime to his home, four miles away. The next day when the constables went to arrest him, he made for the woods, and when surrounded he fired a shot at his own breast with the same revolver which killed Lindsay.

Nearly a Fatal Accident.

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—What was nearly a horrible accident occurred on Saturday when a motor and trailer jumped the track on the Gerrard street bridge and nearly went over. The motor, No. 378, in charge of Motorman Davis, with trailer 172 attached, was going east at a fast rate down grade. When they got about 30 feet on the bridge they jumped the track and struck the slight iron railing at the side. Only the weight of the trailer kept the motor car from going clean over. As it was it hung ten feet over the side. There were only three passengers in the motor car, and they, with Motorman Davis and L. Duncan, another street railway man, who was beside him, escaped unhurt. The distance from the level of the bridge to the ground below is 40 feet.

Mr. Newsome Acquitted.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Sept. 24.—The grand jury on Saturday failed to find a true bill against Marclay Newsome, the Toronto typewriter agent, whose case was presented for having brought his stenographer, Lillie Flannigan, here under contract. Inspector de Barry is very much annoyed over the outcome of the case.

Mr. Mercier Dying.

MONTREAL, Sept. 24.—Hon. H. Mercier, ex-premier of Quebec, is in a dying condition. He was so low yesterday that the family thought the end had come but he improved slightly towards evening.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all the impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

ROBERT HALL.

A Pronounced Success.

As anticipated, the formal opening of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of weaves march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

A first class passenger coach will be attached for the convenience of those desiring to see the finish of the Central Exhibition races to-morrow afternoon.

A Millinery Event Repeated.

Ladies are reminded that another opportunity is afforded them this week of witnessing the opening display of autumn millinery and mantles at Miss Delaney's store on Tuesday and Wednesday. Special receptions will be held for the convenience of those ladies who have not yet seen our beautiful show rooms. All are heartily welcome. MISS DELANEY. 2c

Board of Trade Meeting To-night.

A special meeting of the Board of Trade will be held to-night, when Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Mr. J. S. Larke, Australian Commissioner, will be present and give interesting addresses. It is important that all members of the board and such of the general public as desiring to attend shall be present as matters of much moment in commercial matters, especially in connection with our cousins on the side of the water, will be treated.

New Livery Stable Firm.

The firm of Nesbitt & Westlake is composed of Mr. R. H. Nesbitt and Mr. T. C. Westlake, the latter being associated with Mr. Nesbitt, who was previously connected with the business. The stables are well-known, and are situated at 13 Chambers street, where an ornamental lantern and a realistic effigy of a horse indicate the site of the establishment. The firm is composed of energetic young men, who will keep a first-class stud of horses for livery purposes, as well as an excellent collection of vehicles of all kinds. Saddle horses a specialty—something as good of their kind as there are in the Dominion. Particular attention is given to the boarding and care of horses. The stables are warm, yet well ventilated, and special pains will be devoted to keeping animals entrusted to the care of the stables, in the best of condition. Dr. Johnston's veterinary office and infirmary are in connection with the stables of the firm. Messrs. Nesbitt & Westlake have already made considerable improvement in the premises, and in the spring will build large additions to their stables and carriage sheds, making them the most complete in the district. The new firm is confidently commended to the public who desire to procure the best of driving turnouts and saddle horses.

Best made, the latest styles and by far the cheapest clothing in Canada at Grafton & Co.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Fair Day.

—No arrests yesterday or to-day.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—Mrs. Cassiday's Millinery Opening will take place on Tuesday next and following days.

—In the police court this morning, the defendant in the hotel larceny case was granted an honourable discharge.

—Members of the Peterborough Rifle Association are requested not to forget the meeting this evening at Dennistoun & Stevenson's office.

—The steamer Beaver, from Gore's Landing, is running special trips this week in connection with our Central Fair. Note the change in time after Oct. 1st.

—Quite an excitement was created in one of the town Sunday schools yesterday when as the result of a teacher deserting her class the pupils picked up their hats and walked out.

—There will be a special meeting of the council this evening at which the awarding of the sewerage tender will be discussed. The special committee on sewerage met Saturday evening and opened the tenders.

—Mr. P. McNamara, bricklayer, has laid nearly 100,000 brick for Mr. Thos. Moore, contractor, this season. Mr. Moore has made a good record in new buildings during the summer, notwithstanding the general slackness in building operations.

—Mr. Wm. Hinchcliffe, was run down by a reckless driver while crossing the street at the Post Office corner to-day at noon. Although the injuries received were not of a serious nature yet they were of such a character as to severly shake Mr. Hinhcliffe up.

—"Moderato," in Toronto Saturday Night, says "that the Beethoven Trio, Messrs. Harry M. Field, piano, H. Klingenfeld, violin, and Rudolf Ruth, 'cello, are actively rehearsing in anticipation of their approaching concert tour, under the management of Mr. H. M. Hirschberg, which will take in all the principal cities and towns in Canada. Their season's work will be inaugurated with an attractive concert of chamber music in Toronto some time in the near future. A combination composed of such talented musicians will undoubtedly meet with unqualified success."

—Owing to low water in the Little Lake the steamer "City of Peterborough" was unable to pull out this morning, the cause being that the five stop logs at locks dam were lifted, they however are being lowered. Thus by the raising of the water several feet both she and the steamer Daisy can leave Ashburnham port for lower Rice Lake, in order to convey passengers and prize produce to the Central Exposition. They will call at all of the principal landing stages along the route. The boats will arrive early to-morrow and will continue running up and down till "after the fair."

—Herr Klingenfield, who appears as violin vertuosi, at the undenominational benefit concert in aid of Mrs. Seward and family in the George street Methodist church, on Friday evening, Sept. 28th, is not only an artist who has studied with remarkable success in Lapzig, the musical centre of the world, winning the distinction of appearing at the Gewandhaus concerts—a privilege accorded to only first-rate artists, but is also a most successful teacher, with a special aptitude for imparting his exceptional knowledge of the violin. One of his numbers will be a solo for the fourth string by Bach with organ accompaniment. Miss Marie Klingenfield, will sing an aria from "Der Freischuts" and an aria from the Passion music of St Mathew by Bach.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Herbert Hall has left to resume his studies at Cornell University.

Miss Violet Dixon, Stewart street, still continues too ill to proceed on her contemplated trip to the Northwest.

Mrs. R. Maitland Roy, Stewart street, is spending a few weeks in Belleville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wragg.

Mr. A. P. Morgan has just returned from Clifton Springs, N.Y., where he spent about three weeks. He expresses himself as being greatly benefitted by the sulphur baths.

Mrs. Thomas Barrie and Mrs. Huntley Elliott, of town, are on an extended visit to their father Mr. W. Brundrette, formerly G.T.R. Station Agent, town, but now at Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Innes arrived home, yesterday morning, from their summer stay in Scotland. They had a delightful trip. Mr. Innes brings the aroma of heather with him and moreover a sprig of heather from his native heath.

Mr. Alf Terrill, city editor of the EXAMINER, who has been invalided for twelve weeks, resumed his duties this morning, and Mr. T. J. Begley, who has satisfactorily filled his place in the interval, has gone to Grafton and vicinity on his holidays.

Mr. G. J. Horkins, after receiving a pressing invitation from the Toronto agency of the American Dunlop Tire Company, has consented to affiliate as one of the six judges at the team race to be held in Toronto on the 29th inst, in competition for the Dunlop Challenge Cup.

Take it Home to Yourselves.

Mothers and fathers, don't you recall in your school days how much better you could write with a long new pencil than an old one?

Were not the problems easier to solve when you figured on a big "pad" you had just purchased?

Did you ever lose the reader, speller, or arithmetic when you had a nice new bag to carry the books in to and from school?

Now, be honest and fix up the children's outfit as though you were young again.

A few cents invested at the stationery department of the Peterborough Bookstore will give the children inspiration for study throughout the term. A. H. STRATTON.

St. Luke's Church Notes.

Miss Peck and Miss Burt have been unanimously re-elected head and secretary respectively, of the Decoration Chapter of St. Luke's Guild, and Miss Maggie Calcutt and Miss Armstrong of the Young Women's Chapter.

A branch of the Women's Auxiliary to Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign Missions has been organized, with Mrs. Bennett as President, Mrs. Gaskins, vice-President, and Mrs. McGregor, secretary-treasurer.

The annual harvest festival, of St. Luke's church, will be held on Thursday evening next, at 8 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Brockridge, of Toronto. The choir are busily engaged in the preparation of the musical part of the service, and the church will be appropriately adorned with offerings of grain, fruit, vegetables and flowers. All seats are free and the public is earnestly invited to attend this service of thanksgiving.

A HEAVY LOSS.

The Warehouse of the Petrolia Oil Company Totally Destroyed by Fire.

The fire brigade were called out at 2.40 o'clock Sunday morning by the alarm being sounded, summoning the members to the warehouse of the Petrolia Oil Company, which by the time the water was turned on, was enveloped in flames. So very fiercely did the fire rage that it could not be gotten under control, therefore the efforts of the firemen were devoted to saving the adjoining buildings owned and occupied by the Central Bridge Company.

As the warehouse, which is situated just north of the C.P.R. bridge, is a fireproof one, and as the fire at first was confined entirely to the inside of the building and its contents, it is thought that the conflagration was either the result of spontaneous combustion or the work of a firebug.

NOT A VESTIGE REMAINS

of the building, and an adjoining boathouse, also owned by the Company, was also burned to the ground.

Some 200 hundred barrels of coal oil were destroyed, as were also about 400 empty barrels. The destruction of these, together with that of the buildings, will run up the loss to about $4,000. The insurance is understood to be small, amounting to about $1,000, but the exact amount is not known at present as it is carried by the company at Petrolia, and not by the local agent Mr. Leslie Fox. The building was erected some two years ago by Mr. Macfarlane Wilson, at a cost of $2000, but was subsequently sold to the company.

The fire was first discovered by Mr. Jas. Blain, of the Palace Restaurant and Mr. Ed. Welsh. They sent in the alarm which was responded to with most commendable alacrity by the brigade. As aforementioned the fire was under too great headway to be checked, but it was confined to the buildings which were already on fire, and by great exertions on the part of the firemen, the premises of the Central Bridge Company were saved, though they certainly looked as though they were doomed more than once. A carload of C.P.R. ties in close proximity, and a number of flat cars were also saved through the exertions of the Brigade.

THE CENTRAL BEGINS.

A Fine Show in All Departments—Far in Excess of any Previous Year—The Inside Exhibition Especially Superior—To-Morrow's Programme.

To-day is the first day of the Central Exhibition, and the indications are that it will be far superior to any in the history of the exhibition. The entries, especially in the matter of horses and cattle, are far in excess of previous years, and the inside exhibition will be much superior to any subsequent exhibition.

The Art Loan Exhibition will be one of the most attractive features of the exhibition.

The judges are at work in the building this afternoon, and the stock is coming in rapidly, and will be stalled by six o'clock this evening.

TO-MORROW'S PROGRAMME.

To-morrow is school children's day. All school children under 14 years of age will be admitted for ten cents.

At 1.30 o'clock the formal opening will be made by Hon. Mackenzie Bowell.

The speeding in the ring and the bicycle races will take place after the formal opening. The former will include the running race and the three minute trot. The track is in splendid condition and the events will be hotly contested.

On the evening of Tuesday the baloon ascension and parachute drop. Trapeze performances, grand fireworks and tug of war. The Fire Brigade band will be present during the day and evening.

WILL THEY MOVE?

Orillia News-Letter.

Peterborough papers last week made the announcement that it was probable that the Tudhope Carriage Co. of Orillia, would move to Peterborough in the near future. A deputation from Peterborough inspected the exhibit of the Tudhope company at the Toronto show, and it is understood overtures were made to have the concern move to Peterborough. A News-Letter representative interviewed Mr. Jas. B. Tudhope about the matter this week, but he declines to say much about it just at present. He intimated, however, that substantial inducements had been offered them by the Peterborough people. It is to be hoped that our town fathers will not permit the Tudhopes to leave Orillia. A concern that pays out $20,000 a year in wages is not to be secured every day, and it must be admitted that up to date the Tudhope company have received no encouragement whatever from the town. Would it not be advisable to have a committee from the council confer with the company in the matter?

JACOB'S ISLAND FIRE.

The Loss $2,500—Visit of the Inspector—A Valuable Vest.

The Inspector of the Western Insurance Company visited the scene of the late fire on Jacob's Island, during the latter part of last week. The loss will amount to about $2,500, the insurance against which was $1,200, which sum has been duly awarded Mr. Galvin.

With the exception of some family clothing, everything in the hotel was lost, Mr. Galvin losing a vest, in the pockets of which were a silver watch with gold chain attached, a pocket book, in which was $70 in bills and a note book containing accounts to the amount of $75.

The origin of the fire is still a mystery, though it is thought that it resulted from a defective chimney. It is the intention to rebuild the hotel at once, in order that it may be opened in the spring.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

THE VERDICT

IN FAVOUR OF

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'.Y

The very large crowds that attended their opening display Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were unanimous in their opinion that as usual they were AWAY AHEAD of all other competitors. Judging from the number of orders taken in Millinery and the number of Jackets sold in the Mantle Department, they feel satisfied that again this season they can say WE LEAD AND OTHERS FOLLOW.

Carpet and Housefurnishing Dep't.

Was the first on the ground floor that attracted the attention of the sightseer on entering this large establishment. The floor of the large Carpet room was divided into three separate compartments separated by handsome Portiers and Curtains, the like of which are only to be found in large city houses. The floor of each compartment was covered with carpet with border to match at prices ranging from 65c. to $1.50. Eiderdown Comforters and Pillows were an attractive part of the display. The Bamboo Easils and Tables which are a new department in this great concern were being bought up rapidly. Any who have not yet seen this grand display will be repaid by calling.

Dress Goods and Silks.

This department was beautifully decorated showing a variety of goods for day an evening wear, the like of which any store might be proud of. Every article marked in plain figures the visitors could at a glance see how very cheap these excellent goods were offered.

Hosiery, Gloves and Laces.

In this department was a beautiful display of Silk Hosiery and Gloves for evening wear. Kid Gloves in profusion. Handkerchiefs in Silk Lawn and Cotton to suit every taste and purse.

Underwear and Corsets.

In this department was a lovely display of children's wear including Infants Embroidered Cashmere Robes, plain and coloured Jersey Flannel Mantelings which were very much admired by every one. A large Linen Lace Quilt shown on a blue Sateen Lining was also very attractive. Pillow Covers and Shams attracted the attention of the ladies. Ladies' Skirts and Silk Shawls occupied a whole table in their display.

Men's Tailoring and Furnishings.

This important department was not behind the others in its display of Suitings, Neckwear, Underwear and Shirts of all kinds, at prices greatly in favour of the buyer.

The Staple Department

Made a lovely display of Art Sateens, Muslins and Cretonnes, and Fancy Linen Goods which is a special department in this establishment.

The "Elevator"

Was decorated with Portiers, &c., making it quite inviting to enter.

The Millinery.

The immense display in this department surpassed anything ever attemped in town. The walls being covered with silk and velvets ornamented by numerous birds, wings, flowers, etc. The Millinery was admitted by every one to be the most stylish and most beautiful in town. The low prices for Hats and Bonnets was the great surprise to every one.

The Mantle and Jackets.

In this department is to be seen the largest stock in this part of the Province, the Jackets shown being mostly 36 to 40 inches in length. Tight waists and coat backs with large lapels, were pronounced by every one to be the only stock in town that were the latest productions. Although the room is full of Jackets and Wraps every garment of this large stock is this season's new goods purchased in July and selected personally by one of the firm who visits Germany twice a year.

The Whole Display

Is certainly a credit to this enterprising firm and very few towns can boast of such an establishment. This display will be on view during exhibition. All cordially invited.

CHURCH CHIMES.

This evening, the temperance meeting in St. Paul's church, which will be conducted by the Y. P. S. C. E., will be addressed by a number of the clergy. The opening services of the series of meetings, which will be continued throughout the week, were began yesterday.

A most interesting temperance lecture, under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E., was delivered yesterday afternoon, in St. Paul's church, by School Inspector Garvin. The subject was handled with the ability for which the Inspector is noted.

Notwithstanding the heavy rain storm a large congregation assembled yesterday morning at St. Andrew's church. The Rev. Mr. MacWilliams took for his text 2 Cor. 5, 1. The subject was most appropriate to the occasion and was full of comfort to the sorrowing ones. In the evening the congregation was especially large, many strangers being present. A striking and eloquent sermon was preached by the pastor from Gen. 42, 36: "All these things are against me." His topic was "The false conclusion." After a brief introduction the speaker said that these words might be regarded, first, as the expression of a parental heart under trying circumstances without the sufficient grace to say, "Thy will be done." Second, as an expression of imperfect knowledge, not seeing that these providences were necessary links in the chain of providence leading to greater glory. Third, as an expression of weak faith, unable to believe that all things work together for good to them that love God." These three propositions were elaborated and applied with much feeling and eloquence to the afflicted families and congregation. Not soon shall these discourses be forgotten by the large congregations present. The efficient and large choir sang in the morning with tenderness and beautiful expression, "I was glad," by Duncan. In the evening the pieces rendered were "Glory to Thee my God this night," by Burley, and at offertory, "Though your sins be as scarlet." St. Andrew's may be proud of their choir.

The pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church occupied his own pulpit morning and evening and although heavy rain fell previous to the hour of service there was a good congregation present. The opening prayer was a fitting preparation for the sermon that followed. After reading the lesson the preacher selected two texts, choosing the first from the book of Exodus 34th chapter and the 29th verse, and the last clause, "Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him." The second text was chosen from Judges 16th chapter and 20th verse, "And he wist not that the Lord had departed from him." The preacher selected the two characters here represented to illustrate how men were to be fitted and qualified to fill the highest destinies God had called them to, pointing out in language plain and forcible that without communion and fellowship with God it was impossible to make the success of life, even here, that God had intended for to do. Moses, the leader of God's chosen people, was portrayed as a man of power who had favour with God and man. The preacher sketched graphically the life of Moses, emphasising where the secret of success lay, namely, in communion with God and showing how natural all the blessings and benefits of God flow to those that love God and serve him. In taking the second text, the preacher said that he did not present Samson as a model to them to follow, although possessing many good qualities, yet sinning so grieviously against the light. He warned his hearers against the seducing influences of the world and, by anecdote and metaphor, he pressed home the lessons to be learned from the example of the subject, presented. The church was crowded in the evening to hear the sermon on "Nobodyism," but if the people expected a sensation they were disapointed, for a straighter Gospel sermon was never preached from the pulpit. After expounding the parable of the ten virgins in a lucid, clear and pointed way, the preacher took for his text the 3rd verse of the 6th chapter of Galatians, "If a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself." The singing of the choir was very helpful to the services, Mr. Shaw taking the solo at the evening service.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

The announcements in St. Paul's church yesterday for this weeks services were as follows: Monday, regular Endeavour meeting, with interessing papers on the temperance question; Tuesday, platform meeting, addresses by Rev. Messrs. Beer, Rae and Bennett; Wednesday, prayer and praise service; Thursday, address by Rev. R. Johnston, of Lindsay. All these meetings are open to the public. Tuesday and Thursday will be in the church with a silver collection. Monday and Wednesday in the Sunday school room.

AN AUSPICIOUS OPENING.

A Display of Fall Millinery and Mantles Which Excelled.

The opportunity which the ladies so largely availed themselves of last week by attending the formal opening at Miss Delaney's show room in connection with her autumn display of millinery and mantles, was one of those pleasing events in which the fair sex take special delight. And no wonder. Miss Delaney had made extra preparations to excel this season in everything that appertains to an exhibition of the richest millinery and mantle novelties, and the result has justified her most sanguine expectations.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the three formal opening days, brought out such a jam of visitors to her show rooms that at times it was almost impossible to pass through the crowd. The reputation which Miss Delaney has enjoyed for always having the newest and the best of everything fashionable, could not fail to result in attracting the ladies. From morning until night the comments of delight expressed must have been very gratifying to the firm. Nor were the strongest of these praises unmerited, for the high character of the trimmed and untrimmed goods shown could not be too highly commended. To some the dazzling array of trimmed pattern hats and bonnets were the "piece de resistance," to others the rich flowers, feathers, birds, ornaments, silks, laces and other beautiful novelties were the chief attractions. The magnificent array of stylish imported mantles, jackets and wraps were the centre of attraction and especially provoked favourable criticism. One or two elegant imported mantles were but samples of the stock in store, but gave some idea of the immense variety of taste and range of styles and prices, which Miss Delaney's selection for this fall embraces. Choice decorations filled up every niche and corner of the store, and contributed to the handsome effect produced by the goods, and the ladies all united in voting their visit to Miss Delaney's store a most enjoyable one. For the convenience of the ladies from the country who will be in attendance at the fair, the opening displays will be continued all this week.

Good Cooking.

An eminent expert in the art of cooking says that "cookery is the art of putting every morsel to the best use; it is the exercise of skill, thought and ingenuity, to make every particle of food yield the utmost nourishment and pleasure, of which it is capable." There are many who enjoy very little of even the best cooked food. Those could increase their enjoyment of the good things of life by the continued and judicious use of Eastjays Liver Lozenges.

ROBBERY OF THE MAILS AT THE C. P. R. STATION.

A POUCH OF REGISTERED MATTER ABSTRACTED FROM THE MAIL BAG.

All the Circumstances Surrounding the Robbery Most Mystifying—No Clue as Yet—The Rear Door of the Baggage Room Found Open.

A bold and successful attempt was made Sunday morning to rob the mails at the C. P. R. station. A pouch containing five registered letters and various other matter was abstracted from the mail bag, which was brought here by the midnight express from Toronto on Sunday night and left in charge of the baggagemaster as usual.

The bag was thrown off the train and wheeled into the baggage room on a truck. It was then taken by Baggagemaster Armstrong, and placed by him, he states, in the strong box, which is kept at the station for the reception and safe-keeping of mail matter. This was the last he remembers about it. In the morning, when the mail cart came to the station for the mail, there was instead of two, the one from the west being missing. On enquiry being made for the bag, Armstrong is alleged to have stated that if it wasn't in the box, most likely it had been carried on through by mistake on the train.

This theory was accepted by the post office authorities and nothing further was thought of the matter until yesterday afternoon, when Messrs. Rupert Irwin, Thos Campbell, Ernest Carveth and George Cairns found a couple of the small mail pouches, which come in the larger mail bags, lying in the alley between Mr. B. F. Ackerman's harness shop and the office of the Central Bridge Works. The pouches were carried to police headquarters, where upon investigation they proved to contain a quantity of the missing mail matter. Shortly afterwards Mr. J. E. Brown itself—slit open and with some of its contents lying beside it on the ground near Mr. W. H. Wrighton's warehouse, just behind the C. P. R. station.

It was plain that a robbery had been committed and upon further examination it was ascertained that one pouch of registered matter from Toronto had been abstracted, but all other registered letters and other contents of the bag left unmolested.

Just what was contained in this special bag, besides five registered letters, is unknown by the local post office authorities. If any large sum of money was being transmitted through the medium of the post office and was contained in this special bag, the police will have to look for the culprits elsewhere than among any local bad characters upon whom they may have had their eye.

Baggagemaster Armstrong is of the opinion that the strong box in the baggage room was opened by a duplicate key and the mail bag removed while he was at the fire at about three o'clock, but this theory is confuted by the fact that if he placed the mail from the east in the box when it arrived at 4.50 a.m. he the absence of the western mail bag.

As the rear door of the baggage room, which is always kept locked, was found opened this morning by the day baggage master when he came on duty, it is evident that the entry was made by the opening of this door by means of a duplicate key, and as the baggage master does not spend all his time in the room, the theft could have been committed at almost any time after the arrival of the mail.

One theory which gained currency on the streets this morning was to the effect that probably the warehouse of the Petrolia Oil Company was set on fire by the mail robbers with the object of drawing the baggagemaster from his post in order to facilitate the attaining of their object, but this could hardly be the case, when they were in possession of a key which almost almost gave them freedom of the baggage-room.

No clue, whatever, is yet in the hands of the police, but it is understood great efforts will be made to detect the culprits.

The post office inspectors from Kingston and Smith Falls will arrive in town, this evening, to investigate the robbery and make their report thereon.

THE ASSIZES.

The fall assizes opened at one o'clock, this afternoon, before his Honor Judge Ferguson. The bar was represented by G. H. Watson, Q. C., R. C. Clute, Q. C., Toronto; E. H. Edwards, E. B. Stone, C. W. Sawers, R. Max Dennistoun, W. A. Stratton, D. W. Dumble and W. H. Moore. Mr. Hugh O. Leary, Q. C., Lindsay, is conducting the Crown business.

THE GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury were summoned as follows:

John Brakenridge (foreman.)

J. L. Aunger,	R. H. Kells,
J. G. Armstrong,	Thos. Lee,
H. J. Archer,	H. LeBrun,
J. Dunsdale,	Wm. Moher,
J. Duffis,	Robt. McWhinnie,
Jas. Foley,	Robt. Shaw,
Wm. Hastle,	John Stanger,
Thos. Hunter,	H. T. Strickland,
Wm. Howson,	W. A. Sanderson,
W. A. Kindred,	J. D. Tully,

J. N. Telford.

After the grand jury had been sworn, His Honor addressed them at considerable length. He stated that he had no doubt that all of them had at some time or other served on the jury, and therefore it would not be necessary for him to go very fully into their duties. There were, however, some things which he wished to draw their attention particularly to, the first was the power of the grand jury to visit the public institutions of the county. This was a very important matter, but was optional for them to do or not, as they pleased, but he strongly advised them to visit each one and make a very thorough inspection of each and to report any requirement which they thought necessary. The grand jury report was looked upon as the opinion of the people of the county as the Grand Jurors were supposed to represent all sections of the county. He praised the public press as the medium through which the people were informed of the doings of their officers, as well as conveying information, and he for one revered it. He stated that some people were under the impression that the Grand Jury reports were not heeded. This was false, as the authorities did all in their power to fulfill the reccommendations of their reports. Great care should be taken in reaching their conclusions, but because there was no direct evidence of guilt they were not to say a man was not guilty, because circumstantial evidence was fully as good as the direct, and as an example he drew their attention to capital crimes, nine cases out of ten of them being proven by circumstances.

There are two cases for the grand jury to consider, one of which is for burglary and the other for rape. The learned judge went fully into each case and the points to be brought out, and he also read the section of the criminal code dealing with those crimes to them and after making a few remarks on the punishment for both, he allowed them to retire.

The petit jurors were then called and the first case taken up was that of Mason vs. The Town of Peterborough, the particulars of which all well remember.

From the Crown of the Head To the Soles of the Feet

WE COVER ALL.

It is one thing to cover up your body, Robinson Crusoe like, with goat skins and tanned palm leaves. It is quite another thing to get well-fitting, neatly-made Suits, Boots and Hats of the latest designs, without paying an exhorbitant price.

MEN'S HATS!
MEN'S SHOES!
MEN'S CLOTHING!
MEN'S UNDERWEAR!
MEN'S FURNISHINGS!

ALL UNDER ONE ROOF!

This store appeals to Men—and to Women also. The field of trade is widening continually. Instead of confining ourselves to Clothing, we have, for the fall of 1894, brought together under one roof such things for men's wear as they have shown themselves to want.

The Goliath's of the Markets.

Just as buyers flock to the great emporiums like Eaton of Toronto, Carsley of Montreal, Mabley of Detroit and Wannamaker of Philadelphia, so do they crowd to Gough Bros. of Peterborough.

WHY! Because they are the Goliath's of the market—they touch the button and manufacturers pour out their wealth of Bargains to them.

CORRECTING A MISTAKE.—Who sells the cheapest goods—the merchant who is compelled to buy in one higgling market, and is tied down to one grasping manufacturer, or the merchant who has the freedom of all the competing markets and manufacturers of the world? Do men buy Hats cheaper where nothing but Hats are sold, or Boots cheaper where nothing but Boots are sold, or Clothing cheaper where nothing but Clothing is sold?

Might as well expect a farmer to do as well for his family by raising nothing but Pumpkins as if he raised a mixed crop.

HATS and CAPS.

Young men are usually quick to save money. We're able to discount the trade, because of unusual buying power. We go direct to the makers and insure fine qualities by knowing what to buy and what to let alone. The best is none too good for us. If you're a judge of quality, it won't take any talking from the salesmen.

On the finest Fur Fedora Hats we take off 35c., and ask only $2.65.
On the best Fur Felt Stiff Hats we take off 50c., and ask only $2.00.
On Men's Knockabout Hats we take off 20c., and ask only 95c.
On Men's Peak Caps, satin lined, we take off 25c., and ask only 50c.

NOTES OF SATURDAY MORNING'S RAILWAY WRECK.

The Injuries That Caused the Deaths of Driver Johnston and Brakeman Greenbury—Other Notes.

The track at the scene of Saturday's wreck was cleared on Saturday night about five o'clock and Conductor Riley on the Lindsay and Port Hope way-freight, took a train down about ten o'clock.

The news of the accident created the most intense excitement in Lindsay where the three men, who met such a sad death, were well-known.

Conductor McCarthy, of the Belleville way-freight, drew up the cars, that were not derailed, on Saturday afternoon.

Engineer Johnston, who was killed near Fraserville, on Saturday morning, was not Engineer George Johnston, an old Peterborough boy, as was supposed by many in town. George Johnston was for some years employeed as an engineer on the Midland and is now engaged in the same capacity on the Irondale, Bancroft and Ottawa railway, of which Mr. C. J. Pusey is president.

When the bodies of Driver Johnston and Brakeman Greenbury were unclothed for embalment at Millbrook, by Undertaker Thos. Gillott, it was found that their necks were broken; therefore death was instantaneous and they did not suffer from the terrible scalding from the steam which their bodies received.

Fireman Moloney was 34 years of age and unmarried. His burial took place at Port Hope on Sunday at 3.30 o'clock.

George Greenbury's body was laid at rest at Midland this afternoon.

Driver R. N. Johnston's funeral took place at Lindsay this afternoon at 1.30.

All three men were members of the Grand Trunk Insurance organization.

The fata. trip, of Saturday morning, was not Johnston's regular run, but he took it to relieve his mate.

Before the train started from Port Hope, Greenbury was asked by Shields which end of the train he would take, and he took the fatal front. He was a member of the Independent Foresters, at Midland.

The point where the accident took place is the crossing on the 7th concession of Cavan.

The loss in property to the Grand Trunk Railway is estimated at about $40,000.

Furniture.

The long nights are coming and people are preparing to make home attractive. A. Clegg is now receiving, daily, the newest things in furniture. A full assortment in every line. Parlour suites, dining room furniture, all grades very cheap. In bedroom suites, the largest line ever offered in Peterborough, especially in suites ranging in price from $14 to $25—by far the best values ever offered. Fancy chairs, centre tables, spring beds, mattresses, pillows, etc.—A. CLEGG, 427 George street. dw

HOSPITAL NOTES.

The examinations for the nurses of the training school who have taken their two years' course, hass been concluded, with the exception of the bandaging competition which will be held some time this week. The four candidates who wrote on the examinations have, so far as is known, taken high marks on the different papers, which were most difficult.

Miss Bradshaw, who is the superintendent of a New York hospital, but who was attached to the nursing staff of the Nicholls under Miss Dolley, by permission of the Board wrote on the exams for a diploma.

Two of the candidates for diplomas are a tie in marks for first place, but the results of the papers in Gynæchology and general nursing have yet to be made known, and the standing may be materially altered, it is thought, when the marks in these subjects are announced.

Dr. Fife examined in Physiology and Materia Medica; Dr. Boucher in Surgery and Hygiene; Dr. King in Gynæchology and General Nursing; Dr. Halliday in Anatomy and Obsterics; and Drs. Boucher and Halliday in Bandaging.

Some of the technical terms used in the papers on Gynæchology and General Nursing were stunners, but their meaning was triumphantly solved by the majority of the candidates.

The date upon which the graduating exercises will be held has not as yet been fully decided upon. It is understood that they will be held in the Oddfellows' Hall about the second week in October.

The thanks of the Hospital authorities are due Mr. J. J. Lundy, of Ashburnham, for a gift of half a dozen balcony easy chairs.

Mr. Jas. Harper's many friends will be pleased to learn that he is at last on the mend, the last vestige of the fever having disappeared. His convalescence will be a long and tedious one, as he is but the shadow of his former self, and consequently very weak.

Mr. Joseph Sutton, who was also ill with typhoid, was sufficiently recovered to be able to return to his home on Saturday.

There are now eight cases of typhoid in the hospital, the majority of which are of a most virulent type. The hospital authorities state that on the whole the fever has been far more severe this year than for some time past, few mild types being treated.

Miss Nattrass and Miss Dixon have just entered upon a course of study in the training school in connection with the hospital.

TRY IT!—Hold the edge of a common visiting card to line so that no shadow will fall on either side; then hold your nose to the card and you will see how easy it is for the man to swallow one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

IT'S EASILY SWALLOWED

—one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These little Pellets are as effective as the best liver pills, and are easier to get down and more agreeable in their action besides.

The fact is, Dr. Pierce's sugar-coated Pellets are better in almost every respect. They act in a mild, easy and natural way. An absolute cure for Constipation, Dizziness, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Sick and Bilious Headaches. For Nervous Disorders arising from weak stomach, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, they are guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money is returned. Why are they not the cheapest pill for you to buy?

FIRESIDE FRAGMENTS.

Baked Bananas.—Select large red ones, take the skin off one section of the banana, loosen the skin from them, put a row in a dripping pan with the side up from which you took the peeling, sprinkle sugar over them, bake half an hour in quick oven.—N. Y. Observer.

Pickled Red Cabbage.—Slice the cabbage thinly into a colander; sprinkle each layer with salt and let it drain two days. Put it into a jar and pour over boiling vinegar enough to cover, putting in a few slices of red beet root. Those who like the flavor of spice will add that to the vinegar while it is boiling. Choose those cabbages that are of a purple red.—Good Housekeeping.

Salt Mackerel Fried.—Soak for thirty hours in at least a gallon of water, laying the flesh side down; remove the head and see that the fish is clean; melt a spoonful of butter in the frying pan and fry slowly for fifteen minutes, taking care that it does not scorch; take out the fish and pour into the pan a cupful of milk or cream, let it boil and pour over the fish.—Boston Budget.

A Ham Fritter is a good breakfast relish on chilly September mornings. Mince fine about a pound of cold boiled ham, using the fat and lean. Add two beaten eggs, a cup of flour, a pinch of cayenne and enough stock to make a good fritter-batter. Fry these fritters in hot fat till they are a good brown. Some cooks use a dash of grated cheese to give them a Neopolitan flavor.—N. Y. Tribune.

Eggs with Cream.—This dish is quickly prepared, if one has cold boiled eggs. Shell the eggs, cut in halves and arrange them cut side downward on a buttered pie plate; pour over a sauce made of cream thickened with a little cornstarch and seasoned with salt and pepper. If you have any scraps of cold meat chop fine and mix with the cream sauce. Over the whole grate a hard-boiled yolk, and you have an attractive and appetizing dish.—Ohio Farmer.

PLEASANT IDLE MOMENTS.

A family at Marinette, Mich., has run out of names, so their latest arrival has been christened "Thirteenth."

Among the uneducated whites in Alabama there is a popular superstition that if a colored person kisses a baby twice on the mouth, the teething period will be easy to the child.

A couple of Pittsburg, (Pa.) boys picked up a physician's small medicine chest that had fallen out of his buggy on the road and ate so many of the sugar-coated pills that they nearly died.

"Well, I'll be gosh darned if I ever seen a car shoved along with a fishing pole before," said an old farmer at Toronto the other day, as he witnessed for the first time the operation of the trolley.

The healthiest trade is said to be that of a waller, a man who attends to the pans in salt works. If he falls in he dies, but while he lives he is free from cholera, smallpox, scarlet fever and probably influenza.

WEST DURHAM'S CENTENNIAL.

The Lieutenant-Governor and Party Meet With a Royal Reception.

BOMANVILLE, Sept. 24.—The second day of the centennial celebration has been successful even beyond the expectation of the most sanguine of the citizens. Hon. George A. Kirkpatrick and party arrived and were taken in carriages around town, halting at the new High school where an informal reception was held and the building inspected. The vice-regal party then crossed the street to the new music hall, where the students were assembled and greeted them with a verse of the National Anthem.

The annual commencement exercises of the High school then took place, Col. Cubitt, chairman, presiding. The Lieut.-Governor presented the diplomas, making a very appropriate speech. Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture, presented the departmental certificates. Hon. Edward Blake, Prof. John Squire, M.A., and Alfred Deleury, Esq., dean of University College, presented the University scholarships, and Dr. John Hoskin, Q.C., the commercial certificates, each making a brief speech.

The party repaired to the drill shed grounds where the Centennial celebration was continued under very pleasing auspices. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and party, mounted the platform to the strains of the National Anthem, played by the Citizen's band, and in the presence of nearly three thousand people. Hon. Mr. Kirkpatrick was presented with two illuminated addresses, one from the town council, by Mayor Loscombe, and the other from the Agricultural Society, by Mr. James Parr. He responded in very feeling terms expressing his great pleasure in this his first visit to Bowmanville and West Durham.

Col. F. Cubitt, chairman, gave a brief and entertaining account of the state of the site of this town seventy or eighty years ago. He was followed by Mr. D. Burke-Simpson, the orator of the day. Hon. John Dryden, Hon. Edward Blake and John Hoskin, Q.C., L.L.D., of Toronto, followed with brief speeches and Mr. E. M. Morphy, of the York Pioneers, and Mr. Thos. Conant, of Oshawa, contributed original poems.

A Murderer Arrested at Three Rivers.

FARMINGTON, Me., Sept. 24.—A telegram from Deputy Sheriff Blake states that he has arrested J. B. Ouillette, the murderer, at Three Rivers, Canada, and is on his way home with him. Ouillette is the man who stabbed and killed Daniel Thibedeau at Jay Bridge recently. Both were Canadians.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th.—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

WONDERS OF THE HAND.

ONE OF THE MOST PERFECT PIECES OF MECHANISM.

Prof. Henry Drummond Gives the Scientific Uses and Value of the Human Hand and the Various Movements Necessary to Its Perfect Action.

One of the most perfect pieces of mechanism in the human body is the hand. How long it has taken to develop may be dimly seen by a glance at the long array of less accurate instruments of prehension which shade away with ever decreasing delicacy and perfectness as we descend the scale of animal life. At the bottom of that scale is the amœba. It is a speck of protoplasmic jelly, headless, footless and armless.

When it wishes to seize microscopic particles of food on which it lives, a portion of its body lengthens out, and, moving towards the object, flows over it, engulfs it, and melts back again into the body. This is its hand. At any place, at any moment, it creates a hand. Each hand is extemporized as it is needed; when not needed it is not. Pass a little higher up the scale and observe the sea-anemone. The hand is no longer extemporized as occasion requires, but lengthened portions of the body are set apart and kept permanently in shape for the purpose of seizing food.

Watch, in the next place, the hand of an African monkey. Note the great increase in usefulness due to the muscular arm upon which the hand is now extended, and the extraordinary capacity for varied motion afforded by the threefold system of jointing at shoulder, elbow and wrist. The hand itself is almost the human hand; there are palm and nail and articulated fingers. But observe how one circumstance hinders the possessor from taking full advantage of these great improvements—this hand has no thumb, or, if it has, it is but a rudiment. To estimate the importance of this apparently insignificant organ, try for a moment without using the thumb to hold a book or write a letter, or do any single piece of manual work. A thumb is not merely an additional finger, but a finger so arranged as to be opposable to the other fingers, and thus possesses a practical efficacy greater than all the fingers put together. It is this which gives the organ of power to seize, to hold, to manipulate, to do higher work; this simple mechanical device, in short, endows the hand of intelligence with all its capacity and skill. Now there are animals, like the colobi, which have no thumb at all; there are others, like the marmoset, which possess the thumb, but in which it is not opposable; and there are others, the chimpanzee, for instance, in which the hand is in all essentials identical with man's. In the human form the thumb is a little longer, and the whole member more delicate and shapely, but even for the use of her higher product, Nature has not been able to make anything much more perfect than the hand of this anthropoid ape.

Is the hand then finished? Can Nature take out no new patent in this direction? Is the fact that no novelty is introduced in the case of man a proof that the ultimate hand has appeared? By no means. And yet it is probable for other reasons that the ultimate hand has appeared; that there will never be a more perfectly handed animal than man. And why? Because the causes which up to the point have furthered the evolution of the hand have begun to cease to act. In the perfecting of the bodily organs, as of all other devices, necessity is the mother of invention.

As the hand was given more and more to do, it became more and more adapted to its work. Up to a point it responded directly to each new duty laid upon it. But only up to a point. There came a time when the necessities became too numerous and too varied for adaptation to keep pace with them. And the fatal day came, the fatal day for the hand, when he who bore it made a new discovery of tools. Henceforth what the hand used to do, and was slowly becoming adapted to do better, was to be done by external appliances. So that if anything new arose to be done, to be better done, it was not a better hand that was now made, but a better tool. Tools are external hands. Levers are the extensions of the bones of the arm. Hammers are callous substitutes for the fist. Knives do the work of nails. The vice and pincers replace the fingers. The day that cave-man first split the marrow-bone of a bear, thrusting a stick into it and striking it home with a stone—that day the doom of the hand was sealed.

But has not man to make his tools, and will not that induce the development of the hand to an as yet unknown perfection? No. Because tools are not made with the hand. They are made with the brain. For a time, certainly, man had to make his tools, and for a time this work recompensed him physically, and the arm became elastic and the fingers dexterous and strong. But soon he made tools to make these tools. In place of shaping things with the hand, he invented the turning-lathe; to save his fingers he requisitioned the loom; instead of working his muscles he gave out the contract to electricity and steam. Man, therefore, from this time forward will cease to develop materially these organs of his body. If he develops them outside his body, filling the world everywhere with artificial hands, supplying the workshops with fingers more intricate and deft than organic evolution could make in a millennium, and loosing energies upon them infinitely more grande than his muscles could ever generate in a whole lifetime, it is enough.

Evolution after all is a slow process. Its great labor is to work up to a point where invention shall be possible, and where, by the powers of the human mind, and by the mechanical utilization of the energies of the universe, the results of ages of development may be anticipated. Further changes, therefore, within the body itself are made unnecessary. Evolution has taken a new departure. For the arrest of the hand is not the cessation of evolution, but its immense acceleration, and the reduction of its energies into higher channels.—Prof. Henry Drummond, in The Ascent of Man.

As a general rule, it is best not to correct costiveness by the use of saline or drastic medicines. When a purgative is needed, the most prompt, effective, and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. Their tendency is to restore, and not weaken, the normal action of the bowels.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

ITCHING PILES AND PIN WORMS.

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and exasperating affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the surface becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—sleep and blood form, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly afflicted from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and torment. Then and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

"There is no invidiousness involved in the assertion that no other Canadian company in existence can point to such a record of rapid, substantial and uninterrupted progress and prosperity as that exhibited in the successive annual reports of the Sun Life. . . . Most assuredly are its directors, shareholders and policy holders to be congratulated upon the very flourishing condition of the Company, and especially upon the result of the business of a year which was marked by the prevalence of conditions—the influenza epidemic, for instance—which proved disastrous for so many life companies. And with no less certainty can it be said that the very great progress made by the institution has been mainly due to the able and energetic efforts, guided by the sagacity and prudence which pratical experience alone can bring, of the President and Managing-Director, who has been efficiently assisted by the Secretary. From the contemplation of so successful a past the management may reasonably draw most sanguine anticipations as to the prosperity of the future.

SOUTH SEA LEGENDS ON FIRE.

A Whale and an Air Dragon Each Believed to Have Originated Flame.

The South Sea Islanders tell a curious story of the origin of fire. If they are to be believed, says the St. Louis Republic, they came in possession of that useful element in the following manner: A great whale was once washed ashore upon one of their islands during the prevalence of a terrible hurricane. The monster became entangled in a grove of tallow trees (a species of evergreens whose branches easily ignite), and while gnashing his teeth in his impotent rage, struck off a spark which lighted the grove and consumed both trees and whale. Fires which are said to have been perpetuated since the day of the "great whale fire" may yet be seen burning in many parts of the island.

Another fire legend, believed in by the inhabitants of the islands to the north of the ones in which the "great whale fire" is preserved, is to the effect that a great air dragon (probably lightning) breathed upon a tallow tree and set its branches on fire. From the coals left from this fire they learned of its great value, and have ever since used the element for domestic purposes and in their religious ceremonies. They also have a tradition that the time will come when the dragon will return for the fire, and that no man will be able to withstand him and save the sacred spark except he be a person born with pink eyes, fair skin and white hair. For this reason the birth of an albino is always hailed as a good omen, and his or her person guarded with jealous care, so as to preserve life to its utmost limit. Marionette mentions seeing a "fire god" or "fire guard" (albino) while on his visit to the islands, who was believed to be at least 150 years old, and who had always been provided for by the tribe.

Reffinesque, who made South Sea Island myths and legend a study for years, is of the opinion that the return of the dragon for his fire is symbolic of death and the flight of the spirit.

Science and Soap Bubbles.

Why is it that the colors of a soap bubble change as the film gradually alters in thickness? Another cause of color is here involved—that of interference. If a stone be thrown into a smooth pond a circular wave is produced, gradually widening toward the edge of the pond; if a second stone be thrown into the pond a second wave will be produced, which will influence the first.

If the stones are dropped in simultaneously at the same spot the waves will just be doubled in height; and if the second stone be thrown in exactly half a wave length behind the first the motion of the wave will be destroyed.

Similarly with light; when light impinges on the soap bubble part of it, it is reflected from the exterior surface, and part enters the film and is reflected from the interior surface.

This latter portion traverses the water medium between the two surfaces twice, and is therefore kept behind the first reflected ray. The two sets of waves interfere with each other, and produce a colored light instead of a white light. Other waves, again, may destroy each other and extinguish the light.

Some of the constituent colors of the impinging white light—formed by their passage through the film—interfere so as to destroy each other, while others remain unaffected. As the film diminishes in thickness, the colors must necessarily vary.

In this way is accounted for the marvelous variety of beauty and colors in the bubble, iridiscence of oil upon water, tempered with the gaudiness of some insect's wings.—Longman's.

Thought he Was Going to Die Before Summer Was Out But He's Alive and Well and Working To-day.

Somerset, Man., Sept. 17th,—"Hard times" is the cry from farmers in this country. Arthur Coley, a farmer living near here, has had double reason to cry "hard times," for eight months ago he lay on his back in bed, a victim of Bright's Disease. He acknowledges that he expected to be dead before the end of the summer, but his expectations have been most pleasantly disappointed, and all summer he has worked on his farm just as though he had never known a day's illness. Last spring he began taking Dodd's Kidney Pills and a few boxes completely cured him, as they have every other victim of this disease, who have used them.

THE Y. P. S. C. E. TEMPERANCE SERVICES.

Rev. E. F. Torrance Delivers the First Address in St. Paul's.

The first of a series of temperance services was held yesterday morning in St. Paul's church, when the following sermon was delivered by Rev. E. F. Torrance:

At the time when Isaiah uttered these solemn words, the destruction of Samaria was nigh at hand. A new king had just ascended the throne of Assyria, and Hoshea, the king of Israel, seized the opportunity of breaking away from his subjection to the Assyrian yoke. The people of Samaria were giving themselves up to self indulgence and luxury, laying upon beds of ivory, drinking wine from bowls, feasting to the sound of the viol, and inventing new instruments of music. They had no idea of the destruction which was nigh at hand.

The keen eye of the Prophet, however, saw in the distant horizon the cloud which was soon to burst upon the voluptuous people. He knew that the Assyrian army would soon bear down upon the city and he lifted up his warning voice.

It was not for the sake of Samaria, however, that these words were uttered. It was for the sake of Jerusalem, Isaiah's own native city. The sin of Jerusalem was as great as that of Samaria, and if persisted in, destruction would be the result.

The prophet calls Samaria the crown of pride, in allusion to its crowning the hill on which it was built, or to its battlemented walls, resembling a crown. The glorious beauty, which is as a fading flower in its magnificent luxury, its summer and winter houses, its ivory palaces, its wealth of gardens, orchards, vineyards and olive yards, the residences of hewn stone, its feasts enlivened with the melody of viols. The sin specially denounced is the sin of drunkenness, a sin which has always been prevalent where luxury abounds. Fifty years before this time Amos had denounced judgment upon those who trusted in the Mount of Samaria, stretching themselves upon their couches and drinking their wine out of basons, women as well as men. Upon these same drunkards of Eph. erring through wine and out of the way through strong drink, Isaiah pronounces his "woe."

The world has, in many respects, made great progress since Isaiah's time. Wonderful discoveries have been made in science. Steady and rapid has been the advance of civilization. Great has been the improvement in the intellectual and moral condition of the race.

It might have been hoped that the sin of intemperance would have vanished before the advance of civilization and under the influence of Christianity. But, alas, this has not been the case. The sin of intemperance prevails to a large extent in the world to-day.

Think of the enormous sum spent upon intoxicating drinks every year, in the United Kingdom. It is between one hundred and forty, and one hundred and forty-five million pounds sterling. The amount spent on beer alone, in England, is seventy-eight million pounds—a sum sufficient to provide the country with two navies and two armies, with the civil service thrown in. The beer drunk in one year would pay the interest on the national debt for three, or if funded for nine years, it would pay the whole debt, and leave us with no more interest or annuities to pay. The Canadian drink bill is over thirty-seven million dollars a year. A sum, which is more than the value of any county in the Dominion. We have been passing through a period of great financial depression. The shrinkage in the value of securities in different parts of the world has been enormous. In some countries, banks have failed, factories have been closed, and business almost at a stand. But this does not seem to have materially lessened the amount spent on strong drink. In some way or other, people will find the means necessary to gratify their appetite for strong drink.

1. Let us look at the sin of intemperance in the light of reason.

The sin of intemperance is condemned by reason and common sense.

There is one, who is addicted to this sin. He may indulge in it habitually or only at stated times. We will suppose the latter to be his case. For some time he has been sober, but now he feels the awful depression coming on, which nothing but stimulants can charm away. At first, he refuses to gratify his fatal appetite, but in a little while he is overcome. He yields, and while under the influence of the stimulants, his depression vanishes and he is in the elysium of delight. But in a little while, all is changed. He awakes from his dream and then follows sleepless nights, deadly sickness and the horror of remorse. He is brought, again, face to face with the actual and the cares, which had previously oppressed him, are now as heavy, if not heavier than they were before.

Surely such conduct as this is condemned by reason and common sense. Is it worth while, for the sake of a merely temporary pleasure, to endure the consequences which result from indulgence in this sin?

Think of some of the consequences of this sin.

1. Intemperance inflicts grevious injury upon the body.

It is a scientific fact that intemperance weakens the powers of the body, renders it more liable to disease, shatters the nervous system and shortens life. The diseases, which follow upon its train are innumerable. The victim of intemperance has little chance when attacked by a serious disease.

One says of the drunkard's corpse:—"Every tissue proclaims but too distinctly the injury it has received. There are no marks of weakness or decrepitude as the result of natural decay or advancing age, but all the organs, in accents awfully impressive, speak of poison, of madness, of self immolation."

Surely it is a serious thing thus to injure the human body. The body is God's workmanship, fearfully and wonderfully made. The body is designed to be the temple of the Holy Ghost, in which He may dwell as God. It is no light thing, then, to injure the human body. The man who wrecks his body by indulgence takes his own life just as truly as the one who takes the dose of poison or who plunges the dagger in his heart.

2. Intemperance inflicts grevious injury upon the mind.

It takes away the reason. The poet says: "O, that men should put an enemy in their mouths to steal away their brains; that we should with joy revel, pleasure and applause, transform ourselves into beasts." Reason is one of our highest faculties. It is one of the respects in which man is distinguished from the lower animals. It is one of the elements in the divine image in which man was created at the first. Surely it is a serious thing to dethrone reason, even for a brief time.

But in many cases repeated indulgence in this sin dethrones reason, not for a brief time, but altogether. Asylums give striking testimony to the effect of this sin upon the mind. Many of the inmates have been brought into their state of insanity by indulgence in this sin.

There is something unspeakably sad in the thought of a mind in ruins. It is an awful thing to look upon an eye, which ought to beam with intelligence, and to see in it the vacant stare of the idiot, or the frenzy of the madman. Such a sight is sad when the insanity has been inherited, or when it is the result of crushing sorrow, but much sadder when brought upon oneself by indulgence in this sin.

3. Intemperance inflicts grievous injury upon the moral nature.

It is impossible to indulge in this sin without causing a deterioration of the moral nature. Indulgence in this sin deadens conscience and leads to countless other sins. Falsehood, cruelty, licentiousness are so many satellites following in the train of intemperance. A story is current in the Orient of a wise old king, who gave to a young Arab prince, from whom he was about to part, a list of crimes, and bade him choose the one which seemed least harmful. The young man turned in horror from murder, theft and loss of virtue, and told the patriarch that he would choose intemperance. You have chosen that, said the wise old man, which will bring you all.

It is undoubtedly the case that the greater part of the crime committed in our land is the direct result of intemperance. Were it not for this sin our gaols would have few inmates.

But its effects upon the moral nature are seen, not only in the crimes which are made made public, but in the offences which never come to light.

Many a broken-hearted wife knows the effect of this sin upon the moral nature of her husband. There is one who looks back upon the time when her husband plighted his troth to her, and led her to the altar. How happy were those early days of married life! No cloud was upon the horizon. With what joy did that mother look upon the face of her babe, as she held him in her arms! But her husband took to drink. Then followed loss of self-respect, alienation of affection, unkindness in the home, so that all happiness vanished away. Some years ago a young man married into one of the wealthiest families in the Dominion. He took to drink. In a fit of delirium he pointed a pistol at his wife threatening to kill her. She said, Shoot! nothing could be worse than my life with you.

II. Let us look at the sin of intemperance in the light of Scripture.

There are those who take the ground that God positively forbids the use of fermented wine as a bevarage, and that to take it, even in moderation, is sinful. In order to support their view, they endeavour to make out that there are two different kinds of wine spoken of in Scripture, that where wine is spoken of with approval, the reference is to unfermented wine, and that in other cases, the reference is to fermented wine. Thus, where it is said, "Milchizedec brought forth bread and wine," "God caused the grass to grow for the cattle....And wine that maketh glad the heart of man." "Wisdom hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine," the reference is to unfermented wine.

We do not believe that these persons have made out their case. The most competent scholars do not hold this view. Harm has been done to the temperance cause by insisting upon it.

There are two points which we may gather from Scripture. First, intemperance is condemned; second, total abstinence is recommended as a matter of expediency.

There are many places in Scripture in which intemperance is condemned. There are such passages as these: "Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them;" "woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink." "But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way." "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." "Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way. Be not among wine bibbers, among riotous eaters of flesh, for the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty." "Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine."

These are a few out of many passages in which Scripture strongly denounces the sin of intemperance.

Total abstinance is recommended as a matter of expediency.

In the 14th chapter of the Epistle to the Romans, and in the 8th chapter of the First Ephesians to the Corinthians, the apostle speaks about the attitude of the Christian towards things, which are morally indifferent. As to the eating of meats and the observance of days, the practice of different Christians was not the same. The apostle warns them against allowing their differences to lead to harsh judgements of each other. He says, "Let not him that eateth dispise him that eateth not; let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth, for God hath received him." Let us not therefore judge one another, but judge this rather that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. "It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth or is offended or is made weak." There is nothing sinful in taking wine and we may possibly take it without any danger to ourselves, but wine is certainly something whereby one's brother may stumble or be offended or made weak.

Think of the effect which our example may have upon others. It may lead those to take wine, who cannot do so without injuring their consciences or involving themselves in danger. "Destroy not him with thy meat for whom Christ died."

The Sale Goes Gloriously On.

The public are happy, securing cheap goods. We are happy, handing them out, even if we do it without profit. The bargains to be had at the unreserved clearing sale of the H. WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th,

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

TROUBLES IN MOROCCO

Tribesmen Demand the Release of the Brother of the Sultan.

THREATENING MOROCCO CITY

All Political Prisoners Confined by the Young Sultan They Demand to be Released—The Jews Plundered and Stripped by the Natives.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Advices received here from Tangier say that affairs in Morocco are growing worse. The Jews, while on their way to the markets, are continually plundered and stripped of clothing, and on the principal roads an imperial tax of £5 is demanded for passage.

The Erchamna tribe is demanding the immediate release of Mulay Mohammed, the eldest son of the late Sultan Mulay Hassen. Mulay Mohammed was proclaimed Sultan early in September in spite of the fact that his younger brother, Abdul Aziz, had previously been proclaimed Sultan and recognized as such at Fez, the seat of the present government of Morocco. Mulay Mohammed, however, had previously been imprisoned at Narakesh by order of his brother, the Sultan, and was compelled to sign an act of adhesion to Abdul Aziz. The position of the latter had been secured by his being recognized as Sultan by the powerful Sheref of Wazan.

In addition to demanding the release of Mulay Mohammed, the Erchamna tribe is demanding the immediate release of all the other political prisoners now in confinement at Morocco City. If their demands are not granted the tribesmen mentioned threaten to attack and plunder Morocco City.

Smallpox in Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 25.—Samuel Chadwick was taken to the pest house Saturday from 681 Third avenue, in an advanced stage of confluent smallpox, and died at that institution. Mr. Chadwick, who was chief draughtsman of the Grand Trunk railway lines west of St. Clair tunnel, returned from a visit to England about three weeks ago and was taken with the disease one week ago. It was not until Saturday, however, that his attending physician decided on the character of the disease and notified the health office. There were twenty-four other boarders in the house, and extra precautions will be taken against the spread of the contagion from that point. Another case of smallpox developed yesterday at 151 Illinois street, the fourth from that house.

To Adopt a Dress Reform.

TOPEKA, Kansas, Sept. 25.—One hundred of the suffragist women of Topeka will come out in reform dress. They have entered into an agreement which Dr. Eva Harting and Dr. Agnes Haviland say is to be reduced to writing. This agreement describes the costume. It is to consist of Turkish trousers, covered by a skirt reaching to a fold, a close or waist, as the wearer may prefer, and cloth leggings to match the trousers. The Topeka women intend to organize into relief squads, so a number of them may be on the streets all day, and thus the community will become familiar with the reform.

Queen Lil's Suit for Damages.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—It is stated on which appears to be good authority that the errand of H. A. Widemann, of Honolulu, to this country, is for the purpose of commencing a damage suit against the United States on behalf of the ex-Queen of Hawaii. The amount asked is said to be $200,000. Her claim is that the provisional government could never have been established and herself deposed if it had not been for the unwarranted action of the recognized agent of the United States, the captain of the warship Boston, which action was subsequently formally disavowed by the President.

Destructive Cloudburst.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 25.—Meagre particulars of a destructive cloudburst, in Carroll County have been received here. W. F. Davenport and family, comprising his wife and four children, were camping on King's river and were caught in the falling water which broke further up the stream. The entire family were washed several hundred yards. Davenport, with his wife and two children, escaping, the other two being carried away by the current. The flood destroyed much property, two grist mills, a house and fence being washed down stream. No other lives are reported lost.

Erie Car Works Destroyed.

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 25.—The Erie Car Works were burned last night. They have not been in operation for two years. Loss $250,000. Cause, incendiary.

Paul Weinberg in Court.

TORONTO, Sept. 25.—Paul Weinberg was arraigned in the Police Court on four charges of larceny to which he pleaded not guilty. He will be tried on these charges on the 25th. Mr. T. C. Robinette, counsel for Weinberg, states that he will confine the Crown to these four charges, and that he is confident that he can clear his client.

Canadian Cattle Exports.

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 25.—There were 82,935 cattle, 8,590 sheep and 157 swine imported from Canada in the year 1893, and from the year 1889 to 1893 there were 93,495,567 cattle, 142,968 sheep and 1,362 swine imported.

THEIR WORK FINISHED

The Methodist General Conference Adjourns for Another Four Years.

A STAND AGAINST TOBACCO

The Conference Re-Affirms the Judgment Passed by the Last Conference—Declaration of Principles With Regard to the Liquor Traffic.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 25.—The attendance of delegates was smaller than ever at yesterday's session of the Methodist General Conference. In fact, barely a quorum was present. Committee reports followed one another thick and fast.

The report on church union contained much that has already been made public. One clause recommended the establishment of a federal court to prevent the overlapping of the missions of the various Protestant bodies. Rev. A. C. Courtice urged that his original clause be inserted empowering the central section of the court to negotiate with the other Protestant churches with a view to the formation of one strong French Protestant church, instead of the missions at present in competition. Mr. Courtice's amendment was carried.

The church and parsonage aid fund committee recommended that Nova Scotia conference be allowed to manage their own fund. The committee on embarrassed trusts urged that definite efforts be made for the removal of debts, and recommended no action re the abolition of pew rents.

The report of the committee on temperance is voluminous, covering fifteen pages of foolscap. It reviewed the work of the standing committee appointed by the last general conference.

The following declaration of principles was recommended to the conference:—

That the liquor traffic cannot be licensed without sin.

That it is the duty of the civil government to prohibit the trade of intoxicating drinks.

That the Methodist Church stands for righteousness in our nation, and believes the principles taught by Jesus Christ should take precedence of all others in the political councils of our people.

That we refuse to consent to and repudiate all compacts and compromises with the licensed liquor traffic as being unholy.

That we hereby give notice that we will do our utmost to utterly destroy all partnerships between the people of Canada and dealers in alcoholic liquors and their sympathizers.

And, finally, declare that this ultimatum shall be presented to Methodist electors to the conventions of the political parties with urgent entreaty to nominate only such candidates as will be in accordance with these utterances. And we further recommend such electors to refuse their consent to nominations which ignore these principles, and that the standing committees on temperance be instructed to have this declaration printed in circular form and circulated throughout the Dominion.

The following are recommended as members of the standing committee in Ontario:—

Ministers—Revs. Dr. Brethour, Dr. Sutherland, George Webber, M. L. Pearson, Wm. McDonagh, Wm. Kettlewell, F. E. N. Nugent, J. W. Cooley.

Laymen—James Bowman, Dr. H. D. Watson, F. W. Watkins, N. W. Rowell, Joseph Gibson, J. F. Cummings, Dr. Watson.

Re the use of tobacco, the committee re-affirmed the judgment of the last conference, adding:—"That the superintendents be instructed to nominate no person for Sabbath school superintendent who is not a total abstainer."

The report finally recommended that it be an instruction to ministers not to use alcoholic wine in the administration of the Lord's Supper.

The conference came to a close last night. The temperance report was read and adopted after the word "licensed" was changed to "legalized" in clause No. 1, and clause 6 was changed to read as follows: "That the candidate of no political party who refuses to publicly commit himself to the destruction of the liquor traffic at the earliest possible moment can have the support of the members of the Methodist church."

The finance committee presented a report recommending that the salary of the general superintendent be fixed at $2,500 and $500 for expenses; also that the treasurer of the General Conference fund be authorized to borrow money to meet claims arising during the coming quadrennium. The report was adopted.

The committee on the deaconess movement reported. The report was adopted recommending the establishment of deaconess homes in cities and large towns where it may be considered practicable and desirable to prescribe a course of study for the deaconesses and trained nurses, and permitting those having control of deaconess homes to adopt a distinctive dress for deaconesses.

Hearty votes of thanks were passed to the people of London, the press and trustees of Queen's avenue church, also to the billeting committee, and the conference broke up to meet again in four years.

Death From Lockjaw.

HAMILTON, Ont., Sept. 25.—Joseph Clohecy, aged 16, son of Mr. Thomas Clohecy, of 119 Catharine street north, died here of lockjaw. Nine weeks ago the boy, with other lads, was playing, when young Clohecy accidentally jumped on a rusty nail which penetrated the sole of his boot and entered the foot. The wound was at once poulticed and no serious results were anticipated until two weeks ago when his jaw became stiff. Physicians could do nothing for him and he died after suffering intense agony.

Fire in Prescott.

PRESCOTT, Sept. 25.—The residence of Mr. Abraham Lane, farmer, one mile and a half west of this place, was burned to the ground. The inmates had barely time to make their escape. The wind carried the flames to the barns in the rear of the house, which were also burned with this year's crop of hay and grain. The property is partially covered by insurance in the Royal.

FIFTY JAPS MURDERED

Camphor Gatherers in Formosa Massacred by Chinese.

CHINA FORTIFYING MOUKDEN

The Garrison of the Ancient City Being Strengthened—The Emperor of China Offers to Take Charge of the Operations in Corea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—The steamer Rio Janeiro has arrived bringing the following advices:

A Seoul correspondent announces that everything is quiet in the capital, but that a great scarcity of various articles are experienced in consequence of insufficient communication with other towns.

A letter has been received at Tokio stating that the rumored murder of fifty Japanese, engaged in camphor-making at Taiwan, Formosa, is a fact beyond a doubt. The intelligence was brought to Nagasaki by one of the ill-fated party who had a narrow escape from sharing death with his comrades. The Japanese camphor gatherers were murdered by Chinese and all property belonging to them was appropriated by the assassins. The murders are said to have occurred before the declaration of war.

The Asahi, a Japanese paper, says:

"We have already stated that a treaty with the United States was in progress and almost completed. We hear now that it has been completed and that the U.S. government has appointed by cable Mr. Dun, its Minister in this country, Minister Plenipotentiary for the ratification and exchange of ratifications."

"We believe," remarks the Chinese Gazette, "that we are not premature in stating that the formalities have been arranged and everything is cut and dried for the completion of a new set of trading relations between Great Britain and China, which we are assured will be found very advantageous to the former from a commercial point of view at least."

The Shanghai Mercury says it is rumored in Pekin that the Emperor has expressed his desire to personally take charge of the operations in Corea, and to leave the throne under the regency of the Empress dowager. When his Majesty made known his desire his hearers are said to have knocked their foreheads, and prayed his Majesty not to let his anger drive him so far as to engage with so paltry an enemy but to let his officers drive off the barbarians.

The fortifications of Moukden, the home of the [illegible] dynasty, are being strengthened, the garrison having been reinforced by 8,000 trained troops.

"It was rumored some time ago," says a Japanese journal, "that Chang Tso Tang and others were going to impeach Li Hung Chang, but nothing has resulted."

The British and Russian ministers at Pekin lately met Li Hung Chang and offered to mediate for an armistice for the reason that if the Chinese army which had been amassed with so much trouble at Heijo were defeated it would be a great disgrace to China. Li Hung Chang who had been frightened by defeats at Fung Tong Tao and Gazan and had been secretly hoping for mediation eagerly seized this opportunity and requested the two ministers to mediate. The ministers then made the same proposal to the Japanese government which firmly declined as it had entered upon the war with great determination and was not to be turned away by such a proposal.

"Li Hung Chang," says the Yomiuri, "is in his 73rd year. For 10 years he has been subject to apoplexy and half his face is paralyzed. In time of peace he never goes to his office but stays at home, but in spite of his age and disease he rides every morning to the parade ground and reviews the troops. This duty he has never neglected."

Russians Mobbed by Chinese.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 25.—It is reported that a Chinese mob has attacked and plundered one of the Siberian stations in the province of Usuri and killed eight Russians.

An Uncanny Story From Kemptville.

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—From Kemptville comes a story of the old fashioned sort. It is said that in the house of a farmer named Code, a man well to do and intelligent, mysterious noises are heard by night resembling the rumbling of wagon wheels. The scene of these strange occurrences is Oxford Mills, a small place not many miles from Kemptville. It is said they have been going on for three years, but unwilling to be made the object of rural curiosity, the Codes kept the matter to themselves. The family secret, however, was betrayed by a visitor. Alarmed by a dreadful racket in the dead of night, the stranger naturally enquired the cause. He was told that the mystery of these sounds had never been fathomed. About three years ago, as said, these nocturnal rumblings commenced, and every possible test was applied to ascertain and locate the source without avail. The rumblings are said to resemble the sounds made by a heavy wagon driven rapidly over a long wooden bridge, as loud and distinct as if produced in the very centre of the house.

A New Trial Asked for Truskey.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 25.—Attorney R. F. Sutherland who assisted Hon. Wallace Nesbitt in the defence of the Murderer Truskey says that Judge Robertson had agreed to read over the stenographic report of the charge given by him to the jury in the case and the objections offered by Mr. Nesbitt and should he see where he was in error he might grant a new trial. "If the request for a new trial is refused," said Mr. Sutherland, "we will take the matter at once before Sir John Thompson, the minister, on appeal from the sentence and try to get a new trial at the spring assizes if possible to do so. If we do the sentence of the court will be suspended until the trial is concluded."

Honors for Father McMahon.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—In behalf of Pope Leo, Archbishop Satolli, the Apostolic delegate, conferred an appointment as a prelate of the Holy See with the title of Monsignor on Rev. Father James McMahon, of the Catholic University. The honor was given in recognition of Father McMahon's gift to the University of the McMahon Hall of Philosophy which will cost between $350,000 and $400,000.

WON BY THE BRITONS.

Lord Hawke's Team Wins the International Cricket Match.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—The international cricket match between Lord Hawke's English eleven and the team representing All Philadelphia, on the grounds of the Merion Cricket Club at Haverford, was won by the Britishers by 131 runs.

In the first inning the Englishmen scored 187 runs and in the second 235, a total of 422. The Philadelphians in their first inning made 169 runs and in their second 122, a total of 291, thus leaving them 131 runs to the bad. When play was stopped on Saturday evening the Englishmen had made 179 runs for the loss of eight wickets, and shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday morning Mordaunt and Bardswell, the not outs, took up their positions at the wicket.

The clear weather and warm sun of the past few days had dried out the grounds and the crease was hard and in magnificent playing condition. Bardswell played a useful innings of seven and was then caught by Ralston at the wicket off Muir. With nine wickets down for 208, Whitewell joined Mordaunt and the score went booming merrily upwards. After Whitewell had made 12 and Mordaunt 62, the latter played one over the shoulder of his bat into Ralston's hands and the English man's innings closed for 235 runs. As Mordaunt returned to the club house he was heartily applauded for the admirable style with which he had compiled his runs.

The Philadelphians had 253 runs to tie and 254 runs to win and it was only the most enthusiastic among the spectators who anticipated victory for the home eleven.

The Philadelphians opened their second inning with Patterson and Muir as their first batsmen. The inning opened auspiciously. With 15 to his credit Muir was caught off Bathurst, and one wicket was down for 27. Wood succeeded him and the crowd sat down with the expectation of seeing this hard hitter send the ball in every direction, but they were doomed to disappointment, for Wood had hardly taken his place before he was clean bowled by Hilliard for one, and two wickets were down for 28. Bohlen, another hard hitter and rapid run getter, took Wood's place and again the crowd expected to see the runs pile up rapidly. Before he had fairly settled at the wicket, however, Bohlen was caught by Wright off Bathurst for five, and with three of their best wickets down, and only a total of 39, the spectators gave up any hope of the Philadelphians winning. Brown now partnered Patterson and runs began to come in quickly. Patterson was playing careful, steady cricket and Brown was hitting the ball hard, and when time was called for lunch the score was 75.

After luncheon the two batsmen resumed the rapid scoring, and the score board soon showed 90. But one more had been added to the total when Brown fell a victim to the deadly Bathurst, and retired for a well-played 24. With the departure of Brown the stand of the Philadelphians was over. A regular rot set in and wickets went down in rapid succession. Noble and King added but one to the score between them, and then Patterson drove one into Bathurst's hands, and retired for 37. Seven wickets were now down for 102 runs, and Clark, Captain Scott, Bally and Ralston only succeeded in adding 20 to the total when Ralston was finally caught by Hilliard at long on, and the inning of the Philadelphians was over.

A return match will be played here on Friday and Saturday of this week and Monday of next week, and the Philadelphians hope to obtain their revenge by defeating the Englishmen.

Congress of Natural Science.

VIENNA, Sept. 25.—The German Congress of Natural Science opened here yesterday. There were about 2,000 delegates in attendance. Chevalier Stanislaus de Madeyski, Minister of Public Instruction, delivered the opening address. He contended that the study of natural science did not, as had been asserted, force human ideas into the background. The greater progress made, he said, the more strenuous would be the effort to weld natural and moral science into a harmonious whole. This was the aim of the State in public instruction.

Poison in the Coffee.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 25.—The family of Mrs. Annie Osborne, numbering six persons, and a boarder named Hutt, were poisoned yesterday. The dose was put in the coffee. Mrs. Osborne prepared the coffee and partook freely. Four of the family are thought to be fatally poisoned. The physician administered antidotes for arsenic. The police have no clue, but suspect that some enemy of the family put the drug in the coffee pot.

A Dishonest Bank Official Sentenced.

LOCKPORT, Sept. 25.—Joshua S. Holmer, formerly president of the wrecked Merchants Bank, convicted in the Supreme Court of deceiving the state banking department, was arraigned before Judge Ward and sentenced to five years at hard labor at Auburn prison. With good behavior his sentence will be shortened to three years and eight months. A stay pending an appeal was denied, and he was taken to the county jail.

Looking for His Wife.

BUFFALO, Sept. 25.—Mrs. Mary Smith, of Toronto, is lost. Her husband is in Buffalo looking for her, but does not know her address. Mrs. Smith came here with her ten-year-old daughter from Toronto last Tuesday intending to visit friends on Oak street. Her husband was to join her, and is greatly worried as to his wife's whereabouts. He fears that she has met with some accident.

Oldest of All Games.

Chess players with a turn for the history of their strategic amusement will be interested to learn that all the hypotheses as to the origin of the game have suddenly been "mated" by a recent extraordinary discovery in Egypt. It was generally assumed until now that the ancient Indians had invented chess; that it was introduced from India to Persia in the sixth century, and that by the Arabs, and that in consequence of the Crusaders it spread from east to west.

It is true that the Chinese—who invented many things in time long ago, but which had afterwards to be reinvented in Europe—assert that they can trace chess in their own country to about 200 years before our era. Now there can certainly be no doubt that in the character of the figures at present used, and in some of the words connected with the game—such as "shack" (shaw) and "matt," or mate—an Indian, Persian and Arabic influence is traceable.

But here comes news of the latest excavations on the pyramid fields of Sakkara, which have brought to light a wall painting on which a high official is represented as playing chess with a partner at the time of the government of King Teta, who belonged to the sixth dynasty. Prof. Brugsch, correcting this chronology, puts it back to still greater antiquity, namely to the year 3300 B. C. So that chess would have been known in the once mysterious land of Mizraim something like 5,200 years ago.—New York Sun.

The Wealth of the Nations.

An estimate regarded as reliable places the aggregate wealth of leading countries at the following figures: United States, $60,475,000,000; Great Britain, $43,600,000,000; France, $40,300,000,000; Germany, $31,600,000,000; Russia, $21,715,000,000; Austria, $18,065,000,000; Italy, $11,755,000,000. No other nation is credited with more than $10,000,000,000. The next in rank to Italy is Spain, with $7,965,000,000, while Greece, the last and lowest in this classification, is given but $1,055,000,000.

Consumption—Low Condition

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

Said She Was Past All Help

and wanted me to send her to the 'Home for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my hand up she should not go. We then began

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

STOCK TRAIN DERAILED.

Twenty-Two Head of Fine Cattle Killed in the Accident.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 25.—There was a wholesale butchery of cattle on the C.P.R. track near Britannia yesterday. A stock train was thrown from the track by runing over a cow. The train carried 255 head of cattle belonging to Mr. Gordon Ironside, the proprietor of one of the Larg-st cattle ranches at Calgary and three other carloads of 43 cattle belonging to Mr. J. McMullen, of Prince Albert. Ironside's cattle men state that they had travelled two thousand miles without the slightest mishap. This was the eighth train of cattle shipped from their ranches this year and not an accident had happened. There remained two thousand more cattle to come over the C.P.R. this year.

The cattle belonging to Mr. McMullen were in the rear of the train and not one of the cars containing them were derailed. Of the Ironside shipment twenty-two cattle were derailed, four butchered and three disabled, but these will be taken on with those uninjured. It is very remarkable that the loss of cattle was not greater than it is. They were in splendid condition and were expected to realize one hundred dollars apiece when they reached the English markets.

The Contractor's Case Dismissed.

In the Exchequer Court Justice Burbidge dismissed with costs the case of Contractor St. Louis, of Montreal, against the Crown for $63,642 said to be due him for labor and stone in connection with the Curran bridge. The counter claim of the Government against the contractor for moneys overpaid him was also struck out with costs against the Government.

The Preliminary Lists.

There has been doubt in the minds of some of the revising officers as to the interpretation of the statute recently passed in amendment of the Electoral Franchise law as to the time when the preliminary list should close, notwithstanding that the instructions issued over a month ago from the Department of the Secretary of State named the date for such closing as the 15th October. E. B. Fraleck, the revising officer for East and North Hastings reads the statute the other way, and publishes in the local paper an open letter saying that according to the statute the preliminary revision would close on October 1st. This is eminently wrong and the Department of Justice has directed him to keep the list open to the 15th of October.

A Horseman's Loss.

Mr. Robert Stewart, the well-known horseman of the Aylmer road, has met with another serious loss. Fire broke out on his premises and destroyed every one of his buildings, including his dwelling house, kitchen, carriage shed and stables. They were burnt to the ground within an hour and a half with almost all their contents, only the horses and a few agricultural implements being saved from the fire. The loss is placed between $5,000 and $6,000. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

Moncton, N.B., Has a Big Blaze.

MONCTON, N.B., Sept. 25.—Moncton had a severe scorching by fire yesterday. It was six hours before the fire was put out. Near the corner of Mechanics and Main streets, in the central business portion, two or three boys played with lighted matches in the upper loft of J. Duffy's livery stables. The straw caught fire and before the alarm had rung the whole structure was in flames. Several houses were saved with difficulty. Mark's large carriage factory was hopelessly destroyed. The fire then attacked No1 1 engine house, a new brick structure. The drying tower and roof were destroyed and the walls warped, but this brick building prevented the fire from spreading to the river front. J. H. Mark's loss $12,000; insurance, $3,000 on building and $2,000 on stock. No. 1 fire hall damaged $1,000; insured. Sumner Co.'s loss, $50; P. J. Duffy's livery stable, sleighs and harness, feed, etc., $2,500; insurance on building, $900, stock $600. Marr's sample room scorched and barn burned, value $400; insurance $250. Scattering losses amount to $1,000. The same district was burned a little over a year ago through boys setting fire to straw in rear of No. 1 engine house.

Eight Days in an Open Boat.

HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 25.—Allan A. Augo and Bollal J. Marie strayed away from the French fishing schooner L. S. B., of St. Pierre, on Grand Banks, August 28, and for eight days subsequently they were exposed to terrors of wind and tide in an open boat. They were rescued finally by a steamer when in great exhaustion and taken to New York; from there they came to Halifax and left in steamer St. Pierre for home. They suffered terribly before being rescued. Several vessels passed them but either they did not see or would not.

The Premier at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Sept. 25.—Sir John Thompson was in the city yesterday. He remained in his rooms at the St. Lawrence Hall, and received visits from many of the leading Conservatives of this district. During the morning Sir A. P. Caron came down from the Windsor Hotel and remained with his chief most of the day. The business of the day, it is understood, was the perfecting of the organization of the Conservative party in this district, so as to have everything in readiness for the general election.

Patrons and Labor Men Unite.

AYLMER, Ont., Sept. 25.—A joint meeting of the Patrons of Industry of East Elgin and the labor interests of St. Thomas was held in the town hall here, at which the Patrons and labor interests were united under the name of the Independent Patron and Labor Party. J. P. Martyn, of Yarmouth, received the nomination as the party's candidate for next election.

Children Who Suffer

from scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, ought to be given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. For children who are puny, pale or weak, the "Discovery" is a tonic which builds up both flesh and strength. What is said of it for children applies equally to adults. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, and other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system.

The new Jeffs block is all filled up except one block. Mr. W. Hamilton's new jewelry and fancy goods store make a very attractive addition to the block. It will no doubt prove a great convenience to the village, as Mr. Hamilton is a practical jeweler, and the people can now have their watches and clocks cleaned and repaired without sending them out of town.

The new hardware store has been stocked up with a full supply of shelf and heavy hardware, stoves, lamp goods, etc., and will likely secure a fair share of patronage of the community. A little printers' ink might help to boom business—and the EXAMINER affords an excellent medium to make a good business announcement to the people in this vicinity and neighborhood.

Work on the new Presbyterian manse is progressing. The contractor is a Norwood man, but that's no reason why the kirk shouldn't get a good job. The Havelock builders didn't get down low enough, but that's not saying they were too high. We have several reliable contractors in the village, and it is a pity the village don't get the full benefit of these important contracts.

Mrs. Wilson and Miss Milne opened their new millinery store, in the west end to-day. There is abundant room for a business of this kind in Havelock, and the ladies should now patronize home and encourage this new store.

Mr. Gould goes to the city this week to buy his new fall and winter goods. August was the best month he ever had in business.

Ex-Reeve McAuley is in good trim again and can handle his velocipede like a professional. He took a spin down the track on Saturday afternoon, and carried his gun along, but the birds fought shy of him, and he wheeled back in great form, minus his ducks.

BABIES ALMOST STARVED

Poor Foods the Direct Cause.

Little Ones Always Relish Lactated Food.

There are babies that seem to mothers to take hardly enough of nourishment to keep them alive. When this is the case, depend upon it, baby's diet is objectionable and repulsive to the weak stomach.

Thousands of babies are now being fed on Life-giving Lactated Food (after a starving course on common prepared foods), and the little ones take it with a genuine relish.

In every case Lactated Food pleases the infant taste, and the most cheering results always follow. There is no dark and gloomy history in the infant life when mothers make use of the great Food. Health, heartiness and good nature show up from day to day in all the little ones nourished on Lactated Food.

Try it, dear mother, for your baby, its cost is small, but the results are beyond calculation.

HALL'S GLEN.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Wm. Carveth is still progressing in the building of his new brick house. It is beginning to look very comfortable. Mr. Fallon and Mr. Douset who did the brick work so satisfactorily, have just completed the plastering. The house is now ready for the carpenters, Mr. J. Moore and Mr. Wm. J. Little, to do their work, and also Mr. J. Doughty with the furnace.

ROBERT HALL.

A Pronounced Success.

As anticipated, the formal opening of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of weaves march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

A Millinery Event Repeated.

Ladies are reminded that another opportunity is afforded them this week of witnessing the opening display of autumn millinery and mantles at Miss Delaney's store on Tuesday and Wednesday. Special receptions will be held for the convenience of those ladies who have not yet seen our beautiful show rooms. All are heartily welcome. MISS DELANEY. 2c

Lives Placed in Jeopardy.

The Bobcaygeon Independent has the following to say concerning the recent sad drowning case here: "The Peterborough drowning should be a solemn warning to inexperienced young men who so recklessly and ignorantly jeopardise the lives of others. Canoeing is simply a feat of balancing on the brink of eternity. If a man attempted to walk a rope with a girl under each arm, he would probably be summarily dealt with, yet every day our lakes and rivers are dotted with canoes in which know-it-all young men juggle with the lives of others in the face of death. A year or two in Central Prison, if it could be imposed, might afford a safe and quiet opportunity for the developement of a little common sense."

—No police court this morning.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—Special meeting of council to-morrow evening.

—Mt. Hebron Encampment, I. O. O. F., meets this evening.

—A platform meeting was held last evening in connection with the Baptist mission.

—Numerous cases of fraud upon young Englishmen apprenticed to farmers are alleged to have occurred in the province.

—The band accompanying the "Black Flag" Company is a good one and attracted no little attention as it played on the streets to-day.

—Port Hope Reformers have organized into a permanent association with the following officers: Dr. R. A. Garbutt, president; Mr. Sculthorp, vice-president; and Mr. W. S. Bletcher, secretary-treasury.

—It is stated on good authority that Rev. Dr. Mockridge, formerly rector of Christ Church Cathedral, Hamilton, and now editor of the Canadian Missionary Magazine, of Toronto, will be appointed Bishop of Algoma.

—The joint committee of Peterborough and Northumberland counties met to-day at the Court House, and awarded the contract for the building of the Wallace Point bridge to the Central Bridge Company at $6,330.

—Mr. James Henderson, of the sixth concession of Otonabee, was in town this afternoon and states that he last night shot a huge bear on lot 26, and this morning on going over the same ground he was lucky enough to shoot a well grown cub.

—The Canadian General Electric Works closed down this afternoon in order to afford the employees an opportunity of visiting the fair. Four or five of the head officials of the company are also in town to-day and visited the grounds during the afternoon.

—In the violinist of the company, Herr Klingenfeld, we met an artist who inspired everyone with his brilliant rendition of Vieuxtemps, Ballade and Polonaise, while in Chopin's Nocturne in E flat he undertook to touch the deepest chords of the heart.—Gothenburg, (Sweeden).

—The ten dollars which was presented to the Protestant Home last week by Rev. Mr. McWilliams was not the result of a collection taken up in St. Andrew's church the previous Sunday, but was the offering received during a service held on July 7th, for the local L.O.L., True Blues and 'Prentice Boys Lodges.

—Mr. D. Elliott, Supt. of Construction, in the Canadian General Electric Works, returned from Montreal, yesterday, after placing in position the M. P. 300 generator, for supplying power to the Montreal Street Railway, for the company in connection with which the Canadian General works are now filling a large contract.

—Mr. P. Delaire, the practical boot and shoe maker, has just moved into a new shop on the corner of McDonnel and Reid streets, near The Wm. Hamilton Company's works. Mr. Delaire has made himself solid in this neighbourhood for turning out a substantial leather job, and expects to make things hustle in his new premises.

—As a C.P.P. train was running west of Pembroke the other day, a child about two years old fell out of the window of the first class car. The parents, not thinking of the window being open, had left the seat, and afterwards found the child was gone. Starting back in search of their boy they found him rolling in the sand, not injured in the least. The train was running at 25 miles an hour. People seem to have a penchant for falling off C.P.R. trains on this division.

He sat at his door at noonday;
He was lonely, glum and sad;
The flies were buzzing about him,
Led by a blue-winged gad.
Not a customer darkened his portals;
Not a sign of business was there;
But the flies kept on their buzzing
About the old man's hair.
At last, in misery, he shouted,
"Great Scott! I'm covered with flies!"
And the zephyrs that toyed with his whiskers asked:
"Why don't you advertise?"

—Anniversary Sunday will be observed on the 30th inst. by the members of the Park street Baptist church. Rev. Mr Trotter will conduct the service at the Mission in the morning, while his pulpit will be filled by Mr. Pady of the Mission. In the evening each of these gentlemen will deliver sermons from their own pulpits in commeration of the day. Special music is being prepared by the Mission choir for the occasion. On Monday evening the reports of the progress of the Mission will be presented.

—Mr. H. Calcutt, brewer, Ashburnham, has opened his malt house, and has in circulation dodgers at the Peterborough Exhibition stating that he requires ten thousand bushels of barley for malting purposes. Mr. Calcutt at the same time wishes the farmers to distinctly understand that he requires barley without stain. For first-quality white barley, not stained or cut, he will pay a cent a pound extra, at the same time making an allowance for overweight. Farmers should see Mr. Calcutt before disposing of thei grain. It —On the uptrip, to-day, the steamer City of Peterborough, from Rice Lake ports, sustained serious injuries at Hale's Bridge, on entering the gap. The storm prevailing swung the swing diagonally and the steamer's paddle boxes coming in contact were thereby demolished, considerable damage being done. The councillors of Otonabee and Monaghan should see that bridge is securely fastened after opening, as well as being closed to prevent accidents, at all times, winter included. The excursion was under the management of Mr. A. McLouds, of Gore's Landing, and was accompanied by the Cold Springs brass band. The steamer returned during the afternoon. Some 200 excursionists were aboard.

Council Meeting.

A meeting of the council was held last night to consider and pronounce upon the tenders for the outfall sewer. But in the absence of some information in regard to details, it was decided to defer the meeting for a day or two till such information should be forthcoming. The council will meet again for the consideration of the awarding of the tender for the new sewer and for the taking up of general business, on Wednesday evening. A motion was passed that the council present an address to Hon. Mackenzie Bowell.

For coughs, colds and bronchitis the best and safest remedy is "Madill's Pulmonic Cough Syrup." Each bottle has a positive guarantee attached to it. If it fails to cure, return empty bottle and your money will be refunded.

THE JUNIORS AGAIN SUCCESSFUL

They Now Claim the Junior Championship of the Town.

The Peterborough Junior Lacrosse Club and the Shamrocks played a first-class game of lacrosse yesterday afternoon on the P.A.A.A. grounds before quite a number of spectators, who appeared to be equally divided in favour of each of the teams. The Juniors were two men short and "Jim" McCabe was allowed to take the place of these two, but notwithstanding this the Juniors were placed at a disadvantage.

The teams lined up before Referee Geo. Horkins at 4 o'clock as follows:

PETERBOROUGH JUNIORS.		SHAMROCKS.
Craig	goal	Rogers
Brown	point	J McDonough
Lynch	cover point	Adams
———	1st defence field	Belknap
Jas McCabe	2nd "	Rickey
King	3rd "	LeHar
Crowley	centre	T McDonough
Guy	3rd home field	Galley
Watson	2nd "	McMahon
Borland	1st "	McNamara
Jno McCabe	outside home	Logan
Rickey	inside home	Carroll
W Phelan	field cap ain	J Begley
G S Hay	umpire	S Ray

Referee—G Horkins.

Summary:

1st game, Juniors, McCabe,		17½	min.
2nd	" Shamrocks, Galley,	7½	"
3rd	" " McDonough,	3	"
4th	" Juniors, McCabe,	10	"
5th	" Shamrocks, Logan,	9	"
6th	" Juniors, McCabe,	3	"
7th	" Juniors, Rickey,	15½	"

The Juniors took the first, third, sixth and seventh games, the Shamrocks taking the second, fourth and fifth games.

The play at times was fast, but neither team put up the game they are capable of. Brown, Lynch, King and Borland played well for the Juniors, while Adams, T. McDonough, Galley and Logan worked hard for the Shamrocks.

In the evening the Juniors had an oyster supper at the Palace Restaurant.

THE MYSTERY OF THE MAIL ROBBERY STILL UNSOLVED.

The Perpetrators Appear to Have Left Left no Clue—Is the Railway to Blame?

Inspector Macarow, of the Post Office Department, has been in town since yesterday, together with Superintendent of Division Jamieson, of the C. P. R., endeavouring to solve the mystery of the mail bag robbery of Saturday night or Sunday morning last. So far they will not admit having any clue as to who the perpetrators of the crime were and the police authorities take the same position.

Mr. Macarow states that he is of the opinion that the mail bag in question was never put in the strong box at the station designed for its reception, but was left lying carelessly in the baggage room by the baggagemaster. He thinks it was abstracted soon after it was left there and taken out through the back door to the spot where it was found. He casts the onus of the affair on the shoulders of the railway, but the Superintendent of the Division will not admit the contention until he has sifted the matter thoroughly, when, if the C. P. R. is to blame, the responsibility will be cheerfully assumed.

The Chief of Police agrees with the Inspector in regard to thinking that the bag was removed before the burning of the Petrolia Oil Company's Warehouse took place, as after its ignition there were too many people in the vicinity for the rifling of the mails to have taken place with impunity.

The pouch which disappeared is now known to have contained twelve registered letters or parcels, but the value of the abstracted matter cannot be ascertained until the claims of those who despatched it have been entered.

THE FALL ASSIZES.

Several Cases in Progress—A True Bill Against Devine for Burglary.

The assizes were resumed this morning. The first case taken up was that of Hubbs vs. The Central Bridge and Engineering Co., being a suit by the assignee of King & Co., founders, to recover a balance of account which it is claimed owed them by defendants but which they contest. Riddel, for defendants, moved to have matter referred to an official referee, which Justice Ferguson allowed. Sawers and Watson, Q.C., for plaintiff; Riddel and Dennistoun & Stevenson, for defendants.

The Grand Jury brought in a true bill against Devine for burglary and adjourned until to-morrow. In the case of Mason vs. the Town judgment was reserved.

MR. GEORGE J. EARLY RECEIVES AN ADDRESS.

Otonabee Lodge Members Express Their Regret at his Departure.

At the regular meeting of Otonabee Lodge No. 13 I.O.O.F. held last night Dr. Rose on behalf of the officers of Otonabee Lodge, read and presented the following address to Bro. G. J. Early, who is shortly leaving the town:

To J. G. Early, Esq.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:—It is with feelings of sincerest regret that we learn of your near departure from among us. The many years of your sojourn in Peterborough has had one effect upon us all. It has lead us to regard you and your very estimable lady with feelings of deepest respect. We have learned from your conduct before the public and in our social circles to respect every organization which claims you as a member and we feel that in losing you we lose the assistance of an earnest faithful labourer and supporter of every good cause, and we hereby desire to express in a very slight measure the regret entertained by the brethren of the Otonabee Lodge, No. 13, I. O. O. F. Your many years of earnest, cheerful labour, in the interest of our Order, has inspired many of junior brother n with a desire to emulate your good deeds, and we hope that the recollections of your past services will continue to operate in stirring us up to renewed efforts in behalf of Oddfellowship.

We also wish for you a continuation of the many blessings of this life, health, happiness and prosperity and hope for a reunion in the great future, where all true Oddfellows hope to meet and enjoy the blessings of an endless career of usefulness.

Yours in F. L. and T.,
ALEX. RUTHERFORD, N. G.
JAS. A. TULLY, V. G.
ANDREW ROSE, Secy.

In reply to this expression of esteem on the part of the members of the lodge, Mr. Early made the following remarks:—

Noble Grand, V. G., Officers and Members:—I thank you for the very kind words expressed in your address presented to me this evening. I feel I have only done what I think was my duty in connection with Oddfellowship. I will not forget the many very pleasant hours I have spent and enjoyed in Otonabee Lodge during the last thirteen years. My intention is to keep my membership in this lodge. I would impress upon the brethren a part of the work in our beloved Order which I have taken perhaps more interest in than another, that is visiting sick brothers. Its a good work and much good can be accomplished by it. Otonabee Lodge has always done her duty in this line. Let us remember the all-seeing Eye, which is watching our actions, and may our lives be such that when we part and say good-bye on earth, we may all make sure and meet in the Grand Lodge above.

Past Grand Mowry and a number of other brethren expressed their deep regret at Bro. Early's departure from our midst.

Mr. Early has been a resident of Peterborough for some 15 years and has been one of the foremost workers in the lodge room since the inauguration of Otonabee Lodge here. For three years he was president of the local branch of the Young Men's Christian Association and is known throughout the district as a most ardent worker in the interests of temperance.

There is a universal feeling of regret expressed by the citizens regarding the departure of Mr. Early for Toronto.

THE VERDICT

IN FAVOUR OF

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'.Y

The very large crowds that attended their opening display Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were unanimous in their opinion that as usual they were AWAY AHEAD of all other competitors. Judging from the number of orders taken in Millinery and the number of Jackets sold in the Mantle Department, they feel satisfied that again this season they can say WE LEAD AND OTHERS FOLLOW.

Carpet and Housefurnishing Dep't.

Was the first on the ground floor that attracted the attention of the sightseer on entering this large establishment. The floor of the large Carpet room was divided into three separate compartments separated by handsome Portiers and Curtains, the like of which are only to be found in large city houses. The floor of each compartment was covered with carpet with border to match at prices ranging from 65c. to $1.50. Eiderdown Comforters and Pillows were an attractive part of the display. The Bamboo Easils and Tables which are a new department in this great concern were being bought up rapidly. Any who have not yet seen this grand display will be repaid by calling.

Dress Goods and Silks.

This department was beautifully decorated showing a variety of goods for day an evening wear, the like of which any store might be proud of. Every article marked in plain figures the visitors could at a glance see how very cheap these excellent goods were offered.

Hosiery, Gloves and Laces.

In this department was a beautiful display of Silk Hosiery and Gloves for evening wear. Kid Gloves in profusion. Handkerchiefs in Silk Lawn and Cotton to suit every taste and purse.

Underwear and Corsets.

In this department was a lovely display of children's wear including Infants Embroidered Cashmere Robes, plain and coloured Jersey Flannel Mantelings which were very much admired by every one. A large Linen Lace Quilt shown on a blue Sateen Lining was also very attractive. Pillow Covers and Shams attracted the attention of the ladies. Ladies' Skirts and Silk Shawls occupied a whole table in their display.

Men's Tailoring and Furnishings.

This important department was not behind the others in its display of Suitings, Neckwear, Underwear and Shirts of all kinds, at prices greatly in favour of the buyer.

The Staple Department

Made a lovely display of Art Sateens, Muslins and Cretonnes, and Fancy Linen Goods which is a special department in this establishment.

The "Elevator"

Was decorated with Portiers, &c., making it quite inviting to enter.

The Millinery.

The immense display in this department surpassed anything ever attemped in town. The walls being covered with silk and velvets ornamented by numerous birds, wings, flowers, etc. The Millinery was admitted by every one to be the most stylish and most beautiful in town. The low prices for Hats and Bonnets was the great surprise to every one.

The Mantle and Jackets.

In this department is to be seen the largest stock in this part of the Province, the Jackets shown being mostly 36 to 40 inches in length. Tight waists and coat backs with large lapels, were pronounced by every one to be the only stock in town that were the latest productions. Although the room is full of Jackets and Wraps every garment of this large stock is this season's new goods purchased in July and selected personally by one of the firm who visits Germany twice a year.

The Whole Display

Is certainly a credit to this enterprising firm and very few towns can boast of such an establishment. This display will be on view during exhibition. All cordially invited.

The Central Exhibition Is Formally Opened.

HON. MACKENZIE BOWELL SO DECLARES.

The Formal Addresses by Town Council and the Directors—The Minister's Reply—The Exhibition in Full Swing—The Exhibits of Stock—General Notes of the Fair.

The tenth annual Central Exhibition began yesterday under favourable auspices. The weather seemed a little hostile, but towards evening cleared away, and the prospects, as far as weather is concerned, are that we shall have one of the most successful exhibits of the series.

The first day of the fair is always devoted to settling the exhibits in the main building, getting the stock into the stalls and closing up the stray entries of some exhibitors who will, it appears, always be behind.

The main building is full of exhibits. The tents of several exhibitors, of the adventurous purveyors of entertainment, dot the grounds and the scene, as one enters the gates, is a most animated one.

THE LIVE STOCK EXHIBIT.

A run through the stock pens showed that the exhibit is far in excess of other years and indicates that the Central Exhibition, under the energetic management of the president and directors, is gaining in interest and importance in the eyes of the public, and is attracting every year a larger number of owners of first class stock.

There was a splendid exhibit of horses, the entries being in excess of those of last year, while the animals were generally of a superior character. The following will indicate the principal exhibits in the several classes and the prize list will tell what animals gained the approval of the judges.

HORSES.

In thoroughbreds the exhibitors were Messrs. Birdsall & Son, John L. Patterson and T. H. Hassard.

Roadsters were exhibited by Messrs. Wm. Graham, W. H. Moore, Richard Parker, Wm. Rutherford, F. Birdsall & Son, Robt. Vance, John Haggarth, Andrew Cameron, Leonard McClelland, James F. Doherty, S. Dyell, John Coughlin, John Breckenridge, T. H. Hassard, W. J. Tully, Walter Leith, W. J. Cox, Geo. S. Walton, Jas. Armstrong, Robt. Garbutt, Richard Parker and Geo. Fitzgerald.

The exhibitors of carriage horses were represented by Messrs. Dr. Fraser, H. C. Garbutt, Alfred Raper, Thos. Cochrane, James Reid, John Breckenridge, Sid. Bennett, Miss Lilly Edgar, (ladies saddle horse), Messrs. Dundas & Grandy, T. H. Hassard, H. Roseborough, W. C. Dickson, Geo. Fitzgerald, Walter Leith, Jas. Jory, Wm. McNairn, W. J. Cox, Jas. E. Cullen, Geo. S. Walton, Levi S. Bowels, S. Dyell, Leonard McClelland, Nesbitt & Westlake, Robt. Garbutt, Richard Parker, Richard Croft, John Stewart, Richard Swain, R. H. Leary, and Stanley Henderson.

Hackneys were exhibited by Messrs. Levi S. Bowles and Nesbitt & Westlake, who had the field to themselves.

Agricultural horses brought out a considerable competition. The exhibitors were Messrs. S. J. Wallace, W. W. Shearer, Wm. Bowels, Wm. Graham, Wm Rutherford, John B. Fowler, Geo. Jeffrey, Stuart Armstrong, J. F. Doherty, Geo. Taylor, Jas. Reid, John Breckenridge, Jas. Jory, G. J. Galvin, Geo. E. Elliott, Richard Swain, Levi S. Bowles, S. Dyell, and Jas. Armstrong.

Heavy draught horses were well represented by the following exhibitors:—Messrs. Wm. Graham, Morris O'Brien, Geo. Jeffrey, Timothy Walsh, Jno. Mouncey, Richard Swain, John Breckenridge, Dundas & Grandy, John Clancy and S. Dyell.

CATTLE.

The cattle exhibit was an excellent one. The numbers exhibited being nearly fifty in excess of last year. The following gentlemen exhibited in the classes indicated:—

In thoroughbred Durhams the exhibitors were: Wm. Rae, Wm. Collins, S. F. Redmond, Birdsall & Son, (who exhibit ten fine animals besides a herd), R. H. Holdsworth, (who has seven excellent beasts and a herd), John Garbutt, Levi Skinner and Robert Garbutt.

Ayrshires were well represented by Messrs. Henry Humphries, (who exhibited several fine specimens besides a herd) and A. Humphries who was present with a fine exhibit of eight animals and a herd.

There was a splendid lot of Jerseys in the exhibition byres, Robert Reesor, of Markham, had 27 Jerseys on the grounds, D. H. Ketchum, five and a herd, Jos. Trennum, five fine animals, T. Birdsall & Son exhibited sixteen excellent beasts and a herd, Hinman Bros. show eighteen fine Jerseys and a herd of the same breed, Levi Skinner, four animals, W. C. Rightmeyer, five. Other exhibits were made by Z. Burnham, Robert Fife, Wm. Irwin, John Paten, Levi S. Bowles and Geo. S. Walton. Never before in the history of the society was there so large and excellent an exhibition of Jerseys.

Holsteins were represented by Messrs. Andrew Cameron (with five good animals), John Stothart and Stothart Bros. with six excellent exhibits.

Grades were represented by Mrs. John Moore, Jas. Head (Nicholls' Hospital), Henry Humphries, S. F. Redmond (with eleven head), F. Birdsall & Son, John Bell, Andrew Cameron, W. C. Rightmeyer, D. Kennedy, Wm. Irwin.

SHEEP.

The exhibition of sheep was a good one, the several classes being well filled.

In Leicesters the exhibitors were Messrs. James Wood, Andrew Cameron, John Fairbairn, H. C. Garbutt and Thomas E. Jory.

Cotswolds were exhibited by Mr. R. Vance, who was alone in this class.

Southdowns were numerously represented by Messrs. L. M. Courtice, R. S. Holdsworth and A. R. Kidd.

In Oxford-downs the exhibitors were Messrs. F. Birdsall & Son, Brown Bros., John Stothart and Adam Humphries.

Shropshire-downs were a well represented class. The exhibitors were Messrs. Robt. Vance, W. C. Rightmyer and Richard Swain.

SWINE.

There was a slight falling off in the swine exhibit as compared with last year. The breeds were represented as follows:

Berkshires were shown by Messrs. R. S. Holdsworth, Maher & Southworth, Brown Bros., A. R. Kidd, John Breckenride, David Forsyth, and Jos. Trennum. Chester Whites were exhibited by Messrs. F. Birdsall & Son, and W. C. Rightmyer.

Tamworths were shown by John Breckenridge and John Clancy.

Improved Yorkshires were represented, Robert Bowles, John Breckenridge, and Wm. McNairn.

Other breeds were shown by Wm. Collins, R. S. Holdsworth, Maher & Southworth H. C. Garbutt, John Breckenridge, James Jory, S. Staples, David Forsythe and John Clancy.

POULTRY.

There was a large and good exhibit of poultry nearly as large as that of last year.

Tuesday, Sept. 25th.

The weather the second day was bright but rather cool. The attendance was not very large during the morning, there were about four hundred visitors passed the wicket.

THE INSIDE EXHIBIT.

The main building in common with all the other departments of the Central, presented a marked general improvement in almost every particular—this consisting in both excess of exhibits and in their excellence.

The only department in which there was noticed a deficit was that of grains. The quantity was not by any means a fair representation of the grain-growing capacity of the county. But this shortage was more than made up by the splendid show of roots and vegetables, the exhibits being numerous and the quality A 1. The same fineral remarks apply to the exhibit of domestic economies—canned fruit, home made made bread, honey, etc., etc. The display of dairy products was also excellent, there being five cheese factories and three home dairies competing. In fruit—apples particularly—there was a large show, the quality being of a high standard and the exhibits so numerous that the space devoted to fruit was unduly taxed. There was a small display of other fruits.

LADIES WORK.

The ladies have done their full share in adding to the interest of the inside exhibit. The domestic department, including flannels, blankets and quilts, is exceedingly well represented. The extensive display of quilts and counterpanes would lead one to expect that a new indication had been provided of the probability of a hard winter. In the special department of the ladies, the fancy work, that absorbs so much of the feminine attention and so much of the masculine cash, there was a magnificent and varied display. Never before at any previous exhibition have the ladies done so great credit to their taste and patient perseverance in the domain of fancy work of every description.

MISCELLANEOUS EXHIBITS.

The miscellaneous and special exhibits were well represented.

Mr. W. J. Devlin had a good display of horse collars. He showed a collection of two pairs of common collars and two pairs of special collars, and challenges the county to compete with him in this line.

Mr. Geo. Armstrong, town, has a display of wicker work, including a crib, music holder, fancy stand and fancy baskets.

Messrs. Grafton & Co., clothing manufacturers, have a large exhibit of their stock, tastefully arranged.

In the department opposite, Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, have also an extensive display of their wares.

Hall, Gilchrist & Co., the great dry goods house, have a department devoted to an exhibition of the various wares that have made their establishment a household word in the Midland district. These include a most excellently arranged display of carpets, curtains, mantles, silks, sofa pillows, chenille curtains, etc. This department was the centre of attraction during the fair, especially to the ladies.

Miss E. Keane has on exhibition "Crow's Mechanical Taylor System" of cutting and fitting dresses, mantles, jackets, etc.

Miss Macauley has on exhibition the Prof. De La Marten scientific tailor system of cutting and fitting dresses, basques jackets, etc.

Messrs. Mitchell Bros. exhibit special samples of the White domestic sewing machine for different classes of work.

The Brooks Manufacturing Company exhibit a Brooks heater, for which is claimed a great economy of fuel, and an unexcelled heating capacity. Their collection also includes several fine samples of radiators throughout the building and other exhibits of a speculative character, including Frank Taggart & Sons' display of jewelry and allied goods; and the Green Co.'s champion sap evaporator.

There were several other exhibits of minor importance.

AN AMATEUR ART EXHIBIT.

A finely lighted space on the first floor of the main building is devoted to a well hung display of the efforts of amateur artists. The display was large among the chief exhibits were those of Miss Annie Simons, Miss May Kelly, a pupil of Mr. D. A. Shaw, and daughter of Mr. Councillor Kelly, and Miss Flora Powell, of Keene. Miss Simons shows ten fine frames, including landscapes, figures and panels, in oil and coloured crayons. Miss Kelly shows two fine landscapes, and Miss Powell has several portraits, figure subjects and crayon studies. There are a large number of other exhibitors for whom no necessary identification was presented. In this department was shown a good display of school pupils hand-writing.

THE FORMAL OPENING.

At two o'clock the distinguished visitor, who was to formally open the exhibition, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, arrived on the grounds. He and Australia in commission, Mr. Larke, were entertained at luncheon by the directors at the Grand Central hotel. Arriving at the grounds the party ascended the platform that had been erected for the occasion, when Mr. G. E. Elliott, president of the Central Exhibition, read the following

ADDRESS:

Hon. Lt. Col. Mackenzie Bowell, P.C., Minister of Trade and Commerce:

SIR,—We, the president and directors of the West Peterborough Central Exhibition desire to most cordially welcome you to these grounds and to thank you with equal heartiness for the honour and favour you have done us by being present to open the tenth annual exhibition of the society.

We welcome you first as a Minister of the Crown, and secondly as an honoured citizen of this district for over half a century. We recognize the honour and favour of your presence all the more on account of the interest which we are assured you feel in the promotion of the farming industry, upon whose prosperity depends so largely the prosperity and progress of our beloved country. Appreciating as we do your devoted services, as a member of Parliament since Confederation, and as one of Her Majesty's advisers for sixteen years, we feel that only faithful, devoted and effective service to both constituency and county, could have sustained you in these high and responsible positions. We also feel that our exhibition and its aims have won your sympathy by the circumstance of the prosperity of the interests you represent — Trade and Commerce—and the agricultural calling being so intimately connected and interdependent. We deem it our duty to thank the Government, of which you are a member, for the interest which it (in common with our Provincial Government, working on similar lines) has taken in the practical promotion of the agricultural advancement of this province. In conclusion permit us to again bid you heartily welcome, and to invest you with the freedom of the fair, and, so far as individual citizens have authority, with the freedom of the town and county.

On behalf of the Directorate of the Central Exhibition.

GEO. E. ELLIOTT, President.
WM. J. GREEN, Secretary.

Peterborough, Sept. 25th, 1894.

An address on behalf of the town of Peterborough was read by Town Clerk Armstrong as follows:—

The Honourable Lt.-Col. Mackenzie Bowell, P. C. Senator, Minister of Trade and Commerce:

The council of the town of Peterborough are pleased to have an opportunity to join in welcoming you to Peterborough on this occasion. You are considered by us as to some extent at least, belonging to this district, and while the people of Canada have as a whole watched your long and useful career with pride, we have felt an especial interest in your work for the Dominion.

Your record as a member of the Government of Canada is unequalled, as it is within a couple of weeks of sixteen years since you assumed an important office in the government and during all those years you have discharged the duties of a Minister in departments of first importance. We cannot but remember that of those who were called to take office with Sir John Macdonald in 1878 you alone remain in the Cabinet, and we heartily congratulate you on the many years of faithful service you have been enabled to give your country.

The interests you have taken in all branches of trade and commerce has been appreciated and we hope that your recent efforts to extend the trade of Canada with our sister colonies will be crowned with complete success.

In welcoming you on this occasion we hope that your visit will be of a pleasant character, for we feel that we are bidding welcome one of ourselves who has won richly merited honours and distinctions and one who has further honours awaiting him for services faithfully performed for his Queen and country, for we trust that you will for many years to come be able to devote your eminent abilities and ripe experience to assist in governing the Dominion in the halls of parliament.

S. H. ARMSTRONG, Town Clerk. JAS. KENDRY, Mayor.

Peterborough, September 25th, 1894.

Mayor Kendry then, in a brief address, introduced Hon. Mr. Bowell. He said that last year the exhibition had been opened by a member of the Government fresh from Paris, who represented one great industry of the country. This year they had present an ther minister who represented another department of the public service, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, whom he introduced.

Hon. Mr. Bowell was received with loud applause and expressed the pleasure it gave him to be present to open the tenth exhibition of the Agricultural Society. He was pleased to note the progress which the surroundings indicated. It was his first visit to town since 1859, and he was greatly gratified with the progress which the town had made. He referred to Canada as the leading agricultural country of the world. He had just returned from Australia, and spoke only the sober truth, that Canada in its extent and the variety of its resources, in its climate generally, and in the province for the future was the best country in the world. They would after referring to the importance of the farming interests of the country, and of the dairying and cheese industry especially. The distinguished minister declared the exhibition formally opened.

Mr. J. S. Larke, Australian Commissioner, then gave a brief address, referring to the change that had come over the system of farming in Canada, to Canada's distinguished success at Chicago and to the necessity of farmers accommodating their style of agriculture to the changing conditions of their calling, and the competition, especially in wheat raising, which they had to meet from eastern countries.

At the conclusion of his remarks the visitors were shown over the grounds by the president, and the exhibition was in full swing.

There was a very large crowd of spectators on the grounds, and the several events, will be chronicled in due course.

TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW.

There will be an acrobatic and trapeze performance in front of the grand stand, balloon ascension and parachute drop, and in the evening, a splendid display of fireworks. On Wednesday, there will be the Association and Rugby football matches, the stallion running and hotel-keepers races, and the dog races.

By the time this issue goes to press, the exhibition will be in full swing.

Good Cooking.

An eminent expert in the art of cooking says that "cookery is the art of putting every morsel to the best use; it is the exercise of skill, thought and ingenuity, to make every particle of food yield the utmost nourishment and pleasure, of which it is capable." There are many who enjoy very little of even the best cooked food. Those could increase their enjoyment of the good things of life by the continued and judicious use of Eseljays Liver Lozenges.

Furniture.

The long nights are coming and people are preparing to make home attractive. A. Clegg is now receiving, daily, the newest things in furniture. A full assortment in every line. Parlour suites, dining room furniture, all grades very cheap. In bedroom suites, the largest line ever offered in Peterborough, especially in suites ranging in price from $14 to $25—by far the best values ever offered. Fancy chairs, centre tables, spring beds, mattresses, pillows, etc.—A. CLEGG, 427 George street. dw

IT PREVENTS THE ENTRANCE of disease—pure blood or an active liver. How explained? The circulation of the blood is the great highway over which the germs of disease travel, the liver is the quarantine through whose gate any dread disease may or may not pass, as the liver chooses.

Are you watchful? Is your blood in order and your liver active, so as to repel disease? If not, you will find in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery just the help you need. It comes to your assistance when you have such warnings of impure blood and inactive liver, as pimples, boils or carbuncles; or a feeling of lassitude, weakness and despondency. When your flesh is, from any cause, "reduced below a healthy standard," you've only to take the "Discovery," which will set all the organs into vigorous action and builds up both flesh and strength. Avoid nauseous preparations of Cod liver oil. They add fat, but not wholesome flesh or healthy tissue.

A LITTLE HUMOR.

He—We have a clock that says "Cuckoo." She—We are going to get one that says: "What, must you go?"—Life.

First Tourist—Have you yet beheld the majesty of Niagara? Second Tourist—I should say I had. He charged me eight dollars for a ride in his hack.—N. Y. Herald.

He—These are very big waits. She (pointing out an announcement in the programme)—Yes, you see, dear, the play is produced on a big scale.—Drake's Magazine.

An Effort of Memory.—Charlie—I think—ah—I must have seen you before, Prunelle—Yes. You were introduced to me in the drawing-room about five minutes ago.—N. Y. Herald.

Dealer—This is the best parrot we have. But I won't sell him without letting you know his one fault; he'll swear if his food doesn't suit him. Miss Fitz—I'll take him; it will seem quite like having a man in the house.—N. Y. Herald.

Biddy Sitting on Five Kittens.

An attendant at the Rome State Custodial Asylum a day or two ago found a hen with singular maternal tastes. The hen had shown a great predilection to sit and was finally found on a nest in the barn. The attendant took her out of the nest and was amazed to find that she had been sitting on five wee kittens. The hen evinced so strong an affection for her queer family that it was almost impossible to keep her away from the nest. In spite of the pains taken she was back on the nest again the next day, but all except one of the kittens had been taken away. It is supposed that she came across the kittens in their home and, after driving the mother away, adopted them as her own, and that when she was taken off the nest the old cat carried all but one of her kittens away.—Rome (N.Y.) Sentinel.

Origin of the Word Honeymoon.

It was formerly a custom among Teutonic nations to drink a liquor made from honey, and called hydromel, for a moving age (a month) after the wedding feast, hence the name "honeymoon." The Teutons knew very little about treacle, as we learn that the name Teutoni was given, 230 B.C., to a race of people who had long been settled in the country, and in the provinces which are now known respectively as Denmark and Schleswig-Holstein, but which were then known respectively as Denmark and Schleswig-Holstein, but which were then known collectively as the Chersonesus Cimbrica. The Tentons may even have brought the custom to England with them when they came over the Kimmerian Bosphorus about 680 B.C.

A LITTLE HUMOR.

Hazy—Did you ever contribute to the press? Mary (blushingly)—I have turned down the light sometimes.—Chicago Sun.

"As terrible as an army with banners" has no reference to the political parade, although the banners are terrible enough.—N. Y. Herald.

Brown—I was looking for "mud;" but in this dictionary the letter "m" is torn out. —Fogg—Why not look under "water?" That's the place to find mud.—Boston Transcript.

A peculiarity of their kind.—Manufacturer—What makes you think electric clocks should sell so freely? Drummer—They're all to be charged, are they not?—Jeweler's Weekly.

PLATINUM AS MONEY.

An Interesting Experiment in Coinage Made by the Russian Government.

"Once upon a time," said Mr. C. O. Baker, jr., of New York, who is connected with the only platinum refining plant in the United States, "Russia concluded to try the experiment of using platinum as a money metal. There is really little of that article found anywhere else on the globe except in the Ural Mountains, in the Czar's dominions, and having a monopoly of the precious stuff, the idea of using it as a coin seemed plausible. But it didn't prove a glittering success, and I have never seen any coin made of platinum by that government dated later than 1844.

"Here is one of the samples of the Russian experiment," said Mr. Baker, taking from his pocket a piece about the size of a silver quarter. It bore the date 1830 and had some Russian characters on it signifying it to be of the value of six rubles, or about $4.75 in American money.

"I gave $11 for it, however," said Mr. Baker, "and its intrinsic value is worth nearly that amount. Of course, no other nation would go in with Russia and take platinum for money, seeing that no other country produced any of it to speak of, which may be a tip to some of our silver friends. Platinum is lower than it was two years ago, being worth now $10.50 an ounce, though a while back it was worth $17 an ounce. At its present price it is just about half as valuable as gold. It is the heaviest of metals, its specific gravity exceeding that of gold about 5 per cent., and so ductile that it can be drawn into a thread 1-1000 of an inch in diameter."—Washington Post.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th.—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

HON. MACKENZIE BOWELL AND MR. J. S. LARKE.

ADDRESSES BY TWO OF OUR EMINENT CANADIANS.

A Discussion Concerning the Commercial Future of Canada—The Foreign Markets to be Invaded—Australia Needs Many Canadian Products.

It was after nine o'clock by almost half an hour, when the trained steamed into the G. T. R. station bearing Hon. MacKenzie Bowell, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Mr. J. S. Larke, the newly appointed Australian Commissioner, to the town. The two gentlemen were met at the platform by Mr. James Stevenson, M. P., and Mr. Robert Fair, President of the Board of Trade, and driven to the Council Chamber, where a large audience had gathered to hear the Minister and Commissioner explain the position in which Canada now stands, in regard to the extension of her foreign trade.

Arrived at the Council Chamber, loud applause and hearty handshakes greeted the visitors, after which Mr. Fair took the chair and made a few brief remarks, as follows :—

GENTLEMEN,—It gives me very great pleasure to be able to announce that we have with us to-night two gentlemen whose intricate knowledge with the trade and commercial relations of our Dominion cannot fail to make their visit extremely interesting to the members of the Board of Trade, and to all our citizens who feel a deep concern in these matters. Permit me therefore, on behalf of the Board, most cordially to welcome the Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Mr. J. S. Larke, Trade Commissioner to Australia, to our meeting.

It is impossible for anyone familiar with Canadian politics to be ignorant of the untiring efforts which have been made by our distinguished visitor, Hon. Mr. Bowell, to increase and foster our colonial and foreign trade.

The honour which he has done us to-night in being present at our meeting will be shared in by every citizen of Peterborough, and I am sure we will all be interested in listening to any remarks he may be pleased to make.

As representative from this Board I had the honour of being one of the numerous guests of the Honourable gentleman, which attended the banquet tendered by Her Majesty's Canadian Ministers to the Colonial delegates in connection with their important meeting held in Ottawa some time ago, and while we cannot hope to give him the same great pleasure which it was my privilege then to enjoy, yet in our humble way we will do our be-t to give him a hearty welcome while in Peterborough, and hope that this short sojourn among us may not be without interest to him.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell was then introduced to the audience by Mr. Fair, and the Minister, who had many old personal friends present, who was warmly received.

MR. BOWELL'S REMARKS.

After expressing his regret at being unable to be with the Board at an earlier hour, Mr. Bowell spoke at some length in regard to the establishment of a monthly steamship service between Canada and the Australian colonies. The offer of the government to grant a subsidy of $125,000 for the establishment of a weekly line which for many years had stood unaccepted on the statute books, was dwelt upon and the final awarding of this sum for a monthly service was explained.

The object of his visit to Australia was the topic for a few remarks from Mr. Bowell, in which he expanded on the good which had resulted from the holding of the Intercolonial Conference which he had been chiefly instrumental in forwarding.

The advantage of closer commercial union between the British colonies was pressed by all the representatives at this conference and the arguments which they advanced in favour of their contention in all cases well founded.

He explained how the seven Australasian colonies all had their own separate tariff policies and of these colonies, some with protective policies and others advocating and believing in low tariff, admitting Canadian products on the same footing. The representatives of these colonies had, however, all expressed themselves as willing to make great concessions in favour of any or all other British colonies.

The advantage of receiving their summer products in the winter here and exchanging for them our summer products, which would reach Australia in winter, and the mutual advantage which would be derived from the traffic, was the subject of Mr. Bowell's consideration for some time, as was the necessity of having a man interested in the advancement of the commercial future of Canada to represent the Dominion in Australia, in the capacity, not of a salesman for Canadian products, but as an adviser as to what goods of Canadian manufacture could be shipped to Australia, and as in competition with other producers.

Mr. Bowell then spoke of the other markets in the world which were now open to Canadian enterprise, but cautioned his hearers to study well the requirements of the different markets before sending goods to them. The peculiarities of the people in these foreign countries required no inconsiderable allowances to be made. For instance, the populace of Jamaica would buy no flour unless it came in barrels bound with a certain kind of hoop. At first Canadian manufacturers were unaware of this idiosyncracy on the part of he inhabitants of Jamaica, and in consequence were subjected to heavy losses by being unable to dispose of their flour in that country. Jamaica, he stated, was not the only country of which the inhabitants were possessed of peculiarities of this nature—the Chinese were partial to leather of a particular shade and the Australians wanted only English made boots, so it was the world over.

Mr. Larke he stated was now travelling through the country with the purpose of meeting the members of Boards of Trade and other business men, in order to ascertain what was amongst the Canadians in regard to the effort which was being made to cement closer commercial ties between Australia and the Dominion.

Loud applause greeted the expression on the part of Mr Bowell to the effect that in comparison with other countries, Canada was as progressive as any, and far ahead of the majority.

He was heartily in accord with the sentiments of Sir Richard Cartwright as expressed in Halifax, when he stated that union with the United States was desirable, provided reasonable concessions could be secured, but these reasonable concessions could never be secured, as he himself with other Canadian statesmen, who had interviewed James G. Blaine on the subject, could testify.

He advanced the claim that the repeal of the Reciprocity Treaty with the United States was of immense advantage to Canadians, as this action made them look abroad for a market, instead of confining their attention entirely to the United States.

The extension of the "drawback principle" to the manufacturers for exportation, he thought, would greatly facilitate the growth of trade with Australia and though not wishing to express himself positively concerning the future policy of the government; still, he thought that he could safely say that if the arrangements at present contemplated were carried out, such encouragement would be given manufacturers as to induce them to and manufacture more largely for exportation.

The action of sending goods out to agents residing in foreign countries was deprecated by Mr. Bowell. In every case, he stated, it was better to send a man along with the goods. As an instance of the advantage of adopting this latter course, he mentioned the fact that a Canadian manufacturer of rubber goods, whom he knew, had written out to Australia to an agent asking if there was a market there for the produce of his manufactory. The reply was in the negative. Some years later he discovered that the agent to whom he wrote was a manfacturer of rubber goods himself, and had been thus shutting him out of the market in dread of competition.

In concluding his address, the Minister gave the whole affair a political tinge by expressing the hope that the Canadians would endorse and justify the course the Government was pursuing in endeavouring to promote and foster the scheme of a closer business connection with the other imperial colonies, and expressed the belief that those not so doing would be proving themselves more of politicians than patriots.

When the Minister resumed his seat, the applause was most hearty, as was that which greeted the Colonial Commissioner when he rose to address the audience.

MR. LARKE SPEAKS.

Upon being introduced to the large audience which had now gathered, Mr. Larke spoke of the fact that at present the produce of the manufactories in Canada was greater than the demand in the home markets, and consequently the operatives in these factories were compelled to be idle during certain portions of the year. The only way to obviate this difficulty was to look afield for a foreign market. If the other British colonies did not afford scope for such a market, he would like to hear a good reason to the contrary, as many of these colonies did not manufacture for themselves.

There were many of the natural products of Canada which could be worked up by the manufacter at home and abroad. Paper, for instance, was required in Australia to the extent of two and a half million dollars worth yearly. Possessing, as she did, the very trees whose substance was most suitable for pulp, and consequently paper, there was no apparent reason why Canadian paper factories should not supply this demand, or at at least the greater portion of it. Then there was leather—Australia also imported two and a half million dollars worth of this commodity. Canada could easily supply this want with the best leather in the world. There were other articles too numerous to mention which were produced in Canada and needed in Australia to a greater or less degree, and which should and would eventually find their market in those colonies, going either across the continent and by the Pacific Ocean or by the old Atlantic route. He had been appointed to promote this traffic and he had confidence enough in himself to think that he would be able to advise Canadians in such away as to afford them a in which to dispose of their goods. There was fully $100,000,000 worth of articles required by the Australiasian colonies, he asserted, which Canada could just a well supply as not.

PERCEPTIBLY LARGER MARKET

While our labour was not the cheapest in the world, it was the most intelligent and in every case brains told in the end. A manufacturer in St. Thomas only the other day had told him that he could turn out more work with ten Canadians in St. Thomas than he formerly could with twelve Americans in Buffalo. The former were more biddable and united science and skill with strength in the performance of their labour.

Soft timber and fish which could be exported in bulk quantities to Tasmania and others of the colonies (which had no products of this nature of their own) would be handled by the railways and steamship lines on account of the quantities which could be shipped.

Canadians, he claimed, possessed a great advantage over others on account of the good name for honesty in their transactions which they bore and when articles were exported there was a great deal in sending an honest man out with honest goods. He agreed perfectly with Mr. Bowell in saying that it was a great mistake to consign goods to an unknown agent in a foreign market. A trusted man sent out with the exported commodities would do much to insure their early disposition.

In going out to Australia Mr. Larke stated that he would consider it his first duty to ascertain which of the Canadian products the Australiasian markets would stand. He already knew that our boots and shoes, though manufactured out of the best leather in the world, could not be sold in Australia, as the colonists were used to the English shoe and no other, in consequence, would be handled by the dealers. There was everything, he thought, in sending forth only such articles to which they were consigned. Exporters would then never become discouraged as they frequently did if their goods did not sell easily.

Before concluding his most comprehensive address, Mr. Larke expressed the hope that during his stay in Peterborough the business men of the town would approach him without hesitancy and exchange with him their views as regards the markets which could be found for the produce of the large local manufactories.

The long and loud applause which was accorded Mr. Larke fully showed that his address was greatly appreciated by the audience.

A vote of thanks to the two eloquent advocates for the extension of Canadian trade and commerce, was ably moved and seconded by Messrs. R. H. Mulholland and B. Shortly. The motion was coupled with a resolution electing both gentlemen honourary members of the Board of Trade. Needless to say the motion was most enthusiastically carried.

This morning, the two visitors were driven around to the different manufactories in the town, by members of the Board of Trade. Both expressed their delight at the apparent prosperity of the various works which were visited.

Millinery Opening Days

WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th.

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

THE NEW SHIP CANAL.

It is Expected to be Ready for Navigation in a Month.

DESCRIPTION OF THE WORK

It Has Been in Course of Erection for Five Years and a Half—Its Length and Height of Walls—The Formal Opening to be Fittingly Celebrated.

SAULT ST. MARIE, Ont., Sept. 26.—Water was let into the canal on Monday night and since then it has been filling at the rate of nine inches an hour. The work is standing the test of the water well.

Among the prominent persons who were present were Hon. John Haggart, Minister of Railways and Canals; Collingwood Schrieber, his deputy; J. B. Spencer, chief draughtsman, and Messrs. Hugh and John Ryan, of the firm of contractors, and a large crowd of people. There was no ceremony attending the letting of the water.

All that remains to be done to complete the work is to place the gates in position, install the machinery for the working of them and remove the dams at the upper and lower entrances of the canal. It is expected that the great enterprise will be ready for navigation within a month at the latest. The water was put into the canal to enable the contractors to float the gates on pontoons and put them into place.

The ship canal is a magnificent piece of engineering. One similar to it is now under course of construction on the American side of the river. The amount appropriated for the canal was $4,000,000 and it will be completed within that appropriation.

Work was commenced by the contractors, Hugh Ryan & Co., on May 1, 1889. The length of the canal is 3,700 feet, running through a neck of land jutting out from the mainland. The masonry walls are 1,106 feet on either side. The lock is 900 feet long from gate to gate and 60 feet wide. The walls are 11 feet wide at the top and 20 at the bottom. Around the gates the walls are a uniform width of 25 feet. There will be but one lift to overcome the 18 3-4 feet of fall between the upper and lower levels.

There will be 21 feet of water over the mitre still, taking the lowest recorded water level. The filling and emptying of the lock will be accomplished by means of four culverts beneath the floor of the lock. In this floor are 152 openings through which the water flows up or down as required. There are three sets of gates at the eastern or lower end. One of these sets is composed of gates to be used only when it is desired to empty the locks for repairs or other purposes. Another set is for use in case of accident. At the upper end of the lock there will be a main gate and a guard gate. Electric power will be used to operate the gates.

The completion of the canal and lock is an important event and the Government will celebrate the formal opening of the work in a fitting manner.

Joseph Chamberlain Speaks at Leeds.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Joseph Chamberlain, speaking at Leeds yesterday, said that never had opposition to home rule for Ireland been so justified as it was at the present time. The course of recent events had proved that the Irish party was not made of such stuff that any English government could safely trust its words. Ever since home rule had been defeated the members of the party had been engaged in blackening each others characters and painting portraits of each other which taken altogether would form a chamber of horrors. If the government should now appeal to the country on the question of home rule for Ireland a triumphant majority would be returned against it.

Justin McCarthy Writes About the Lords

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Justin McCarthy, leader of the anti-Parnellites in the House of Commons, has an article in the latest number of the New Review, in which he expresses surprise and regret that the government did not before the close of the session declare its attitude toward the House of Lords. The Irish people are not to blame, Mr. McCarthy says, if they are beginning to lose trust in the assurances given them, seeing that the government has delayed dealing with the House of Lords. He hopes and believes that during the autumn campaign such assurances will be given as will clear up the situation.

SANITARY CONVENTION

Delegates From All Over the Continent Meet at Montreal.

AN IMPORTANT ASSOCIATION

Their Object the Protection of the Public Health—The Appointment of Ministers of Public Health Advocated—Several Important Papers Presented.

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—The formal opening of the American Health Association took place last night and was the occasion of a brilliant gathering of medical men and representative hygienists, who assembled at the Windsor Hall. The president of the association, Dr. E. P. LaChapelle, of Montreal, presided and seated with him on the platform were: Hon. J. A. Chapleau, Lieut.-Governor of Quebec; Hon. E. H. Pelletier, Provincial Secretary; Mayor Villeneuve, Dr. Craik, Dean of McGill University; Dr. Hingston and other prominent medical men.

Dr. Craik welcomed the delegates on behalf of the local committee in a brief address. He said the object of the association should appeal to every one. The association was established many years ago, having for its chief object the protection of public health. The roll of membership included all the sanitarians of eminence on the continent. It was not a society of doctors exclusively but included all who had to do with public health.

Lieut.-Governor Chapleau, as chief magistrate of the province, welcomed the delegates in an eloquent speech in French and English. He spoke of the praiseworthy objects of the association now in view and said that no body of men deserved more support. He promised that the interests of public health would always receive attention at his hands.

Provincial Secretary Pelletier also welcomed the delegates and was followed by Dr. James Chaco, who spoke on behalf of the Mexican delegates in the Spanish language.

Dr. LaChappelle then delivered the presidential address, which contained an exhaustive report of the work of the association since its foundation. The association since it was founded 23 years ago, had never ceased to labor for the advancement of sanitary science, for the promoters of measures and organisation that should effect the practical accomplishment of the law of public health. It had extended its influence over the whole of the American continent. He discussed the measures adopted and defended the maintenance and efficiency of the quarantine system, as a preventative of epidemics. A great work had been done but much yet remained for the association to accomplish. The president advocated the appointment by all governments of a minister of public health.

At the conclusion of the president's address a unanimous vote of thanks was passed to him and the convention adjourned.

At the preliminary meeting papers were presented by Dr. Nuttall, of John Hopkins University; Dr. Tle, of the Pennsylvania Board of Health; Dr. Wyatt Johnson, of McGill; Dr. Hodgetts and Dr. Bryce, of Toronto, who dealt with the question of diphtheria; Dr. LaBerge, of Montreal, who read a paper on vaccination; and Dr. Griffith, of Kansas City, who dealt with the subjects of the transportation of the dead.

A resolution was passed against the transportation of the remains of people dying of contagious diseases. A number of papers have to be submitted to the convention.

A Motorman Convicted of Manslaughter.

NEWARK, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Motorman Michael Lewis, of the Newark & South Orange Trolley road, who was convicted of manslaughter on Saturday, has been sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Lewis is the first motorman to be convicted upon a similar charge in Newark, where accidents have occurred with alarming frequency.

Ten Families Drowned.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—A special from Fresnille, Mexico, says:—A terrible water spout is reported from the village of Suchil, in the mountains of Durango, northwest of here. The deluge carried away a woodchopper's camp of ten families, and all are believed to have been drowned.

An Advance in Coal Prices.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The anthracite coal sales agent have advanced the eastern price of coal to the May circular which was $3.50 for broken and egg and $3.75 for stone and chestnut. Eastern prices were advanced $4 per ton for grate and $4.15 for other sizes to Buffalo. These prices take effect immediately.

An Eighteen-Year-Old Bank Robber.

MOUNT STERLING, Ill., Sept. 26.—Ralph Conklin, a boy of 18 years, single-handed, robbed the Bloomfield-Skyles Bank here, and compelled the cashier to hand over $411. While attempting to escape a citizen drew a revolver and compelled the young bandit to surrender. The money was recovered and Conklin was jailed.

Two Strikers Heavily Sentenced.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 26.—Judge Ross, in the Federal Court, sentenced two strikers, members of the A. R. U., to eighteen months' imprisonment in the county jail and to pay a fine of five hundred dollars each. The men were among those who attempted to intimidate non-union men of the Southern Pacific road during the strike.

The Ultra-Moral Crusade in England.

BIRMINGHAM, Sept. 26.—In order to prevent the perusal of racing and betting news as much as possible the Birmingham and Aston Free Library Committees are having all such matter obliterated as soon as the newspapers are received at the libraries by pasting over it blank slips of paper.

Probably a Murder.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Maude Mask, 27 years old, of No. 121 Orchard street, was found dead in front of No. 104 Orchard street. There was a cut on the back of her head. Simon Glory, 45 years old, who was in the girl's company last night, has been arrested.

HALL MAY RESIGN NOW.

The Treasurer of Quebec Again Disagrees With His Colleagues.

FINANCES IN A CRITICAL STATE

Provincial Debentures Mature Next January and the Government Would Like to Know How to Provide for Them—Mr. Hall's Plan Not Approved.

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—Somewhat of a sensation has been caused in political circles by the report that another crisis was impending in Quebec politics and that Mr. Hall, the Treasurer, was likely to resign. The immediate cause of his resignation, says the report, is a difference of opinion upon the important question how to provide for the provincial debentures maturing next January.

Last June the Canadian Pacific gave six months notice of its intention to repay the Province $7,000,000 which was the amount of the purchase money of the North Shore Road. Under the terms of the sale they have the right of payment at any time on giving six months notice and the Government have the right to compel payment on giving six months notice at any time after the expiration of twenty years from the date of the sale (1882.) Meanwhile the debt bears interest at the rate of five per cent., and as the Government can now borrow money at the rate of four per cent., the Premier and most of his colleagues are not anxious for the repayment to be made. Although the company has given notice of its intention to pay $7,000,000, it is hoped they may consent to keep the money longer.

Mr. Hall, it is understood, is anxious that the repayment should be accepted and part of the money applied to meeting the provincial obligations maturing in January. Another question, however, arises in this connection, and that is whether this can really be done. At the time of the sale of the North Shore railway one of the cries raised against the sale was that the purchase money would be squandered, and that in a few years the province would have neither railway nor money. This cry was met by passing an Act providing that the price of the railway should be appropriated to the redemption of certain loans already created, amounting to ten millions and maturing in the years 1904, 1906 and 1908. It is held by most of the Ministers that it would be illegal to apply the C. P. R.'s seven millions to meet a loan made subsequently to this Act, or indeed any other purposes than those specified in the Act.

One clause of the Act reads as follows: "The Provincial Treasurer is prohibited from employing, even temporarily, the money arising from the sale of the Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and Occidental railway, and the interest to be derived therefrom for any other purposes than that above enacted."

The crisis has been long impending. There is added to it a dramatic element by the presence here of Lieut.-Governor Chapleau. Hon Mr. Hall maintains a firm attitude and has been assured of a practically unanimous support of the English-speaking Conservatives in the Legislature. But his greatest strength comes from within the Cabinet itself. The present dispute hangs upon a souvenir of the Mercier regime, the famous four million dollar loan. With great difficulty Hon. Mr. Hall succeeded after visiting various money markets to renew for one year the loan, which matures in January next. Now the Cabinet is in the embarrassing position of attempting to meet its obligations out of an empty treasury.

The Provincial Treasurer, whose views are said to be supported by two colleagues, favors overcoming the difficulty by floating a four million dollar loan, 4 per cent. at par for 50 years. A majority of the Ministry, including Premier Taillon, oppose any such arrangement. Their proposition is that the province should sell 3 per cent. bonds at $77.32 for the same period. It meets with considerable approval from active politicians who do not sit on the Treasury benches. It is claimed that the superiority of such an arrangement over the plans suggested by Hon. Mr. Hall is that one per cent. will be saved, while due allowance is made for the possibility of provincial credit improving in the future.

A "Jack-the-Hugger" Arrested.

WINDSOR, Sept. 26.—A well dressed young man has been arrested by Officer Giles and is held at the police station on suspicion of being "Jack-the-hugger," or one of them. The officer was watching him for some time and when he saw him go after a young lady on Pitt street placed him under arrest. At the station the young man refused to give his name or say anything about himself whatever. The police claim he has been living in Windsor for some time past but that they never knew where. They claim they have plenty of evidence to prove that he is one of the men who have been taking liberties with Windsor young ladies on the streets of late.

Suicided With Paris Green.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—George Barker, a well-known farmer and horticulturist living near Lobo village, committed suicide by taking a dose of Paris green. No reason is given for the act, as he was a man of unusual intelligence, of cheerful disposition, and in easy circumstances. He was well known in both Lobo and London. Mr. Barker was a married man, and leaves a wife and several children.

Ex-M. P. John White Dead.

BELLEVILLE, Sept. 26.—John White, ex-M. P. for East Hastings, died at Victoria, British Columbia, from disease of the kidneys. Deceased was seven times elected to parliament for that riding. He was a prominent Orangeman and was Provincial Grand Master in 1874. He was born in Donegal, Ireland, and was 61 years of age. His wife and family of eight survive him.

Charged With Infanticide.

SPRINGHILL, N.S., Sept. 26.—Annie McKenzie was brought from the Joggins Mines by Constable Macauley and lodged in the lock-up here. She was arraigned before Stipendiary Bennet to answer to the charge of infanticide. Mayor Conway, Constable Macauley and Margaret McSween gave evidence. The case was adjourned.

The Daily Examiner is delivered to any part of the Town for 10c. a week. 35c. a month, $3.00 for six months.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss N. H. Sperry is visiting at her home in Peterborough.

Miss M. E. Birt spent a couple of days in Peterborough this week.

Miss Mary Rutherford, of Roslin, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles Hetherington.

Miss Annie Burkell, of Roseneath, was the guest of Miss Ethel Fraser last week.

Mr. Wm. Carberry is exhibiting the team of bays belonging to Mr. Stanley Hendren at the Central Exhibition this week.

Miss Ettie Brown, of Dummer, visited the Peterborough Exhibition this week.

While playing cricket at the school last week Wark Patterson was struck on the temple by the ball. He became unconscious and remained so for a time. He quicxly recovered, however, and is all right again.

We noticed in last week's EXAMINER that your Warsaw correspondent claims head place for the Warsaw Public School, that school having passed six pupils or 100 per cent. of those trying the entrance examinations from that school. We wish to state that the Norwood Public School passed twenty-two candidates, also being 100 per cent. of those trying the entrance examinations from this school.

A union meeting of the Christian Endeavour Societies of the village was held in the basement of the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening last at 8 o'clock, when the report of the Cleveland C. E. Convention was given by the county delegates.

The firm of Squire Bros., who have had the flour mills rented during the past year have purchased the property from Mr. H. G. Buck. We wish them success in the new venture.

The people of this vicinity were shocked on Sunday by the death of William John, son of Mr. Robert Wigmore, of Dummer. Deceased had been running a threshing machine, and worked rather harder than his system would allow. He was not well for some time before his death, but no fears were entertained until Friday night, when he had a severe attack of inflammation, from which he died late on Saturday. The funeral was held on Monday, and was one of the largest ever seen in this vicinity. One hundred and fifty vehicles followed the remains to the grave.

A baseball match was played on Saturday between a team from the Model school and the Canoe Club team. The Modelites were successful.

A very successful harvest home festival was held in the Methodist church on Sunday and Monday. The pulpit was occupied on Sunday morning by Mr. R. Keefer, and the Rev. Mr. Peake preached in the evening. Monday evening a large number assembled to enjoy the festival. Refreshments were served in the basement from 5 to 7.30 o'clock, when the audience assembled in the church. T. Blezard, Esq., M.P.P., occupied the chair, and made a short opening address. Addresses were also delivered by the following:—Rev. Messrs. Keefer, Peake, Jewell and Weaver, and by the pastor. During the evening the following musical programme was well rendered:

Instrumental.....Gloria in Excelsis
Orchestra.
Solo.....Within the Minster
Miss Brethen.
Instrumental.....Incline thine Ear
Orchestra.
Solo.....The Holy City
Miss Knox.
Instrumental.....The Lord is King
Orchestra.

The proceeds of the evening to $80.00.

A football match was played on Saturday between the Model school team and the Allandale team. The teams were very evenly matched and the result was in doubt until in the second half time. Porter scored a goal for the model school team. The following are the teams as they lined up:—

MILLBROOK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Thursday night, a safe was broken open at Garden Hill and some money stolen. Mr. Arnott, a constable from near there, arrested two tramps, next day and brought them to Millibrook, where they were locked up. As there was no evidence to prove they committed the burglary they were brought before Thomas Gillett, J. P., on a charge of trespassing on the Grand Trunk Railway property. Meantime constable Arnott had communicated with one of the railroad detectives, who wired back to hold them until he arrived. They were brought before the Magistrate at seven o'clock but were remanded until five o'clock, Saturday, in order to give the detective time to reach here. The detective did not arrive and the prisoners were discharged.

Workmen are engaged erecting an addition to the Victoria Hotel. When finished Mr. Fee will have a fine building.

Fred Clarry, the genial manager of the Millbrook lacrosse club, left Saturday to attend the Law School in Toronto.

The many friends of Mr. Edward S. Chambers, the young man who was shot at Lee's Point, Rice Lake, some eight weeks ago, will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering and will soon be around again.

Millbrook scraped together another nine and went to Bethany to play against the local team. At the end of the seventh innings the score was fourteen to twelve in favour of Bethany. Bethany would not take the field again, claiming that it was too dark, and the umpire gave the game to Millbrook.

Alfred Nurse was brought before Thos. Gillott, J.P., on Thursday afternoon charged with assaulting Robert Wood of Bensfort, at Jubilee on Sept. 14th. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Nurse also paid a sum of money to settle a slander case threatened against him by Mr. Wood.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church intend going to Fairmount on Wednesday night to visit the league there.

Great preparations are being made for the East Durham and Cavan fall show, which takes place here on October 4th and 5th.

Nearly all of Millbrook were at the wreck north-east of here on Sunday last.

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

A SUCCESSFUL JUNIOR RALLY.

The Junior workers have reason to be pleased with the result of the union rally held in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, Saturday. If numbers, good singing, interesting addresses and enthusiasm go to make up a successful meeting, then we are safe in saying this was one. Short reports of several of the Cleveland addresses were given by Miss L. Kennedy, whom we are very glad to welcome back again with us, and Mr. H. Owens. "Show your colours" was Mr. Owen's subject, and "World Wide Juniors," and "The Boy at the Throttle," that of Miss Kennedy's. The seniors as well as the juniors were charmed with Mr. Padey's delightful chalk talk and many bright lessons were driven home in this way. We wish we could let those who weren't there have the benefit, but we can't without a blackboard and the chalk—and Mr. Padey. Each society responded by a hymn to the roll call and how these juniors can sing! It was convention music. At no other gathering outside of a convention has the singing been so hearty that we have heard. It augurs well for the future.

Our Union was a year old that day. A great many changes have taken place. Two of the most active workers have been called to higher service. We sadly miss their presence and counsel. Several new societies have been added. One or two have grown weak or died, but on the whole there is a great deal to encourage the workers. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

President—Miss Quinn.
Vice-President—Miss White, St. Andrew's.
Secretary—Miss L. Kennedy, Coldsprings.
Treasurer—Miss Smith, Murray street Baptist.

NOTES.

A goodly number of visitors were present, our county secretary, Mr. R. A. Ward, being amongst them. Coldsprings, as usual, turned out well, notwithstanding the distance.

You ought to see the little host from the South Ward Baptist Mission. Their motto should be surely—"We are the coming army."

Every Christian Endeavourer sympathises with St. Andrew's in their many sorrows.

Miss Bennett and Mr. Ovens had charge of the decorations. These were very neat and the Cleveland colours, white and gold, gave the surroundings a touch of realism and a convention air. A hearty vote of thanks was given to the speakers, those who sent flowers, our visitors, and the directors of the Y. M. C. A. for the use of their beautiful room, at the close of the meeting. It would be hard to make any of the Juniors vote these meetings dull or uninteresting.

The Executive meets first Saturday in the month.

LIVE STOCK.

(Montreal Herald.)

If the live stock men entertained any hope that things would improve to-day, they were doomed to disappointment. Cables to-day from the other side were practically as bad as they were on Monday and Thursday last, in fact almost the same figures were quoted. This is discouraging for the trade here, as there is a good deal of stock already landed on the other side, besides large quantities on passage, and most of these at the best, are sure to result in losses ranging from $5 to $10 per head. It was reported to-day that American cattle are losing $20 to $30 per head. Many of the leading Chicago and New York shippers, it is said, are sustaining enormous losses weekly. In fact it was going the rounds that Swift & Co., of Chicago, were dropping $30,000 a week.

The outlook for cattle is decidedly uncertain, and while shipments must necessarily be restricted under present conditions, it is said that the present output is almost too heavy to give English markets an opportunity to show any appreciable improvement.

Consumption—Low Condition

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

Said She Was Past All Help

and wanted me to send her to the 'Home for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my hand up she should not go. We then began to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She is getting strong, walks around, is out doors every day; has no trouble with her throat and no cough, and her heart seems to be all right again. She has a first class appetite. We regard her cure as nothing short of a miracle." W. WYATT, 59 Marion Street, Parkdale, Toronto, Ontario.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

KAFFIR WAR THREATENED.

Residents in the Transvaal Fortifying Themselves Against Attack.

LORENZO MARQUEZ, Delagoa Bay, Sept. 26.—Several thousand Kaffirs are threatening to attack this town. The government has distributed arms among the white population for defence, and serious trouble is expected.

Lorenzo Marquez is a walled Portuguese town on the north side of Delagoa Bay. It has a good harbor, which gives it considerable importance in the trade with the Transvaal. The town has a population of about 3,000 and is protected by a number of roughly constructed old forts. It is situated in the southern portion of the province of Portuguese East Africa, which extends along the coast from the mouth of the Zambesi to Delagoa Bay, and is bounded inland by Mashonaland, Matabele land and the Transvaal.

The Transvaal leaders have long been anxious to secure control of the Delagoa Bay railroad, and they have also been ambitious to have a seaport, Lourenzo Marquez preferred. With this object in view, the Boers recently sent the sum of $250,000 to London in order to purchase the bonds which Portugal is expected to issue as soon as the Berne arbitrators have decided the question of boundaries.

A few days ago, on September 18, advices from Pretoria said that the Transvaal Government had acquired the prior rights in Delagoa Bay, including control of the port dues, thus giving the Transvaal a commanding position and free access to the sea.

The Kaffirs number several thousand and are led by Chief Mahmzula. The streets of the town are barricaded and are defended with Nordenfeld guns. The British residents and other foreigners have formed a volunteer garrison. The combatants have taken refuge in the British consulate which is guarded by marines from H.M.S. Thrush. It is reported that there was fighting on the night of the 24th inst.

NO ALLIANCE FORMED.

A London Paper Denies that Japan Has Treated With France and Russia.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Daily Telegraph says that it has been authorized to deny that an alliance has been or will be formed between Japan, France and Russia.

The Times publishes the following from its correspondent in Tokio:—"Nothing is known here regarding the reported landing of Chinese troops on the Yalu river. When the Japanese fleet sighted the Chinese fleet no transports were seen nor were any seen during the fight. If the Chinese troops really did land the transports probably hugged the shore and went up the river.

A despatch from Shanghai to the Times states that the anti-foreign feeling in Pekin is growing steadily.

Admiral Colomb, in an interview concerning the recent fight off the mouth of the Yalu river, said that he thought that the battle tended to prove that moderate sized vessels were better even than great vessels that cost 1,000,000 pounds, and that the result depended upon the man rather than upon the material of the vessel. The Chinese fared worse, he said, because the Japanese were a superior fighting race.

A New York Village Badly Burned.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 26—The business portion of the village of Cape Vincent was swept almost completely away by fire yesterday. The fire department of this city went to the scene on a special train and fenght the flames during the forenoon. The loss will reach $60,000 or $70,000. Mrs. Wm. Wenborne, who resided at Jerome's Hotel where the fire started, became frantic when she awoke and found the flames roaring about her and rushing to the window of her room on the third storey opened it and jumped out. She is terribly bruised and it is believed she will die.

German Troops Fight Rebellious Natives.

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—Advices from Walfisch Bay, South Africa, state that Major-Lieut. Wein, in command of the expedition sent against the rebellious Damaral and Chief Witbooi, stormed the latter's camp on August 27. Whitbooi escaped, but sent messengers with offers of peace to the German commander. During the engagement Lieut. Diestel and eight German troopers were killed, and Captain Edorff and ten troopers were wounded.

O'Brien Returns a Contribution.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Standard announces that J. F. X. O'Brien, M.P., treasurer of the Irish National League of Great Britain, writing from the National League offices, has informed an ex-Cabinet member, who recently forwarded a contribution to the Irish fund, that the circular in response to which the contribution was made was sent to him in error and without authority, and that the contribution has therefore been returned with thanks.

Workmen to Leave Pullman.

HIAWATHA, Kan., Sept. 26.—The proposition of L. Meyer, president, and C. Allen, secretary of the Pullman Co-operative Club, was accepted at a mass meeting here. Local capitalists will take $75,000 worth of stock and the club will take $35,000. Work will be begun at once, and the workmen will leave Pullman as soon as contracts are signed. It is estimated that the stock could easily be doubled.

Cholera Victims Perish in a Fire.

WARSAW, Sept. 26.—Sixty houses in the city of Blaszki, in the district of Kalish, Russian Poland, where the cholera is making fearful ravages, were set on fire and completely destroyed. A number of the inmates of these houses who were suffering from the dread disease and were too weak to make any effort to save themselves, were burned to death.

Nothing Strange

Intelligent people, who realize the important part the blood holds in keeping the body in a normal condition, find nothing strange in the number of diseases Hood's Sarsaparilla is able to cure. So many troubles result from impure blood, the best way to treat them is through the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla vitalizes the blood.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation.

DEAR SIR,—Replying to your favour regarding my experience with "HAIRENE," I beg to say I made a personal test with it, when it was first placed on the market, with results so gratifying that I have no hesitation in recommending it to my customers. The preparation now enjoys a very good sale with us, and I have yet to hear a user of it speak otherwise than most favorably.

Dr. McKechnie is the guest of Dr. Jeffs, Apsley.

Miss Hattie Steen is slowly recovering after a severe illness.

Drs. Jeffs and McKechnie have returned, after a day's sport, on Jacks Lake.

The picnic, which was held at Clidesdale, last Friday, passed off pleasantly and to the entire satisfaction of all present. It was held in connection with the Presbyterian church, of that place.

Mr. Alfred F. Bass, of the East Road has the walls of his new house raised, and he expects to move into it before the winter wind blows the snowy mantle over the ground.

The Presbyterian minister, Rev. Mr. Bennett, and the Methodist minister, Rev. Mr. Emberson, purpose holding a meeting on the 24th of September, for the purpose of organizing an Epworth League Society of Christian Endeavour.

If these clever people who are all the time publishing everything were to turn grocers, as the words of this little rhyme says:

"IF."

If the funny man turned grocer
In what a plight we'd be,
Hardly dare to buy their coffee
Lest it be all chicory.

Their sugar would be mostly sand,
Melons sour and green;
Measures nearly always short, and
Weights not what they seem.

Their dozens would be less than twelve,
Eggs most likely bad
Their cheese would be so stale and rank
As to fairly drive one mad.

Their cigars of cabbage leaves
Would probably be made;
Their butter strong enough to walk
Without the slightest aid.

Spring chickens, you'd find would be old hens,
Their pepper full of peas;
Customers such blunders make,
While clerks appeared at ease.

But happily the funny men
Will grocers not become—
They'll keep on making gray-haired jokes,
At which we'll laugh when published.

Children Who Suffer

from scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, ought to be given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. For children who are puny, pale or weak, the "Discovery" is a tonic which builds up both flesh and strength. What is said of it for children applies equally to adults. As an appetising, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, and other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, as Dyspepsia and Biliousness, if it doesn't cure in every case, the money is returned.

Dyspepsia arises from wrong action of the stomach, liver and bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters cures Dyspepsia and all diseases arising from it. 99 times in 100.

ROBERT HALL.

A Pronounced Success.

As anticipated, the formal opening of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of weaves march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

An Inviting Programme.

A concert, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid, will be held in St. John's South Ward Mission, on Thursday evening, October 11th. The entertainment will consist of a scarf drill by eight little girls and a choice programme of vocal and instrumental music. Admission, fifteen cents.

Calcutt's Dublin Porter.

Recommended by the medical faculty for dispepsia, weakness and all disorders of the liver and kidneys. Persons using it have gained as much as ten pounds in a month. Particularly recommended to weak mothers when nursing. Sold by all leading grocers, and delivered to any part of the town. Telephone No. 98.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Wednesday, Sept. 26.—Now we are getting our frost and I have not been disappointed. This is the coldest yet, with good ice. At this morning's observation the self-registering thermometer was down to 26 degrees, indicating 5 degrees below the freezing point. Abundance of rain when the frost leaves.—THOS. TELFORD.

Herr Klingenfeld, of Toronto, will be at Turner's music store on Saturday from ten o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon to take the names of pupils desiring to study the violin under his tuition. Mrs. Klingenfeld will meet those wishing to take vocal lessons at the same time and place. These accomplished musicians will probably devote one day a week to their Peterborough pupils, if sufficient inducements can be held forth.

Cattle Shipments.

The following is a comparison of the cattle shipments at Montreal for the seasons of 1893 and 1894:

	Sheep.	Cattle.	Horses.
1893	905	67,360	1,257
1894	82,771	66,594	3,634

The increase in the shipment of sheep is equal to 9000 extra cattle space on ship board.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Town council to-night.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—The grand jury brought in a true bill against Rickey for indecent assault.

—The case of Mason vs. the town, occupied the attention of the court this morning.

—The new bank and adjacent block of buildings are being rapidly pushed forward to completion.

—The directors of the Midland Central Fair at Kingston are said to be about $500 behind. Wet weather operated against them.

—Ex-Premier Mercier is again reported to be in a critical condition. The last sacraments of the church were administered to him on Sunday.

—Louis Bradshaw, a young man, and Josephine Beauchamp, a little schoolgirl, were seriously, if not fatally, hurt at Port Hope Monday, by a train crashing into the rig they were driving, on a level crossing.

—Crossley and Hunter, the Methodist evangelists, began a series of union meetings at Pembrooke on Sunday. The curling and skating rink is being used, all the churches being too small for the crowd attending.

—The second annual celebration of the Indian Rights Association of the Mohawk Reserve will be held at Foresters' Island Park Oct. 20th. Hon. T. M. Daly, Superintendent General of Indian Affairs, will be present.

—Over seventy pages of the last issue of the Ontario Gazette are devoted exclusively to the publishing of a schedule setting forth the amount of property which has been sold in Toronto during the past year for taxes.

—The Globe devotes a couple of columns of editorial space Tuesday to a discussion of Trent Valley Canal affairs. Regret is expressed that progress on such an important work is only revived spasmodically, and on the eve of a general election.

—DeLorme's "Blacksmith" will be in Mr. Sproule's art rooms this evening from 7 to 9 and in Mr. Shaw's studio, 170 Charlotte street, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. to-morrow, where it may be seen by those who have not yet had an opportunity of seeing it.

—The Chief of Police arrested John Adlum yesterday for being drunk and disorderly on the street. A fracas occurred before the prisoner could be induced to proceed quietly to the cells. The magistrate remanded him this morning until Monday.

—Herr H. Klingenfield delighted his audience with his artistic rendition of the second and third movement of Mendelssohns' Violin Conperto. Since Wilhelmy's visit we have not heard any violinist of equal artistic standing.—St. John, N. B., Sun.

—The citizens have responded most liberally to the call upon them for funds for the furnishing of the new drum corps with instruments, etc., and the members of the corps wish to express their appreciation of the liberality with which the contributions have been given.

—Motorman Michael Lewis, of the Newark & South Range trolley road has been sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. Lewis ran his car over Martha Henry, aged four years, in August and is the first motorman to be convicted upon a similar charge in Newark, N. J., where accidents have occurred with alarming frequency.

—William Thomas, of Toronto, who is strongly suspected by the police of being a professional crook, was arrested, yesterday, by county constable Archie Moore, on the Fair grounds, on a charge of picking Davy Doig's pocket of $8.00. The prisoner elected to be tried by the Police Magistrate and has been remanded for a week.

A UNIQUE AND ATTRACTIVE WINDOW.

A Variety of Apples Tastefully Arranged Make a Pleasing Display.

A window which attracts probably as much attention as any of the many beautifully dressed ones in town, is that of W. G. Fowler & Co.

Apples of every conceivable colour from the dark red Detroits to the light coloured Fall Pippins, and of every size from the monstrous Alexander to the tiny crab, are there, all combining to make a most attractive display.

The design in which they are laid is a pretty one, and the fruit is all placed in such a position as to show its peculiar qualities to the best advantage. All the apples used in the window are perfect in shape and colour and such a display would have looked well at the exhibition, though, as it is, hundreds have stopped to admire the fruit and the way it is displayed.

The larger part of the fruit came from the farm of Mr. James Fowler, of Smith, who takes an especial delight in raising fancy varieties of apples, and has had no little success with them.

THE DRAMA.

A Vivaciously Produced Play, Well Staged and Intelligently Interpreted.

The Black Flag was presented last night at Bradburn's opera house by a company the personnel of which was of a grade which has not come to Peterborough in some time.

Mr. C. J. Stevenson and Miss Marie Stoddard were the joint stars and their protrayal of the parts of Harry Glyndon, a wronged man, and Naomi Blandford, his sweetheart, was more than pleasing and several times raised the enthusiasm of the eager audience to a high pitch. Fred Bain takes the part of Lazarus, the Jew, to prefection and kept the house convulsed by his funny sayings.

Miss Bell Potter took the part of Topsy Arrol in a most acceptable manner, and Eddie Sinclair was a capital waif. The balance of the company, which is a strong one, cannot be mentioned individually, though deserving of it, but the performance last night was of such a character to warrant a house filled to the doors this evening.

Latest Novelties.

All the latest novelties of the season can be had at Miss Melville's, 424 George street. Stamping done promptly.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. G Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs Taylor & Macdonald's or at the Peterborough Bookstore.

Knox's Gold Lable Ginger Ale

Put up expressly for campers and family use. Also Lemon Sour and Ginger Beer and all kinds of soft drinks and fine Cider Vinegar delivered to any part of the town' D. KNOX, 26 Queen street.

Furniture.

The long nights are coming and people are preparing to make home attractive. A. Clegg is now receiving, daily, the newest things in furniture. A full assortment in every line. Parlour suites, dining room furniture, all grades very cheap. In bedroom suites, the largest line ever offered in Peterborough, especially in suites ranging in price from $14 to $25—by far the best values ever offered. Fancy chairs, centre tables, spring beds, mattresses, pillows, etc.—A. CLEGG, 427 George street. dw

For coughs, colds and bronchitis the best and safest remedy is "Madill's Pulmonic Cough Syrup." Each bottle has a positive guarantee attached to it. If it fails to cure, return empty bottle and your money will be refunded.

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. D. Clark, Port Hope, is in town to-day.

Mr. Robert Reesor, Locust Hill, is registered at the Oriental.

Mr. David Nelson, ex-Deputy-Reeve of Otonabee, is in town attending the Exhibition.

Mr. Robert Boyle, Principal of the Belleville Business College, was in town yesterday.

Mr. James McGill, travelling auditor for the Rathburn Company, will be in town for a few days.

Ex-Alderman F.E. Galbraith, of Toronto, is staying a few days with Mr. D. A. Shaw, the artist. Mr. Galbraith was Crown Attorney for several years at Toronto.

Mr. John Simpson, of Clarke township, Durham county, registered at the Morgan House yesterday, together with his friend, Mr. Henry Jones. Mr. Simpson is now almost 70 years of age and although a resident of Clark township for 43 years had never been in Peterborough before, and never ridden on a train until yesterday when he came up to take in the fair.

Herr Klingenfield, the solo violinist, is now a resident of Toronto. He played Sarasate's extremely difficult transcription of Chopin's Nocturne in E flat, which served well to exhibit Herr Klingenfield's technical power. The violinist showed that he had a fine tone, a well developed control of the bow, and a good deal of sentiment in his expression. Altogether he made a distinct success on this, his first appearance.—Toronto Mail.

THE PETERBOROUGH FORTNIGHTLY CLUB.

The New Organization Meets—Mr Hampden Burnham's Paper.

The first regular meeting of the Peterborough Fortnightly Club was held last evening. There was a large number present and the meeting was interesting. Mr. Hampden Burnham's paper on "the theory of evolution" was warmly received. The writer had certainly read widely and thought deeply on his subject. An animated discussion followed, which continued until after 10.30 p. m.

Before the reading of the paper, laws of the Club, drafted by the committee, were presented and adopted with some amendments. The name of the club was settled, and its object formally decided to be "to bring together, for the purpose of discussion and interchange of ideas, all men in Peterborough and its vicinity, who are interested in literature, philosophy or science." No question in denominational theology or Canadian party politics is to be admitted for discussion. Any member may nominate another for membership and their election is to be by ballot at the next meeting. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 10th, at 8 p. m. The subject of the paper is "Maclette" and the writer, Mr. Jeffers, who reads it by special request of the committee. Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Murray are to be selected to introduce the discussion to follow.

The topic for discussion, if time permit, is "the War in the East," to be led by Mr. Garvin.

SPIRITED AWAY.

An Overcoat Disappears, but is Recovered.

A bold attempt was made last night to steal an overcoat from Gough's store. A young fellow came up accompanied by three or four companions. He apparently took a fancy to one of the coats on exhibition outside and asked permission to try it on. Permission was readily accorded. Just as he had it well buttoned up he stepped out on the pretence of seeing if the fireworks had started, but once he got on the sidewalk he disappeared in the crowd and vanished.

The boy who was watching the front of the store was afraid to desert his post as several suspicious looking characters were standing around and he thought that if he followed the man with the overcoat the front might be stripped in his absence.

The overcoat was however returned this morning and no questions were asked. The accurate description of the man given by the boy easily led to his detection as he was a resident of the town. Word was sent him it is understood to the effect that if the coat was not returned the matter would be put in the hands of the police.

Take it Home to Yourselves.

Mothers and fathers, don't you recall in your school days how much better you could write with a long new pencil than an old one?

Were not the problems easier to solve when you figured on a big "pad" you had just purchased?

Did you ever lose the reader, speller, or arithmetic when you had a nice new bag to carry the books in to and from school?

Now, be honest and fix up the children's outfit as though you were young again.

A few cents invested at the stationery department of the Peterborough Bookstore will give the children inspiration for study throughout the term. A. H. STRATTON.

KEENE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Court Otonabee, I.O.F., held their first church parade on Sunday evening, and is proved to be a great success in every sense of the word. At six o'clock about fifty members congregated at the Foresters' hall, and formed into line and marched to the Presbyterian church, where the Rev. D. A. Thompson, D.D.H.C.R., of Hastings, preached a very able sermon on Forestry, which was listened to with marked attention by a large audience. Many thanks are due to Mr. Thompson for the very able discourse which he delivered; also to Court Westwood who turned out almost every member to help Court Otonabee. It is hoped the court will prosper and continue in the good work which it has begun.

M. W. Matchett, of Peterborough, paid a visit to the Presbyterian Sunday school on Sunday. All were pleased to see him.

The Keene football team went to Norwood to play the Model team of that place, but were defeated. Better luck next time, boys.

The only child of Mr. Geo. Wood, Jr., died very suddenly, on Sunday afternoon. Funeral, Tuesday, at 2 o'clock, to Keene cemetery. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved parents.

Mr. Geo. English, who has been ill for some time, is still very low.

Mr. Geo. Eason, who has been ill for some time, is still very low.

We are sorry to chronicle the sudden demise of the late Mrs. D. M. Mather, who passed away on Sunday last, at four o'clock. The deceased was highly respected by all who knew her and will be universally missed. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her loss. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of the community. A very large concourse of friends followed the remains to Keene cemetery.

Don't forget the Otonabee exhibition to be held in Keene on Oct. 3rd and 4th. As the grounds have been enlarged and improved, and a first-class race track provided, the exhibition should be a success. An error was made in printing the prize list in only offering prizes for one class of double carriage horses. Prizes will be given for pair carriage horses, 15½ hands and over, and pair carriage horses under 15½ hands.

Mr. David Eason, of Norwood, spent Monday in Keene.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wedlock and family of Toronto, are spending a few weeks with friends in Keene.

Several bears have been shot in the vicinity of Keene by sportsmen.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

THE FAIR

The Second Day's Signal Success.

THE CENTRAL ATTRACTS 7,000 VISITORS.

The Speeding Events—The Special Attractions—The Art Loan Exhibition — Football Match—Balloon Ascension—The Acrobatic Arena—The Baby Show—Other Attractions—A Portion of the Prize List.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The afternoon of the second day attracted a large crowd, over 7,000 visitors being on the grounds and all were delighted with the fine programme of amusement presented.

The amusements, which were furnished the immense crowd which was in attendance, at the Fair yesterday afternoon, were varied and of a character to entertain all present. There was speeding in the ring, a balloon ascension, a football match and trapeze performances, and of the thousands in attendance, none could have gone away dissatisfied.

THREE MINUTE TROT.

In the ring, the first race brought on was the three minute trot, and although McDonald's "Fortunate" took first in each heat, the horse had no sinecure, as Severt's Port Perry Boy made a bold bid for a place better than second, and nearly succeeded more than once in leading "Fortunate" under the wire. Appended is the result of the three heats trotted :—

McDonald's Fortunate	1 1 1
Severt's Port Perry Boy	2 4 2
Vincent's B'lly Hamilton	3 2 3
Somerville's Antioch Daisy	4 3 4

At the conclusion of the race the owner of Antiock Daisy entered a protest with secretary against the other three horses in the race, claiming that all had marks better than three minutes. Judging from appearances there is some ground for the protest in the case of "Fortunate" as that animal was walked around in a blanket upon which the legend "Fortunate, 2:39¼" stood forth rather too prominently to pass unnoticed, more especially when a supposedly three minute horse was so designated. It is a question as to whether or no the protest was lodged at the proper time and place.

THE BANG TAILS.

The running race was most exciting, and though in all three heats the horses ran in one, two, three order, yet they were so bunched from start to finish that it was impossible at any time to tell when the result of the previous heat might be reversed. The purse up for the event was $25 to the first, $15 to the second and $10 to the third.

Summary :
Love's Maud L	1 1 1
Jones' Nettie Wood	2 2 2
Simpson's Livery Boy	3 3 3

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

The football match was a good one and was one of the chief features of the afternoon. The two teams engaged lined up as follows on the field :

EDISON.		LOCK WORKS.
Cluxton	full back	O LePante
Wilgar	half back	V McWilliams
Pomfret	half back	L Cluxton
H A Moore	half back	A Letellier
Shaw	forwards	J McDonough
Dunsford	forwards	Geo Ahearn
Bell	forwards	J Grady
McIntosh	forwards	A Weatherhead
A B Lambe	forwards	H Choate
Colyer	forwards	Jas Johnston
W A Moore	forwards	Jos Picard
Shepherd	forwards	W McAuliffe
Adams	forwards	J Hickey
Knowles	forwards	W Heffernan
	forwards	Jno McDonough

The game resulted in favour of the Edison fifteen by a score of 13—1.

The Edison's will play the town team at 8 p.m. on Saturday on these same grounds.

The Electric Works team are a well-built set of fellows. The passing done by their half backs was very good.

Some good play was done by the two Moore's and T.H. Jones, quarter-back; also Shaw and Collier.

The Lock Works team, a lighter set of fellows, played hard and well together and foiled attempts made by the Electric Works men to gain ground. Tackling done by Lock Works team being especially noticeable and worthy of commendation. They have some fast runners, but the ground being so sandy were prevented from making many good runs. Some good play was done by V. McWilliams, and by McAuliffe and Choate on wings, and Grady as centre scrimmage was a tower of strength. Too much credit cannot be given Letellier who did some fine running and tackling. Though the score was in favour of the Electrics, the play was pretty even all through.

Mr. Taylor, of the Bank of Montreal, as referee, was fair in his decisions and filled his position satisfactorily to both teams.

THE BALLOON ASCENSION.

The balloon ascension was a success in every way. The aeronaut and his dog started on their trip among the clouds at about five o'clock. After ascending to an enormous height. When he was hardly distinguishable the aeronaut dropped the dog attached to a small parachute and a few minutes later descended to terra firma by a like contrivance. Both dog, master and balloon alighted safely on the other side of the river, though many of the spectators were of the opinion at the time the descent was made that a cold bath had been the porton of the daring balloonist.

The performances on the trapeze were highly amusing and created much merriment amongst the spectators, as Danny Simons was at his best, and took the part of the clown to perfection.

Not a little pleasure was added to the day's enjoyment by the excellent rendition by the Fire Brigade Band, who, under the leadership of Professor F. Miller, went through an unusually fine programme.

The baby show was a great success and excited no little interest amongst those who could get a glimpse of the competitors. Little four-year-old Muriel, daughter of Mr. John Baptiste O'Dette, successfully carried off the valuable prize offered by the enterprising firm of Gough Bros. There was no less than ten entries, and the competition was a keen one.

THE ART LOAN EXHIBIT.

This was one of the most successful features of the exhibition and great credit is due to the liberality of the directors and the energy and enterprise of Mr. D. A. Shaw, artist, in getting so fine a collection together. Extended reference will be made to the exhibition in to-morrow's issue.

IN THE EVENING.

The attendance in the evening seemed even larger than that of the afternoon, notwithstanding the drop in the thermometer, which appeared simultaneous to or a little before the dropping of the sun. The fireworks display was one of, if not, the best which ever was presented in the Midland counties.

The following is an instalment of

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'S. DISPLAY

As the visitor entered the north end of the main building, the chief attraction which commanded attention was the magnificent display made by Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co., the well known dry goods importers of Simcoe street. Without doubt, it is the richest, most elaborate, and most costly exhibit of the kind ever shown within the walls of the building. It was characteristic of the firm, and showed what capital and unlimited resources could accomplish. If it was intended to establish the force of this firm's business maxim which they so persistently lay claim to, viz :—"We always lead, never follow," it could not fail to have left a bias in that direction. They certainly did lead on this occasion, and the crowds of visitors who were constantly to be found standing in masses admiring and criticising as they admired, were unsparing in their praise—not only of the excellence and the richness of the goods exhibited, but also of the enterprise and energy which characterized their display. The extent of their exhibit may be judged when it is stated that the space covered the whole of the north half of one of the middle sections of the building, having for its largest frontage the leading thoroughfare of the building, and was continued well round half the length of the south frontage of the same section. The whole of this area was piled to the ceiling with some of the finest samples of their costliest merchandize. Suspended from handsome curtain poles and rings hung rich and graceful draping effects in heavy chenille portiers and lace curtains, flanked from behind with rolls of elegant patterns

From the Crown of the Head
To the Soles of the Feet
WE COVER ALL.

It is one thing to cover up your body, Robinson Crusoe like, with goat skins and tanned palm leaves. It is quite another thing to get well-fitting, neatly-made Suits, Boots and Hats of the latest designs, without paying an exhorbitant price.

MEN'S HATS!
MEN'S SHOES!
MEN'S CLOTHING!
MEN'S UNDERWEAR!
MEN'S FURNISHINGS!

ALL
ONE ROOF!

This store appeals to Men—and to Women also. The field of trade is widening continually. Instead of confining ourselves to Clothing, we have, for the fall of 1894, brought together under one roof such things for men's wear as they have shown themselves to want.

The Goliath's of the Markets.

Just as buyers flock to the great emporiums like Eaton of Toronto, Carsley of Montreal, Mabley of Detroit and Wannamaker of Philadelphia, so do they crowd to Gough Bros. of Peterborough.

WHY! Because they are the Goliath's of the market—they touch the button and manufacturers pour out their wealth of Bargains to them.

CORRECTING A MISTAKE.—Who sells the cheapest goods—the merchant who is compelled to buy in one higgling market, and is tied down to one grasping manufacturer, or the merchant who has the freedom of all the competing markets and manufacturers of the world? Do men buy Hats cheaper where nothing but Hats are sold, or Boots cheaper where nothing but Boots are sold, or Clothing cheaper where nothing but Clothing is sold?

Might as well expect a farmer to do as well for his family by raising nothing but Pumpkins as if he raised a mixed crop.

HATS and CAPS.

Young men are usually quick to save money. We're able to discount the trade, because of unusual buying power. We go direct to the makers and insure fine qualities by knowing what to buy and what to let alone. The best is none too good for us. If you're a judge of quality, it won't take any talking from the salesmen.

On the finest Fur Fedora Hats we take off 35c., and ask only $2.65.
On the best Fur Felt Stiff Hats we take off 50c., and ask only $2.00.
On Men's Knockabout Hats we take off 20c., and ask only 35c.
On Men's Peak Caps, satin lined, we take off 25c., and ask only 50c.
On Men's Silk Hats, latest styles, we take off 50c. and 75c., and ask only $3.00 and $3.75.
Youths and Boys in same proportion.

BOOTS and SHOES

warranted not to crack, nor take in washing. Ours isn't the common kind of Boots and Shoes. If anybody can beat the quality, the style, the price, we'll quit the business.

On the best $3 Men's Selected Shell Cordovan Balmoral or Congress, with Dunraven toe, we take off 40c., and ask only $2 60.
On the best Men's Fine Waxed Hand-Made Balmorals we take off 35c., and ask only $1 25.
On the best Fine Patent Leather Oxford Shoes, turn soles, we take off 45c., and ask only $1.20.
On the best French Dongola Kid Button (common sense) we take off 63c., and ask only $1.93.
Misses', Boys', and Children's in same proportion.

"Always Good at Goughs."

A FEEBLE WOMAN

— suffering from nervous prostration, excitability or dizziness, the result of weakness, derangement, or displacement of the special organs—will find health regained after using Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The one remedy—standing solitary and alone—for woman's weakness, which is guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money refunded, is the "Favorite Prescription."

What offer could be fairer?

It's a powerful invigorating tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine.

For women who are run-down and overworked; at the critical periods in woman's life—the change from girlhood to womanhood, and, later, the "change of life"—this is especially adapted to her needs; for it strengthens, regulates, and CURES.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Canada's Financial Standing Abroad—Other Gossip.

OTTAWA, Sept. 26.—Sir Adolphe Caron and Sir John Thompson have returned to the city. Sir Adolphe says he found Canadian affairs booming in London, and a most marvellous change in the Imperial mind regarding the new Dominion compared with the state of affairs ten years ago. "Then," he said, "you had to say you were an American in order to get into the House of Commons, or to obtain public recognition; now Canada is in the public mind an important part of the Empire, and nothing has done us more good in this respect than the late conference at Ottawa."

Referring to the splendid financial standing of Canada in London Sir Adolphe said: "I was in the Bank of Montreal the other day and the messenger said: 'Your three per cents are selling at 99 and they will go beyond par.' The president of a leading bank in Liverpool also told me that Canadian securities were on the bound: and in fact our credit was now considered as good as the leading nations of Europe."

The Postmaster-General reports Mr. Huddart as still confident of success in floating his fast Atlantic steamship scheme.

Several Ottawa gentlemen who have taken a prominent part in the Imperial Federation movement are interested in the offer of the London Statist of one thousand guineas for the best plan of an Imperial customs union, and will probably write in the competition. The proprietors of the paper, in making the offer, state that in their opinion no scheme of Imperial Federation can succeed on other than Imperial customs union as emphasized by the resolution of the Ottawa Conference. The British Premier and Lord Salisbury are to be asked to write in the competition.

Neale, the absconding Canadian customs official, who was arrested in London the other day, has been remanded until October 2, pending the arrival of a Canadian officer. Inspector O'Leary, of the Dominion Police, will leave for Liverpool on Friday in order to escort the defaulter back to Canada.

Sir John Thompson will leave for London shortly. The Premier is to be sworn in as a member of the Imperial Privy Council.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell opened the Central exhibition at Peterborough yesterday.

AWAITING THE END.

MacWhirrel Has No Hope for a Reprieve—The Death Watch Set.

BRAMPTON, Sept. 26.—MacWhirrell has about given up hope of a commutation or reprieve, and has, it is said, resigned himself to his fate. He has asked the jail surgeon, Dr. Heggie, to order him a glass of ale on the fatal morning before going to the scaffold.

Nothing has yet been done toward putting the engine of death in position, however. It will be remembered it was in process of construction last May, and was nearly completed when a reprieve came. The job was completed and a test made with a huge block of wood, and then marked and taken down and stored in the jail yard, and can be put in position again in a short time should it be required. McCloud, the carpenter who built it, now refuses to do anything further with it, and it is likely a new man will get the job.

The doomed man refuses to see a minister. The death watch has been set, and will continue till the end or some word is received from the Executive at Ottawa.

Knights of St. John and Malta.

TORONTO, Sept. 26.—The Knights of St. John and Malta commenced their annual convention yesterday in Leiderkranz Hall, Grand Commander John A. Cowan of Toronto in the chair. He delivered his annual address, which was referred to a committee to report on. Mayor Kennedy appeared before the convention and welcomed the delegates to Toronto. The delegates were driven around the city by the Civic Reception Committee. There are about 500 delegates in attendance.

Mr. Mercier's Fight With Death.

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.—Ex-Premier Mercier, at a late hour last night, showed a slight improvement and is surprising his friends by his wonderful fight with death. He was conscious and talked with his family. His friends, however, do not put much faith in the present change for the better which they regard as only temporary. He may probably continue to linger a few days but not likely more.

"All run down" from weakening effects of warm weather, you need a good tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup removes worms of all kinds from children or adults.

A Woman Charged With Bigamy.

HAMILTON, Sept. 26.—A woman whose maiden name was Sarah Burgess, was arrested on a charge of bigamy. Five years ago she was married to Ernest Rabbitey and after living with him two years was wedded to Thos. Simmons. Both marriages were performed in Hamilton.

A Hamilton Factory Closes Down.

HAMILTON, Sept. 26.—The Sawyer Massey company have discharged a large number of hands and will close down entirely this week, throwing out nearly 200 men. Manager Coburn says the works are not expected to be open before the end of the year.

Found a Den of Rattlesnakes.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 26.—While Nelson Stroits, of Stamford, Ont., and his son were digging in Foster's Flats they stepped into a den of rattlesnakes. They killed one which measured five feet in length and had eleven rattles.

Will Restore the People Their Arms.

ROME, Sept. 26.—With the view to pacifying the people of Sicily the government has ordered that the arms taken from citizens of Sicily during the recent state of seige be returned to their owners.

A Railway Man Murdered.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 26.—The body of J. V. Caven, general passenger agent of the Valley railroad, was found in the tenderloin district of the city with five bullets in his body. No clue to the assassins.

A Veteran Artist Dead.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Gen. Thos. Seir Cummings, the veteran artist, died at Hackensack, N. J. Gen. Cummings was the sole survivor of the founders of the National Academy of Design.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Sept. 26, 1894.

Grand Trunk Railway Company's returns for traffic for week ending September 22, 1894, show a decrease of $32,181.

THE FARMERS' MARKET—On the street 600 bushels of wheat sold at 54 for white, 53 for red and 51 for goose; 800 of barley at 40 to 44c; 150 of peas at 60 1-2, and 1,000 of oats at 31 to 33c.

The wheat market in Chicago was quiet and the close showed a loss of 1-2 to 5-8c. Corn was easy, closing 1-2c lower. Oats were also 1-2 lower.

Most of the sheep on sale at Buffalo were Canadas and about all were sold. Top prices for Canadas, $4.50 to $4.60, and general run of poorer stock at $4.40 to $4.50 and down to $4.25.

The London markets, after flatness, closed better. To-day's settlement will disclose a very small speculative account. Americans were lower but closed above the lowest point.

At fairly regular intervals the New York stock exchange community is plunged into discouragement because it sees no outside custom. The market stirred only when some individual adventurer supplied the motive power. When he was done, the market stopped again. Some of these forays resulted in advancing prices, for there is outstanding now, especially in the Granger stocks, a very considerable short interest. The market as a whole developed nothing of interest.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th.—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

CLEVER BLOODHOUNDS.

THE SMART WORK DONE BY THEM IN TRACKING CRIMINALS.

An Instance of the Very Remarkable Sagacity of the Animals in Following the Trails of the Fleeing Negroes—Jude's Marvelous Work.

Bloodhounds are coming to be considered in the south as indispensable to the complete equipment of a good police department. Time was when such brutes were the terror of the negro slave, and the animal's deep-toned, dismal howl as it scented the trembling darky in the thicket was to the fleeing slave more ominous of evil and more dreaded than the sharp cry of the "paterole" in pursuit, or the crack of his pistol. To this day one of the favorite songs of the old-time darky as he moves about his work is:

Run, nigger, run,
Or the paterole will ketch yo'.

But the paterole, or, in correct English, the patrol, has disappeared with slavery, to be replaced by the modern policeman, who, assisted by the bloodhound in another and more lawful and humane capacity, now chases criminals rather than slaves. The most celebrated and most valuable bloodhound in the south is owned by Patrolman Phipps, of the Chattanooga police department, and is used constantly by the department in chasing criminals and running them to earth. This animal has the unassuming name of Jude. Jude is only eighteen months old, but her record is incomparable. She is twenty-six inches high and weighs sixty-four pounds. As in all bloodhounds, the animal's ears are her most prominent characteristics. They are twenty-four inches long and flap about the head in a most remarkable manner. Jude has done some marvelous work. She will take a trail twenty-four hours old and follow it with ease. A few days ago the police department employed a negro to run through the woods and fields of Hill City, a suburb of Chattanooga, for the purpose of giving a public exhibition and demonstration of the dog's sagacity. A large crowd witnessed the run. After the negro had been given twenty minutes' start the dog was put on the trail. The negro had been instructed to take a route about a mile in length, which circled and doubled so that nearly every foot of the ground could be seen by the spectators, who were standing on a little knoll.

When the negro had been given half a mile start the dog was turned loose. The sagacious brute at once took the scent and away she went with her nose to the ground, yelping at every jump, closely followed by her owner and the Louisville Courier-Journal's correspondent. On went the dog until a fence was reached. On the other side was a broad pike. At that point the dog lost the trail for a moment, made a quick circuit and soon found it, starting out again at a more rapid pace than before. After running about one hundred yards across an old cornfield she suddenly turned to the left in an entirely different direction and made for the river, still giving forth her sharp, but rather musical bark. Reaching the river, Jude ran along its bank for a quarter of a mile or more, and, without another loss of the trail or a moment's hesitation, brought up under a large sycamore tree, where, sitting down upon her haunches, she began to bay loudly in evident satisfaction. Seated securely among the branches of the tree was the negro, showing his teeth in a broad grin. He was told to come down and the dog wouldn't injure him, but he hadn't got his foot on the ground before Jude made a dash for him, and the way he shinned back up that tree was a caution.

After this very successful chase the negro was instructed to run across a common over which fully one thousand persons had passed during the day going to and from a shooting match. This was to show that the dog would not follow any trail except the one given her at the start. A short time after the start the negro jumped a wide ditch and it took Jude several minutes to find the trail on the other side, but she found it by persistent nosing, and despite the fact that the rest of the ground was covered with newly-made tracks of hundreds of persons, the animal never wavered after that until she treed the negro again about a quarter of a mile away. In following his trail the dog passed several other negroes, but did not pay the slightest attention to them.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

FASHIONS IN JEWELRY.

The standards for soap of narrow raised work bars are very pretty.

The new candlesticks for tapers are as pretty as baby toys and look like them.

Transparent colored stones are sleeve buttons with no more gold showing than necessary.

New bottles for salts have silver covers with square box-like tops for their easy manipulation.

Artistic leaf spoons grow in numbers every day. A specimen is a lily leaf for the bowl and two twisted tendrils with buds for the handle.

There are decided novelties in silver fruit dishes. One is a low, round bowl with raised and perforated work. The ornamentation is very rich. The same designs have low standards, and round knob-like feet.

Single sleeve buttons are larger than ever. They are worn chiefly by men, and women who affect masculine dress. They prevail in dead gold. The more elaborate have a section in repousse work.—Jewelers' Circular.

Tobacco and Muscular Effort.

Two eminent English physicians, Dr. Warren Lombard and Dr. Vaughan Harley, have recently made an important series of experiments regarding the influence of tobacco on muscular effort. They find that moderate smoking, in one accustomed to it, neither increases the capacity for work nor retards the approach of fatigue; though, in some cases, it may slightly diminish muscular power and hasten the time in which fatigue overcomes the system.

An Old Sailor Suicides.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Robert Wypere, who occupied room 18 of the Columbia boarding house, and who came to Buffalo on September 13, was found dead in his room by the lodging house employes, he having taken enough laudanum to kill 20 men. Wypere was a Scotch sailor and at one time a boatswain in the Royal Navy, from which he was discharged with a small pension as a confirmed invalid.

Prisoners Escape from Siberia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—News of the escape of 2,000 prisoners from Siberia is brought by steamer Rio Janeiro. The men were employed in the construction of the Siberian railway. Meagre advices received at Yokohama state that the men overpowered the Russian soldiers who were guarding them. When last heard of they were making their way towards Corea.

The Czar Grows Worse.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Times publishes a despatch from Vienna stating that private accounts of the Czar's health has been received there showing that his condition is very unfavorable, and his appearance denoted a change for the worse.

The Bulgarian Ministry's Victory.

SOFIA, Sept. 25.—The success of the Bulgarian government as represented by the present ministry in the elections is remarkable. The returns show that the ministry have carried 114 seats in the national assembly against 39 seats won by all the opposing factions.

A Halifax Schooner Lost.

HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 25.—A cable has been received here saying that the schooner Geraldine, from Halifax for the West Indies, had been lost in a hurricane at Ponce Pt. The vessel was insured.

Green Committed for Trial.

CORNWALL, Sept. 25.—Charles Green has been committed to stand his trial for the murder of Cosgrove at the Fall Assizes which opens on October 14th.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Sept. 25, 1894.

The receipts of hogs at the local cattle market last week were the lowest on record. The return shows that 2,085 cattle, 5,413 sheep and 6,446 hogs were received.

THE FARMERS' MARKET—On the street wheat brought 54c for white and 53c for red; 100 bush of barley at 43c, one load of peas at 61c and 900 bushels of oats at 31 to 31½c.

The Chicago wheat market was weak, but before the close there was a rally on small estimates and the close showed a gain of ¼ to ½c higher. Corn and oats also advanced with wheat, closing ¼ to ½c higher.

Barley in Buffalo reached 109,000 bush, with receipts later of 174,000 bush. There is very little trade in Canada barley yet, though some samples are shown.

The visible supply is now 1,746,000 bush, a gain of about 200,000 bush for the week and a showing of 1,200,000 bush greater than the corresponding date last year.

The London stock markets were dull and weak mainly on Paris selling in view of the settlement there at the end of the month. Americans keep firm on support from the American side, but there is no business in them just now.

It was quite evident yesterday that the professional speculators in the New York stock exchange had made up their minds to test the market on the downward side. In the Granger stocks their experiment was helped along by the sales from other operators who were buying stocks last week on a previous idea that Rock Islands dividend could not be reduced. Despite the semblance of activity at the start today the market lapsed very soon into total dullness.

A DISAPPOINTED MAN.

Thought he Was Going to Die Before Summer Was Out But He's Alive and Well and Working To-day.

Somerset, Man., Sept. 17th,—"Hard times" is the cry from farmers in this country. Arthur Coley, a farmer living near here, has had double reason to cry "hard times," for eight months ago he lay on his back in bed, a victim of Bright's Disease. He acknowledges that he expected to be dead before the end of the summer, but his expectations have been most pleasantly disappointed, and all summer he has worked on his farm just as though he had never known a day's illness. Last spring he began taking Dodd's Kidney Pills and a few boxes completely cured him, as they have every other victim of this disease, who have used them.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Summer Complaint, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt, safe and sure cure that has been a popular favorite for over 40 years.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

—:o:—

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

THE SECOND DAY'S SIGNAL SUCCESS.

of luxurious carpets, the products of the best manufacturers of the world. Very handsome designs in best five-frame Brussels were rolled out to view, with borders to match, the choicest patterns of which bore a price ticket, "Only $1.25," as if to tell how cheaply such Brussels could be sold. Tapestries of superior designs and qualities, scarcely less effective than the Brussels patterns, with an "only 65c." card to astonish those who were curious to know the price. On the floors were spread velvety samples of handsomely designed rugs and mats, including English Wilton Dag-Dag, Axminster and Union Squares, Moquette and Smyrna weaves. Interspersed in cosy confusion were specimens of costly sofa cushions, silk covered eiderdown comforters, coloured wool mats, plush velvet piano covers, silk table covers, art silks, beautiful decoration material artistically arranged on pretty little bamboo tables and other cute pieces of work, which filled in the effect in harmoniously arranged corners. A centre of attraction to the fair sex was the pattern mantles, jackets, ulsters and wraps, imported direct from German houses, and personally selected by Mr. Gilchrist in July during his trip to the continent. Various styles were shown, including fur-lined and fur-trimmed circulars and the various leading styles just introduced this season. A pretty little warm winter costume for a child was shown, consisting of coat, cape and hood. The material was a new and novel design of rough wool goods in grey mottled effect, trimmed with fur to match, and was much admired by the ladies. On a rack were displayed samples of high-class window shadings with rich patterns of deep insertion and lace fringe, one of the latest additions to the housefurnishings department of this firm, which has proved so popular with their large constituency of wealthy patrons.

CROSBY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Mr. J. W. Crosby was the only exhibitor of pianos at the Fair, and a Fair without Crosby's pianos would be a little tiresome and lonesome as well. He was fortunate this year, in securing an excellent position in one of the carpet sheltered alcoves of Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co's. exhibit, and the effect produced by the surroundings, lent a tone and a home like charm to the scene. Mr. Crosby showed one of Reimer's best uprights, in walnut case, an instrument which has been rapidly growing in favour among musical critics. The action used in these pianos is one of the best made, and other characteristics seem to indicate a strong desire to follow the most artistic tastes. The case is handsomely veneered and polished, and presents a generally taking appearance. This piano had a pure singing tone, and was not an artificial quality soon to wear away. Prof. Smith presided on the stool, and delighted the visitors that constantly filled this section with lively music during the evening. Mr. Crosby is the Peterborough agent for a number of the leading reliable pianos of the day, including the Williams, the Morris, the Heintzman, and the Reimer, and in organs the Karn, the Uxbridge, the Dominion, the Doherty. He guarantees these instruments for seven years, and sells for cash or on the installment plan. Mr. Crosby is credited with having sold more instruments than any other dealer in the district, and a list of his purchases, which has just appeared in print, would seem to warrant the statement. In all competition for sales, Mr. Crosby is known to deal honestly and squarely, and during the past eight years, he has endeavoured to place first class instruments within the reach of all, in a courteous, honourable and straightforward manner. Mr. Crosby's ware-rooms are at No. 342 Water street, Peterborough.

GRAFTON & CO.

Directly opposite Messrs. Hall, Gilchrist & Co's. display, was an unusually comprehensive and capacious exhibit of Messrs. Grafton & Co's. superior clothing. A record of over forty years has established, beyond much controvesy, the fact that Grafton & Co.'s "hand-made and tailor-cut" clothing combines elements of style, durability and attractiveness, with the lowest possible cost for intrinsically good clothing. The headquarters of this reliable firm of clothing manufacturers is in Dundas, where the goods are all turned out, which supplies the Peterborough branch, as well as a similar branch at Owen Sound. The success which has attended their branch stores—especially the branch in this town—has no doubt been largely dependent upon the confidence which the buying public has reposed in the reliable character of the clothing which is placed on sale here. Much, too, has doubtless been due to the straightforward dealing and honourable management which has been insisted upon in the conduct of their branch stores, and it may as well be stated that for the singular good fortune which has attended the introduction of their clothing in Peterborough, a fair share of credit is due to the executive ability and close attention of their local manager, Mr. W. E. Conway. To work up a trade in Peterborough so strictly on the cash principle, that cash in advance to everybody is the rule, was a task requiring no small amount of faith in their ability to overcome the prejudices which most assuredly had to be overcome, but which this firm claim to have had the pleasure of accomplishing. And to this firmness on this point they insist they are enabled to quote lowest prices. At all events, no one who saw the large exhibit at our fair could be otherwise than favorably impressed with the rapid growth of Messrs. Grafton & Co.'s business in Peterborough. All the leading styles for autumn and winter were fully represented. In men's wear there were overcoats and ulsters in black, brown, meltons, beavers, freize, and foreign and domestic tweeds, all showing good fancy tweed linings and first-class fabrices; suits, in cutaway sacks, walking coat suits, business suits, Prince Albert frock coats and vests, in fancy worsteds, black worsted diagonals, cassimers, tweeds, etc., well finished, and to all appearances equal to tailor made. In boys' and children's suits they are very strong, special efforts being made, it is said, to produce a choice selection, which is designed in taste and manufactured in superior style.

A diploma from the society was exhibited on their display, as a testimonial of the merits of their clothing. The arrangement of the exhibit was skillful and tastefully executed, and reflected credit on Mr. Walter Wesley, whose work in this respect, under the direction of Mr. Conway, was complimented by good judges. Mottoes, badges, flags and banners enlivened the general effect, and the pains and care bestowed to make an artistic display was the subject of general remark. Throughout the show grounds Grafton & Co. had hung out their banners to the breeze, and in the most conspicuous quarters, wherever the eye turned, the name of the firm was reflected in large painted placards, so that "he who ran could read."

THE BROOKS HOT WATER HEATER.

Messrs. Rudkins & Rielly of Peterborough show one of their improved hot water heaters, adapted for residences, schools, stores, churches, greenhouses and conservatories. The patentees claim special and particular merits for this heater which are worthy of more than a passing notice. That hot water heating is fast becoming the most satisfactory system of house warming, admits of little controversy. The principal reason in the past why it has not been more extensively used, has been its cost. Hitherto, in order to provide the power for rapidly and thoroughly heating a house in our climate, the too large and expensive heating apparatus and attachments has deterred many from adopting the system. Messrs. Rudkins & Reilly's improvement has overcome the obstacle. Their heater, it is claimed, possesses the advantage of having a greater amount of heating power for the smallest amount of material and heating apparatus, at a cost of one-third less outlay than any other heater in Canada or the United States. Being both practical and skilled mechanics, they have always considered that it does not require a heater half the size of a cellar to heat a house; therefore they claim to have perfected a heater that does not take up more space than an ordinary box stove, but every inch of which is made to absorb heat and convey it directly to where it is needed. To show its great heating power, a single two-inch pipe, which passes through the centre of the furnace, is of itself capable of heating hundreds of feet of inch pipe. The perfect combustion of fuel around this pipe, also the sides and ends of the furnace even with the lowest fire, will convince anyone of its merits. In a word, this heater may be simply described as one box stove with an oval top, cast inside another stove of the same shape, with an inch and a quarter space between them, and the top crown made in the same way, with the same water space as in the furnace. It will be seen that the water is all around the fire, and as this sheet of water is thin, it is easily heated and kept hot with a low fire. Added to this the pipe or pipes through the centre of the fire, make it a little giant for heating. The furnace burns all kinds of fuel equally well, without any trouble. It has an improved rocking grate, which is simple, strong and durable—a child can shake it—and is adapted for all sizes of hard and soft coal. It removes the ashes thoroughly and evenly over the entire surface. It can be removed and replaced, should it ever become necessary, without disturbing any part of the heater. The company have received many encouragements since it has been placed on the market and orders are coming in from various parts of Canada and the United States, altogether in advance of the present output. A letter which the company has just received was shown an EXAMINER representative from the general agent of the Niagara Fire Insurance Company, of West Bay City, Michigan, giving instructions and specifications for one of their best heaters for a $10,000 residence. The exhibit was in charge of Mr. H. Lehane, who invited and encourages a thorough investigation and cheerfully supplied any information asked.

THE WHITE SEWING MACHINE.

Mr. G. A. Mitchell exhibited the celebrated White sewing machine, and it was the only exhibition in this line at the fair. Two machines, the Vibrating White and the Rotary White, were shown. The former is specially designed for family use and the latter for manufacturing purposes. A large number of these machines have found purchasers in Peterborough. Quality is what tells every time; especially in a sewing machine, and with this idea in mind, the company has produced a machine which satisfies all users, from the most particular down to the quite indifferent operator. 1,000,000 of these machines are said to be now in use, which has given the company right to insist that "the White is King." Mr. Mitchell is the authorized agent in Peterborough, and may be found at his office, No. 204 Charlotte street.

CROW'S TAILOR SYSTEM.

Upstairs in the north west corner of the main building, an exhibit which was of special interest to the ladies attracted attention. It was an exposition of the now popular Crow system of cutting and fitting ladies' dresses, mantles, and other garments. Mr. S. G. Crowe, of Toronto, the inventor, was present, who, assisted by Mrs. E. Keane, the local agent, demonstrated to the ladies the simplicity and convenience of his system. Those who have not had an opportunity before of seeing its perfect work were quickly convinced of its superior merits. Being one of actual measurements it will cut to fit from the smallest child to the largest adult. It will fit deformed as well as straight figures, and can be used with quickness and precision. The system is made in one piece of polished metal, and is substantial and durable. Accompanying the system are two books, one for taking measurements, the other for instructions. Three courses are taught, which costs $5, $7, and $10, respectively, and the pupil is at liberty to take whichever is preferred. Among the specialties which this system teaches is the seamless and dartless waists, which Mr. Crowe claims to have patented in 1891. Mrs. Keane, who has been teaching this system in Peterborough for the past two or three years, has had many pupils in town and county, and new ones are constantly being added to her classes, at No. 156 McDonel street.

PETERBOROUGH CANOE COMPANY.

A very interesting and alluring exhibit of this enterprising local industry is made in a large tent near the main entrance to the grounds. They show samples of all their popular canoes, skiffs, sailing boats, dingys, paddles, oars, sails, camp fittings, etc. The honours won at home and abroad wherever their crafts have been exhibited, would almost render further words of commendation a work of supererogation. And yet, this present special display deserves more than a passing notice. The manager, Mr. J. Z. Rogers, never does things by halves, and the pains taken to make an exhibit worthy of his Company, did not escape favourable remark. Among the exhibits was a splendid specimen of double hunting canoe built of Australian red cedar and fitted up for sailing. A similar canoe in butternut was also shown. A large ceder rib canoe 16 ft. 6 in. long by 33 inches wide, fitted with sail, a plain general purpose canoe, half decked, and a cedar rib canoe weighing 10½ lbs. were among the exhibits. A centre of attraction was a sailing canoe styled the cruiser "Wawabinosh," handsomely equipped with about 125 feet of batswing sail, a steel plated centre board, air tanks fitted at both ends and nickle plated steering geor. It was a dandy. A longitudinal rib canoe was also shown and a lapstreak skiff, varnished and equipped with centre board, oars, etc. The Peterborough Canoe Company have had quite a boom this year, their large brick factory on Water street having been kept busy with orders from every quarter of the globe. Mr. Joe Huffman, a practical canoe builder was in charge of the exhibit.

Times Comments on the Statist's Offer.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Statist offers a prize of $1,000 for the best scheme for an imperial customs union. The Times in commenting on the offer adduces reasons compelling the conclusion that colonial and imperial interests would best be served by keeping the questions of political and commercial union entirely distinct. The Times says if a customs union were formed on any other basis than free trade for revenue purposes it would have to include the United States.

Crispi and the Vatican's Demands.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Times' Rome correspondent telegraphs that Sig. Crispi, the Italian premier, is ready to concede any of the Vatican's demands which will not interfere with the maintenance of the Quirinal's sovereignity over Italian soil. The temporal power of the Pope, however, is one thing which Italy wil never concede.

Killed at a Ball Game.

SENECA, Mich., Sept. 26.—George Bacon, a blacksmith, was one of the nine who went to Jasper to play baseball with a club of that town on Sunday. The second ball pitched hit Bacon squarely on the head, and caused his death.

Child Drowned in a Washtub.

GUELPH, Sept, 26.—A seventeen-months-old baby of Jos. Pequegnat, jeweller, fell into a tub of water and was drowned. The girl had set the washtub down temporarily while washing clothes. He was discovered five minutes afterwards and restoratives applied by Drs. Howitt and Cormack but without avail.

BOOKS AND PAPERS.

Emanuel Swedenborg's "Arcana Celestia" was printed when the author was 61.

The people of the United States read and support as many newspapers as England, France and Germany combined.

A copy of the first edition of Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield" was disposed of in London a few days ago for $475. The author sold the original copyright of the book for $300.

The largest book ever known is owned by Queen Victoria. It is eighteen inches thick and weighs sixty-three pounds, and contains the addresses of congratulation on the occasion of her jubilee.

According to foreign papers there are now 3,538 journals and magazines printed in Germany. In 1891 there were 3,443; in 1890, 3,204; in 1889, 2,982, and in 1888, 2,729. There has been an increase since last year, therefore, of 95, and since 1888 of 809.

Good Cooking.

An eminent expert in the art of cooking says that "cookery is the art of putting every morsel to the best use; it is the exercise of skill, thought and ingenuity, to make every particle of food yield the utmost nourishment and pleasure, of which it is capable." There are many who enjoy very little of even the best cooked food. Those could increase their enjoyment of the good things of life by the continued and judicious use of Eseljays Liver Lozenges.

Millinery Opening Days

WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th.

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

FATE OF CAPTAIN FONG

The Commander of a Chinese Vessel Beheaded for Cowardice.

MUTILATING DEAD BODIES

The Chinese Taking This Barbarous Revenge for Their Defeat—Thirty Thousand Japanese Troops March to the Gulf of Pechili.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Times publishes a despatch from Shanghai saying that Captain Fong, of the Chinese turret ship Tsi Yuen, has been beheaded for cowardice in the Yalu fight. The despatch also says that the Chinese cruiser Kwang-Kai became stranded on a reef near Talien Bay while endeavoring to make her escape from the Yalu battle and was afterwards blown up by the Japanese. This makes a total loss of five ships to the Chinese, including one ship which was rammed by the Tsi-Yuen while trying to ram one of the Japanese vessels.

VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 27.—News by the steamer Empress of India, which left Yokohama on the 15th inst., is that the Japanese authorities will not allow correspondents of newspapers to go to the front.

The opinion is that the Japanese are too weak in cavalry. The movement of the Russian troops in Siberia is awaited with anxiety. Also what action will be taken by France, which has two men-of-war at Fusan, and is believed to favor Japan. Five more French cruisers are expected here soon.

Diplomats do not think that the powers will permit either Japan or China to annex Corea, while it is certain that France will demand redress from the Chinese for the murder of a French missionary.

Papers in Tokio say that the meeting of Russian, British and German ministers at Chee Foo was the subject of an alliance between these powers to insure neutrality and to protect their own subjects. It is said, however, that despite her pretensions the British navy has favored China, and her action has caused unfavorable criticism in Japan. The steamers of the Chinese Merchants' Steamship Company are now flying the British flag.

An American Presbyterian minister who has just returned from Phyong Yang says that the proper estimate of the Chinese troops would be about 1,000 and not 40,000 as reported. The Chinese are said to be exhibiting much barbarity in the mutilation of persons killed and offering rewards for Japanese heads which with hands and other members of the body are nailed up in conspicuous places.

The Corean government, in addition to its reforms has issued new currency in copper, nickel and silver from half a cent to one dollar. The Japanese minister to Seoul and the Corean Minister of Finance have concluded a convention to expel Chinese troops and to place Corean affairs on a firm basis. Japan is to defend Corea as well as to attack China. Every member of the Corean cabinet has resigned.

The daily cost of the Japanese arms is estimated at three thousand yen.

No one now doubts that the long delay in the Japanese military movements is to allow time for the completion of a great plan of invasion. Any day may bring news of a battle in Northern Corea and of the sailing of 30,000 troops for some point on the inner coast of the Gulf of Pechili, but as the decisive time approaches the Japanese authorities grow more and more deaf to appeals for information. They frankly declare that secrecy is one of their chief conditions to success.

Japanese Pride and Loyalty.

A large number of flags taken from the Chinese in the battle of Song-Hwan are now being exhibited in front of the Shokonsha shrine in Japan which is dedicated to the spirits of the soldiers that have fallen in battle since the days of the restoration. Thousands of people are daily gathered round the place, their countenances beaming with delight at this most tangible proof of the superiority of Japanese arms. The pride of those in the crowd who had soldier relatives, instrumental in achieving this trophy-making triumph is feelingly expressed, and such phrases as "my brother, my cousin" did this or that are frequently to be heard. The exhibition of flags is of itself well worth seeing but the exhibition of family pride and loyalty is more touching.

CHASED BY THE KAFFIRS.

The Portuguese Fled, Abandoning Their Arms and Ammunition.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Pall Mall Gazette has advices from Delagoe Bay, which state that a Portuguese sergeant was killed during the fighting at Lourenzo Marquez on the night of September 24, and that a telegraph operator has been missing since that time.

The Kaffirs pursued the outlying detachments of Portuguese troops, compelling them to abandon their arms and ammunition. The governor of the district has sent a protest to the authorities at Lisbon against the landing of marines from the British warship Thrush for the protection of the British consulate.

The total number of Portuguese at Lourenzo Marques capable of taking part in the defence of the town is 120, and they are assisted by 200 blacks. The Kaffir forces number 7,000.

LOST OFF PRESQUE ISLE

Collision Between Two American Vessels in Lake Huron.

THEY BOTH GO TO THE BOTTOM

Two of the Crew of the Ironto Rescued, the Others Are Missing—The Ohio's Crew, With the Exception of an Officer, Picked Up.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 27.—The steamer Ohio, down bound, collided with the schooner Ironton, up bound, in tow of the steamer Kershaw, ten miles north of Presque Isle, Lake Huron, yesterday, and both boats sank in half an hour. The crew of the Ohio, excepting the first mate, sixteen in number, got into the life boat after much difficulty and were picked up by the schooner Moonlight, also in tow of the Kershaw, after clinging to a ladder for two hours. The steamer Hebard picked up two of the crew of the Ironton. The remainder of the crew, seven in number, are missing. The crew of the Ohio were landed here and the two members of the crew of the Ironton were taken to the Soo.

The wind was blowing a gale from the south and a heavy sea was running. Just before the collision the Ironton parted her tow line and it is thought this accident threw her out of her course and caused the collision.

The Ohio was loaded with flour and feed from Duluth to Ogdensburg. The Ironton was light, Cleveland to Marquette. The crew and officers of the Ohio refused to talk about the collision. The Ohio is owned by Elphick of Chicago. She was built at Huron in 1875, is of 351 net tons, rates A2 and was valued at $38,000. The Ironton is owned by the Cleveland vessel men. She was built at Buffalo in 1873, rates A2 and was valued at $18,000.

The Democratic Ticket in New York.

SARATOGA, N.Y., Sept. 27.—The Democratic State convention has placed in nomination a notable ticket. For governor, Senator David B. Hill is so well known that further reference to him is not necessary. Daniel N. Lockwood for lieut.-governor is at present a member of Congress from Buffalo. He it was who made the nominatory speech for Cleveland in the convention wherein the President first became a candidate. Judge Wm. Gaynor, named for the Court of Appeals, is the man whose candidacy for his present office sent the Gravesend boss to the penitentiary and broke up the Brooklyn political ring which has been such a menace to decent politics in this State.

Governor McKinley's Speech.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 27.—Governor Wm. McKinley, while en route from Indianapolis to Bellefontaine, spoke to 5,000 people who were at the depot to meet him. Hundreds of iron, steel and glass workers were present, and when the protection of American industries was spoken off they went wild. Governor McKinley became greatly enthused during his speech, pounding his silk hat against his left hand in a destructive manner.

Terrible Storm in South Carolina.

ORANGEBURG, S.C., Sept. 27.—A terrible wind storm struck this place last evening and is blowing at a velocity of 45 miles an hour. Trees, telegraph poles and fences are down. Great damage is being done to corn and cotton. It is feared the worst is yet to come. No reports from the country have been received.

The American Apple Crop.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The special report of the Weekly American Agriculturist on the apple crop points to the curious situation of a promised fine yield in New England, a light outlook for New York and Pennsylvania and a decidedly short crop in Ohio, Michigan and the central west.

Uncle Sam's Fast Warship.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The battleship Maine, in her preliminary trial trip, proved herself to be the fastest battleship of ours or any other navy. She made 17.55 knots an hour. Her machinery worked like a clock, and she has turned in a cable's length in a seaway.

A Whaling Vessel Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 27.—The steamer Jeanie arrived from Ounalaska yesterday and reports the loss of the whaling bark Reindeer inside of Return Reef on August 4th. The crew was saved and divided among the different whalers.

The Grand Stand Collapsed.

WORTHINGTON, Minn., Sept. 27.—During the races at the fair grounds yesterday the grand stand collapsed, burying about 500 people in the wreck. None were killed outright but about 30 were more or less injured.

A Schooner and Crew Lost.

ST. IGNACE, Mich., Sept. 27.—The schooner Wm. Howe was wrecked on Lake Michigan and the crew of six drowned.

President of Paraguay.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 27.—Gen. Egusquiza has been elected President of Paraguay.

Forged Railway Passes.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Harry Wilkinson and Edgar Taillefer were brought before the police magistrate charged with forging the names of Messrs. Seargeant and Percy on Grand Trunk passes. They were arrested on the train from St. John's last evening after a chase of several months. Both pleaded guilty.

West York Patrons.

WESTON, Ont., Sept. 27.—The meeting of the Patrons of Industry for West York held here yesterday was not largely attended, about seven representatives being from each of the four townships. Quite a number were nominated, but J. D. Evans, of Islington, received the largest vote.

A Frenchman Expelled From Italy.

ROME, Sept. 27.—Abbe Montonod, a Frenchman employed as an editor on the Moniteur de Rome, has been expelled from Italy and conducted across the frontier for writing a series of articles making violent attacks upon the government.

QUEBEC'S NEW TROUBLE

Premier Taillon's Plan Carries the Day and Hall Resigns.

HIS RESIGNATION HELD OVER

The Provincial Treasurer, It Seems, Was Afraid to Trust the Government With the C. P. R.'s Seven Millions—Candidates for His Portfolio.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—The Star in an article, which is regarded as being inspired by Provincial Treasurer Hall, says: "The formal resignation of the Hon. J. S. Hall, is at the request of the Premier, held over until the return of the latter from Montcalm, probably on Saturday. Meanwhile, the Provincial Treasurer insists that the resignation be dated from yesterday. All apparent hope of a reconciliation would seem to be destroyed by the action of Mr. Taillon yesterday when he cabled to Paris his acceptance of the offer of the Credit Lyonnais and the Bon Du Paris, which has been a bone of contention between the Premier and the Treasurer all summer. The province now owes these two great financial institutions $1,277,000 francs, equal to $4,106,461. The loan was originally negotiated by Mr. Shehyn in Paris in 1891, and was renewed by Mr. Hall in Paris on July 1893. The province has given notice of its intention to pay the debt which bears interest at four per cent. on December 15.

"The Paris institutions cabled an offer to M. Taillon some time ago to make a new 3 per cent. loan at 77 of the amount necessary to redeem the first loan. The Premier has been in favor of and the Treasurer strongly opposed the accepting of this offer. The Premier pointed out that the proposed transaction would reduce the interest charges by $14,266.45 per annum. The Treasurer replied that it would add $1,266,608.13 to the provincial debt. In order to redeem a loan of 21,277,000 francs ($4,106,461.13) issued at par, with a loan made at 77, it would be necessary to issue a new loan of 27,632,467 francs (5,338,066). The interest on the former amounts at 4 per cent. would be 851,080 francs ($164,256.45) per annum, and the interest on the latter 828,974 francs ($159,991.96) per annum. Mr Hall was in favor of rejecting this offer and utilising the Canadian Pacific's payment of seven millions to meet the province's liability. He insists that this amount was made available for such a purpose by an act passed at the last session. This act provides for the appointment of trustees to whom the Government may pay the proceeds of sale of the North Shore railway and also the railway grant of $3,394,000 made by the Dominion Government, that amount to be held for the redemption or conversion of the public debt generally.

"The Provincial Treasurer seems to have been animated by the fear that the C. P. R. seven millions, if not utilised in part to meet the provincial liability maturing in December, would prove too strong a temptation for a Quebec government and would be dissipated long before the loans mature in 1904, 1906 and 1908.

"Another difficulty would be to find a remunerative investment for the seven million dollars which are now earning 5 per cent. for the province. Even if the Canadian Pacific should, with the consent of the Government, withdraw their notice of repayment, it would probably only be to renew the notice the following day, as the company must be anxious to get rid of this heavy interest charge.

"It is said that although Mr. Taillon has been conducting the Paris negotiations for months upon his own responsibility and against the advice of the Treasurer, the matter was never laid before the Executive Council until last Thursday. The Premier's acceptance of the Paris proposition puts a definite end to Mr. Hall's financial policy and apparently makes it impossible for him to remain in office.

"The names of Mr. A. W. Morris and Mr. King, of Megantic, are mentioned in connection with the Treasury portfolio."

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Reports of Another Indian Uprising—MacWherrell's Case.

OTTAWA, Sept. 27.—If the young Toronto lawyer who defended MacWherrell does not receive very heavy counsel fees from his client he has had no end of cheap newspaper advertising. His name has been kept before the public by the Toronto press daily. The story was telegraphed from Toronto that the lawyer in question had left for Ottawa and was to have an interview with the Minister of Justice yesterday morning. The officials at the department know nothing about it. There was, however, as usual, a telegram at the department addressed to the counsel which looked as if he had been on his way here. It is understood that he did not leave Toronto.

Mr. Samuel Wilmot, superintendent of fish culture, has been appointed a commissioner to hold an inquiry at Killarney, Ont., next Friday into charges of infractions of the fishing laws committed by the Noble Brothers, of Collingwood.

Mr. F. White, Controller of the North-west Mounted Police, received a despatch from his office at Battleford which leads him to think that another Indian uprising is rumored in the Northwest, for the despatch reads: "Report in Saskatchewan Herald, 21st, I think purely sensational. Have sent a party to Pelican Lake to investigate."

From information received by the Department of Trade and Commerce from a variety of sources, it is safe to predict that there will be a considerable number of tenders for the laying and operation of the Pacific cable. The department expects that all the leading cable making establishments of the world will be in vigorous competition with each other for the contract.

George Atkinson, of the Flats, a young man who, while furiously driving down Albert street a week ago, ran over a young boy named Joe. Gagon, badly injuring him, was sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Accident at Lindsay Fair.

LINDSAY, Sept. 27.—While a jockey named Cole, from Hamilton, was exercising Hawkin's mare at the track on the exhibition grounds the horse slipped in a wet place and falling, rolled over Cole. Cole's skull was fractured. He died without regaining consciousness.

Daily Examiner.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1894.

THE SEWER WILL BE STARTED AT ONCE.

ROBT. GRANT, OF TORONTO, IS THE CONTRACTOR SELECTED.

Contract Price, $11,270—A Large Number of Tenders Received for the Work—We Want the Military School—Street Lights—The Committee Reports—The Unnecessary Whistling of Engines to be Stopped—No Bridge to be Built at Auburn This Year.

At a special meeting of the town council held last night there were present His Worship Mayor Kendry, and Councillors Cahill, White, Best, Dawson, Rogers, and Sutton.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

THE MILITARY SCHOOL.

The Mayor stated that it would be a good idea for the council to take action and endeavour to have the new government military school established here. The Board of Trade had taken action in the matter and so ought the council. Councillor Hall and Mayor Kendry were appointed to take what steps were necessary and to report at the next meeting of the council.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communications were received:

From E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, notifying the council of the quashing by Judge Weller, of the police magistrate's conviction against Richard Cavanagh and assessing costs to amount of $21.50 against the town. This was ordered to be paid.

From the Salvation Army asking permission to use the Central Park on which to hold a reception to General Booth on Oct. 18th. The request was granted.

From fourteen residents on Weller street and vicinity, asking that the Water Works Co. be instructed to lay pipes in that part of the town in order to give them better fire protection.—Referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

From E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, enclosing cheque for $14, costs in Graham vs. Town case.

THE LICENSE COMMITTEE.

Councillor Roger presented the following report of the License Committee:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your License Committee beg leave to report as follows:—

1. In reference to the petitions and memorials for and against the repeal of the present Liquor License By-law, your committee have obtained the opinion to the effect that the council have not the power to change the law as it now stands for the current license year and they recommend that no action be taken in reference thereto.

2. Your committee recommend that this council memoralize the Ontario Government to the effect that taverns without full accommodation are neither required nor desired by the people of Peterborough and requesting the Government to instruct the License Commissioners to discontinue the issue of such licenses in the town for the future.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. L. HUGHES, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

The report was adopted.

TO LOWER THE LIGHTS.

Councillor Cahill moved, that the Fire, Water and Light Committee be authorized to have the electroller in the council chamber, lowered two feet, and as all were in favour the motion was carried.

STREET LIGHTS.

Councillor Best wanted to see the electric lights lit oftener at night. He stated that for some time they had not been lit at night. He had been complained to several times about it. He thought that the town should not pay for lights when they were out. The police could report as to when the lights were out. The town was paying a very large price for lights in comparison to other places and we ought to have good ones.

Councillor Cahill stated that the light and water accounts were paid quarterly as by by-law but he thought it would be a good idea that they should be brought before the council before they were paid, and then if there were any complaints the payment could be stopped.

This proposition was acted on.

The mayor stated that if the lights were numbered it would be easy to know what lights were complained of.

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT.

Councillor White presented the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee as follows:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your Fire, Water and Light Committee beg leave to report and recommend as follows:

1. That Mr. Jas. English be instructed to see that all clothing belonging to the Fire Department, as kept in the Fire Hall, is properly looked after and used only for fire purposes.

2. That the horse "Tom" be disposed of and another horse purchased to replace him, and that your committee be authorized to carry out the sale and purchase, and that the horse which may be purchased be paid for on the order of the chairman of this committee.

3. That Mr. English be authorized to sell the manure from the fire stable and with the purchase money, to buy small articles for the stable.

4. That no purchase of hose be made at present.

All of which is respectively submitted.

THOS. KELLY, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

THE AUBURN BRIDGE.

Councillor Best, chairman of the Street and Bridge Committee, presented their report as follows:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Street and Bridge Committee beg leave to report as follows:

1. With reference to the petition for a foot-bridge across the Otonabee river at Auburn, your committee has carefully considered the matter, but as the bridge cannot be built this year with the appropriation that has been made and upon which the rate for the year was struck, we cannot recommend that the work be done this season.

2. Members of your committee inspected the foot bridge on the Auburn dam, and found that it could be made in good condition by an expenditure of about $25. We recommend that, provided the Auburn Woollen Company will allow it to be used as a footbridge, $25 be appropriated for its repair, the work to be done by this committee or the grant to be given the Auburn Woollen Company if the company will do the work.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY BEST, Chairman.

Councillor Dawson thought if a few dollars were added to the appropriation that the walk could be boarded up on the sides as a protection to children passing.

The report was adopted.

THE SEWERAGE CONTRACT LET.

Councillor Best, chairman of the Sewerage Committee, presented their report as follows:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your Sewerage Committee beg leave to report as follows:—

1. As authorized by the council we advertised for tenders for the construction of the outfall sewer from the river to Lake street, and received the following tenders:—

	Whole work.	Const'n only.
Robt Grant, Toronto	$11,270 00	$ 6,377
Wm Jones, Toronto	12,711 00	6,117
Alex Brown, Toronto	13,989 00

H Carweth, town	18,000 00
Wm Breckenridge, town		8,988
M Bolton & J J Lundy, town		10,500

2. Your committee recommend that the tender of Robt. Grant for the whole work be accepted and that the mayor and clerk be authorized to enter into a contract for the construction of the sewer in accordance with the plans and specifications of the town engineer and that his sureties are satisfactory and it shall be a condition in the contract that White's cement shall be used on the whole work.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY BEST, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

Councillor Best stated that he had received a telegram yesterday stating that J. H. Fair & Co., and John Whitfield, of Toronto, would act as Mr. Grant's sureties, and that he (Mr. Grant) would not make any draft of money until the whole work is completed.

Councillor Cahill asked if there was any clause in the specifications as to the employment of local labour.

The town engineer stated affirmatively and read the clause.

Councillor Best stated that Mr. Grant would be here to-morrow and would start at once.

The report was adopted and the Town Solicitor was instructed to prepare the contract.

The matter of employing an inspector to supervise the work was left over until Monday night. The mayor stated that they wanted a first-class man who had had experience in this kind of work.

RAILWAY WHISTLING.

Councillor Roger stated the whistling of the engines on the railways was becoming a nuisance. He therefore moved, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the police be instructed to enforce the by-law dealing with the unnecessary whistling of railways.

THE POLICE TO REPORT.

The police were instructed to report whenever they found a light out and the clerk was instructed to ask the Light and Power Co. to have the lights numbered. The clerk will receive any complaints from the ratepayers at large, so that the Light Company will not charge for lights not in use.

The council then adjourned.

Nothing Stands as High.

as a remedy for every womanly ailment, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Here is the proof. It's the only medicine for women so certain in its effects that it can be guaranteed. In every case, if it doesn't cure, your money is returned. Can anything else, though it may be better for a tricky dealer to sell, be "just as good" for you to buy?

"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengtening nervine, and a complete cure for all the fundamental derangements, painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the sex.

For young girls entering at the critical "change of life"; for women approaching confinement; nursing mothers; and every woman who is "run-down," tired, or overworked—it is a special, safe, and certain help.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, piles, billiousness, indigestion, or dyspepsia and headaches.

Dyspepsia arises from wrong action of the stomach, liver and bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters cures Dyspepsia and al diseases arising from it. 99 times in 100.

A Marvelous Medicine

Whenever Given a Fair Trial Hood's Proves its Merit.

The following letter is from Mr. J. Alcide Chaussé, architect and surveyor, No. 153 Shaw Street, Montreal, Canada:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for about six months and am glad to say that it has done me a great deal of good. Last May my weight was 163 pounds, but since I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla it has increased to 163. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is a marvellous medicine and am very much pleased with it." J. NOBLE,

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

RATTE'S INGENIOUS SCHEME.

How He Smuggled Goods Past U. S. Customs Officers.

BUFFALO, Sept. 27.—J. C. Ratte, who pleaded not guilty in the United States District Court to a charge of smuggling furs into the United States, is, according to the government officers, one of the smartest smugglers with whom they have ever been called upon to deal. While agent for J. B. Laiberte, the great furrier of Quebec, he went into the business of smuggling, using his position as agent as a cloak for his operations.

The manner in which Ratte got his smuggled goods over the border was very ingenious. It seems that hundreds of mail sacks containing newspapers are taken daily into Canada. As there is no such great demand for Canadian papers here, the sacks are taken back empty. To save space several are rolled up and placed in one sack. In these sacks would the mysterious packages be placed by two confederates of Ratte who worked on the trains.

It would never occur to the astute custom officials to look into such a place as the United States mail bags for smuggled matter. Even if they had been found they would give no clue either to their destination or to the forwarder as they only were marked with a single figure. When the officials got on to the modus operandi they got on a train they knew to contain packages and let the train go by the customs house at Rouse's Point. Then they descended on the baggage car. Two men were there, Nedoor and McCormick, a baggageman and a brakesman respectively.

Both men confessed and were sentenced to six months imprisonment. They will be used as witnesses against Ratte on his trial. Ratte has been surrendered by his bondsmen and is now in jail.

ALSACE AND LORRAINE.

These Two Provinces Not Reconciled to Their Annexation With Germany.

LONDON, Sept, 27.—The Central News, in an editorial leader, summarizes a series of letters received from a correspondent in Alsace Lorraine, which provinces the writer has revisited after a period of years.

"The provinces," he says, "are not reconciled to Germany and this is especially true of Lorraine which remains Catholic and French. There is no liberty, as we understand the term. The natives are permitted to observe their own religion and use their own language under certain restrictions, but these limitations include the presence of German detectives in the churches."

What stifles the feeling of discontent in the Reichsland is the general passionate desire for peace. The populace have a terrible object lesson before their eyes. Metz is a vast military camp and Mulhouse an immense barracks. Strasburg is described as truly awful. Thirteen new forts have been built there since the war and the place seems like a monster whose iron jaws are distended in a spasmodic grin of cannon, reaching for miles. Much the same state of things exists at Kehl. The cost of food and lodgings at Strasburg is more than double since the annexation of the provinces to Germany. Trade is persistently dull. The civil population loses its sense of importance and the soldier dominates the situation. The whole administration is vested in a form of martial law.

To be Manned With Disciplined Seamen.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Admiralty is considering the scheme of manning subsidized merchant cruisers with officers and seamen of the royal navy reserve. The scheme has already been referred to the board of trade and will be referred to the various mercantile and marine boards. The details of the plan are not known but it is intended that crews of regular drill and discipline shall be engaged. Special contracts for vessels will be effected for the services of the steamers Teutonic, Majestic, Etruria, Umbria, Empress of India, Empress of China, Empress of Japan, Himalayas, Australia, Victoria, Arcadia, and others to the number of twenty-six.

A Civic Potato Patch Scheme.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 27.—Mayor Pingree's potato patch scheme, by which several hundred acre of unimproved property in the suburbs were last summer planted with potatoes, the crop from which, it was hoped, would help to feed the poor and unemployed during the coming winter, is an assured success. The crop will yield 15,000 bushels of potatoes. So successful has been the project that there is talk of making it permanent and putting the work in charge of a regular city department.

The Victoria Elections.

MELBOURNE, Sept. 27.—The election for members of parliament resulted in the return of 23 ministerialists, 54 opposition and 13 independents. Ministers Cloghten, Baker and Richardson and Speaker Bent were defeated for re-election. The victors comprise a protectionist majority, but the victory is alleged to have chiefly been due to the support of persons in the civil service and malcontents who are irate at Prime Minister Patterson's reduction of salaries and other economies.

Norton Dies in Jail.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Norton, the mulatto, who was last year condemned to three years' imprisonment for forging documents which purported to have been stolen from the British embassy, died in prison at Poissy yesterday. The documents, which made it appear that Clemenceau, Rochefort and others were guilty of acts of treason, were published in the Libre Parole, whose editor, M. Ducrat, was sent to prison for one year.

A Grand Feature

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of richness and health, it also imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heard: "Hood's Sarsaparilla made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

DEAR SIR,—Replying to your favour regarding my experience with "HAIRENE," I beg to say I made a personal test with it, when it was first placed on the market, with results so gratifying that I have no hesitation in recommending it to my customers. The preparation now enjoys a very good sale with us, and I have yet to hear a user of it speak otherwise than most favorably.

Outraged a Nine-Year-Old Child.

TORONTO JUNCTION, Sept. 27.—P. C. Flintoff met on Dundas street a little girl about nine years of age, who was crying pitifully. She said her name was Jessie Steward and that she lived on Franklin avenue. The officer took the child to her home, where she said that a man asked her to get in his wagon and have a drive. He drove her up Dundas street and carried her in his arms to an empty barn. After abusing her he told her to go home and offered her $2 to meet him near the Avenue hotel the next night. Dr. Clendennan examined the child and found that she had been outraged. The policemen took the case in hand and arrested J. R. Rouke on suspicion.

Badly Burned by Carbolic Acid.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 27.—May Osborne, niece of Mrs. W. W. Osborne, Dundas street, made several attempts to draw the cork out of a bottle containing carbolic acid. Finally the end of the cork was broken off and the girl undertook to push the cork down the neck into the bottle. The liquid flew in every direction, a large portion striking her in the face and badly burning her about the eyes. Screaming with pain she started for a doctor. Large pieces of flesh were taken out of the girl's face and the injuries about the eyes are so bad that it may result in the loss of her eye-sight.

Brassey Gives Some Advice.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 27.—Speaking of the Hudson Bay Railway project Lord Brassey said to a reporter: "It is useless to spend vast sums of money on opening a route which, say, at the outside, would be open for one month in the year, when, by a much smaller expenditure, the system of canals between Montreal and Fort William could be rendered fit for sea-going vessels for six months in the year. The cost of the work of the Hudson Bay Railway must fall on the taxpayers."

Two Horses Killed.

PORT HOPE, Sept. 27.—When the train from the north was coming in between Millbrook and Fraserville, on one of the concession lines there were seven or eight horses running loose. They all made a bolt like a flock of sheep to pass in front of the train, when the engine killed two of them. There was no delay or damage done to the train; in fact the passengers were not aware that such a thing had happened.

ROBERT HALL.

A Pronounced Success.

As anticipated, the formal opening of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of weaves march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Thursday, Sept. 27th.—A change for the better with a little higher temperature, the thermometer this morning standing at 38 degrees. Our cold snap is now over, which has been severe for September.

Call up No. 6.

Mr. George Wholton has had a telephone placed in his fruit store, 434 George street, to-day. Those wishing to buy fresh reliable fruit, oysters, confectionery, etc., at right prices will please ring up telephone No. 6, or leave their orders at his shop.

A Sight Worth Seeing.

Go up to-day and take a walk through my beautiful greenhouse of fresh blooming flowers, potting and bedding-out plants, etc., corner Argyle and George streets. FRANK WISE.

Herr Klingenfeld, of Toronto, will be at Turner's music store on Saturday from ten o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon to take the names of pupils desiring to study the violin under his tuition. Mrs. Klingenfeld will meet those wishing to take vocal lessons at the same time and place. These accomplished musicians will probably devote one day a week to their Peterborough pupils, if sufficient inducements can be held forth.

A Novel Invitation.

In order to place the merits of their tea fairly before the public, the Grand Mogul Tea Company are sending a lady around to their different agencies throughout the country for the purpose of having the tea properly brewed and given away as a sample of its high grade and general excellence. On Friday next a grand brewing will take place in the store of Mr. Thos. Brady, the Peterborough agent, when the public are cordially invited to call and test a cup of the tea.

Harvest Festival at St. Luke's, To-night.

The annual harvest festival, of St. Luke's church, will be held this evening, at 8 o'clock. The church is beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit and grain, and the choir will render appropriate music. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. Mockridge, of Toronto. All seats are free and unappropriated, and the public are cordially invited to attend. The offertory will be devoted to the Rectory improvement fund.

A Noted Songstress.

A concert in aid of the Charlotte street Methodist church will be held on the evening of October 16th. It promises to be one of the best held in Peterborough in some time, as such noted artists as Miss Eva Roblin, soprano soloist; Miss Lillian Burns, elocutionist, and Master Wilfred LaRue, cornetist, will take part. The press notices concerning all three are most flattering, and without doubt a large number of the citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing something really good. 1d

Furniture.

The long nights are coming and people are preparing to make home attractive. A. Clegg is now receiving, daily, the newest things in furniture. A full assortment in every line. Parlour suites, dining room furniture, all grades very cheap. In bedroom suites, the largest line ever offered in Peterborough, especially in suites ranging in price from $14 to $25—by far the best values ever offered. Fancy chairs, centre tables, spring beds, mattresses, pillows, etc.—A. CLEGG, 427 George street. dw

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Battalion drill to-night.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—A drunk who occupied the cells last night was discharged this morning.

—The Government have decided to allow fishing with gill nets for herring during November.

—The town clerk will be pleased to receive any complaints as to the electric lights being out at any time.

—A slight blaze amid the ruins of the Petrolia Oil Company's warehouse called out the fire brigade at noon to-day.

—The Street and Bridge Committee have decided not to take any action in regard to putting a pump in the well on Hunter street.

—The City of Peterborough took her last trip of the season yesterday and is now laid up in the dock yards. Her machinery was taken out to-day.

—Those wishing to avoid the rush at the benefit concert, at George street church, to-morrow evening, can purchase their tickets at Schofield's drug store.

—Mr. B. Hudson has on exhibition in Mr. J. Nugent's drug store window a large and beautifully finished oil painting entitled "The Lion's Bride," which is worthy of more than passing notice.

—The meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E., in St. Paul's church, this evening, is postponed, as word was received, this morning, to the effect that Rev. Mr. Johnston, of Lindsay, was too ill to come to Peterborough and address the meeting.

—By an oversight owing to the demands made upon the staff by the Central Exhibition, the duet to be sung by Mrs. Stapleton and Mrs. Seward at the George street concert on Friday night was unadvertently omitted from the programme published in the EXAMINER. They will sing "Ora pro Nobis."

—Dr. and Mrs. Yelland had a narrow escape yesterday at the fair grounds as did Mr. George Walton of Smith township. The carriage of the latter collided with that of Dr. Yelland, damaging both conveyances to no inconsiderable extent, and throwing Mr. Walton's horse to the ground. Luckily the occupants of neither carriage were hurt.

—The court of assizes concluded the Mason vs. Peterborough case yesterday, and judgment has been given in favour of the plaintiff. The amount of damage will be named late this afternoon. To-day the court was occupied in hearing the evidence in the case of Rush vs. Rush, an action for a settlement of accounts. It was dismissed with costs.

—Mr. William Gould, the well known butcher of Ashburnham, went out the other day to look for the bear which is reported to be hovering around Mr. Zach. Burnham's farm, endeavouring to get a mouthful or so out of that prize Jersey As no trace of Bruin could be found, Mr. Gould concluded to do a little business and driving on further purchased a sheep. It happened to be of a sable hue and as only a glimpse of it could be obtained, as it lay in the bottom of the wagon, the report was circulated that Mr. Gould had been successful in his hunt for the bear.

—"Moderato," the musical critic of "Saturday Night," and in his professional capacity, one of the foremost musicians of Toronto, in a letter to a musical friend in town says:—"Mr. Klingenfeld, (who appears at the concert in the George street Methodist church on Friday night) is, in my opinion, unsurpassed as a violinist by any soloist at present resident in Canada. He has proven himself a decided acquisition to the musical forces of our city and the artistic character of his work is making for him many lasting friends among the cultivated portion of our people."

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. B. Cole, of Cobourg, is registered at the Oriental.

Mr. Sparham Sheldrake, of Lakefield, was in town to-day.

Mr. C. D. King left to-day, at noon, to enter upon his studies at McGill University, Montreal.

Miss Pauline Sheak, of Toronto, arrives this evening, to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. O'Donovan.

Miss Maggie Robinson, of James street, is visiting friends in Peterborough for a few days.—Belleville Intelligencer.

Mrs. James Hosey, of Napanee, is in town on a visit, the guest of her brother, Mr. Charles Gunsolus, Water street.

Mr. Geo. Davidson, son of Mr. J. I. Davidson, George street, who, for the past six weeks, has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, in Winnipeg, was brought home by his mother, during the early part of this week, Mrs. Davidson having gone out to Winnipeg about a month ago. The long journey fatigued the invalid to a great extent, but he is now on a fair way to recovery.

—Moderato, in the Toronto "Saturday Night," speaking of Herr Klingenfeld's violin performance, at the convention of the Canadian Society of Musicians, at the Normal School, Toronto, says:—"Herr Klingenfeld's violin solo presented that gentleman in a most favourable sight, the Wieniawski Polonaise being played with a delightful breadth of tone and purity of intonation. "Moderato" is among the very first of Canadian musical critics, and praise from him is praise indeed, especially as in this case, when his commendation is so decidedly given to a teacher in a rival school to that with which he himself is connected.

Take it Home to Yourselves.

Mothers and fathers, don't you recall in your school days how much better you could write with a long new pencil than an old one?

Were not the problems easier to solve when you figured on a big "pad" you had just purchased?

Did you ever lose the reader, speller, or arithmetic when you had a nice new bag to carry the books in to and from school?

Now, be honest and fix up the children's outfit as though you were young again.

A few cents invested at the stationery department of the Peterborough Bookstore will give the children inspiration for study throughout the term. A. H. STRATTON.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

The Victim Lying in a Precarious Condition at Present.

Mrs. Joseph Fisher, of Baillieboro, sister of Mrs. David Knox, met with a most serious accident yesterday afternoon, by being thrown from her buggy while driving on Charlotte street. She was just driving past the house of Mrs. Samuel White, when the horse suddenly shied at an electric car, which was passing, and, becoming unmanageable, ran upon the sidewalk—the buggy was overturned and Mrs. Fisher and her two children were thrown violently to the ground. The two little ones escaped unhurt, but unfortunately Mrs. Fisher's chest and her right hip received injuries of such a nature as to render her removal to her home a circumstance involving great danger.

At the time of the accident she was carried into the residence of Mrs. Samuel White, where she is at present lying. Besides the injuries already mentioned, it appears also that Mrs. Fisher's ribs on both the right and left sides are giving her considerable pain, and are considered by Dr. King, who is in attendance, to be also badly injured.

A SHAM BATTLE ON THE TAPIS.

The 57th to Furnish Amusement for the Citizens on Thanksgiving Day.

The officers of the Rangers together with Sergeant-Major Peters are endeavouring to gather the members of the 57th together in order to put in a few drills previous to entertaining the citizens with a sham battle on Thanksgiving Day.

The idea is a good one, and if the volunteers will only turn out in sufficient numbers at the drill shed this evening, there is no reason why it should not be carried through successfully. The officers are of the opinion that about four drills would put the men in first-class trim for the various manœuvres through which they will be put, as the battalion only a few months ago was in an A 1 state of efficiency.

The sham battles which take place every Thanksgiving Day in Toronto are always looked forward to most eagerly by both soldiery and citizens, and the day furnishes amusement annually to thousands in this manner.

SOME CLEVER WORK BY THE GRADUATING CLASS.

Bandages Adjusted with Neatness and Dispatch—A Credit to their Instruction.

The bandaging competition among the members of the graduating class of the Nicholls Hospital training school took place last evening.

The judges were Drs. Halliday and Boucher, and after the nurses had been allowed an hour and a half to bandage their subjects, the inspection took place, Dr. Bell, Dr. Fife and Mr. Richard Hall being present also.

The prize for applying the bandage in the most perfect manner was awarded Miss King, although the bandaging of all three subjects was such as to earn the highest of ecomiums from the judges, as well as from the other gentlemen present.

The class has been under the tuition of Miss Jessie Bolster, head nurse, and most certainly reflected credit upon her by their skilful performance of last night.

Good Cooking.

An eminent expert in the art of cooking says that "cookery is the art of putting every morsel to the best use; it is the exercise of skill, thought and ingenuity, to make every particle of food yield the utmost nourishment and pleasnre, of which it is capable." There are many who enjoy very little of even the best cooked food. Those could increase their enjoyment of the good things of life by the continued and judicious use of Esciays Liver Lozenges.

Carpet Made With 59,000,000 Stitches.

Those who have recently raised the question of the import of prison-made goods from abroad will, perhaps, read with surprise that the queen will shortly be the possessor of one of the most remarkable articles ever made in a prison. The superintendent of Agra jail some months back received an order to weave a carpet of special design for her Majesty. This is now complete. On it twenty-eight of the deftest convicts of the establishment have been engaged, and the texture measures seventy-seven feet by forty feet, and is estimated to contain no fewer than 59,000,000 stitches. The pattern, known as the Poona, is rarely met with. It has a dark ground, upon which the device and border are executed in delicate shades of vegetable-dyed blues, yellows, browns and greens. The carpet, which is of great value, will be used in her Majesty's Indian room at Osborne. The Agra jail convicts are also making a carpet for the German emperor.—Manchester Examiner.

The Soul and the Beard.

In Russia it was the common belief up to the time of Peter the Great that beardless men were also soulless and that a man who purposely admitted of having his beard marred could never enter heaven. The great Peter above referred to ordered his heathens to "shave up" so as to appear more civilized, and when they refused to comply with his edict he fined the wealthy and middle classes 100 rubles for each beard that was permitted to grow and each peasant and laborer a copeck for the same privilege. Finally the priests were appealed to and they informed their parishioners that unless they submitted to having their beards shaved they need not expect that St. Nicholas, the gatekeeper of heaven, would be able to distinguish them from the bearded Turks. That had the desired effect.—St. Louis Republic.

THE CENTRAL FAIR FOR '94 HAS FOLDED ITS TENTS.

THE CLOSING DAY OF A GREAT SUCCESS.

Improvement in Every Department—New Features—The Excellent Art Loan Exhibit—The Speeding Events—Finely Contested Races, Run Off Promptly—The Whole Affair a Credit to the Directorate.

The Central Exhibition for 1894 is a thing of the past. Yesterday the last act in the Exhibition drama was played and silence and darkness came upon the scene together. The third day was rather an off day for attendance, though about three thousand visitors passed the gates. In the morning little was done; but in the afternoon the speeding in the ring attracted a large attendance, and the spectators were well repaid by the excellent sport the well-contested races provided.

All day long, however, the big marquee containing was the centre of attraction, as it was during the entire exhibition. This enterprise, due to the energy and public spirit of Mr. D. A. Shaw, the artist, and to the wisely directed liberality of the directors, was one of the most taking attractions on the grounds. Not only were those specially interested in art rewarded with a view of a splendid collections of pictures, but the masses, many of whom had the opportunity for the first time of seeing and admiring so unpretentious but nevertheless meritorious an art gallery, enjoyed an educative experience, which will undoubtedly broaden their ideas of the capabilities of the brush in the hands of the best artists of Canada and of prominent members of the Royal Academy of England. Under Mr. Shaw's directions one of Turner's large marquees was converted into a picture gallery and though the light was not at times the most favourable for a proper view of the paintings it was the best that could be done under the circumstances, and altogether admirably served the purpose in view.

All the space at command was well filled and an overflow exhibit of several of the very creditable pictures of Mr. Shaw's pupils was held in the main building. It is not practicable to enter into a detailed reference to the several canvasses hung. Space will admit only of a general catalogueizing. The pictures shown included some of the finest pictures of Royal Academy artists, including a superb water colour, "Mid-day," by R. Hume, R. A.; a study in oil by Hope, R.A., and "Glen Fendu, Perthshire, Scotland, by Jas. Faed, jr., R.A. The pictures, oils and water colours, kindly loaned by local collectors and owners, include several fine water colour pieces by leading Canadian artists, loaned by Rev. V. Clementi; several fine water colours loaned by Mr. D. W. Dumble, were painted by his brother, Mr. A. E. Dumble, by Lockhart & Wilkison and several by unknown artists, also a gem which was a gem in oil. Mr. Roper loaned three excellent pictures, and two plaques by his brother, E. Roper, F. R. G. S. There were about forty fine canvasses and water colours contributed by members of the Ontario Association of artists—W. D. Blatchley, C. M. Manley, F. M. Bell-Smith, M. Matthews, F. L. Foster and others. Their pictures, of course, were worthy of the admiration bestowed upon them and they suffered little in comparison with the R. A. pictures hung among them.

Among the local contributors, of course, Mr. Shaw naturally comes first. He had hung the following pictures in oil:—"Listening," "An Art Student," (the model for this is a local young gentleman and the picture was shown at Toronto and won warm praise for the vigorous treatment it indicated), "The Street Arab," (from life), and "Worn Out," (from life being portraits of Mr. Shaw's little children, collapsed into a tired heap after too much play), "A Harmless Conversation," "Day's Work Over," "Soul's Awakening," "On the Alert," "End of a Romance," and two portraits, one of a lady and one of an editor. In the latter subject, though the subject itself afforded no scope for the reproduction of any Apollo Belvidere effects, yet it presented strong, vigorous treatment and the result is a picture that meets the popular ideal of the lean and Cassius look of the typical editor. In fine, in strong work, free, bold drawing and no wasted strokes of the brush or amateurish painstaking, Mr. Shaw's strength lies. He goes direct to his effects. His pupils also show some excellent work which, though it is not without faults, indicates the spirit of the teacher. They exhibit the following pictures: Mr. W. Rose, "Spring" and "Maccaroni;" Mrs. J. Crane, "Cows in Brook;" Miss May Kelly, "Sunset on the Thames," "Alone," and a capital fruit piece; Miss Lizzie Baillie, "dogs' heads," "Tirturn Abbey," "Bridge over the Don;" Miss Annie Simons, a clever amateur, had on Exhibition a landscape, "On the Ottawa," a copy of Millet's "Angelus," the Immaculate Conception," and several other pictures of merit. Miss Genevieve Amey also hung pictures, showing marked talent for so young an artist.

Mr. G. B. Sproule had a collection of ten crayon portraits and five oil portraits that were fully up to the reputation he has gained of being one of the foremost photographic artists of the province. Taken altogether the "art gallery" was a feature of the exhibition that was one of the best and most appreciated.

DeLorme's picture of "The Blacksmith," a masterpiece of art, attracted thousands of visitors, who were delighted with it. Nothing more realistic or artistic could be imagined.

THE SPORT OF THE AFTERNOON.

In order to afford a better class of sport to those interested in the speeding contests the directors of the Exhibition rented the track of the Driving Park Association and the races which took place there furnished A 1 amusement for the thousands which gathered to witness the horses struggling in rivalry. The track itself was in splendid condition and as fast if not faster than it has ever been.

The first race called was the 2:30 class, named the hotelkeepers. Fred O., Fortunate, Chestnut Hill, Demand and Billy Hamilton responded to the bell and a splendid contest was witnessed. Fortunate came under the wire first three consecutive times and won the race, but the struggle for supremacy between her and Fred O. aroused the wildest enthusiasm amongst the spectators. Fred O., unfortunately for his owner, left his feet just at the critical moments, which gave the race to Fortunate. Billy Hamilton was a good third and was never far behind the first two. The remainder of the field was "out of it" from the start and were withdrawn after the second heat.

Summary:

Purse, $100. Time, 2.31, 2.30, 2.32.

J McDonald's Fortunate	1	1	1
Sam Ray's Fred O	2	2	2
Bissett's Billy Hamilton	3	3	3
Nattrass' Demand	4	4	dr
C S Gillespie's Chestnut Hill	5	5	dr

NAMED STALLION RACE.

This race was a good one for the first heat, but Manibrino Mitchell refused to stretch himself after that, which gave the race to Canadian Star, with Canadian Goldust second.

Summary:

Purse, $60. Time, 2.41½, 2.44, 2.49.

Geo W Curtis' Canadian Star	1	1	1
Robt Gilmour's Canadian Goldust	3	2	2
Wm Clancy's Manibrino Mitchell	2	3	3

THE RUNNING RACE

was the most exciting, as in both heats Livery Boy and Nettie Wood ran neck and neck till entering the stretch, when the former drew away and won by a couple of lengths. Maud L. was never far behind and in the first lap of the first heat all three horses came into the stretch together and passed under the wire at the half mile so closely together that had it been a finish the judges would have been puzzled to whom to award first money.

Summary:

Purse $100. Time, 1.33½, 1.33.

Wm N Simpson's Livery Boy	1	1
Jones Bros' Nettie Wood	2	2
C Lees's Maud L	3	3

THE DOG RACE.

Amusement for the boys was furnished by the dog race and incidentally it might be said that a great many grown up people evinced as much interest, if not more, than the children. There were three entries, viz., Sargent's Prince, of Campbellford; Kennedy's Grey Bird and Hall's Black Jack. It was hard to get the dogs off, as Prince evinced a predelictions for turning around and bolting into the fence and when he was ready to start Grey Bird took a notion to take a rest before starting out on the half mile journey. A good start was finally effected but Prince balked before he had gone a dozen yards. The other two went gaily on without him and were fully an eighth of a mile ahead before Prince could be induced to get away. When he did start however he made things hum and passed the other two before they reached the post of the first quarter, passing under the wire a winner by fully an eighth of a mile, Kennedy's Grey Bird came home under a strong pull, his driver leading him in. Black Jack made a good third.

THE DRAWING CONTEST.

The drawing card of the afternoon was the drawing contest. As soon as it became evident that the first team was ready to start, many lost all interest in the races and the grand stand was almost deserted as its late occupants flocked to the centre of the ring to cheer on their favourite team, as it tackled the enormous sleigh load of pig iron.

Messrs. Thomas Eastwood and Elias Thompson were the judges, Mr. Sam. English, timekeeper and Mr. T. M. Hunter, of North Monaghan, was the clerk of the contest and kept the records.

There were just four entries. The winner took $20, the second best team $15, the third, $10 worth of Devlin's prize horse collars, and the fourth $5.

Summary:

1 S. Dyell's team of Smith, 113 ft. 3 in.
2 Ed. Archer's team of Smith, 76 ft.
3 D. Shearer's team of Otonabee, 7 ft. 7 in.
4 D. Crough's team of Ennismore, 4 ft. 4 in.

THE FOOTBALLISTS.

The football tournament in the centre of the small ring drew a large crowd and the three matches which occupied most of the afternoon were all worth watching and drew forth applause from the spectators in unstinted measure. Norwood played the Peterborough team first and won from them by a score of 5—0. Otonabee then played Coldsprings and scored two goals while Coldsprings secured none. Otonabee and the Norwood boys then played off and the Norwood boys were the victors by 2 to 1 and thus secured the coveted trophy. Mr. Kennedy, of Keene, officiated as umpire in a manner most satisfactory to all.

SPECIAL EXHIBITS.

GOUGH BROS. MAMMOTH SHOW.

Pretty soon Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, will want to clothe the whole earth. The mammoth display of clothing which they piled up in the main building of the Fair, this year, would certainly justify the Directors in enlarging the capacity of their building, before another year comes round. To such of our readers as missed the sight, some idea may be formed of the enormous quantity of clothing contained in Gough Bros. section, when it is known that an insurance of $2,000 was placed on their exhibit, as a safeguard against fire. The stock surpassed in vast completeness all former exhibits of the kind, so far as we know, and it is claimed that this broad assertion cannot be truthfully challenged in this or any other section of the country. The marvel of it all is, that this large amount of clothing was never missed out of their regular stock in their regular business premises on George street. The buying power of this organization must be even greater than is generally believed to be, notwithstanding what may be the guesses and conjectures of those who may have tried to form an opinion from the enormous stock carried and the volume of sales going on from week to week. Year after year, Gough Bros. broaden their borders, and new life and spirit rise out of their great business just when one might fairly assume that it had reached the zenith of magnitude. No use saying that this year's exhibit is the high water mark of their ambition. As it has been in the past, so doubtless it will be in the future—a gradual expansion of the limit of which can only be surmised.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

The display of overcoats "lined up grandly." Light, heavy and medium for boys, youth's and men's freize overcoats in brown, grey, oxford and black, fur coats in various cold-shedding skins. In the various new styles in all sizes and forms you have not only the finished fit, but also the desired shape, shade and pattern which you may consider most becoming as well.

A printed bannerette which was suspended from the display intimated that "the prices tell and everybody tells the prices"; and as if to enforce the practical utility of this plank in the Gough platform, every overcoat and suit was labelled with price in plain figures—prices in each case which must have provoked the telling of them by the thousands of visitors who inspected the display. Tweed suits with the figures $4.50, $5.50, $6.25, $6.75, $7.25, which any ordinary judge would have considered good value at one-third more money. How the goods were bought to sell at such low prices, is the puzzle for the public, or how they were even made up. A rough estimate of what the bare cloth and trimmings must cost left no margin for the making.

The whole display was well worked out and the effectiveness of the dressing was an object lesson in artistic arrangement, such as is frequently to be seen in the massive and artistically dressed show windows of the firm. The principal credit of this part of the display is due to Mr. Jas Tully, one of the best window dressers of clothing in the country. Red first prize tickets decorated the exhibit, which was enhanced and enlivened with gaily coloured badges, dressed figures and other attractive devices.

It must be remembered that this mammoth display was an exposition of Gough Bros. clothing only, which forms but one of the heavy lines of different classes of goods wholesaled and retailed by the firm. "Gough Bros. cover all." Theirs is an "eclectic" store. They gather together under one roof great stocks of boots and shoes, hats, underwear and gentlemen's furnishings. Had they undertaken to make a general exhibit of all the departments contained in their large stores on George street, they would have been compelled to have gone outside, as the directors of the fair could not have hoped to have given them anything like adequate accommodation inside the building.

GOUGH BROS. GREAT BABY SHOW.

Among the features at the Central was the baby show inaugurated by the great house of Goughs, whose motto "Everything goes at Gough's" was verified by the result of the baby show. The competition for their liberal prize for the best baby was keen. Ten anxious and fond mothers and ten equally anxious and proud fathers were in attendance, with an equal number of babies, neither anxious nor proud; but a beautiful flock of cherubs. The babies ran great danger of being ground to powder for the rush was tremendous. Mothers, fathers, crisp and comely maidens, gruff and grumbling bachelors, crushed around the arena (Gough's grand clothing stall, where the cherubs were submitted to the critical judgment of Mrs. B. Cooney, Ashburnham, and Mrs. Samuel Staples of Cavan.

Yes, it was well worth the seein' that I to you must confess;
An'—I don't mind further sayin' that it was a grand success.
Ev'rybody was de'ighted—least they all were sayin so,
As they look'd around in wonder when they saw the baby show.
Not a thing I'm sure had happen'd, to make trouble anywhere,
An' there seem'd the best o' feelin' — that I'm willin' to declare—
But the moment they decid'd there was anger and surprise
From the mothers of the babies that didn't get Gough's prize.

The judges had a difficult and delicate task—made all the more so by the tremendous indignation that burst forth when they screwed up their courage to the point of deciding, for whoever got the prize the unsuccessful competitors would be ready to call down judgment upon the judges, because there never was a time when "our" baby was not by far the prettiest, dearest, sweetest, and best in the world. At length, the prize went to Mariel, the little four months baby of Mr. Jean Baptiste Odette, town, a splendid little specimen of the Canadian Francais. This little fellow is now the proud owner of a $5 gold pice, the mother of a $10 dress, and the father, of a $10 suit—the fruits of the liberal munificence of the great clothing House, of Gough Bros. The baby show was a grand success, and Gough Bros., the wonderful cheap men, deserve the credit of adding one of the most interesting features of the exhibition.

WE COVER ALL.

It is one thing to cover up your body, Robinson Crusoe like, with goat skins and tanned palm leaves. It is quite another thing to get well-fitting, neatly-made Suits, Boots and Hats of the latest designs, without paying an exhorbitant price.

MEN'S HATS!
MEN'S SHOES!
MEN'S CLOTHING!
MEN'S UNDERWEAR!
MEN'S FURNISHINGS!

ALL UNDER ONE ROOF!

This store appeals to Men—and to Women also. The field of trade is widening continually. Instead of confining ourselves to Clothing, we have, for the fall of 1894, brought together under one roof such things for men's wear as they have shown themselves to want.

The Goliath's of the Markets.

Just as buyers flock to the great emporiums like Eaton of Toronto, Carsley of Montreal, Mabley of Detroit and Wannamaker of Philadelphia, so do they crowd to Gough Bros. of Peterborough.

WHY! Because they are the Goliath's of the market—they touch the button and manufacturers pour out their wealth of Bargains to them.

CORRECTING A MISTAKE.—Who sells the cheapest goods—the merchant who is compelled to buy in one higgling market, and is tied down to one grasping manufacturer, or the merchant who has the freedom of all the competing markets and manufacturers of the world? Do men buy Hats cheaper where nothing but Hats are sold, or Boots cheaper where nothing but Boots are sold, or Clothing cheaper where nothing but Clothing is sold?

Might as well expect a farmer to do as well for his family by raising nothing but Pumpkins as if he raised a mixed crop.

HATS and CAPS.

Young men are usually quick to save money. We're able to discount the trade, because of unusual buying power. We go direct to the makers and insure fine qualities by knowing what to buy and what to let alone. The best is none too good for us. If you're a judge of quality, it won't take any talking from the salesmen.

On the finest Fur Fedora Hats we take off 35c., and ask only $2.65.
On the best Fur Felt Stiff Hats we take off 50c., and ask only $3.00.
On Men's Knockabout Hats we take off 20c., and ask only 35c.
On Men's Peak Caps, satin lined, we take off 25c., and ask only 50c.
On Men's Silk Hats, latest styles, we take off 50c. and 75c., and ask only $3.00 and $3.75.
Youths and Boys in same proportion.

BOOTS and SHOES

warranted not to crack, nor take in washing. Ours isn't the common kind of Boots and Shoes. If anybody can beat the quality, the style, the price, we'll quit the business.

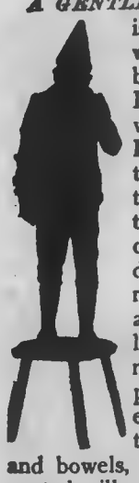
On the best $3 Men's Selected Shell Cordovas Balmoral or Congress, with Dunraven toe, we take off 40c., and ask only $2 60.
On the best Men's Fine Waxed Hand-Made Balmorals we take off 35c., and ask only $1 25.
On the best Fine Patent Leather Oxford Shoes, turn soles, we take off 45c., and ask only $1.20.
On the best French Dongola Kid Button (common sense) we take off 62c., and ask only $1.98.
Misses', Boys', and Children's in same proportion.

"Always Good at Goughs."

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

A GENTLE CORRECTIVE



is what you need when your liver becomes inactive. It's what you get when you take Dr. Pierce's Pellets; they're free from the violence and the griping that come with the ordinary pill. All medical authorities agree that in regulating the bowels mild methods are preferable. For every trouble of the liver, stomach and bowels, these tiny, sugar-coated pills are most effective. They go about their work in an easy and natural way, and their good lasts — they strengthen and tone up the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, thereby promoting digestion. Sick and Bilious Headache, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Dizziness, are prevented, relieved, and permanently cured. They're the cheapest pill for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money is returned.

SANITARY CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the Second Day's Session of the Health Association.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—At yesterday's session of the American Public Health Association the general secretary of the association reported that the resolution in favor of the adoption of the suggestion of the medical faculty of McGill University, of Montreal, for a co-operative scheme of bacteriological research has been considered by the executive committee and its adoption recommended. The resolution was carried.

The executive committee also reported in favor of the institution of a new standing committee on the sanitation of steamships and steamboats and it was adopted.

Most of the session was taken up with a discussion on the subject of tuberculosis which was on a paper read by Dr. W. G. Warden, of Bridgeport, Conn., on "The restriction and prevention of tuberculosis."

F. Donohoe, President of the New York State Board of Health, read a paper on "The examination of the milk supply for tuberculosis," and Dr. Paul Paquin, of the State Board of Health of Missouri, spoke on the question, "Should the marriage of consumptives be discouraged," and took the ground that it should.

The delegates spent the afternoon in pleasure, having a trip down the Lachine Rapids.

An interesting public meeting was held in the evening. The meeting partook of a popular character and the proceedings were more than usually interesting. Dr. Montizambert, General Superintendent of the Canadian Quarantine, described quarantine appliances with illustrations. Dr. Chambers, of McGill University, gave an interesting illustrated address on some points in the hygiene of the young in schools.

Papers were also read by Mr. John Mitchell, New York, president of the National Association of Master Plumbers, in plumbing in sanitation. Dr. Crothers, Hartford, Conn., on influence of insbriety on public health, and Dr. Adams, of Toronto, on children's teeth.

The convention will continue in session on Thursday.

Sarah Rabbitoy Committed for Trial.

HAMILTON, Sept. 26.—Sarah J. Rabbitoy has been sent up for trial on a charge of bigamy. Rev. Thomas Stodds testified to having performed the first marriage ceremony between Sarah Burgess to Ernest Rabbitoy on December 31, 1888, and identified the prisoner as the woman who was married. Rev. Mungo Fraser swore to the marriage of Sarah J. Burgess with Thomas Simons on October 20, 1891. Thomas Simons, who swore out the information and Ernest Rabbitoy, the first husband of the prisoner, were both in the city last evening but have left town suddenly and cannot be found. Bail was fixed at $1,000 personal and two sureties of $500 each, but so far Sarah has failed to obtain her liberation.

Struck to Death by a Train.

TORONTO, Sept. 27.—Alfred E. Goodson, age 25 years, was killed at the Brock avenue crossing of the Belt Line Railway yesterday. He was walking north along the track and watching a south bound train, which he stepped aside to let pass when the north bound train which he did not see, struck him, cutting a gash about four inches long in his head and killing him instantly. The patrol wagon was telephoned for and removed him to the Morgue. From papers found in his possession it was learned that he was at one time a conductor on the Toronto street railway. An envelope was also found with his name on it and also his address, 57 Regent street.

William O'Brien Also Impatient.

DUBLIN, Sept. 27.—Wm. O'Brien, M.P., in a speech last evening declared that unless Lord Rosebery defined the position of the Government in regard to the House of Lords, it was perfectly clear that the coming Parliament would find the Irish party independent in the best sense of the word and Lord Rosebery would soon cease to be Premier. The Irish, he said, could not be bought with all the gold of the British Treasury.

A Polish Uprising Impossible.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—The Boersen Courier publishes a report of an interview with Archbishop Stablewski, of Posen, in which he says: "A Polish rebellion now is impossible. The real danger lies in socialism. The modern Poles have felt themselves as Prussian subjects and have recognized the existing order of things without reserve."

The torture of dyspepsia and sick headache, the agonising itching and pain of salt rheum, are removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup removes worms of all kinds from children or adults.

A Drowned Man Washed Ashore.

HALIFAX, Sept. 27.—The body of a man was washed ashore at Ive's Point, McNab's Island, yesterday. The body was found by the military and word was sent to the city. The body was that of a full grown man, but is cannot be recognized as his face has been picked almost to pieces by fish. There is nothing about the remains by which it can be identified.

An Ex-Constable Locked Up.

WINDSOR, Sept. 27.—Ex-Constable Wilson, who was dismissed from his office last week by Judge Robertson, was arrested yesterday by Constable Masters and locked up in the Windsor police station, to which he himself has committed divers persons in times past. The charge is one of simple assault, he being accused of attacking A. Gignac.

SCRAPS OF SCIENCE.

Five volumes of air contain one volume of oxygen.

The moon is apparently brought within fifty miles of the earth by the largest telescope.

The total work performed by the human body during five hours mountain climbing is equal to 1,326,000 foot pounds, not counting other forces exerted, which Dr. Bucheister says will run the grand total up to 1,880,000 foot pounds.

Carbonic acid gas, which is ejected in large quantities from the earth is being utilized in several localities. At Burgbrohl, near Coblentz, a carbonic acid spring opened during boring operations, and which is eight inches wide and some thirty or forty feet high, is being used in the impregnation of mineral waters.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Sept. 27.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Four hundred bushels of wheat sold at 54c for white and 53c for red; 300 of barley went at 42 to 43c, and 1,500 of oats at 30½ to 31½c.

Wheat in Chicago closed lower on lower cables, December making a new low record. Corn followed wheat, closing 1c lower. Oats were weak and closed ¼ to ½c lower.

In London there was a small account at the settlement of stocks and it was easily arranged. The general tone of the stock markets is becoming better again. The declaration of the New York Central dividend is favorably influencing the entire market.

Until the closing hour the New York stock market reflected little inertia. At the start, indeed, the tendency was towards firmness and the points of attack selected at the close suggested a concerted plan to help along covering of granger shorts. The early strength was in a measure led by New York Central, the final weakness centring chiefly in one or two industrial stocks. Among the railway stocks Reading showed most distinct signs of weakness. Sugar certificates held firm at a level well above yesterday's lowest and yielded only under the final professional attack.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th,—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum and all looseness of the bowels. Never travel without it. Price 35c.

Dyspepsia causes Dizziness, Headache, Constipation, Variable Appetite, Rising and Souring of Food, Palpitation of the Heart, Distress after Eating. Burdock Blood Bitters is guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia if faithfully used according to directions.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

ELECTRICAL PROGRESS.

INDUCEMENTS OFFERED BY FRENCH EXPOSITION AUTHORITIES.

The Transmission of Energy the Great Problem to be Solved—A New and Wonderful Scheme Proposed for Consideration—The Alternative.

A general programme is already being outlined for the French Exposition of 1900, in which particular attention will, of course, be given to electrical development.

M. Armengood, jr., asks that prizes of value be offered for three things, viz.: (1) Seeing at a distance; (2) Photography in colors on paper; (3) Electric light without heat. It will be admitted that all these three things, accomplished practically, would add greatly to the eclat of the Exposition; and the actual success already attained along each line affords encouragement. M. Trouve, ever fertile and ready, has also suggested an electric light cascade falling from the third platform of the Eiffel Tower. It would certainly be a brilliant night spectacle.

We venture, however, to propose a scheme, of which we have seen no note thus far, but which would certainly interest not only all classes of engineers, but all concerned in railways, and the public at large. It is a familiar fact that among the most pressing problems of the day are those that relate to the electrical transmission of energy, and that at this hour some most important work is being done. Up to this time, however, the energy transmitted has been that of waterfalls, and all the plants under construction, such as that for Niagara, deal with water power. Now, a great deal has been said about burning the coal at the mine and transmitting its energy electrically instead of the fuel itself; and in England two well-known engineers, Messrs. B. H. Thwaite and James Swinburne, have worked out carefully the details of an electric transmission to London of the energy of the coal fields of the Midlands and Yorkshire. What we propose is that the Paris Exposition shall, in like manner, have all its power generated at coal mines now supplying Paris, and that this power shall be transmitted electrically.

The Chicago Fair made no demonstration of this kind. In fact, none has ever yet been made. The nearest approach to it was the remarkable waterpower transmission of 100 miles, under the patronage of the Emperor of Germany, from Lauffen to the Frankfort Electrical Exhibition in 1891. Some idea of what is involved as to expense may be formed from the Thwaite-Swinburne plan of a 100 miles transmission of 10,000 h.p. of energy from coal, at a cost not to exceed, all told, £340,000; on which basis, according to C. E. L. Brown, small users of power in London could get 1 h. p. per annum for $30. This plan contemplated the use of large gas engines at the generating points and a line potential of 30,000 volts. It is evident that all the apparatus, including line, would have considerable value after the close of the exposition. The Chicago plant for power reached about 20,000 h. p., and it is not likely that Paris would much exceed, if it equaled, this; so that taking the figures already cited, the initial total cost would not exceed £680,000 or $3,400,000, and the investment in gas engines, generators, transformers and motors would certainly be a largely recoverable quantity, to say nothing of the value of the copper in the line, costing about $500,000. Indeed, if the demonstration proved successful, the plant could be left intact for the daily supply of power to the various large and small industries of the city, it being safe to assume that such a quantity could very easily be marketed. We have no data at hand as to cost of power in Paris, but is is probable that the ordinary selling price of 1 h. p. is not below $40 or $50.

If such a plan as this be not carried out, the exposition will still have to be furnished with its power in some way, and if resort be made to the ordinary methods there would be required for the 20,000 h.p. a large outfit of coal sidings, boilers, engines, shafting, machinery rooms, etc. By 1900 such methods will seem more dirty and antiquated even than now, but it might not perhaps be a bad idea as a compromise, to divide the power plant into two contrasting 10,000 h. p. units, one long distance transmission and the other that of generation in situ. The longer, bolder plan is that which appeals more to the engineering imagination, and one in the execution of which the authorities of the exposition would probably enjoy very hearty advice, assistance and co-operation from French electrical engineering concerns, as well as from others in America, England, Switzerland and elsewhere. If it be resolved to stick to water power, possibly the Exposition might be run by energy from the little sister Republic of the Alps, although by 1900 we shall all know a good deal about the working of such a plan, from the results obtained with Niagara.—Philadelphia Record.

Know What You Want.

The man who begins to breed with the intention of getting better stock, and does not know in just what particular he wants to improve them most, may be disirous of improvement, but he may fail from not knowing which road he desires to take or what point he wants to reach.

As a general rule, it is best not to correct costiveness by the use of saline or drastic medicines. When a purgative is needed, the most prompt, effective, and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. Their tendency is to restore, and not weaken, the normal action of the bowels.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

WOMEN AND WORK.

Prof. Ferrero's Interesting Reason Why the Fair Sex Should Not Labor.

"The problem of woman from a biosociological point of view" is treated by Sig. G. Ferrero in the Monist. "The essential condition of feminine existence," which he desires to analyze in his paper, is that which he names "The Law of Non-Labor." "As it is a natural law that the man must labor and struggle to live, so is it a natural law that the woman should neither labor nor struggle for her existence. Biology clearly shows us that the physiological prosperity of species depends on the division of labor between the sexes, for in exact ratio to this is the duration of life."

Marriage, as found among the higher animals, is "a perfected form of the division of labor and mutual co-operation of the sexes." During hatching time the male bird does all the providing for his brooding mate. At other times her functions in seeking food are merely auxiliary. Similarly with lion and hyena. The fearful toil which falls to the savage woman the writer pronounces to be "merely a passing phase, a very dangerous aberration, produced by the excessive selfishness of man, which does not and cannot last long." He remarks that the races in which it is found "have remained in a savage state and have made scarcely any progress."

In civilized nations female toil is not necessary for the production of the wealth needed for humanity. "Man alone could do this. Woman labor only tends to lower the marketable value of male labor, for while woman is working in the factories there are everywhere, and especially in Europe, crowds of men vainly seeking employment, to whom the cessation of work is an oft-recurrent and terrible evil. This shows that, even from a sociological point of view, female labor is a pathological phenomenon.

"Statistics show us an increase of mortality among women and children in countries where industrial life has pressed mothers into its ranks. A perfect woman should be a chief d'oeuvre of grace and refinement, and to this end she must be exempt from toil. The working woman grows ugly and loses her feminine characteristic. Womanly grace and the love which men bear a beautiful woman have perhaps been the origin of paternal love, and of all the other sweet and tender feelings of which the male is capable. Grace is the æsthetic side of weakness. Woman, more than man, enjoys all the benefits of civilization, which nevertheless have been in great part acquired by him alone. Man labors and toils to-day just as he did of old, and there is nothing abnormal in this fact, for it is his positive duty.

"What advantage, then, can be gained by participating in man's struggle for existence, when woman has only to wait until he places these benefits at her feet? I cannot understand why the question of woman suffrage should so excite public opinion. It is entirely profitless to her. If her husband strains every nerve already to provide her with all the luxuries of life, he will certainly not be lax in defending those interests which are identical with those of his family."

Ingenious Smuggling in Russia.

One of the most ingenious devices for smuggling was detected in Russia not long ago. A great number of false bank notes had been put into circulation within the dominions of the czar. They could only have been imported, and although the strictest search was made habitually over every vessel entering a Russian port, no trace of the smuggling of false notes was discovered. Accident, however, at last brought the mystery to light. It happened that several cases of lead pencils arrived one day from England, and while being examined one of them fell out from a package and the custom house officer, picking it up, cut it to a point and used it to sign the order which delivered up the pencils to the consignee. He kept the loose pencil for his own use and a few days afterwards, because it needed a new point, he cut it again and found that there was no more lead. He cut still further and was surprised to find a thin roll of paper pasted in the hollow place where the lead was supposed to be. The paper was one of the false notes and in this way they had been smuggled into the country.

Microbes in Bread.

According to the British Medical Journal, Dr. Troitzki, writing in the Russian medical periodical Vratch, states, according to Nature that he has found that new and uncut bread contains no micro-organisms, as the heat necessary to bake the bread is sufficient to kill them all. As soon, however, as the bread is cut and is allowed to lie about uncovered, not only harmless but also pathogenic microbes find in it an excellent nutrient medium. White or wheat-meal bread is a better medium than black or rye bread, as the latter contains a greater percentage of acidity. Dr. Troitzki's experiments with pathogenic bacteria give the following results: Streptococcus pyrogenes aureus retains its vitality on the crumb of wheat-meal bread for 28 to 31 days, on the crust for 20 to 2[illegible] days; the bacillus of anthrax (without spores) remains alive on the crumb for 30 to 37 days, and on the crust for 31 to 33 days; the typhoid bacillus remains active 25 to 30 days on the crumb, and 26 to 28 on the crust; while the bacillus of cholera lives 23 to 25 or 27 days on both.

A DISAPPOINTED MAN.

Thought he Was Going to Die Before Summer Was Out But He's Alive and Well and Working To-day.

Somerset, Man., Sept. 17th,—"Hard times" is the cry from farmers in this country. Arthur Coley, a farmer living near here, has had double reason to cry "hard times," for eight months ago he lay on his back in bed, a victim of Bright's Disease. He acknowledges that he expected to be dead before the end of the summer, but his expectations have been most pleasantly disappointed, and all summer he has worked on his farm just as though he had never known a day's illness. Last spring he began taking Dodd's Kidney Pills and a few boxes completely cured him, as they have every other victim of this disease, who have used them.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Summer Complaint, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt, safe and sure cure that has been a popular favorite for over 40 years.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

WILL CURE YOU

"Backache means the kidneys are in trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills give prompt relief."

"75 per cent. of disease is first caused by disordered kidneys.

"Might as well try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the kidneys are clogged, they are the scavengers of the system.

"Delay is dangerous. Neglected kidney troubles result in Bad Blood, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and the most dangerous of all, Bright's Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy.

"The above diseases cannot exist where Dodd's Kidney Pills are used."

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

THE CENTRAL FAIR FOR '94 HAS FOLDED ITS TENTS.

have for his goods is the general demand of the public for them and the extent to which they are used. In both these respects Turner's tents "fill the bill." In Peterborough and all over a large section of the territory of Ontario, these tents are known and owned by hundreds and tens of hundreds of Canadians; and so captivated were the Yankees at the World's Fair with Turner's exhibit of tents that many American purchases were added to their list, and the firm scored a bulls-eye. In fact Turner's tents have been shipped to every point of the compass. The splendid exhibit which the firm made at the Central Fair this year was one of the principal features on the grounds. It was the largest and most complete they have ever made, and reflects great credit on the name of Turner & Sons. It was also an indication of the push and energy characteristic of the firm in preparing so extensive an exhibit, and was entitled to the large amount of attention and praise which visitors bestowed upon it. We presume that one of almost every style and shape of tent which they manufacture, was erected and equipped on the grounds, from the large marquees for exhibition purposes to the smallest garden tent. Square wall tents, very roomy and cosy, with walls 6 feet high; lawn tents, in fancy striped duck; two new tents of English style, with projecting awnings; comfortable compartment family tents, just like a portable canvas house, with bedrooms divided into compartments; refreshment or dining tents for social occasions, which opened out in admirable shape and presents a fine appearance; garden tents, in fancy stripe, very pretty for garden or lawns; round tents, with and without walls; the Northwest tent, for lumbermen, surveyors, contractors, etc. Many of their best tents were in use throughout the Fair grounds, for exhibition purposes by exhibitors, who preferred the tent to any other mode of showing their exhibits. They also showed samples of their well known tent and camping goods, camp beds, folding cots, waterproof clothing, horse and waggon covers, camp stoves, reclining chairs, camp stools, chairs and tables, for all of which they have received the highest awards wherever exhibited.

SEAMLESS GARMENT SYSTEM.

Mrs. McCauley, garment maker, of No. 125 Brock street, occupied a space upstairs in the main building, and demonstrated to the lady visitors Prof de Lamarton's strictly seamless garment system. Mrs. McCauley gave free exhibitions of drafting by this system, and among the many "seamless" things which can be accomplished are the following: "A strictly seamless Princess dress without darts or seams in lining or goods, even on the shoulders, seamless Princess Royals, seamless basques and waists, sleeves, etc. It is claimed that this is the only perfect one-piece system in the world, so simple that any child can learn it, and there is nothing else like it. The system was first introduced into town a short time ago by a representative of Prof. de Lamorton, from whom Mrs. McCaulley purchased the sole and exclusive right to practice and teach it in Peterborough. Dressmakers and seamstresses who wish further information of the system and of the course of lessons which Mrs. McCaulley is prepared to teach them, must consult her at her residence, No. 125 Brock street, over Mason's seed store.

CROW'S TAILOR SYSTEM.

Upstairs in the north west corner of the main building, an exhibit which was of special interest to the ladies attracted attention. It was an exposition of the now popular Crow system of cutting and fitting ladies' dresses, mantles, and other garments. Mr. S. G. Crowe, of Toronto, the inventor, was present, who, assisted by Mrs. E. Keane, the local agent, demonstrated to the ladies the simplicity and convenience of his system. Those who have not had an opportunity before of seeing its perfect work were quickly convinced of its superior merits. Being one of actual measurements it will cut to fit from the smallest child to the largest adult. It will fit deformed as well as straight figures, and can be used with quickness and precision. The system is made in one piece of polished metal, and is substantial and durable. Accompanying the system are two books, one for taking measurements, the other for instructions. Three courses are taught, which costs $5, $7, and $10, respectively, and the pupil is at liberty to take whichever is preferred. Among the specialties which this system teaches is the seamless and dartless waists, which Mr. Crowe claims to have patented in 1891. Mrs. Keane, who has been teaching this system in Peterborough for the past two or three years, has had many pupils in town and county, and new ones are constantly being added to her classes, at No. 156 McDonel street.

THE PETER HAMILTON COMPANY'S EXHIBIT.

The exhibit deserving of special mention and of special interest to the farmers, was that of the Peter Hamilton Agricultural Company.

Their splendid display included the latest models, combining the newest improvements. The material and splendid construction emphasize the fact that no farmer need go out of the county for the best agricultural implements that are made. Among their exhibits are the Hamilton Light Steel Binder, a model of superiority of construction and excellence of design, always doing the best of work, with great durability as an added point of excellence. Another, a mower with a rear cut, the "Rival," was also a point of attraction. The "Ideal" seeder fully deserves its name. The "Elastic" seeder, with numerous points of excellence was also shown. The other exhibits included an electric spring tooth harrow, a Tiger hay rake, a fine scuffler and weeder, a potato hiller, a double turnip drill, capable of planting and covering two drills at once; spring tooth harrow with steel frame, a three-section and a five-section diamond tooth harrow, a jack for increasing or lessening the speed of horse powers, a turnip slicer and pulper, a power ensilage cutter, a straw cutter and a fine collection of sod and general ploughs, etc., etc. This fine exhibit was in charge of Mr. A. R. Nicholls and Mr. T. E. Fitzgerald.

WIND MILLS, FANNING MILLS, CHURNS, ETC.

Mr. George McWilliams, the well known manufacturer of Dicksons' Race, Peterborough, was on the ground as usual with an exhibit of his celebrated self-regulating wind mills, fanning mills, churns, etc. One of his "Queen" wind mills was erected on the south side of the fair grounds which was in capital working order and supplied the horses and cattle on the grounds with a plentiful supply of drinking water, free of charge. The merits of these windmills are too well known to need much further notice. No better system of private water works for dairymen, farmers, suburban residences, etc., is needed. A large number of these mills have been erected throughout this section of country and are giving perfect satisfaction. Mr. McWilliams gave a representative of the EXAMINER the names of a few of the farmers and others for whom he has recently erected mills, to whom references can be made by any one desirous of making enquiries as to their superiority:—Messrs. Maybee & Southard, North Monaghan; Mr. John Coombs, North Monaghan; W. A. Fallis, Esq., M. P.P., Cavan; Mr. Thos. McIndoo, Cavan; Mr. Wesley Henders, Manvers; John Burnham, Esq., M.P., town, and J. J. Landy, Esq., town. Illustrated catalogues can also be had free of charge on application to Mr. McWilliams.

Another exhibit of Mr. McWilliams was his "Champion" fanning mill, claimed to be the best in the world. These mills have been in use on many of the farms of the county for years and are in constant demand. They are capable of separating all kinds of seeds, including oatks, timothy and other small seeds. The improved screens and sieves have added very much to the utility of these mills, as well as the patent agitator attachment, which keeps the screens always clean and free from clogging.

Bates' Improved Manual Power for churns was another of Mr. McWilliams' exhibits, which attracted unusual attention. This is a new candidate for favour among the farmers and Patrons of Industry, which is carrying all before it. It is claimed to be the best churn power, so far as known, being a blessing to farmers' wives, and makes the labour of churning day easy. It can be attached to any old dash churn by simply boring a hole in the dash. You sit and do the churning, the weight of the operator producing the power and operating it. What more could be desired? It sells on sight. No one need be afraid or suspicious of it, as in the case with many of the new-fangled crank or lever-power churn inventors, and the price—$5.00—should certainly be no hindrance to it finding it's way into the homes of every farmer in the country. Mr. McWilliams also shows the North American washer, with new improvements, consisting of an iron shaft and iron bearings which prevents wearing out. So far as the merits of these washers are concerned, in the saving of labour on wash day, it is known so well that further comments are unnecessary.

DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMP.

Mr. C. C. McDonnell, the agent for Peterborough, exhibited one of Anderson's double acting force pumps for hand power or wind mill use. These pumps are so completely different from all others in construction and principle that no proper description can be given in the short space allotted to us. Full information, however, can be obtained on application to Mr. McDonnell, Peterborough, who furnishes descriptive catalogues and attractions of the pump. Mr. McDonnell also showed the Chatham Fanning Mill, so well known throughout Ontario.

Meerschaum.

"A great many people are under the impression that the substance of which a meerschaum is made is washed up by the sea," said C. E. Carter, of Terre Haute. "I suppose they got that idea from the word, which signifies sea froth, but really the name originated from the fact that the clay, when dry, will float on the surface of the water, and then appears like white, foamy bubbles. This clay is taken from beds in the solid earth. In its primitive state it is white and soft, and you can cut it like cheese. It is found chiefly in Turkey and Hungary. When the bowls of these pipes are new they look very much like ivory, but in using they gradually change into a mellow brown color, on account of the oil of tobacco being absorbed by them in the process of burning."—Kanss Caity Journal.

Betrothed Before Birth.

During the Middle Ages it was customary for princes and princesses to become betrothed and married in childhood to insure succession or political advantages. But it was only in exceptional cases that unborn children were disposed of in the same way. Such a case, however, is on record. It occurred in 1368, when Prince Sigmund, son of the Emperor Charles IV. was born. On his bantismal day he was betrothed to Katherine, daughter of the Count of Nuremberg. On that occasion it was agreed that a daughter of Charles IV., with which he expected to be blessed within five years should be married to a son of Count Frederick, of whom it was also hoped that he should so be provided. This is the youngest bridal couple on record. The hoped-for daughter came in 1378, the last year of the allotted period, and she in time became the wife of Johann III., the son of the Count, who also justified the expectations of his parents.

An Old Custom.

The ancient English custom of giving love tokens on the 20th of August died not many years ago. The custom was for "enamoured maydes and gentlewomen" to give to their favorite swains as tokens of love, little handkerchiefs, three or four inches square, with a button or tassel at each corner and a small one in the centre. The finest of these favors were edged with narrow gold lace or twist; and then, being folded up in four cross folds so that the middle might be seen, they were worn by the fortunate swains in their hats or on the breast. These favors were generally the handiwork of the faire mayde herself, and well she liked to work the most beautiful figures she could for her favorite suitor; but they became so much in vogue in Queen Elizabeth's time that they were sold ready-made in the shops. This, of course, destroyed the romance of the custom and hence its death.

Earnings of the House of Lords.

Whatever may be the shortcomings of the house of Lords as a political institution, it pays its way. In the last financial year it earned over £25,000 in fees on private bills and judical proceedings. There is also an item of £126 13 shillings, being fees paid on the introduction of peers. Against this stands a charge of £32 10 shillings, fees due to garter-king of arms. It is interesting to note that before the sum was paid over, income tax amounting to 18 shillings 11 pence was rigorously subtracted.—London Daily News.

Antidote for Prussic Acid Poisoning.

A Hungarian chemist, Dr. Johann Antal, already honorably known for his researches in toxicology, has reported to the Hungarian Society of physicians that he has discovered a new chemical compound, the nitrate of cobalt, which, he says, is a most efficacious antidote to poisoning by cyanide of potassium of prussic acid. He tried the antidote first on animals and afterward on forty living persons who had been accidentally poisoned with prussic acid. In not a single case did the antidote prove a failure.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all the impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

IN ITS INFANCY.

An Idea That Will Develop as the Years Jog Along.

The superiority of refrigeration obtained by mechanical processes, as compared with that obtained by melting ice, appears in the facts that by it more intense cold may be secured, that any desired degree of cold may be maintained with perfect uniformity, that a dryer atmosphere is secured in the refrigerating box or room, that the inconvenience of frequently replenishing ice bunkers and the slop and dirt attendant upon this work are avoided, that the annoying uncertainty of ice supply and variability in its price are avoided, that space in the rooms or boxes to be cooled is economized by substitution of a coil of pipe on walls or ceiling for the bulky ice bunker, and that this refrigeration can be employed for many purposes and places where ice cannot be used at all. Added to all this is the fact, of paramount importance, that where much refrigeration is required the cost of a machine and its operation is far less than the cost of ice sufficient to do an equal amount of work.

These advantages have proved so great in practice that every brewery, packing house, cold storage warehouse or other establishment requiring a large amount of refrigeration contains its individ ...rigerating plant. Where consum... ...amounts to ten tons or more of ice daily, the question of economy will be almost invariably decided in favor of the machine; if less than ten tons be required, the cost of a machine and its operation may exceed the cost of ice sufficient to do a similar amount of work. In many such cases the superior quality of the refrigeration obtained, its cleanliness, reliability and convenience, or the requirement of more intense cold than ice will produce, secures the adoption of the machine. Therefore, small machines are frequently found on shipboard, in hotels and apartment houses and in many manufactories. But most of the ice gathered from rivers and lakes, or made in factories, is not consumed by the few who require large quantities, but by the many who, severally, require less than ten tons a day.

The effort to bring this superior refrigeration within the reach of small consumers has taken two directions—the production of small and inexpensive automatic machines, and a system of supply of the refrigerant from central stations. The first has failed hitherto, because the balance of constantly varying pressures, temperatures, strength of solution, etc., is too complex a matter for purely automatic regulation. Without constant skilled attention the machines work unsatisfactorily, while the relatively high cost of plant, fuel and cooling water, in operating on a small scale, defeats economy.—Cassier's Magazine.

WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th,

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

BLOWING A HURRICANE

A West India Cyclone Travelling Fifty-Tix Miles an Hour

RICE PLANTATIONS DELUGED

Georgia, South Carolina and Florida Feel the Force of the Wind—Orange, Cotton and Corn Crops Badly Damaged—A Lightship Missing.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—There is a conflict between two atmospheric forces that has operated to retard somewhat the advance of the West India hurricane, and the conflict between the elements and the telegraph companies has resulted so disastrously to the latter that it is difficult for the weather bureau to get accurate information from the vicinity of the storm centre. Storm signals are flying from Jacksonville to Boston. The readings showed a fall of 0.4 in Washington, with a maximum velocity of 32 miles to the northeast and steady; Norfolk, a fall of 0.2, with an east wind blowing at the rate of 28 miles.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 28.—A hurricane swept over this city, the gale at one time reaching 56 miles an hour. Houses have been unroofed and trees blown down. All the wires are down south of Savannah.

The river is rising and the islands adjacent to Savannah are being inundated, threatening great loss of life to colored residents. Part of the Savannah, Florida and Western Railway wharves have been washed away, with many barrels of naval stores, and $1,100,000 of this property, including 60,000 barrels of turpentine and 11,000 barrels of resin, is in great danger.

All of the rice plantations are under water, and the planters say the crop is a total loss.

Tybee Island, 19 miles from Savannah, has suffered greatly. Wires went down between the island and Savannah at 6 o'clock, but just before this happened a signal observer wired that the wind had reached a velocity of 88 miles an hour. The place was almost entirely under water and the observer was preparing to flee to the lighthouse for safety. Two fine hotels and many club houses are threatened with destruction.

The storm is playing havoc at Bluefort. The wind there has reached a velocity of 65 miles an hour, and the damage will be great. It is learned there will be considerable loss of life.

Never in the history of the country has there been such a downpour of rain as there was last night. The Sea Island cotton crop is practically ruined.

The Orange Crop Suffers.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 28.—Storm news is very meagre. Jacksonville is still cut off from communication with South Florida and since Tuesday not a word has been received from east coast points, where the storm is supposed to have been most severe. All the wires leading to the south are down and no trains from that section have come in since Tuesday. Nothing has been heard from St. Augustine since that day and there are rumors that the ancient city has suffered greatly. The railroad and Western Union officials are repairing the damage to their lines and communication with the south will probably be opened up by to-day. It is certain that the orange crop was greatly damaged. In Jacksonville the damage which amounts to about $75,000, is being rapidly repaired. The wreck of the new union depot in process of construction was the most serious loss.

Corn and Cotton Damaged.

CHARLESTON, S.C., Sept. 28.—In the middle and coast region points the West India cyclone has done considerable damage to corn and cotton, very serious damage to rice, but no loss of life.

At Georgetown the damage to the rice crop is very great, and it is difficult yet to estimate the loss, though many put it at 35 per cent. A large portion of the April planting either in stubble or cracked in fields floated off with the tide, and June rice is badly injured by the water, which was salt for some distance up the rivers.

The Clyde steamer Iroquois, which arrived here from Jacksonville, reports that Martin's Industry lightship, off Savannah, Ga., is missing.

A Signal of an Uprising.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Herald's special from San Juan Del Sur, Nicaragua, says: An agent of the Opposition placed a dynamite bomb under the principal barracks in Granada, and its explosion caused great damage to the barracks and to houses in the vicinity. Gen. Escalon and a large number of soldiers were wounded. It is thought that the explosion was premature and that it was intended to be the signal for a general uprising against the Administration.

Victims of the Cyclone.

MASON CITY, Iowa, Sept. 28.—A correct list of those who perished in the cyclone of last Friday night, residing in this State has been secured. In Kossouth County there were 13 victims; in Hancock County 23; Cerro Gordo 4, Worth 3; Mitchell 5; total 53.

Mistook the Squaw for a Bear.

GRANTSBURG, Wis., Sept. 28.—Peter Anderson and his brother, while out bear hunting near Mud Pen Lake, shot a squaw, mistaking her for a bear. Both shot and both bullets took effect. The squaw was 100 years of age.

TALK AT THE CAPITAL

Quebec's Late Treasurer Has an Interview With the Premier.

DISEASE AMONG B. C. CATTLE

Sir Charles Fremantle Passes Through the Capital on His Way to Hong Kong—Nothing to Do With the War—Major Wickstead's Escape.

OTTAWA, Sept. 28.—Hon. John S. Hall, Provincial Treasurer, Quebec, is in the city and had an interview with the Premier. Mr. Hall refused to be interviewed on the question as to his having resigned, but from information received from those who were in his company there is not the slightest doubt as to his having done so, and that the cause is the financial policy which Premier Taillon and his cabinet have decided to pursue. Mr. Hall is not in accord with his colleagues and has therefore left the Government.

Mr. B. Batson has been officially notified of the terms of the order-in-council of September 18 last, appointing him collector of customs at this port. He will assume the duties of the new office on Monday next.

Hon. Sir Charles William Fremantle, K.C.B., ex-Deputy Master and Comptroller of the British Mint, passed through Ottawa on his way to Toronto and Niagara Falls, whence he will go on to Vancouver, taking the C.P.R. steamer for Hong Kong. He denied the report that his visit had anything to do with the Chinese war and assured the correspondent that his trip was purely private. His son, M. A. Fremantle, is a lieutenant in the Coldstream Guards and was at one time A.D.C. to the governor of Hong Kong.

The Department of Agriculture has been advised by report from British Columbia, where Prof. Saunders is at present inspecting the Agassiz Experimental Farm, that the tuberculin test was applied to a number of cattle, and five were slaughtered which were thus found to be affected by tuberculosis.

Major Wickstead had a narrow escape from death by asphyxiation on Monday night. The major retired to bed at the usual hour and no one suspected anything wrong until next morning, when on going to his room he was lying as if dead. Medical aid was summoned and it was many hours before the major showed signs of consciousness. He is doing favorably well.

LABRADOR'S INTERIOR.

The Pennsylvania Expedition Returns From Their Exploring Trip.

HALIFAX, Sept. 28.—Professors Hite and Bucknell, Parkins and Coates, comprising the University of Pennsylvania expedition to Northern Labrador, arrived here yesterday from St. Johns, Newfoundland, after two months' successful exploration. Bucknell has recovered from his illness. Professor Hite and his three companions left for New York by the Red Cross line steamer Portia in the afternoon. Prof. Hite says Labrador has a uniform climate. In the interior are deep rivers, large valleys and great forests. There are indications of mineral deposits, particularly of iron, everywhere. Timber lands, mineral lakes and water courses, in his mind, constitute rich potentialities.

Big Blaze in Bradford.

BRADFORD, Ont., Sept. 28.—Fire broke out in the cellar of J. Boddy & Bros.' dry goods store. It gained such headway that it was impossible to save either goods or building. Scott's drug store was badly gutted and the upper story was burned. Boddy Bros.' loss will be about $15,000 with $9,000 insurance. Scott's loss will be heavy, as the stock was drenched with water. Bradford Lodge, A.O.U.W., lost all its furniture; no insurance. M. Scanlon, barrister, lost his valuable library; insurance, $200. Mr. Edmonson owned the building, which is worth about $3,500; insured for $1,500.

American Public Health Association.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—At yesterday's meeting of the American Public Health Association a number of papers on sanitary subjects were read, but there was nothing of general public interest in the proceedings. The advisory committee met to consider the nominations for officers and will present its report at to-day's session. The delegates were last night tendered a grand reception at McGill University. The convention will probably close its proceedings to-morrow with the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Mr. Mercier Slowly Sinking.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—There is no improvement in Mr. Mercier's condition. If anything he is weaker and is sinking. He had a restless night and the efforts which he made to receive friends who called upon him have told heavily. The physicians who are attending him, Dr. Riotot and Dr. E. La Chapelle, have given orders that he must not see anyone and enjoined perfect quiet. Telegrams and letters are being received from friends outside, extending sympathy to Madame Mercier and family.

The Quebec Treasurership.

QUEBEC, Sept. 28.—It is rumored that Hon. L. P. Pelletier, provincial secretary, has some intentions of replacing Hon. J. S. Hall as provincial treasurer. In the case of Mr. Pelletier becoming treasurer Mr. King, member for Magantic, or Mr. Spencer, of Missisiquoi, or Morris, Montreal, would be offered the secretaryship of the province. This is the talk in certain quarters, but Mr. King, M. P. P. for Megantic, is generally looked upon as the future provincial treasurer.

Earthquake in Quebec.

TADOUSAC SAGUENAY, Que., Sept. 28.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here at 8 10 yesterday morning.

CHICOUTIMI, Que., Sept. 28.—A light earthquake was felt here at 8 o'clock yesterday morning which lasted about 30 seconds.

BAY ST. PAUL, Que., Sept. 28.—A shock of earthquake was felt here about 8.10 yesterday morning.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all the impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

NEWS FROM THE ORIENT

Further Details of the Decisive Naval Battle in Yalu River.

CHINESE FIRING WAS WILD

The Commander, Lieutenant and 190 Men of the Japanese Flagship Were Killed—Europeans in China in Danger of Assaults From Natives.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—A despatch to the Central News from Tokio gives further details of the naval battle off the mouth of the Yalu river. The despatch describes the steaming out of the bay of the Chinese fleet to meet the Japanese fleet, the formation of the Chinese fleet when in the open water being that of an accentuated crescent while the Japanese were in a single line with the Matsumshira in the centre.

After the first few rounds were exchanged Admiral Ito, commanding the Japanese fleet, signalled his ships to bring their guns to bear first upon one flank and then upon the other of the enemy. The Chinese thereupon altered their formation into a single line. The fighting proceeded, the distance varying from 2,000 to 3,000 metres. Only a few of the Chinese shots were effective.

After a time the Chinese admiral apparently deemed his position desperate and sent three ships against the Japanese line at full speed. It was at this time that the Lai Yuen was sunk, followed by the Chih-Yuen and the Chao-Yung.

The flag ship Matsumshina had been the object of the Chinese attack throughout the fight. A Chinese shell struck and dismounted a quick-firing gun and completing the disaster the gun was flung violently against the side of the ship. The commander and the first lieutenant of the Matsumshina were killed, as were also a number of seamen. This made the total loss of the crew 190 men. Admiral Ito did not delay a moment in transferring himself and staff to the Hasadite, and in a few minutes he was again in the thick of the fight.

The Times correspondent in Shanghai writes: "In regard to the conclusions to be drawn from the battle, it may be said that the Chinese battleships proved formidable. The Chinese ironclads stood the battering of the heavy quick-firing guns admirably. Their upper structures were severely damaged, but not a shot penetrated a vital spot. The barbette protection of the twelve-inch guns was most effective, very few men being wounded within the barbettes. Two barbette turrets were as intact after the action as before. This fact, however, coupled with the fact that the six-inch guns at both ends of the ships, which were only slightly protected, were also undamaged, seems to indicate that the destructive effect was due to the enormous number of projectiles from the quick-firing guns rather than to the skilled direction of the shots. The manœuvring of the Japanese first division excited great admiration. Taking advantage of their speed and the long range of their guns, they always kept at the distance that suited them, maintaining perfect order throughout the fight, attempting nothing sensational, and never coming within destructive range of the heaviest guns."

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The foreign office and the admiralty have received information from China alleging that Europeans in that country are in great danger of assaults at the hands of the Chinese.

CRUELTY OF PEIXOTO'S SOLDIERS.

Women and Children in Rio Grande do Sul Assaulted and Burned.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Herald's special cable from Buenos Ayres says:

"Letters received here from rebel sympathizers in Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, contain horrible stories of cruelties alleged to have been perpetrated by Government troops, who are now in possession of all the towns in that province. Women and children have been assaulted and burned, the letter says, while persons who have been barely suspected of aiding or even sympathizing with the revolters have been treated with the utmost cruelty. These acts of barbarity have aroused the most bitter feelings against the soldiers, and if any of them are caught by the numerous guerilla bands who are still roaming over the country they will be treated in a similar manner.

"News has been received here from Europe that Brazil's Minister to Paris has officially denied the reported shooting of prisoners at Rio do Sul. This denial is stamped by the newspapers there as absolutely false, and they assert that many prisoners have been shot."

Bull Fighting Stopped at Nimes.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—The inhabitants of the city of Nimes, capital of the Department of Gard, are moved to indignation by the act of the prefect in forbidding bull fights. The mayor of Nimes protested to Premier Dupuy, who has issued a circular to the prefects of all the departments forbidding bull fighting. The municipal council of Nimes was convoked for the purpose of discussing the question of holding a mass indignation meeting. The suppression of bull fighting involves a heavy pecuniary loss to Nimes.

Albany Depot Robbed.

ALBANY, N.Y., Sept. 28.—A bold robbery was committed in the Union depot here. Clerk Zant turned from the window a few moments to do some figuring. When he went to pick up his stacks of bills to make some change after a sale of a ticket he found that out of $500 only $10 remained. The money was on a shelf inside the window about a foot below it. The theory is that someone must have reached through the window and abstracted the bills.

British Steamer Ashore in Portugal.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The British steamer Dorunda, from Brisbane August 1, for London, which sailed from Aden September 10, has gone ashore and been wrecked at Peniche, Portugal. Her crew and passengers were landed in safety. They were all half clad and the women and children suffered severely from exposure.

MR. MASSEY'S BUSINESS.

THE government at Ottawa is engaged in an attempt to teach one of the shrewdest men in Canada his own business. That man is Hart A. Massey and the attempt of the Government is based upon Mr. Massey's statement of the causes which had led him to announce the removal of the Massey-Harris works to the United States. Such a step on the part of a concern of which the prosperity furnished the Conservative party with one of its most plausible arguments in defence of the National Policy, would furnish the opponents of that policy with an unanswerable argument against it, and members of the Government, with the whole Conservative press have sought by entreaty, argument or abuse to dissuade Mr. Massey from his intention.

At Ottawa Mr. Foster says flatly that Mr. Massey does not know his own business. To prove this he says that the Canadian duties on Mr. Massey's raw materials are lower than the American duties. Mr. Foster himself selects the raw materials in question, his selection being based presumably upon the knowledge gathered by him in the season of the pilgrimages of the manufacturers. Now, Artemus Ward was wont to declare, with much good sense, his invincible indisposition to argument with a rattlesnake, which was another way of suggesting the folly of encounter with incontrovertible fact. It is in such an encounter that Mr. Foster is engaged. Mr. Massey, who has never conducted his business on anything but business lines; whom neither politics nor patriotism has guided in the pursuit of his interests; Mr. Massey who, if he must maintain the prosperity of his enterprise, must cut his coat according to his cloth, says that he pays $16.30 in Canada for what he could get in the States for $9.30. The success of an enterprise, which has been built upon the shrewdness of a man who in a long and somewhat arduous career has not yet failed, is based upon this statement and the most splendid array of figures that the heart of pedagogue ever cherished cannot destroy it. The Massey-Harris Company will go the United States because, although it will get no protection there, it will be able by virtue of the lower cost of its raw material, to enter on better terms into competition in the markets of the world.

When Mr. Foster sets up parallel columns of duties under the Canadian and American tariff respectively, he plainly invites the argument that as a matter of fact, such raw materials as iron and coal have been for some years practically free in the United States. This is admitted on all hands. Mr. Foster will reply immediately that the United States owes its freedom in this regard to protection. And this argument suffices for the theorists who are opposing empty statistical argument to Mr. Massey's simple statement of fact. But it does not suffice for anyone else.

But Mr. Massey has critics of another sort. The Gazette, for instance, insinuates, and the Hamilton Spectator boldly charges that Mr. Massey's announcement of intention is of the nature of a "bluff." Such a suggestion is based upon an intimate knowledge of the manner in which more favoured manufacturers forced the Government to the abandonment of its position on tariff reform some months ago. It is in substance an invitation to Mr. Massey. He is invited to go to Ottawa and make new terms with the Government. To such a course no one who desires the demonstration of the incapacity of the Government can object. Whatever the result may be, that incapacity will be established, but it will be established with greater clearness, if the Government be forced to recede from the one position in which it has sought to rehabilitate itself in the regard of that over-powering section of the community which has pledged itself to the furtherance of the cause of tariff reform. Bluff or no bluff, Mr. Massey has stated a hard fact. He can manufacture to better advantage in the United States than in Canada, and from that position, under existing circumstances, the theorists cannot dislodge him.—Montreal Herald.

WARSAW.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

A Baptist convention was held here on Tuesday and Wednesday. A large number of ministers were present.

It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the death of Mrs. Robt. Bullock and Mrs. H. Bell. The sympathy of the entire community is with the bereaved.

Nothing Stands as High,

as a remedy for every womanly ailment, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Here is the proof. It's the only medicine for women so certain in its effects that it can be guaranteed. In every case, if it doesn't cure, your money is returned. Can anything else, though it may be better for a tricky dealer to sell, be "just as good" for you to buy?

"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and a complete cure for all the fundamental derangements, painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the sex.

For young girls entering at the critical "change of life"; for women approaching confinement; nursing mothers; and every woman who is "run-down," tired, or overworked—it is a special, safe, and certain help.

Damage by a Wild Train.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 28.—A Lake Erie & Western freight train, east bound, broke in two on a heavy grade near the town. The detached portion rushed back into the city. The Big Four passenger train from Chicago stood in the Union depot and Yardmaster Brighsey, seeing the danger, threw a open switch, saving scores of lives by turning the wild train on a side track. The detached cars, however, crashed into the Union depot, entirely wrecking it and forcing through South street into the Fotherall Company's shoe factory. A cab driver named Washburn is fatally injured, and it is feared other victims are buried in the debris as the passenger depot was thronged with people a few minutes before the accident. Property loss $20,000.

The Whaling Season a Failure.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 28.—The first news of the fleet of vessels which wintered in the Arctic and those which went up from San Francisco has been received here, and thus far this season has been a failure, and unless the whalers make an extra large catch during the month of September bone will be very high. The entire fleet of forty odd vessels has taken but twenty-five whales. Much was expected from the vessels which wintered at Herschel Island, at the mouth of the Mackenzie River, but to-day the detailed report gives twenty whales taken by the vessels there to September 1, while last year the phenomenal catch of 121 whales was made to September 5, and it can readily be seen the season is a failure.

Boston "Landladies" Unite.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 28.—A Landladies Union, the purpose of which is to secure a system of municipal license and medical inspection for houses of prostitution in Boston, was organized here. The meeting was attended by 23 women who, before the police closed them out, kept the most "respectable" resorts in the city. Resolutions were adopted that this illicit traffic has not been suppressed, but transferred to other localities, and that many girls formerly protected by the landladies are now destitute, homeless and sick. A committee to lay the petition of the union before the Board of Police was appointed.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, anhave no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION.

A Resume of the Result—A Signal Success—Good Management and Fine Weather.

The tenth annual fall fair of the Peterborough Central Exhibition Society, was, it may be frankly said, a signal success—the most successful of the series. To this result, splend d weather and good management contributed. The weather, barring a rather unreasonable chilliness, was all that could be desired. The exhibits in all classes, without exception, were greatly in excess of the best of other years. There was a gross increase of entries over last year of about five hundred. The attendance was also good the number of visitors the second day being between eight and ten thousand. The night exhibition was a great success, there being thousands in attendance. The speeding events were satisfactory, especially those contested on the race track, which was in fine condition. They were run off promptly. The railways did their share by accommodating arrangements towards the success of the exhibition.

As remarked above, good management contributed largely to the success of the show. All the officials and directors worked faithfully to achieve success, and they won. This remark should apply with special force to the energetic and obliging secretary, Mr. W. J. Green and his capable and also obliging assistant, Miss Rae. He had a big share of work to perform, and, perhaps, assumed more than his position demanded, but there was work to be done and he did it. Substantial recognition of his services would be a simple matter of justice.

Again, it will bear repeating, the tenth annual Central Exhibition was a signal success.

DEAR SIR,—Replying to your favour regarding my experience with "HAIRENE," I beg to say I made a personal test with it, when it was first placed on the market, with results so gratifying that I have no hesitation in recommending it to my customers. The preparation now enjoys a very good sale with us, and I have yet to hear a user of it speak otherwise than most favorably.
Yours truly,

As anticipated, the formal opening of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of weaves march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Friday, Sept. 28th.—A moderate temperature with the temperature this morning indicating 42 degrees above zero, with a heavy fog. As a rule, should it settle down, rain is not long in following.—THOS. TELFORD.

A Trio of Bears Sent to the Happy Hunting Grounds.

It appears that there were six bears instead of one prowling around the premises of Mr. Zach Burnham after that prize Jersey. There are only three left now, however, as the remainder have been sent to the happy hunting grounds. Two of them fell before Mr. Andy Shearer's deadly aim near Shearer's cheese factory, and the other one was ignonimously clubbed to death by Station Master Bell, of Keene.

Look Out for Him!

A prominent Y. M. C. A. man here has just received a post card from the Toronto secretary containing the following warning:—

Beware of an easy tongued, smooth faced, specious rascal now attempting to beat the northern associations. His name (while here) was Edwin Stanley Russell and he passes as a repentant gambler, formerly a preacher. Professes to return to God, appears unwilling to receive any aid, but plays a shrewd game, hoping to worm himself into confidence. Left here last Thursday; age about 34 years.

Yours truly,
G. M. PRATT.

A Liquor Case Dismissed.

In the police court, this morning, the adjourned liquor cases were brought before the P. M.

That of Mr. Thos. Dunn, of the Bodega Restaurant, who appeared, charged with selling liquor after hours, was dismissed, as not a tittle of the evidence was produced to show that anyone had ever procured liquor on his premises during prohibited hours.

Mr. Dunn explained to the court that if a light was seen after hours in his restaurant, that it was occasioned by the fact he was inside balancing his cash or attending to his books.

The case regarding the lack of accomodation at the Pullman, was laid over until Tuesday.

We claim to be as far ahead in our goods, as we are below in our prices. Grafton & Co.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The days are perceptably shortening.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—The bugle band and drum corps will meet on Monday evening.

—A lodge of Junior True Blues has been instituted in Campbellford.

—Several parties went to Rice Lake, yesterday, for a few weeks shooting.

—An assault case which was "up" at the police court this morning was enlarged until next week.

—Only fifteen men are working in the C.P.R. car shops at Perth and these are employed on half time.

—The Juvenile A. O. F., will hold a court in their apartments over China Hall, this evening. Admission free.

—A drunk who was run in by the police last night was remanded this morning by the police magistrate until Tuesday.

—The regular monthly meeting of Court Stemong, I. O. F., will be held at 8 o'clock, this evening, in their hall, Simcoe street.

—The town of Galt is to have incandescent light. The Canadian General Electric Co. will commence work on the installation at once.

—Through the Department of State President Cleveland made a proclamation of amnesty and pardon to all persons who have been convicted of polygamy under the teachings of the Mormon church.

—Mr. Ernie Lawrence, driver of the fire team, had the greys down at the exhibition and they compared favourably in looks with anything on the grounds.

—Gilmore's men are working night and day bringing down a drive of logs. The men have powerful search lights provided them at night and have now got the drive as far along as Pigeon Lake.

—The exhibitors at the Horticultural Society's show, who were lucky enough to secure prizes, can obtain the money which is due them, by calling on Mr. P. Henry, of the firm of Henry Bros., grocers, George street.

—The thanks of the "parritch" element of the EXAMINER are due to Mr. Robert Innes for a muckle bunch of heather, plucked by him within forty yards of his native home, during his recent visit to Scotland.

—Herr and Frau Klingenfeld of Toronto, who are to appear at the concert in the George street Methodist church to-night, arrived in town by the mid-day C. P. R. express and are quartered at the Oriental hotel.

—Michael Halpin, the English youth, who was arrested by G.T.R. Detective Haiman, for placing obstructions on the railway track the other day, was sentenced to an indefinite term in the Penetang reformatory by the county police magistrate today.

—The Toronto Mail of Thursday says: "Herr Klingenfeld, the solo-violinist of Toronto, has been engaged to appear at a concert in Peterborough on the 28th of this month. Herr Klingenfeld's brilliant playing should win him a great success with the music loving citizens of the enterprising little town.

—Mr. B. Shortly, secretary of branch No. 735, Royal Arcanium, has received notice that a cheque for $3,000 has been forwarded to the manager of the Standard Bank, Campbellford, in settlement of the claim of the estate of the late Edmund G. Burke, who was a member of the local branch of the Order.

—County Police Magistrate Edmison fined Robert Dwyer $20 this morning for raising a disturbance on the steamer City of Peterborough one day last June. Dwyer was drunk at the time he created the row and was secured and tied with ropes by the officials on the steamer. He got loose, however, and jumping overboard swam ashore, since when he has not been seen until he was arrested on the 21st inst.

—In his article, in the October Forum, President Eliot, of Harvard, draws attention to the striking fact that the three nations, which have given the greatest proofs of constitutional vigor,—namely, Germany, England and the United States—are those, which in religious opinions and practices, are very heterogeneous, so that no concentrated religious fervor can possibly melt and unite all their people.

—In the EXAMINER'S reference to the Art Loan exhibit of the Central, mention was inadvertently omitted of the exhibit of Mr. G. V. Ames, an amateur of the amatems, he having never taken a lesson in painting. He showed two very creditable canvases, which gave evidence of marked natural ability. If he does not seriously pursue art as an avocation, the inference is that he has, from the decided ability he shows, mistaken his calling in life.

PERSONAL.

Mr. James Hanley, of Belleville, is at the Oriental.

Mr. B. E. McKenzie, M. D., of Toronto, is registered at the Grand Central.

Miss Annie J. McDonnell, Cobourg, is visiting her brother at 371 Bethune street.

Mr. C. A. Bog, Mrs. Bog, and Miss Georgina Bog, of Campbellford, were in town to-day.

Miss Nixon and Miss VanHorn, of Port Hope, spent a few days in town this week, the guests of Mrs. John Dixon.

Rev. Mr. Young, after a six weeks' vacation, returned to town last night, we are pleased to say, much improved in health.

The many friends of Mr. M. S. Dean, Bridgenorth, will regret to learn that on Wednesday he was prostrated with an apopletic seizure. His medical advisers do not think the attack very serious at present.

Mr. Jeremiah O'Gorman would respectfully announce to the travelling public that he has moved into his new premises at the Cross, Ennismore, where he is now prepared once more to provide all his patrons with first-class accommodation. Hot meals at any hour of the day a specialty.

Evening Classes, Peterborough Mechanics' Institute.

A meeting will be held on Tuesday evening October 9th, at 8 o'clock, when classes in Machine Drawing, Mensuration and Steam Engineering will be formed and a competent teacher engaged if a sufficient number of names are handed in. Intending scholars will please leave in their applications with the librarian as early as possible.

J. S. KNAPMAN,
Chairman Class Committee.

A Peterborough Poetess.

Miss Alma McCollum, Gilmour street, town, has been an acceptable contributor of graceful verse to the columns of Toronto Saturday Night, and her poems have been read with pleasure and admiration by our citizens. Recently, she composed a pathetic little poem, entitled "'Ceptin Me," dedicating it to Miss Jessie Alexander, the celebrated humourous and dramatic elocutionists. A few days ago, Miss McCollum received a very cordial letter from the artiste, conveying the information that Miss Alexander, at her opening recital, in Toronto, on Tuesday evening next, would recite Miss McCollum's poem. This acceptance of this poem is a high compliment. Miss Alexander has access to the productions of the best writers, yet she is highly pleased with the latest addition to her repertoire of Miss McCallum's "sympathetic, little poem." It gives the EXAMINER great pleasure to note this flattering evidence of the literary success of a Peterborough young lady. We are always ready to extend a helping hand or give a word of encouragement to local musical or literary talent, especially when the graceful verses of Miss McCollum present a most suggestive opportunity.

A BIG LEGAL FIGHT FINISHED.

After Two Years in the Courts Another Stage is Reached.

The case of Mason vs. the town of Peterborough has been before the courts for some time, but as few know the cause and incidental circumstances connected with the action, it may be of interest to relate the principal facts which took place prior as well as subsequent to the time the action was first brought before the courts.

The late W J. Mason, who for many years carried on business in Peterborough, while proceeding from his residence to the store on the evening of February 24th, 1892, slipped on the sidewalk and in falling broke his arm. The fracture was a serious one and occasioned him great pain and trouble. He alleged that for years the sidewalk opposite Mrs. Ormond's residence, on Murray street, where he fell, was uneven and in and that his fall was in consequence of his stepping on a tilted board, on which his foot slipped.

The evidence shewed that the sidewalk had been constructed twenty-two years previously—that the boards, according to the ideas of those days, were placed lengthwise instead of crosswise, and that this fact combined with the circumstances that the boards were old and slippery, aggravated the natural danger of the hill.

It was proved that Rev. Mr. Wilkins, of Trenton; Dr. Davies, Mr. Walsh, the druggist, and others had fallen on or about the same spot. After a long trial, the court held that the sidewalk was out of repair, that the corporation had ample notice to repair it and that the injury resulted in consequence of to the said sidewalk. The Judge then gave judgement in favour of the plaintiff.

Mr. Mason died about a year after the accident and shortly after the first trial which took place in November, 1893. After the trial Mr. E. B. Edwards, on behalf of the town, moved to enter a verdict in favour of the corporation. His motion, which was made in Toronto, was dismissed with costs. He then appealed to the Court of Appeal, and the appeal was dismissed with costs.

The second trial then came on and resulted like the first in the disagreement of the jury. The third trial, which has just taken place, resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff.

HEAVY COSTS ENTAILED.

The judgment, if costs are given the plaintiff, will carry the costs of both the former trials and the costs of the cause. The total amount of the costs will figure up to a sum of no inconsiderable magnitude.

The costs of the two abortive motions in Toronto have already been paid by the town.

A peculiar circumstance of the case consisted in the fact that the evidence given by the late Mr. Mason in the first trial, and that given by Dr. Davies at the same time, were received at both subsequent trials, the one on the ground of Mr. Mason's death, and the other on account of Dr. Davies being outside the jurisdiction of the court, where he could not be summoned by subpœna.

The case will prove a very expensive one for the town, and suggests that settlements, where a corporation is concerned, is perhaps as wise as between private individuals.

NOTE—Since the above was in type, his Lordship has assessed the amount of damages—$750, which, as intimated above, carries the cost of the cause, which are estimated at about $1,500. Mr. Edwards, counsel for the town, moved for a stay of proceedings, which the court declined, on the ground that there had already been sufficient litigation.

THE STEAM YACHT IDLE HOUR SOLD.

Mr. William Hull Becomes the Owner and Has a Craft to be Proud of.

The neat little steam yacht, "Idle Hour," built by Messrs. Moffat & Kinch of the Ontario Foundry, was sold last week to Mr. William Hull, a resident on Stony Lake, who will utilize her as a supply boat for the campers and others residing in the vicinity during the summer.

During the fall months the Idle Hour is engaged in towing wood for which she is especially adapted by reason of her peculiar construction and by the fact that her engine and boiler are of the latest pattern.

The builders seem to have made a hit in turning out this special style of craft which is so suitable for the navigation of the shallow waters of the back lakes and rivers in the vicinity. It is understood that the firm has already received orders for launches of this description to be ready for the spring and without doubt their handiwork will soon win them a provincial reputation.

Take it Home to Yourselves.

Mothers and fathers, don't you recall in your school days how much better you could write with a long new pencil than an old one?

Were not the problems easier to solve when you figured on a big "pad" you had just purchased?

Did you ever lose the reader, speller, or arithmetic when you had a nice new bag to carry the books in to and from school?

Now, be honest and fix up the children's outfit as though you were young again.

A few cents invested at the stationery department of the Peterborough Bookstore will give the children inspiration for study throughout the term. A. H. STRATTON.

Good Cooking.

An eminent expert in the art of cooking says that "cookery is the art of putting every morsel to the best use; it is the exercise of skill, thought and ingenuity, to make every particle of food yield the utmost nourishment and pleasure, of which it is capable." There are many who enjoy very little of even the best cooked food. Those could increase their enjoyment of the good things of life by the continued and judicious use of Esellays Liver Lozenges.

HAVELOCK METHODIST CHURCH HARVEST FESTIVAL.

A Beautiful Tea Furnished by the Ladies—Finest Speakers Also were Present.

The harvest festival in the Havelock Methodist church took place last Friday evening and was a great success. The ladies provided an exceedingly bountiful spread, to which full justice was accorded by the many who partook of the repast.

During the evening addresses of a most interesting character were delivered by Rev. Mr. Rae of Peterborough, Dr. McClelland of Havelock, and Mr. D. B. Denike and Rev. R. Courtice of Campbellford.

The choir distinguished itself by the rendering of specially prepared music, which was received with appreciation. A solo contributed to the programme by Miss W. Johnson was highly commended and especially appreciated.

Upon the solicitation of Rev. Mr. Courtice, a subscription was taken up, the result of which, together with the funds raised by the tea, will largely reduce the floating debt of the church and parsonage and will, consequently, place the church on a easy financial footing.

The harvest festival was on the whole one of the most enjoyable affairs which has been held in the vicinity for a long time and all who were in attendance left well pleased with the entertainment which had been provided.

LICENSE LAW ADMINISTRATION.

The police magistrate, at this morning's session of the police court, had to deal with a couple of liquor cases, arising out the license by-law, and the rather excessive zeal of the Chief of Police in enforcing its provisions in certain directions. Of the cases brought to the attention of the court, upon the hearing of what was presented as evidence, one was dismissed and the other held over, the magistrate remarking, that there was a distinction to be drawn between prosecution and persecution in the name of enforcement of the law. To an unprejudiced on-looker it seems strange that, when the offences of selling liquor without a license, the day of the 'Prentice Boys demonstration, August 13th, were committed, the police should "pull" three of those known politically as supporters of the Mowat Government, and not interfere with an avowed opponent of the government in the person of Mr. Croft, whose breach of the law was so flagrant that, on being charged at the police court with the offence, he promptly admitted his guilt and paid the penalty. If the chief of police, instead of apparently persecuting two or three parties against whom special animus seems to be directed and who are amongst the best observers of the license law, were to devote some attention to those places where it is alleged, on good authority, liquor is being regularly sold without a license, he would be serving the public interests and doing his duty as a public officer. It is currently reported that liquor is being thus sold within a few rods of the police station; yet the zeal of the chief leads him to distant streets for opportunities of prosecution, and to the presentation of charges which there is not evidence to sustain. Let the Chief of Police and the license inspector see that the law is enforced, without distinction of person or party. The Chief in such an event would not be called upon to explain his inconsistency in prosecuting one hotel proprietor for having his bar blinds down, when others are allowed to secure the same end by having frosted windows.

D. E. CAMERON HAS RESIGNED

THE EX-ASSISTANT PROVINCIAL TREASURER TAKES A POSITION IN NEW YORK.

W. C. Noxon is Temporarily Filling the Office—Will Mr. Stratton Secure the Plum?

It is understood that Mr. D. E. Cameron, Assistant Provincial Treasurer, has resigned his position, the resignation to take effect on October 1st. Mr. Cameron is even now in New York, where he has taken a position with the Mutual Reserve, at a higher salary than he received in Toronto, and Mr. W. C. Noxon, cashier, is performing the duties of Assistant Treasurer in his absence.

Just what changes will be made in the department as a result of Mr. Cameron's retirement is not known. If promotion is made from within Mr. Noxon will certainly secure the office, but it just possible that the Government may want it for a political friend. It has been said that Mr. Stratton would not be averse to trading his seat in the House for the chief desk in the Treasury Department. This rumour is strengthened by the probability that Mr. Harty will soon have to seek another constituency and West Peterborough is the one which the Commissioner of Public Works would find it easiest to secure. These rumours have received added importance from the fact that Mr. Stratton was in Toronto last night.—Toronto Evening News.

[As stated in these columns before, Mr. Stratton is not seeking for any government office. He is content with devoting his time to the discharge, as faithfully as he is able, of the duties of his representative position he has been placed in by the almost unanimous voice of the electors of West Peterborough, and to the management of his private business affairs. Mr. Stratton is not seeking for the office in question, nor any other office, and in spite of the kindness of our good friend, the News, in appointing him Assistant Provincial Treasurer, Mr. Stratton must decline accepting it. The News must not conclude, as it seems to do, that because, as President of the Dominion Building and Loan Association, his duties require him to visit Toronto every week, that he is in the city in quest of some government office. It is to be hoped that the News, will not insist, on the strength of weekly business trips to the Provincial capital, in enrolling Mr. Stratton on the list of office hunters. Will our contemporary kindly take the hint and act accordingly.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS.

A Trio of Interesting Events Take place—Fall Weddings Becoming the Fashion.

BROWN—STERLING.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. E. F. Sterling, daughter of Mr. James Wasson, 617 Rubidge street, was wedded to Mr. Wesley Brown, car inspector of the Street Railway Company.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Rae, at the residence of the bride's father, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown left last night for a trip east. Although the wedding was a quiet one, and only the most intimate friends of the interested parties present, yet the gifts were most numerous, among them being a deed from Mr. Wason of his house and lot on Rubidge street.

SHELTON—METHERALL.

An interesting event took place Wednesday evening in the marriage of Mr. Richard Shelton, of the Lock Works, and Miss Minnie Metherall, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John Metherall, Murray and George streets.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Rae, the bridesmaid being Miss Mabel Metherall and the groomsman Mr. F. S. Schneider.

After partaking of a dainty wedding dejeuner Mr. and Mrs. Shelton left for their new home on Simcoe street, opposite the Lock Works.

Some very beautiful presents, it is understood, were received.

DOWN—SMITH.

The many friends of Mr. Samuel B. Down, of Boston, formerly of Peterborough, will be pleased to learn of his marriage on the 20th inst. to Miss Ida E. Smith, of Boston.

Mr. Down was a clerk in Mr. McKee's drug store for three years and was afterwards with Mr. George Schofield for a couple of years, and is therefore well known and has many friends in Peterborough.

THE SHAM BATTLE.

Plenty of Blank Ammunition for the Rangers on Thanksgiving Day.

A large number of the men of the 57th Battalion assembled at the armoury last night to hear the outlines of the idea concerning the holding of a sham battle on Thanksgiving Day.

It was explained that the scheme was devised to show the men that the life of a soldier was not confined simply to "fours" or "fix bayonets," but that the routine was occasionally broken into in a manner which the sham battle would fully demonstrate. The members of the battalion who were present entered enthusiastically into the scheme, which will, without doubt, prove a great success.

It has been decided to conduct the manœuvres on the hills over in Otonabee. The first and second companies will be on the defensive and will throw out pickets and outposts, while the remainder of the battalion will form the attacking party.

As only three or four drills will be required to put the battalion into shape, it is to be hoped that every member will turn out.

The officers and sergeants are particularly requested to see their men, and ask them personally to take part in the engagement. A drill will be held Tuesday evening.

BIRTH.

MCDONNELL.—On Wednesday, Sept. 26th, 1894, at 371 Bethune street, the wife of Mr. John McDonnell, of a son.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

TEA
Highest Grade of Tea for the Least Price.
THOS. BRADY
Is prepared to prove this broad statement, and solicits the candid opinion of every Tea Drinker in Peterborough.
The Proof of the Tea
Is in the Drawing of it.
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, you are cordially invited to call and test a cup of this delicious Tea on FRIDAY, at my store, where a lady will be in attendance to treat you to a drink of "the cup that cheers but not inebriates."
You will be delighted if you call. All welcome.
OLD POST OFFICE BLOCK,
COR. GEORGE AND BROCK STS.

From the Crown of the Head
To the Soles of the Feet
WE COVER ALL.

It is one thing to cover up your body, Robinson Crusoe like, with goat skins and tanned palm leaves. It is quite another thing to get well-fitting, neatly-made Suits, Boots and Hats of the latest designs, without paying an exhorbitant price.

MEN'S HATS!
MEN'S SHOES!
MEN'S CLOTHING!
MEN'S UNDERWEAR!
MEN'S FURNISHINGS!

ALL
ONE ROOF!

This store appeals to Men—and to Women also. The field of trade is widening continually. Instead of confining ourselves to Clothing, we have, for the fall of 1894, brought together under one roof such things for men's wear as they have shown themselves to want.

The Goliath's of the Markets.

Just as buyers flock to the great emporiums like Eaton of Toronto, Carsley of Montreal, Mabley of Detroit and Wannamaker of Philadelphia, so do they crowd to Gough Bros. of Peterborough.

WHY! Because they are the Goliath's of the market—they touch the button and manufacturers pour out their wealth of Bargains to them.

CORRECTING A MISTAKE.—Who sells the cheapest goods—the merchant who is compelled to buy in one higgling market, and is tied down to one grasping manufacturer, or the merchant who has the freedom of all the competing markets and manufacturers of the world? Do men buy Hats cheaper where nothing but Hats are sold, or Boots cheaper where nothing but Boots are sold, or Clothing cheaper where nothing but Clothing is sold?

Might as well expect a farmer to do as well for his family by raising nothing but Pumpkins as if he raised a mixed crop.

HATS and CAPS.

Young men are usually quick to save money. We're able to discount the trade, because of unusual buying power. We go direct to the makers and insure fine qualities by knowing what to buy and what to let alone. The best is none too good for us. If you're a judge of quality, it won't take any talking from the salesmen.

On the finest Fur Fedora Hats we take off 35c., and ask only $2.65.
On the best Fur Felt Stiff Hats we take off 50c., and ask only $2.00.
On Men's Knockabout Hats we take off 20c., and ask only 25c.
On Men's Peak Caps, satin lined, we take off 25c., and ask only 50c.
On Men's Silk Hats, latest styles, we take off 50c. and 75c., and ask only $3.00 and $3.75.
Youths and Boys in same proportion.

BOOTS and SHOES

warranted not to crack, nor take in washing. Ours isn't the common kind of Boots and Shoes. If anybody can beat the quality, the style, the price, we'll quit the business.

On the best $3 Men's Selected Shell Cordovan Balmoral or Congress, with Dunraven toe, we take off 40c., and ask only $2.60.
On the best Men's Fine Waxed Hand-Made Balmorals we take off 35c., and ask only $1.25.
On the best Fine Patent Leather Oxford Shoes, turn soles, we take off 45c., and ask only $1.20.
On the best French Dongola Kid Button (common sense) we take off 62c., and ask only $1.98.
Misses', Boys', and Children's in same proportion.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS
—ON THE—
SUN LIFE ASSURANCE CO.
OF CANADA.

From the CANADIAN TRADE REVIEW.

"There is no invidiousness involved in the assertion that no other Canadian company in existence can point to such a record of rapid, substantial and uninterrupted progress and prosperity as that exhibited in the successive annual reports of the Sun Life. . . . Most assuredly are its directors, shareholders and policy holders to be congratulated upon the very flourishing condition of the Company, and especially upon the result of the business of a year which was marked by the prevalence of conditions—the influenza epidemic, for instance—which proved disastrous for so many life companies. And with no less certainty can it be said that the very great progress made by the institution has been mainly due to the able and energetic efforts, guided by the sagacity and prudence which pratical experience alone can bring, of the President and Managing-Director, who has been efficiently assisted by the Secretary. From the contemplation of so successful a past the management may reasonably draw most sanguine anticipations as to the prosperity of the future.

THE RACE IS WON

—over to good health and rendered impervious to disease when the blood is pure and the liver active. For the liver is the sentinel which permits or forbids the germs of disease to enter the circulation of the blood.

You ought to be germ-proof against Grip, Malaria, or Consumption; you will be—if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

When your flesh is reduced below a healthy standard, when you are troubled with pimples and boils, or if you have dizzy, weak and sleepless spells—it's best to heed the warning.

Build up your strength, purify the blood, and set all the organs of the body into activity, by taking the "Discovery." It's guaranteed to benefit or cure all the diseases resulting from impure blood or inactive liver, or the money paid is refunded.

STRICKEN WITH PLAGUE.

The Village of Erin Afflicted With a Diphtheria Scourge.

ERIN, Sept. 28.—For fully forty years Erin fair has attracted annually the people of Wellington and adjoining counties, and much surprise was expressed when it was announced a few days ago that no exhibition was to be held in that village this fall. The surprise turned to regret when the cause of the postponement was learned.

The village is stricken with a plague, which the doctors diagnose as black diphtheria, and the dread disease has well nigh caused a panic.

Eight deaths have so far been reported in the past few days, and from thirty to forty of the five hundred inhabitants are ill in bed. A dozen houses are placarded and the whole village is placed in a sort of quarantine. Several families left a week ago, but those who are here now must remain.

As an instance of the terrible havoc worked by the plague, it is only necessary to quote one case. In the Ramsbottom family, seven members were prostrated within a few hours, and one of the children died after an illness of eleven hours.

The local doctors seem powerless to save the lives of those afflicted, and it is now freely stated that if the first cases had been properly isolated the number of deaths would have been much decreased.

Seven years ago a similar outbreak occurred in Garafraxa, which is about twenty miles from this place, and the villagers now seem to think that it is a seven years' plague. In Garafraxa, however, the fatality was not nearly so marked, owing to the fact that the district there is more thinly populated.

On Sunday last all the churches, excepting that of the Disciples, were closed, and private prayer meetings are being held in the hope that the deadly affliction may cease.

The reeve of the village, Dr. Martin, is working hard now to suppress the outbreak, but he is censured for not taking his precautionary measures at an earlier date.

Erin village is situated on the Credit Valley branch of the Canadian Pacific railway. It is eighteen miles northeast of Guelph and fourteen miles south of Orangeville.

The Chatham Highway Robbers.

WINDSOR, Sept. 28.—Chief of Police Young, of Chatham, is in Windsor, looking for a man named Duncan Vincent, accused of robbing a farmer named Charles Bevin a few nights ago. Jesse Freeman, another one of the gang, is now under arrest. Chief Young said: "It was stated at the time that another man was shot by the same parties the same night. The report is correct, but when we investigated the matter we found that the man referred to, Wm. Alderbeck, was shot at by the man who had been robbed. He fired three shots in all, but fortunately only one of them took effect. This hit Alderbeck in the knee, and the chances are he will lose his leg."

Seal Herds Growing Less.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Assistant Secretary Hamilton, of the Treasury Department, talked yesterday of his official trip to Alaska from where he has just returned. Speaking of the seal fisheries on the islands of St. Paul and St. George, Mr. Hamilton said that the capture this year was about 15,000. From all the information he could gain, he was of the opinion that the seal herds were numerically much weaker than ever before, yearly growing less. He also thought the great slaughter of salmon was threatening their extermination.

The Steamer Magnet Ashore.

CORNWALL, Sept. 28.—The steamer Magnet struck in the Long Sault rapids above this place, on her way down trip. She was run into a rush bed at the south side of Barnhart's Island and pumps started. The Magnet is an R. and O. boat, making weekly trips between Toronto and Montreal, carrying freight and passengers. It is learned that there was no loss of life attending the accident. The passengers, about thirty in number, will have to be taken ashore in small boats, as no steamers are available.

Brutal Desertion of a Child.

KINCARDINE, Ont., Sept. 28.—A young couple, having with them a child of about two months, arrived in town and registered at the Commercial Hotel. They departed in the morning at three o'clock driving, and on their way left the child inside the fence at the residence of Mr. Geo. Sturgeon, at the north end of the town. The child was well clad, some of the clothing being marked with the letter "H."

The people quickly recognize merit, and this is the reason the sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla are continually increasing. Hood's "on top."

Bit Off His Opponent's Ear.

POTTSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 28.—During a lively discussion in the School Board of Warwick Township, Chester County, two of the directors engaged in a fight. Before the other members could interfere one of them had his ear bitten off. Efforts are being made to hush the matter up and the names of the combatants cannot be learned. An arrest for mayhem will likely be made to-morrow.

An Old Kentucky Feud.

PINEVILLE, Ky., Sept. 28.—The French-Eversole feud has been revived. Judge J. H. Combs, father-in-law of J. C. Eversole, was shot and killed at his house at Hazard, Berry County. Judge Combs was 65 years old. He had been liked generally. This murder will probably start the feud afresh. The feud so far has cost over thirty lives.

Shot by Sheepherders.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 28.—Sheriff Burns, of St. Peter County, was shot and instantly killed near Spring City, Utah, by Moan Koffard and James McBee, two sheepherders, whom the sheriff attempted to arrest for resisting the service of a replevin warrant for stolen sheep. Two men who were with the sheriff escaped, one slightly injured.

Destroyed by Forest Fires.

BRAINERD, Minn., Sept. 28.—A large section of Crow Wing county was swept by forest fires yesterday. A strong gale caused the flames to travel with race horse speed and many farm buildings are known to have been destroyed. No fatalities are reported.

Pardon for Polygamists.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Through the department of state President Cleveland has made a proclamation of amnesty and pardon to all persons who have been convicted of polygamy under the teachings of the Mormon church.

Shot His Wife and Suicided.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 28.—Louis Miller, aged 40, a laborer, shot his wife and then fired a bullet into his own breast. Miller is dead and his wife cannot live many hours. Jealousy was the cause.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Sept. 28.

East Buffalo market closed steady. Sales of Canada lambs at $4.20 to $4.25.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Six hundred bushels of wheat sold at 54c for white, 53c for red and 50c for goose; 600 of barley at 42 1-2 to 43c; 200 of peas at 61c; 2,000 of oats at 30 1-2 to 31 1-2c. Wheat outside is easy at about 51 1-2 to 52c. The demand is wholly for milling purposes. No export grain is being bought.

The wheat market in Chicago was steady. Corn closed firm, May 1 8c lower and cash 1-4 to 1-2c higher.

The Bank of England's return shows a decrease in coin and bullion of 862,218 pounds due to experts and bars sold.

The London stock markets were quiet. Americans were flat, led by Readings on a general dislike here of the reorganization scheme. The affairs of this company and of Atchison effectually deter the public here from dealing in Americans.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th,—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

THE GRASP OF DEMONS.

A DELIRIUM TREMENS ARTIST WHO REMEMBERS WHAT HE SAW.

The End of a Great Drinking Bout—"Skinning the Cat" on a Phantom Pole—Crossing a Bridge of Ice and Toying With Snakes.

Physiologists, alienists and those who advocate temperance in the use of strong drink will be greatly interested in this narrative. It is the description by a well-known artist of the visions that came to him during an attack of delirium tremens, says the New York World. The name of this artist, of course, cannot be made public.

The artist is now twenty-eight years old. He was born in this city. He is of a lively, humorous temperament. He has drunk strong liquor for twelve years. He began by drinking beer and cultivated his palate until alcohol was most grateful to it. One morning, just after recovering from a debauch that lasted sixteen days, he was seized with a pain in his side. He was sober, but frightfully nervous. He took to his bed and sent for his physician. The doctor told him he had pneumonia, kept him in bed and sent him a nurse, a very ugly woman.

Now listen to the artist, who, it is necessary to say, is now a very moderate drinker, and who was entirely sober when he related these facts yesterday:

"On the evening of the third day I had been in bed I began to see things. I was not in delirium, for I recognized my nurse, and said to her, 'Every time I shut my eyes I see the most beautiful things. I'll tell you about them.'

"I closed my eyes and there appeared before me a number of most beautiful Amazons. Their gorgeous costumes made up a charming scheme of colors. They marched down a brilliantly illuminated flight of palace stairs and disappeared. Then it seemed to me that I was in an underground passage of some kind. Before me passed representatives of every grade of society, from the highest to the lowest. The members of each group wore the clothes appropriate to their station, and as they passed me they sang songs typical of their standing in society. But of a sudden they were swept out of my disordered view.

"Then I thought I was in an elevator. Up, up, up I went. The elevator man wore a green uniform and made faces at me. At last I alighted in a vast circular hall. In the centre of it was a pit fifty feet in diameter. In the middle of the pit was a big shaft of greenish steel, around which an endless spiral always revolved downward. On the spiral thousands of men, grasping it, were 'skinning the cat.' One of them yelled at me, 'Jump on and join us.' I made a spring, caring nothing for the depth that yawned under me, and caught the spiral. Then I, too, began to 'skin the cat,' descending lower, lower, lower.

"At last I reached the bottom of the pit. There was a grotto, in which was a waterfall that froze as it fell. Around the waterfall hundreds of tourists were standing. All of them wore linen dusters. A bridge crossed the waterfall. It was cased in ice, for the spray froze on everything it touched. All at once I heard the sound of wheels, and a little wagon came rattling across the bridge. Four little old men were in it, gay old boys, their whiskers brushed well out.

"'Hello,' one of them yelled, 'aren't you going to join us in the game?'

"'Where is it?' I asked.

"'Why, over there in the ice palace. It's a game of freeze-out,' he cried, and the wagon scuttled off again.

"I crossed the bridge in the rain of cold stray. When I reached the other side an attendant stopped me.

"'You must go right back to your pedestal in the ice palace,' he said, sternly.

"Being enveloped in ice, it was plain that he mistook me for one of the exhibits in the palace. I was about to explain when palace, bridge, everything melted into one vast flood that swept me away.

"Then I thought I was in bed at home. Before me sat, cross-legged, a tremendous sheik, with one eye in the middle of his forehead. Suddenly thousands of little Orientals with long black hair appeared upon the floor. Each was about a foot high and each carried a sword. They fought, cutting down each other from the head to the middle. As they fought, the big sheik took from his pockets innumerable cockroaches and gallinippers, and, pairing them off, placed them on the floor. There they fought, too, either killing each other or dying under the heels of the pigmy combatants.

"I opened my eyes. My physician, who had been sent for, stood by my bed. I knew him and saluted him.

"'Doctor,' said I, 'this place is full of insects. They're crawling all over me.'

"I pulled up the corner of the dressing gown I wore and pulled from under it various snakes I saw there. I have been a student of natural history.

"'This,' I said, lifting up one snake, 'is a native of the East Indies; he's one of the horned vipers. His bite is deadly. This,' taking up another, 'is a boa constrictor. You see, he is not heavy. He only weighs forty pounds, but he could easily crush an antelope.'

"The doctor spoke soothingly to me. I lay down, I looked at my nurse and recognized her, but as I looked at her her face changed to the sinister face of a man, who scowled at me as if he would murder me. I must have been coming to my senses. As I looked around my room I saw the chairs, my drawing table, the pictures, the bureau, but if I fixed my eyes on them horrible shapes, fearful apparitions evolved themselves from them and grinned at me. I fell asleep at last. When I awoke my head was clear, the visions no longer appeared.

"I have not seen them since. I don't want to see them again. Bu-u-r-r-h!"

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the exterior becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—sinking and other form, excessive moisture is exuded. Powerful ointments afford from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and torture. Whereas in every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the parts and absorb the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Gives Instant Relief.

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER Rejoice Together.

Fine Year Old Maggie McRitchie, a Victim of Chronic Fainting Spells and Nervous Weakness, Completely Cured by South American Nervine After all Other Efforts had failed. The Mother, a Sufferer From Nervous Prostration and Indigestion, Likewise Cured. Hear What the Thankful Father Has to Say.

MRS. JAMES McRITCHIE AND DAUGHTER.

A leading local physician, whose profession takes him among the children of the various public institutions, remarked to the writer, that one would hardly believe that so many children were affected by nervous troubles, which sap the system and prevent proper development. In many cases the doctors are powerless to cure these troubles. They can relieve the suffering little ones, but in South American Nervine we have a medicine that does more than simply give relief. Its peculiar strength is that it completely cures where physicians relieve. A case in point came to us the 24th ult., in a letter from Mr. James W. McRitchie of Bothwell, Ont. He says:—"My daughter Maggie, aged 9 years, was afflicted with nervous fainting spells for over a year, which left her in such a condition of weakness afterwards that the child was practically an invalid. We tried several remedies and doctored with her in one way and another, but nothing gave relief. Seeing South American Nervine advertised, as particularly efficacious in nervous diseases, I decided on trying it for her, and I must say that I noticed a decided change in my daughter for the better after she had taken only a few doses. As a result of using this medicine, she is now entirely free from those fainting spells and possessed of that life and brightness that is the happy lot of childhood. I am satisfied it is an excellent medicine for any nervous weakness. My experience has been further supplemented in the fact that my wife has also been using South American Nervine for indigestion, dyspepsia and nervous prostration, and has found very great relief."

Whether the patient be man or woman, young or old, South American Nervine provides a complete medium for restoration to health. It is a medicine differing absolutely from every other. A cure is effected by application to the nerve centres of the human system, and science has proved that when these nerve centres are kept healthy the whole body is healthy. For these reasons failure is impossible.

NEVER INDORSE AGAIN.

Dr. Depew Gives Some Excellent Reasons Why.

Chauncey M. Depew has been associated all his life, from the very day he left Yale college, with rich men. He was one of Commodore Vanderbilt's "boys," and has been the intimate of the Commodore's sons. The Garrets, the Scotts, the Morgans, and all the kings of the railroad and banking world for twenty years and more have been among Mr. Depew's friends.

All of these gentlemen have been tackled by the fellows who are proverbially "short." There is a class of borrowers who want to exchange checks; that is, the borrower wants the check of a sound man to use immediately, and in return gives a check dated ten or more days ahead, when he expects that his own bank account will be rich enough to meet it. There is in this fraternity a set of downright swindlers, whose checks are returned with that exasperating stamp, "No funds." As Solomon said:

"My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger, thou are snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy month."

Solomon evidently knew something about "hand shakers." Dr. Depew has come to some conclusions also, and here they are:

"Never indorse accommodation notes. If you wish to help your friend, make up your mind how much you can afford to lose, and lend him that. He will consider seriously the repayment of this money, while your name on his paper will not receive a second thought. If his venture is a failure and your money is gone, you will not be greatly disappointed, and your compensation will be an approving conscience and the satisfaction of having done the best you could for one whose appreciation of your effort you value. But your indorsement he regards as a mere formality. He believes in himself and has great contempt for your fears. At each renewal of the note he will want the amount increased or an additional note, on the plea of increasing business and opportunities. When you have become frightened at the sum for which he has made you responsible, and find that you must stop or be ruined, he will say that unless you aid him further he will be forced into bankruptcy and you will be the cause. When he fails, as he inevitably will, you find that the money raised on your notes has paid enemies and strangers who insisted on his dealing with them on business principles, and that you are his largest and perhaps sole creditor. You are crippled financially for a time, and perhaps for life, by meeting the maturing obligations which you have indorsed, and your former friend, now your bitter foe, is loudly proclaiming in his own justification that you are the author of his ruin. The result of your excursion in careless lending of your name will be that you have lost both friend and fortune, and have discovered, perhaps too late, that you are a fool. I have had in greater or less degree several such experiences."

It is said on good authority that Dr. Depew lost $40,000 last year by indorsing notes. He'll never do it again, he says.—New York Sun.

Somerset, Man., Sept. 17th.—"Hard times" is the cry from farmers in this country. Arthur Coley, a farmer living near here, has had double reason to cry "hard times," for eight months ago he lay on his back in bed, a victim of Bright's Disease. He acknowledges that he expected to be dead before the end of the summer, but his expectations have been most pleasantly disappointed, and all summer he has worked on his farm just as though he had never known a day's illness. Last spring he began taking Dodd's Kidney Pills and a few boxes completely cured him, as they have every other victim of this disease, who have used them.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING SERVICES IN ST. LUKE'S.

THE HARVEST IS COME AND THE SUMMER IS PAST.

A Most Eloquent Sermon by Rev. Canon Mockridge, of Toronto—The Church Beautifully Decorated With Harvest Fruits, Flowers and Evergreens.

Harvest Festival services were held in St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, last evening, and a congregation which filled the edifice to the doors was present—chairs having to be placed in the aisles to furnish accommodation.

The interior of the church looked most beautiful and reflected great credit on the taste and artistic ability of the ladies and gentlemen who assisted in decorating it so tastefully with the fruits of the harvest.

The decorations began at the porch, in each corner of which reposed huge heaps of tubercular roots. On entering the church itself the first thing which attracted the eye was the manner in which the large screen in the rear was festooned with long wreaths of evergreens and grain stalks and garnished with the smaller fruits. At the base of the screen and on either side of the entrance door reposed gigantic squash, surrounded by bevies of beets, turnips, carrots, potatoes, etc.

On passing the screen the eye instantly ranged over the lesser details to on the beautiful appearance presented by the pulpit. From the centre of the altar rails rose a delicate arch, with two smaller ones on each side, the quintette completing the span across the entire front of the pulpit. Decorated, as they were, most artistically with evergreens and ears of grain, the effect was certainly most pleasing.

Across the top of the arch on a ground of red, stood forth in bright gold letters, the text, "The Earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." A background was formed by the altar which was while pendant from the chancel window sill above it hung large clusters of grapes. The sill itself was a thing of beauty, being inlaid with a dense mosaic of fruit.

Along the top of the wainscotting from the rear of the church to the pulpit ran festoons of evergreens, while at the base of each rafter were sheaves of corn gracefully arranged.

A profusion of fruit was placed in each of the windows sills, together with a quantity of the smaller vegetables and bunches of ears of wheat.

The first lesson was read by the rector, Rev. H. Symonds, and the second by Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Canon Mockridge, of Toronto, who took his text from Jeremiah, 8 chap., 20th verse,—"The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

Canon Mockridge is one of the most eloquent divines in the English church, in Canada and his discourse was listened to with the most intense interest by the congregation. He of the bountiful harvest which had been reaped and in expressing the hope that the people were truly grateful therefor, introduced the fact that in his teachings the Saviour spoke a great deal of the harvest. Nature to Him was a book written through and through with the power of God and He took it as the subject of His teaching an innumerable number of times.

The gifted speaker in dwelling on the many difficulties which seemed to beset the Christian—the man who when dying could cry out from his soul:

Oh death, where is thy sting?
Oh grave, where is thy victory?

—he drew a comparison, which though not a new one, yet was most convincing.

Faith, he stated, was the keystone to religion and if the farmer in sowing his grain had faith that it would spring up again after decomposing in the ground, why could not that after death would come the resurrection? Some would say that the farmer knew by experience that the grain which left his hand in this manner would return to him fourfold, but, queried he, has not our religion also stood a test? Has it not been assailed for centuries from every quarter, and is it not the same as at first? Is not faith all that is required, as at the begining?

The Canon then brought his eloquent and earnest discourse to a close by touchingly describing the happy look which inevitably appeared on the face of the dying Christian, when, as it were, he obtained a glimpse of the joys to come. This fact alone should convince all unbelievers.

He reminded his hearers that at present it was "summer" with all of them, and that the time to kneel at the foot of the throne was the present. He expressed the earnest hope on leaving the pulpit that none would have to say when summoned that "The harvest is come, and the summer is past, and I am not saved."

The decorations will remain up in the church until after Sunday next.

THE ASSIZES.

Rush vs. Rush Concluded—The Case Dismissed—The Criminal Side—A Light Sentence and a Heavy Sentence.

RUSH VS. RUSH.

This action was concluded yesterday and dismissed with costs which will not be pressed unless the plaintiff continues the litigation. The action was brought to establish the plaintiff's right to an account from the defendant, to whom plaintiff, on the 8th of July, 1890, made an assignment of his estate for the benefit of his creditors, of whom the defendant was the largest. At the request of the creditors the defendant purchased the insolvent's estate at the rate of 50 cents on the dollar of ordinary creditors' claims and the privileged claims in full. In his statement of claim the plaintiff charged that the defendant formed the design and scheme of acquiring for himself any surplus that might remain of the creditors' assets after payment of the creditors' claims." The evidence taken at the trial established the fact that the plaintiff ratified and confirmed the sale of the estate by the inspectors and creditors to the defendant.

The following is a synopsis of the judgment delivered by Mr. Justice Ferguson:

1. The assignment made under the provisions of the statute has not been attacked.

2. It seems to have been recognized by the courts (as not an improper thing), that a sale may be made of the estate (in some circumstances) by the inspectors duly appointed and authorized so to do by the creditors to the assignee himself. But for the decisions and what has been said by the judges I should have been at least doubtful.

3. In the present case the inspectors were duly authorized and did make the sale to the defendant. This sale seems to have been fairly, honestly and prudently made, without any concealment whatever, and manifestly was for the best interests of the creditors and all concerned There does not seem to have been even a shadow of dishonesty of any kind or character, and the creditors are all satisfied.

4. The plaintiff afterwards—that is after and long after this sale—expressed his satisfaction with it also, and did many things indicating that he was not dissatisfied with it.

5. The estate was not nearly sufficient to satisfy the debts; and being wound up in the ordinary way would (on the evidence) not have realised so much as 50 cents in the dollar for the creditors and what the plaintiff seeks is an account with the view of recovering a surplus, which I think could not for a moment be supposed to have an existence. What the defendant realised over 50 cents in the dollar it was intended by the other creditors and the inspectors he should have if he could make it out of the estate that he bought.

6. At the time of the sale the attitudes of the defendant and the inspectors were those of purchaser and vendor of the property, and after this sale the defendant had not the character of and was not a trustee for the plaintiff as to his dealings with the estate that he had purchased.

7. The scheme or design alleged in the third paragraph of the Statement of Claim has been not only not proved, but has been clearly disproved.

8. Assuming that a sale of an estate can be made by the inspectors and creditors to the assignee I am of the opinion that this sale was a good one, and it follows that the plaintiff is not entitled to an account from the defendant, and I do not see any other relief to which the plaintiff is entitled.

Messrs. D. W. Dumble and E. B. Stone, for plaintiff; Geo. H. Watson, Q. C., and Hall & Hayes for the defendant.

CRIMINAL SIDE.

Yesterday afternoon, the trial of George Rickey, for a breach of the Charlton Act, occupied the attention of the court. After hearing the evidence on both sides, the Jury retired and after a short absence, returned a verdict of "guilty" of indecent assault, with a strong recommendation to mercy. This afternoon, the judge passed sentence upon him, taking into consideration the jury's recommendation and the previous good character borne by the prisoner. He sentenced him to four months at the common jail. Mr. E. B. Stone conducted the defence and Mr. H. O'Leary, the Crown's case.

James Devine, alias Merril, who was charged with burglary, did not fare so well. The evidence was all pretty strong against him and as he conducted his own defence it was a comparatively easy matter for the Crown officer, who did not address the jury in the case at all. The jury were out a very few minutes and returned a verdict against the prisoner. This afternoon he appeared for sentence. Justice Ferguson stated that it was in his power to sentence him for life but he did not consider it would be in the interest of justice to do so. He therefore senentced the prisoner to seven years in the Kingston penitentiary.

MR. WILSON BANQUETED.

The London Chamber of Commerce Tenders Him a Dinner.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The London Chamber of Commerce gave a complimentary dinner in the White Hall rooms last evening to Hon. W. L. Wilson, representative in the United States Congress. Sir Albert Kaye-Rollitt presided and one hundred British and American guests were present, among them being Hon. J. Sterling Morton, United States Secretary of Agriculture; Congressman Isidor Strauss, of New York; Consul-General Patrick A. Collins.

The chairman read a number of letters of regret and in proposing a toast to the President of the United States dwelt upon the excellent judgment shown in the selection of ministers to represent the country at the court of St. James. Great good had been done, he said, by such judicious appointments as those of Lincoln, Lowell, Phelps and Savard.

Following this was a toast to Mr. Wilson and other Americans present.

In proposing this the speaker said he had wondered that with the advanced ideas of the Americans they had so long tolerated a high tariff. There was no reason, in his judgment, why the United States and Great Britain not march abreast in the cause of freedom with which tariff reform must be associated. When the advantages of the system which Mr. Wilson had had a large share in introducing were fully known England and America would unite to honor him. Therefore he asked the guests present to accord a special welcome to one of the authors of a tariff enabling freer trade in the United States and so substituting for the fluctuations which had been so disastrous to commerce sounder business relations which had benefited both countries. Production in England had been stimulated, while in the United States the consumer would reap the advantage.

Mr. Wilson said he was heartily grateful for this manifestation of good will. Nothing less than a full sense of the honor implied by the invitation of the chamber would have caused him to interrupt the rest he had sought by taking the ocean voyage and his too brief sojourn in this historic country.

A Lesson to Protectionists.

The Standard says the Chamber of Commerce dinner to Congressman Wilson was a compliment as appropriate as well as it was merited. The Standard doubts whether the tariff modifications included in the act will result in widespread leaning toward free trade as an abstract principle though they constitute a step in the right direction; but this may be taken more as a defence than as an attack. The Americans have learned a sound and wholesome lesson that there is a point even with their limitless natural resources beyond which protection cannot go.

Leo's Instructions to French Royalists.

ROME, Sept. 28.—The Pope has summoned Mgr. Hulst, the spiritual adviser of the late Count of Paris, to the Vatican for the purpose of imparting to him instructions in regard to royalists. In clerical circles this action is believed to be a fatal blow to the pretensions of the French monarchists.

Millinery Opening Days

WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th,

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

EXCITEMENT IN CHINA

Dissatisfaction in High Circles Against the Reigning Dynasty.

THEIR WAR CHEST IS EMPTY

Difficulty in Providing Necessities for the Troops—The Japanese Eager for an Advance on Pekin—A Naval Expert Sums Up the Situation.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Times publishes this morning an article by a naval expert, in which the writer compares and coalates the Times' advices from Chee-Foo and the Central News despatch from Tokio. The writer concludes that it may be safely affirmed that modern weapons have not materially modified the conditions of naval warfare.

"Japan's next move," he says, "is now a question of the greatest importance. China's fleet is virtually paralyzed and the Japanese are free to transport a force in any direction. There are two principal courses for them to pursue—first to strike direct for Pekin and second to occupy Formosa. Either course is more probable than a march to Moukden. It seems certain that 25,000 Japanese could take Pekin, when Japan could obtain, so far as China is concerned, any terms she is likely to demand. On the other hand the time available is very short owing to the approach of winter, and the venture though not impracticable would be very risky. A force of 20,000 would suffice to occupy Formosa, and a descent upon that island is certainly among the immediate possibilities. Japan seeks territorial expansion and Formosa offers obvious advantages."

A despatch to the Daily News from Yokohama says there is a general public desire in Japan to prosecute the war against China in defiance of all obstacles and a general desire that the government make a desperate attack upon Pekin. Japanese parliament will at once vote war credits regardless of party opinions.

Reinforcements are continually departing from Yokohama, Tokio and other places in Japan but their destination is not known.

A report comes from Shanghai that the Japanese have succeeded in entering the Chinese province of Manchuria and that they are advancing upon the capital.

VIENNA, Sept. 29.—The Politische correspondence says the following information has reached St. Petersburg from China and attracts the serious attention of the government:

"The intense excitement in all the provinces of China and the dissatisfaction of the highest officials in the empire have reached points which indicate a probable movement against the reigning dynasty. The spirit animating the regular army is satisfactory, but the discipline has been much relaxed. The irregular troops upon which the government must now rely are committing great and frequent excesses everywhere. The war chest is as empty as the state exchequer, and the government has the greatest difficulty in purchasing the barest necessities for the troops in the fields."

American Trade Review.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Bradstreets says: The feature of general trade throughout the country is found in moderate reactions within the week, more particularly in the volume of purchasers of staples west, where trade has been quite active, and at eastern points; in the course of prices the week falling to show any upward movement of note. Wheat has had another "lowest price" and Indian corn and oats have both declined. Sugar and coffee record lower figures. Bank clearings at cities throughout the United States aggregate $825,000,000 this week, a falling off of 9 per cent. from the week before, but 7 per cent. more than in the last week of 1893. Export of wheat, (flour as wheat,) both coasts, United States and Canada, this week have fallen off some, amounting to 2,562,000 bushels, against 3,537,000 bushels last week. Actual business failures for nine months (those in which liabilities exceed assets) number 9,251, 17 per cent. less than last year.

Lives Lost in a Colliery.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 29.—The lives of four men, two miners and four laborers, were without warning crushed out in the northwest colliery of Simpson & Watkins, near Carbondale. The killed are: Wm. B. TO PRISON FOR LIFE

William Walter MacWherrell Will Not Die on the Gallows.

HIS SENTENCE COMMUTED

The Condemned Man Receives the News in Brampton Jail and Expresses His Satisfaction at His Good Fortune by Demonstrations of Joy.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—The case of MacWherrell has at last been disposed of by the Cabinet and the result is that the death sentence has been commuted to one of imprisonment for life. The decision was arrived at late in the afternoon.

T. C. Robinnette, counsel for the prisoner, telegraphed the sheriff and also MacWherrell as to the decision.

Mr. Robinette left last night for Toronto, highly pleased with the result of his day's work in the city.

How MacWherrell Heard the News.

BRAMPTON, Sept. 29.—Sheriff Brody received a telegram from the Department of Justice, notifying him that MacWherrell's sentence has been commuted to life imprisonment.

He at once called upon the Rev. Mr. Clark, who had been visiting the prisoner lately, to accompany him to the jail to acquaint MacWherrell with the decision of the Minister of Justice. They all filed into the corridor where the prisoner sat. The deputy sheriff said:

"Well, Mac, we have brought you the news."

The prisoner's face became of an ashen hue. Not a word was spoken as Mr. Duggan quietly handed him the message. When he had grasped the meaning he jumped four feet, and, waving the telegram blank above his head, cried "Hurrah! hurrah!" They all congratulated him on his narrow escape, and, shaking hands, they all quietly withdrew.

MacWherrell had boasted all along that he would rather hang than go to prison. His actions, however prove his insincerity in that particular.

The scaffold, which was only completed in the afternoon, will once more be taken down and stored away for future use. The sheriff and deputy, and in fact the whole community, are considerably relieved that the matter has taken this turn and that Peel will not suffer the disgrace of an execution.

VETERINARY CONVENTION.

Western Ontario Veterinary Medical Association Formed.

STRATFORD, Sept. 29.—The veterinary surgeons of Western Ontario held a convention in this city on Thursday and Friday, there being a fairly representative attendance from Perth, Huron, Waterloo, Bruce and Wellington counties. William Gibb, of St. Marys, president of the Perth county association, occupied the chair, W. J. McMaster of this city acting as secretary.

Interesting papers on topics pertaining to diseases and their treatment were read by Dr. Berger, of Listowel, and Dr. Walker, of Clinton.

Yesterday the convention formed an organization, to be known as the Western Ontario Veterinary Medical Association, for which the following officers were elected: President, Dr. Berger, Listowel; vice-president, Dr. Walker, Clinton; secretary, Dr. Carr, Kirkton; treasurer, Dr. McMaster, Stratford. Chairman Gibb read a paper containing much valuable information for the profession, after which various subjects were discussed affecting the interests of veterinarians, especially along the line of greater protection for legitimate practitioners and the elevation of the profession.

Fishery Seizures in Court.

ST. CATHARINES, Sept. 29.—A session of the Admiralty Court is being held here, Judge Macdougall, of Toronto, presiding. The court is being held for the purpose of trying the case in connection with the seizure of the fishing tug Grace, which the Government cruiser Dolphin, Captain Jack Peterson, seized for fishing in Canadian waters on April 21st last. The Government is represented by Mr. J. C. Eccles, of Dunnville, and Mr. E. Gregory Cox, of this city, while W. Manly German, member elect for the County of Welland in the local house, is appearing for the owners of the tug Grace. It appears that the cruiser Dolphin left Port Colborne at 2.30 in the morning of April 21st and had the Grace under seizure at 10.30, with all her nets and a quantity of other nets which were found in Canadian waters. There are about twenty witnesses to be examined and the case will probably end today.

Mysterious Disappearance at Meaford.

MEAFORD, Ont., Sept. 29.—Mrs. William C. Danseath, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., daughter of Mr. Christopher Clarke, of Euphrasia, has been on a visit here and not being well was staying with friends in town, to be near the doctor who was treating her. On Tuesday she left her friend's house for the doctor's, promising to come straight back, as a horse and buggy was in waiting to take her to her father's in Euphrasia. Strange to say, she has never been seen or heard of since that time, although search has been made for miles around. Parties were dragging the river yesterday, in fear that she may have been drowned.

Boys Stone the Baptist Mission.

QUEBEC, Sept. 29.—Some mischievous boys gathered in front of the Baptist mission last night and fired stones into the hall windows, breaking several panes of glass. A large crowd gathered in front of the hall, attracted by the noise. A couple of policemen soon dispersed the crowd and restored order.

A Fatal Lift.

YARMOUTH, N.S., Sept. 29.—Thomas Carr was on one of the wharves and tried to lift a barrel of fish on to a truck. A blood vessel burst and in a few minutes the unfortunate man was dead. He was 30 years of age and a boiler maker by trade. He leaves a wife and six children.

TAILLON'S PARIS LOAN

It is Regarded as an Outrageously Bad Piece of Financing.

CHAPLEAU AT THE BACK OF IT

The Lieut.-Governor Said to be Interested in Seeing the Loan Effected and is Working the Premier to That End—A Critical Time Expected.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—The Star, which is supposed to speak for Provincial Treasurer Hall, says:

"The new loan just made by Premier Taillon is being vigorously criticised on the street. As a piece of financing it is regarded as outrageously bad and calculated to have an injurious effect upon provincial securities. It is pointed out that a 3 per cent loan, payable in sixty years, issued at 77.33 is exactly equivalent to a 4 per cent loan at par. Rightly or wrongly the chief responsibility is attributed to the Lieutenant Governor, and it is freely stated that instead of the Lieutenant-Governor acting upon the advice of his Premier, the Premier is practically being controlled by his honor.

"Enquiries at the office of the Credit Foncier Franco-Canadien, of which Mr. Chapleau is the president of the bureau d'administration, or chief executive officer in this country, elicit the fact that, while M. Brolemann, the president of the Credit Foncier, is one of the directors of the Credit Lieonnais, M. Thors, vice-president of the Credit Foncier Franco-Canadien, is general manager of the Banque du Paris et des Pays Bas. The Banque du Paris is also the Credit Foncier's banker.

"The situation is regarded as critical for the Government because it is doubtful if any English speaking member of the Legislature will assume the responsibility for the loan and for the Government's general financial policy, as he would have to do if he accepted the treasury portfolio."

DIPHTHERIA IN ERIN.

It is Only Moderately Contagious and the Reports Were Exaggerated.

ERIN, Sept. 29.—The report circulated concerning the outbreak of diphtheria here was exaggerated. This is to be regretted, as the reports have been hurtful to the business interests in the village. The truth is that the epidemic is a mild one inasmuch as it is moderately contagious, and the proportion of deaths to the number of genuine cases very low. The impression that the germs of diphtheria are liable to attach themselves to people coming to town on ordinary business is foolish in the extreme.

The disease is now confined to a few houses, and inmates of these houses do not even go beyond their own gates, so that people coming in cannot possibly come in contact with infected persons. In cities and towns where they are seldom altogether free from the disease they do not get so alarmed, but in Erin where we rarely have anything of a contagious character, the people seem to be unduly afraid of it. In fact the placard houses are not so dangerous as the pasteboards would insinuate, and the number of these tacked up are apt to magnify the real state of affairs in the eyes of outsiders who are not acquainted with the true condition of things.

The panic, which at first did exist, has now entirely subsided, and there is no occasion to fear a further spread of the disease.

Canadian Trade Reviewed.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—Trade reports from leading centres in the Dominion tell of trade improvements. Jobbers at Toronto report business equal to expectations, particularly in dry goods and hardware. At Halifax trade is fairly active and the recent influx of visitors has stimulated trade in retail lines. In this city prices of tea, woollens and hardware are firmer and strong. Business is fairly active among shoe and leather merchants, but collections are unsatisfactory. On the whole, prospects are better than two weeks ago. Woollen mills are expecting orders in the near future. Bank clearings at Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax aggregate $18,672,000, fractionally larger than last week and 5 per cent. larger than in the like week last year. The provinces of Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick each report more business failures during the past year than for nine months of 1893, together with increased liabilities. Total business failures reported from the Dominion of Canada (and from Newfoundland) are 1,423, or 99 more than in nine months of last year. The total liabilities are $13,239,000, $217,000 more than last year.

Cayuga's New Town Hall.

CAYUGA, Ont., Sept. 29.—The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new town hall in Cayuga was performed according to Masonic rites by the most worshipful the Grand Master, W. R. White, yesterday in due and ancient form, assisted by the officers of the Grand Lodge. A very handsome silver trowel was presented by the reeve, Dr. Thompson, to the most worshipful the Grand Master, on behalf of the corporation of the town of Cayuga, with an appropriate address, which was responded to by the Grand Master.

The Grand Trunk in Canada.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Standard says:—Our city correspondent writes that an influential section of the holders of Grand Trunk railway stock are about to move for an investigation into the position of the company and adds that it is high time they did. Reform must come from Canada first. The company is probably being robbed and crushed out of its fair share of business by the Canadian Pacific railway, which has the Dominion Government behind it at all times and places.

Mr. Mercier's Condition.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—Mr. Mercier is keeping up his energy remarkably well. Bishop Bond walked down to Mr. Mercier's residence, accompanied by Lieut.-Colonel Bond, and enquired as to his state. He was disappointed at not being able to see him, as Mr. Mercier was very bad at the time. Last night Mr. Mercier was reported as feeling better than he has been for some days.

THE EASTERN WAR.

The Situation and its Possible Complications—England Interested in The Struggle.

The skill and courage with which the Japanese have conducted their operations have gained for them a high place in the sympathies of newspaper readers. One naturally warms to the side of the smaller combatant, and the contrast been Japan and its unwieldy foe is so marked that this feeling is aroused to its uttermost in this particular case. But apart from that, and entirely independent of what may be England's interests in the matter, the good wishes of the great majority of the people on this continent will be with the race which has shown so great a facility for confirming to civilized ways, and and adopting the manners and customs of what we flatter ourselves are the higher races of the world. A good deal of the feeling that was first manifested towards the Island Empire has been dissipated by subsequent events. The conclusion of a treaty with Corea, guaranteeing the autonomy of that country, so far as Japan is concerned, whatever the result may be, indicates that the war was not undertaken for mere land-grabbing purposes, but was necessitated by China's persisting in claiming a suzerainty over Corea, which was a menace to Japan. The preparedness of the latter country was somewhat inconsistent with the declarations that on it, but the apologists for Japan say that it was forseen long ago that soon or later the question of who was to dominate in the east must be settled.

In the meantime the war authorities of Japan, cheered with the remarkable successes that their troops have already achieved, are energetically forcing the war. The latest despatches state that the Japanese fleet has sailed on an unknown mission to an undesignated point of the compass, and that similarly an army of 30,000 men is embarking at Hiroshima for a destination that has not been revealed. These movements and preparations bode trouble for China and the eastern leviathan may well tremble through all her huge bulk. The wretched showing that her troops have made against the foe encourages the belief that she will be helpless to prevent a Japanese army marching to the gates of Pekin. Whether this is the Japanese programme is not known, but it is difficult to see how the war can be brought to a conclusionn without some decisive action of that kind. A victorious army, led by a General who has already earned the sobriquet of the Japanese Moltke, is now on the road to Moukden and should that place fall before them, there is no obstacle at present to their descent on Pekin.

The Chinese could

to the defence of the city, but it would be difficult to say which would be most dangerous to its peace, the ruffian rabble which forms the main ranks of the Chinese army, or the disciplined troops of the foe under command of Count Yamagata. The people of Tientsin could afford some testimony on this point. There, under the very eye of the Prime Minister, the Chinese troops looted and swaggered until the people prayed to be delivered from their protectors. The Chinese army, so far as can be seen, is a disorganized mob of robbers and cut-throats, only fit for service on the wild borders of the empire. China's strength lies in the vast numbers from which countless armies could be drafted, but without training and discipline, and without railways to move them where required, she is like a rudderless and masteless hulk at sea.

To Europeans the interest in the war lies in the possibility that western nations may be embroiled in it. During the past few days, Russian Ministers and the press have been protesting the pacific intentions of the great northern power. Some people in England think that she doth protest too much. The Czar is for peace, we are told. The Czar but it is a question if he is powerful enough to resist the onward sweep of Russia's traditional policy. On every shore of her great empire she is bound in the icy chains of an iron climate. The thirst for a southern port is stronger than the predilections of any czar. Frozen in for a considerable part of the year on the Baltic and on the Pacific Ocean, the open ports of Constantinople on the Bosphorus, and Shestakof on the Corean peninsula, naturally present strong temptations to her. It will take much protestation to make people believe that if a favorable opportunity offers she will not take the opportunity of seizing Shestakof or some equally available Corean harbor. The complete exposure of China's weakness will whet her appetite. Until now the reputed strength of the eastern empire has been a check on Russian aggression, not alone in Corea but in the Pamirs. Now that she is found to be not at all formidable, a complete change may be possible in the playing of the game. A new factor has, however, to be reckoned with. The events that have proved China's weakness have disclosed the capacity of the Japanese, and that power is vitally interested in keeping Russia out of Corea. Treaties may be arranged beween Russia and Japan, but they will stop short of allowing the Bear to set his paws in such close proximity to the Japanese coast, and in this respect the British and Japanese policy would coincide. The war will not spread if all the powers agree to leave Corea her territory and her autonomy; it would be difficult to prophecy where it would stop if these were infringed.

A NEW AND INTERESTING POEM NOW IN THE PRESS.

Will be Ready Early in October.

SENT FREE TO ALL PARTS OF CANADA.

This interesting poem, relating to the introduction of Diamond Dyes to the monarch and people of an oriental nation, is worth sending for.

The little book minutely describes the work and success achieved by one who was earnestly devoted to his mission. Few commercial travellers of the past or present ever handled a work so successfully and few, indeed, could be found strong enough to resist the bribes and temptations that were placed before the hero of the story. The little book is appropriately illustrated and will interest old and young.

This book and other interesting reading matter will be mailed to any one in Canada who sends a postal card with full post office address to Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, P. Q.

Death From a Simple Cause.

HAMILTON, Sept. 29.—Celista Jane Fletcher, aged 22, only daughter of Mr. David A. Fletcher, of Saltfleet, died of blood poisoning on Tuesday. Ten days ago Miss Fletcher scratched from her lip a large pimple which had made its appearance thereon. Erysipelas and blood poisoning set in, which resulted in death a few days later. Deceased lady was highly respected and her sudden death from such an apparently insignificant source has caused much sorrow in the neighborhood where she resided.

Demand for Montreal's Carnivals.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—There is a movement going on just now to revive the winter carnivals in Montreal. An informal meeting of a few of those interested was held, and it was decided to call a formal and public meeting to consult about the best way to make a thoroughly attractive event for the winter. The hotel men say that correspondence from the United States is full of queries as to why Montreal has left off having these carnivals.

Teamster Killed at Saltford.

GODERICH, Ont., Sept. 29.—A sad accident occurred at Saltford yesterday. Samuel Sanderson, of Dungannon, employed in teaming stone for the Goderich harbor works, was coming down the long hill near the brewery when the tongue of the waggon became loose in some way and the horses started to run away, throwing the deceased out and killing him almost instantly.

Grand Trunk Conductors Arrested.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—John Stone and James Mulligan, two Grand Trunk conductors, were arrested last night at the instance of the Grand Trunk railway on a warrant issued by the Attorney-General for robbing the railway company. The two conductors, it is alleged, were in collusion with a porter and have been robbing the company systematically.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Looking for Help.

Longing for Release From the Bondage of Suffering.

Thousands Must Die if Paine's Celery Compound is Not Used.

IT CURES THE WORST CASES.

Mr. George J. Smye Had Kidney and Liver Troubles and Indigestion.

HIS CONDITION WAS ALARMING

The Great Medicine Made Him Well and Strong.

He Says: "I am a Living Witness to the Worth of Paine's Celery Compound.

Although Providence has given to us and our children a glorious heritage—a land of plenty and peace; this fruitful Dominion—yet there are thousands looking and longing for help and release from bodily sufferings and infirmities.

The people who are calling for help and rescue from peril, have tested medical skill and the boasted virtues of numerous patents, but no relief or cure has come to them. They must perish—die—if their various troubles are not met by some honest and scientific remedy.

Amongst the suffering thousands we find those burdened with liver and kidney complaints, heart disease, dyspepsia, indigestion, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, sleeplessness, and a score of other common ailments.

Let all such take courage; thousands who have suffered in the past have been made well and strong by Paine's Celery Compound. This wonderful king of medicines has grappled with the most difficult cases—cases that were pronounced incurable by the doctors.

These honest facts should be sufficient warning and encouragement to those who seek a cure. Experience and severe test work has proven that Paine's Celery Compound alone can do the desired work effectually and well.

"I am a living witness to the worth of Paine's Celery Compound." These are the words of Mr. Geo. J. Smye, of Sheffield, Ont., a man respected and well known in his district. He suffered for years from indigestion and kidney and liver troubles. He had a most trying and disappointing experience with a host of medicines that did not even relieve him. Oh! blessed change, happy experience, when Paine's Celery Compound was used. He is now a well man, and able to work on his farm every day. The same blessed results may be yours, sufferer, if you use the same curing and life-giving medicine.

Mr. Smye writes as follows:

"It is with great pleasure that I testify to the value of your great medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. For nearly two years I suffered from indigestion, kidney and liver troubles. After trying several medicines that did not effect a cure, I decided to try your Compound. Before using it I was so low in health that I could not eat or sleep. I could not lie in bed owing to pain in my back; it was only by resting on elbow and knees I was enabled to obtain a slight degree of ease. Before I had fully taken one bottle of you medicine I began to improve. I have now taken in all fourteen bottles with grand results. I am a farmer and now working every day. Anyone may refer to me regarding these statements, or to any of my neighbors around Sheffield, where I am well known. I am a living witness to the worth of Paine's Celery Compound."

Mr. R. Ferrah, the popular druggist of Galt, Ont., vouches for the above statement made by Mr. Smye.

A Smallpox Case in Windsor.

WINDSOR, Sept., 28.—Henry Vineaux was taken to the pest house by the health authorities. He resides on Wyandotte street and is suffering from a well-developed case of smallpox. The health board has taken charge of the matter and hope to prevent a spread of the disease. How Vineaux took the disease cannot be explained, but he did not get it in Detroit, as he has not been across the river for some time.

A Fireman Fatally Suffocated.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—At a small fire at 264 State street last night a captain of the fire department was suffocated and four other firemen were so overcome by smoke that they came near losing their lives and are now being attended by physicians. The dead fireman is Capt. Jim Russell of company 10.

Burglars at Sutton.

SUTTON, Ont., Sept. 28.—Burglars went through the town and the Grand Trunk station and several stores were visited, but so far as known the thieves got only 85 cents. The safe at W. Barnard & Co.'s was blown to pieces, but even then the burglars got nothing. They stole a hand car and rode to Mount Albert.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all the impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

PERISHED IN A FIRE.

Two Lives Lost in a Big Blaze in Nanaimo, B.C.

NANAIMO, B.C., Sept. 29.—Fire broke out on the east side of Commercial street and before it was got under control a number of buildings, hotels and stores were completely destroyed. Two lives were lost and three persons badly injured. The fire started in the Royal Hotel at the corner of Wharf and Commercial streets. Thence it burned in a northerly direction along Wharf street destroying the frame fire hall and a carpenter's workshop. Running south the fire licked up the barber shop adjoining the hotel, spread to a cigar store and thence caught the Nanaimo hotel and restaurant, Morgan's tailor shop and C. E. Stephen's dry-goods store. Across the street, on the west side, Williams' frame block caught fire, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The Central hotel, Masonic building and Hirst Bros.' store were also ignited but were saved.

Pat. Maybee, bootblack, and Frits, the German bar-tender, occupants of the Royal hotel, perished. Two men and a little girl, also occupants of the Royal, were badly injured in making their escape.

Every man, woman and child in the city turned out to help in the work of salvage. That the newer part of the town is not completely wiped out is due to the strenuous efforts of the volunteer brigade, and the fact that there was no wind.

ACCIDENTS AT NIAGARA FAIR.

An Aged Laborer Badly Hurt—A Young Man Injured.

NIAGARA, Ont., Sept. 29.—Just at the close of the fair here yesterday, an accident occurred which somewhat marred what had otherwise been a very successful exhibition. During the trials of speed John Hannah, a laborer who lives near Homer, at the conclusion of a running race, stepped on the race track to get a better view of the finish and was struck by one of the horses and had his leg broken in two places and otherwise injured. Dr. Temple, who was on the grounds, examined his wounds and ordered his removal to the hospital where he was subsequently taken. Chief Police Reid took up a collection for the unfortunate man from the visitors and secured about $50 for Hannah, who is about sixty years old and said to be in poor circumstances.

A second accident occurred at the fair in which a farm laborer whose name could not be learned was seriously injured. The young man, while returning from the races, was run over, his arm broken and he received other injuries, to what extent is as yet unknown.

Ottawa's New French Paper.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—Ottawa's new French daily, Le Temps, is to be issued on October 15. It will be a seven column, four page paper. Mr. Oscar McDonnell, formerly editor and proprietor of Le Canada, will be editor-in-chief. The paper will be owned by a syndicate. In politics the new paper will be Liberal with Independent tendencies. The name of the new daily, Le Temps, was obtained in a peculiar way. In 1883 Hon. Mr. Mercier conducted a paper of that name in Montreal and had the title copyrighted. Almost his last act before his present serious illness was to have his notary transfer the title to Mr. McDonnell. In the transfer the consideration was put down as "friendship and esteem." Mr. McDonnell, it is needless to say, prizes the gift very highly.

The Sanitary Conference.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—The American Health Association appointed a committee to consider the question of the abuse of alcoholic liquors from a sanitary point of view. The prohibition question was shaved. The following office bearers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. W. Bailey, Louisville, Ky.; first vice-president, G. P. Conn, Concord, N. H.; second vice-president, Dr. G. Mendizabal, Orim Zaba, Mexico; secretary, Irving A. Watson, Concord, N. H.; treasurer, Dr. Henry D. Holton, Brattleboro, Vermont. The association will meet in Denver, Col., next year. The delegates left for Grosse Isle to inspect the quarantine station there.

Nothing Stands as High,

as a remedy for every womanly ailment, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Here is the proof. It's the only medicine for women so certain in its effects that it can be guaranteed. In every case, if it doesn't cure, your money is returned. Can anything else, though it may be better for a tricky dealer to sell, be "just as good" for you to buy?

"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and a complete cure for all the fundamental derangements, painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the sex.

For young girls entering at the critical "change of life"; for women approaching confinement; nursing mothers; and every woman who is "run-down," tired, or overworked—it is a special, safe, and certain help.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, piles, biliousness, indigestion, or dyspepsia and headaches.

Some people laugh to show their pretty teeth. The use of Ivory White Tooth Powder makes people laugh more than ever. Its so nice. Price 25c. Sold by all druggists,

DEAR SIR,—Replying to your favour regarding my experience with "HAIRENE," I beg to say I made a personal test with it, when it was first placed on the market, with results so gratifying that I have no hesitation in recommending it to my customers. The preparation now enjoys a very good sale with us, and I have yet to hear a user of it speak otherwise than most favorably.

Yours truly,
J. H. DICKEY, Druggist.

BURLEIGH.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The prize lists are out for the annual fair of the Burleigh and united townships agricultural society to be held at Apsley on Oct. 4th. Judging from the size of the bills the Industrial will be a circumstance compared to it.

Mr. H. S. Prouty met with quite a loss while away from home on Saturday. One of his cows broke into the corn field and helped herself rather too freely to the corn from the effects of which she died on Sunday.

Mr. Alfred Bass intends taking a gang of men into the woods soon for Jas. Lindsay, of Apsley. Alfred is quite a hustler and seems quite popular among the ladies.

Mr. John McFadden has just returned from Manitoba. He seems to have enjoyed the trip and speaks very favourably of the country.

Mr. Elgin Weaver is busy moving to his farm in Wollistan this week.

Mr. B. Hales leaves here Thursday for Toronto to attend the school of Pedagog.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McGill, of Apsley, were the guests of W. G. Wilson, on Sunday.

Miss Addie Hall was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Ratcliff on Sunday.

A very enjoyable time was spent at the basket social, held at Mr. Foster's, on Friday evening, in aid of the Sabbath School. Mr. J. A. McColl took the chair and made an interesting speech on "The prosperity of Canada as compared with the United States," after which the following programme was rendered, Miss Julia Hales presiding at the organ:

Chorus.....Choir
Superintendent's report.....
Duet.....Messrs. Hales and Emberson
Recitation.....Miss Maggie Wease

An intermission, in which the baskets were sold and their contents discussed.

Recitation.....Arthur Wease
Chorus.....Choir
Reading.....Mr. Lowry
Solo.....Mr. Emberson
Recitation.....Miss Cameron

It was brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet." Proceeds amounted to $7.00.

Daring Burglary at London.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 28.—A daring robbery took place at the residence of Charles Graham, 642 Waterloo street, yesterday. The thieves gained an entrance through a cellar window first and helped themselves to eatables and took a goodly supply to the house next door, which is new and not yet occupied.

East Middlesex Conservatives.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 28.—At the East Middlesex Liberal Conservative convention yesterday Mr. J. H. Marshall, M. P., was unanimously selected as the candidate at the next election for the Dominion Parliament.

Killed by a Grand Trunk Train.

ST. REMI, Que., Sept. 28.—On the Grand Trunk railway at St. Isidore Junction, yesterday, Alexis Bisaillon was so severely injured that he died in half an hour. He attempted to board a moving train.

Died From Diphtheria.

Our quiet village, says the Minden Echo, was thrown into quite an excitement, some days ago, by the announcement of a case of diphtheria in the family of Mr. Sampson Wright. Dr. Frost, of Kinmount, was called in and did all he could to relieve the sufferers, but was too late to save three of them, two fine boys and a little girl. The rest of the family are improving. Great sympathy is felt for the sorrowing parents in their loss.

"The Making of Canada."

It is not often that the citizens of Peterborough have the opportunity of hearing so distinguished a speaker as Principal Grant and upon a subject of such importance to every loyal Canadian as "The making of Canada." It is sometimes a matter of complaint that we have so few opportunities of hearing really first-class lecturers; may it not be because we do not sufficiently encourage them? Principal Grant combines, learning, eloquence and humor in perfect proportion. It may be safely predicted that no one who attends this lecture will regret it. Let the citizens of Peterborough see to it that the Principal has a full house on Tuesday evening.

A Sewer Blocked by Nature.

For some time past trouble has been experienced in gettting rid of the water used in supplying force to St. John's church organ. The sewer leading from the church property along Brock street to Water was opened up to-day, in order to ascertain if a stoppage of the drain existed and it was found that the roots of the trees had penetrated the sewer pipes through the cracks between the lengths, and had grown a clotted, sponge-like mass, which absorbed the water and created such a blockup as to render it impossible for the fluid to force its way through. The pipes are being relaid, today, and will be cemented together in order to prevent a recurrence of the trouble.

We claim to be as far ahead in our goods, as we are below in our prices. Grafton & Co.

PERSONAL.

Judge Clarke, C.P.R. solicitor, of Cobourg, is at the Oriental.

Mr. Thos. H. Benson, of Lakefield, was in town this morning.

Mr. W. G. Given, of Millbrook, was in town yesterday afternoon.

Mr. W. H. Ashton, of Campbellford, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. John Crane, of the Bank of Ontario, is removing into his new residence, 18 Gilmour street.

Miss E. B. Fegan and Rev. Father Connely, of Campbellford, are among the guests at the Grand Central.

Mr. Barton H. Brooks returned yesterday to Ithaca, N.Y., to resume his studies in the third year's course in electric engineering at Cornell University.

Mr. A. W. Strickland, paying teller of the Bank of Montreal, has received notice of his transference to the branch at Regina, N.W.T. He will leave to enter upon his new duties as soon as his successor arrives in town.

The Toronto Globe in Music and Drama says that the programme of Miss Jessie Alexander's opening recital on Tuesday includes among other selections a poem in childish dialect written specially for Miss Alexander by a young Canadian writer, Miss Alma McCollum, Peterborough.

THE BRIGADE AGAIN CALLED OUT

A Shed and Warehouse with their Contents go up in Smoke.

A blaze suspected to be of incendiary origin, broke out in the sheds in the rear of the premises occupied by Mr. John H. Glass, 565 Aylmer street, at nine o'clock last night. The family were all absent from home at the time the fire broke out, but the members of the brigade were soon on the scene and confined the flames to a warehouse and shed in the rear.

These two buildings with their contents were consumed. The loss is estimated at between six and eight hundred dollars, and the insurance amounts to five hundred dollars. It is placed with the Quebec Fire Insurance Company, through the Peterborough agent, Mr. H. B. Meharry.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Young men's meeting on Saturday evening, at 8 p. m. Short talks and good addresses. Come young man and bring a friend with you.

Gospel and song service Sabbath evening, at 8.30 p. m., will be addressed by Mr. Isaac Richardson, All are welcome.

An Inviting Programme.

A concert, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid, will be held in St. John's South Ward Mission, on Thursday evening, October 11th. The entertainment will consist of a scarf drill by eight little girls and a choice programme of vocal and instrumental music. Admission, fifteen cents.

He Struck Oil.

One day recently, says the Lakefield News, while Mr. P. Farley, who lives in Douro, about three miles from the village, was engaged in digging a well to water his cattle, he came to a rock, and striking vigorously with his crowbar he went through it. On withdrawing the bar oil immediately gushed forth. He filled a bottle with the liquid and had it tested when it was found to be genuine coal oil.

St. John's Church.

To-morrow both the rector and Rev. E. W. Pickford will make exchanges, the former officiating in Otonabee and the latter in Lakefield.

In Peterborough to-morrow Rev. C. W. Hedley will preach at St. John's in the morning and at the South Ward Mission in the evening.

Rev. Geo. Warren, of Lakefield, will preach in the South Ward Mission in the morning and at St. John's in the evening.

Furniture.

The long nights are coming and people are preparing to make home attractive. A. Clegg is now receiving, daily, the newest things in furniture. A full assortment in every line. Parlour suites, dining room furniture, all grades very cheap. In bedroom suites, the largest line ever offered in Peterborough, especially in suites ranging in price from $14 to $25—by far the best values ever offered. Fancy chairs, centre tables, spring beds, mattresses, pillows, etc.—A. CLEGG, 427 George street. dw

Take it Home to Yourselves.

Mothers and fathers, don't you recall in your school days how much better you could write with a long new pencil than an old one?

Were not the problems easier to solve when you fighted on a big "pad" you had just purchased?

Did you ever lose the reader, speller, or arithmetic when you had a nice new bag to carry the books in to and from school?

Now, be honest and fix up the children's outfit as though you were young again.

A few cents invested at the stationery department of the Peterborough Bookstore will give the children inspiration for study throughout the term. A. H. STRATTON.

A Hop Blight.

The Kingston News says: Hop picking is now a thing of the past, and hop growers, in the vicinity of Bethel at least, are a sorry lot. The crop, generally speaking, was very good, but about the middle of September hops began to turn brown and even black in many cases. Not more than half the hops had been picked when this blight, or whatever it may be called, struck them, and in a few days they were scarcely any left worth picking. It cannot be explained. Even the oldest hop men never saw anything like it before. The crop is smaller than was anticipated, and it now makes prices better, if so, it may be a blessing in disguise. A great many yards have not been picked at all. Some others have been half done and so on.

A Noted Artist.

Regarding Miss Eva N. Roblin, who takes part in the Charlotte street church concert on Oct. 16th, the Daily Standard of St. Catharines speaks as follows:—"A voice of exceptional sweetness has Miss Eva N. Roblin, of Toronto, who gave three selections in a manner that really surprised the audience. Her rendition of Haydn's 'With Verdure Clad' from 'The Creation,' shows what a wonderful compass her voice has without losing any of its richness, while a 'Song of Life' gave Miss Roblin an opportunity of showing how much feeling she could put into her singing. The sympathy expressed in the music of this song was fully brought out, and many of those present were inclined to shed tears as the last sweet notes died away. For the first time Prof. Read's composition of 'Abide with Me' was sung by Miss Roblin with organ and 'cello accompaniments.' The music is very sweet, but very high, and but comparatively few singers will be able to sustain the notes. That it will be popular there is no doubt, but it will not be sung much on account of the exceptionally strong voices required to sing it."

Effects of the French Treaty—Clarets at Half Price.

The Bordeaux Claret Company established at Montreal in view of the French Treaty are now offering the Canadian connoisseur beautiful wines at $3 and $4 per case of 12 large quart bottles. These are equal to any $6 and $8 wines sold on their label. Every swell hotel and club are now handling them and they are recommended by the best physicians as being perfectly pure and highly adapted for invalids' use. Address Bordeaux Claret Company, 30 Hospital street, Montreal.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—Council meets on Monday night.

—Farmers are busy drawing apples and ploughing.

THE MARKETS.

The market to-day was an active one. Prices were high and the demand was above the average, especially in dairy products. Choice butter brought 23 cents a pound, while crock butter sold for 20c and firkin at from 18 to 20c, cheese 12 to 13c, eggs 12 to 13c, chickens 40 to 50c, ducks 50 to 60c per pair, geese 40 to 50 cents, turkeys 50 cents to 75 cents, extra large, one dollar. Honey 10 to 12 per pound. Fruit was more scarce and the prices firmer. Apples brought 60 cents per bag, grafted 75 to 90c, plums 60 to 75c. per basket, pears 30 to 35c. a peck, grapes four to five cents per pound. The meat market was better to-day and the prices were low, lamb selling by the quarter at 7 to 8 cents per pound, while mutton was a cent cheaper. Pork brought from 7 to 8c., beef 4½ to 6c. The grain market is becoming brisk; wheat is quoted at 53 to 55c, peas 56 to 58c, mummies 56 to 60c, oats 29 to 30, mixed 28c, barley 40 to 45c, rye 40 to 45c. Hay $8 to $8.50. The live stock market was lively all week, all kinds of stock being in great demand and selling at advanced prices.

IMPROVEMENTS ON THE SITE OF THE NICHOLLS' PARK.

Men and Teams at Work Levelling up the Grounds—The Cricket Crease and Tennis Grounds.

Through the courtesy of Mr. T. A. S. Hay, an EXAMINER man was shown over the site of the Nicholls' Park, on Smith street, extended, yesterday afternoon, and was delighted to find how the work was progressing there under Mr. Hay's direction.

The park which is most pleasantly situated on the hill sloping up from the Ashburnham side of the river, will have three entrances. The first one is on Smith street, just on the other side of the railway, and the other two are in the north-eastern and south-eastern corners respectively, the former being on Smith street and the latter on Concession street.

On entering the park by the north-western, or first named entrance, the driveway will be laid out along the base of the hill, past the prospective tennis grounds, and on in a directly southern direction to the limits of the park, where it will turn and surmount the hill on a gentle grade and around the top, affording several magnificent views from the summit. Just inside the entrance are some fine large trees, which will afford shade for the tennis players, and a little further up is a clear, cold spring which will be transformed into a fountain of beautiful design.

On the plateau, on top of the hill, the cricket grounds (easy of access by street railway to the town), will be laid out and men and teams are at work levelling it off for that purpose. The crease will be 300x300 feet in size, and the size of the entire portion of the grounds to be devoted to the cricketers will be about four and a half acres. Encircling the cricket grounds, which are to be on a dead level, a third of a mile in length, will be laid out for the bicyclists. Outside the track the grounds will be graded to slope gradually away to their natural level.

It is the intention to remove the barns and cottages on the place with the exception of Trafalgar cottage, the residence of the late Colonel Bray, which will be repaired and left standing for the accommodation of a caretaker and his family.

Smith street cuts the park into two portions, twenty-four and a half acres being on one side and about four and a half on the other. It is the former portion which has been briefly described. The smaller part is than the larger and will be left in its naturally wild state for the present. Little or no improvement could be made, other than trimming away the dead wood from some of the trees, and clearing the grounds, as the place is most attractive as it is.

In the main portion of the park the proposed driveways are only staked out, but a fair idea can be gained of what the executors of the Nicholls estate propose doing towards improving the grounds and a visible change will be perceptible in the course of a very few days, as Mr. Hay, who drew up the plans, is pushing on the work most rapidly.

THAT OPEN LETTER.

The particulars of a remarkable cure of consumption, after the patient had reached the last stages, related in the article published in the EXAMINER last week under the heading "An open Letter from a Prominent Physician,' has caused much comment. It is well known that physicians, as a rule, are averse to speaking words of praise for an advertised medicine, however meritorious it may be, and when one of them casts this prejudice aside and gives in plain unvarnished language the particulars of a case that must take rank among the most remarkable in the practice of medicine, it is not only a noteworthy triumph for the medicine in question, but also reflects credit on the physician who has cast aside his professional prejudice and gives the result of his use of the medicine for the benefit of suffering humanity. In the articles published from time to time, vouched for by reliable newspapers, the public have had the strongest evidence that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is a medicine of remarkable merit, and now to these is added, on the authority of a well known physician, over his signature, the particulars of a cure of consumption through the timely use of Dr. Williams' famous Pink Pills. It cannot be to widely known that a remedy has been found that will cure this hitherto deadly and unconquered disease, and if any of our readers have not read the article to which we refer, we would advise them to look up last week's issue and give it a careful perusal. The facts related may prove of valuable assistance in a time of need.

SMITH.

Death of James Stabler.

On Thursday evening Mr. James Stabler, one of the oldest residents of Smith departed this life at the family residence, lot 15, con. 7, Smith, at the age of 80 years and six months. The deceased gentleman was a native of England and came to this country when a mere youth. He was one of the earliest settlers, sharing with the other pioneers the hardships of early residence in the wilds of Canada. One of his frequent experiences was the carrying of flour on his back from Port Hope to his home. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Kelso and the result of the union was the birth of nine children, of whom two—the eldest and second youngest daughters—are dead. The surviving children are all married and live in this county. They are, in the order of age, Mrs. John Robins, Smith; Mrs. Wm. McIlmoyle, wife of deputy-reeve McIlmoyle; Mr. J. K. Stabler, Smith; Mr. Wm. Stabler, Smith; Mr. Joseph Stabler, Harvey; Mr. H. C. Stabler, town, and Mr. John Stabler, Smith. The deceased was in politics an active Liberal, as are all his sons, and in religion a member of the Baptist communion. He was held in very high respect by his hundreds of acquaintances in the county. The funeral takes place to-day from the family residence to Lakefield cemetery at 3 o'clock.

THE MRS. SEWARD BENEFIT CONCERT.

A Big House—An Excellent Programme—Herr Klingenfeld's Brilliant Violin Work—Highly Successful Entertainment in Every Sense.

The benefit concert in favour of Mrs. L. Seward and family, given in the George street Methodist church last night was a most gratifying success. The attendance was large, the spacious and beautiful auditorium, floor and galleries well filled with an audience largely representative of every religious denomination, and the same circumstance applies to the contributors to the programme, which was a decided treat to the audience. It was rather longer than it might have been except for the desire to have it representative of talent from all the religious bodies. Mayor Kendry kindly occupied the chair and introduced the several numbers. The programme opened with a cornet solo, a fantasia on "Nearer My God to Thee," by Mr. John Miller, in which he achieved a pleasing softness of tone. Mrs. (Dr.) Hunter followed with a very satisfactory rendering of the beautiful selection Gounod's "Jerusalem," which was warmly applauded. The decided musical treat of the evening was the artistic violin performance of Herr Klingenfeld, the head of the violin department of the Toronto College of Music. His selections were a double number, (a) Chopin's pathetic nocturne in E flat, arranged by the great Sarasate, and (b) Gipsy melodies by Sarasate, and a solo for the fourth string by Bach. Herr Klingenfeld's playing was a positive treat—a delightful example of genuine artistic work. His tone is singularly sweet and pure and challenges the warm admiration of the cultured taste. His harmonics are remarkably clear and captivating. His executive ability is in keeping, as was conspicuously shown in his brilliant performance of Sarasate's "Gipsy Melodies"—"Ziguenerweisen,"—the mingled harmonics, pizzicati and arpegii, presenting technical difficulties that were overcome with ease. The recurring glissando rippled from the finger board like pearls. The playing of the fourth string piece by Bach was wonderfully done, the tone being rich, broad and singing and the expression exquisite. In replying to an encore, he performed the air of Bonnie Doon, with perfect double stopping, and the attentive listener might detect the warble of the birds the song refers to. Altogether Mr. Klingenfeld created a decidedly favourable impression. He reaches his effects by legitimate use of his instrument, his repeseful position being in strong contrast to the facial grimaces, shakings of frowsy hair and like trickery, by way of appeal to popular admiration which are the abhorrence of artists, like Joachim, Sarasate, Marteau, Musin and Yunck. Herr Klingenfeld made a very strong impression last night, and laid the foundation of a hearty welcome should be return to Peterborough. Mrs. Marie Klingenfeld contributed two fine numbers, an aria from Carl Von Weber's "Der Freischutz," and an aria from Bach's Passion Music, St. Matthew, with a beautiful violin obligato beautifull given by Herr Klingenfeld. Mrs. Klingenfeld's method is tastefully artistic, her intonation being exact and her phrasing delightful; her voice is sweet and gives evidence of thorough culture. Her special success lies in vocal instruction and voice culture. Her artistic work was very warmly received.

The other numbers of the programme were a delightfully given recitation, "The Sign Painter," by the marvellously clever little elocutionary genius, Miss Lola Ostrom; the pathos and depth of her reciting is truly wonderful, and the wonder grows that a child of such tender years and little experience of the world, should have such remarkable conceptions of the spirit of her selections, and the equally remarkable ability to give them forceful and artistically judicious expression. The Delsarte movements expressive of the several emotions incidental to her selections were very cleverly done. Her encore number, "Why Girls Will Wed," a decided contrast in style, was recited with charming piquancy. Mr. Manning, tenor, gave a fine and forceful rendering of Piccolomini's "Ecce Homo." A duet, "Forever With the Lord," by Miss Fawcett and Mr. Davis, was excellently rendered. Mr. Shaw scored a great success in his singing of the "Ave Maria," from Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana," and was warmly recalled. Braga's exquisite "Angel's Serenade," received an excellent and artistic interpretation by Miss Vair, Miss Louise Yokome contributing the violin obligato, sympathetically and sweetly. This number gave great pleasure to the audience. A charming blending of voices characterized the singing of "Ora pro Nobis," by Mrs. Seward and Mrs. Stapleton, whose contribution was very cordially enjoyed and received. St. Paul's church choir, under the efficient leadership of Mr. John Crane, gave a very finely balanced production of the anthem, "Hark! Hark! the Lord," by Shelley, Miss Montgomery and Mrs. Sanderson taking the solos. Mr. Mulligan, choir master of St. Andrew's, sang with fine effect a selection, "In Glory Shone," from the "Creation," and concluded a programme which was, altogether, one of the most pleasing that has been presented in Peterborough for some time.

The several accompaniments were well supplied by Mrs. Klingenfeld, Miss Clark, organist of the Charlotte street Methodist church, Mr. Clark, St. John's, and Mr. Schneider, George street Methodist church.

The financial outcome will be on a par with the excellence of the programme, a no inconsiderable sum, which will be known and announced in a day or two, having been realized.

All persons having tickets to sell for the above concert, unsold, will oblige by returning or reporting to Mrs. Yokome, 85 Gilmour street, by Monday next.

ENNISMORE.

Death of an Old Resident—Mr. Patrick Leonard Passes Away.

On Friday, Sept. 28th, Mr. Patrick Leonard, one of the pioneer residents of the township passed away to his rest, at the venerable age of 89 years. The deceased was a native of the city of Cork, Ireland, and came to Canada with the Robinson colonization party, in 1825. He was a carpenter by trade and plied his calling successfully nearly half a century, working at light jobs to within a short time of his death. He was a sturdy man on his feet and up to a year ago, thought it no uncommon feat to walk from his home to town, a distance of some 10 or 12 miles. His wife died about 35 years ago. He was the father of thirteen children, of whom seven are living. All the surving children, with the exception of Mr. Martin Leonard, who lives in Ennismore, are residents of California. Mr. Leonard was highly respected in the township, where he has spent so many years of his long life. The funeral takes place on Sunday next, at 9 o'clock. The remains will be laid in the Ennismore cemetery.

TESTING THE TEA.

Ladies And Gentlemen Gather to Sample the New Blend.

Yesterday afternoon and to-day, ladies and gentlemen kept dropping into Mr. Thos. Brad's store to avail themselves of an opportunity of sampling the new brand of Grand Mogul tea.

The tea was brewed by a young lady expert sent out from the headquarters of the company, who are introducing the brand, and the universal opinion appeared to be that in richness of flavour, strength and piquancy it is equalled by few and surpassed by no blends.

The tea is done up in pound packages and enclosed in an air tight paper wrapper. It is not sold in the bulk and this comes cheaper to the customer, as tea is being paid for a not lead, as in the case of the bulk quantities, which are sold of other blends.

How to Get a "Sunlight" Picture.

Send 25 "Sunlight" Soap wrappers (the wrapper bearing the words "Why Does a Woman Look Old Sooner Than a Man") to LEVER BROS., Lt'd, 43 Scott street, Toronto, and you will receive by post, a pretty picture free from advertising and well worth framing. This is an easy way to decorate your home. The soap is the best in the market, and it will only cost 1c. postage to send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends open. Write your address carefully.

$5 IN CASH FREE

To each and every Lady that buys 20 cents worth of PETROLIA WASHING FLUID and used it eight times in succession at her washing and goes strictly by the directions printed on the labels. If it injures the fibre of the finest garment or won't clean the clothes cleaner and whiter, with less work, less soap, less wearing of the clothes rubbing them; if you don't find it better than the old way of washing in every respect, call and tell your grocer about it, and in what way it failed to do its work, and he will tell me and I will tell the company and you will get $5 if you are entitled to it. Beware of imitations, for there is a fluid called by the same name, but not the same directions. Buy no other but the kind that is wholesaled by

W. E. McCALL.

A GREAT MANY CHILDREN

—have been cured of scrofula and other skin diseases—as well as thousands of grown people, by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Every disorder that can be reached through the blood, yields to its purifying qualities. Besides, it builds up wholesome flesh and strength; not merely fat like Cod liver oils. A scrofulous condition of the blood invites Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. We're all exposed to the germs of consumption, grip, or malaria—yet only the weak ones suffer. When you're weak, tired out, and debilitated, or when pimples and blotches appear—heed the warning in time. The "Discovery" sets all the organs into healthy action—especially the liver, for that's the point of entrance for these germs, then if the blood is pure, they'll be thrown off. There's no risk. If it fails to benefit or cure in all cases of impure blood or inactive liver, your money is returned.

The key to the situation—if you suffer from Catarrh, you'll find in Dr. Sage's Remedy. No matter how bad your case may be, the proprietors of the medicine promise to pay $500 if they can't cure you. You're cured, or you're paid.

RIOTING IN RIO DE JANEIRO.

The City a Military Camp—Hundreds of People Killed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A special from Montevideo says: Admiral da Gama asserts that there has been rioting in Rio de Janeiro, lasting five days, accompanied by outrages on Portuguese merchants, instigated directly by President Peixoto, who incited soldiers, dressed as citizens, to make an attack on the pretense that they wanted to break up a meeting of the royalist conspirators.

Rio, it is reported, looks like a great military camp, soldiers patrolling the streets, cavalry encamped in public gardens and launches patrolling the harbor front.

The number of killed is stated to be 828 and 123 wounded entered the hospitals. Many of the wounded were taken to their homes. Most of the fighting occurred near the water's edge and many bodies were cast into the harbor.

The damage to the property of Portuguese, British and other foreign residents will amount to $1,500,000.

Admiral da Gama exhibited a telegram giving this news. It was not addressed to him, but was in cipher and sent to a well-known Englishman here. The Brazilian government sent out a revised authorized account of the riots to a London news agency and to the United states. Strict censorship is maintained. The soldiers and marines sent against the rioters fired blank cartridges, it is said.

The British Minister has asked for a guard at the legation and residence. This was granted.

The British legation is crowded with refugees, who, although promised protection by the authorities, are afraid to go on the streets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A special from Rio Janeiro says: One hundred and ninety-seven persons have been arrested for being implicated in the riots of the last four days. Italian and Portuguese houses have been fired. The police and marines are active. Many cries of "Death to the tyrant!" were heard. Troops are held in barracks and sailors with boats are ready to land. President Peixoto announces that aid from foreign warships is unnecessary.

An Unfounded Report.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The Brazilian legation here has received information that the reports of riots at Rio de Janeiro are unfounded.

A London View of American Politics.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Chronicle, in an article on the political situation in America, which, it says, grows more complicated daily, expresses the belief that amid its uncertainties one thing seems certain, and that is that there will be a large silver vote, if not an absolute silver majority in the next Congress. Mr. Cleveland is disposed to coquette with the silver men, and altogether a more curious and mixed situation was never known. It believes the campaign will be exceedingly lively.

Fight Between Armenians and Turks.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—News has just been given out here of a serious fight at Tokat September 1 between Armenians and Turkish officials and gendarmes. The Turks were searching houses for an Armenian fugitive from justice and were resisted by the Armenians who assembled in force and attacked the gendarmes. In the ensuing fight several Armenians were killed.

A Reverend Gentleman in Trouble.

BUFFALO, Sept. 29.—Rev. Frederick Stiles, Episcopal rector of Des Moines, Ia., got on a spree here, ran out of money and passed a bogus cheque for $35 on a city saloon keeper and was arrested. Rev. Stiles secured a postponement of his case while he wired to Birmingham, Eng., for $5,000.

A Vagrant Brother of a Noted Actress.

BUFFALO, Sept. 29.—Judge King sent to the penitentiary as a vagrant a man about 30 years of age who says he is a brother of Lizzie McCall, the noted actress whose present suit against Ward McAllister's son is the sensation of New York society.

Cardinal Gibbons Called to Rome.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Chronicle's Rome correspondent says the Pope has called Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, to Rome, his Holiness being desirous of again seeing the American cardinal before he dies.

Double Hanging in Texas.

PARIS, Tex., Sept. 29.—Eugene Faulks and Tom Morse were hanged here for murders committed in the Indian territory.

It is important to keep the liver and kidneys in good condition. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for invigorating these organs.

What everyone says must be true, and every one who has used Wide Awake Soap says it is the best they ever used. Have you tried it yet?

Some Curious Trees.

On the Canary Island grows a fountain tree—a tree most needed in some parts of the island. It is said that the leaves constantly distill enough water to furnish drink to every living creature in Hiero; nature having provided this remedy for the drought of the island. Every morning, near this part of the island, a cloud or mist arises from the sea, which the winds force against the steep cliff on which the tree grows, and it is from the mist the tree distills the water.

China, too, claims her remarkable tree. This is known as the tallow tree, so called from the fact of its producing a substance like tallow, and which serves the same purpose, is of the same consistency, color and smell. On the island of Lewchew grows a tree about the size of a common cherry tree, which possesses the peculiarity of changing the color of its blossoms. At one time the flower assumes the tint of the lily, and again shortly takes the color of the rose. In Thibet there is a curious tree known as the tree of the thousand images; its leaves are covered with well-defined characters of the Thibetean alphabet. It is of great age and the only one of its kind known there.

The ocobab tree is considered one of the most wonderful of the vegetable kingdom. It appears that nothing can kill this tree; hence it reaches an astonishing age as well as an enormous size. The natives make a strong cord from the fibers of the bark; hence the trees are continually barked, but without damage, as they soon put forth a new bark. It appears impervious to fire and even the ax is resisted, as it continues to grow in length while it is lying on the ground.

In Mexico there is a plant known by the name of Palo de Lecho. It belongs to the family of euphorbia. The Indians throw the leaves into the water and the fish become stupified and rise to the surface and are then caught by the natives. In this case the effect of the narcotic soon passes off. The milk of this plant thrown upon the fire gives out fumes that produce nausea and headache. The milk taken internally is a deadly poison; it will produce death or insanity according to the size of the dose. There is a popular belief among the lower class in Mexico that the insanity of the ex-Empress Carlotta was caused by this poison.—San Jose (Cal.) Mercury.

The Human Eye.

The apparatus for keeping the eye moist is complex and efficient. It comprises the lachrymal gland, which secretes the tears; the lachrymal caruncle, a small fleshy body at the inner angle of the eye; the puncta lachrymæ, two small openings at the nasal extremity of the eyelids; the lachrymal ducts, which convey the tears into the nose, and the lachrymal sac, a dilatation of the canal.

35,000,000 Pages Per Year.

Shanghai boasts of the largest mission press in the world. In connection with it is a type foundry, where electrotyping and stereotyping are also done. The press has fonts for printing in many languages and every year sends out more than 35,000,000 pages.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th,—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIERK, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of SALOONS IN ENGLAND.

INTERESTING TALK OF OLD AND MODERN DRINKING PLACES.

They Are the Common Meeting Ground in the Provinces Where Affairs of State Are Discussed—The Barmaid and Her Duties—Ancient Public Houses.

For those who have little or much money amusements are plentiful in London. The music halls in the east end are cheap, and there are many theatres for the man of small means. Every place of amusement is open to the rich. In the summer there are excursions on the Thames, and cheap trips can be made to river and seaside resorts. The provincial—the man who lives outside London—is not so fortunate. His choice of amusements is very limited, but he makes the best of what he gets. The dwellers in the big cities have plenty of fun, too. It is the resident of a small town who is sadly put about for lack of manufactured jollity, and he has to wander around making his own fun.

The public house, or "pub" as it is called, is a great institution in the provinces. In the bar parlors, with their carpeted floors and cushioned chairs, the ship of state is steered by a man whose tongue becomes loosened with drink. There are men in the sandy-floored drinking rooms that propound crude ideas of socialism over the flowing bowl, who run the government of the country, and who seek to show others how much better it would have been if the grand old man had never tried to give home rule to Ireland.

That inherent fondness for poetry which seems implanted in the provincial shows itself in the names of public houses in his small town. He has labeled his drinking saloons "The Pig and Whistle," "Dog and Dart," "Three Pigeons," "Horse and Jockey," "Black Horse Inn," "Cock and Trumpet." No one but an Englishman has seen a blue lion, so he chronicles the fact by naming a pub after this wonderful animal. Then he has selected his own way of handing down the names of heroes to posterity. Boniface gets an artist to paint a portrait of Nelson and with this sign over the door he calls his place "Lord Nelson Inn." In fact, Nelson seems to be the most popular man among the topers, for he stands guard over hundreds of public houses in England. In the villages nearest some nobleman's house the chief pub always bears the name of the family. The "Devonshire Arms" is near the duke's residence and "The Gladstone Arms" may be found near Hawarden.

There are some pubs which are so old that they seem hardly able to bear the burden of years. These are the ones that strangers like to visit. Their oak settles, their quaint parlors and their foaming tankards of home-brewed ale take one back hundreds of years. Chester has many of these ancient inns, with their immense oak beams forming a black net-work on the white front. Manchester boasts of "The Seven Stars" near Shudehill market as the oldest licensed house in Great Britain. This is a quaint old building with diamond-paned windows. As you enter the door you dip your head quickly lest your hat should strike the top of the low doorway. The sand gives out a crisp sound, as you crush it on the whitened floor. A narrow passage, a drop of several feet and you reach the bar parlor, where the young cavaliers during Charles the First's time used to drop in to sup ale or mulled wine. The fireplace occupies one side of the room, but if you stand in the centre you can almost touch each side of the parlor and your head almost touches the ceiling.

If these ancient inns were the only pubs in the provinces they would almost reconcile a teetotaler to the good brown ale of England. But the nineteenth century bonifaces have altogether different ideas of what a pub should be. They have glittering, gorgeous gin palaces, crowded with mirrors; they have concerts at which all sorts of songs are sung; and they pander to the lowest elements. As every public house has a number of barmaids, some pretty and some otherwise, it seems strange that the strictly moral John Bull should not legislate against the employment of girls in such capacity. Yet the barmaid's life is not one round of temptation and insults from drunkards, notwithstanding her surroundings. In the big cities she is more exposed to temptation, as her identity is more or less lost. But in the towns of 100,000 inhabitants downward she preserves her dignity and she can always find a champion who will smite the man who dares to say a wrong word to her. When a man becomes boisterous it is often a few words from the barmaid that will make him leave before the bouncer appears.

During the daytime there is little excitement in the pubs, as few provincials are free from work before 6 o'clock. On market days the farmers take possession of the best inns and clinch bargains over a pot of ale. Towards 8 o'clock the fun begins, particularly in the winter. If there is some measure up in the house of commons for passage an excited discussion will be started and various plans will be laid for the best government of the country. The man who will talk gets on his feet and does not cease until some other ambitious orator interrupts him. Then the pianist or the amateur violinist will play and as soon as a note is sounded a man in the crowd is sure to sing a costermonger song. The singer or player is then asked to drink, and the merriment continues. A song with a jolly chorus is always appreciated. In some of the pubs they have paid singers, but in the quieter and more respectable inns everybody does his own singing. It is like a clubhouse or a family party, with the women left out. The Englishman in the provinces manages to enjoy himself in this way, though he has not the same privileges and amusements as his brethren in the big cities and in the metropolis.

As a general rule, it is best not to correct costiveness by the use of saline or drastic medicines. When a purgative is needed, the most prompt, effective, and beneficial is Ayer's Pills. Their tendency is to restore, and not weaken, the normal action of the bowels.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

THE MOTHER'S OUTING.

'Tis Lily's sash; and have you brought the bag?
And did you close the windows? Come here, Will!
Dear me! Your handkerchief looks like a rag—
How warm you are! I wish you could keep still;
Don't race about the boat. Yes; by-and-by We'll—Bridget, please don't let the baby cry.

That is the Battery, and that's the—Jess,
Come off that railing, and sit here by me:
Or, stay with Bridget, if you like. I guess
You'd better put your coat on. That's the sea.
Off there—you can't be hungry yet, my son!
Where are the biscuits? And give Lily one.

Bridget, why is the baby crying? Hush,
Ted, Lily, Jess! You mustn't romp like that;
Just see those little steam tugs, how they rush—
And watch the waves. Good gracious! Mind your hat,
You'll lose it overboard—oh, oh, oh, oh!
You reckless, careless boy. I told you so!

Your nice new hat! Didn't you hear me call?
You'll be tanned black—run after Lily, quick;
The boat rocks so, she's sure to get a fall.
Jess, what's the matter? Are you feeling sick?
You look so pale, lean down your little head;
Get her some ice-water, and hurry, Ted.

Oh, don't eat peanuts! You want lemonade?
Well, here's a dime; but, mind you, don't go near—
Why does the baby cry so? I'm afraid
I'll have to take him. Bridget, fetch him here.
And see what those young mischiefs are about.
I wonder why I ever bring them out?

TOOTH FILLING.

A Great Economical Improvement About to Be Made.

One of the most important improvements in modern dental practice is on the point of being accomplished. It will consist in the substitution of porcelain for gold in the filling of teeth, especially in places where repairs are likely to show. For this purpose a piece of thin platinum foil is introduced into the "cavity," and so manipulated as to take the exact form of the hole, as if it were intended as a lining. Then it is carefully withdrawn, so as not to disturb its shape. Thus is obtained a mould, from which a porcelain cast may be made to fill the cavity exactly. This is secured in place by cement. The trouble is that no cement as yet invented is proof against the dissolving power of the fluids in the mouth.

By the use of an electric light in connection with the little mirror introduced into the mouth, the teeth and alveolar processes are brilliantly illuminated and rendered translucent. Thus anything wrong about the teeth may be quickly discovered. Perhaps the dead tooth may be hidden in the jaw, never having been erupted, and may have been the obscure cause of trouble for years. The light reveals it at once.—Providence Journal.

Memory Weakened by Tobacco.

Those annoying and unaccountable lapses of memory experienced when one is unable to recollect some well-known word or the name of some perfectly familiar friend are attributed by a French physiologist to the excessive use of tobacco. This gentleman has observed that aphasia and amnesia are at present almost unknown among the gentler sex. On the other hand, has nearly invariably found these afflictions common in men who are habitually heavy smokers, while in cases where they are only of rare occurrence he has frequently known the extraordinary lapse to have been preceded by an extra dose of the fragrant weed. It is comforting, however, to be assured by the same authority that a moderate use of pipe or cigar is in no way harmful to the memory.—Westminster Gazette.

Latest in Photography.

If only the fertile brain of the Scotchman who has recently brought out a bullet that photographs its quarry, were directed aright, the world might be startled by a really useful invention. The bullet photographer is a highly magnetized piece of steel containing a piece of sensitized paper and pierced in the front with four minute holes. When within a few yards of its victim the film is removed from the perforation, and an exact reproduction of the object impressed on the sensitized paper.

A DISAPPOINTED MAN.

Thought he Was Going to Die Before Summer Was Out But He's Alive and Well and Working To-day.

Somerset, Man., Sept. 17th.—"Hard times" is the cry from farmers in this country. Arthur Coley, a farmer living near here, has had double reason to cry "hard times," for eight months ago he lay on his back in bed, a victim of Bright's Disease. He acknowledges that he expected to be dead before the end of the summer, but his expectations have been most pleasantly disappointed, and all summer he has worked on his farm just as though he had never known a day's illness. Last spring he began taking Dodd's Kidney Pills and a few boxes completely cured him, as they have every other victim of this disease, who have used them.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST
About Pianos!

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $60 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

"AN ALL ROUND MAN"
CAN'T DODGE THE OVERCOAT
QUESTION.

One of our good live preachers delivered a stirring sermon the other Sunday on the subject of "The All Round Man." Among some of the good thing the EXAMINER reported him to have said, was:—"A man with self will and well defined ambition alone, was incomplete. He "must have breadth, and height, and length, to attain that moral excellence and symmetry of character which would approximate the ideal of the "All Round Man, he had endeavoured to present."

We cordially endorse every word of the above; but, from our point of view, the All Round Man is still incomplete without an OVERCOAT. Men judge by appearances. If there be sermons in stones, books in the running brooks, and good in every thing, THERE IS LIFE IN AN OVERCOAT and the All Round Man is not complete without one. To-day, too,—

OUR TEXT IS "OVERCOATS"

We have'nt had an opportunity to say a word lately about OVERCOATS; but, we have a few COLD facts for you now. When you are ready to "shake" your summer duds, we're ready to serve you with winter ones. No man, who has any respect for his pocket book can help "feeling" for it when he sees our pile of New Overcoats just out of the case. If you imagine we can't RETAIL Overcoats at WHOLESALE prices, you're imagination fools you. No barbed-wire-high-priced fence around our Overcoats.

No adjective, however strong; no statement, however extravagant, can exaggerate our banner stock of Light and Heavy Weight Overcoats for Fall and Winter wear. Keep on paying war prices for Overcoats if you will, but let the name of GOUGHS remind you that you needn't. Giving you merely good value doesn't satisfy us—we aim to give you BETTER VALUE than you get elsewhere. No matter what you have been accustomed to paying or to wearing, we'll show you a $7 Bargain in an Overcoat that you can't afford to ignore—whoever you are.

Light Fall Overcoats for $5.75, $7.50 and $10.00, fit for any business; and any man who wears one of these can readily palm it off as a custom-made. Every garment a novelty, made by artists of the first standing. Don't pay other dealers $12 to $15 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $9. Don't pay other dealers $8 to $10 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $5. GOUGHS OVERCOATS ARE FLYERS!

Mothers, save!—by buying our reliable Boys' Overcoats at Goughs, for we are giving extraordinary values for little money. We show every new idea for this fall. Now, will the tailor get all your money, or may we sell you one of our rightly made tailor Overcoats at a price about a third of what the merchant tailor demands?

LOWER AND LOWER go the Prices. HIGHER AND HIGHER we grow in public estimation. FINER AND FINER grades of goods all the time.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS."

An Alleged Canadian Absconder Found Working as a Hostler in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21—Daniel Campbell, an ex-Canadian postmaster and legislator, was arrested here, charged with embezzlement, and was found working as a hostler.

Campbell, it is alleged, left Moosomin, Assiniboia, Canada, where he was postmaster two years ago, taking with him something over $900 of the Government's money. He sent his wife and daughter to England and he came to Chicago, where he has been living ever since, working at odd jobs. A few days ago Campbell registered a letter to his wife in England, giving his correct name and address. It was through this that he was discovered. He came down considerably from his high position and was found doing menial work in a livery stable.

The Gale Did Not Materialize.

TORONTO, Sept. 29.—The West India hurricane that has been hovering about the Atlantic seaboard for the past week, threatening to shoot over to the lake region, has become exhausted, and is now dispersing in the neighborhood of North Carolina. It is still blowing a gale on the New Jersey coast. It is very cold in the Northwest, there being a snowfall at Prince Albert yesterday. An eclipse of the sun took place yesterday, but was not visible in Canada. It was total on the west coast of Africa and partial in East Africa and Australia. The phenomenon was confined almost wholly to the southern hemisphere.

A French Schooner Caught Smuggling.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., Sept. 29.—The French schooner Pink Quick, 160 tons, Capt. Leblanche, from St. Pierre, has been seized near Sonris by the cruiser Kingfisher, having over a thousand dollars' worth of smuggled liquors and tobacco on board. The cargo was removed to the customs house. The schooner has been dismantled and will be burned. This is the second time this schooner has been caught smuggling.

A Civil Case Against Newsome.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Sept. 29.—Inspector de Barry received a letter from the Washington authorities acknowledging the receipt of his communication regarding the failure to indict Wm. H. Newsome, of Toronto, Ont., and approving of the bringing of a civil suit, also expressing the hope that it would meet with success.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Sept. 29, 1894.

Wheat in Chicago closed weak, the main influence being lower cables. The weakness in corn continued until the close. Oats, following wheat and corn, closed 3-8 to 1-2c lower.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Six hundred bushels of wheat sold at 54c for white, 53c for red and 50c for goose; 700 of barley at 42 to 44c; 150 of peas at 61½c, and 1,500 of oats at 30½ to 31c. Outside wheat went took a drop and is now quoted at 50 to 51c. Few sales are being made above 50c, however.

Amongst the offerings at the East Buffalo live stock market were 11 cars of Canada lambs, of which ten cars were sold on orders at the ruling prices between $4 to $4.40.

At East Liberty the sheep supply was light; two loads for sale; demand fair and market at about steady prices.

At St. Louis sheep receipts were 483; market steady; mixed, $3.60 to $3.85; lambs, $4.

The tone of the London stock markets was irregular but dull on the whole.

A big deal was closed in Wall street yesterday by which about $6,600,000 of New York capital goes in the new Universal Gas Company of Chicago. The Universal is the company in opposition to the Chicago Gas Trust and lately had been able to obtain franchises and privileges in Chicago which permit it to compete with the trust on an advantageous basis.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The sixth annual excursion of the steamer Golden City to the Lindsay fall show passed through Thursday, returning Friday with a merry crowd on board.

The first annual picnic of the True Blues of Young's Point will be held in the Methodist church grove here on Wednesday, Oct. 3rd. The Fourth Line Smith Band will furnish music for the occasion, and a large time is anticipated.

The steamer Mary Ellen is busily engaged those days towing wood from Deer Bay belonging to Mr. W. J. Young.

Mr. Fred Fanning, Selwyn, spent a few days with friends in our village this week.

Mr. Gunter, the energetic clerk of the Gilmour Co., passed through here yesterday on his way north looking after the interests of the company.

The school boys played a game of baseball at Lakefield on Saturday and were defeated by a score of 13 to 6. Another game will be played here on Saturday.

Mr. W. A. Fobert, Chemong, is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Ashburnham, for the past week have been renewing old acquaintances here.

Mrs. Costello, Peterborough, is visiting her sister, Mrs. McFarlane.

Miss Lottie Kearney spent the past two weeks visiting friends in Peterborough and Lakefield.

Miss Emma Scollard has returned home after a long stay with friends in North Bay.

Mrs. Richard Heard has returned home after a few days with friends in Peterborough.

The third drive of the Gilmour Co. is now running over Burleigh.

Mrs. Patrick Young, sr., is dangerously ill.

Quite a number of our American friends have been rusticating in our village for the past two weeks, and they report the fishing very good. Among the number we notice Col. Eddy, and Messrs. Wall H. E. Welcher, Wm. K. Barlow, of Rochester.

Ashamed To Be Seen

Because of disfiguring facial blemishes is the condition of thousands upon thousands who live in ignorance of the fact that in Cuticura Soap is to be found the purest, sweetest and most effective skin purifier and beautifier in the world. It is so because it strikes at the root of all complexional disfigurations, viz: THE CLOGGED, IRRITATED, INFLAMED OR SLUGGISH PORE.

For pimples, blackheads, red and oily skin, red, rough hands with shapeless nails, dry, thin and falling hair, and simple baby blemishes it is wonderful.

Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug and Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

Fitted, aching, nervous mothers know the comfort, strength, and vitality in Cuticura Anti-Pain Plasters, they would never be without them. In every way the purest, sweetest and best plaster for women and children.

Millinery Opening Days

WILL NOT BE TILL

Wednesday and Thursday

SEPT. 26th AND 27th,

When our Millinery and Mantle Show Rooms will be opened for the Fall and Winter trade, crowded with all the latest novelties the season produces. We are a week later than some of our neighbors but as early as other seasons, and are giving our milliners ample time to do their work properly, and show all the leading shapes trimmed in the various styles and colours, and have, when our lady friends visit us, something worth showing to suit every taste, and the weather is likely to be more seasonable. Those who wish to get the correct style and have the largest stock to choose from should not purchase till they see ours. We have been very careful in selecting our Mantles to get the latest cuts and styles of Trimmings and buy only from the largest manufacturers, therefore we are confident we are showing a range of Mantles that for style and prices is not often seen in Peterborough. A cordial invitation is given to all to visit our show rooms and inspect our stock.

SOMEONE ELSE'S DUPE

Absconder Larivee Says He is Not Guilty of Forgery.

HE IS RUN DOWN IN BROOKLYN

He Jumped His Bail in Montreal When He Found Indictments Were Found Against Him for Forgery, and Now He Says He is Sorry.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Louis Larivee, 24 years old, who is wanted in Montreal for forgery, was arrested in the Brooklyn postoffice. Up to January last Larivee was in a brokerage business with a man named Gauthier in Montreal. Shortly afterwards he disappeared. Then it was discovered that a number of checks he had discounted at the Bank Nationale, of Montreal, were forgeries. He was traced to Chicago and arrested. He was taken back to Montreal and placed under $5,000 bail, pending the action of the grand jury. In June the grand jury indicted him, and when he heard this, he jumped his bail. The amount of Larivee's forgeries is not definitely known, but it is thought to be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Louis Larivee is said to be well connected in Montreal. He was a custom house broker. While the charge on which he was arrested is only that of larceny of a few hundred dollars Queen's Detective Carpenter, who came to Brooklyn to take the prisoner back, says the irregularities will probably reach into the thousands. The complainant against Larivee is the National Bank of Montreal.

A friend wrote him a letter addressed under an assumed name to 157 Sands street, Brooklyn. The letter was traced and detectives placed on the case. These detectives learned that Larivee was seeking employment. They called at the Sands street house and left word for their man to call at the postoffice for a registered letter. They watched the federal building several hours and finally Larivee walked up to the window and asked for the letter. He was then taken into custody.

"I am sorry I ran away," said Mr. Larivee yesterday. "There is no proof against me. When this affair is investigated it will be found that I have been made the catspaw of rascally people."

Detective Carpenter said he understood Larivee referred to his former partners in the brokerage business.

HE VIEWED THE SCAFFOLD.

MacWherrell Has a Look at the Gruesome Machine—Death of a Bramptonian.

BRAMPTON, Oct. 1.—Mr. Geo. Graham died at his residence at Elizabeth street, aged 74. Mr. Graham has been identified with the County of Peel for many years and has held the position of county treasurer ever since the separation of the county of York and Peel. He has also been the presiding magistrate of the town for the last twenty years. Prior to his moving to Brampton he was a successful farmer at Grahamsville. He was also for many years treasurer of the Provincial Exhibition and for a number of years a local preacher of the Methodist denomination and was at the time of his death an official of St. Paul's church. In politics he was a staunch Liberal.

Preparations had been made to convey MacWherrell and Williams, lately sentenced to three years in Kingston, to-morrow morning, but on account of the death of Mr. George Graham, with whom Sheriff Broddy had been officially associated for so many years, will no doubt delay the removal of the prisoners till Wednesday. On Saturday crowds of people visited the jail and yard where the scaffold still stands. MacWherrell and Walker were both out to inspect the gruesome object. Walker acted as master of ceremonies and explained its operations. Walker is as lively as a cricket and appears quite contented.

Mr. John E. Wood, a most respected citizen of Brampton for thirty years, was committed to jail for contempt of court for 21 days. Mr. Wood was at one time in comfortable circumstances, but fire and a series of financial disasters has at last landed him within the stone walls of the county jail.

A Mystery Cleared Up.

MONTREAL, Oct. 1.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of E. A. Benjamin, the well known business man and social favorite, has been cleared up. Friends of the missing man have received letters from him stating that he is in New York and that he will probably return to Montreal at an early date. The real reason of his disappearance is said to be a purely domestic matter and his friends are much incensed at the sensational stories that have been published concerning him and his financial transactions. Several of the firms which it was claimed were victimized deny the statement and declare that Benjamin's transactions with them were perfectly straight. Benjamin's friends say that he will shortly return to Montreal.

Heavy Gales Off Newfoundland.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., Oct. 1.—A fierce gale has been raging here since Saturday. Two of our fishing vessels returning from Brasil anchored off the harbor mouth. There was no tug to bring them in, the Graham, the only one attached to the harbor, having gone on an election cruise to Fogo. Two other crafts anchored in the same neighborhood, and one of these was abandoned owing to heavy seas. They are in dangerous situations and if the wind changes there is no hope for their safety.

IN BRITISH POLITICS

Awaiting a Ministerial Declaration With Regard to the Lords.

QUESTIONS FOR NEXT SESSION

Will the Premier Make a Direct Statement of Policy on This All-Important Question—The Unionist Programme Falls Through—Radical Hostility.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Both the private appeals and public warnings by the leaders of the Irish party have failed to disturb the reticence of the ministers with regard to the policy they intend to pursuing the coming session of Parliament, and the position of affairs politically verges on a great crisis. Lord Rosebery shirks in every way bringing before the cabinet the question of the Government's policy with reference to the House of Lords, fearing that dissensions will arise and that the ministry will be disrupted through the withdrawal of the members opposed to the abolition of the peers' veto power. Since the retirement of Mr. Gladstone, although the question of abolishing the veto power of the Lords has been in the fore front of the country's politics it has not once been discussed by the cabinet. Every section of the Liberal party is waiting with strained anxiety for some ministerial declaration, while Lord Rosebery urges them to be patient.

The edition of the programme recently proposed by the Duke of Devonshire and Mr. Chamberlain, making the complete absorption of the Unionists by the Conservatives, the chief feature of which was the revision of Mr. Chamberlain's scheme for Irish local government to the extent of creating county councils, with the central legislature located in Dublin, is now doubtful. Lord Rosebery's communications rather indicate that until the Cabinet shall have settled upon the policy to be pursued regarding the House of Lords at the councils to be held in November and December, no definite pronouncement upon the subject ought to be expected.

The feeling of distrust of the sincerity of the premier is not confined to the Radicals and the Irish, but pervades the whole of the Liberals and only a straightforward declaration of policy of the House of Lords and Home Rule questions can save him from being overthrown.

In a recent written letter Mr. Henry Labouchere says he despairs of the Government and that he and those acting with him in the future will pursue an independent course. Messrs. William O'Brien, Justin McCarthy and Timothy Healy have made concurrent declarations, in which they notify the Government that unless the Government's attitude in the House of Lords is clearly defined at the opening of Parliament they will use their undoubted power to bring about a dissolution. If Lord Rosebery decides to satisfy these demands, he will find it necessary to reconstruct the Ministry, expelling therefrom the element hostile to the Lord's reform.

Once the Irish leaders are made to feel absolutely certain that a bill abolishing the Lords' veto power will be introduced it is understood that they will allow the Government to act at their discretion as to the time of the measure's presentation to Parliament. Lord Rosebery has already promised the Welsh members that the first measure to be considered at the coming session shall be the bill for the disestablishment of the Church in Wales.

The Conservatives, as soon as a bill depriving the House of Lords of the power to veto shall have been announced, will adopt obstruction tactics on every measure presented and will continue on this course until the House of Commons and the public at large shall have had ample opportunity to discuss in full its bearings upon such a vital change.

Gladstone and Local Option.

Mr. Gladstone is out in a letter affirming his adhesion to local option, though, he says, he hoped further steps might have been taken to cope with the frightful evils of drink. This letter from the ex-Premier has restored the equinimity of the temperance people, the organs of which advocated the issue of an ultimatum by the Goverment on the subject.

Taking Dr. Emmet's Advice.

Archbishop Croke, of the diocese of Cashel, in an interview had during the past week said that he thoroughly agreed with the views expressed in the recent letter of Dr. Thomas A. Emmet, president of the Irish National League in America, to Mr. Justin McCarthy, in which the writer strongly condemned the public discussion of dissensions which might arise in the party. The advice of Dr. Emmet seems to have been taken, for throughout the week the voice of leaders have harmonized on most points and internal disputes have not been heard.

The G. O. M.'s Eyesight Restored.

The Weekly Sun announces that Mr. Gladstone's eyesight has been completely restored and that he now reads and writes as usual and is working very hard.

JAPAN'S GREAT SCHEME.

If Successful She Will Divide China Into Three Kingdoms.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from its Berlin correspondent:

"The London agent of the Frankfort Zeitung has been informed by a personage intimate with affairs in Eastern Asia that the Japanese intend, if their good fortune continues, to divide the Chinese empire into three independent kingdoms to be ruled over by native princes. One kingdom is to be given to Li Hung Chang, who is cognizant of the scheme. If necessary Japan will summon a conference of the European powers to decide as to the division.

"The Frankfort Zeitung says: 'This scheme is not so wild as it at first appears. Japan's object is to weaken China permanently. Russia will not tolerate the annexing of Corea. The execution of the scheme would be helped by the antagonism between the Chinese and Manchurins."

A Dutch Fight With Robbers.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 1.—A despatch from Java announces that the Dutch forces have captured Mataram, Lombok Island. A concurrent attack was made on three sides of the town. The fighting was stubborn and lasted eight hours. On the Dutch side one officer and twelve men were killed and four officers and 45 men were wounded. The Balinese lost heavily.

ILLNESS OF THE CZAR

The Ruler of All the Russias is a Very Sick Man.

HIS AILMENT BRIGHT'S DISEASE

And He Caught a Chill While Waiting in a Cold Room for Tidings of a Favorite Son—He Will Spend the Winter in Livadea.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The Standard's correspondent in Berlin is authority for the statement that President Leyden diagnosed the Czar's ailment as bright's disease in an advanced stage.

On the other hand the Vienna Tageblatt maintains on the authority of a Russian diplomat maintains that the Czar is suffering from neurasthenia coupled with anaemia in addition to kidney disease.

The Czar's condition, it is said, was made worse by a cold which he caught two nights before leaving St. Petersburg. He went to the telegraph office in the winter palace at 1 o'clock in the morning and dictated a message to Abbas Taman in the Caucasus concerning the health of his favorite son George and waited an hour and a half in the dark bare office for a reply from the doctor. He was not satisfied with the reply and returning to his bed-room threw himself into an arm chair and wept. He cried: "Oh God, what have I done to be so severely punished." The Czar could not sleep through thinking of his son.

During the first night of his stay in George's residence in Spala the Czar arose from his bed and went to his son's room and watched his sleeping son for a long time. When returning to his room he went through a cold passage and was attacked with rheumatism, which made his condition still worse. It is said that he greatly prefers George to the Czarewitch.

The Times publishes the following despatch from its correspondent at St. Petersburg:

"The Czar and Czarina and Grand Duke George will start immediately for Livadea, where they will pass the winter. The imperial yachts Polar Star and Tsarona will sail on Monday from Fronstadt for the Crimea. The Czar has lost enormously in weight in the last few weeks. He now looks very ill."

EITHER SUICIDE OR MURDER.

Mysterious Circumstances Surround a Woman's Death at East Jordan.

CHARLEVOIX, Mich., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Hannah Holborne, who died very suddenly at East Jordan last July, was at the time acting as housekeer for Wm. Morrison, a teamster of that town. Morrison was a widower with three children and Mrs. Holborne was a widow with two children. She had kept house for him over a year. Her sudden death caused talk and her stomach was sent away for analysis. Yesterday Prosecuting Attorney F. W. Mayne, of Charlevoix, received word that the analysis showed undoubted evidence of poisoning by strychnine, this drug being present in the stomach in large quantities. The post-mortem at the time of the woman's death showed that she was in a delicate condition.

Shortly after Mrs. Holborne's death Morrison was married to Miss Edith Cole, with whom he is now living. Morrison has always borne a fair reputation. The certainty that Mrs. Holborne was poisoned makes it evident that it was either suicide or murder.

The prosecuting attorney is now en route for the scene of the crime and talks of making arrests.

Rescued From a Living Tomb.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 1.—Rescued from what was believed a certain death on Thursday when a portion of the workings of the Northwest Colliery at Simpson near Carbondale caved in, Wm. Mitchell, George Arney, John Fanning and Andrew Klapowsky are the objects of demonstrative rejoicing in the village. Yesterday when it became a certainty that all four were alive, the agony of Thursday was turned into rejoicing. The men were faint from the lack of food and drink but these were supplied them and they were shortly after midnight restored to their friends, hundreds of whom stood at the mines mouth to receive them. Their escape from death is regarded as almost a miracle.

The Deed of a Drunken Brute.

CHASKA, Minn., Oct. 1.—Louis Scharf and family, who had attended the fair, started home in the evening. Scharf was intoxicated and was driving fast. When within a block of the river he was stopped by J. Kunza, of Minneapolis, who told him to drive slower. Scharf promised to do so, but no sooner was he released than he whipped his horses furiously and dashed down the river bank over the ferry and into the river. His wife, five children and Miss Mary Roskua, Mrs. Scharf's sister, were drowned. Scharf clung to the waggon box and was rescued.

Bound and Robbed by Masked Men.

TIFFIN, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Four masked men approached the home of Levi Keller, a wealthy farmer of Reed township, at dusk and successively secured Mr. and Mrs. Keller, their hired man and a neighbor who came to their home on an errand and bound them to four separate beds. After ransacking the house and securing $80 and four watches the robbers left in Mr. Keller's buggy. Miss Bloom, a seamstress in Melmore, was bound and robbed of $180 the previous night presumably by the same men.

Robbed and Nearly Murdered.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—T. Peterson, of Kenosha, Wis., was waylaid by four men on Chicago avenue and robbed of $70 and a gold watch and chain. After robbing him the men fled, pursued by Peterson. He succeeded in capturing one of them, Thomas Harrity, when the latter drew a revolver and shot him three times, probably fatally wounding him. Harrity and his companions were arrested.

HAVE YOU A VOTE?

To be entitled to vote in Dominion elections a voter must be:

(1) British subject twelve months in Canada.

(2) Twenty-one years of age, and

(3) Have one of the following qualifications:

(a) Have been a resident in Canada for twelve months.

(b) Have owned for twelve months real estate value—

$300 in cities,
$200 in towns,
$150 elsewhere.

(c) Earn $300 a year.

(d) Be a farmer's or owner's son.

There are some other qualifications for uncommon cases.

No time limit of residence is required for an "income voter."

An occupant or owner for less than twelve months can, if so entitled, claim under the income qualification.

All applications to have names placed on the list must be made before Oct. 15, or the applicant will have to attend court and give evidence.

An income voter who has applied to have his name placed on the Ontario voters' lists must again apply to have it inserted on the Dominion lists, or he will not have a vote.

The simplest way for an income voter, or for a person who has taken up his residence in the country within the last eighteen months, is to apply to Liberal committees with whom the necessary paper may be signed without trouble and without cost to the voter.

Let there be no delay. Next election will be won or lost on the voters' list now being compiled.

A FEW weeks ago the people were asked to denounce the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier because he kissed the babies, and this week they are told that he is a very bad man; a wickeder man than you ever took him to be, because he attended a prayer meeting in the Methodist church while at Sault Ste. Marie, on his way to the Northwest. What a terrible man this Mr. Laurier is who is leading the Liberal party! Well, if Mr. Laurier kisses the babies, if history tells the truth, some cabinet ministers and their saintly colleagues would not stop there. And was it not better for Mr. Laurier to spend a few moments worshipping in a Methodist church than to be holding clandestine meeting with the wives of civil servants, whose interests he might have found it in his power to advance. But when we find the Government organs basing their attacks upon Mr. Laurier because he kisses the babies, or because he accepted an invitation with his travelling companions to attend a service in the Methodist church, we cannot but think that they have at last discovered that their opposition to the Liberal leader has disappointed them in its results. Possibly Mr. Laurier attended the Methodist church in the hope of learning what there was so very bad in it as to cause Sir John Thompson to turn his back upon it.

Mrs. Dunseath's Body Found.

MEAFORD, Oct. 1.—The body of Mrs. W. C. Dunseath, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., who disappeared from here on Tuesday last, was found in the river just above the woollen mill dam. It is supposed she became low-spirited over her illness and threw herself into the river. Dr. Cameron, of Owen Sound, will hold an inquest.

Mr. Higgins Finds a Backer.

Thrown From a Waggon and Killed.

NORWICH, Ont., Oct. 1.—John Lumsden, a farmer living about four miles east of here, whilst driving home with a load of apple pummies, was thrown from the waggon and killed. He was a married man with a family and about 55 years old.

THE C. P. R. WITHDRAWS.

Quebec Will Not be Called Upon to Accept the Repayment.

MONTREAL, Oct. 1. — The Canadian Pacific has withdrawn notice of its intention to pay the Quebec Government $7,000,000 due on account of the North Shore Railway.

Said Vice-President Shaughnessy, of the C.P.R.: "Under our contract with the Quebec Government for any purchase of two sections of the Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and Occidental Railway, we had the right after March, 1894, to pay off the purchase money of seven million dollars by giving the Government six months notice and the Government had the right to demand payment of that sum at any time after 1894 by giving six months notice. As the interest charges under the the contract were five per cent., we were naturally anxious to pay the debt as soon as possible and thereby reduce our annual interest charge, as we have been able to borrow for some years past at a trifle under four per cent. Indeed our four per cent. debentures are now quoted at 103 1-2."

"In June last we notified the Government of our intention to pay at the end of six months. Secretly it was intimated to us that the Government might desire to negotiate with us for the retention of the amount which I believe can only be used for the redemption of provincial bonds maturing in 1904, and 1906 and to the redemption of which the proceeds of the sale of the railway are stated to be pledged. In view of the large sum involved, it was thought best for the convenience of both parties that pending negotiations the notice should be withdrawn by mutual consent and both the Government and the company restored to the position which they would have occupied had no notice been given. This has been done. It is the desire of the company to do whatever is most convenient and best for the province without injuries affecting the company's interest. The notice of withdrawal was sent yesterday."

Affairs of the Grand Trunk.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—In disproof of the suggestion of the default of the Grand Trunk made in the Economist, the company announces that on October 13, it will post the warrants for the quarter's interest on the 4 per cent. debentures. The amount of this stock is $10,381,234. Mr. Household, the late auditor of the Grand Trunk, is again agitating for a committee of enquiry into the Grand Trunk's affairs. His cry is meeting with some success and to this may be attributed the article in the Standard referred to, but it is doubted if he can induce the shareholders to reject Sir Henry Tyler as president at the annual meeting on October 30.

Mr. Blake to Speak in the States.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The Irish National Federation of America sends out the following: "Invitations to Hon. Edward Blake, M. P., to address a public meeting on the Irish home rule question in several of our large cities have reached this office. As the time which Mr. Blake can devote to public meetings is limited to between the 17th and 27th of October he will be forced to decline many of the invitations. Mr. Blake has accepted invitations to speak in New York on the 17th of October, Philadelphia on the 25th, Brooklyn on the 26th and in Pittsburg, Atlanta and Memphis if it is possible to fix dates between the 17th and 25th of October."

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

PETERBOROUGHIANS UP NORTH AFTER GAME.

THEIR EXPLOITS AND THE DEER THEY SHOT.

The Gun Club's Outing in the Wilderness—On their Return they Tell some Good Stories.

The following racy narrative is reproduced from the Toronto Empire, to which journal it was contributed by a Peterborough young gentleman, who could have added even increased interest to the narrative if he had embellished it with a few of the sketches for the execution of which he is already noted:—

There were nine of us in the crowd, to say nothing of a cook and twelve dogs. We were the first detachment of a hunting party. The second division was to follow seven days later, on the 19th of October. We were stowed away on two waggons. The horses were headed for that small chain of lakes which lies in Central Ontario, in the county of Peterborough. We were now about 33 miles distant from these lakes, which distance was to be made by waggon. All were hardy hunters, who always, as long as we could remember, had hunted on the shores of these lakes for a fortnight or so each autumn. All could follow a trail as well as the native Indians. Some of us were lucky anglers, but all could tell fishy stories.

We were on our way to our annual hunt. We all felt jolly. No one but he who is accustomed to follow the hounds enjoys so well that feeling of realizing that life is worth living, and that there is something to be got out of it. But we were not to have clear sailing. It had been raining for several days, and the ground was very soggy. In one place we sank down to the hubs in mud.

WE GOT HAND SPIKES, and pried the waggon to the surface again. Then when we had proceed a little further we found a huge tree across the road, evidently blown down by the wind. By dint of heavy lifting we cleared the road. We had no other mishaps till we reached Buckhorn, where we lay off for dinner. The inner man satisfied, we advanced six miles without any disaster; but what a time we had then! Our waggon broke down, and was utterly useless. Just at this momene it began to rain, lightly at first, but steadily increasing in volume. "Uncle," who was the oldest in the party —the advisor and pilot as it were — began to rap out a cuss-word or so. His face was a study, and the boys (I may be permitted to say boys, for we were young in spirit) would cast a glance at his sour expression, look at each other and laugh. Uncle would not allow us to fix the waggon, but advised us to borrow one with a hay rack, which, of course, we had to do. As we changed our load the rain came down faster and faster. We dragged the load on for two miles to a farm house. We were by this time in a sopping mess of mud and water. The

and it was impossible to tell them apart. The old farmer was very good to us. After we had washed and changed our clothes he gave us a good hot supper. That supper did taste excellent. It may have been because we were hungry, very hungry, in fact, yet it will be a long time before I shall relish another meal as I did that one. After tea we lit our pipes and sat around an old-fashioned fireplace. The rain poured outside, but we did not mind it, for the large crackling log gave out a comfortable glow. We kept on telling all kinds of stories till an old clock groaned out 2. Then we retired.

A ROUGH TRIP IN.

After an early breakfast we started across country to Gull Lake, about five miles away. By chopping away fallen trees and clearing the trail at places we reached the lake at 9 o'clock with our cargo. From here we had to transport our baggage by watér, but the lake was so rough we could not venture upon it. By chance we found an old camper friend of ours, with his tents pitched on the lake shores not far away. He gladly took us in, and we stayed with him until the following Monday. Early Monday morning we loaded up our canoes almost to the water's edge. We reached a suitable place of encampment in the course of a few hours. The rest of the day was spent in pitching tents and laying out camp.

It was then the 15th of October, and the hunting season did not open for a week. We had in the meantime a few days fishing and partridge shooting. Sometimes we would stand in a narrow stream, and with rod and line haul in, in fast order, speckled trout. What delicious moments those were when that voracious fish would tug at the sweeping line. Then, again, in the pale moonlight, under the shadows of those bending pines, and in the morning, sometimes before 3 a.m. (by gosh!) our canoe would glide noiselessly along as we trolled for maskinonge. Our long line would swerve and dash backward and forward as we captured, sometimes a 20-pounder. The excitement would be great till he was cracked on the head and landed, with imminent danger of upsetting the frail craft. Then, sometimes, we would assail the feathered tribe and bring to camp some tasty ducks.

THE TWO TOMS.

There were two Toms in our party. There is a little incident of their outing which one of them does not like repeated. It is this: They were paddling together one day in the same canoe. As they were passing through some swampy water their canoe caught on a snag and upset. As a natural consequence they were both precipitated into the water. The smaller of the two could not swim. When he came to the surface he spluttered and splashed around and when he saw the bigger Tom quietly swimming away he gave out a wild shout of despair. The other Tom turned back to help him and when he got quite close to him the smaller one made a wild lunge, attempting to throw his arms around the burly fellow's neck. The larger one, however, seized him by the coat collar and held him out at arm's length and swam with him this way to a large log close by. He placed him a-straddle of this and left him there, looking like a very much scared and half drowned rat. There was a smile on the big fellow's face, and no amount of coaxing would persuade him to help the little Tom from his embarassing position. He hurried away to bring the boys. When they arrived the upturned canoe and the hat at a distance told the story. We all had a hearty laugh at his expense and as he was relieved from his position he smiled a little himself.

Once I remember during the first week we had a very stormy night. It was rather more chilly than usual and early in the evening we were all hugging

THE GLOWING CAMP FIRE.

It way a typical camp scene. The sharp gusts of wind would carry the flames this way, then that, sometimes they almost licked the branches of the trees above. We sat around the fire late that night, for we were loth to leave. The wind blew shrilly through the trees and altogether it felt more comfortable than it would be apparently any place else. We were forced to move, however, for a sudden downpour of rain extinguished the fire. When inside the tents we sat listening to the rain coming down heavier and heavier and the wind increasing. Although our tent was placed on high ground for just such emergencies, yet a small stream of water was running through it. This kept getting larger and larger till there was quite a little rivulet. Some of us had to stand on upturned pails, boxes, etc., to keep dry. As there was only one burdette the others had to place their bedding right on the ground. The wind kept getting wilder and wilder. We could hear the breaking of the waves on the rocks. Now this would be lost in the swish of the wind through the trees. The tent would sway from side to side; then it would be jerked backward forward. The lights were blown out by a sudden gust of wind. Then confusion was worse confounded. One would shout out, as the water gradually rose to where he was sleeping. He would seek a dryer place, and in seeking it, tramp over everyone else. A crash came from one corner as some one upset the lamp and a howl of pain from the person it fell upon. Then there was an awful roar—a snapping of ropes and the canvas and poles came down on top of us, all in a mess. The main pole had fallen across "Uncle" and he was nailed fast, his feet kicking in the air. With a mighty effort we raised the poles and sat in puddles of water till grey dawn, holding the tent up.

A HUNTER'S PARADISE.

On the 19th of October we all paddled down to meet the remainder of the party. For the rest of the outing it was hunting, nothing but hunting, and many deer met their fate. The place was and is a hunter's paradise. There was an abundance of game, on account of the deer having been preserved by the game laws, which are very strict in this part of the country. In our first day's hunt we killed three deer, two bucks and a doe. The deer were driven to the water by the dogs and then shot, as was also one of the bucks. The doe was shot as it coursed through the woods. The other buck was not disposed of so easily. One of our Toms was not exactly a veteran and his lack of experience nearly cost him his life. I may say here, it was the "Little" Tom. When the old buck was driven to the water, this Tom happened to be out paddling. He saw the buck swimming out and thought it was making straight for him. He flurried around, made a wild dash with his paddle and upset his canoe. Then the buck did make for him in earnest. He had just sense enough to shove the canoe between himself and the animal. It was upon him in a moment. It dashed its front feet against the upturned canoe—slid off into the water. Again it charged the canoe and succeeded in getting its feet on top. Tom, still grasping the boat with one hand, attempted to shove its feet off with the other. He was rewarded with a jab with its lread as it shoved its body up on the canoe. It's all over with me now, thought Tom, as with its feet and head. He knew if he relinquished his hold he would sink to the bottom. He was forced to let go, however, as the canoe sank beneath the surface under the weight of the animal. Tom said his prayers and let go. As the buck shuffled off the boat a shot rang out from the shore. The animal rolled over dead. The shot was from the rifle of "Sam," the surest shot of the party. Tom was rescued for the second time amid the laughter of the boys.

One day we ran a small deer into the lake. The boys made it a rule never to kill a fawn. Uncle determined to take this one alive. He took one canoe; three of the boys took another. Each had a rope. They both lassoed it around the neck at the same time, keeping it midway between the two boats. It made for Uncle's canoe, dragging the other canoe after it. Crash it went into the boat and uncle went out of the other side. Then it turned its attention to the three boys and it was all they could do to keep the boat from capsizing. After a struggle they had to let the fawn go. The plucky young creature swam away and the quartette returned crestfallen. We sometimes shot deers in the woods. The deer is noted for its keen sense of hearing and consequently we had to approach it very quietly. Its sense of smelling is just as keen and on account of this we had always to approach against the wind or the scent carried by the breese would betray us. We preferred to let the dogs drive them to the water and then shoot them. We killed altogether 18 deer, 14 bucks and four does, which number was our limit, giving two to each man.

On the 3rd of November we broke camp. We had to take three trips to carry down all our game. The weather was excellent, the air being cool and bracing. As circumstances would have it our journey back was quiet and without incident.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS
—ON THE—
SUN LIFE ASSURANCE CO.
OF CANADA

From the CANADIAN TRADE REVIEW.

"There is no invidiousness involved in the assertion that no other Canadian company in existence can point to such a record of rapid, substantial and uninterrupted progress and prosperity as that exhibited in the successive annual reports of the Sun Life. . . . Most assuredly are its directors, shareholders and policy holders to be congratulated upon the very flourishing condition of the Company, and especially upon the result of the business of a year which was marked by the prevalence of conditions—the influenza epidemic, for instance—which proved disastrous for so many life companies. And with no less certainty can it be said that the very great progress made by the institution has been mainly due to the able and energetic efforts, guided by the sagacity and prudence which pratical experience alone can bring, of the President and Managing-Director, who has been efficiently assisted by the Secretary. From the contemplation of so successful a past the management may reasonably draw most sanguine anticipations as to the prosperity of the future.

"The Making of Canada."

It is not often that the citizens of Peterborough have the opportunity of hearing so distinguished a speaker as Principal Grant and upon a subject of such importance to every loyal Canadian as "The making of Canada." It is sometimes a matter of complaint that we have so few opportunities of hearing really first-class lecturers; may it not be because we do not sufficiently encourage them? Principal Grant combines, learning, eloquence and humor in perfect proportion. It may be safely predicted that no one who attends this lecture will regret it. Let the citizens of Peterborough see to it that the Principal has a full house on Tuesday evening.

Dental Student Arrested.

Chief Constable Douglass went up to Toronto yesterday with a warrant and arrested John Henry Johnston, who it will be remembered some five years ago was learning dentistry with Mr. Thos. Neelands. At that time he made love to and gained the affections of Adelaide, daughter of Mr. Jarvis Maybee, of Ravenscourt, Hamilton township. They were married in Peterborough by the Methodist minister there. The matter was kept quiet for some time because Johnston had not passed in his profession. He then attempted to repudiate the marriage and has refused ever since to support his wife and child. Mrs. Johnston, acting under legal advice, had her husband arrested and he was brought down from Toronto last night and placed in the lockup. He was before the court to-day and remanded until Friday next.—Port Hope Guide.

Take it Home to Yourselves.

Mothers and fathers, don't you recall in your school days how much better you could write with a long new pencil than an old one?

Were not the problems easier to solve when you figured on a big "pad" you had just purchased?

Did you ever lose the reader, speller, or arithmetic when you had a nice new bag to carry the books in to and from school?

Now, be honest and fix up the children's outfit as though you were young again.

A few cents invested at the stationery department of the Peterborough Bookstore will give the children inspiration for study throughout the term. A. H. STRATTON.

The C.P.R. Exhibition Car.

On Wednesday next the car containing the celebrated Northwest exhibit will be here. Mr. Callaway, the genial and popular district passenger agent, has adopted this amongst other up to date means of impressing the capabilities of the Northwest upon the visitor. In the evening Mr. L. O. Armstrong, the chief colonization agent, will lecture in the large hall adjoining the opera house, on "Our Own Country—its Resources and Possibilities," illustrating the lecture with over 100 magnificent stereopticon views. The fact is shown that the Northwest farmer is on the shortest route to either Europe or Asia, and can pour his food products into either in time of war or famine with greater facility than the farmers of any other country. Mr. Armstrong makes a strong point of the growing of wheat for feeding, and predicts great developments in this direction. New Ontario also comes in for some clever descriptive sketches, with its wealth of mine and forest and field, and the Algoma districts are spoken or as a promising field for the man with an axe and the will to hew a home for himself out of the wilderness. The difference between the prairie lands of the west, where one may begin to plough the day after settlement, and the Algoma lands that need clearing, is laid before the audience. The people are cordially invited to visit the car and inspect its contents, as well as attend the lecture, which will be free.

We claim to be as far ahead in our goods, as we are below in our prices. Grafton & Co.

—A meeting of the bugle and drum corps has been called for this evening. The corps will take part in the sham battle.

—City Lodge, No. 404, I.O.G.T., meets this week on Wednesday evening instead of Thursday evening, the regular meeting night.

—Sergt.-Major Peters is going over the ground to-day which will be chosen as the scene of the sham battle to be held on Thanksgiving day.

—The pacing horse, Flying Jib, covered a mile in 1.59½ at Chillicothe, Ohio, on Saturday. He is the first harness horse to go a mile faster than two minutes.

—General Secretary Baer, of the United Society of Christian Endeavour, announces that the international convention of 1895 will be held in Boston instead of San Francisco.

—President W. J. Littlejohn, of the Underwriters' Association, who declared that the recent forest fires were ordered started by lumber kings, says that his charges were based on investigations under instructions.

—Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr., left this morning for the Omemee fair, with a large tent to serve the purposes of a building in which to exhibit agricultural products, etc. Another large tent was taken from the storeroom of the firm for the exhibit which Gough Bros. propose making.

—A couple of disorderly cases were up at the police court, this morning. One was dismissed and in the case of the other a fine of $5 was imposed, with the alternative of taking 15 days in gaol. The days were taken. Sentence was suspended regarding the Adlum assault case on the Chief of Police.

—Mr. Walter Stocker received word the other day, from Mr. Houldsworth that he had arrived safely at his home, in England. Mr. Houldsworth was one of the best professional coaches that the cricket club ever employed and it is understood that an effort will be made to bring him to Peterborough again, next year.

—The Epworth League of Christian Endeavour will hold its regular monthly consecration service, this evening (Monday) and not on Thursday evening, as previously announced. It is the intention of the society to hold its weekly cottage prayer meetings on Thursday evenings, instead Friday evenings as heretofore, to be held at the residence of Mrs. Thorndyke, 148 Rubidge street, on Thursday evening next.

—It is not generally known that as the auxiliary train was proceeding on its way to the wreck on Saturday morning, that there was almost another fearful smash-up near Peterborough. Some horses dashed out of a farm gate and ran ahead of the train a short distance when one of them fell through a cattle guard, and the train was only stopped within ten feet of the same. If an accident had happened to this train the loss of life would have been appalling. The horse was lifted out of the guard and the train proceeded on its way. —Watchman.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

A Teacher in the Mark Street Methodist Church Remembered by her Pupils.

Miss A. Smith, of the Mark street Methodist church, received a pleasant surprise yesterday afternoon, when, at the conclusion of the Sunday school exercises, the members of the Testament class stepped forward and presented her with a handsomely bound teacher's Bible accompanied by the following address:

Miss A. Smith, Mark Street Church, Ashburnham:

DEAR TEACHER,—The members of Class No. 2, while regretting that you have resigned your position as teacher of our class, do not wish you to relinquish those duties you have so faithfully and efficiently performed for over two years without giving you some special token of our appreciation in that and other capacities. As a member of long standing in our school you have done much to promote its success, and as a slight tangible expression of our recognition of those services we ask you to accept this Bible, hoping at the same time you may live long to teach its truths, and continue your interest in the school.

W. Frith, A. Hopkins,
W. McCarthy, A. Fowler,
S. Taylor, S. Smithson,
W. Lawless, G. Lowarne.
C. Beer,

The address was read by Mr. Samuel Taylor, and the presentation made by Mr. Will Frith.

Miss Smith, who is giving up the class expressed her gratitude for the present and earnestly hoped that while the class was under her charge some grain of the truth which had been scattered had fallen on ground of a receptive nature and would bear fruit.

Don't miss seeing Margaret L. Shepherd in the Drama, "Tried as by Fire," at Opera House to-night. Prices—25, 35 and 50 cts.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wm. Purdy, of Keene, was up for Sunday.

Judge Weller, of Peterborough, is at the Rossin.—Globe.

Mr. J. H. Sherin, of Lakefield, was in town Saturday.

Mr. T. W. McLean, Mount Pleasant, is in town to-day.

Mr. John Coughlan and wife, of Hastings, were in town Saturday.

Mr. Charlie McKee resumed his studies in medicine at 'Varsity, to-day.

Mr. Herbert Bell has left to resume his studies at Trinity Medical College.

Mr. Charles A. Crawford, of Deseronto, spent Sunday in town with friends.

Rev. Mr. Denike, of Campbellford, was registered at the Snowden on Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Greer, of Peterborough, is visiting friends in Cobourg.—Cobourg World.

Mr G. A. Baker, agent for the Rathbun Company, at Lindsay, was here on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Dr. Kemp and her daughter, Grace, are spending a few days with friends in Peterborough.—Lindsay Watchman.

Mr. Wm. Dundas, Peterborough, who has been visiting his aunts, the Misses Dundas, Charles street, left for home this evening.—Port Hope Guide.

Mrs. Cunningham and her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Fraser, returned home on Wednesday, after a six weeks' visit to relatives in Peterborough.—Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Mr. Alexander McFee, of Iowa, formerly of Otonabee, who has been in East Peterborough, for some weeks, is suffering greatly from an attack of asthma, at the Morgan House.

Mr. Thomas Ryan, General Agent of the Federal Life of Hamilton, for the district of Nipissing and Algoma, who has been spending a week in town, with friends, after a wedding trip to the principal cities in New York State, left for his home in Sault Ste. Marie, this morning.

The marriage of Mr. Ed. Brown, of the firm of Brown Bros., town, and Miss Lucy Thornton, of Providence, Rhode Island, has been announced to take place on Wednesday next. Mr. Brown left for Providence on Saturday evening, and will return to town, accompanied by his bride, after a wedding trip of about a fortnight's duration.

In the EXAMINER'S report of the concert in the George street Methodist church on Friday night the position of one of the accompanists was erroneously given to Miss Clark, organist of the Charlotte street church. The lady of that name, who so effectively supplied several of the accompaniments, was Miss Rose Clark, Stewart street.

Mr. Wm. Nelson, ledger-keeper of the local branch of the Bank of Ontario, was stricken down by typhoid fever, a few evenings ago, while calling at the residence of Mrs. James Dixon, Chemong Road, where he is now lying in a critical state. Mr. Nelson's mother, who resides in Uxbridge, was sent for and arriving in town, on Friday, will remain with her son.

Mr. F.J. Lewis, of the Bank of Montreal, and Mrs. Lewis returned on Saturday, from their European tour. Mr. Lewis is somewhat improved in health, but his physician does not think he is yet physically equal to the performance of the arduous duties of his position and he has been granted an extension of leave for the winter months. Mr. Lewis will seek a further change of climate and it is understood that the family will reside during the winter in Toronto. Mr. F. W. Taylor, who has performed the duties of manager so efficiently, will still remain in charge.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

In the Rugby football tournament for the silver trophy offered by the Agricultural Society, the Edison team were victorious over the Lock Works boys on Wednesday last. As the town team was a bye on this occasion, the Edisons played off with them on Saturday afternoon and after a hard fight succeeded in defeating them by the score of 18 to 15, thus winning the cup for the season. The teams lined up as follows:—

Bell	forwards	Thompson

NOTES.

The members of the town team are confident that with a little practice they can win from the Edisons, as they think the latter team won by outwinding them.

Drope, Thompson and Bell secured the three touchdowns for the town team.

The passing by the Edison half-backs was most excellent.

The two Moores, Colyer, Shaw and Jones put up their usual steady game.

Strickland, Rogers, Montgomery and King did well for the town team.

Mr. Taylor, as referee, gave satisfaction to both teams.

On Saturday afternoon next the town team play the Trinity College school team on the P. A. A. A. grounds, after which date another game with the Edisons will if possible, be arranged.

The town team is trying to arrange a game with the Port Hope fifteen and the Times says the Port Hope boys are getting into good trim through practice.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Mr. James Harper's many friends in Peterborough will regret to learn that no visible improvement in his condition is apparent, his great weakness occasioned by the virulent type of typhoid through which he passed, greatly retarding his recovery. Mr. Harper's lungs are also giving him some trouble.

There are four patients in the isolation ward of the hospital. All are suffering from attacks of diphtheria.

Thirteen typhoid patients were treated at the hospital last month.

The lady superintendent is busily engaged in making out the annual government reports.

The graduating exercises will take place in the Oddfellow's Hall about the middle of next month.

Miss King, of St. Catharines, secured the highest number of marks at the recent graduating examinations. Miss Wood was only seven marks behind her, and Miss Hoyt, of Whitby, just seven marks lower than Miss Wood. The percentages obtained were very high.

CHEESE MARKETS.

BROCKVILLE, Sept. 27.—Eleven hundred and forty-two boxes of cheese were boarded here to day, of which 476 were white and 666 coloured; 10½c. offered for August, September and October, but refused. No sales.

BRANTFORD, Sept. 27.—At the cheese market-to-day, 12 factories offered 2,210 boxes, mostly September make; 10¼ to 10⅜c bid; no sales. Next market, Thursday, October 11.

NEWMARKET, Sept. 27.—At the cheese board to-day, 1,300 boxes were boarded. No sales. Buyers and sellers apart. Factories allowed to sell off the board. The board adjourned until the third Thursday in May, 1895.

LADIES! LADIES!

Special Attention.

Ladies, do not be misled by paste-board charts and so-called tailor systems that have a set form of curves and give a box form appearance to all garments; they give the same curve and the same shape for all persons of the same size. We are the original inventors of all seamless garments, and warn all parties not to use them unless using our system, as we will prosecute those that do. We have our Government papers open for public inspection, which prove we are the inventors, so watch out for frauds and copyists. We graduate you with an elegant diploma. We give each scholar for one year free our Paris Fashion Publication, which gives you the latest styles and draftings. Our course is the only complete French course of dress cutting ever given in Canada, and we challenge the world for from $5,000 to $50,000 a side to contest the all-round merits of our system. Those wishing to accept our challenge must deposit their money in the bank, and have the bank notify us of the same, and we will at once cover the amount. Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases; 35,000 testimonials of merit on file for public inspection. Our academy in Toronto, No. 467 Yonge street, is the largest and best in Canada.

$10 Reward—We also offer a $10 Reward for the Crow system people to produce for public inspection any patent or copyright or government papers for their seamless garments, as they claim for some years back. Yours truly, Prof. and Mme. O. H. DE LAMORTON & CO., Toronto and New York City, N.Y.

MRS. McCAULLEY, Dress-Maker, No. 125 Brock Street, is our duly and only authorized representative in Peterborough for teaching our Seamless Garment System.

JUST OUT OF THE CASE.

Perhaps it's just as well you didn't buy your new Mantle sooner. Styles have changed since February — when most of the Mantle Stocks for this season were bought.

Our stock was bought in June and are the most correct in all the details of Fashion's latest fancies—revised with all the newest improvements, and endorsed by leading fashion authorities. The new prescribed lengths are from 34 to 38 inches—longer coats are too long — so the fashion leaders insist.

LADIES—We invite your inspection, feeling satisfied that nothing in town can excel our Mantles, Coats and Wraps. If you want a garment particularly effective and fashionable, get ours. Besides, you can buy now at the beginning of the season far better than at the end.

We claim to be as far ahead in our goods as we are below in our prices.

CHURCH CHIMES.

The devotions of the Rosary for the month of October begin this evening in St. Peter's Cathedral.

At the evening service in the Mark street church a duet was very pleasingly rendered by Misses Etta and Eva Kindred. The choir also rendered a beautiful anthem, Mr. H. S. Armstrong taking the solo in good voice.

Rev. Mr. MacWilliams announced that Mr. Goldsmith, of Toronto, would occupy St. Andrew's pulpit next Sabbath, as he would be absent in Montreal attending the opening of the Presbyterian College and would preach anniversary sermons in St. Andrew's church, Sherbrooke, next Lords day.

Yesterday morning the congregation at St. Andrew's church was very large. The evening congregation was not so large. Two able and practical sermons were delivered by the pastor from the texts, Genesis 7, 1: "Come thou and all thy house into the ark," and Genesis 4, 9: "Am I my brother's keeper?" Our individual responsibility—responsibility for the keeping of our brother's physical, mental, moral and spiritual nature was strongly impressed. The music by the choir was again excellent and greatly appreciated.

Grand Ligne Sunday was observed yesterday by the scholars of the Murray street Sunday school, the offertory being contributed to the fund for the forwarding of this work in Quebec. An address was delivered by Miss Ada Bradshaw on the progress of the work, after which Miss Barker related the story of Sorel, and Rev. Mr. Trotter made a few remarks relative to the maskinonge incident. Class exercises were given by the scholars under Miss Hutchinson's supervision, and specially prepared songs were rendered by the members of the Junior B.Y.P.S.C.E., the infant class and the choir boys.

Yesterday was anniversary Sunday in the Park street Baptist Mission and in the morning Rev. Mr. Trotter, pastor of the Murray street church, conducted the mission services and delivered a most interesting discourse adapted to the occasion. In the evening the services were taken by Mr. Pady who is regularly in charge of the mission. His sermon was a most instructive one and was listened to with interest. The attendance at both services was unusually large and the offertories most liberal. In the afternoon the Sunday school scholars were addressed by Mr. John Russell, of Millbrook, whose remarks were most interesting to the teachers and children.

CHARLOTTE STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

The Rev. Mr. Rae occupied his own pulpit and preached to large congregations both morning and evening. The people gave the preacher their undivided attention and no one could have listened to such earnest and faithful preaching without being benefitted thereby. The faithful pleading of the preacher in the opening prayer made impressions on hearts that were in sympathy with him and fitted and prepared them for the sermon that was to follow. The preacher selected for the lesson the 9th chapter of St. Luke, from the 46th verse to the end, then choosing the text from the same chapter, 62nd verse, "No man having put his hand to the plough and looking back is fit for the kingdom of God," the preacher remarking that he had been out in the country during the week and the text had been suggested to him by some of the things that he had seen on his journey. The introductory to the sermon was somewhat startling by the statement that man wants the whole earth, but after presenting the temporal wants of man in their varied phases, the preacher presented the spiritual side of the wants of mankind, proving the divine wisdom of God in implanting these longings and aspirations in the human heart. The preacher proved conclusively that there is not sufficient on earth to satisfy the human heart. The preacher opened out his subject in honest, plain language and by precept and exhortation urged those who had engaged in God's service to go on and not to look back. If all the good things that the preacher said were carried out in daily life, burdens would become lighter and Christ's kingdom would be hastened on earth. It is impossible to give a full synopsis of the sermon, but such opportunities of hearing such sermons should not be lost. The choir greatly helped the services. Miss A. Fawcett and Mr. A. L. Davis taking the piece "Forever with the Lord," which was sung with great feeling. The evening sermon was on "preaching." The text was taken from the Acts of the Apostles, 26th chapter and the 16th verse, "Arise, stand upon thy feet, to this end have I appointed thee a minister and a witness," etc. The preacher explained the various kinds of preaching adopted at the present time, and said some of the honestest and straightest things that have been heard from the sacred desk for some time. He stated that he would sooner preach in a back country circuit than occupy the best pulpit in one of the best cities where he had not the sympathetic hearts of his people. Messrs. Davis and Shaw sang the fine duet "Heavenly Father Guide his Footsteps," at the offertory.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

S. NICHOLLS, Lot 27, Con.

FRIENDSHIP AND THANKS COMBINED.

And respectfully addressed to Mr. J. R. Stratton, Esq., M.P.P., for his presenting to me with a handsome suit of clothes, as a token of his appreciation of several pieces I have written since he entered public life:—

Sir, pardon, if I do presume, my humble pen to raise,
To thank you for my nice new suit, and strike a strain of praise;
Dressed out from head to foot to-day before your face I stand,
A token of respect for me bestowed by your own hand.
Perhaps you think, dressed in this suit, my wife viewed me with pride,
I tell you, sir, instead of smiles gloom spread from side to side;
She thinks while walking around town dressed in this suit so gay,
Some pretty girl surveying my dress may steal my heart away.

Each time I put my new suit on, Sir, I will think on you,
Because it proves your generous heart and hand most liberal too;
It gives me pleasure and delight, my muse it will inspire,
To know that my poor homely lines you did so much admire.
It helps me to nurse up the muse, a brighter theme entwines,
When you, endowed with talents bright, appreciate my lines;
If I possessed your range of thought or half your classic lore,
Then I would strike a loftier strain and round your praise the more.

Though small the value of your gift, beyond its worth I look,
It shows the fulness of your soul, like ripples on the brook;
As I behold it, deep drawn thoughts, in my mind it creates,
Towards the generous heart and hand from which it emanates.
From the depths of my grateful heart, thanks, I to you extend,
Upon my body I wear proofs of one true liberal friend;
As it shields me from the sun's rays or autumn's wind and wet,
Believe me, sir, kind acts like yours, I will not soon forget.

Eight years ago, your friends placed you in parliamentary life,
Though young, you were aware it would bring you both joy and strife.
It is a good your bonds of power, the people all to please,
Though you bow with uncovered head or kneel on bended knee.
I know if you confess the truth, even in your happiest hours,
You find your life's course is not strewn with the choicest flowers,
Your purposes and motives may be all that some desire,
But discontents spring up and wound your soul with thorns and briers.

Though both your terms, you nobly strove—much good you have done,
By words and deeds electors hearts you touched and truly won;
They gave to you sufficient proof—depend on them you may,
They, with victorious laurels decked your brow last polling day.
I hope to live and wear this suit until it is threadbare,
Like wise your friendship, strong and true and courteous kindness share;
I earnest wish to see, before I slumber with the dead,
A brighter crown of honour placed on your victorious head.

With compliments of William Telford, Smith.

SEVENTEEN YEARS OF IT.

Charles Schryver had Kidney Disease all This Time and Didn't Know it—How he Found Out and How he was Cured.

TORONTO, Oct. 1.—Sixteen years ago kidney disease attacked Charles Schryver, a bricklayer in this city, but he did not know it. It showed itself in the form of pains in the small of the back. They did not amount so much at first, but kept growing worse. Within the past six years Mr. Schryver has almost every week had to quit work for one or two days on account of their severity. Doctors ascribed them to the liver and other causes and prescribed, but their medicine did no good. Last spring a city physician diagnosed the case as one of diabetes and wanted to prescribe, but Mr. Schryver said:—"No, if its diabetes I'll use Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I know will cure me." They did cure him, too, and to-day Mr. Schryver is free from ache or pain and able to do his day's work, week in and week out, with any man in his trade.

Handsome Features.

Sometimes unsightly blotches, pimples or sallow opaque skin, destroys the attractiveness of handsome features. In all such cases Scott's Emulsion will build up the system and impart freshness and beauty.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

TO CURE DEBILITY,

Loss of appetite, sleeplessness and all nervous troubles, physicians recommend Campbell's Quinine Wine.

Do not let your druggist persuade you that some other is just as good.

SOLID BITS OF AIR.

FROZEN IN INTENSE COLD AND LOOKING LIKE ICE OR GLASS.

Prof. Dewar's Search for the Absolute Zero—Solidified Nitrogen and Liquified Oxygen—How the Little Snowstorms in His Laboratory Are Produced.

The search for the zero of absolute temperature is being steadily pushed forward at London, England. In the laboratory of the Royal Institution oxygen has been liquified, nitrogen solidified and air reduced to a solid clear glass at a temperature of 346 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit. And now the world of science is looking to Prof. Dewar as the foremost explorer of the untraversed domains of extremest cold.

To illustrate the strange mystery of heat, let the leader imagine himself for a time in the laboratory of Prof. Dewar, viewing one of the simplest yet strangest examples of the work that is being carried on. The amount of heat that is required to produce great cold is the first paradox that strikes him. Instead of ice and freezing mixtures, he is confronted with two steam engines, one gas-engine, four big steel compressors, two large and powerful air pumps, and all the wheels, shafts and gearing which unite these powerful mechanical agencies.

The whole idea is pressure. Compression forces certain gases to become liquids, and when the pressure is removed and they are permitted to return to the gaseous state, they absorb from their immediate surroundings as much heat, generally speaking, as was lost in liquifying them.

Nitrous oxide gas is liquified by a pressure of 1,400 pounds to the square inch. When it gasifies again, it creates a cold of 180 below zero. Within its chamber is a chamber of ethyelne gas under a pressure of 1,800 pounds to the square inch, and the cold from the evaporation of the nitrous oxide liquifies the ethylene at this pressure. Within the ethylene chamber is the pipe from the oxygen compressor, the oxygen being compressed to 750 pounds to the square inch. When the ethylene gasifies or evaporates, it reduces the temperature to 229 below zero, and at this point the compressed oxygen liquifies freely and is drawn off in quantity at a cost, including the waste, which is inevitably about 90 per cent., of perhaps $500 a gallon. This is only a rough estimate, to be sure, but there is no doubt, all things considered, that $500 a gallon as a selling price would have left no margin of profit if every quart of the beautiful pale blue liquid thus far obtained had been sold at this price.

This much is preliminary, and may not be new. Now, however, comes the simple but inconceivable strangeness of heat. A globular glass oxygen vessel, as round as a ball, is filled with the liquid. The narrow neck is open to the air, to prevent the explosion which would follow if it was confined and which would be similar to the explosion of a steam boiler with no valve. The oxygen simmers quietly, protected from the heat of the room by the glass compartment about it, an outer glass chamber which is a perfect vacuum and conducts no heat. The liquid touches the air only at the neck, and the cold belt of extremely cold oxygen vapor at this point prevents any rapid evaporation.

A powerful electric light is now set in action beside the vessel, and the tremendous heat and light which it is giving off are sent through a lens, which blends the light and heat rays into parallel lines, and these are then sent through the oxygen. Their heat at the point of passage is great, far above the boiling point of water, say 300 degrees. The heat is so powerful that if it is focussed by a burning glass, it will instantly set fire to wood or paper. This heat is sent through oxygen so cold that it will freeze mercury, alcohol, or any known liquid, a cold of 280 degrees below zero. In the presence of a heat which it would seem should instantly burst it, the oxygen shows no sign. It does not increase its ebullition in the slightest degree.

The oxygen simmers quietly as before, though the heat that is in it and is passing through it are great and undeniable. It is impossible to believe that these heat rays, after passing through it, have any warmth or vitality left in them, but the absolute contrary instantly appears. The shape of the oxygen vessel is that of a burning glass, and it focusses the heat rays a short distance on the other side. A piece of paper placed in the focus instantly bursts into flame, and the heat, impervious to the coldest cold obtainable and after passing a barrier that is ten times as cold as ice, shows no diminution whatever in its flaming energy.

Tyndall varied this experiment somewhat and showed the wide difference between the heat and the light rays. He stopped the rays of light altogether by using a liquid which was impervious to that medium. No light came out of the other side, but the invisible heat rays passed through as rapidly as before, without in the least affecting the liquid, and silently and invisibly were in flaming activity at the focus when concentrated.

These elusive and magical properties of heat cause some scientists to hesitate over dogmatizing concerning it, and make them loth to admit the probability of the absolute zero. This point, however, which is 461.2 degrees below the Fahrenheit zero, is so clearly indicated as a finality by the action of gases and metals subjected to lower and lower temperatures, that it is certainly a point in nature of very great importance. By many it is believed to be the extreme point of cold possible in the universe, the absolute starting point of the force we call heat. The ratio of the diminution of bulk by contraction in gases and of diminishing conductivity in metals points it out almost as eloquently as the needle indicates the whereabouts of the North Pole.

Prof. Dewar, who has carried working temperatures 180 degrees farther downward than anybody before him, is still 115 degrees distant from the great and ultimate end of his pilgrimage. He has gone as far as he can with the appliances which he has been able to devise, and knows it. To devise other appliances, or at least to find the key to other appliances which others may perfect, is his study. Oxygen has yet to be solidified. Hydrogen has yet to be liquified at a calculated temperature of 400, its boiling point being 418 below. Once hydrogen is liquified, the end is near.

The primal conditions of matter at the absolute zero can only be forecasted by the conditions of matter at the lowest point reached, and so the professor is tracing each metal downward to its death. There are six forces in nature, according to a simple elementary classification, this being gravity, molecular or cohesive force, chemical affinity, light and heat, electricity and vital force.

How far these are related and interchangable is not of moment here. One of these Prof. Dewar has already cut out of the problem. This is chemical affinity. He has reached a point at which it ceases entirely, and his bit of pure phosphorus floats about in pure oxygen without a sign of chemical action. Light is still unaffected, as it still changes a sensitized photographic plate, even though that plate be cooled to 279 below zero. Heat, as we have seen, is superior to the cold, and electricity only finds a freer and less disturbed play through the metals the colder they become. Molecular or cohesive force also increases, while gravity, of course, remains unaffected. Above and beyond all the vital force of seeds passes triumphantly through the greatest cold yet reached and germinates afterward.

Prof. Dewar's first field of investigation when his liquid oxygen gave him a working temperature of 280 below zero at will, was the alteration at lower and lower temperatures of the power of metals to conduct electricity. He found that all converged to a common point in this respect, and that at the temperature named they became nearly equal. These experiments led to the belief that the molecular force or cohesion of metals also increased with lower and lower temperatures. Experiments proved this.

The increase in cohesive force at low temperatures has an interesting bearing astronomically. Cosmic dust and other theories of world formation which have at times been advanced, have been based to some extent upon the idea that when a planet died it underwent slowly disintegration.

Such an idea is entirely untenable, however, in view of the results of Prof. Dewar's experiments upon the action of matter as it grows colder. The increase of cohesive force which he has made evident shows that the colder a planet grows the more tenaciously its particles must be held together, and the harder and more enduring it must become. Nature, in fact, appears to embalm her dead planetary bodies throughout the universe very much more perfectly than the old Egyptians, so perfectly, in fact, that the great tomb of space must and will be filled with them forever, perfectly preserved unless some vagrant comet or eccentric star chances to knock them to pieces.

Solid nitrogen is a white crystalline substance, and in both its liquid and solid states shows no variation from the inert properties which it displays in nature. Solid air is a transparent gas in which the nitrogen is solid, and the liquid oxygen is held mechanically. It is obtained in test tubes, each tube consisting of three compartments. The outer is the vacuum chamber. The second contains liquid oxygen, which is boiled off rapidly by exhausting the air. This produces such intense cold in the third tube, which is inserted in the liquid oxygen and is open to the air, that the air from without first liquifies and runs rapidly down the sides of the innermost tube, forming a clear liquid like water at the bottom. As the cold is increased the liquid grows thicker and thicker, and in a few moments is a solid, looking exactly like ice or glass. When the tube containing it is taken out it liquifies and vaporizes rapidly, and more air from the atmosphere liquifies on the outside of the tube and drops freely from the bottom, passing into vapor, however, before it reaches the floor.

Oxygen has not yet been reduced to a solid, and this achievement will be the next step downward. The present belief is that it will not solidify in crystalline form. The solidification of hydrogen, whenever in the future it takes place, will throw light on one of the most interesting problems in chemistry. Hydrogen, which we only know as the lightest and most elusive of all gases, is believed, and for good reasons, to be actually the vapor of a metal and a true metal in all respects. It forms alloys with metals precisely as if it were a metal, and under condensation it shows an increased power of conducting heat and electricity, the increase accurately following the metallic law.

So the voyage toward the absolute zero is progressing. Details are curious and often beautiful. Soap bubbles are frozen in oxygen vapor and rest, little iridescent globes of the flimsiest ice, upon the gently simmering liquid below. Ice, our ordinary freezing medium, is often frozen in its turn, and as a solid shrinks, cracks, splits up and goes to pieces at sudden cooling exactly like hot glass in cold water. Liquid ozone, that eccentric indigo-blue twin sister of oxygen, is being observed and studied in all its moods. With Dewar working at 346 degrees of cold and Moissan in Paris investigating nature at 6,300 degrees above the Fahrenheit zero, the world can scarcely fail before many years to gain new and perhaps startling knowledge. Every time oxygen is drawn off from the condenser, a profuse cloud of snow fumes appears spreading in all directions. Nine tenths of the oxygen under its heavy pressure, vaporizes and scatters instantly upon reaching the air, and every molecule of it is so cold that snow, from the freezing of the moisture in the atmosphere, follows and marks its flying course. In the same way every open oxygen vessel has its own little snowstorm in unceasing progress, the white banks rising higher and higher about the necks of jars and settling upon any instruments or objects which have been cooled.—H. J. Dam in Buffalo Express.

Pimples, boils and other humours of the blood are liable to break out in the warm weather. Prevent it by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

"LIVING PICTURES."

Originated at Paris in the Fourteenth Century, and Were Usually Religious.

In the Pall Mall Gazette there recently appeared an article on the historical origin of the "living pictures" which are now all the rage. It isn't likely that the women who pose in them, the managers who get them up, or very many of the persons who go to see them have any idea how extremely illustrious and moral was their beginning. They were a fourteenth century scheme of decoration, a Paris street adornment in the pageantry that marked the progress of the kings, and usually represented Biblical stories, or scenes from the lives of the saints. The Gazette's writer describes their origin to the invention of the duke of Bedford during his regency of France, but they continued in use long after his day. On a platform 100 feet long, placed in the street opposite the royal palace, the duke represented with living figures the passion as it is shown on the stone pourtours of the choir of Notre Dame.

In the reign of the later kings, we are told, the living pictures were the most popular form of street adornment, and it became customary to build booths for their representation all along the routes of the processions. These pictures, says the writer, would form either a series of scenes telling one story, or the subjects composed would make detached and independent allegories. Sometimes—as in the crucifixion, where a given attitude would be too difficult of performance—wax figures were added to the living groups. "Every quarter of the town and each corporation was intrusted with the invention and the getting up of some picture," and from the ensuing rivalry most excellent results were obtained. To the sightseer the effect was as if he were passing through a gallery of paintings. Froissart, for instance, tells of a street representation with a blue background constellated with golden stars, and with the Virgin and the Divine child in the centre surrounded by a choir of angels. Even the Trinity was sometimes shown, and at the entry of Charles VII. in 1437, we are told that the pictures included representations of the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles, and, on a two story platform, of the angels' announcement of the nativity to the shepherds of Bethlehem. Opposite this was represented the last judgment, with Heaven and hell, and St. Michael in the centre weighing souls.

If Woman Ruled Supreme.

The dream of the traveler from Altruria as to the making of the street temperature endurable would be a dream no longer. In summer the street-cleaning force would be doubled—trebled, if necessary—and frequent sprinklings would cool the burning cobble-stones and cause a somewhat less furnace-like breath to rise from them. At every corner giant electric fans should stir and waft powerful breezes to mitigate the effect of the sun's rays. The electric fan, as it plays in stores and restaurants may not be quite an ideal cooling apparatus, but it is immeasurably better than nothing, even with its whir and buzz. In the streets the noise would pass unnoticed and only the refreshing effect of the current of air would be felt. If she ruled supreme she probably would know enough or would learn enough of science and mechanics to utilize the electric light power and make it do a double duty by waving the fans. Of course such a plan would tend in no way to increase the material prosperity of the city. It would simply make it more comfortable to live in, but she is enough of a visionary to think that aim quite a worthy one, and if she ruled supreme she would certainly devote her energies to discovering some means of making the streets cooler.

Sensitive About His Age.

When a distinguished man like M. Grevy refuses to tell his age surely ordinary women may be excused for so purely a feminine weakness. By this subterfuge the president misled his countrymen into believing him to be six years younger than he was, according to an anecdote as follows: "M. Grevy was always very reluctant to tell his age and openly admitted that reluctance. At a dinner party given by one of his friends in 1872, the future president of the republic said with a smile: 'People may try as much as they like, they will never know my real age.' And in fact, when M. Herold, who was some time a minister of the third republic, endeavored to obtain definite particulars of M. Grevy's age for a new edition of 'Vaperean,' M. Grevy persistently refused to supply them. 'The archives of Mont-sous-Vaudrey were burnt in 1831,' he said, 'and you must do the best you can. You'll get no information from me.' As a consequence, all M. Grevy's biographers give the year 1813 as that of his birth, while in reality he was born in 1807."

Cute Trick of a Blind Dog.

Probably the oldest dog in Philadelphia is Dash, a setter belonging to S. Murray Mitchell. He is seventeen years old, and, though totally blind, can find his way very well wherever he wants to go. He has developed numerous characteristic barks to express his wants, which are attended to. Thus, he has a bark which means open the door, and another indicating that he is sleepy and wants to be put to bed. He can tell when his master is near, and even in a crowd will go up to him and single him out and caress him.—Philadelphia Times.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery. Gives Instant Relief.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the surface becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—absorbing and inflaming, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly affected from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause than Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

Goes to Europe for Treatment

Suffering For Years from Insomnia and Nervous Debility—Prostrated, Exhausted—No Vitality—No Rest Until "Nature's Sweet Restorer," South American Nervine Tonic, Built up the Nervous Organism, and Gave Back to the Wearied and Exhausted Nerve-Centres their Wonted Vigor.

ADOLPHE LABODIE, B.C.L., J.P., OF THE WELL-KNOWN LEGAL FIRM OF LABODIE & LABODIE, MONTREAL.

For four generations the remarkable family of LaBodie have been prominently identified with the legal and professional life of Montreal. A long line of active, intellectual men, whose ambition to rise to prominence meant a constant drain upon the nerve forces and a tremendous demand for brain power. Mr Adolphe LaBodie, B.C.L., J.P., etc., has for seventeen years been actively engaged in the legal profession, living, as the duties of intellectual men of this fast age demand, beyond the reserve limit of natural nerve force, requiring more of the nerve centres at the base of the brain than they can possibly fulfil, which always results in nervous prostration, dyspepsia, hot flashes, insomnia, constipation, and attendant evils.

Mr. LaBodie spared neither time nor money to obtain relief, went to Europe for special treatment, all to no purpose. His attention being directed to South American Nervine Tonic, he concluded to try it. Result—immediate relief from insomnia, and a perfect and permanent cure from all other disorders, with but five bottles of the Nervine.

Mr. Adolphe LaBodie, under date of April 27th, writes from Montreal:—"I was suffering from insomnia and nervous debility; prostration and exhaustion, rather than rest, followed a night's experience. I took five bottles of South American Nervine, and am wholly recovered, and now enjoy restful nights. I have tried many remedies, have been treated in Europe, and can say with truthful emphasis that the South American nervine has cured me."

There is reason in all things: business reasons in business, truthful reasons in truth. Mr. LaBodie's statement herewith is the truthful reason why, if South American Nervine Tonic cured him, it will cure you. It is the nerve builder for brain workers. Brain and stomach cannot both work at the same time with healthful and happy issues. One must suffer. Intense intellectual activity produces indigestion because the brain is consuming all the nerve power. South American Nervine Tonic holds nature to a happy poise, and life and its duties swing to fruitful success.

DANGERS OF CHICKEN-RAISING.

Narrow Escape of a Guileless Youth About to Embark in the Enterprise.

An elderly man and a young man were sitting on the veranda conversing.

"Yes," said the young man, "I am going into chicken-farming. I am convinced that there is no business in the world in which there is more money to be made. I have figured on it, and I think I know what I can do. Why, look at the way they increase. In four or five years I"——

"My friend," said the old man, "I have had experience in the business. Be warned; do not embark in it. You know not what you do."

"What!" said the young man, "have you tried it and failed?"

"I mean to tell you that I tried it and gave it up," answered the other. "I got ten hens, intending to get rich, as you propose doing. I installed them in a coop and awaited returns. But before they had laid an egg I happened to pick up a pencil and a bit of paper and do some calculating. At a low estimate I saw that each of my hens could raise three broods the first summer.

"Allowing for one bad egg in each sitting, there would be twelve chicks to each brood. Calling half of them pullets, this would give six to each brood, or eighteen to each hen for the season, or 180 for the entire flock. Adding my original ten, I would have 190 hens at the end of the first summer. Figuring at the same ratio, I saw that I would have 3,610 at the end of the second summer.

"I was encouraged and went on to find that I would have 68,599 when the third summer closed. I sharpened my pencil, and bent over my paper with feverish interest. The fourth summer, I discovered, would leave me with 1,303,210 likely hens.

"When the autumn leaves of the fifth dying summer whould swirl about me I would have 24,760,990 cacklers. Another year of joys and sorrows—my sixth—would find me surrounded by 470,458,810 live and enterprising hens. Once again, when the seventh summer should fade into glorious autumn, I found that a matter of 8,938,717,390 distinct hens and a rooster or two would be with me in the gallinaceous flesh. The inspiring figures for the eighth year I have forgotten, as, likewise, I have those of the ninth.

"I only know I found that at the end of ten years I would have more prime hens than there was space for on the surface of the globe, counting the Arctic regions and supposing roosts across all rivers and twenty fowls in each tree. I was dumfounded.

"But I did not hesitate. I saw what I owed to the human race. I seized an axe and hurried to the coop. My boy, I loved those hens, but I loved humanity more; and I led them to the block like a Spartan, and chopped off their heads. I breathed more freely when it was all over, and the horrible vision was gone of the whole earth four feet deep in hens, and every blessed one of them cackling. Young man, do not go into the chicken business; it leads to awful things."

The young man started up. "Great Caesar!" he exclaimed. "I won't. I did not realize what I was doing.—Harper's Magazine.

Pickpockets at the Capital.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—The pickpockets got in their work at the fair here. W. C. Ryers, of Montebello, was getting on to a car on his way to the C.P.R. depot when he was touched for his pocket-book. He was on his way to Manitoba and had in the book a return ticket, $20 in cash and $1,500 in notes for collection in Manitoba. Mrs. Parr, of Winnipeg, had her pocket picked in the main building. Fortunately there was not much money in the pocket-book, but she lost her return ticket to Winnipeg.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th.—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

Bill Nye's London Bonmot.

While in England I cracked a bonmot which will be remembered in London long after the gilded statue of Prince Albert and the memory of Mrs. Maybrick's case have moldered into oblivion. I had occasion only twice while abroad to open a case of bonmots, and one of these I found damaged, but a London humorist, Mr. Odell, was referring one evening at a dinner given to me by the Archbishop of Canterbury to the loss of his hair.

"Mr. Nye," he said, "doubtless had very thin, weak hair, even in his youth; but, though I am very, very bald now, I once had beautiful long flowing hair."

"Ah sir!" I exclaimed, with ready wit, as I spread a little maple syrup on a truffle and eat it jauntily, "mine too, Mr. Odell, was long flowing, but now it is long fled."

("Flowing" and "fled" of course being used interchangeably to make the wit more pungent, but, as the reader will see, in utter defiance of the actual sense of the words. The wit of the remark is so all fired subtle that some of the clergy were at sea for some time, and even began the service generally used at sea, when all at once the thin sparkle and delicate fizz of the joke flashed like a Damascus blade, as it were, through the opague atmosphere, so that the archbishop laughed heartily and slapped me on the back like everything).—Bill Nye, in New York World.

A Crow That Dreams.

West Hearn has a crow, and he is the gawkiest, oddest, ugliest, but withal, the smartest bird one ever saw. He has learned the accomplishments of man so well that he now dreams—actually has nightmares.

The crow, during his odd hours of willing and luxurious captivity, has dug a hole in the wall, in which he deposits dainty morsels for the future when his appetite is not satiated.

Yesterday, in his hole in the wall he carefully placed two pieces of cheese and three bits of meat, all the while casting a furtive eye to windward to see that no one learned the secret of his hiding place.

This done, he ruffled his feathers, drew his neck down into them and, standing on one foot, went fast asleep. Perhaps the immense quantity of cheese which he had gorged himself with half an hour before gave him indigestion, for he had a nightmare right on the spot.

Suddenly he woke up and the air was rent with "Squawk! squawk! squawk?" in quick succession. He danced over in a flurry of excitement to his hole in the wall and jammed his bill in it three times. Everything was there. Nothing had been stolen. He sidled over to his perch, scratched his bill with his foot in a meditative way, as much as to say: "Well, I'll be——," and, ruffling his feathers into a muff, drew himself into them, supported the whole on one leg and was soon again in the land of nod.—Florida Times-Union.

Transparent Bricks for Hothouses.

Experiments with glass building bricks were begun in 1891, by M. Falconier, an architect of Lyons. These bricks are hollow, being blown like bottles, and are given forms—such as cubes, hexagons, etc.—that permit of ready laying. A bituminous cement, with a base of asphalt, is used with them. The bricks serve as double windows, giving protection against both cold and heat; they are good insulators of humidity and noise, and they lend themselves readily to the decoration of buildings, either by their form or color. Many applications are foreseen. The bricks are neater than marble in meat markets, and especially adapted for bath halls, hothouses, hospitals, refrigerating establishments, and buildings in which absence of windows would be an advantage. A hothouse of glass bricks is of about ordinary cost, saves fuel and resists hail.—Ashton (England) Reporter.

Suez Canal Trade.

Three thousand three hundred and forty-one ships, of 7,659,000 tons, passed through the Suez canal in 1893, yielding $68,000,000 in dues. Three thousand and eighty-two of the ships, or 92¼ per cent. passed through by night. As to the nationality of the vessels, the English were 2,405; German, 272; French, 190; Dutch, 178; Austro-Hungarian, 71; Italian, 67; Norwegian, 50; Ottoman, 34; Spanish, 29; Russian, 24; Portuguese, 10; Egyptian, 5; American, 3; Belgian, 1; Brazilian, 1; Japanese, 1.

After the Life of Judge Brentano.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Since Wednesday evening three attempts have been made to assassinate members of the family of Judge Brentano of the Superior Court, including himself, his wife and his daughter. Shooting was the method adopted in each case, but none of the bullets hit the intended victims. The police are investigating. Judge Brentano is the jurist before whom Prendergast was tried.

SAC CITY, Iowa, Oct. 1.—Wm. Tole, a laborer, attacked his wife with an axe and killed her with a blow on the head. He called a neighbor to witness his crime and then cut his own throat.

Mrs. Haun's Suit Settled.

TORONTO, Oct. 1.—When R. T. Haun, of Orangeville, committed suicide in Buffalo, he was a defaulter to the county of Dufferin, of which he was treasurer, to a large amount. His executors made over his property to the county and Bank of Hamilton. His wife sued for $19,000, the amount of her husband's insurance money. The suit has now been settled by the payment to Mrs. Haun of $7,000.

A McCarthyite-Patron Candidate.

MILTON, Ont., Oct. 1.—At a joint meeting of the McCarthyite and Patron executive committees for the county held here, the nomination for the House of Commons was tendered to P. D. Scott, ex-warden of the county. Mr. Scott, although a life long Conservative, has not for many months been in accord with his party on the trade question.

Hurricane on Orleans Island.

QUEBEC, Que., Oct. 1.—During a heavy hurricane Lizette's Hotel at Ste. Petronville, Island Orleans, was reduced to ashes, a part of the wharf was also burnt down, and the whole village had a narrow escape. The losses are about $26,000. Lizotte's Hotel was well known to American tourists.

"AN ALL ROUND MAN"
CAN'T DODGE THE OVERCOAT
QUESTION.

One of our good live preachers delivered a stirring sermon the other Sunday on the subject of "The All Round Man." Among some of the good thing the EXAMINER reported him to have said, was:—"A man with self will and well defined ambition alone, was incomplete. He "must have breadth, and height, and length, to attain that moral excellence and symmetry of character which would approximate the ideal of the "All Round Man, he had endeavoured to present."

We cordially endorse every word of the above; but, from our point of view, the All Round Man is still incomplete without an OVERCOAT. Men judge by appearances. If there be sermons in stones, books in the running brooks, and good in every thing, THERE IS LIFE IN AN OVERCOAT and the All Round Man is not complete without one. To-day, too,—

OUR TEXT IS "OVERCOATS"

We have'nt had an opportunity to say a word lately about OVERCOATS; but, we have a few COLD facts for you now. When you are ready to "shake" your summer duds, we're ready to serve you with [illegible] ones. No man, who has any respect for his pocket book can help "feeling" for it when he sees our pile of New Overcoats just out of the case. If you imagine we can't RETAIL Overcoats at WHOLESALE prices, you're imagination fools you. No barbed-wire-high-priced fence around our Overcoats.

No adjective, however strong; no statement, however extravagant, can exaggerate our banner stock of Light and Heavy Weight Overcoats for Fall and Winter wear. Keep on paying war prices for Overcoats if you will, but let the name of GOUGHS remind you that you needn't. Giving you merely good value doesn't satisfy us—we aim to give you BETTER VALUE than you get elsewhere. No matter what you have been accustomed to paying or to wearing, we'll show you a $7 Bargain in an Overcoat that you can't afford to ignore—whoever you are.

Light Fall Overcoats for $5.75, $7.50 and $10.00, fit for any business; and any man who wears one of these can readily palm it off as a custom-made. Every garment a novelty, made by artists of the first standing. Don't pay other dealers $12 to $15 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $9. Don't pay other dealers $8 to $10 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $5. GOUGHS OVERCOATS ARE FLYERS!

Mothers, save!—by buying our reliable Boys' Overcoats at Goughs, for we are giving extraordinary values for little money. We show every new idea for this fall. Now, will the tailor get all your money, or may we sell you one of our rightly made tailor Overcoats at a price about a third of what the merchant tailor demands?

LOWER AND LOWER go the Prices. HIGHER AND HIGHER we grow in public estimation. FINER AND FINER grades of goods all the time.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS."

Disastrous Flood in Cuba.

HAVANA, Oct. 1.—The Sagua river overflowed its banks and the city of Sagua la Grande is flooded. Many of the residents of the city have been drowned and the damage to property is immense. More than twenty houses have been carried away and many others have been damaged. Thousands of people saved themselves by taking refuge on the roofs of the houses whence they were rescued by passing boats. The water in the streets is now six feet deep.

The Maine Not the Fastest Warship.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The statement contained in a cable despatch received here that the warship Maine of the United States navy having made 17.55 knots had proved herself the fastest vessel of her class in the world is denied. Clyde builders assert that the new Spanish cruiser of a similar type to the Maine, though with heavier armament, recently built on the Clyde, has recently made 24 knots.

The Fatal Lamp.

BLOCTON, Ala., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Nancy Wilson with a lamp in hand went to look at her sleeping grandchildren in their crib. The lamp ignited a mosquito bar hanging over the bed, which fell burning upon her and the children. James Devereaux, her son-in-law, went to the assistance of the group, and was badly burned, possibly fatally. Mrs. Wilson inhaled flame and died soon afterwards. Her two-year-old grandchild was also burned to death.

Royalists Desert Queen Lil.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Honolulu advices state that a number of Queen Liliuokalani's supporters have taken the oath of allegiance to the republic, chief among them being Paul Neumann, the Queen's adviser, and Editor Logan of the Bulletin, the ex-royalist organ.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 1.—Helen Lucier, wife of William Lucier, was shot and killed by her brother, William Carr, yesterday. There was some trouble over a will and while drunk Carr shot the woman.

Fought Over a Cigarette.

BUFFALO, Oct. 1.—Frank Waring and Michael Teresi quarrelled over a cigarette. Teresi drew a knife and fatally stabbed Waring, who is in a dying condition at the Fitch hospital.

Will Push Intercolonial Trade.

MELBOURNE, Oct. 1.—Mr. Turner, the new Premier, speaking at a banquet given to railway officials, said that the principle of intercolonial free trade would be pressed forward.

Scandal in a Convent.

ROME, Oct. 1.—The authorities are inquiring into a scandal in a convent in Naples in connection with which a lady superior and others have been arrested.

A Primrose Victim Recovered.

HALIFAX, Oct. 1.—The body of Samuel Hutton, who lost his life by the capsizing of the yacht Primrose five weeks ago, was found five miles off Upper Harbor or about thirty miles from here on Saturday. The remains were brought here last night. The body was easily identified by the gold watch which contained the inscription, Samuel Hutton, champion oarsman.

Incendiary Fire at Peterborough.

PETERBOROUGH, Oct. 1.—A fire of undoubted incendiary origin occurred here. The brigade was called out for a blaze on Aylmer street, in the buildings belonging to the residence of Mr. J. H. Glass. The fire was confined to the outbuildings, which were destroyed along with their contents. Loss estimated at about $800, of which there is an insurance of $500.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ON LABOR.

His Eminence Deprecates Strikes and Counsels Arbitration.

FROSTBURG, Md., Oct. 1.—Cardinal Gibbons preached on "Labor" to a large congregation in St. Michael's church yesterday. In the course of his remarks his Eminence said:

"Labor has its rights, chief among which is the privilege of organizing and forming into societies. Our modern labor organizations are the legitimate source of our American labor grievances. In our times there is a great tendency in every department of business throughout the United States as well as Great Britain to form companies. There is a continuous network of companies and partnerships. When corporations combine it is quite natural for the laboring men to follow their example. But labor societies have many dangers menacing them. They are composed of men formidable in numbers and varying in character and nationality.

"They are naturally more difficult to manage and more liable to be dissolved than companies or corporations. They are in want of leaders of tact and ability who will add the members of the societies with their employers.

"One of the most difficult questions of our times to discuss is the question of strikes. Perhaps this is not an unfavorable time to allude to this subject as the great strike is ended and men are disposed to be more dispassionate in their judgments than they were some months ago. Strikes, as experience has demonstrated, are very questionable for the redress of the laborer's grievance. They check industry and excite passion. They often lead to the destruction of property and they result in inflicting many injuries by keeping the laborer in idleness while his mind is clouded by discontent and his family not unfrequently suffer for the comforts, and often for the necessaries of life. I earnestly hope that some efficient remedy will be found to put an end to our recurring strikes, and arbitration seems to be the most potent method that can be conceived of. A method that entails misery and loss is not the best means of adjusting labor grievances. A plan that will carry with it good and true Christian civilization should be sought for and adopted."

A Single Tax Colony.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 1.—The Fair Hope Industrial Association of Des Moines, Ia., has determined to establish a colony based on Henry George's single tax theory in Baldwin county, Alabama. The lands are located between Daphne and Battles, on the eastern shore of Mobile Bay, and officers of the association will be here shortly to start things moving. Twenty-five families will come as soon as preparations are completed and this number will be increased by spring. They will engage in trucking, fruit growing and small manufacturing.

Found Dead in an Organ Loft.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1.—Yesterday James Cunningham was found dead in the organ loft of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, and in the same room was found Franklin Beckert, organist of the church, nearly dead. Their condition was the result of poisoning. They had eaten a lunch together at noon. There has been some trouble in the church concerning Mr. Beckert's duties as organist and he was to have closed his engagement to-day. A rigid inquiry will be made by the authorities.

Ratte Refused a Stay of Proceedings.

BUFFALO, Oct. 1.—J. A. Nelson Ratte, of Montreal, sentenced to one year and one month in the Erie County Penitentiary and to pay a fine of $200 for smuggling fur goods into New York, appeared in the United States Court to have his commitment deferred. He asked for a stay of proceedings pending an appeal. Ratte is a sufferer from hip disease and did not want to be confined. Judge Coxe denied the motion and it is probable that Ratte will be placed in the hospital department at the penitentiary.

Suicide at Brighton.

BRIGHTON, Ont., Oct. 1.—M. P. Ketchum, an old resident of this village, committed suicide by shooting himself in the right temple with a revolver in C. K. Lockwood's orchard. He was once owner of the wonderful trotting dog "Doc." The coroner deemed it not necessary to hold an inquest, as the cause is supposed to be temporary insanity. He will be buried on Tuesday afternoon by the Masonic order. Deceased leaves a widow and two children, a daughter and son. It is supposed the cause was financial losses on real estate in Winnipeg.

Doubled the R. and O.'s Claim.

MONTREAL, Oct. 1.—The Court of Appeals has just decided a most important case affecting the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company. The Superior Court granted the company $20,000 insurance on the burning of the steamer Corinthian two years ago. The company appealed from this and awarded the full amount claimed, $40,000, with two years' interest at 6 per cent. and costs against the insurance companies, sixteen of whom are interested.

Suing Her Husband for Alimony.

HAMILTON, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Adeline M. Lawry, wife of T. H. Lawry, the well-known butcher, has instructed her solicitors, Culham & Wilton, to issue a writ against her husband for $60 per month for alimony for the support of herself and children. Mr. and Mrs. Lawry cannot agree and have lived apart for some time, but it was hoped the matter would be amicably settled and would not get into courts.

TURNBULL'S

Our Millinery opening is now over and has been a decided success, and it is very gratifying to be able to state that we never had more visitors or took more orders, which simply shows the fact that our selection of Millinery is very choice and varied. Our turnover in this department is so large that we can afford to buy everything new as it appears each week. Thus our customers are always sure of getting the latest styles and closest prices with us.

MANTLES.

In the Mantle department things are on the move. Our best garments are going out rapidly. We have a large and varied stock and our prices are rock bottom, as we import direct from the manufacturers. We keep the very best qualities of Astrachans and Seal ettes to be made up to order. Any one thinking of buying a cheap Fur Coat should see these Cloths first as they make up more effective, and are twice as durable, and can be made up in any of the new shapes. Our Mantle maker is one the best in the country, turning her work out as well as any tailor.

JAPS NEAR MOUKDEN

The Chinese Remove All Their Treasures From the City

DISORDER IN CHINA'S CAMP

Executions Take Place Daily for Slight Infractions of Discipline — Merchants Plundered of their Goods and Forced to Seek Safety in Flight.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—A despatch from Shanghai to the Central News says the Japanese have occupied Wiju without meeting with any opposition on the part of the Chinese troops.

Friction between Prince Kung, the Emperor's avuncular appointee to the presidency of the Foreign Board, and Li Hung Chang, the despatch says, is inevitable. The viceroy is certain to be hampered in his conduct of operations against the Japanese. The Imperial council is completely disorganized and the corruption which has prevailed in the commissary department for years has left the troops with no suitable clothing and a scanty supply of food. Cannons, rifles and other munitions of war, which from time to time were alleged to have been bought and paid for, cannot now be found and presumably the money represented to have been expended for them was appropriated by the officials into whose hands it was entrusted.

The immense camp between Tien-Tsin and Taku is filled with raw levies of troops who are without arms and in many cases without sufficient clothing to cover them. Disorder in the camp is rampant, there being not the slightest degree of discipline. Executions take place daily, the merest infraction of rule or law being punishable by the loss of the offender's head.

European residents of China are taking refuge in the treaty ports under the protection of the warships of their respective countries. A large number of Chinese merchants are also seeking safety in flight. Their goods are being seized, and in many cases men of large means have been plundered of every vestige of property they possessed, and beaten and otherwise maltreated if they protested. Most of these have also made their way to the treaty ports. The troops stationed at Canton have been ordered to Formosa.

The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a despatch from Shanghai stating that the Japanese troops are reported to be rapidly nearing Moukden.

The Daily News prints a despatch under a Vienna date stating that the Chinese government is removing from Moukden all the treasures stored there and taking them to Jahol, whither the Emperor Hien Jong fled in 1860 because of his being pursued by the English and French armies.

The Horrors of War.

A British naval officer attached to the Chinese naval squadron which was engaged in the fight off the mouth of the Yalu river has written a letter to the Graphic, which is published in that paper. In this letter the writer gives additional details of the fighting and says:

"On board the warship Chen-Yuen the fighting was awful. The decks and space around the guns were strews with human fragments and three of five men working a four-ton gun were blown up by a shell from the Japanese warship Naniwa. A fourth gunner was shot while trying to escape from the turret, and the fifth stuck to his post. This man fired three roundt at the Naniwa, one shell entering the engine room of the Japanese ship and another smashing the forebridge. The Naniwa then hauled off. The Chinese admiral rewarded the surviving gunner with a present of 1,000 taels.

"A shell glanced from the steel deck of the Chen-Yeen and went through her tower shattering everything therein. A lieutenant who was in the act of speaking through the tube leading to the engine room, was blown into atoms and his head was left hanging to the speaking pipe. Huge fragments of armor and the teak backing the roof was carried away by shot crushing a large number of sailors into a shapeless mass. A European engineer who was groping about in an endeavor to repair a steam pipe was drenched from head to foot with the blood of an assistant who was disembowelled by his side by a shot from the enemies' ship. The Chen-Yuen arrived at Wei-Hai-Wei the day after the fight in the same condition in which she left the battle. No attempt had been made to wash the blood from her or to remove the corpses which strewed her decks."

The writer expresses the opinion that if the European powers could have seen the decks of the Chen-Yuen they would have foresworn war henceforth and forever.

Back Broken While Wrestling.

BUFFALO, Oct. 2.—Alvin Carnahan and Winslow Breedy, athletic students at the Erie street normal school, engaged in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match on Sunday evening. Carnahan, in attempting to throw his adversary, broke his own back. Carnahan fell to the ground paralyzed from the breast bone down. Doctors have little hope of his recovery.

There can be no health for either mind or body so long as the blood is vitiated. Cleanse the vital current from all impurities by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine recruits the wasted energies, strengthens the nerves, and restores health to the debilitated system.

Signs of worms are variable appetite, itching at the nose, etc. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is the best worm expeller.

POUNDED HIM TO DEATH

Crawford Killed the Man He Suspected of Intimacy With His Wife.

HIS SON WITNESSED THE DEED

He Slept With His Father's Victim and Was Awakened to See the Fatal Blow Struck—The Murderer is Said to be of Unsound Mind.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 2.—A horrible murder was committed yesterday at Fairville. Guilford Crawford, a middle-aged man, battered in the head of a young Englishman named John Henry Branton. The deceased boarded with Crawford.

Not long ago Crawford got an idea into his head that Branton was paying attention to his wife, although there does not appear to be any justification for any such suspicion. He did not accuse Branton openly, but accused his wife, and although she denied the allegation, and his son and daughter pointed out that it could not be true, he still harbored the unjust suspicion.

The night before the members of Crawford's family and Branton went to bed in excellent spirits. They had all been sitting in the kitchen conversing freely. Crawford was there too and said nothing that would show that he was disturbed in mind. The family retired to bed at about 10.30. Branton slept in the same bed in a room with Hartley Crawford, son of Guilford Crawford.

About half-past four o'clock Hartley heard his father come down stairs from his sleeping apartment, with a lighted lamp in his hand. He called out and asked him what he was doing up so early. His father replied: "It's five o'clock." He then went out and lit the fire and Hartley fell asleep. The next thing he knew he was awakened suddenly and saw his father standing at the side of the bed, with an axe uplifted in his hand.

Before he could realize what was the matter or do anything to prevent his father from committing a crime the blow fell, the corner of the blunt end of the axe striking Branton, who was sleeping on the inside of the bed, on the temple over the left eye. He saw no more than one blow struck and thinks his father must have struck one or two blows before he was awakened.

Poor Branton never stirred. Stunned by the blows and terribly injured he lay in the bed, while the blood gushed from three small wounds around the left eye and from his mouth.

Seeing what his father had done Hartley turned to him and said: "You've done it now; you've killed him sure."

The father made no reply, but going out left the axe with which he had committed the dreadful deed near the door of the kitchen and began walking up and down the kitchen floor. Afterwards he walked upstairs and laid in bed, where he was arrested by the police. Branton never recovered consciousness and died shortly before 7 o'clock. An inquest brought out the facts as about stated.

It is claimed that Crawford was slightly insane at times. The jury returned the verdict "that Branton came to his death by a blow from an axe in the hands of Guilford Crawford."

A Young Englishman's Good Luck.

MONTREAL, Oct. 2.—William Atwater, an Englishman who has only been in this country a few weeks, received a letter yesterday announcing that he had fallen heir to £200,000. The letter gives full particulars of the death of his mother's uncle in Switzerland. Atwater's life has been a hard one since coming to this city. Two weeks ago he had not a cent in the world, and while asking for a small loan was advised to go to the Brewery Mission, where he had two meals and a bed there and left on the following day. Poverty stared him in the face at every turn. No matter where he went, it was impossible to get work. On Sunday night he sought refuge at the Salvation Lighthouse, and in the morning, after feeding on some bread and water, walked with weary steps to the post-office, where he received the welcome letter. Atwater will leave for England this week.

A London Murder Trial.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The fall sittings of the High Court for Middlesex county were opened in the court house by Mr. Justice Robertson. The first case was that of murder. The party accused was Edward Bowers, of the township of Biddulph, and the victim, William Cain, a near neighbor. Justice Robertson, in speaking of the case, reviewed the evidence given at the coroner's inquest. A party returning home on the night of the alleged crime were engaged in some friendly tussling in front of Bowers' house, when some one demanded to know who was there. The crowd scattered and a shot was fired, the bullet mortally wounding Cains. While on the way for medical aid Bowers admitted having fired the shot.

What MacWherrell's Clergyman Says.

BRAMPTON, Oct. 2.—MacWherrell is rejoicing still at his reprieve from death. Sheriff Broddy, High Constable Hurst and another officer will take him to Kingston this week. Rev. Mr. Pearson, who has visited MacWherrell in jail since his conviction, expresses the opinion that justice would not have been astray had the sentence of death been carried out. He is of the opinion that MacWherrell is infatuated with the notoriety he had gained through the sensational trial and the accounts in the newspapers.

The Pilot Dropped Dead.

QUEBEC, Que., Oct. 2.—Ulderic Tupin, a Montreal pilot, went on board the ship Mindet to take her to Batiscan and had barely touched the vessel's deck when he fell dead. The coroner was notified and had the body brought ashore and an inquest will be held. The deceased was about 45 years of age, was married and belonged to Champlain.

West Wellington Patrons.

ARTHUR, Ont., Oct. 2.—The Patrons of Industry of West Wellington held a meeting here for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the next Dominion elections. They decided to place a candidate in the field but could not get any one to accept the nomination. They accordingly adjourned to meet later on.

CONDUCTORS ARRESTED

Two Toronto Men Taken Into Custody by a Montreal Detective.

RAILWAY CIRCLES EXCITED

The Authorities, it is Said, Have Other Arrests in View—They Are Charged With Taking Fares of Which No Returns Are Made to the Company.

MONTREAL, Oct. 2.—A great sensation has been produced in Grand Trunk circles by the arrest of the two conductors. It was stated yesterday on good authority that more arrests were to follow.

The action of the company in seeking the intervention of the Attorney-General instead of going on record as private prosecutor is variously commented on. It is said that the reason for this action lay in the possibility of acquittal, in which case the company would not be liable for a counter action for damages for false arrest.

It is the habit of the Grand Trunk to keep a conductor on the same route for many years. The public thus get to know the man by sight and name, and it is contended that this familiarity is unfriendly to honesty. If the system were such as it is in England, where the guard is changed during the journey, and no one knows what man will be put on, the conductor would be less exposed to temptation. The conductor, it is said, should not know his train till the latter was ready to start. This would prevent any man being approached by the class of men who still make a boast that they never pay full fare on the Grand Trunk.

Two More at Toronto.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Fred Tamblin, 26 Sullivan street, and Samuel Defries, 230 Broadview avenue, are in custody at police headquarters. They are both Grand Trunk railway conductors, and are charged with defrauding the railway by taking fares that no returns were made of, and also with conspiring to defraud the company.

The arrests were made by Detective Flynn, of Montreal, and they are but the sequel to the similar arrests that were made in Montreal on Saturday.

It is said that there will be more railway men in custody before many hours have passed.

Both of the men arrested are old employes of the railway and have been for many years passenger conductors. Defries is one of the oldest and best known conductors in the service. He is also well known all over the city. He is a prominent Orangeman and is a brother of the Defries who was shot in the Fenian raid.

QUEBEC CITIZENS INDIGANT.

They Call for the Speedy Punishment of the Young Toughs.

QUEBEC, Oct. 2.—Rev. Mr. Stobo, a member of the Evangelical Alliance, has sent a letter to Mayor Parent protesting against the action of the young roughs who stoned the Baptist Mission on Friday night. The rev. gentleman complains very much of the defective police service of Quebec. Mayor Parent will cause the perpetrators to be hunted up and will have them severely punished. The people of Quebec are highly incensed at the dastardly conduct of these loafers and all newspapers in the city are unanimous in demanding their speedy arrest and punishment.

An Appeal to Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—Rev. R. N. Lariviere, of the French Episcopal Church, Quebec, is in the city. Along with Dr. Ami, of the Geological Survey Department, he called at the office of the Premier to see what could be done to put a stop to recent assaults which have been made on Protestants in their places of worship in that city. Sir John Thompson was not in his office at the time, but his private secretary, Douglas Stewart, told Mr. Lariviere that the matter was one which ought to be laid before the Attorney-General of the province, who had charge of the administration of justice in the event of the municipality not acting. If the Attorney-General refused to act then it might be a question for the Minister of Justice to consider. It is, therefore, likely that Mr. Lariviere will interview the Quebec Attorney-General before seeing the Premier.

Mr. Lariviere condemns the cowardly action of the Quebec police.

Mr. Lariviere says the police either acted cowardly or they are in sympathy with the mob. He says that the riot was caused by a false statement in the press to the effect that the Salvation Army had paraded the streets of St. Roch's and had attempted to get converts. The Army did not do so because the laws of the province forbid them parading the streets.

Counterfeiter Ryan Sentenced.

WINDSOR, Oct. 2.—John B. Ryan, who is held on the charge of making counterfeit coin, was arraigned in the police court yesterday and had sentence passed upon him. As there were extenuating circumstances in Ryan's case it mitigated against a heavy sentence. He and his accomplice, Alfred Weaver, were arrested about a month ago. Weaver was allowed to go on suspended sentence. Ryan had several examinations in court and his case was thoroughly investigated. The sentence imposed by the magistrate was one year in Toronto central prison at hard labor.

Shot at by a Burglar.

LAMBTON MILLS, Oct. 2.—Frank Winters, proprietor of the Senate hotel, was awakened by a noise in the house and thought it was the hostler. He called down through a chimney hole where he saw a light, and was answered by a bullet grazing his ear. On investigating he found that burglars had ransacked the place and taken what money they found in the bar. It is supposed they are the same burglars who operated at Edward Waterhouse's hotel, Cooksville, last week.

An Insane Woman Attempts Suicide.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Mrs. Martha Jane Hutchinson, 128 Elm street, made an attempt to end her life yesterday, but did not succeed in seriously injuring herself. She was removed to the asylum, Dr. Burns, of College street, pronouncing her insane.

ACCORDING to the Huron Expositor, the Patron will be disloyal to his cause who votes against the Ontario Government. "This," says the Mail, "amounts to telling the Patrons that they are simply a Liberal sideshow.' The Mail' sneer is not consequent. The Expositor is correct in so far that the published platform of the Patrons, except in perhaps one or two planks, is identical with the platform the Liberals have practiced for years. What the Liberal platform and policy cannot give the Patrons that are Patrons from principle, they will search for in vain from the Conservatives.

MR. McCARTHY has been asked to run in several constituencies, but has declined. To the electors of North Simcoe he said, the other day, "that so soon as they were tired of him he would retire from public life." This is not the way a man with a mission should talk. If Mr. McCarthy has a work to do, he should not be turned aside short of the goal by the withdrawal of the fluctuating favour of any body of electors, who may tire of their idol. Action, based on principle, rushes forward to success, or failure. Considerations of personal popularity suggest many halting and devious steps.

APPLES have turned out better in the United States than the early crop reports predicted. Before the September rains a shortage in winter apples was anticipated, but favourable weather has altered the conditions. The New England crop is uneven, though the Baldwins are quite promising, and Greenings are heavy in spots. The apple crop of 1894 is estimated at 46,712,000 barrels. In 1889, when the yield was short, it reached 57,231,000 barrels. The prospects, therefore, are that prices will be firm for winter apples.

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

Mr. Sam Hughes Digs it to Port Perry and Guarantees Its Completion in the Near Future.

(Lindsay Warder.)

The inspection of the route of the Trent Valley Canal and waters opening thereto, which was begun on Tuesday last by Mr. Balderson, the efficient secretary of the Railways and Canals Department, was concluded on Saturday. The entire route from Heeley's falls below Hastings, on up through Rice Lake, Otonabee river, Ketchewana, Clear, Stony, Love Sick, Deer, Buckhorn, Pigeon, Sturgeon, Cameron and Balsam lakes, and thence by wagon across Eldon and Thorah to Lake Simcoe was made in three days. It proved a great surprise to the departmental officers who never realized there were such vast inland lakes with tributary waters in Ontario. On Saturday morning, in the face of the gale, Messrs. Balderson and Preston, of Ottawa, and Capt. Crandell and Sam Hughes, of Lindsay, under the guidance of Capt. Cottingham and Capt. Kinnear set out for Port Perry. Owing to the very low water progress was slow. The wheel stirred the mud for fully one half the distance and in two instances the steam yacht got aground. In Lake Scugog the water and sky were fairly black with wild ducks. Deep water was at last found off Scugog Island, as it had been off Washburn. The gale continued to increase with tremendous force until the strong rope fastening the small boat to the steam yacht snapped and let it adrift. The waves were then rolling very high, and no attempt was made to secure the boat. Finally after five and one half hours traversing what in good water the little steamer could easily do in three, the party neared Port Perry, but found difficulty in reaching the wharf. There the fair was visited. The Ottawa gentlemen took the C. P. R. evening train for the west, and will inspect the Welland and St. Lawrence canals this week. Capt. Crandell and Mr. Hughes returned home to Lindsay by train, while the others set out in the yacht. The lost boat was found at the Indian Village. The storm was so violent, however, that Capt. Cottingham deemed it wise to lie in a sheltered bay at the northern end of Scugog Island. They reached Lindsay on Sunday night. Meantime there was considerable anxiety felt for their safety, as the gale was the heaviest for years. One thing seems certain, The people residing in Port Perry, and along the shores of Scugog lake, as well as those living in Lindsay who wish to use the waters, must be veritable serfs to permit the waters to be lowered as they now are. It seems a pity that the Government officers and party were not kept stranded on the mud banks over Sunday. They would then appreciate having the water kept at proper level. However this the people of Port Perry may rely on. Unless something unforseen occurs, we guarantee that they will have good safe navigation in the near future. The water will be kept up, and dredging will also assist in improving the waterway. Lake Scugog will be an important branch of the Trent Valley Canal.

Nothing Stands as High,

as a remedy for every womanly ailment, as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Here is the proof. It's the only medicine for women so certain in its effects that it can be guaranteed. In every case, if it doesn't cure, your money is returned. Can anything else, though it may be better for a tricky dealer to sell, be "just as good" for you to buy?

"Favorite Prescription" is an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengtening nervine, and a complete cure for all the fundamental derangements, painful disorders and chronic weaknesses peculiar to the sex.

For young girls entering at the critical "change of life"; for women approaching confinement; nursing mothers; and every woman who is "run-down," tired, or overworked—it is a special, safe, and certain help.

THE VOTERS' LIST FOR 1894-5.

The Lists Printed—Interesting Figures respecting the Classification of the Voters—The Number of Lady Voters.

The voters' list for the town of Peterborough for the year 1894 has been printed, and is now in the hands of the town clerk.

A run through its pages reveals the fact that the total number of voters for all purposes is 3,301. Of this total, Ward No. 1 has 1018; No. 2, 867; No. 3, 866; and No. 4, 550.

A further sub-division may be made as follows:

No. 1 Ward—Part I, voters (that is those entitled to vote at elections for the Legislative Assembly and at municipal elections) 635. Part II, voters (those entitled to vote at municipal elections only), 228. Part III, (manhood franchise voters), 155. Total, 1,018.

No. 2 Ward—Part I, voters, 429. Part II, voters, 296. Part III, voters, 142. Total, 867.

No. 3 Ward—Part I, voters, 537. Part II, voters, 224. Part III, voters, 105. Total, 866.

No. 4 Ward—Part I, voters, 330. Part II, voters, 162. Part III, voters, 58. Total, 550.

RECAPITULATION.

No. 1 Ward,	total voters	1018
No. 2 Ward	do	867
No. 3 Ward	do	866
No. 4 Ward	do	550
Grand total		3301

It will not be uninteresting to note to what extent the voters' list sympathises with the "woman's rights" movement.

In Ward No. 1, the number of ladies entitled to mark their ballots at municipal elections only, and at plebiscite votes, etc., is 105; No. 2 Ward, 108; No. 3 Ward, 117; No. 4 Ward, 74. The total number of lady voters in Peterborough is 404.

ONLY A WORD OR TWO.

The Mothers Most Interested.

Babies and Lactated Food.

Just a few words to-day, dear mothers, on a subject that you are much interested in, and on which much of your happiness depends.

Are you aware of the fact that thousands of mothers in Canada—your relatives, friends and neighbours have to thank Lactated Food for what it has done for their babies?

Many pale-faced, drooping, puny and half-dead babies have been made strong, bright, charming and good natured by Lactated Food, after all other forms of nourishment had failed. Hundreds of mothers have written to the manufacturers of the great Lactated Food, and honestly confessed that their babies would have died, if Lactated Food had been wanting.

To-day the attention of the whole medical world is directed to this wonderful health-producing food, and our ablest doctors gladly advise mothers to adopt its use. Why will mothers and nurses use inferior and dangerous foods when Lactated saves life, gives health, strength and heartiness? Baby's life is always protected when Lactated Food is used.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

AN ARREST

IN LIFE'S JOURNEY.

Had Taken the Wrong Road.

Endured Many Trials and Sufferings.

Heard of the Glad News of Paine's Celery Compound

Mr. Church Says: "It Snatched Me from the Grave."

The Cured Man's Honest Testimony.

He Urges All Sufferers to Use the Medicine That Gave Him New Life

An important arrest in life's journey! A man saved who had travelled far on the road that leads to the silent, dark grave! His trials and sufferings were heavy and severe; he had made many efforts to rid himself of the shackles and chains that bound him, but for long months his endeavours wdre futile.

While on the great highway of disease and suffering Mr. John A. Church, of Coldbrook, N. S., heard the glad news of victories won over disease by Paine's Celery Compound; his heart bounded with joy and fresh hope and he lost no time in testing the virtues of nature's great healer.

The first bottle produced a mighty change, and warranted Mr. Church in continuing with the medicine. After using nine bottles of the great Compound, a thorough cure was effected, and a new lease of life was obtained.

Before hearing of Paine's Celery Compound Mr. Church was literally robbed of his money as he bought medicines of all kinds that proved useless and worthless. His experience is of great value to every sick and suffering man and woman in Canada. He writes thus:

"It is with pleasure that I give testimony in favour of your Paine's Celery Compound. In the spring of 1892, I had an attack of La Grippe which put me into such a condition that I could not sleep or eat. I was completely run-down, had extreme nervous prostration, and lay for days in a half stupified state.

"After spending all my money for medicine which did little good, I gave up to die, when one day a paper on Paine's Celery Compound was brought to me. I at once procured the medicine, and derived great relief from the first bottle. I slept better, ate better, and digestion improved. After using nine bottles I feel like a new man. I can truly say that Paine's Celery Compound snatched me from the grave, and gave me a new lease of life.

"I earnestly urge all sufferers to use Paine's Celery Compound, feeling sure it will cure them. Do not spend your money for medicines that cannot cure you."

UNDER THE NEW TARIFF.

The Receipts for September at the U. S. Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The receipts of the Treasury Department for the month of September under the operation of the new tariff law have been made public. The aggregate receipts for the month were $22,621,288, as compared with $24,582,756 for the month of September, 1893. According to the estimates upon which the new tariff bill was based it was to produce from sugar $43,000,000 a year and from the income tax $15,000,000. No revenue from either of these sources is shown in the current receipts, for the reason that the income tax does not become operative until January 1, 1895, and three or four months' supply of sugar was imported prior to the new law in anticipation of the ad valorem tax placed upon it.

From present indications, when revenue from sugar and the income tax begin to be received, and customs and internal revenue receipts assume their normal conditions, as they are now gradually doing, a surplus for the fiscal year of between fifty and sixty millions at the present ratio existing between receipts and expenditures, is indicated. For the current year to date the expenditure exceeds the receipts less than a million dollars.

The debt statement issued yesterday shows a net increase in the public debt less cash in the Treasury during September of $8,152,700.84. The interest-bearing debt increased $140,000, the non-interest bearing debt increased $824,182.95, and the cash in the Treasury decreased $7,228,-337.89.

TRENTON, N.J., Oct. 2.—Mrs. Glenn, a faith curist, is the first one of her class in New Jersey to be held for trial under the new law passed by the recent legislature, making it a misdemeanor for any faith curist or mind reader to practice in the state. She tried to cure Sadie Bell, of Palmyra, of consumption, but the girl died, and a corner's jury decided that she died for the want of recognized attention. The constitutionality of the act is to be tested.

Fierce Tornado in Kansas.

WICHITA, Kas., Oct. 2.—A tornado struck the northern part of the city last evening and destroyed much property. Several people were injured, but so far as known no fatalities occurred. A number of residences were lifted off their foundations and some of them overturned, and a score of barns and outhouses were demolished. Telegraphic and telephone wires are down in all directions and no news has yet been received from the surrounding country.

An Oil Laden Steamer Sunk.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—The British tank steamer Allegheny, which left this port for Bergen loaded with oil, was run into and sunk by the Belgian tank steamer Caucus, inward bound. The accident happened in Delaware Bay, about 65 miles below Philadelphia. The Allegheny was valued at $250,000 and is partially insured. Her cargo was valued at $30,000 and was shipped by the Standard Oil Co.

Plot to Murder an Italian Consul.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—Eight anarchists were arrested at Marseilles yesterday on a charge of plotting the murder of Signor Durando, the Italian Consul, and an attempt to blow up the Italian Consulate. Letters found in the lodgings of the prisoners showed that they were connected with an Italian Brotherhood, having ramifications in London, Triesto, Genoa and other European cities.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Oct. 2, 1894.

The visible supply of barley at principal points of accumulation is 2,265,000 bushels, against 1,746,000 last week and 920,000 for the corresponding week of 1893. The movement so early in the season is phenomenal.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The receipts on the street comprised 400 bushels of wheat, which sold at 54c for white, 53c for red, and 50c for goose; 400 of barley at 42½ to 44c; 200 of peas at 59 to 60c, and 800 oats at 30 to 31½c. Outside prices are unchanged.

The Chicago wheat market was a little stronger, and closed a shade higher for December and ½ to ⅝c for cash. May corn closed 3-8 to 1-2c higher. Oats were dull and about steady.

At East Buffalo the sheep and lambs market closed steady, with sales of Canada lambs at $4.15 to $4.30, and ruling prices $4.25.

The London stock markets generally were dull, with flatness in the case of Americans, which closed 60c to $1 lower on the average.

Nearly all security prices declined on Wall street under a steady pressure from the usual operators. Investors are not marketing their holdings, but many houses took on a rather heavy load of long stock during the August rise and some of them have apparently during the past few days been letting their surplus holdings go. Sugar certificates broke again, the factors in the movements being the same as usual. There was no news of importance.

ROBERT HALL.

A Pronounced Success.

As anticipated, the formal opening of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of weaves march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

LOCAL NEWS.

New Term at Night School.

Another term at the Business College Night School will begin on Tuesday evening, Oct. 2nd. Enter to-night.

The fact that Grafton & Co. sell the best clothing in town does not imply that they ask high prices for their clothing.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Tuesday, Oct. 2nd.—Another slight frost during the night, with the thermometer this morning indicating 33 degrees above zero. May bring rain.—THOS. TELFORD.

Dirty.

Well, we should say so. From the cellar to the garret. With the dust of the summer and the dust of the flies everything is apt to be a little dirty just now, especially the wall paper and window blinds. We offer a remedy for that dirty appearance that comes early in the fall. A new fresh paper and a new set of blinds is the simplest and finest remedy. It will make your home look like new, and give a refreshing appearance to everything around. See the beautiful stock all this month at a genuine discount. No regular prices at the Peterborough Book Store.—A. H. STRATTON & Co.

Do You Smoke.

Do you smoke tobacco? Then you want the best for the least money. Do you know where to go? You will find out by consulting Mr. C. Legros' half column advertisement in this issue. You will see detailed there lists of his prime cigars of the best manufacture and at very moderate prices. He has cigars to meet the wishes of all tastes and all purses. He keeps a great stock, and smokers will find at 329 George street, one of the finest stock of cigars in the Midland district. Also cigarettes, and the finest brands and mixtures of smoking tobacco. Dental tobacco is kept in stock in the greatest variety and at wonderfully low prices. If you want a pipe, briar or meerschaum, you will find what you want at LeGros. Imported cigars he makes a speciality of. He claims that his prices are the lowest. Call and pay Alive C. Legros a visit.

A Vocalist of High Order.

The Napanee Beaver speaks as follows concerning Miss Eva N. Roblin, who will take part in the Charlotte street church concert on Tuesday, October 16th:—"On Thursday evening of last week Miss Eva N. Roblin, late of London, Eng., gave a song recital in the opera house before a large and appreciative audience with most gratifying success. Miss Roblin appeared in six numbers on the programme and on each appearance was greeted with a very warm reception and each number was rendered in a manner which won for her a most hearty encore. Miss Roblin is a vocalist of high order and her selections showed that she possesses qualities for making one of our foremost Canadian stars. Her voice is full, clear and resonant and is handled in a most accomplished and professional manner. Her enunciation and phrasing are good and taken altogether we bespeak for her a most promising future."

Barn, Crop and Threshing Machine Burnt.

While Mr. Drury's threshing machine was at work on the farm of Mrs. Wm. Vansickle, of Deer Lake, Cardiff, Tuesday, the 18th inst., fire broke out under the machine, which was entirely destroyed with Mrs. Vansickle's barn and grain. Mrs. Vansickle is a widow with a family of small children, her husband having died but a short time ago after a very protracted illness, during which period heavy doctors' bills were incurred in the vain attempt to secure his recovery. To pay this debt, she quite recently stripped her barn-yard of cattle, and now she is left to face the approaching winter with absolute want staring her and her fatherless children in the face. Surely here is an opportunity for the exercise of practical religion, where assistance is urgently needed but the disposition to ask assistance is wanting. Let something, therefore, be done, and done quickly—"He that giveth promptly, giveth twice."—Minden Echo.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—Ashburnham Council meets to-night.

—The School Board meets this evening.

—The Battalion meets this evening, for drill.

—The police have an overcoat awaiting an owner.

—A drunk was discharged at the Police Court this morning.

—Belleville's Ministerial Association is taking steps to bring such pressure to bear as will prevent the selling of milk on Sunday.

—The town council met this afternoon at three o'clock, being called in special session to consider the appointment of a sewerage inspector.

—Lewis Bradshaw, who was seriously injured in a railway accident at Port Hope some days ago, is slowly sinking, and very little hopes are entertained of his recovery.

—A Rugby football match was played Saturday afternoon between the Juniour Institute team and the west enders. The Institute team was victorious by 39 to nil.

—The case of lack of accomodation, preferred against the proprietor of the Pullman, had to be again enlarged this morning, on account of the non-appearance of the town solicitor.

—The vital statistics of Belleville show that during the past month there has been 10 births, 9 deaths and 8 marriages in that city. The natural increase, therefore, does not equal that of Peterborough.

—"Ewan" is the name of a new post office opened up in East Galway. It is now served from Kinmount, but will probably be served direct from Furnace Falls at an early date. Mr. George McKee is postmaster and mailcarrier.

—According to the announcement made on Sunday morning last Rev. W. R. Young will give a short address on the legislation of the General Conference at the prayer meeting in George street church on Wednesday of this week.

—The C. P. R., exhibition car, containing products of the Northwest, will be on exhibition at the G. T. R. station, to-morrow and in the evening Mr. Armstrong, who is in charge of the car, will lecture in the Opera House hall. The admission is free.

—Mrs. Margaret L. Shepherd opened her season here last night in the play "Tried as by Fire," to a small house. The play is considered crude by those who endured the performance. An incident in the play is the singing of "Kathleen Mavourneen" by Mrs. Shepherd.

—Mr. H. Calcutt, brewer, Ashburnham, commenced malting on Sept. 26th, having in charge, as head malster, Mr. Robert Butcher, (late of Bass, Burton-on-Trent) he having been re-engaged throughout the malting season, and having no superior in Canada. Mr. Calcutt intends malting ten thousand bushels this coming season.

—An alarm sounded at 8:45 o'clock last evening, called the fire brigade to a vacant house on Union street, the property of Mr. Thos. Rutherford. The damage was slight, although on account of a misunderstanding regarding the alarm, some of the firemen went to the wrong section and were, therefore, a trifle late in getting to Union street.

Remember Dr. Grant's lecture in the Opera House to-night. Plan at Sallsbury's.

Sale and Tea.

The ladies of St. Andrew's church will have the annual tea and sale of useful articles for the benefit of the poor on Friday, the 5th October. The tea will be served from half-past five to half-past six in the school room. Everyone come. Admission 15 cents. MRS. D. BAILEY, secretary.

Connors Before the Beak.

Constable Stewart returned from Lindsay last night with the notorious "Prof. Connors" in his custody. This morning Connors was arraigned before the police magistrate, charged with the larceny of a waterproof coat from Mr. Thomas King, of Douro. He entered a plea of not guilty and elected to be tried by the magistrate. He was remanded.

Ashburnham Council.

There was not a quorum present last night at the meeting of the Ashburnham council. A misunderstanding existed among the members, a portion having decided to postpone the meeting until Tuesday. Those who did file an appearance had an informal talk over the "union" question and doubtless some resolution regarding the matter will be introduced at the next meeting of the council which occurs this evening according to arrangement.

Opera House.

What the Belleville Sun says of Baird's Comedy Company, which begins an engagement at Bradburn's Opera House tomorrow night: "The Baird Comedy Company opened a week's engagement at the Queen's Opera House last night to good business. The play was "The Vagabond," a strong piece cleverely interpreted by Mr. Baird's players. A decidedly interesting feature of the evening's performance were the specialties, instrumental, vocal, humorous and otherwise, which formed a pleasing afterpiece to the play." Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Young Women's Association.

Please remember the Bible study this evening on the subject, "What we ought not to love." Teacher, Miss Code. The hour is eight. Cordial invitation to all. This class only lasts one hour. The rooms are never kept open later than half past nine, giving all an opportunity of getting home before ten o'clock. Regular meeting of the board was held yesterday afternoon, with almost a full attendance. A good deal of interest was manifested in talking over plans for the winter's work. Committees were appointed to see what could be done. Look for reports next week. Association meeting will be held on Saturday evening at 8. Members especially are urgently requested to be present if possible.

St. John's Church Notes.

The offertory in St. John's last Sunday did not meet the demand made on behalf of the Widows and Orphans' Fund.

The informal gathering of the Girls' Guild of St. John's postponed from Tuesday evening will take place at the rector's residence, 64 Hunter street, on Thursday evening, to which all of the young ladies are invited.

The first meeting of the Sewing Guild was held at Mrs. Rubidge's residence this afternoon.

The first meeting of the members and associates of the Chancel Guild will be held at Mrs. Poussette's residence, Park street, to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

Rev. E. W. Pickford has been appointed by the Bishop of the diocese to the mission at Boulton. He will conclude his ministrations here next Sunday. No arrangements have been made for his successor.

Calcutt's Dublin Porter.

Recommended by the medical faculty for dispepsia, weakness and all disorders of the liver and kidneys. Persons using it have gained as much as ten pounds in a month. Particularly recommended to weak mothers when nursing. Sold by all leading grocers, and delivered to any part of the town. Telephone No. 96.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

Rod and Gun Combined.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The steamer Mary Ellen, as well as the Golden City have dropped running their out and inward trips. The steamer Mary Ellen is at present engaged in carrying freight, while at the same time towing. Both steamers have had an unusually good season, notwithstanding the financial wave which overtook the United States, as well as Canada.

The annual swimming races given by the Rice Lake Swimming and Boating Club took place Friday evening last. There was a good turnout of members and the presidents Capt. Chas. Calcutt, kindly acted as referee in the several races, while Mr. Harry Lane acted in the capacity of time keeper. There were several races in all, namely: 25 yards, 50 yards, 100 handicap, hurry scurry, watermelon and tin cup diving race. The contestants did nobly, though the water was rough and chilly. The prizes are valuable ones, some three in all, and were presented by the captain and the citizens of Harwood. Quite a few from Cobourg were noticed in the water. The prizes may be seen at Mr. Hurston's Harwood. Mr. Hurston being absent from town was unable to be present, so Captain Chas. Calcutt officiated in his place. Presentation of prize winners will take place on Friday next at 8.30 p.m.

Mr. Sid. Beckett of the Jubilee Point summer resort, can be congratulated on getting the contestants together. Onlookers as well as those participating in the sport, were highly delighted with the affair. The names of the winners will appear in Saturday's issue of the EXAMINER.

Capt. R. Tivey of the Gun Club, accompanied by Mr. Bert Roberts, went out on a fox hunt, and sighted two silvery-gray foxes, which unfortunately they could not reach. They, however, have then located, and intend paying their rendezvous a visit again. They had exceedingly good luck otherwise, capturing no less than fourteen black squirrels (which are now rare), fishing out 72 mud cats in two hours, also shooting one-half dozen wood duck, and one "thoroughbred black duck." Mr. Tivey also captured a black squirrel with a pure white tail. He is having it put in standing shape by a painstaking taxidermist, and it may be viewed at his house when completed.

Mr. "Billy" Gould left for Springville, where he expects to capture a trio of the silver-grey foxes, which are a most valuable fur bearing animal. He has already succeeded in capturing one this season, which may be seen at Taxidermist Elcome's.

Business at Harwood, Rice Lake, so says "Din Corkrey," is brisk. He reports having a most successful season of it during navigation, the steamers plying the waters to and fro, carrying abundance of passengers. He is satisfied with his percentage.

The following guests are registered at the Lakeview House, Rice Lake: Mr. J. Dickie, Toronto; A. H. McDonald, Cobourg; Dr. Sands, Coldsprings; Dr. Craig, Grafton.

No. 2 cookery of Gilmour's drive is at the Forks. It will take two seasons for the drive to reach its destination.

A half grown deer was captured in a marsh in the upper lakes a day or two ago by a well known hotel manager and his assistant. The manager sighted him and the two gave chase. It took to the beach and after running two hundred yards on the rocks it suddenly took to the water and headed out to the lake. The manager followed and waded up to the deer, which appeared exhausted. He grasped it by the tail at first, but not having much tail to hold on to, he got around to its head, and after repeatedly dipping its head under the water he led it out on the beach, and having a rope in readiness it was securely fastened about its neck. The manager intends to tame it, now having the slightest intention of leading the "Little Deer" to the slaughter. The readers of the EXAMINER will, no doubt, remember the man up North that "never told a lie."

After Monday next, the steamer Esturion will make but one trip a day, leaving Bobcaygeon at 8 a.m. and Lindsay at 3 p. m.

The steamer Esturian "went up stump" with a vengeance, on Saturday night last, becoming entangled in acre or so of stumps, which line the beautiful river Scugog, which is well named, being mostly on the "scew." They, not having a search light, consequently those aboard had to take their frail canoes and "go show the way." However, they did not succeed in locating the channel and returned to report that they were entirely out of their latitude. The night was not a most pleasing one to those aboard. The steamer was made fast to one or two of the numerous snags. The steamer arrived in port safely at about 8.30, Sunday morning.

At the Burleigh Falls summer resort those recently registered are as follows:—Messrs. Dr. Redlbow, F. L. Robins, Smith Agnew, accompanied by their wives, of California, and A. F. Jones, of the same place. They are enjoying themselves immensely, all hands having contributed to the erection of a two story cottage on White Lake, about two miles from Apsley. The have also purchased a couple of hundred acres of land and several islands. Mr. Ed. Wigg will be caretaker of their park as well as their cottages throughout the season. Mr. Wigg states that their annual outlay exceeds three thousand dollars. Mr. Robbins has had a monster lunge which he caught. Weighed, it tipped the sales at twenty six pounds and some odd ounces. This mattered nothing in the views of the party on account of their attention being called to the approach of a huge bear swimming in the narrows between their islands, which they killed in the water. On being dressed it weighed 257 lbs. They considered that brute was about two years of age. Mr. Robin has a collection of rarities, and he is going to have Bruin set up, and placed in his already well stocked museum. Mr. Robin says that Canadian game is more gritty than that of the fur-bearing, finny and feathered tribes of the United States. The party will sojourn at the Burleigh Falls until salmon fishing and deer hunting sets in, when they expect to have an outouting with their Canadian brethen. No doubt John will look after his guests in an affable manner.

Deer hunting commences on Oct. 20th and continues until Nov, 15th.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

The Wabash Railway Trains

running every day in the year between Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the finest known to the railway service; they are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments, all furnished with the most luxurious elegance and perfection of commodation known to the car builders' art. They include free reclining, palace, sleeping and dining cars of the latest and best patterns. Call on or write any railway agent for tickets and all information, or address J. A. To the Ladies.

—:o:—

To the Ladies of Peterborough and surrounding country:

LADIES,—I beg to remind you that I have been making Seamless Garments in the town of Peterborough for nearly three years and teaching The S. G. Crowe Mechanical Tailor System of cutting them. This system has given perfect satisfaction wherever it has been used and is to-day, undoubtedly, the very best tailor system in the market.

Do not be misled by any bombastic ads or silly threats of people who are trying to introduce recently patented hookey stick systems with high sounding names. We have, and can show, if necessary, our patent papers of several years' standing. We can also show a first-class diploma and gold medal from Paris, France, and a diploma from Ottawa, Canada, which are sufficient guarantees of the excellence of our system.

The best proof is an actual test. Come and have your garments made or learn our system and we will guarantee to give you perfect satisfaction.

SPECIALTIES—Seamless and Dartless Waist, Dartless Coats, two underarm pieces, French Bust, Bias Dart and latest Paris curves. No paper or patterns required.

That offer to bet from $10,000 to $50,000 is a standing joke in the trade, and we would claim the $10.00 reward offered at once but for an old injunction against grinding the faces of the poor.

I respectfully remain,
Yours,

MRS. E. KEANE,
Agent, Peterborough.

TENDERS!

Addressed to the undersigned will be received up to Friday, the 5th of October, for the Caretaking, Planting and Management of the Court House Park for the season of 1895.

JUST OUT OF THE CASE.

Perhaps it's just as well you didn't buy your new Mantle sooner. Styles have changed since February — when most of the Mantle Stocks for this season were bought.

Our stock was bought in June and are the most correct in all the details of Fashion's latest fancies—revised with all the newest improvements, and endorsed by leading fashion authorities. The new prescribed lengths are from 34 to 38 inches—longer coats are too long—so the fashion leaders insist.

LADIES—We invite your inspection, feeling satisfied that nothing in town can excel our Mantles, Coats and Wraps. If you want a garment particularly effective and fashionable, get ours. Besides, you can buy now at the beginning of the season far better than at the end.

We claim to be as far ahead in our goods as we are below in our prices.

OUR CIVIC SIRES IN SESSION MEET.

MASON VS. PETERBOROUGH AGAIN TO THE FORE.

Auburn Foot Bridge Still a Suspension Bridge—Bylaws Under Deliberation—Accounts Presented.

At a meeting of the town council last night the following members were present:—The Mayor and Messrs. Cahill, White, Best, Hughes, Dawson, Roger, Sutton and Mason.

The following communication was received from the town solicitor:—

MASON VS. TOWN.

This action was tried for the third time last week, occupying part of the afternoon on Monday, and of the morning of Tuesday and the greater part of Wednesday; and judgment was given on Friday, awarding the plaintiff $75 and costs. The plaintiff on this occasion elected to have the case tried by Mr. Justice Ferguson without a jury, and they having made this election, I, on behalf of the town, assented.

In the view that I take of the case, the judgment is not only contrary to the evidence, but the learned judge improperly refused to receive the evidence that was offered on behalf of the town, particularly in the case of Mr. W. H. Moore, whom he refused to allow to be re-examined for the purpose of explaining statements made by him on his cross-examination; and in the case of Mr. S. Belcher, whom he refused to allow to state the distance of the several points that we referred to in the evidence, as measured by him while the case was in progress. This was necessary for the purpose of clearing up the question that had been rendered obscure by the evidence of Mr. Dumble, who for the first time advanced the theory that Mr. Mason had fallen at a point some distance—about eleven feet—higher up the sidewalk than the place where he, Mr. Mason, had pointed out to Mr. Pope and others of our witnesses. At this place, as described by Mr. Dumble, the sidewalk was more uneven than at the real spot in question, and there can be no doubt that the judge has arrived at his finding on a mistaken view—unsupported by the evidence—as to where Mr. Mason fell. The learned Judge also gave effect to the evidence of a witness, David Wallace, who said that, according to his recollection, the sidewalk was about ¼ or 3 inches lower at the south side than at the north side, and on this added ¼ of an inch to the ¼ of an inch that Wallace said the straight edge showed the board to be out of its straight line. The evidence of Mr. S. Belcher, on our behalf, showed the difference in the level of the board to be only 15-16 of an inch, as ascertained by a proper instrument; but this evidence the Judge set aside, because thought it referred to a different place.

On the other hand, the evidence of Mr. Pope and others was clear, as to the spot that Mr. Mason had shown to them as the spot where he fell.

I consider, therefore, that there has not been a fair trial, and that on the evidence coming to be read by the higher Court, the judgment cannot stand. The learned Judge declined to grant the stay of proceedings, and it, therefore, becomes expedient, if any further action be taken, that the case should be carried direct to the Court of Appeal.

I await the instructions of the Council.

Yours truly,
E. B. EDWARDS.

On motion of Messrs. Hall and Dawson the matter was referred to a committee of the whole council. A special meeting, therefore, is called for Thursday evening.

THE OTHER COMMUNICATIONS which were received were:—

From H. Carveth, applying to be appointed sewer inspector.—Referred to the Sewerage Committee.

From P. McNamara, applying to be appointed to the position of sewer inspector.—Referred to the Sewerage Committee.

From E. B. Edwards, asking the town clerk to forward $51, the amount of witness fees due in the case of Mason vs. Peterborough.

On motion of Messrs. Roger and Sutton, it was resolved to forward the cheque.

From W. Henderson, superintendent of the Peterborough Water Co., setting forth that, according to instructions, hydrants had been placed on Sherbrooke street in front of house No. 398 and house No. 410.—Received.

From Street Inspector Pope, stating that $325 had been spent on streets during September and setting forth in what manner the sum had been expended.—Received.

From Robert Gaant, sewer contractor, stating that the contract had been signed by one surety and himself. The other surety, Mr. Farr, was out of Toronto, and would not return until Wednesday, when the contract would be completed and returned.

Received and referred to the Sewerage Committee.

Referred to the Finance Committee.

NEW BY-LAW.

Mr. White introduced a by-law regarding the storing and keeping of coal oil in the town. The by-law, after having sundry blanks filled in, provided that no persons should keep on their premises more than five barrels of coal oil and that the building in which it was stored be isolated and 100 feet distant from any other building besides being located outside the fire limits.

On suggestion of the Mayor, the by-law did not reach further than a second reading in order that more light might be thrown on the matter.

On motion of Mr. Roger and Mr. Sutton, the matter was referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee to report upon.

Mr. Best introduced the by-law to authorize the execution of the contract for the outfall sewer. It was read a third time and passed.

A by-law regulating the transportation of night soil introduced by Mr. Hughes received its first, second and final readings and was passed. The by-law sets forth that night soil shall not be moved within the limits of the town between six o'clock in the morning and 10 o'clock at night. The fine fixed in case of violation is not to exceed $20.

THE AUBURN FOOTBRIDGE.

Mr. Mason moved that a footbridge be thrown across the river in the neighbourhood of the Auburn Mills, but the resolution was vigorously opposed by Mr. Dawson on the score of the necessity of keeping down expenses.

Mr. Mason did not find a seconder for his motion, consequently it fell through. He accused Mr. Dawson of being one of the many who had promised to back him up in the project earlier in the season, and stated that those who would use the bridge most were citizens who received small, if any, returns for the amount they paid in taxes every year.

A large number of those who favoured the project were present but unfortunately the matter could not come before the chair for discussion on account of the resolution lacking a seconder.

A POOR SIDEWALK.

Mr. Hughes called the attention of the council to the fact that a portion of the sidewalk on Weller street had been torn up.

Mr. Dawson explained that the sidewalk was in a very bad condition and was, in fact, so dangerous that the citizens refused to walk on it.

Mr. Pope was heard on the subject and stated that it had been torn up at night, by unknown parties.

Mr. Hughes and Mr. Dawson moved that the sidewalk be repaired.

Mr. Rogers moved in amendment that the matter be referred to the Street and Bridge Committee, with power to act.

Mr. Hughes withdrew his motion and the amendment carried.

A NICE, FAT JOB.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the Sewerage Committee be authorized to employ an inspector for the outfall sewer, such inspector to be a resident and a ratepayer of the town.

Mr. Best and Mr. Sutton moved in amendment that the matter be left over for discussion until Thursday evening.

Mr. Hughes thought that the best man possible should be procured as an inspector, whether the committee had to go out of town or not.

Mr. Best's amendment carried and the council adjourned.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Hartley, of Peterborough, was visiting Mrs. James Woods, last week.—Orono News.

Mr. Milton Walker, of Peterborough, was visiting his mother, Mrs. A. A. Ralfe, a few days last week.—Orono News.

Mr. Christopher Leary, of Anson, returned home a few days ago after a visit to his son in Peterborough for the past fortnight.—Minden Echo.

Mr. G. Learmonth and wife have returned home from Ottawa, after spending a few days with Mr. Fred. English, of the Post Office department.

Mr. A. P. Choate, commercial editor of the Toronto Empire, is spending his well earned holidays in Peterborough and vicinity, and returns to the city this evening.

Miss Louise Yokome, this morning left town for Toronto, where she will resume the study of the violin with Herr Klingenfild, at the Toronto College of Music.

Miss Wood, of the graduating class of the Nicholls Hospital training school for nurses, secured the highest number of marks among the competitors at the recent examinations.

THE EXAMINER is pleased to be informed that the report that Mr. W. F. Nelson is ill at Mrs. Jas. Dixon's with typhoid fever is incorrect. It turns out that the illness is due to a severe cold, attended with fever.

Miss Etta Kindred, left this morning for Rochester, N. Y., where she has accepted a position in one of the leading business establishments in that city. Her services will be greatly missed in connection with the Mark street choir, of which she was a valued member.

THE CHEESE BOARD.

At the meeting of the Peterborough Cheese Board the following buyers were present: Messrs. Cluxton, Hodgson, Cook, Wrighton, Fitzgerald.

Liverpool was quoted at 50s 6d.

The following cheese was boarded:

Manchester	64	Dunsford	47
North Dummer	57	Orono	50
Hope	110	Newtonville	45
Brooklyn	75	Darlington Union	—

Mr. Hodgson started the bidding by offering 10½ cents for selections, and picked a number of factories, which refused. He then advanced his bid to 10½c which was accepted by Ormonde, Melrose Abbey and Daisy D. The offer was refused by Pine Grove, Lakefield, Otonabee Union, Peterborough, Norwood, Keene, Warsaw and Oakdale.

On motion of Mr. Sanderson, the board adjourned for two weeks, without further sales being made. At the next meeting the September and October makes will be boarded separately, when, if the market does not suit, the October make will be withdrawn and a sale sought for the September's alone.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th.—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

Shot One of Her Assailants.

CHATHAM, Ont., Oct. 2.—Last evening a woman named Mrs. Eugene Langlois and her husband came into town and had warrants issued for the arrest of two brothers named Harris, whom the woman alleges entered her house on the 8th concession of Denver and tried to criminally assault her, chasing her from one room to another. She managed, however, to secure a gun, and firing twice wounded John Harris in the breast and right arm. When the Langlois left their home the wounded man was lying outside the house in a critical condition. The magistrate has gone out to the scene of the shooting to investigate the affair.

MRS. E. KEANE,
186 MacDonnel St., cor. George.

IT FOLLOWS AFTER — a disordered liver — that you're subject to attacks of cold or chills on slight exposure. You get "tired" easily. A "tired" digestion fails to assimilate food. This often results in what we call Indigestion or Biliousness.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets rouse the liver to vigorous action, and this in turn starts the machinery of the body into activity. Liver, stomach and bowels feel the tonic effect, and in consequence the entire system is invigorated. The processes become self-regulating, and a reserve force is stored up against exposure to disease.

If you're too thin, too weak or nervous, it must be that food assimilation is wrong. This is the time to take Pleasant Pellets. They permanently cure Constipation, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, Sick or Bilious Headache, Dizziness and Jaundice.

LONG ENGAGEMENTS.

IS IT FAIR FOR JOHN TO KEEP MARY WAITING INDEFINITELY?

One Woman Inclines to an Adverse Opinion. Mary L. Bisland Discusses an Interesting Topic—An Eloquent Champion of Feminine Rights.

Is it honorable for a man to bind a woman under a matrimonial engagement which implies indefinite waiting, for its fulfillment?

Mr. Walter Besant made reference to something of the sort the other day, and during the present prolonged financial stringency many a lovesick bachelor is asking himself this very question.

John adores Mary and has cogent reasons for believing that his passion is reciprocated. Immediate marriage is quite impossible. Shall he tell his love or allow concealment like a worm to play havoc with his heart? His silence leaves her at liberty to accept other proposals if they present themselves. While, on the other hand, plighting her troth to him may mean the unavailing sacrifice of youth, home and husband to his selfish affection.

John is pretty well satisfied that Mary cares for him sufficiently to accept the waiting risks. But that very fact makes him ponder all the more seriously upon his duty to her. He appreciates that every woman whose nature is wholesome and sweet, is keenly ambitious for the love, the dignity and multiplied interests that married life alone can give. In the early tenderness of her attachment Mary is apt to minimize all of this, but as the time passes and her girlish bloom fades may she not regret this price of her fidelity? After playing the part of bridesmaid half a dozen times she may long to be a bride herself.

As the years drag on every new house erected in the neighborhood, every christening party at church, every smooth cheeked matron he meets will be a direct reproach to him. Mary, too, might be discussing housekeeping cares at the sewing society and presiding at mother's meetings if he had not selfishly bound her by a promise. Her sympathy in his misfortunes will be just as generous as of old, but he will wonder now and then if her feelings have not undergone a change, and the sentiment is not that of a sister rather than a sweetheart. He is sure they will miss something the future can never give and if the blessed day of union actually comes they must be content to take restfulness for ecstacy.

Which reasoning is all very fine, Mr. John; but as you thought it out in a moment of idealistic altruism, it is not in practice worth a snap of my finger.

It is but right that a man should hesitate to ask a woman to assume the obligations of matrimony without any of its joys and privileges. To an honorable woman an engagement means the assumption of many duties and anxieties, and if prolonged beyond a certain period is apt to become slightly ludicrous to the outside world. Romance hovers only about new marriages and betrothals, and old lovers are hoplessly commonplace. But the very fact of your asking Mary to be your wife assumes that she is a person of understanding sufficient to know her own mind. Your proposal was not made under any false pretences. She accepted the situation with her eyes wide open, and it is but fair to let her exercise some discretion in a matter so nearly concerning her happiness.

If John only knew it, the one unpardonable crime a man can commit in the eyes of the woman who loves him is not to confess his passion for her. Silence she finds it impossible to forgive. Aside from the grief she suffers, his reticence puts her at such a cruel disadvantage. Unless he speaks the magic words, she is powerless to tell him how patiently she will await the turn of his fortunes or the removal of whatever obstacles separate them. Waiting is one of the things women possess a positive genius for and uncertainty a trial they are helpless to combat. As all the world agrees, men and women hold diametrically opposite views as to what is honorable. John feels he has no right to speak, while Mary is yearning to prove her sublime indifference to the very stumbling block in their way. Then, too, Mary is justified in believing that John's mountain, sensibly approached, will prove to be the merest molehill. Of course, his sentiment about his old mother is very admirable, but is it just or right? Because she is an elderly, feeble and much indulged old lady is no reason why he should remain single. True, she depends upon him or has a very natural maternal jealousy touching her son, but it seems a little unfair to sacrifice a young woman's love to an old woman's whim.

As a rule, the embarrassment that begets a long engagement is financial; but whatever it may be the man should speak. If he believes his love is returned he has no right to withhold from the woman a complete confession of his feelings. Not only is it treating her with the proper respect and consideration, but he owes it to himself.

Much evil has been wrought by just such false conceptions of honor as the one Walter Besant suggests. And, though elective affinities and broken hearts are unknown outside of the sentimental world, warm, human love is the most active agent in the world to-day. It is as much thought of by men and talked of by women as when knights errant and damsels were in vogue. Every one all the while is making an unconscious struggle to win or to hold it. What a pity, then, with so many real difficulties in the way, that fictitious barriers, which are purely imaginary, should be allowed to obstruct the course. If John loves Mary, tell her so. Tell her at all hazards. Let him entreat her to be his, and if they are obliged to wait half a lifetime for the ring, it will be none the less a complete circle in the end and all of pure gold.—MARY L. BISLAND, in Detroit Free Press.

CLEANLINESS IN SURGERY.

The Cardinal Precepts of the Science of Operating in the Present Day.

There are three locations, so to speak, the absolute cleanliness of which must be above suspicion before the operator is justified in proceeding to his work, says the Nineteenth Century. These are the surgeon's hands, his instruments and the integument covering the part of the patient's body at which the operation is about to be performed. How is the requisite cleanliness in each case secured? So far as the hands are concerned, by profuse scrubbing with a nail brush in soap and hot water, followed by a thorough drenching in some antiseptic solution, as that of one in two thousand of perchloride of mercury; so far as the instruments are concerned, by sterilizing them, that is, by boiling them in water, or by passing them through the flame of a spirit lamp, or placing them in a steam sterilizer, and then, when the operator is ready to begin, by putting them into a receptacle containing an antiseptic solution, as, for example, that of carbolic acid. Lastly, so far as the patient's integument is concerned, by washing the part first thoroughly with soap and water, having previously shaved it if necessary and afterward with a perchloride of mercury solution, or if the part be greasy, by removing all the greasy material by scrubbing it with ether.

Without going into further details, these are the cardinal precepts of the science of operating in the present day. Of course each wound which in this manner is made under aseptic conditions, as it is called, is kept aseptic by the use of antiseptic dressings until healing has taken place. The results of this method of treatment of wounds are nothing less than wonderful in comparison with those which the earlier surgeons were able to obtain. What happens after, say, the amputation of a limb, nowadays? The rule is—nothing. Nothing, that is to say, beyond the uneventful convalescence of the patient.

The dressings are not touched unless the temperature and pulse of the patient indicate by some disturbance that it would be expedient to examine the wound. The temperature and the pulse are the surgeon's guide; he takes his cue from them. Nothing can be amiss in the wound if these remain normal, and thus it follows that a large wound, such as that following an amputation, heals soundly from first to last, without any suppuration. What a contrast with that which obtained in former days! Suppuration was then thought to be an indispensable part of the healthy process of healing. In the present time, on the contrary, a surgeon is held to have failed in his practice of the principles of surgical cleanliness if, in wounds originally aseptic, suppuration occurs.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, billous ness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

Permanently Cured

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

ISSURER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

EARLY CIRCULATING LIBRARIES.

The Popular Institution Has Been in Existence for Hundreds of Years.

From time immemorial, says All the Year Round, booksellers' shops have been the favorite resort of all touched with the love of letters, and in the days gone by, when the art of advertising was practically unknown, it was only by frequenting the shops where books were sold that possible purchasers were able to learn what was going on in the publishing world, to know what new books were in course of publication and to hear and exchange the latest literary gossip. These early book lovers, one may be quite sure, would be certain to while away many a leisure hour by "sampling" the wares on their hosts' counters, and would read, or at least dip into, many volumes besides those they actually purchased for more leisurely consumption at home. And hence might arise, very naturally, the custom of formally lending out books to read for a monetary consideration. Thus, at the end of Kirkman's "Thracian Wonder," published in 1661, the bookseller makes the following announcement: "If any gentleman please to repair to my house aforesaid they may be furnished with all manner of English or French histories, romances or poetry, which are to be sold or read for reasonable consideration." It is not quite clear from the last few words whether the books might be taken away to be read, or whether the reading was to be done in the bookseller's shop. But that books might be taken home is evident from the remark of a character in Nevile's "Poor Scholar," printed in 1662. "Step to a bookseller's," he says, "and give him this angel, which I'll lend you, for the use of the many-languaged Bibles lately publish't for a week. Their price is twelve pound. When you have got them to your study, invite your father to your chamber, show him your library, and tell him you are twelve pounds out of purse for those large volumes." This was an ingenious way of getting around the "relieving officer," but it is doubtful, after all, whether the lending system was put into practice to any great extent.

Kicking Cows.

If the animal is handled kindly from calfhood and the proper kind of person milks her—one who has sense enough to control his temper—there will be very little probability of the animal developing the kicking habit, says the American Agriculturist. If the cow's udder is sore, or if one handles tender teats too roughly the cow is liable to kick. If she does it will be wise to handle her more kindly, and gently, lest she repeat the kicking so many times that it becomes a habit, for if it develops into a habit nothing may serve to cure her. Young heifers which have just dropped their calves may kick occasionally at the beginning, but if the milker kicks her back or strikes her roughly the chances are that the evil will be aggravated, and the cow ruined. Gentleness and kindness with dairy cows is the best plan to avoid having kicking cows. But there are frequent instances where the kicking propensity seems to be transmitted in the breeding from dam to offspring, and in such cases it will be a hard matter to effect a cure. As a rule, however, kicking cows are the result of ignorant and brutal treatment by those having them in charge, and intrusted with their training.

Clover and Ground Bone for Swine.

Clover and ground bone are excellent foods to be fed together, the one supplying vegetable, the other animal matter in the best possible shape for both poultry and swine. The combination is not one especially adapted to either summer or winter feeding, but is right for the entire year, and should form a prominent part of every day's rations.

Clover is, of course, very abundant in summer, and can then be freshly cut daily and fed according to the soiling method, or it may be pastured, the fowls and hogs gathering it themselves. In winter the feeder must depend upon clover hay or rowen, as the value of the hay depends very much upon the manner in which it is cured. To prepare the hay most perfectly for feeding, cut it finely and steam several hours by pouring boiling water upon it and covering tightly with old coats or blankets. Then when just blood warm it may be mixed with meal and bran, and will form a most appetizing mess for feathered and porcine friends.

Ground bone, fresh and juicy, is plainly a very desirable food.—Country Gentleman.

To Repair Mirrors.

For repairing mirrors accidentally scratched clean the bare portion of the glass by rubbing it gently with fine cotton, taking care to remove any traces of dust and grease. If this cleaning is not done very carefully, defects will appear around the place repaired. With a point of a knife cut upon the back of another looking-glass a portion of the silvering of the required form, but a little larger. Upon it place a drop of mercury—a drop the size of a pin's head will be sufficient for a surface equal to the size of a nail. The mercury spreads immediately, penetrates the amalgam to where it was cut off with the knife, and the required piece may now be lifted and removed to the place to be repaired. This is the most difficult part of the operation. Then press lightly the renewed portions with cotton and the glass presents the same appearance as when new.

Great Discoveries.

The astronomer who discovers a new star, the scientist who finds a new face, or the geologist who alights upon a new species of fossil, becomes deservedly famous; but the actual good such discoveries do is nothing when compared to the finding of a medicine which is an infallible cure for certain diseases. Such a discovery was made nearly half a century ago by an Eastern gentleman named Perry Davis, and his preparation is now known to the world as Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER. It is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Cramps, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, and indeed, all bowel complaints. 25c. only for Big 2 oz. bottle.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

CLEVER WORK OF AN OCULIST.

How a Damage Suit Was Defeated Through a Little Knowledge of Optics.

Here is an interesting account of a very clever bit of detective work by an oculist. It appears that in a large factory, in which were employed several hundred persons, one of the workmen, in wielding his hammer, carelessly allowed it to slip from his hand. It flew half way across the room and struck a fellow workingman in the left eye. The man averred that his sight was blinded by the blow, although a careful examination failed to reveal an injury, there being not a scratch visible. He brought a suit in the courts for compensation for the loss of half of his eyesight, and refused all offers of compromise.

Under the law, says the Sheffield (England) Telegraph, the owner of the factory was responsible for an injury resulting from an accident of this kind, and although he believed that the man was shamming and that the whole case was an attempt at swindling, he had about made up his mind that he would be compelled to pay the claim. The day of the trial arrived, and in open court an eminent oculist retained for the defense examined the alleged injured member and gave it as his opinion that it was as good as the right eye. Upon the plaintiff's loud protest of his inability to see with his left eye, the oculist proved him a perjurer and satisfied the court and jury of the falsity of his claim.

And how do you suppose he did it? Why, simply by knowing that the colors green and red combined make black. He procured a black card on which a few words were written with green ink. Then the plaintiff was ordered to put on a pair of spectacles with two different glasses, the one for the right eye being red and the one for the left eye consisting of ordinary glass. Then the card was handed him and he was ordered to read the writing on it. This he did without hesitation, and the cheat was at once exposed. The sound right eye, fitted with the red glass, was unable to distinguish the green writing on the black surface of the card, while the left eye, which he pretended was sightless, was the one with which the reading had to be done.

Nerve Enough for Anything.

Dr. McTavish of Edinburgh was something of a ventriloquist, and it befell that he wanted a lad to assist in the surgery, who must necessarily be of strong nerves. He received several applications, and when telling a lad what the duties were, in order to test his nerves, he would say, while pointing to a grinning skeleton standing upright in a corner, "Part of your work will be to feed the skeleton there, and while you are here you may as well have a try to do so."

A few lads would consent to a trial, and received a basin of hot gruel and a spoon. While they were pouring out the hot mess into the skull, the doctor would throw his voice so as to make it appear to proceed from the jaws of the bony customer, and gurgle out "Br-r-r gr-h-uh! that's hot!"

This was too much, and, without exception, the lads dropped the basin and bolted. The doctor began to despair of ever getting a suitable help-mate, until a small boy came and was given the gruel and spoon.

After the first spoonful the skeleton appeared to say, "Gr-r-r-uh-r-br! that's hot!"

Shovelling in the scalding gruel as fast as ever, the lad rapped the skull and impatiently retorted, "Well, blow it, carn,t yer, yer ould bony?"

The doctor sat down in his chair and fairly roared, but when he came to he engaged the lad on the spot.—Tit-Bits.

SEVENTEEN YEARS OF IT.

Charles Schryver had Kidney Disease all This Time and Didn't Know It How he Found Out and How he was Cured.

TORONTO, Oct. 1.—Sixteen years ago kidney disease attacked Charles Schryver, a bricklayer in this city, but he did not know it. It showed itself in the form of pains in the small of the back. They did not amount so much at first, but kept growing worse. Within the past six years Mr. Schryver has almost every week had to quit work for one or two days on account of their severity. Doctors ascribed them to the liver and other causes and prescribed, but their medicine did no good. Last spring a city physician diagnosed the case as one of diabetes and wanted to prescribe, but Mr. Schryver said:—"No, if its diabetes I'll use Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I know will cure me." They did cure him, too, and to-day Mr. Schryver is free from ache or pain and able to do his day's work, week in and week out, with any man in his trade.

Miss Mann submitted the following

STORY OF THE MISSION.

Looking backward over a period of six years, on the second Sunday of August, 1888, when this Park street Baptist Mission Sunday School (formerly called the South Ward Sunday School) was first opened, our hearts were filled with gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His continued presence and guidance in this blessed work. During the pastorate of the Rev. P. C. Parker over the Murray Street Baptist church, Rev. Alexander Grant (who was then Superintendent of Home Missions), spent a few days here. While visiting in this part of the town, he at once saw a good opening for mission work and said to our pastor, why not open a Mission school here? Immediately steps were taken to do so. On the 2nd Sunday in August, 1888, a Sunday school was organized in the brick building, know as the Mission school building, on Dalhousie street, between Stewart and Rubidge. The following were the officers and teachers:—Mr. R. J. Kidd, Superintendent; Mr. W. E. Mann, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Stock, Miss Maggie Mann, Mr. E. A. Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. Cuoco, Miss Fitzgerald, Miss Chrimsle Mann, and Miss Minore, teachers. The attendance, the first Sunday, was 20. There was a gradual and steady increase week by week. A library was purchased immediately after the opening of the school, which has been augmented from time to time, as the attendance demanded. The school from the first has been self-supporting.

Many were the prayers, and hopes and fears of those who had the interests of this school at heart during its infancy. We regret that we cannot speak decidedly of conversions during the past year. There was a great deal to be done in training and teaching the scholars, as many had not attended any Sunday school heretofore. Nearly a year and a half after its commencement we held our first entertainment and open meeting. Mr. R. J. Colville, who was then Bible class teacher, presided; our pastor, Rev. P. C. Parker was present. The annual report showed that the school was a vigorous one, and was prospering. The collections for the year amounted to $127, which sum had been expended in various ways in the school and mission work. During the summer and fall of 1889 Sunday evening services were carried on by the brethren from the church and others. For a short time the interest would be kept up and the attendance would be good; after a time the number of those who attended would fall off, and the services be given up.

Nov., 1890, the Rev. P. C. Parker resigned pastorate of this church. Feb. 3, 1891, we held our second annual entertainment. Mr. Grundy, superintendent, presided. Being then without a pastor, the Rev. W. K. Anderson, of Lindsay, conducted the opening exercises. The attendance has now reached as high as 80, with an average of 66. Receipts for the year, $51.70; disbursements, $46.18.

The Rev. J. E. Trotter assumed charge of the church here in March, 1891. The school is now over three years old. They have great pleasure in gratefully acknowledging that they have been prospered and blessed in their work and labour of love. While there have been many discouragements yet we have the promise, "Be not weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not." The receipts for the year were $68.51; disbursements, $65.84. Just here comes in something very interesting as well as important to our school. Just about week after the school was organized, a legacy bequeathed to this school (along with the other 8 schools of the town) under the will of the late Charlotte Jane Nicholls $500. Three years after the will was made and one year after the death of Mrs. Nicholls, we came into possession of our legacy. It was doubtful for a time whether we could claim it or not on the ground that we had not been organized as a school before the will was made, consequently an affidavit was made that we were organized on the second Sunday of August, 1888 and the will was made on the 28th August, 1888. The church appointed a committee to look for a building site. This lot was chosen and $170 paid for it, leaving $330 towards the building fund. During the summer of 1892 this building was erected and on Oct. 2nd, 1892 was dedicated for Sunday school and preaching services. From that time this Mission, styled the Park street Baptist Mission.

The opening services in connection with this Mission proved to be interesting and successful. In the morning the Rev. J. E. Trotter conducted the opening service; in the afternoon an interesting service was held, at which addresses were given by Mr. Trotter and Mr. Craig, a returned missionary from India. He spoke very earnestly of the need of Gospel workers in India and added interest to his remarks by by exhibiting miniature statuary, illustrating the customs, dress and life of the people among whom he laboured.

In the evening Mr. Craig preached. There was a large attendance. The services were a decided success and the workers will, it is hoped, enjoy the same success all through their good work. We are glad and thankful that as this school grows older it grows stronger, as it should.

March 3rd, 1893.—The annual report speaks of continued prosperity, the largest attendance being 116, the receipts $179.93, expenses $71.22. Special statement of money used for Sunday school furnishings. Miss Maggie Mann's class, $17.85, Miss Mattie Mann's class, $16, Miss Minore's infant class $3.80; $6.80 on hand; total, $43.45, used for furnishings.

Feb. 23rd, 1894, 5th anniversary. The attendance during the last year has increased. A large addition in finance and the interest and devotion shown by the scholars and teachers was encouraging. The largest attendance during the year being 118, average 97. The receipts $86.18 disbursements $84.61. There are eleven classes, thirteen teachers, and one officer. During five months of the year we had the faithful and earnest labours of Mr. Reeves, a student from McMaster Hall, Toronto; the school reached the largest attendance since its organization. Much spiritual blessing also followed his labours. Several of the scholars were brought to know the Lord Jesus and united with the church, while others entered into more active service for the Master.

With those who are at present engaged in the school and those who have been as teachers and officers, there are 46.

Mr. T. G. Gillespie presented the annual report of

THE MISSION SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The teachers and officers of the Park street Baptist Mission Sunday school have great pleasure in presenting their sixth annual report, and also have great pleasure in acknowledging that they have been prospered and blessed in their work and labour of love. There has been an advance all along the line. The attendance has increased and the deportment of the school has been excellent, mainly due it is felt to the commendable regularity in attendance of the teachers and officers and the deep interest manifested by them in the school. The attendance during the fall and winter months were good, averaging about 90.

On the first Sunday in May, we gladly welcomed our brother, Mr. Pady, who came to us in a spirit of consecration and devotion and who has been used by God in winning many souls for the Master. He was at once elected assistant superintendent and has been a great help to the school in introducing new plans and methods. Spiritually, the school has been blessed. Ten of our scholars have united with the church during the summer, while several others have been brought to know the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour. Never in the history of the school has there been so much of the manifest presence and of the Holy power Spirit. We earnestly pray that it may continue so.

The largest attendance during this year being 142, the smallest 66, average 115. Financially this year has been the best. Total collections, $103.29; given to Grand Ligne, $7.40; to Home Missions, $17.00; for maps and charts, $16; expenses, $1.82; disbursements, $99.48. There are at present 12 teachers, secretary and librarian.

ANNUAL MISSION REPORT.

Mr. Grover read the report of the Mission for the year ending Oct. 1st, 1894, as follows:—

In submitting a report of work done during the past year, we desire to place on record our deep gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His guidance and blessing during this period. This year surpassed all others in every phase of the work. After Bro. Reeves left the field a year ago we dropped the morning service and put all our strength into the evening one. The attendance at this service up to May 1st averaged about 54 and the prayer meeting Friday evenings during the same period about 23.

Immediately on Bro. Pady's arrival the work took on new life. Old workers took on fresh courage and new ones were enrolled and to-night our hearts are very glad to record the blessings of these months. The morning service was at once resumed and during this time has had an average attendance of 86, the lowest being 37 and the highest 114. The evening attendance has reached 164 the lowest 61; average 114. Last summer the morning attendance was 42, evening 73.

The prayer meeting on Friday evening has also been well attended and of great interest and profit. The lowest attendance at this meeting was 20, the highest 60, average 43, as compared with 27 last summer. During the month of September the morning congregation have averaged 96, and the evening 151. This fact impresses us very strongly that with the work kept up to its present standard, the attendance this fall and winter will crowd our present accommodation. Spiritually progress has been made. Christians have been stirred up and led to reconsecrate themselves to the Master's service, and many who were in a cold and backward state have been revived, and are among our most earnest workers. But best of all souls have been won for Christ.

During the year some 23 have been baptized, and several are waiting baptism, and there are others who are considering the matter, and we expect will cast in their lot with us. There are others who attend our services who are anxious and, we believe, very near the Kingdom. At no time during the year has there been such a spirit of enquiry among the unsaved, and a desire to work for Christ among God's children. In Brother Pady we have found an earnest, consecrated and wise leader. He has not failed to faithfully hold up Christ as the one and only Saviour for sinners, and to the Christian as the one and only Master to whom obedience must be given in all things. We desire to take for our motto this coming year the subject of last evening's discourse, "Go Forward!"

Miss Edith Gillespie read the following report of THE JUNIOR C. E. SOCIETY:

The Junior Society in connection with the Park street Baptist Mission was organized by our student pastor, Mr. Pady, on June 4, 1891.

At the first meeting there were 18 charter members enrolled. Since that time the numbers have steadily increased until now we have a membership of 60.

During the summer we have been holding our meetings on Monday afternoons. There has been an average attendance of 40, which we think is a very good showing, as a great many of the members were away for their holidays. Through the winter we expect to hold our meetings on Sunday afternoons immediately after the Sunday school. This will enable us to keep Mr. Pady as our leader, and we trust also will help the active Christian members of the society to get the unconverted scholars into the society and then to the foot of the cross.

Miss Hunt has been the assistant leader, but since the society has grown so large and the leader will be away during the week, we expect to have three or four more helpers who will bear a share of the work.

We have prayer-meeting, lookout, missionary and social committees. We are going to have a temperance committee added. These committees look after the absent members of the Junior Union and also of the Sunday school, and do their best to get new members into the Union.

The object of the society is to work for Christ and the church with which we are connected. We trust that the friends of the Union will earnestly remember us at the throne of grace, that all the members may be bright shining lights, daily working for Jesus.

Miss Smart read the following report of the PARK STREET MISSION BAND:

Our Mission Band was organized May 20th, 1892. Names on membership roll at 1st meeting numbered 20.

We decided to support a student in India.

During the past two years and a half, our membership roll has increased from 20 to 56, honourary members 10, total 62 members. Money in treasury, $6.10. During the past month, we received from mission barrels $1.75, total $8 81. Knowing that our Master has been with us through the past two years, trusting in God for strength, we hope to press onward, praying that we may be able to spread the Gospel more every day, and hope we will still be as prosperous.

"AN ALL ROUND MAN" CAN'T DODGE THE OVERCOAT QUESTION.

One of our good live preachers delivered a stirring sermon the other Sunday on the subject of "The All Round Man." Among some of the good thing the EXAMINER reported him to have said, was:—"A man with self will and well defined ambition alone, was incomplete. He "must have breadth, and height, and length, to attain that moral excellence and symmetry of character which would approximate the ideal of the "All Round Man, he had endeavoured to present."

We cordially endorse every word of the above; but, from our point of view, the All Round Man is still incomplete without an OVERCOAT. Men judge by appearances. If there be sermons in stones, books in the running brooks, and good in every thing, THERE IS LIFE IN AN OVERCOAT and the All Round Man is not complete without one. To-day, too,—

OUR TEXT IS "OVERCOATS"

We have'nt had an opportunity to say a word lately about OVERCOATS; but, we have a few COLD facts for you now. When you are ready to "shake" your summer duds, we're ready to serve you with winter ones. No man, who has any respect for his pocket book can help "feeling" for it when he sees our pile of New Overcoats just out of the case. If you imagine we can't RETAIL Overcoats at WHOLESALE prices, you're imagination fools you. No barbed-wire-high-priced fence around our Overcoats.

No adjective, however strong; no statement, however extravagant, can exaggerate our banner stock of Light and Heavy Weight Overcoats for Fall and Winter wear. Keep on paying war prices for Overcoats if you will, but let the name of GOUGHS remind you that you needn't. Giving you merely good value doesn't satisfy us—we aim to give you BETTER VALUE than you get elsewhere. No matter what you have been accustomed to paying or to wearing, we'll show you a $7 Bargain in an Overcoat that you can't afford to ignore—whoever you are.

Light Fall Overcoats for $5.75, $7.50 and $10.00, fit for any business; and any man who wears one of these can readily palm it off as a custom-made. Every garment a novelty, made by artists of the first standing. Don't pay other dealers $12 to $15 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $9. Don't pay other dealers $8 to $10 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $5. GOUGHS OVERCOATS ARE FLYERS!

Mothers, save!—by buying our reliable Boys' Overcoats at Goughs, for we are giving extraordinary values for little money. We show every new idea for this fall. Now, will the tailor get all your money, or may we sell you one of our rightly made tailor Overcoats at a price about a third of what the merchant tailor demands?

LOWER AND LOWER go the Prices. HIGHER AND HIGHER we grow in public estimation. FINER AND FINER grades of goods all the time.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS."

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

TRAIN ROBBERY IN ARIZONA.

A Southern Pacific Express Held Up by Three Masked Men.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 2.—The Southern Pacific eastbound express was held up two miles east of Maricopa by three men, two of whom were masked. They boarded the train as it was leaving Maricopa, capturing the head brakesman. He was compelled to turn on the air brakes and stop the train. The engineer and the head brakesman, with pistols at their heads, were compelled to go back to the express car and induce the messenger to open the door. One of the bandits was then put in the car and searched for valuables while the other stood guard. The amount taken is not known, but it is supposed to be small. The trainmen were then marched away a short distance and liberated, the robbers mounting their horses and striking southward.

Deputy Prothero and a posse are in pursuit and it is expected they will soon capture them. The men are undoubtedly the same who robbed the Congress State several weeks ago. The penalty for train robbery in Arizona is death.

That Alien Labor Law.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 2.—George Booth, of Toronto, was arrested at Cadillac by Deputy United States Marshal Campau on a warrant charging him with violating the alien labor law. The particular charge is that Booth imported James L. Hutchinson from Toronto in 1892. Mr. Booth is president of the Detroit Steel Bath Mfg. Co., and also of the Toronto Steel Bath Co. It is charged that Hutchinson, who was employed in Toronto, was brought over here under contract. Mr. Booth was arraigned before Commissioner Graves, who held the respondent for examination under $1,000 bail, which was furnished.

The Signatures Were Forged.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 2.—A case containing a number of points of especial interest was heard before Judge W. Elliott yesterday. The Bank of Toronto sued Mr. W. H. Bartram, barrister, of this city, for $235 on a note presumed to be made by T. T. Warren, a Westminster farmer, living near Belmont, and endorsed by Mr. Bartram. T. T. Warren was called, and swore that he never made the note bearing his alleged signature. Mr. Bartram swore that he believed Warren, the witness, was the man who made the first transaction with him. A number of the farmers whose names were attached to the notes were present and those who were called denied having made the notes or to know anything regarding them. The notes are believed to be the work of the notorious Godfrey McTaggart, who operated so extensively around Belmont a year ago and who left the country. Judgment was reserved.

A Bosanquet Farmer's Untimely End.

FOREST, Ont., Oct. 2.—David Brand, a prominent farmer of Bosanquet township, met with an accident which has resulted in his death. Threshing was going on at the farm of John Brand, a brother, and at supper time, while some of the men were fooling, Mr. Brand was accidentally struck in the eye with a pitchfork. The tine touched the brain and paralysis instantly set in. He lay unconscious for forty-eight hours and died without rallying. Mr. Brand was for several years deputy reeve of Bosanquet and was one of the wealthiest farmers of the township. He was 46 years of age and leaves a wife and nine children. He was a member of the Sons of Scotland and Canadian Foresters and had $1,000 insurance in each society.

Carelessness in Fruit Packing.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 2.—Fruit importers here say that Canadian shippers of apples should exercise more care in packing. Many barrels are much depreciated in value on account of carelessness in this respect.

An Heir to Nobility.

OMAHA, Oct. 2.—Alfred Schuster, employed in a brewery in this city, has received information to the effect that he is heir to a German title of nobility and a large estate.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Some Scandalous Revelations Expected—The French Treaty.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—British Columbia promises to be an early beneficiary by the new French treaty. One of its provisions is the admission, under specially advantageous tariff treatment, of fish from Canada in their natural state. Information comes from New Westminster, B. C., that two French capitalists have made arrangements with the Cold Storage Co, there to store a large quantity of British Columbia salmon for shipment to Paris. They will go into the business of exporting salmon to France on a large scale.

The Premier has agreed to perform the ceremony of unveiling the monument to Sir John A. Macdonald in Toronto on the 15th inst.

Sir John Gorst is in the city.

Rev. W. W. Quicke, of St. David's Church, in the course of his sermon on Sunday, strongly condemned the exhibition of such pictures of the Redeemer as that shown at the fair grounds during the past week. He declared such pictures were infinitely degrading to the Son of God and that they represented neither history nor dignified art.

Some interesting revelations which implicate a professional man of this city are likely to develope in the course of a few days, and it is intimated that when thoroughly unfolded the scheme will turn out to be one which was very extensive in its operations. Unfortunate girls who were in the care of the home for friendless women have been enticed away by men of position, and afterwards turned adrift to resume the most degraded calling. One of the inmates of the O'Conner dive, raided last week by the county police, had still pride enough left to attempt to conceal her real name and respectable connections and her history is a sad one. She is now only seventeen years of age, though the life of dissipation makes her look much older. Friends tried to reclaim her and were beginning to flatter themselves that they had been successful when she fell away at the instance of a man who soon discarded her and it is suspected that she has again gone into the same company. Nor is this a solitary instance; but fortunately in the other cases the friends were able to interfere in time to prevent two other girls from falling into the same trap.

Four Persons Burned to Death.

KENOSHA, Wis., Oct. 2.—Four persons were roasted alive and two others badly burned in the farm residence of B. B. Pierce, in the town of Wilmot. Mr. Pierce and family were in the house. The youngest son of the first noticed the fire and leaped down stairs. He then returned to arouse the others who were upstairs and four were overcome by smoke and perished.

A Negro Suspected of Poisoning.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—George Thomas, a negro, is under arrest for sending a poisoned lunch to St. Peter's Episcopal church last Saturday which caused the death of James Cunningham and the almost fatal illness of Franklin S. Beckett, the church organist. Thomas was supplanted as janitor of the church by Cunningham six months ago.

The Czar's Illness.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—A despatch from Berlin to the Standard says that Prof. Leyden has returned to that city and expressed himself regarding the Czar's condition as decidedly unfavorable to the imperial patient. Dr. Leyden thinks his majesty may possibly recover if he is kept in good spirits and his strength maintained.

A National Bank Suspends.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Comptroller Eckels is informed that the National Bank of Fayetteville, N.Y., failed to open its doors for business yesterday. It is intimated that the bank's suspension was caused by a shortage in the cashier's accounts.

A Fatal Schoolboy Fight.

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Harry Fletcher, a young lad who lives at 29 McCaul, became engaged in a fight with a companion coming from St. Patrick's school. Fletcher received an injury to the head at the time but it was not considered a dangerous wound. The affair, however, assumed a serious aspect and on Sunday the lad died of his injuries.

A Brantford Burglar Sentenced.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 2.—Joe Gillies, the burglar, was brought up in court yesterday. He was convicted in four different cases of burglary and that of assaulting Policeman Adams in the discharge of his duty, for all of which he was sentenced to six years at Kingston penitentiary with hard labor.

TURNBULL'S

Our Millinery opening is now over and has been a decided success, and it is very gratifying to be able to state that we never had more visitors or took more orders, which simply shows the fact that our selection of Millinery is very choice and varied. Our turnover in this department is so large that we can afford to buy everything new as it appears each week. Thus our customers are always sure of getting the latest styles and closest prices with us.

MANTLES.

In the Mantle department things are on the move. Our best garments are going out rapidly. We have a large and varied stock and our prices are rock bottom, as we import direct from the manufacturers. We keep the very best qualities of Astrachans and Sealettes to be made up to order. Any one thinking of buying a cheap Fur Coat should see these Cloths first as they make up more effective, and are twice as durable, and can be made up in any of the new shapes. Our Mantle maker is one the best in the country, turning her work out as well as any tailor.

U. S. SUGAR SCANDALS

The Presentment of the Grand Jury a Remarkable Document.

M'KINLEY'S PAP FOR REFINERS

Prices for Higher Grades of Sugar Under His Tariff Raised Their Stock Above Par Value—The Efforts Made to Defeat the Passage of the New Bill.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Whatever may be the outcome of the indictments found against Messrs. Havemeyer, Searles and Company in connection with the Senate sugar investigation committee some portions of the text of these exceedingly comprehensive documents will be likely to go down into history as the most remarkable presentments made in a court of law. Such at least is the opinion of leading members of the district bar, who scanned the full text with undisguised interest and surprise.

The opening paragraph of the indictments recite the terms of the statute sugar schedule of the McKinley act and conclude with the statement "that several terms and provisions aforesaid of said act were of great benefit and advantage to the interests of a certain corporation called the American Sugar Refining Company. The indictments recite the methods of nominating and electing candidates the work of the various campaign committees through which "the said Democratic party obtained control of Congress and of the power to enact laws of the United States."

The Grand Jury then finds that on February 1, 1894, and for three years prior thereto the Refining Company had been extensively engaged in the business of refining sugars and that by reason of the Act of 1890 had been able to fix a price of sugar for the higher grades and that its stock became of a value largely in excess of its par value and so continued to be until certain legislation was proposed in the House of Representatives, which if enacted into law would destroy the ability of the corporation to control the product and greatly reduce the value of its stock. The indictments related the passage of the bill in the House, its transmission to the Senate and reference to the Finance Committee and declares as the bill passed the House it would be greatly to the advantage of the corporation and greatly lessen its profits, and that its stock was impaired in value for the time being.

The indictments proceed to recite the report of the Finance Committee, March 20; then refers in the Democratic caucus, the Jones amendments and the sugar schedule as finally agreed to.

The newspaper article that called for the senatorial investigation are quoted, and particular attention is paid to those portions which charged that the sugar trust had made large campaign contributions. Liberal abstracts are taken from the testimony of the sugar trust officials and the answers wherein they refused to submit their books are given in full.

The grand jury said in conclusion that "these matters were especially pertinent to so much of the inquiry as had for its object the ascertainment, as a matter of fact, whether the said amendments to the bill had been made by the refiners company or whether they had been permitted to dictate the amendments in considerations of the large sums of money contributed by the company to the campaign committee of the Democratic party to aid in the election to the Senate of members of that party.

Not the Work of Conspirators.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A special from San Juan Del Snr, Nicaragua, says: The recent explosion under the barracks in Granada, which at first was thought to be the work of conspirators, is now discovered to have been caused by the carelessness of a soldier who was extracting gunpowder from a cartridge. It is supposed the soldier attempted to light a cigarette by means of a flint and steel. More than one hundred bodies have been recovered from the ruins.

A Strike Leader's Offence.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 3.—Martin Irons, the strike leader of 1886, was arrested Sunday night by the police on a charge of attempted criminal assault on a seven-year-old girl. He was transferred to the county jail, and will have a preliminary examination. He denies his guilt, contradicting two eye witnesses.

Shot by Her Negro Assailant.

DOTHAN, Ala., Oct. 3.—While on her way to school Lena McArdle, aged 16 years, was attacked by an unknown negro, who attempted to assault her. When she screamed he shot her and ran, the bullet producing a fatal wound. Armed men are searching for the negro.

Farmers' National Congress.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 3.—The Farmers' National Congress, composed of delegates from forty States, began its annual session here yesterday. Two hundred delegates were present at the opening session. Gov. McCorkle delivered the address of welcome.

The fact that Grafton & Co. sell the best clothing in town does not imply that they ask high prices for their clothing.

DEAR SIRS,—I have used Yellow Oil for two or three years, and think it has no equal for croup. MRS. J. S. O'BRIEN, Hensonville, Ont.

CAUGHT BY "SPOTTERS"

How the Conductors Arrested by the G.T.R. Were Found Out.

THEY TOOK UP BOGUS TICKETS

Both Protest Their Innocence and Say They Accepted the Tickets in Good Faith as They Were the Counterparts of the Ordinary Ticket.

TORONTO, Oct. 3.—The case of Frederick Tamblin and Samuel Defries was argued at Osgoode Hall yesterday before Judge McMahon. Judgment was reserved but an order for bail in $1,000 was made and the prisoners were allowed out.

The two men are perhaps better known than any other two conductors who come into Toronto.

Defries has been in the service of the Grand Trunk for thirty two years and for the last twenty-six has had charge of a passenger train. He has succeeded in laying by a comfortable competence and he now can afford to live in a palatial residence on Broadview avenue. He is a prominent Orangeman and is as well a Mason.

Tamblin has had charge of a train for eighteen years, having formerly run to Belleville. He too has something laid aside for a rainy day.

The charge is this. It appears two men offered the clerk of the Queen's hotel, Montreal, $5 to secure them tickets for Toronto. The tickets were accordingly forthcoming and the "spotters" started on their journey. They were carried by the two conductors now in trouble at Montreal as far as Kingston, and when the tickets were presented at this end of the line they were duly honored.

Defries and Tamblin protest their innocence. They say that the tickets were accepted in good faith. They were just like the ordinary ticket and were in all probability counterfeit.

But the railway authorities, on the other hand, claim that no returns of these tickets were made to the auditor, and for that reason the two were arrested.

CASE OF GEORGE BOOTH.

Three Suits Entered for Violating the Alien Labor Law.

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—Assistant United States District Attorney Wilkins says that Mr. George Booth, sr., who was arrested by the marshal for violating the alien labor law, is held to answer to three suits, two civil and one criminal. The civil suits are for bringing alien laborers into this country or encouraging them to come here, and the criminal one is for contracting for the services of James L. Hutchinson and bringing him here from Toronto and getting him to work in his (Booth's) bath manufacturing establishment.

Mr. Booth and some partners early in 1892 formed the Toronto Steel Bath Manufacturing Company at Toronto, Canada. In the following May the same parties established a branch concern in Detroit under the name of the Steel Clad Bath Manufacturing Company. This company was not incorporated until the September following. On May 13th, 1892, is is claimed that Booth made an agreement in Toronto with Watson J. Taylor, a machinist, to come to Detroit and set up machinery, giving him an order for the payment of his fare. On May 16 accordingly he came to Detroit and went to work for the local branch concern.

On June 6, 1892, it is claimed, that Mr. Booth personally brought James L. Hutchinson from Toronto, paying his fare, etc., to Detroit and employed him in the local establishment. There is a suit pending against Booth for bringing one O'Keefe into this country in June, 1893, in violation of the alien labor law.

Victims of a Sharper.

HAMILTON, Oct. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein, of Buffalo, who were on their way to Montreal, had to stop off at Hamilton owing to a sharp trick which was practised on them by a Buffalo sharper. When Mrs. Goldstein was waiting for her husband in Buffalo a man with whom she was slightly acquainted approached her and asked her where she was going. She told him to Montreal, and he offered to purchase her tickets for her as she had a child to care for. Mrs. Goldstein gave him $18 and the man returned with two tickets. When the conductor came around collecting they learned that the tickets were from Buffalo to Hamilton. The couple had very little money but Hamilton Hebrew citizens helped them on their journey.

Canadian Schemes in London.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Taking advantage of the better tone of the markets several Canadian schemes are being pushed in the city. One is promoted by the friends of the Montreal, Sorel and Baie des Chaleurs Railway. It is proposed to float a loan of £4,000,000 in bonds in order to develop the through route between Baie des Chaleurs and Sault Ste. Marie, via Montreal and Ottawa, and thus be in a position to compete for the traffic of the western states. A financial scheme, which is being worked up here, is one for irrigation in Alberta for the purpose of developing ranching. This proposal is being submitted to prominent men.

Mrs. Rabbitoy Acquitted.

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 3.—Sarah E. Rabbitoy, accused of bigamy in having married Thomas Simons while her husband, Ernest Rabbitoy, was still alive, was arraigned before Judge Muir yesterday. Neither of her husbands appeared in court, and as Crown Attorney Crerar said he had no evidence to offer, the prisoner was discharged.

Verdict Against the Grand Trunk.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 3.—At the fall assizes yesterday the jury brought in a verdict of $1,000 in Delve v. Grand Trunk railway. Complainant was driving across the G. T. R. tracks on February 12 last, at Pottersburg, when a passing train struck his waggon, throwing him out and inflicting serious injuries.

Larivee Remanded for Trial.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Louis Larivee, accused of forgery, and who was arrested on Friday last in Brooklyn by Detective Silas Carpenter, was brought into the city yesterday. Larivee agreed to come back without waiting for the formal extradition papers from Washington. He was remanded for trial.

CHINA IN A BAD STATE

The Emperor Likely to be Dethroned in Favor of His Cousin.

LI HUNG CHANG IS DEPOSED

Several High Officials Disgraced for Malfeasance—Threatening the Peace of Foreign Residents—Controversy Over the Battle at Ping Yang.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 3.—The Emperor of China will very likely be dethroned in favor of Prince Kung's son, who will treat with the Japanese.

Li Hung Chang has been superseded in the supreme command by General Sang Tsing, of the province of Hunan, who has received full powers. Li Hung Chang retires disgusted to Pha-Ting-Foo, the capital of the Province of Chi-Li. His alleged defection to the Japanese is only canvassed consequent to the recall of Prince Kung.

Twenty thousand Hunan soldiers are gathered around Shanhai-Kwan, the terminus of the great wall where it forms the boundary between the Provinces of Chi-Li and Shinh-King. Li Hung Chang's army is disgusted.

Shen-Tao-Taj, a customs commissioner, and several other high officials of Tien-Tsin, have been disgraced for malfeasance.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A Central News despatch from Shanghai, says influential Chinese have given expression to a feeling of certainty that the Japanese will succeed in capturing Pekin. The fright over the anti-foreign feeling is increased in the Chinese capital. Many of the Chinese residents of Moukden are removing their treasure from that city as rapidly as possible.

It is now announced that Li Hung Chang will not proceed to Corea.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News telegraphs: "There is no sign in Tien-Tsin that Li Hung Chang's power is waning. His audiences are as well attended as ever. He has several thousand well armed and regularly paid troops who protect visiting Europeans. Much anxiety is felt for the foreign residents as the populace is behaving insolently and becoming unusually threatening. The removal of the treasure and archives from Moukden has made a bad impression, being regarded as a display of weakness."

In response to a letter written to the Times by Sir Halliday Cartney, Secretary of the Chinese Legation, in which the writer states that the reports of the battle between the Chinese and Japanese at Ping Yang are not yet confirmed, the Japanese Legation affirms the accuracy of the previous statements that the Chinese were completely routed. An official telegram received at the Legation stated that the number of Chinese troops engaged exceeded 20,000 and that, with the exception of some who fled, all were killed, wounded or taken prisoners.

As Sir Halliday McCartney especially challenged the accuracy of the Central News despatches describing the disaster, a representative of the Westminster Gazette interviewed the manager of the Central News who denied that Sir Halliday had any authority to impugn the correctness of the despatches in question. "The existing state of affairs in Corea," the manager said, "confirms the truth of these despatches. According to the Chinese official statement there have been 88,000 Chinese troops in Corea: according to Sir Halliday 9,000 of them retreated; where are the rest of them?"

The manager of the Central News writes a letter to the Times in which he says:

"Allowance must be made for the exceptionally trying position of Sir Halliday MacCartney, but, seeing that there is not a single armed Chinaman between Fusan and Wei-Ju, it is superfluous to discuss the question whether the defeat of the Chinese at Ping-Yang was complete. Sir Halliday says we have no correspondent at Seoul. We have a correspondent at the front with the fighting force and his first message was sent through Seoul and was dated at the place where it was handed in."

PANIC AT A BULL FIGHT.

Four Persons Killed and Many Injured by the Enraged Animals.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A special from Zacatecas, Mex., says four persons were killed and many injured at a bull fight in Mesquite, State of Jalisco, on Sunday. A banderillero approached one of the bulls waving a red cloth. The animal charged him, but he jumped aside, and as the maddened bull passed drove a pointed iron into his neck. Again the crowd began to applaud, but their "bravos" were suddenly changed to a cry of warning. The banderillero had forgotten the second bull, which was upon him before he knew it. The animal caught him on his horns, tossed him over his back, and before assistance could come had charged again. This time the banderillero was down and the maddened brute gored him through. As others ran to the rescue the bull raised his head with the banderillero impaled on his horns and charged his new foes.

In the meantime the first bull had leaped over the barrier separating the ring from the spectators and dashed into the crowd. Several persons were gored and a panic ensued. Men, women and children made a rush for the single entrance. The screams of those who saw the death of the banderillero added to the terror. In the effort to escape three persons were trampled to death and many others were injured, some fatally.

Cyclone in Nebraska.

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Oct. 3.—A cyclone has visited the southeast section of this county. The house of John Nelson, near here, was demolished and six members of the family were blown into the field. A daughter of Nelson, 9 years old, had a board driven into her skull. She will die. Another member of the family was badly injured. The wind covered a limited area, but levelled everything in its path, missing the towns and devastating the country districts.

THE NEW SEWER SIDE-TRACKED

That is, it Will Run Along the Side of the Street Instead of the Centre.

A special meeting of the town council was held yesterday afternoon to decide, as the Mayor explained, whether the new sewer should be laid in the centre or on the side of the streets along which it passed.

If the sewer were laid in the centre of the street it would incommode the Street Railway Co., and the officials of the Company were accordingly asked to be present in order that a decision in fairness to all parties might be arrived at.

Mr. Best stated that the sewer could just as easily be laid along the side of the street as in the centre, the only question being that of the

it was to be laid, as provision had to be made in case the company decided to lay a double track.

Mr. Roger thought it better to have it in the centre as it could then run between the two tracks if a double track was ever laid, and again, if a pipe tapping the sewer from the opposite side of the street had to be repaired at any time it would occasion the complete cutting off of traffic on the street.

Mr. Best thought that the sewer could be laid along the side as well as not and if it was placed in the middle no great advantage would gained, and it would be most expensive for the street railway company having to shift the track and move it back again.

Mr. Sutton didn't think the street railway company in the matter at all. The interests of the town should be watched, first and last and always, and the sewer should be placed, as had always been the custom, in the middle of the street.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED

Mr. Bradburn explained that the ties of the street railway would, in case a double track was laid, interfere with the manhole of the sewer if it was laid in the street.

Mr. Cahill was of the opinion that if the sewer was placed under the track that the constant concussion caused by the cars passing above it would be injurious to the brick work.

Mr. Roger proposed leaving the question over on the matter, as he didn't care about depending on offhand opinions on so important a matter.

FOR EXPERT ADVICE

After a prolonged discussion on the merits of the question, Mr. Dawson, seconded by Mr. Brady, moved that in accordance with the engineer's plans, the sewer be laid on the west side of the roadway.—Carried.

Mr. Cahill explained that, of course, it was understood that in adopting this course the council was not prejudicing its position in any way, but that other sewers could be placed in the centre of streets, upon which they were laid, if the council saw fit to so order. The expense to those living on the East side of the street will not be any heavier than to those living on the west, as a schedule of equalization will be adopted.

MILLBROOK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

It will be remembered that at a recent meeting of the town council a resolution was carried favouring the renting of twenty-five street lights from the Canadian General Electric Co. for a term of three years. Since then many have been outspoken in their indignation at the council entering upon such an agreement without first obtaining the opinion of the ratepayers on the matter. A special meeting of the council was called on Friday evening to re-consider the question and it was decided to call a public meeting on Monday night and come to a final decision on the much talked of light question by taking a vote of the electors present. On Monday night the hall was well filled with ratepayers who came to hear arguments brought forth by both sides and to vote for the best interest of the town. At 7.30 sharp, when the tall and commanding form of the Reeve was seen wending its way toward the platform, it was a signal for applause, but as he carefully placed his spectacles more securely on his nose and proceeded to address his anxious, waiting hearers, a profound silence fell upon the audience. He then gave a lengthy report, that would fill a couple of columns of the EXAMINER, of the retent visit the council had to Niagara-on-the Lake and Aurora. A hearer would naturally suppose from the tone of his speech that he was opposed to the scheme.

Councillors Richardson and Pickup then followed, speaking in favour of the undertaking, while Coun. Bateson spoke against it. The following gentlemen also spoke favouring it. A. Wood, T. B. Collins, R. J. Doak, Rev. W. C. Allen, while John Gillott and W. D. Nugent spoke against it. Mr. Wood then moved "that this meeting recommend to the council the renting of twenty-five lights in accordance with the contract, from the Canadian General Electric Co."

The motion was carried amid great applause, and the plant will be put in without any further delay.

A Mechanics' Institute was formed last night, with Rev. W. C. Allen as president.

Bethany is coming down to play Millbrook a game of baseball on Saturday.

John Paterson had two fine horses killed last Monday night by the express coming from Peterborough. The accident took place at Lusk's crossing, the scene of the recent triple railway fatality.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

The school picnic held on Saturday was a huge success. Both teachers, however, were conspicuous by their absence. A large number of scholars were present and had an enjoyable time.

Following is the honour roll of the school: 5th class—R. Choate, C. Edwards, M. Edwards A. Jackson. Senior fourth—May Jackson, M. Robeson, W. Maguire, S. Smith. Junior fourth—W. Snider, E. Delaney, H. Choate, R. Lynn. Senior third—S. Foster, G. Jackson, M. Davis, Mary Rutherford. Junior third—Sim. Robeson, J. Jenkins, F. Hamblin, P. Bell. Senior second—Florence McDonald, Bessie Choate, James Hawthorne, Charlotte Harding. Junior second—Edith Jackson, Gordon Payne, Clarence Watts, Rosie Doughty. Senior second parts—Maggie Middleton, Ernest Kidd, Joe Crowe, Roy Hamblin. Junior second parts—Itoy McDonald, Allan Edwards, Dora Blight, Ella Bell. Senior firsts—Laura Edwards, Linda James, Teany Edwards, George Davis. Junior firsts—Allan Douglas, George Walls, Edith Harding Pearl McIntosh.

The morning of the 29th dawned bright and clear, fit emblem of the spirits of a pleasure-seeking party, which consisted of Misses Charlotte and Mabel Edwards, P. Payne, M. Kidd and M. Campbell, Messrs. Art. and H. Edwards, R. Kidd, and Ed. Squires. A guessing debate as to the weight of the individuals of the load culminated in the calling at Miss Pashley's cheese factory, where the decision was verified, our pedagogue guessing within 15¼ pounds of the correct weight. The merry party wended their way to Trent Bridge, the well known favourite resort of pleasure seekers, where they were welcomed by a group of kindred spirits from Norwood and Havelock. A sumptuous dinner was spread in the wood and fairly dealt with; the wing of that chicken assisted so materially. Boating attaining the preference, eight or ten skiffs were launched on the placid waters of the Trent River and after a pleasant float the fleet landed at "New Paradise." The usual picnic hilarity ensued, relieved by the photographing of the artistically dispersed party, also by an apple duel in which the traditional muscle of the farmer retained its ascendency, notwithstanding the worthy opponent being of the "black cloth."

The glinting of the shadows of the autumnal leaves warned the enchanted spirits that they must away to another sphere and bidding a fond farewell to that delightful nook, they safely landed at their former camping ground.

What transition from the ethereal to the material.

A call from the Rev. Mr. Weaver and son and Mr. Cutler; the demolishing of a like spread of the morning and the merry picnickers hied homeward, making a few desultory calls at a "friends" and also at Norwood, thus ending a very pleasant holiday.

A FORTUNATE FIND.

Five Pails of Honey Discovered in an Old Tree in Smith.

Mr. George Routh, of lot 18, concession six of Smith, met with a novel experience the other day when he was burning a fallow. The fire, it appears, spread to the edge of the woods, where a huge tree becoming burned away near the roots came to the earth with a crash.

Mr. Routh walked across to the edge of the woods to examine the fallen forest monarch and observed bees issuing from a small hole about the size of a hen's egg in the trunk. On placing his ear to the tree Mr. Routh could hear the bees buzzing inside like a saw mill. He hastened home and procuring a saw returned and cut through the trunk in various places.

He discovered the tree to be completely decayed away, only the shell of the trunk remaining. A large portion of the hollow part had been taken possession of by the bees and five pails of honey were procured by the fortunate discoverer of the nest.

Mr. William White captured the hive of bees which must have swarmed on the tree some time previously in order to have amassed such a quantity of honey.

Consumption—Low Condition
Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

THE LAST FAINT WHISPER FOR KINGSTON '94.

Ere this column is published again the provincial convention will be in session in Kingston. The question that naturally presents itself is are you going? Of course you are or you would not trouble reading this paragraph. Well, to get organized before the delegates leave from this district. All intending to go should call and see Mr. A. J. Johnston at Nugent's drug store and through him some arrangements may be made, so that all may go via the same route. Below we give you a few items pertaining to transportation clipped from the Endeavour Herald.

FROM THE TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE.

Arrangements have been made with Canadian Pacific; Grand Trunk, Kingston & Pembroke, Bay of Quinte, and all connecting railways, to carry delegates upon the following terms:—That if not less than 300 attend the convention, the delegates will be returned free, subject to the following rules:

1. Delegates must purchase first-class full rate one way ticket to Kingston, and obtain certificate to that effect on standard certificate form. Ticket agents are supplied with these forms, and are instructed to issue them on application.

2. Tickets may be purchased within three days prior to opening of convention, or during same. Certificates must be handed to ticket agents within three days after close of meetings, Sundays excluded in both cases.

Delegates must present their certificates to the General Secretary to be certified to by him and also by joint agents of railways before returning home.

The Railway Companies require delegates to present certificates to the ticket agents, at least ten minutes before train leaves.

Any violation of above may cause delegates both trouble and expense.

JUNIORS' EXECUTIVE.

A meeting of the Junior Local Union Executive will be held at Miss Mann's residence, on George street, next Saturday, at 8 p. m. All Junior leaders are expected to be present.

The Methodist General Conference at its recent session in London has taken an advanced step with regard to its young people's societies. Although it adopted "Epworth League" as the official name of the general society, still the resolution passed by the Conference does not interfere with the status of existing societies in the church. Epworth Leagues of Christian Endeavour may remain such, but they are now legally recognized; and each local society is left free to adopt this double name if it so desire. We trust, now that this concession has been made, that all purely Christian Endeavour societies in the Methodist church will adopt the double name and thus secure representation on the Quarterly Boards and a legal status in the church.—Endeavour Herald.

ST. PAUL'S SOCIETY.

The nominating committee meet on Tuesday evening to select the officers for the ensuing term.

The Junior society will meet on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock hereafter instead of Wednesday evening. The social committee intend holding a social on Tuesday evening the 9th inst. They have a novel scheme to present on this evening, which it is hoped will prove successful. Heretofore this society have been noted for its successful socials and it is expected that this will be fully up to their standard.

Mr. W. Webster was appointed a delegate to attend the provincial convention which will be held at Kingston next week.

The Temperance Committee will announce later on the date on which the postponed meeting will take place. Mr. Johnston, having recovered from his recent illness, will address this meeting as was previously announced.

The International Convention of '95 will be held at Boston, and not in California, as was expected. The full particulars have not yet been officially announced, but we expect that a reasonable rate could not be arranged with the railroads. As you will remember, the convention was granted to California on condition that reasonable rates could be made with the railroads.

IMPERIAL CABINET SUMMONED.

Something of Great Importance Needs Prompt Attention.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A special Cabinet council has been called for to-morrow and the members of the Ministry who are absent from the city have been hurriedly summoned to return. Telegrams have been sent to Sir William Vernon Harcourt, who had started for Italy, and other of the Ministers who are in the country. Sudden new developments regarding the relations between Great Britain and France are without doubt the reason for the hasty summoning of the Ministers.

The Daily Chronicle alludes to the occasion for summoning the cabinet as a grave and serious matter. It deplores the fact that the condition of both the civilized and uncivilized world gives only too abundant cause for disquietude. After discussing the various questions pending between England and France the Chronicle expresses the opinion that Egypt will be the test question, and advocates a European conference with the object of completely neutralizing Egypt. The Daily Chronicle regards the alarm shown as absurd. The nation, it says, has implicit confidence in Lord Rosebery's diplomacy.

The Times makes no comment on the cabinet meeting.

The Birr Case Re-Opened.

DUBLIN, Oct. 3.—The cases of Kathleen O'Donovan and Annie Desmond, the servant girls who in July last charged certain officers of the garrison at Birr, were re opened by Judge Curran yesterday and leave was granted to send to the Grand Jury a bill charging Captain Armstrong and Lieutenants Moore, Gibsen and Saunders with indecent assault. When the officers were previously arraigned on the charge, the trial ended without a decision being rendered, the court being divided upon the question of the guilt of the defendants and as a result of having brought the charges against the officers the girls were dismissed from their employment, the adjutant general ordering that they be not allowed to reside within the garrison. The Grand Jury found true bills against the accused officers.

New Superintendent of Lachine Canal—Supreme Court in Session.

OTTAWA Oct. 3.—It is learned at the Department of Railways and Canals that John Conway, of Montreal, had been appointed superintendent of the Lachine canal, in the place of Kennedy, who was dismissed for his connection with the Curran bridge affair.

Sir Adolphe Caron has gone to Quebec, where he will officiate at the opening of the Beauce county railway. He will probably address his constituents before returning. He will also, it is said, while in Quebec, discuss with the local Conservative leaders the question of opening the constituency made vacant by the death of the Hon. John Hearn.

Hon. George E. Foster will leave for England on Saturday. It is said he is going to float a new Canadian loan.

The Supreme Court met yesterday, there being on the bench Chief Justice Strong and Justices Taschereau, Gwynne, Sedgwick and King. The Quebec list was the first taken up. Two motions were made, one to quash the case of Webster v Sherbrooke, and the other to quash the case of Lillberg v Equitable Life. Decisions in both motions were reserved.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, who has returned from the west, will attend the funeral of John White, ex-M.P., at Belleville to-morrow.

At the annual meeting of the Protestant Hospital it was shown that the expenditure for the year for provisions, salaries, wages and medicines was $14,598.19, compared with $14,851.17 for the previous year. The number of patients admitted during the year was 553, compared with 449 last year. The aggregate number of days spent by patients in the hospital was 21,776 while last year it was 16,748. The new officers of the institution will not be elected until the next monthly meeting.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, Oct. 3, 1894.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The receipts on the street comprised 460 bushels of wheat at 54c for white, 53c for red and 50c for goose; 1,000 barley at 42c to 44c, 200 peas at 59c to 61c, and 1,000 oats at 29½c to 30½c. Prices outside were unchanged.

Western barley is a little easier, and quite a fair business was done in Buffalo at quotations. Canada dull, quoted: No. 1 western, 60c; No. 2, 56c; sample, 55 to 57c; Canada choice, 67c.

Wheat was weak in Chicago. December closed 1 1-8c and cash 1-2c lower. Corn also declined, the close being 1 3-8c lower for May and 1-2c for cash. Oats were weak, closing 3 4c lower.

At East Buffalo sheep and lambs market total offerings were 10,000 head; closed very dull and weak with a number of natives and 2,000 head of Canada lambs unsold.

American securities in London merely reflect the New York market. The general tone remains apathetic. The next rise is expected to begin with the gilt-edged stocks on the glut of money.

So far as the railway stocks were concerned the New York stock market was a favorable one. Particularly in the Granger stocks there was first an abrupt movement of recovery, then a lapse into dull steadiness at the higher level. The market appeared to be separated into two parts, neither of which had any influence on the other. In the later trading it might fairly be said that there was no market at all save that distinguished by the leisurely decline in sugar.

Look Here.

Do you feel blue and despondent? Do pains rack and tear away at nerve and muscle, and have you been disappointed in finding a remedy that will afford certain and speedy relief? If so, go at once to any drug store and buy a bottle of Polson's Nerviline. Polson's Nerviline never fails to relieve neuralgia, cramps, headache, rheumatism and all internal or external pains. J. B. Carman, druggist, Morrisburg, writes: "All the parties I supply speak very favorable of Nerviline, and always purchase a second lot." Polson's Nerviline is sold in bottles at 25 cents—by all druggists and country dealers everywhere.

ROBERT HALL.

A Pronounced Success.

As anticipated, the formal opening, of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of weaves march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

A Quiet Wedding.

Last evening a quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Keane, corner of McDonnel and George streets, when Mr. Charles Meek, commercial traveller, and Mrs. Wm. Keane were united in marriage. The important ceremony was performed by Rev. A. MacWilliams, of St. Andrew's church, in the presence of very few friends. Their many friends will unite in wishing them prosperity and happiness.

Evening Classes, Peterborough Mechanics' Institute.

A meeting will be held on Tuesday evening October 9th, at 8 o'clock, when classes in Machine Drawing, Mensuration and Steam Engineering will be formed and a competent teacher engaged if a sufficient number of names are handed in. Intending scholars will please leave in their applications with the librarian as early as possible.

J. S. KNAPMAN,
Chairman Class Committee.

A Foundationless Rumor.

The report to the effect that a curling stone industry was about to be established here, as a branch to a Scotch manufactory, is to say the least premature. The company has not as yet decided to even locate a branch in Canada, much less picked out any particular spot for the industry. The statement that the representative would be accompanied to Ottawa by Mr. John Burnham, M. P., in order to make arrangements for the protection of the industry, is incorrect. Mr. Burnham proposes to take no such action.

Dirty.

Well, we should say so. From the cellar to the garret. With the dust of the summer and the dust of the flies everything is apt to be a little dirty just now, especially the wall paper and window blinds. We offer a remedy for that dirty appearance that comes early in the fall. A new fresh paper and a new set of blinds is the simplest and finest remedy. It will make your home look like new, and give a refreshing appearance to everything around. See the beautiful stock all this month at a genuine discount. No regular prices at the Peterborough Book Store.—A. H. STRATTON & Co.

THE BEAR EPIDEMIC.

Bruin's Invasions of the Haunts of Man—His Lust For Food Costs Him His Life—Thin of Flesh but Thick of Fur.

Mr. Paul Payne, of Dummer, was in town to-day, and reports an invasion of bears in that township, especially in the vicinity of Warsaw. He says there is hardly a cornfield in the neighbourhood that does not show evidences of the visit of bears.

An evening or two ago Mr. Payne was watching a solitary apple tree in the field on his farm about four miles from Warsaw. The bear loped out of the woods to help himself to the windfalls. Mr. Payne drew a bead on bruin and sent a bullet into his chest which passed through the animal's vitals and lodged in its flank. The bear retreated and Mr. Payne not knowing at that time the effect of his first fire put three more charges into the beast before he gave up the ghost. This specimen of ursa mayer weighed 175 pounds, and when stretched out measured eight feet in length.

Mr. Joseph Payne of Dummer, also shot a fine bear in his orchard, not far from his house, last week. This was only about two and a half or three miles from Warsaw. On Tuesday morning a she bear and two cubs were seen within a quarter of a mile of Worsaw.

Mr. Payne accounts for the abundance of bears in old settled districts by the scarcity of the berry crop and of the acorn crop, and also by forest fires, which have driven them from their haunts. He says the reports of big bears are highly imaginary; a bear that weighs as much as 200 lbs. is exceedingly scarce, especially this season when the animals are very thin in flesh owing to scarcity of food. "Bears," said he, "seem to be laying in fur instead of flesh. The bear I shot the other night had a splendid coat of fur."

HUSTLING HAVELOCK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Havelock School Board met in special session. The members present were Messrs. Milne, Maiden, Meill, Mark and Ritchie. The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved and signed by the chairman. It was moved by Mr. Maiden, seconded by Mr. Ritchie, that the secretary write Mr. J. C. Brown, Inspector of Public Schools, to send a check for the legislative grant at once, referring to clause 122. See page 144 of school manual. Moved by Mr. Meill that the agreement of Miss Minnie Howson be accepted.—Carried. Moved to adjourn 11 o'clock a.m.

STRATTON—WILKINS NUPTIALS.

One of Belleville's Most Winsome Maidens Will Now Claim Peterborough as Her Home.

A very interesting marriage took place this afternoon at half past three o'clock in St. Thomas church, Belleville, when Mr. Albert H. Stratton, of Peterborough, led to the altar Miss Clare S. W. Wilkins, only daughter of the late Henry Wilkins, Esq., of Montreal, and granddaughter, of the late Charles Wilkins, Esq., of Belleville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Burke, rector of St. Thomas church, assisted by Rev. H. Blacklock, curate. The winsome young bride was attired in a stylish "going away" gown of fawn and white camel's hair cloth, trimmed with black velvet hat, to match, adorned with velvet and ostrich plumes. It was a most becoming costume.

The charming bridesmaid Miss N. Milburn, wore a golden brown, mixed tweed, trimmed with pink silk, brown hat and feathers, with pink velvet roses. Both carried shower boquets, of cream tea roses, the gift of the groom. Mr. W. A. Stratton officiated as groomsman.

The chancel of the church was decorated with flowers. Mrs. Campbell, the organist, presided at the organ, and played the wedding march as the bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. George Ranney, of Peterborough, who gave her away. The number of guests was not large, being merely the near relatives, with a few exceptions. The church was thronged with an interested crowd of spectators. Teh following is a list of the guests present at the ceremony: Mrs. Jas. Stratton, Misses Stratton, J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., and Mrs. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. R. Maitland Roy, Mrs. Chas. Ranney, Peterborough; Mrs. E. Gingras, Mrs. McAnnanny, Mrs. Burke, Miss Smart, Mrs. Geo. D. Dickson, Miss Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. C. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Wragge, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dougall and Mr. Paul Deny. The ushers who officiated were Messrs. Angus Dickson, H. Parker Thomas and Arthur Dupuis. After the ceremony the guests attended a reception at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Chas. Wilkins, and offered congratulations to the "nouveaux mariees."

At 6 p.m. the happy pair left for New York, Philadelphia and other eastern cities. The best wishes of a host of friends follow the young couple. The wedding gifts were very numerous and costly, and made a handsome display. The following is a list of a few:—China tea set, Mrs. Jas. Stratton; a quantity of family silver, Mrs. C. Wilkins; an onyx clock from the staff of the Peterborough Bookstore and the EXAMINER office; a silver jewel box, from the Junior Guild of St. Thomas' church; silver epergne, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stratton; a silver tea set, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews; a silver water service, Mr. W. A. Stratton; gold card case, Mrs. G. Gingras. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome diamond lace pin, and to the bridesmaid a pretty ring of diamonds and sapphire.

On their return from their wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Stratton will occupy their handsome residence on Benson street.

ASHBURNHAM COUNCIL.

The Dickson Company are Granted $75 Towards the Expense of Changing the Course of the Creek.

The adjourned meeting of the Ashburnham council was held last evening with the following members in attendance:—the Reeve and Messrs. Morgan, Smith and Rutherford.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

It was moved by Messrs. Smith and Morgan that the following accounts be paid:—

A DAUGHTER OF GENERAL BOOTH TO MARRY.

New York, Oct. 2.—It was officially stated at the Salvation Army headquarters, No. 111 Reade street, yesterday, that General Wm. Booth's daughter, Commissioner Lucy Booth, who has charge of the Army's work in India, will be married in London on Oct. 16 to Mr. Emanuel Hellburg, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs at the International headquarters of the Army in that city. Commissioner Booth, who has so successfully managed the work in India for three years, has adopted the native East Indian costume, in which picturesque garb she will be married. General Booth, the commander-in-chief of the Army, being in Canada, the ceremony will be performed by his eldest son, Chief of Staff Bramwell Booth, who is next in rank to his father. Soon after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Hellburg, will start for the East Indian headquarters in Bombay, and will take joint charge of the Army's work in India., Mr. Hellburg will also adopt the Indian costume.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th.—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

We are selling "The Fatal Wedding," "Sweet Marie," "I Long to see the Girl I Left Behind," and four other popular songs all for 25 cents. Peterborough Music Co.

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, heartburn and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to be cured.

LADIES! LADIES!

Special Attention.

Ladies, do not be misled by paste-board charts and so-called tailor systems that have a set form of curves and give a box form appearance to all garments; they give the same curve and the same shape for all persons of the same size. We are the original inventors of all seamless garments, and warn all parties not to use them unless using our system, as we will prosecute those that do. We have our Government papers open for public inspection, which prove we are the inventors, so watch out for frauds and copyists. We graduate you with an elegant diploma. We give each scholar for one year free our Paris Fashion Publication, which gives you the latest styles and draftings. JUST OUT OF THE CASE.

Perhaps it's just as well you didn't buy your new Mantle sooner. Styles have changed since February—when most of the Mantle Stocks for this season were bought.

Our stock was bought in June and are the most correct in all the details of Fashion's latest fancies—revised with all the newest improvements, and endorsed by leading fashion authorities. The new prescribed lengths are from 34 to 38 inches—longer coats are too long—so the fashion leaders insist.

LADIES—We invite your inspection, feeling satisfied that nothing in town can excel our Mantles, Coats and Wraps. If you want a garment particularly effective and fashionable, get ours. Besides, you can buy now at the beginning of the season far better than at the end.

We claim to be as far ahead in our goods as we are below in our prices.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Cattle shippers are far from manifesting indifference towards the English market for the reason that although the markets over there are in a very unsatisfactory shape, there would be as much loss in restricting shipments as there is at present in actual sales. Consequently cattle are still being shipped in the usual volume. The prospects are by no means encouraging, the principal feature to substantiate the supposition, being the large general shipments.

Cables to-day were little different from last week's, and most of them quoted identical figures.

There is a decided scarcity in freight space, particularly to Liverpool, only one steamer going to that place this week. A good deal of space has been taken to other ports at about 35 shillings to 40 shillings. As there is a large quantity of stock on the way from the West, dealers show little hesitation in taking space to the leading ports at the figures asked.

Insurance premiums remain unaltered at 1 to 1½ per cent.

The sheep situation seems to be in sympathy with that of cattle, any way dealers look for no improvement until cattle are firmer. At the Point to-day Mr. James Eakens purchased about 100 head at 3½c to 3¾c. Export cattle at the Point were neglected. The usual fair demand was noted for butchers' cattle, and an average amount of business was done in hogs and lambs. Prices remain about steady.

At the East End Abbatoir to-day there were offered 450 head of butchers' cattle, 50 calves, and 400 sheep and lambs. The butchers were present in considerable numbers and there was a good demand for the best cattle, but the rough and inferior beasts were not very salable, and prices continue about the same as on last Thursday. Pretty good stock sold at from 3c to 3½c per lb., and a lot of moderately good Manitoba cattle were sold at 2¾c do, while the leaner beasts sold at from 2c to 2½c per lb. There was a good demand for calves and a lot of nine superior calves which would weigh from 300 to nearly 500 pounds each, were sold for $100 for the lot. Common calves sold at from $3 to $6 each. Shippers are paying less for sheep than is being paid for them in Toronto, or about 3½c per lb. The other sheep sell at from $2 to $3.25 each, and lambs sell at from $1.50 to $3.25 each. Fat hogs are lower in price, or from 5c to 5¼c per lb.

"THE MAKING OF CANADA."

THE SUBJECT OF REV. PRINCIPAL GRANT'S LECTURE.

An Eloquent Address—Replete With Information,—Patriotic Spirit and Logical Deduction—A Broad, Scholarly Lecture

Last night there was a fair attendance at the opera house to listen to the admirable address of Rev. Principal Grant, of Queen's College, upon the subject of the "Making of Canada."

The chair was filled by Mayor Kendry. Previous to the address Miss Vink gave an artistic pianoforte solo, a double number, (a) Polonaise in C sharp minor, Chopin; (b) Tarantelle, Cramer; and Mrs. Seward sang very sweetly "The Falling Star."

Rev. Principal Grant prefaced his eloquent address by a reference to liberty which was defined as not so much political or civil liberty as the liberty of the individual. He said that national development was of slow growth, the result of years of struggle and effort. Among other instances of this the United States was cited. Their natural development had been the result of the operation of the factors indicated, and the same work was now going on, and the national development of Canada had been marked by the same features. Our fathers had been inspired by the aim of on British lines—a nation worthy of a world-wide empire like Great Britain, which was not local or even continental in its character, but world wide. The fundamental principle upon which the British Empire was founded was liberty, not only for all the component parts of the empire, but for all nations as well. The British Empire was for political, religious, mental and intellectual liberty. The aim of our Canadian forefathers was to be worthy of being an integral part of such an empire. At Confederation this aspiration took more definite shape, and the speaker remarked that unity of the empire tended more to peace than separation. The vast superiority of the British constitution upon which ours was modelled consisted in its elasticity. In contrasting it with the hard and fast constitution of our Southern neighbours, the speaker cited the history of the McKinley Bill, in which the Senate was able for four years to block the popular will. At two elections the people had pronounced overwhelmingly against the McKinley Bill and the principles it involved, yet it was not until nearly four years after the popular condemnity of these principles, that a mongrel tariff reform measure was reluctantly signed by the strongest President the United States had since Lincoln. The Senate had practically made the popular voice of no effect. Such a thing could not happen under the Canadian or British form of responsible government where the will of the people must be respected. These facts showed how imperfectly free the United States were. A man or nation, the speaker said, who could not do what reason and conscience declared was right, was not free. A hard and fast constitution, like that of the United States, was not as well adapted and to meet changing conditions as the more elastic constitution of Great Britain or Canada. If we as Canadians would build up an enduring nation, we must carry out the aims our forefathers in the struggles in the past had sought to give effect to.

TO MAINTAIN ENDURING INSTITUTIONS,

Referring to the racial elements of Canadian national development, the speaker cited the kindly and generous treatment which Great Britain and Canada had extended to the first element, the Indians. On this account, these original lords of the soil, were friendly to Britain and Canada. The French in the early history of the country had also treated the Indians well, and in the course of this reference the speaker paid an eloquent tribute to the self-sacrifice and devotion of the early Jesuit fathers.

As to the second racial element, the speaker said that the attitude of French Canadians towards Great Britain was all that could be desired. The French element had stood well the supreme test of loyalty, that of shedding their blood in defence of the interests of Canada and the Empire—in 1812, in 1837, in 1866, and in 1885. The reason of this was that from the time of the Quebec Act of 1774, which was a wise and statesmanlike statute, Britain had dealt justly and generously with the French element of Canada. The speaker said he was proud to think we had a spark of the great French nation—whose achievements in arts, arms, science, song and industry were eloquently lauded—as an element in the making of Canada. He believed in the mixing of breeds. As the union of the English and French had made England the greatest nation on the earth, so he hoped that the fusion of the English-speaking and French elements would result in on this continent. The other racial elements that went to the making of Canada were the United Empire Loyalists, whose patriotism and sacrifices were finely pictured, and the immigrants from the Old Country, who came to Canada in preference to the United States.

The speaker next dealt with the constitutional development in Canada, referring to the first parliamentary form of government based on the British constitution, then in the more imperfect form which subsequent changes have improved; to the development into responsible government and finally to the realization of the dream of Lord Durham of 1837, in the Act of Confederttion in 1867. Now only one thing remained to complete the constitutional liberty Canada enjoyed and that it was to have a voice in deciding the supreme question of peace or war and that step must be taken or we would not reach the full status of a nation. This end could be better gained by unity than by separation—Britain and Canada were stronger together than Canada separated. Touching upon the historical aspect of Canadian development, the lecturer pointed out that in the past, the United States had not used Canada well. She had invaded us in 1774, 1812, 1837 and 1866 and had shown her hostility, in 1800, by raising up an impassable tariff wall. In justice, the speaker claimed, however, that in all these cases Canadians were to blame. It was false Canadians in '74, '37 and '12 that gave our invading neighbours the idea that Canada was waiting a chance to "throw off the British yoke, and it was true Canadians that SHOWED THEM THEIR MISTAKE.

It was false Canadians that led the United States to believe that the way to bring Canada to her knees was by raising the tariff wall still higher.

As to the present of Canada from every point of view, the speaker said he was proud that he was a native of Canada. Constitutionally we had the best elements of the British and American charters. We had borrowed the best traditions of the mother country, especially in declaring that our judges should not be appointed by popular selection, and providing one marriage law for all the country, so that a man married in one province was sure that he would remain married when he might go to another province. Canada had, the speaker showed, by toil and struggle a constitution that embraced the best features of those of Great Britain and the United States. We had a splendid code of laws, and the admirable codification of Ontario statutes was particularly commended. From a material point of view the work of our fathers was visible. We had the best railway system in fact the only continental railway system under one management in America. We had the best canal system in the world. Though there had been waste in the accumulation of our great debt, yet we had something to show for it. The people of Canada had the making of Canada, and unless they condemned wrong doing and punished the guilty, they were false to their great trust.

Reference was made to the mental and intellectual development of Canada, the equal of any country in the world.

As to the future of Canada we could only be true to that future by being true to our past—to be true to the conditions that had made Canada what it is—to be true to the unity of the Empire.

The eloquent lecturer during the delivery of his splendid address was frequently interrupted by applause, which was loud and prolonged when he resumed his seat.

Mr. Police Magistrate Dumble and Rev. J. C. Davidson, rector of St. John's, spoke in earnest commendation of the speaker's patriotic and timely address, paying a warm tribute to his high qualities of head and heart and moved a cordial vote of thanks, which Rev. Principal Grant acknowledged and the meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the Queen."

COMMUNICATIONS.

A communication was received from Miss Davidson, Kindergarten directress, asking for a month's leave of absence on account of ill-health.

On motion of Messrs. Hill and Hamilton Miss Davidson was accorded leave of absence, and the inspector was authorized to find a suitable substitute.

The Deputy Minister of Education wrote stating that the relative standing of the pupils at the recent examinations was as follows:

Primary—1 Lilian Primeau, 2 Mary F. Erskine.

Junior Leaving—1 Douglas J. Thom, 2 Charles Butler.

Senior Leaving—1 W. J. Spence, 2 J. F. Sullivan.

Received.

A letter was received from the rector, and church wardens of St. John's church, asking that the rooms of the South Ward Mission be again rented by the school board, and that the rental for last term, amounting to $100, be paid.

On motion, it was decided to forward a cheque for the amount due. Regarding the rental of the rooms, it was decided to take them for another year, on motion of Mr. Hill.

THE REPORT OF THE INSPECTOR was received and adopted as follows:

The total number of pupils enrolled in our public schools during September was 1,444 with an average attendance of 1229 or 85 per cent. The average attendance for the 25 divisions (the Kindergarten not included) was 87 per cent. The percentage is quite satisfactory for the first month of the term.

The Central School enrolled (Kindergarten not included) 598; average attendance 498, or 87.7 per cent; the Barnardo avenue school enrolled 179, average 158, or 88.2 per cent.; the Park street school 218, average 188, or 86.2 per cent.; and the Rubidge street school 337, average 288 or 85.7 per cent.

Kindergartens.—There were enrolled in the Central Kindergarten 70 pupils, average 48; in the South Kindergarten 72, average 48.5. The average attendance for the two kindergartens was 96.5 or 68 per cent.

The number enrolled in September, 1893, was 1368, average 1188, or 68 per cent.

The average number enrolled last month per room was in the North School, 45; in the West, 54; in the South, 56; and in the Central, 52.

PROPOSED PURCHASE OF SCHOOL PROPERTY.

On motion of Messrs. Stevenson and McBain, the Property Committee was instructed to inspect the Menzies property and report as to the feasibility of adopting it for school purposes in case the Board saw fit to purchase it.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

—upon you before you know it. It is sure to be in the air we breathe, the water we drink. The germ of Consumption is everywhere present. The germ begins to grow as soon as it reaches a weak spot in the body. Catarrh, Bronchitis, and a scrofulous condition, furnish these weak spots. The way to fight these germs—begin early—render the liver active and purify the blood with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Besides, it builds up healthy flesh.

It's guaranteed in all bronchial, throat and lung affections; every form of scrofula, even Consumption in its earlier stages. If the "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Fortify yourself against disease by making the body germ-proof, then you will save yourself from grip, malaria, and many of the passing diseases.

THE DEMON OF CHINA.

THE MONSTER IS MORE RAPACIOUS THAN WAR OR PLAGUE.

It Has Devoured Millions of Human Beings at a Time—A River Which Changes Its Bed as Easily as a Man Changes His Clothes.

China has a demon. No matter how unfortunate the Chinese may be in the war with Japan, the Japanese cannon and rifles can never claim as many victims as this demon, which is as old as China itself. The Chinese may fear foreign enemies at times, but they dread their demon always. It is always present.

This demon is a river, which, fortunately for the human race, has not its like on earth. It is known in China as the Hoang Ho or Hwang-ho, but Europeans usually call it the Yellow river, owing to its very muddy waters.

The Hoang-Ho is one of the big rivers of the world, belonging in that select circle of rivers composed of the Amazon, the Mississippi, the Nile, the Congo, etc. But its bigness is not its chief characteristic. It has another quality which turns it into China's demon and makes it cut holes in China's enormous population.

The Yellow river is a fickle stream. It changes its bed with the same ease that a man changes his clothes, and when it seeks a new course there are fewer mouths to feed in China. By seeking a new bed it is not meant that the Yellow river runs a mile or two away from its old channel, as the lower Mississippi sometimes does. It explores regions entirely new, for this extraordinary river in 2,500 years has emptied itself into the sea by nine different mouths, and two of these have been as much as 350 miles apart.

Now you want to know why this river, even if it does make wide changes in its course, is called China's Demon. Just imagine that all this country between New York and Norfolk, says the New York World, and extending far back into the interior, is a level plain full of cities, towns and villages far more densely populated than any State in the Union, even swarming with population to a greater extent than the plains of Belgium. All these millions and millions of human beings are prosperous and are busy with their ordinary duties. But the spring rains back in the mountains have been unusually heavy. Nobody pays any special attention, however.

By and by the mighty river which flows across this thickly populated plain begins to get a little muddier and a little yellower than usual. The water grows deeper and the current swifter. Still nobody is much alarmed, for if the river rises too high they can easily move back out of the way.

But away back a thousand miles in the interior, where the waters of the river flow down from the mountain and enter the plain, there is a curve in the channel. The swollen torrent, as it swishes around the curve, beats against the bank. Under the impact of the great volume of water the bank caves away. Day and night huge cakes of earth are dropping down, and the protecting bank rapidly grows smaller. The water rushing down from the mountains bear on it perpetually.

Some night, with a crash, the last of the bank falls in. The whole river deserts the old channel, pours into the new, and off it goes at a great angle from its former course, sweeping across the plain, a boiling, raging, irresistible, muddy torrent, beating down everything in its course, carrying away villages and towns and rushing on to the sea, its wide torrent covered with houses, human bodies and the other wreck of a swarming population.

Just imagine, if you can, such a thing as this happening in our own country, and you will comprehend the Demon of China. The Chinese call it "The Sorrow of Han." The number of people it has drowned in its changes of course is almost incredible. The Chinese say that at a single change it has claimed as many as four or five millions—nearly as many as are in the Dominion of Canada. Nor is this all the disaster. Farms are destroyed by the floods, and famine follows, adding countless new victims to the list.

There was one of these great floods of the Yellow river about four years ago and vast numbers of Chinese perished. But in 1853 it made a remarkable exhibition of fickleness. Before that time it occupied the most southerly of all its courses. There were great rains in 1851, 1852 and 1853. Gradually the northern bank of the river east of the city of Kai-Fung-Foo was undermined. The river changed its channel, flowing over the low-lying country to the northward.

First, the Hoang-Ho flooded a belt of country about twelve miles wide. Then it struck the bed of of the Ta-Tsing river. The Ta-Tsing was a decent, well-behaved river of clear water, occupying a deep channel and attending strictly to its business of flowing across the country to the sea. The Chinese had a great respect for the Ta Tsing, for they could not remember anything to its discredit.

But suddenly the mighty muddy Hoang-Ho, which knows no law, swooped down on the poor Ta Tsing and, liking its channel, promptly usurped it without even the formality of saying, "With your kind permission, Mr. Ta-Tsing." It filled the Ta-Tsing channel with its turbid stream and flowed down it to the sea, incidentally flooding the adjacent country as it passed.

The poor, respectable Ta-Tsing river was wiped off the map, while the old course of the Hoang-Ho dried up and was planted in rice and other Chinese crops. Farms flourished there, and will flourish until some unforseen day, when the wicked and willful Hoang-Ho will take a sudden notion to try that old channel again, and will rush down, flooding the farms and drowning the farmers.

A Blaze at Collingwood.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., Oct. 1.—There was a big blaze here yesterday. Fire started in one of the lumber sheds of D. G. Cooper, mill owner, and before it could be controlled, it spread to the sawmill and lumber sheds on the one side, and into the store of the Bryan Manufacturing Co. on the other. The latter firm had a large quantity of dry mouldings and manufactured wood work in their store house and the fire made short work of it. The loss will exceed $7,000. Mr. Cooper's loss on lumber and shingles will be about $5,000 which is fairly covered by insurance. The Bryan Manufacturing Company's loss will foot up over $2,000. No insurance.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

Permanently Cured

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

AVERY GIDDY PRINCESS

THE SISTER OF ITALY'S KING CUTS A CAPER ON WHEELS.

In Consequence of Which the Frolicsome Lady is Placed Under the Ban of Royal Displeasure and Sent to Coventry by the King.

Bicycles cause no end of bad blood—in more senses than one, it is to be feared—before finally obtaining the right of citizenship among orthodox vehicles of the road; and, universal though they have now become among ordinary mortals, they have still a deal of up-hill work to accomplish before acquiring a status among the surroundings of royalty. Of course, a prince or king may bestride a "wheel," and do anything but break a record or his neck; but were a princess so far to forget what she owed to her house, her dignity and her long line of ancestors as to patronize this democratic means of locomotion, the whole civilized world would be expected to stand aghast at the desecration of royalty implied by the act. And this is the horrible deed that has just been announced by the telegraph, and has thrown Italian court circles into ceremonial convulsions.

The catastrophe, says a Rome correspondent of the London Telegraph, occurred in Turin, and the heroine and victim—the lady is both—is the pretty, accomplished young widow, the duchess of Aosta, who is staying at the castle of Stupinigi. Princess Maria Loetizia is a sister-in-law of the present king of Italy, she having married in 1888 his brother, Prince Amadeo, duke of Aosta, who died in 1890. This lady, who is a Bonaparte, is not merely accomplished and pretty, but is brimful of life and fun, and takes a positive delight in tramping upon the rigid court ceremonial of past ages.

She set out a few days ago on one of these tabooed vehicles, accompanied by a maid of honor and two court cavaliers, and after a long ride the party were flying up one of the shady avenues leading to the palace of the duke of Aosta, when a company of soldiers commanded by a major met them half way, glanced at them furtively, and perhaps a trifle too curiously or critically, and marched on without making a sign. The duchess, rendered more sensitive than usual by the consciousness that she was transgressing the bonds of court etiquette, felt hurt at not being saluted in the approved fashion by the major and his soldiers. This was perhaps human nature, and, as such, excusable. But the lively lady went much further; she actually complained of the conduct of the major, who had, she affirmed, culpably neglected to salute her. The commandant of Turin, Gen. d'Oncian de la Batin, at once summoned the officer to appear before him and explain his conduct. The major said he was guiltless of any offence, as he did not recognize the high-born lady, oddly dressed and seated between two wheels, and would never have permitted himself to think of her highness as a severe bicyclist. Had he known or suspected it was she, of course he would have, etc., etc. Gen. de la Batin, uncertain what course to take, appealed to the Solomonistic wisdom of the war minister, to whom he forwarded a detailed report of the whole occurrence, asking for instructions as to the punishment to be meted out to the major, whom he meanwhile kept in arrest. The minister of war, if not precisely a Solomon, was at least quite shrewd enough to see that the ground he was treading was courtly—if not holy—and instead of taking the responsibility upon himself demanded an audience of the king, before whom he laid the report of the commandant.

The monarch cut the Gordian knot in a twinkling. He sent a telegraphic order to Turin releasing the major from arrest and entirely exonerating him in the matter. This, however, was the solution of only one-half of the question; the remaining moiety concerned the lively young widow; and the king sent his bicycle-loving sister-in-law an order forbidding her to attire herself in red court costume for the space of two calendar months, a prohibition which is equivalent to strict domestic arrest for that period. The princess is therefore absolutely invisible to the good citizens of Turin, who were wont to watch and salute her two or three times daily, as she rode or drove or walked about the streets of the historic old city.

The inhabitants console themselves by gazing for hours through the windows of the photographers' shops, where a series of ten magnificent portraits in various positions and costumes attract hundreds of loyal sympathizers. I now learn that sentence has been pronounced on one of the court cavaliers who accompanied the duchess on her bicycling expedition. The marquis of Moncrivello has been summarily dismissed from his post by order of the king, who is said to be extremely annoyed at the evident determination of his sister-in-law to put all traditional notions of court etiquette at naught, and to have announced his intention to punish more severely all future transgressions.

Great Discoveries.

The astronomer who discovers a new star, the scientist who finds a new face, or the geologist who alights upon a new species of fossil, becomes deservedly famous; but the actual good such discoveries do is nothing when compared to the finding of a medicine which is an infallible cure for certain diseases. Such a discovery was made nearly half a century ago by an Eastern gentleman named Perry Davis, and his preparation is now known to the world as Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER. It is a sure cure for Diarrhœa, Cramps, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, and indeed, all bowel complaints. 25c. only for Big 2 oz. bottle.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Summer Complaint, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt, safe and sure cure that has been a popular favorite for over 40 years.

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

OF CANADA.

From the CANADIAN TRADE REVIEW.

"There is no invidiousness involved in the assertion that no other Canadian company in existence can point to such a record of rapid, substantial and uninterrupted progress and prosperity as that exhibited in the successive annual reports of the Sun Life. . . . Most assuredly are its directors, shareholders and policy holders to be congratulated upon the very flourishing condition of the Company, and especially upon the result of the business of a year which was marked by the prevalence of conditions—the influenza epidemic, for instance—which proved disastrous for so many life companies. And with no less certainty can it be said that the very great progress made by the institution has been mainly due to the able and energetic efforts, guided by the sagacity and prudence which pratical experience alone can bring, of the President and Managing-Director, who has been efficiently assisted by the Secretary. From the contemplation of so successful a past the management may reasonably draw most sanguine anticipations as to the prosperity of the future.

Authors' Homes.

Abroad, and especially in France, when a man makes a great literary or musical success, he likes to associate it with some permanent record. Dumas set the fashion sixty years ago by calling a little villa that he built outside Paris "Monte Cristo." It kept its name all through the author's life and retained it until a year ago, when it passed from the family into other hands. Similarly M. de Maupassant called the yacht so well known on the Riviera "Bel Ami," from the most popular of his literary ventures. And now M. Planquette has had constructed for him a little cottage at Merveille-sur-Mer, which he and his neighbors call the "Villa des Cloches." The neighbors are, in fact, very proud of it and him, and the Corneville people have just presented the villa with a peal of bells forming a chime, so that the run of the "Cloches de Corneville" may be independent of the caprice of the popularity of the footlights.—London Daily News.

Survivors of Napoleon's Army.

One of the French papers which have been devoting a great deal of attention to Napoleon Bonaparte of late has been entertaining its readers by having a census made of the survivors of Napoleon's grand army. Four of these men only are now left. The eldest is Jean Jacques Sabatier, who was born on the 15th of April, 1792, at Vernoux L'Ardeche, where he has lived in retirement for many years. Then come Victor Baillod, Jean Bousset, and Joseph Rose, aged respectively one hundred and one month, one hundred years and one month and one hundred years and a few days. It is said that all are as hearty and vigorous as can be expected, in spite of their experiences as long as eighty-two years ago in that terrible retreat when the beggarly remnant of the greatest army the world has ever seen, worn out with cold and hunger, angrily called to the victor of Marengo and Austerlitz to get off his horse and share in the miseries of his men.

The Llama.

The Llama is a native of Peru and an animal of great importance to the Peruvians. It is a beast of burden, and at one time was the only quadruped in the country which could be used for that purpose, taking the place of either horse ox or goat; it also furnishes them with food and clothing. In South America the animal is commonly known by several names—llama, alpaca, vicugna and guanaco. The llama and alpaca are domesticated, but the guanaco and vicugna are wild. The flesh of the llama is good for food and the skins and wool for clothing.

The Shape of the Shoes.

A doctor says that it is a great mistake for all women to suppose that the pointed-toe shoe is bad for the feet. He adds that there are feet that should wear nothing else and that are hurt by the square-toed boot that is often substituted. The way to determine what is best for one's feet is to place the stockinged foot upon the floor and to notice where the big toe comes. If it is on a line with the others, then the square-toed shoe is required. If it decidedly projects beyond the others, the pointed-toe is better.

A New Word and Its Derivation.

The next revised edition of Murray will contain the word "larrikin." Its significance is peculiar and its derivation amusing. A "larrikin" is an Australian tough boy or gamin. He is of the peculiar strain of depravity sure to be found in a land like Australia, the logical offspring of the convict outcasts and the women who follow in their train. He is said to have peculiarities not to be found in any other tough boy, and physical characteristics which would identify him wherever found by a student of the human race. For example, the shape of his head is unmistakable. He is plentiful in Australia. He is depraved, lacking alike in mental and moral health. He was, until lately, without any individual cognomen, but not long ago one of the class was in court in Melbourne, and the Irish officer who had him in charge being asked the judge what his offense was, replied: "He was a larriking, yer 'onor," with such a rolling of the "r" that the judge misunderstood for a moment, and thought the word was a term applied to the boy. Ever since, in Melbourne, the street gamin has been spoken of as a "larrikin," and the word has passed into the vernacular of Australia.

A Child's Bad Fall.

HAMILTON, Sept. 27.—Alma McNeil, three years of age, fell from a second story window at her home, 103 Catharine street south. Her jaw was broken and her chin badly cut by the fall. It was found necessary to extract several teeth in order to give the suffering child nourishment.

SEVENTEEN YEARS OF IT.

Charles Schryver had Kidney Disease all This Time and Didn't Know it—How he Found Out and How he was Cured.

TORONTO, Oct. 1.—Sixteen years ago kidney disease attacked Charles Schryver, a bricklayer in this city, but he did not know it. It showed itself in the form of pains in the small of the back. They did not amount so much at first, but kept growing worse. Within the past six years Mr. Schryver has almost every week had to quit work for one or two days on account of their severity. Doctors ascribed them to the liver and other causes and prescribed, but their medicine did no good. Last spring a city physician diagnosed the case as one of diabetes and wanted to prescribe, but Mr. Schryver said:—"No, if its diabetes I'll use Dodd's Kidney Pills, which I know will cure me." They did cure him, too, and to-day Mr. Schryver is free from ache or pain and able to do his day's work, week in and week out, with any man in his trade.

NORWOD NEWS NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Geo. Cutler, of Toronto, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. S. S. Weaver.

Mrs. Melrose, of Peterborough, who spent several weeks with Mrs. Jas. Cunningham, returned home last week.

Miss Annie Dawson, of Peterborough, is visiting friends in Asphodel.

Mrs. R. J. Stuart is visiting at Mr. Johnston Stuart's, Cavan.

Last week while working on the sidewalk Jas. Kellett received a severe bruise and cut on his thumb. The injured member is healing.

Rev. Mr. Somerville will be inducted into the pastorate of the Presbyterian church here on the 18th inst. Last Sunday the pulpit was occupied in the morning by Rev. Dr. McClelland, who delivered an address on "Missionaries." It was flower day and children's service. The church was beautifully decorated and the musical part of the service was taken by the children. Rev. Jas Cleland, of Port Hope, conducted the evening service.

A grand concert will be given in the town hall, on the evening of Wednesday, October 10th, the second night of the Fair. Miss DeGeer, of Uxbridge, and Mrs. F. E. Perney, vocalists, will take part. Also Miss Weaver and Miss Harper, whose elecutionary abilities are well known and appreciated by the Norwood audiences. Miss Sperry, pianiste, and the Norwood orchestra, will also assist in the programme.

Mr. T. V. Ackerman is preparing to build a large addition to his block, on Peterborough street. The old harness shop on the west side has been removed and the place cleaned up. The addition will fill the remainder of Mr. Ackerman's lot and will add considerably to the appearance of the street.

The number on the roll at the High School now, is 147. It is expected that a fourth teacher will be added to the staff about the first of November.

Last Saturday a football match was played in the park between the Campbellford High School team and the Norwood Model School. At first the play was fast, the first game being scored in one minute by Robertson for Campbellford. Porter succeeded in scoring for Norwood after two minutes' play. No more goals were scored until in the second half time, when Gallagher scored for Norwood. The following are the teams:

COUNCIL MEETING.

The council meeting was held on Monday evening, all the members being present. Minutes of last meeting were read and on motion confirmed. Messrs. Squire Bros. addressed the council and asked for a grant towards filling in the flume across the dam. On motion of Messrs. Stewart and Drain, councillors Ebbs and Reynolds were appointed a committee to look after the matter. The following accounts were presented and ordered to be paid: A. Emery, work on sidewalks, $4; J. Jotcham, drawing plank, etc., $5.60; G. Reynolds, work on sidewalks, $3; S. L. Purdy, plank, $51.50. On motion of Messrs. Drain and Reynolds, the account of Roland Scriver for $4, returning the fire engine was ordered to be paid. The reeve reported that the collector had given his bonds, the bondsmen being Messrs. Jas. Cumming, and W. E. Roxburgh. The bonds were accepted.

Mr. R. Scott asked the council to look into the matter of Mrs. David McMullen, and asked for a rebate of her taxes. Mr. M. McGregor addressed the council saying that he had a pool table, and asked if the council would grant him a license for the remainder of the year. Moved by Councillor Drain, seconded by Councillor Reynolds, that the pool table license bylaw be repealed, and another bylaw be prepared placing the bylaw at $25 per year. — Lost. Moved by Councillor Reynolds, seconded by Councillor Ebbs that a license of $2 per day be imposed on shooting galleries in the village, and that the corporate seal be attached to this motion to give it the effect of a bylaw.—Carried. Council then adjourned.

Modern Gold Mining.

The quartz is taken from the mine, sorted and then hauled to the stamping machine. Here the ore is crushed and pounded as fine as flour. It is then run through a sluice-box that contains quicksilver. As the water carries the ore over the "quick" it is taken up and held by the mercury and forms an amalgam. The quicksilver is then placed in a retort and brought to the boiling point. The "quick" passes out of the retort through a tube and is collected in a basin of water, and hardly a bit has been lost, while the gold remains in the retort in the shape of gold dust and is now ready for market. Only about 50 per centum of the gold is saved by this means, and those who can or have ore rich enough to justify it send it to the smelters, where 95 per centum is saved.

Novel Guest Cards.

A pretty guest card seen at a dinner where the flowers were all pink roses was a single good-sized rose-leaf made of watercolor paper and tinted pink. The leaves of many other flowers could be used in the same way or split peapods, cabbages, etc.

The Young Idea.

One of the boys of a Toronto family had been instructed by his teacher to write an essay. A rather abstruse subject had been given him, and he had been referred to the dictionary. His elder brother had promised, if the composition was good, he would write it on the typewriter. The little fellow went to the dictionary and found the word he was looking for, and under it a quotation that just suited the subject. He considered life too short, however, to copy the quotation, so he hunted up his mother's shears, and clipped the big handsome dictionary wherever it suited his fancy. The essay, thus constructed, was really creditable: but the big brother informed the father, and the ingenious youngster got a thrashing that he will remember [illegible] his life.

Jove and a Hornet Strike Together.

There was an unusually sharp flash of lightning, a stunning peal of thunder and a sharp, sudden pain, and a West Goldsboro young lady gave a shriek and jumped into the middle of the floor. Her friends thought she had been struck and she thought she had been killed, but when the excitement had calmed down enough for an investigation everybody was relieved, for then it was found that the shock had been inflicted, not by the lightning, but by a hornet, which had chosen that inauspicious time for action.—Lewiston Journal.

"AN ALL ROUND MAN"
CAN'T DODGE THE OVERCOAT
QUESTION.

One of our good live preachers delivered a stirring sermon the other Sunday on the subject of "The All Round Man." Among some of the good thing the EXAMINER reported him to have said, was:—"A man with self will and well defined ambition alone, was incomplete. He "must have breadth, and height, and length, to attain that moral excellence and symmetry of character which would approximate the ideal of the "All Round Man, he had endeavoured to present."

We cordially endorse every word of the above; but, from our point of view, the All Round Man is still incomplete without an OVERCOAT. Men judge by appearances. If there be sermons in stones, books in the running brooks, and good in every thing, THERE IS LIFE IN AN OVERCOAT and the All Round Man is not complete without one. To-day, too,—

OUR TEXT IS "OVERCOATS"

We have'nt had an opportunity to say a word lately about OVERCOATS; but, we have a few COLD facts for you now. When you are ready to "shake" your summer duds, we're ready to serve you with winter ones. No man, who has any respect for his pocket book can help "feeling" for it when he sees our pile of New Overcoats just out of the case. If you imagine we can't RETAIL Overcoats at WHOLESALE prices, you're imagination fools you. No barbed-wire-high-priced fence around our Overcoats.

No adjective, however strong; no statement, however extravagant, can exaggerate our banner stock of Light and Heavy Weight Overcoats for Fall and Winter wear. Keep on paying war prices for Overcoats if you will, but let the name of GOUGHS remind you that you needn't. Giving you merely good value doesn't satisfy us—we aim to give you BETTER VALUE than you get elsewhere. No matter what you have been accustomed to paying or to wearing, we'll show you a $7 Bargain in an Overcoat that you can't afford to ignore—whoever you are.

Light Fall Overcoats for $5.75, $7.50 and $10.00, fit for any business; and any man who wears one of these can readily palm it off as a custom-made. Every garment a novelty, made by artists of the first standing. Don't pay other dealers $12 to $15 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $9. Don't pay other dealers $8 to $10 for an Overcoat you can buy at Goughs for $5. GOUGHS OVERCOATS ARE FLYERS!

Mothers, save!—by buying our reliable Boys' Overcoats at Goughs, for we are giving extraordinary values for little money. We show every new idea for this fall. Now, will the tailor get all your money, or may we sell you one of our rightly made tailor Overcoats at a price about a third of what the merchant tailor demands?

LOWER AND LOWER go the Prices. HIGHER AND HIGHER we grow in public estimation. FINER AND FINER grades of goods all the time.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS."

GOUGH BROTHERS,

THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN.

Turkish Students Arrested.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—Forty students in the Gulham Medical School in this city were recently arrested on the charge of conspiring against the Government. In their possession were found documents that were printed in Liverpool, Marseilles, Geneva and other cities, proving the existence of a widespread secret society. The prisoners declare that their movement was not aimed against the Sultan but only against a corrupt ministry.

Antwerp Exhibition Closed.

ANTWERP, Oct. 3.—The world's exhibition, which was opened here on May 5 by the King and Queen of the Belgians, was formally closed yesterday with the distribution of awards. King Leopold and several members of the cabinet, attended the closing ceremonies and the city was en fete. The largest number of awards granted to any one nation was received by France. Among her awards were 159 grand prizes.

London's New Lord Mayor.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A poll of the guild electorate of London was taken yesterday to decide who should be the next Lord Mayor. The poll was made necessary by the opposition shown to Ald. Sir Joseph Renals, who ought to have been elected according to the regular rotation. The voting resulted: Ald, Sir Joseph Renals, 1,462; Ald. George F. Phillips, 1,460.

Broke Into a Burglar-Proof Safe.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Oct. 3.—A guaranteed burglar-proof safe in the fireproof vaults of the state bank of Mediapolis, this county, was blown almost to atoms by a tremendous charge of nitro-glycerine. Crackesmen forced the vault locks without difficulty. The bank estimates its loss at $4,000. The robbers escaped.

Four Seamen Drowned in a Gale.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The British ship Ainsdale, Captain Owen, from Tacoma, May 10, for Queenstown, has arrived at Fayal for medical aid. She reports encountering terrible weather, during which four seamen, were washed from her decks and drowned.

The Czarewitch to be Regent.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 3.—It is understood here that the Czar and his family will pass the winter in Corfu with the exception of the Grand Duke George, who will go to Cairo. The Czarewitch will probably act as regent in the Czar's absence.

Help for the Scotch Miners.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The British Miners Federation has voted a donation of £9,575 to the striking Scotch miners to enable the latter to carry on their fight against the masters.

Neale Again Remanded.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Neale, the absconding Canadian customs official, who was arrested here some time ago; was brought up at Bow street and again remanded for a week.

Three Years for Forging a Pass.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Harry Wilkinson, one of the men arrested on Thursday in connection with the forgery of Grand Trunk passes, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by Judge Desnoyers at court of special sessions at noon yesterday.

Mr. Mercier's Condition.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Ex-Premier Mercier had another bad attack last evening with frequent fainting fits, but he rallied towards midnight and at a late hour is resting quietly.

Quebec to Hold a Carnival.

QUEBEC, Oct. 3.—At a meeting of citizens held at the city hall, at which Mayor Parent presided, it was unanimously decided to hold a carnival this winter.

Three Tramps Killed.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Oct. 3.—Three tramps were wrecked in a freight wreck on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio road

Lieutenant Peary Determined.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 3.—E. C. Reynolds, of Cape Elizabeth, one of Lieut. Peary's staunchest friends has received a letter from Lieut. Peary, dated Anniversary lodge, Greenland, Aug. 16. In this letter Peary writes that while he did not fully realize his plans last year he has still another year before him in which he is confident he will win. The main difficulty this year was the terribly antagonistic weather, rough and cold. He then goes on to say: "Whatever you may see in the papers to the contrary, I have ample provisions for the next year. My party, though small, is an effective one, and we can remain here with the most complete safety. Every member of the tribe is a friend and a willing assistant, and I shall take no risks. I am only working to carry out my plans and shall take no risk to accomplish them."

A Stowaway Drowned.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—A drowning occurred off the R.M.S. Numidian, of the Allan line here. The Numidian was docked at the Glasgow sheds, where she was loading ranche cattle. Hay was piled on the top deck and things were hurried for sailing at daybreak. Concealed on one of these hay bundles was a man whose presence was only made known by his sudden shout and the immediate splash of water, where he had jumped or fallen. Sailors rushed to the scene and threw a line over, boats were lowered, diligent search made, but the only trace was the tell-tale cap floating ownerless on the water's surface. But this cap told a story. The man's name is C. C. Ferguson, aged about 32 years, and he is a native of Oshawa, Ont.

Windsor's "Jack the Hugger."

WINDSOR, Oct. 3.—William Marshall, the co'ored man who was captured and locked up on Sunday night for forcible hugging Miss Bertha Mitchell, has pleaded guilty to the charge. He claims the unenviable distinction of being Windsor's "Jack the Hugger." Marshall was arraigned for a hearing and on acknowledging the charge was remanded until Friday for sentence. The ladies who have been subjected to the disagreeable experience will be called upon by the police to endeavor to identify him as their assailant.

Remains of a Hero of 1813.

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 3.—The remains of Capt. McNeal, killed at Toronto in 1813 and which were unearthed in that city a few days ago, have arrived here and were taken possession of by the officers of the King's Liverpool regiment and conveyed to the Military Hospital. They will be interred in Fort Massey Military Cemetery to-day with military honors. The 66th Princess Louise Fusiliers will attend as a battalion. The other militia corps have also been asked to take part.

Harris in a Precarious Condition.

CHATHAM, Oct. 3.—John Harris, the man who, with his brother, attempted criminal assault on Mrs. Langlot, of Dover township, and who was shot by her in self-defence, is alive but cannot last long. He is still at the scene of the shooting, it being deemed inadvisable to bring him to town. His brother has been arrested and lodged in the cells here.

The Trick of a Detective.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 3.—William Prosser, of Kemptville, charged with placing obstructions on the Canadian Pacific railway, was tried before Judge McDonald and acquitted. According to the evidence he had been frightened by Detective Ross into signing a paper confessing that he was the guilty party, imagining that it would save him further trouble.

Crushed to Death by a Horse.

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 3.—Whilst a young man named Doctor, eldest son of Mr. William Doctor, hotelkeeper at the Grand Trunk, was breaking a vicious colt in front of his father's hotel the animal reared and fell backwards on the young man, crushing him so badly that he only lived a few moments.

The Scandal in a Naples Convent.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Daily Chronicle publishes a despatch from Naples giving the following details of the scandal affecting a convent in that city: "Silvia Palmieri, aged 18 years, was placed in the Convent of St. Joseph by her parents fifteen years ago, to be educated. When the parents applied for her release she was forcibly prevented from departing. The girl declares she was drugged and assaulted by elderly men who visited the Abbess Ferranti, who is 70 years old. Seven persons are said to be involved in the scandal."

A Salvation Wedding.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—It is officially stated at the Salvation Army headquarters, No. 111 Reade street, that Gen. William Booth's daughter, Commissioner Lucy Booth, who has charge of the Army's work in India, will be married in London on October 16 to Emanuel Heliberg, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, at the international headquarters of the Army, in that city. Commissioner Booth, who has successfully managed the work in India for several years, has adopted the native costume, in which picturesque garb she will be married.

Fifty-Four Years of Courtship.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 3.—After 54 years of courtship John Shilling and Ruth Sears, who were born and reared in the Sugar Loaf Mountain district, Grand county, were married in the little Baptist church on the mountain last Sunday. The bridegroom is 96 years old and the bride 74, but neither appears over 60. Just before the marriage ceremony they were baptized and admitted to membership in the church.

SCROFULA 12 YEARS

Always Sore. Face Burned Like Fire. Ashamed to be Seen. Four Doctors but Little Benefit. Cured by Cuticura.

For about ten or twelve years I have been troubled with scrofula. My head was always sore, my face was dry and scaly, and burned like fire most of the time. My body had big red spots on it, and I did not know what to do. I went to four different doctors and they helped me at first. In the fall I got worse again; then I tried other remedies, but they did me no good. I was ashamed to go into public. I was a sight to look at. Every one would say, "What is the matter, why don't you take something?" Even at my daily labor I had to wear a sort of cap to keep the dirt from getting into the sores. After I would wash, I would be covered with big red pimples all over my neck and face. Some two or three people advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I did try them, and am glad I have done so. Glad to say I am a well man, and in the best of health since. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too highly. I enclose my portrait.

TURNBULL'S

Our Millinery opening is now over and has been a decided success, and it is very gratifying to be able to state that we never had more visitors or took more orders, which simply shows the fact that our selection of Millinery is very choice and varied. Our turnover in this department is so large that we can afford to buy everything new as it appears each week. Thus our customers are always sure of getting the latest styles and closest prices with us.

MANTLES.

In the Mantle department things are on the move. Our best garments are going out rapidly. We have a large and varied stock and our prices are rock bottom, as we import direct from the manufacturers. We keep the very best qualities of Astrachans and Sealettes to be made up to order. Any one thinking of buying a cheap Fur Coat should see these Cloths first as they make up more effective, and are twice as durable, and can be made up in any of the new shapes. Our Mantle maker is one the best in the country, turning her work out as well as any tailor.

JAPANESE ENTER CHINA

They Have Effected a Landing in the Province of Lan Chun.

CHINA'S TROOPS MAKE A STAND

The Survivors of the Ping Yang Battle Join Forces With the Transports Landed Off the Yalu River —British Troops for China.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A despatch to the Central News says that the soldiers who escaped from Ping Yang have taken a position at Ngan where they were joined by the troops that were landed on the bank of the Yalu river and by others from the province of Shun-King. They are said to be entrenching themselves and it is possible that a decisive battle may be fought there.

The Chinese officials made an attempt a day or two ago to arrest a Japanese traveller, who had arrived from Manchuria, on suspicion of being a spy. The police were informed of the fact and the traveller was turned over to the U. S. Consul. A despatch from Yokohama, says the Japan Herald announces that the Mikado has requested a Captain Richter, a German military officer, to pay him a visit. Captain Richter was for several years attached to the Chinese army. The German warships which were assembled at Yokohama during the last few days have been ordered to ports in northern China.

A despatch received here from Shanghai says that the Governor of Kirin, Manchuria, reports that the Japanese have effected a landing in the rear of Lan Chun. The whole province is in a state of consternation, but measures for its defence are being adopted.

Another heavy levy has been made upon Chinese merchants in order to meet the expenses of the war.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—A special to the Herald from Shanghai says: "It is reported the Japanese have captured Kiu Li En Chang, on the eastern side of the Yalu river, nearly opposite Wi-Ju.

"A hundred and fifty thousand men have been gathered at Pekin for the defence of the city, but only 7,000 are effectively armed. Only fifty thousand soldiers are available for the defence of the province of Chi-Li—that of Li Hung Chang—and these are raw levies.

"A Japanese army has landed to the north of the Yellow, or Hoang-Ho river, in the southern part of the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li, to intercept the transport of troops from the south via Grand canal to Tien-Tsin. A Japanese fleet of seventeen ships is blockading the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li.

"Prince Kung is favorable to foreigners and to the western development of the Chinese empire. French troops are massing in Tonquin.

The Times this morning refers in summing up the war situation in the east, to Sir McCartney's admission of doubt as to the precise number of Chinese prisoners taken at Ping Yang as immaterial. That the victory of the Japanese was complete has been abundantly confirmed and the Chinese army in Corea has ceased to exist is shown by the Chinese themselves. The defeat has been absolute and the exact number of fugitives is of little moment.

British Troops for China.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Earl of Kimberley, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has opened communications with the Indian Government with a view of making drafts upon the English troops now serving in India, for the purpose of strengthening the defences of the treaty ports in China, in anticipation of an uprising of the natives. The sanction of the Cabinet must, however, be obtained before any such step can be taken.

The Whipping Post for New York State.

ALBANY, N.Y., Oct. 4.—Commodore Eldridge T. Gerry addressed the final session of the convention of the humane societies in favor of introducing the whipping post into the State of New York, to be used especially in the punishment of those who are cruel to children. Dr. Thomas Hendricks, of Rochester, a Catholic priest, spoke in the same line, and also thought corporal punishment would prevent many of the abuses that are developed upon children.

Corbett Will Meet Fitzsimmons.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—James J. Corbett has changed his mind about fighting Bob Fitzsimmons for the championship of the world. He has overcome his objection to meeting a middle-weight and has announced his intention of covering Fitzsimmon's money, now held by the sporting editor of the Herald and he will be in the city to make the match one week from to-day.

Killed in a Railroad Smash.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 4.—As the Southern Pacific narrow gauge train was crossing the Oakland estuary a car jumped the track and went into the water, taking down about sixteen persons. The killed were: P. Kyley, ticket seller; unknown boy, body not recovered.

Sold His Wife for 25 cents.

BUTLER CENTRE, N. Y., Oct. 4.—"Kike" Culliford, a young married man, publicly sold his wife to Ambrose Dratt, of Sibury, on Sunday, for the nominal sum of 25 cents, which was immediately paid and the transfer duly consummated.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

The Summons to the Imperial Cabinet Not So Grave a Matter.

FRENCH RULE IN MADAGASCAR

The Story That a Blockade Had Been Effected is Denied—London Papers Take Different Views of the Sudden Summons to the Cabinet.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Central News adheres to its assertion that the summoning of the Cabinet Council is due to the fact that France has made representations to the British Government concerning England's alleged responsibility for the attitude of the Hova government in continuing their strenuous opposition to the treaty rights of France in Madagascar.

It also claimed that France has protested against the shipment of munitions of war from England to Madagascar and the enrollment of British subjects in the military service of the Hovas. It is known that an ex-cavalry officer in the British army has gone out to Madagascar to act as commander-in-chief of the Hova forces, he having taken part in the Hova campaign against the French in 1885. Another British officer has engaged to serve as adjutant-general in the Hova army, and hundreds of settlers in South Africa of all nationalities are prepared to join the Hovas in the event of war, they having been offered five shillings a day and a plot of land if the Hovas are successful. The Hova army now consists of two divisions of infantry, well armed and drilled, and the Hova authorities claim that they will be able before January 1 to take the field with 100,000 men. Later advices say that there is no foundation for the report that the Madagascar ports have been blockaded. Foreign diplomats regard the situation as hopeful and believe the differences between England and France will be settled amicably.

The Chronicle, after its quivering terror over the situation in its issue of yesterday, this morning reads a lecture to the alarmists and trusts that they are ashamed of their story of strained relations with France and of the wholly unjustifiable report of a blockade of Madagascar, a report which was an invention on the face of it. The Chronicle professes to state upon authority that the Cabinet was summoned in connection with the reports of maltreatment of British subjects in China.

The Telegraph says it cannot be pretended that the circumstances which caused the summoning of a Cabinet council are otherwise than alarming. The paper declines to even guess at the cause, but says the weight of opinion is in favor of attributing it to the French question, inasmuch as the mere matter of reinforcing the garrison at Hong Kong for the purpose of furnishing protective escorts to Tien-Tsin and elsewhere could not require Cabinet authority.

The Daily News deprecates the scare which was produced on the stock exchange by alarming reports in regard to the relations between France and England and characterizes the alleged anxiety concerning them as a mere flurry. The paper admits, however, that the business for whose discussion the cabinet was summoned is of a most urgent nature but says that a glance at the political horizon suggests reason for wonder why cabinet councils are not held more frequently. The war between China and Japan, the state of the Czar's health, the situation in Madagascar and several other minor questions affecting France and England supply topics concerning which the cabinet may well be summoned.

The Standard says that for whatever purpose the cabinet may have originally convened it is certain that one of the subjects occupying its attention will be the relations between Great Britain and France, which the paper believes are of the most cordial nature. But if they are to continue so French public opinion should be courteously acquainted with the misgivings Great Britain has in regard to the consequences of armed action on Madagascar. If France will give a frank disclaimer of any intention to annex the island, or to turn the malagassy positions into French military garrison and French posts it would be pretty certain to disarm all such suspicion in England. The Standard disavows any intention of hectoring, but warns France that England will not allow her interests to be imperilled.

A despatch to the Daily News from Paris says there is nothing pending between France and England sufficiently grave to justify a scare. Madagascar is the only black spot on the horizon and according to Paris opinion Great Britain ought to restrain her officers from drilling Hova troops or to insist that they quit the British service, but there is no sign of a national paroxysm against England. The anti-government newspapers, seeking to make capital, denounce the lethargy of the cabinet in defending the interests of France.

A despatch to the Daily News from Berlin says the German foreign office sees no cause for alarm and ascribes the English and French cabinet meetings to be held to-day to the situation of eastern affairs. Reuter's agency virtually denies the report it circulated that the Madagascar ports have been blockaded. It expresses the opinion that the report arose from the fact that the French warships had been ordered to exercise increased surveillance over the Madagascar coast to prevent the landing of munitions of war.

The Times publishes a despatch from Vienna referring to the conciliatory diplomacy of M. Decrais, the French Embassador to England, when that diplomat was in Austria, which says: "The public reports received strengthened the opinion that a difference between himself and M. Hanotaux, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, prompted M. Decrais' resignation while private accounts confirm them. It is believed that M. Hanotaux will negotiate with England in an arbitrary and uncompromising spirit."

The Times says: "We are bound to assume that the cabinet was not convened without some serious cause."

The remainder of the editorial is devoted to French questions and concludes: "Most persons acquainted with the situation will be more disposed to seek the cause in the east than anywhere else. These influences may be wrong but they cannot be deemed irrational."

GETTING INTERESTING

The Montreal Star Says Some Pretty Plain Things to Its Party

IN REGARD TO TAILLON'S LOAN

It Claims the Distinctions of Race Are Being Brought to Bear On This Question—An Appeal to the Members for Montreal.

MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—The Star, in a leading article, says: "Some of our French contemporaries have within the last few days adopted a threatening tone towards the English-speaking people of this province which cannot fail to be, as it is evidently intended to be, in the highest degree offensive. The English-speaking minority could well afford to disregard any irresponsible utterances of this kind, but unfortunately they have the appearance of being inspired by persons in authority, from whom they have every right to expect more courteous treatment. The bone of contention is the new Paris loan, which, having been condemned on its merits, is now sought to be defended on the ground that having been negotiated in France by a French-Canadian lieutenant-governor and a French-Canadian premier, against the advice of an English-speaking provincial treasurer, any criticism of the loan must be actuated by anti-French prejudices. This is purely gratuitous and their childish assumption is an indication that practical arguments in favor of the transaction are difficult to discover.

"This line of argument has reached its legitimate conclusion in the patronising declaration by the French Conservative press that the English-speaking minority may have a representative in the cabinet so long as he is content to be a mere cipher but that the moment he ventures to have any ideas of his own, even in connection with the department for which he is directly responsible to the legislature and the country, the Government must undertake to run the province without English assistance. This means that as a slight acknowledgment of the support which the Government gets in English votes, influence and money, the English-speaking people of this province may have an English-speaking dummy in the cabinet for both sides of the House to laugh at. Our French contemporaries must have got their ideas of the spirit of the English-speaking people from reading the flabby editorials in the Gazette."

"There is only one English speaking member of the Legislature who is even suspected of being willing to hold the dummy hand in the game at Quebec, and he is willing to accept anything that is going, from an empty portfolio to a judgeship. There is not the slightest excuse for raising the race question in connection with the Paris loan. The transaction injuriously affects the taxpayers of every nationality and particularly the people of Montreal who have to bear the greater part of the burden. It is a question upon which French and English representatives from Montreal ought to stand shoulder to shoulder. The English speaking representatives cannot with any self respect allow a bad transaction to pass unchallenged, simply because it is bolstered up by interested appeals to race prejudice against them. If they are to be treated with open contempt by the French Conservatives, they may possibly meet with more appreciation in the French Liberal camp. The Liberal party has been purified in the fires of adversity. The Conservative party has waxed fat and never kicked."

Last Scene in MacWherrell's Case.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 4.—MacWherrell, accompanied by the Sheriff of Peel and a constable, and attached to a fellow convict named Williams, stepped off the fast express at the outer station yesterday, jumped into a cab and was hustled off to the penitentiary. On arrival at that institution he was divested of his clothing and given what is known as uniform No. 2. By good behavior he can gain No. 1 garb or by bad conduct can be reduced to No. 3. The steward questioned him, measured him, weighed him and made inventories of a very critical character. After his bath, hair cut and general transformation he was conducted to the warden's office, where he was again subjected to investigation, his record, age, crime, etc., being noted. His previous history was gleaned as far as he would divulge it. He was sent off to work, and as No. C 160 he loses his identity to the outside world.

Burglars at Port Hope.

PORT HOPE, Oct. 4.—Burglars entered the coal office of Brown & Henning, Mill street. Getting nothing there they proceeded to the butcher shop of Geo. Stacey, Walton street, where they broke open the till, carrying away 24 cents. Their next visit was to Thomas A. Thompson's butcher shop on Queen street, where they blew the front plate off the safe door. Night-watch Jarvis hearing the explosion hurried to the scene, arriving just in time to see two men making their escape. Jarvis gave chase, and when opposite Patterson's lumber yard one of the burglars turned and fired two shots at Jarvis, then jumped the fence and disappeared in the lumber yard.

The End of a Drunken Spree.

BRAMPTON, Ont., Oct. 4.—A middle-aged man was found in an unconscious condition under the railway bridge where the G.T.R. crosses the track. He was partly in the water. He was carried to Mr. McCulla's planing mill and later to the jail. Dr. Heggie reports him dying. He was seen on the streets last night in an intoxicated condition. He must have wandered to the creek and fallen in a drunken stupor and laid out all night. He is said to be a farm laborer named Jas. H. Lewis, of Hanlan, Toronto township. He is suffering from Bright's disease. He has a wife and family in England and has been a bookkeeper.

An Incendiary Attempt at Kingsville.

WINDSOR, Oct. 4.—The office of Dr. Andrew Wigle, at Kingsville, was set on fire, but the flames were extinguished by E. J. Wigle, who lives next door, in time to save it and probably the whole block from destruction. This is the second attempt within a short time, and the citizens are taking steps to ascertain, if possible, who the guilty parties are.

TIMBER OF ONTARIO

The London Free Press says:—"The Ontario Government have hitherto dealt with the pineries as if they were of endless extent. Thousands of square miles are sold to spectators for what they will bring, for no other purpose than to replenish an exhausted treasury." The London newspaper has apparently, by mistake, printed one of its late local election campaign editorials. This matter of timber sale and timber policy was then thoroughly threshed out at that time. The policy of selling timber, if holding sales of the public pineries at certain periods, is hardly debatable. It is difficult for any government, when it holds a sale, to distinguish between a bonafide timber merchant, who buys timber to cut it, and one who buys it for the purposes of speculation. The bonafide purchaser of to-day may be the speculator of next year, and vice-versa. Anyway the Government gets a big price for its timber limits—$1,205 per square mile, the average for 22 years, and the speculator has to pay $3 a square mile as ground rent. This makes on the last 22 years' sales of 74,234 square miles, a revenue of over $13,000 per year, not to speak of the revenue of over five millions derived from these sales. Besides, the speculator has to run the risk of forest fires, and last summer hundreds of square miles of timber, representing hundreds of thousands of dollars lying in the banks to the credit of the Province of Ontario, were destroyed by fire. In five years the Sandfield Macdonald government, which the Free Press swears by, held four timber sales, while in twenty-two years the Mowat Government held only six sales. All governments hold timber sales, and if the London Free Press attacks the principle of selling timber it should attack the other governments and applaud the Mowat government, for though all governments are equally guilty as to the mere fact of selling timber, the Ontario government has this fact to offset the crime in the eyes of the Free Press—it gets over five times as big prices for it.

THE London Times in commenting on the recent elections in Victoria points out that it is noteworthy fact that the most strongly protectionist members of the late government, viz., Sir Bryan O'Loghlen and Messrs. Baker and Richardson should have been defeated at the polls. It is also worthy of note that in a public speech a day or two ago Mr. Turner, the new Premier, dwelt on the desirability of securing intercolonial free trade as soon as possible. The defeat of Sir James Patterson's Government is not unlikely, after all, to bring some advantage to the cause of free trade. Even free trade between the Australian colonies would be better than the ruinous policy of protecting each colony against its sisters, though to the protectionist mind that policy of course appears the height of reason and logic. This is the first time a Victorian Premier has been anything but a consistent protectionist. The outlook for free trade in Australia has been considerably brightened by recent elections both in New South Wales and Victoria.

LA PRESSE having remarked that the Globe persists in the assertion that the Federal elections will take place before the end of January, says, "It would seem to have good reason." La Patrie, noticing that La Presse is the chief French Conservative organ in the province, regards the statement as inspired and cries, "To work! all who wish a change of regime." We have more than once called upon those who are anxious to help in bringing about such a change, to lose no time in considering the position in connection with the voters' lists. Whether the elections are immediate or not, they are certainly near, and the watchword for the next few weeks or months, as the case may be, must be Work.

THE exports for July and August of the products of Canada compared with some months last year were as follows:—

	1894.	1893.
Animals and their products	$7,477,471	$8,017,168
Forest	6,419,149	7,316,515
Agricultural	1,535,946	2,652,797
Fisheries	2,424,212	2,462,463
Manufactures	1,330,475	1,182,918
Minerals	1,036,432	951,347
Bullion	39,690	51,705
Sundries	33,427	35,094
Total	$20,345,792	$22,679,977

The reduced exports of lumber arose from the holding back of goods until the tariff was decided. The cattle restrictions in England have been very unfavourable to cattle exports.

A REMARKABLE "ACCIDENT" CASE.

A Hard Nut For United States Court to Crack.

(Insurance and Finance Chronicle.)

Probably the most extraordinary case ever known involving the question: What is accident? will shortly be heard before a court in America. Suit is being brought against the United States Mutual Accident Association to recover amount of a policy on the life of a man, who died under the following circumstances: A person in a Western State took out an accident policy in that company, for $10,000, made payable to his wife. Having borrowed money from his partner in business, he was induced to transfer this policy to creditor as security. This man then employed a negro, who, for a fee of $300, murdered the person who was insured. The negro confessed his guilt; the real murderer, the one who inspired the crime, was put in gaol, where, in a fit of remorse, he committed suicide, and the negro was sentenced to life imprisonment. The widow now claims the insurance, which the Mutual Accident Company objects to pay. We venture the prediction that the Court will hold that the transfer of the policy was not legal; it has been decided that a wife's rights in a policy cannot be set aside at the will of the insured person. As to whether a murder, under such exceptional circumstances, is to be regarded as an accident, under the terms of policy, we shall have to await the result of this trial, but we doubt the liability of this company.

ATTACKED OUR GOVERNMENT.

Congressman Wilson Says Some Hard Things—Protection Assailed.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—In an article in the Investor's Review Congressman Wilson makes a bitter attack on the Canadian Government. He says the system of log-rolling pursued by the merchants is disgraceful. The Canadian Government is assailed in denunciatory terms. Minister of Finance Foster's budget speech is likewise denounced, as well as the policy of protection pursued by the Canadian Government. The Canadian Pacific Railway, he says, had been promoted by devices the most unscrupulous ever employed. This line's completion had nearly ruined the Grand Trunk's credit.

In the province of Quebec, Mr. Wilson pursued, the public credit was so low that no money could be obtained in England on any terms.

The Chronicle, in a criticism of these remarks, says Canada has been injured by much injudicious booming. The Canadian Government has prepared misleading immigration returns. English and Irish immigrants speedily discovered that Canada's resources do not begin to compare with the States, and leave the Dominion. Protection has done nothing but mischief to Canada.

Wilson's Free Trade Speech.

The Times publishes a letter from Mr. Moreton Frewen, saying that Congressman Wilson's recent speech will be likely to leave the impression upon the public mind that the Democrats of America are at the beginning, rather than the conclusion, of a free trade departure. The attempt to wrest the sources of direct taxation from the State and transfer them to the federal power has failed to secure popular approval and Mr. Wilson's speech has likely been the swan song of American free trade.

POINTERS ON THE GAME LAW.

No moose, elk, reindeer or cariboo are to be killed before Oct. 25, '95.

No turkeys are to be killed before Oct. 15, '97.

No beaver or otter shall be killed before Nov. 1, '97.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

GALWAY.

(From a Correspondent.)

Another of Galway's respected residents has passed away in the person of Mrs. George McKee, who died on Saturday, Sept. 29th, and was buried on Monday, Oct. 2nd, at the Kinmount cemetery. Mr. McKee, formerly of Asphodel, came to Galway about fifteen years ago. Two years afterwards he married the deceased, who with her parents resided at that time in the township of Fenelon.

The funeral was largely attended, about forty vehicles following the remains to their last resting place. All her brothers and sisters and all their relatives attended the funeral, among them being her sister from Peterborough, Mrs. Thomas Redner, and her husband. Deceased was about thirty-two years of age and expired after a long illness which lasted a little over two months. She leaves behind her a sorrowing husband and five small children, the youngest being a baby about two months old. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this the hour of their sad bereavement. May it be hers to know that earth remembers her in love.

A pleasing event took place, in Galway, last Monday, when Mr. William Allen and Miss Agnes McGee, both of this township, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony. The ceremony was performed on Monday morning, by Rev. Father O'Connell, at the Roman Catholic church, Galway, in the presence of a few relatives. The groom was supported by his brother, Robert Allen, and the bride was assisted by Miss Katie O'Brien. The new wedded couple will take up their residence on a farm in Galway. May their union be a long, happy and prosperous one.

Two lambs belonging to Mr. Andrew Reid, of lot 4, con. 13, strayed away from the premises, as he thought, about a month ago, and after he had given up all hopes of finding them, he heard a noise, one morning, in a culvert that is in the lane leading to the road, and about four rods from the house. He looked under the culvert and found both lambs. They had been there just two weeks and one day. One of them was dead, and the other was living and is doing well.

The youngest child of Mr. Geo. Scarlet died Tuesday night, aged one year and nine months. The funeral left the residence, on Wednesday, at one o'clock, to Kinmount cemetery.

OMEMEE.

Jack frost is causing a boom in the stove and housefurnishing business just now.

The Parson burglary case is going on at Lindsay to-day. Several witnesses went up to give evidence, but not of much importance, simply circumstantial, such as questions as were asked by Connors here as "Who were the parties in town paying for grain?" etc.

Big preparations are beidg made to-day for our township show, and a large number of people attending. The entries are beyond any previous year. Speeding in the ring will be one of the chief attractions, and our fine Citizen's Band will discourse music.

Peterborough industries and business houses are well reprented at the fair, and the familiar face and voice of J. A. Tully in command of Gough's, is in good form for business.

The Smith concert family, with their photograph gallery, have been here for the last couple of nights, playing to small houses. The chief attraction of the show is the excellent performances of Miss Smith on the violin.

Mr. J. D. Thornton, Insurance and general agent, appears to be attracting quite a volume of business to Peterborough, especially on Saturdays, being special agent for Cox & Davis.

The anniversary services of the Presbyterian church, Omemee, are spoken of for Sabbath, 14th October, and tea-meeting on Monday following. This, as on former occasions, will prove one of the most interesting and profitable affairs of the kind, of the season. Speakers and prominent clergymen from Toronto and other places will participate.

COLD SPRINGS—OTONABEE.

From our own Correspondent.

On Saturday afternoon, Sept. 29, a football match was played between the Coldsprings club and the Cedar Valley Rangers on the Peterborough Central Exhibition grounds, which are admirably adapted to such a game. The opposing teams lined up as follows:—

COLDSPRINGS.		CEDAR VALLEY.
M W Matchett	goal	Chas Moore
J Martyn	backs	Jas Findlay
A Price	backs	Stewart Hall
R J Kidd	half backs	Ab Reynolds
Percy Price	half backs	Ruth Campbell
Harry Given	half backs	J Isbister
E Hoody	forwards	H Roddy
A Rose	forwards	D F Armstrong
H P Kennedy	forwards	T Thompson
W Herlihey	forwards	F Waterman
E McDonald	forwards	Herb Heglar

The match was keenly contested, and at the end of the alloted time, neither team had scored a goal, though there were some pretty close calls. The return match will decide which is the better team. The referee gave good satisfaction to all. At the conclusion of the match refreshments were served by the ladies of Coldsprings, in whose honour three cheers were given by the visiting club. The return match, which is not yet arranged, is looked forward to with interest by all concerned.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

A Pronounced Success.

As anticipated, the formal opening of our Millinery, Mantles and Dressmaking rooms was a complete success—pronounced so by critical ladies who were unprejudiced judges.

All This Week

We will continue to hold an Opening Display for the benefit of our country friends and visitors, whom we cordially invite to our store and will make heartily welcome.

Mantles and Millinery.

The pink of perfection in elegant Millinery and Mantles—matchless in quality, in variety, in cheapness, and the quantity increasing. Hundreds of Pattern Hats and Bonnets. Endless profusion of the most beautiful creations. See them and you will know what the fashion leaders are wearing this autumn.

Fall Dress Goods.

Ladies all around town are talking about this Dress Goods stock. No wonder. Such a display cannot fail to call for the heartiest commendation — and need look no farther. The cream of fashionable novelties greets you with the happiest kind of a smile. Hundreds of w ...es march out under the banner of "good qualities and extra values."

The Play Last Night.

Baird's New York opera company opened a four nights' engagement in the Bradburn opera house to a large audience, last night. The play presented was "The Vagabond," Mr. R. A. Baird taking the principal part. Mr. Baird has been here before, and the Peterborough public have always evidenced a great partiality for hearing this versatile actor. The portrayal, by him, of the part of Fergus McCarthy, last night was taken in a manner which delighted the audience. The specialities which were introduced were all of a high character, the singing of a trio and of a quartette being especially worthy of mention. This evening the play "My Partner" will be presented by the company.

"The Puritans."

Many changes and improvements mark the life of that little toilet necessary, yclept Pin. From the heavy pin of early days made of iron wire, badly pointed, with its clumsy ill-shapen head, and depending for its strength solely on its weight, until the introduction of the Puritan Pin, the change might be called an evolution, so steady and gradual was it, but the Puritan being so immeasurably superior to any pin previously manufactured, formed the first noticeable gap, having, so to speak, distanced all competitors. Being made of the hardest brass wire tempered to give it stiffness with strength, pointed in oil, which gives it penetrating powers heretofore possessed only by steel needles, the Puritan Pin wins its way wherever offered for sale. In the United States, where it is best known, it controlls the pin trade, and though just introduced into Canada within the past six months, its success has been phenomenal, and no retailer who studies his customers interests now thinks his stock complete without Puritan Pins.

PERSONAL.

Mr. T. Waterson, of the G. T. R. solicitor's office, Belleville, and Mr. James Gordon, G. T. R. claim agent of this section, were in town yesterday, on the Company's business.

Rev. W. R. Young left for Harvey this afternoon, where he has been asked to deliver an address at the Bethel Mission harvest home festival which takes place this evening.

We were pleased last week by a call from Mr. Thos. J. Begley, of the Peterborough EXAMINER staff. He was on a visit with his brother-in-law, Mr. John McCabe, of Grafton,—Colborne Express.

Miss Katie Calcutt, Ashburnham, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Maggie Calcutt, of Chicago, who has been on an extended visit with her uncle, Commodore H. Calcutt, have both left for Chicago via C. P. R. Miss Calcutt will be a guest of her cousin, "Miss Maggie," in the Windy City, for an indefinite period.

The Belleville Sun in referring yesterday to the marriage of Mr. A. H. Stratton, says: "There was a very large attendance at the church as the bride, Miss Clare Wilkins, is a great favourite in society, and has won friends innumerable by her unassuming, kindly manner and a charming temprament. She is at any time exceedingly pretty, but looked especially so to-day." The Intelligencer speaks as follows of the young bride: "Mrs. Stratton will be much missed by her young friends in Belleville. All unite in wishing the nouveaux maries joy and lifelong happiness. The presents were elegant and numerous." The Ontario also speaks in most complimentary terms of Miss Wilkins, and wishes the happy couple every joy.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—At present there are only four corporation labourers employed by the town.

—Street Inspector Pope has a couple of men at work repairing the King street bridge.

—The streets are in a bad condition at present, but it would be a useless task to attempt cleaning them at this time of the year.

—A fine of $50 and costs was imposed on a hotelkeeper this morning by the police magistrate for selling liquor without a license.

—The reports for the month of September of the standing of the pupils of the Collegiate Institute are now in the hands of the pupils. Parents should carefully examine them and have them returned immediately.

—Mr. "Jay" Gould, of Ashburnham, (not of the State of New York), is paying the Keene Fair a visit to-day. Accompanying him are Mr. Harry Neill, brewer at Mr. Harry Calcutt's brewry, and Mr. Alex. Patterson, widely known as the "veteran dead game sport and horse 'ancier." No doubt they will spend an enjoyable outing, their friend in and about Keene being most numerous.

HOLDERS OF SHOP LICENCES.

The Police Magistrate Occupied all the Morning.

The holders of the shop licenses in town were all up before the police magistrate this morning. The body of the charge against each was for

"Being the keeper of a shop licensed under the Liquor Licence Act, did not confine the business of said shop solely to the keeping and selling of liquors, and did not carry the same on in premises wholly separate and distinct from the premises, in which other business, namely, the sale of groceries is carried on, as required by by-laws No. 703 and 704 of the town of Peterborough."

It was admitted that orders for the liquors were taken over the counters of the grocery departments, but the counsel for the defendants held that this was no infraction of the statutes, as the town had no right to frame such a by-law. The first condition, that of keeping the liquor separated from the groceries, was all right, but the balance of the bylaw contained in the body of the charge would not hold water.

Judgment has been reserved.

A BURGLARY IN ASHBURNHAM.

A Gang of Thieves Break Into a Store And Carry off a Quantity of Goods.

The store of Mr. J. C. Sullivan, Ashburnham, was burglarized, last night, in a manner which leaves no doubt, but that the gang of thieves, which have visited successively all the villages in the neighbourhood, has now made Peterborough's immediate vicinity its headquarters. The robbery of the mail last week and sundry depredations committed on the hen roosts of the town, may, without doubt, all be laid at the door of whose systematic plunderings have proceeded so far unchecked.

Mr. Sullivan locked up his store last night at about 9.30 o'clock, but as the hotel across the street was open until eleven, the burglary must have been committed between the latter hour and morning.

When Mr. Sullivan opened up this morning he at once perceived by the confusion which prevailed in his usually neat store, that intruders had been present

IN HIS ABSENCE.

Upon examination he found that a hole, about four inches square, had been cut through the door in the rear of his store. This hole had been cut close to the lock, the burglars evidently thinking to find the key on the inside. Disappointed in this, they took a large stone, fully the size of a patent pail, and with it smashed the panel of the door into matchwood. An entrance thus obtained, the rest was comparatively easy and whole cases of canned goods were spirited away. Groceries of almost every nature were taken, as well as a large in the way of brandies and whiskies.

QUANTITY OF BOTTLED LIQUORS,

A further investigation, on the part of Mr. Sullivan, showed that the burglars had tried first to get in through the cellar window and had torn the wire screen off. They were foiled in this endeavour, though, as the window was secured by iron bars on the inside.

The fact that admission to the store was first tried to be effected through this cellar window inclines the proprietor to the belief that the intruders were one and the same as the gang which, by means of this same window, burglarized his premises some two years ago.

No estimate of the loss can be made.

THE RING.

Boston, Oct. 3.—W. A. Brady to-night telegraphed to the stakeholder to tranfer the $1,000 deposit with him in behalf of Steve O'Donnel to Corbett's name, to cover the deposit made by Fitzsimmons for a fight with the champion. This amount with $9,000 to be deposited with David W. Blanchard of this city to-morrow, will make up $10,000 mentioned by Corbett in his ultimatum last night.

Manager Brady received a despatch from the Olympic Club to-night containing resolutions passed by the club last night, delaring the championship forfeited to Fitzsimmons. The following reply was wired immediately upon its receipt:—

"Boston, Oct. 3, 1894.—Wm. A. Scholl. President Olympic Athletic Club, New Orleans, La.—Your resolutions received. Cheer up and be merry. There is only one bite to a cherry. (Signed.) James. J. Corbett."

Hartford, Oct. 3.—Corbett said to-night: "I will meet Fitzsimmons in New York on Thursday to make final arrangements. The public no doubt are paralyzed at this remarkable declaration I have made, but, nevertheless, I have the money, and if anyone thinks I am bluffing or foolish in my challenge of last night, all they have to do is to put up $10,000 and make me look like a monkey before the world if I am not in earnest."

AROUND THE CENTURY MARK.

Mrs. Lucy Healy, of Charlestown, R.I., has just completed her 99th year. She is a daughter of a revolutionary soldier.

Mrs. Henry Della, of Astoria, Ore., is over 100 years old, yet it is reported she can walk five miles without experiencing undue fatigue.

Hosea Brown of Wildermere, Ore., is said to be the only survivor of the war of 1812 on the Pacific coast who draws a pension. He is 101 years old.

Israel D. Condit, of Milburn, N.J., who has just celebrated his 92nd birthday, is the only living charter member of the Morris & Essex railroad.

Marshal Canrobert, probably the oldest living holder of a baton, recently celebrated his 86th birthday. He is the pet of his aunt, Mme. Wilkinson, who is hale and hearty in her 102d year.

Thomas Gormley, aged 104 years, was knocked down and had his shoulder broken by a horse car in New York recently. Notwithstanding his great age, Mr. Gormley is said to be in such splendid health that he will recover from the accident.

Elijah Bryan, of Nevada, Mo., who is now in his 95th year, as a youth helped to defend the homes of the Missouri settlers against the raids of Black Hawk's warriors. His family is related to that of Daniel Boone, and he owns an old flintlock gun which was a favorite with the frontiersman.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

The total number of failures in Canada, as reported for Bradstreet's, shows an increase for the nine months just ended. The provinces of Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick all report more failures for the past nine months than in a like portion of 1893, together with increased liabilities.

The number of failures in the provinces, with assets and liabilities are as follows:

	No. of Failures.		Assets.		Liabilities.

AN ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

A Popular Veterinary Student Leaves to Complete His Studies in Toronto.

Mr. William H. Hamilton, who, during his vacation, has been studying with Mr. Thomas Johnston, Veterinary Surgeon, returned to the Ontario Veterinary College this morning.

Hearing of his departure, a number of his friends, last evening, presented him with the following address, accompanied by the presents enumerated below:—

To Mr. W. H. Hamilton:

It is with deep feelings of regret that we are about to part with you. It is only a short time since we met as strangers, but your manly, kind ways have won a warm affection towards you by all, we can safely say, who have come in contact with you. We now ask of you to accept this meerschaum pipe and case, from Mr. R. H. Nesbitt; a box of cigars from Mr. W. Head; a gold pen from Dr Thomas Johnston, and a jar of tobacco from Mr. Leonard McLellan, not on account of their value but as a small token of our esteem towards you, accompanied by the wish that you will enjoy good health, and that when you go before the Board of Examiners at the Ontario Veterinary College, you may pass with honours as you did in your junior year examination. Dr. Johnston takes occasion to thank you very kindly for the way you have discharged your duties while you were with him, and expresses the firm belief that if you continue as you are doing, you will rank second to none in the profession.

We all join in wishing you every success in your studies. In your professional career across the line, the Americans will have one good man, and he will be a graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College.

Mr. Hamilton expressed his surprise at being the recipient of such a gratifying and pleasing address, and assured those assembled that he would value the gifts presented to him according to the spirit in which he knew they were given to him.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

The fact that Grafton & Co. sell the best clothing in town does not imply that they ask high prices for their clothing.

Calcutt's Dublin Porter.

Recommended by the medical faculty for dispepsia, weakness and all disorders of the liver and kidneys. Persons using it have gained as much as ten pounds in a month. Particularly recommended to weak mothers when nursing. Sold by all leading grocers, and delivered to any part of the town. Telephone No. 98.

Furniture.

The long nights are coming and people are preparing to make home attractive. A. Clegg is now receiving, daily, the newest things in furniture. A full assortment in every line. Parlour suites, dining room furniture, all grades very cheap. In bedroom suites, the largest line ever offered in Peterborough, especially in suites ranging in price from $14 to $25—by far the best values ever offered. Fancy chairs, centre tables, spring beds, mattresses, pillows, etc.—A. CLEGG, 427 George street. dw

PALE CHILDREN

With poor appetites and frequent coughs, should be given a few bottles of ..... Campbell's Skrei Cod Liver Oil.

Doctors recommend it because it is pure and easy to take and to digest.

TENDERS

Addressed to the undersigned will be received up to Friday, the 5th of October, for the Caretaking, Planting and Management of the Court House Park for the season of 1895.

Grocery Store,

OLD POST OFFICE, CORNER GEORGE AND BROCK STREETS.

Have Your Fortune Told at the same time.

If a single lady or gentleman tasting this tea happens to have two spoons in his or her cup, it is a prediction that the fortunate drinker of that particular cup of the Grand Mogul Tea will married within a year from that date.

Come To-Night or any time.

JUST OUT OF THE CASE.

Perhaps it's just as well you didn't buy your new Mantle sooner. Styles have changed since February — when most of the Mantle Stocks for this season were bought.

Our stock was bought in June and are the most correct in all the details of Fashion's latest fancies—revised with all the newest improvements, and endorsed by leading fashion authorities. The new prescribed lengths are from 34 to 38 inches—longer coats are too long — so the fashion leaders insist.

LADIES—We invite your inspection, feeling satisfied that nothing in town can excel our Mantles, Coats and Wraps. If you want a garment particularly effective and fashionable, get ours. Besides, you can buy now at the beginning of the season far better than at the end.

We claim to be as far ahead in our goods as we are below in our prices.

CREMATION VS. BURIAL.

(Ottawa Free Press.)

One or two very eminent physicians have advocated the practice of cremation on account of the alleged sanitary benefits it would confer upon society. At first sight it might reasonably appear to the most superficial observer that, as compared with the mass of festering corruption slowly burning by one process, the quick destruction of the crematory would be the better of the two courses and the result be the same, though obtained by approach from different points and by almost directly opposite means. But investigation shows that the idea held by some scientists, that cremation would advance the cause of sanitation, is incorrect. Sir Francis Hayden, whose name may be familiar to our readers as a noted "funeral reformer," read a paper on the subject a few days ago before the British Institute, in the course of which he declared that incineration is positively unhealthy and a menace to the public health, and, therefore, it ought to be prohibited by law. He says that earth burial if properly conducted, can never endanger the health of the living. The earth, he maintains, is the one great purifier and renovator. There resides in the soil chemical power of forming new and innocuous combinations out of the poisonous and miasmatic substances buried in it. Not only that, but the earth needs to be enriched by the restoration to it of dead matter whose substance was drawn from it by the protoplasmic energy of life. He claims that if all the effete residum of the world were to be burned the earth would soon be deprived of the chemical elements that support life, and life would cease. This, though a theory new perhaps to some, is not new in science. In fact it is almost self evident, and the proper burial of the dead is only following out the example set by nature herself in matters connected with the animal and vegetable kingdom. Proper burial is the true solution of the problem and Sir Francis Seymour Hayden has done much to bring about the desired end in England. The wickerwork coffins, invented by him, have been extensively used, and still more extensive has been the simplification of the funeral; the abolition of all the costly hideousness of the undertaker's calling and anything tending to retard the natural return of the dead body to its element. This is the true sanitary treatment of the subject.

THE WOMENS' MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA.

Its First Annual Session Now Being Held in Port Hope The President's Address—Reports of the Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary.

The first annual meeting of the Bay of Quinte branch of of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, in Canada, opened its session in Port Hope, yesterday, when the President, Mrs. (Dr.) Carman, read the following address:

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

This meeting of our Bay of Quinte Branch must be historic, as it is the first time we have assembled in annual session. Let us make it historic in other ways, by its being one of special power, of renewed consecration, of quickened zeal and devotedness to our Master's work thus committed to our hearts and hands.

Heart-stirring memories crowd into my mind of Branch meetings in the past, when faces and voices, not with us to-day, were inspirations never to be forgotten, but even now these loved ones are in their branch meetings, they too, will miss us—and with all this comes the blessed thought that our prayers, our praises all ascend and meet around one common mercy seat, our objects, our aims are still the same.

The past year has been one of blessing, one of deep experience to most of us; let us hope that it can be said of each one, "she hath done what she could," but let each remember that the days and the years as they roll on bring new capabilities, we must advance to merit this commendation, for there is no standing still in the Christian's life.

From all the different fields connected with our Woman's Missionary Society we have had through the year encouraging reports, souls have been won for the Master, women have been led into better lives, made happier in this life, and given bright hopes for a future life; little children have been rescued, cared for and trained for future usefulness.

In Japan during the year a new departure has been made that must commend itself to every heart, and that is the opening of orphanages in Tokio and Kenayawa. These have been more successful than even the most ardent worker expected, but we at home must remember that these Orphanages mean for our missionaries more labour, more care, increased responsibilities, and that they MUST mean the same to us at home. Have you thought of it in this way?

Our hearts were filled with gratitude to our Father above that no harm came to our beloved missionaries during the terrible earthquake in Tokio, June 20th. The building was considerably injured but that was little to what might have been.

In our Indian work, the new home at Chilliwhack has been opened, and is filling up fast—there being 72 children—boys and girls in it. An assistant matron was added to the staff in April, but another worker is now needed, as Miss C. Caull is very much overworked. She says in a private letter "are there no consecrated, qualified young women in Ontario to give themselves to this work?" The letters of Miss Rednar, Port Simpson, tell of marked improvement in the children of the Home, and the usefulness of those who have gone out from it.

Of the Chinese Rescue Home, we may well say, "Thank the Lord for giving it to us, for letting it be instrumental in preparing these rescued ones to be Christion wives and mothers in Christian homes of their own. The work of the French Institute and of the Bible Institute, Montreal, is one of deep interest and good results are reported.

From distant China we hear of the glad reception of our ten missionaries. Many poor, bodily sick women were awaiting the arrival of a medical woman. What an opportunity to minister to the soul while easing the pain of these stricken ones.

This is but a hasty glance of our work abroad, but you who have carefully read the excellent monthly letters have the particulars in your hearts. For myself I cannot see how any one can keep in touch with the work and not read these letters.

At home, as a Branch, we have been blessed in many ways. Our Associations and Mission Bands have prospered, and added to this we have had a very auspicious beginning in being blessed by candidates for the work abroad. Our hearts rejoice that Miss Lambly has reached Japan in safety and entered upon her work. Miss Paul is diligently fitting herself for whatsoever work our society may appoint her to. Other candidates have been before us, but as yet no decision made. My heart has been cheered that in this our first year, so many should have been stirred to offer themselves to this work, that so many have realized that the question now is, "Dare I stay at Home," not "may I go." Several matters of interest will come before you for your careful consideration, such as—a change in the financial year, to make the date harmonize with the financial year of our church;—a more careful and fair division of the work of the different officers of the Branch—the price of our Annual Report and contents; also some method of supplying all the districts with organizers.

One thought, one face has been with me all through our opening, and that is the thought that during the year the ranks of our band of missionaries have been broken and the face of our dearly beloved Miss Lent will be with us no more in our earthly meetings. While we cannot claim that her home was in our Branch, yet it was from within our Branch that she was called to the mission field. We mourn for our loss, but we rejoice that she is at rest; that after years of faithful devoted work, the Master called her to Himself.

And now, of the officers and delegates let us ask these questions: Why are you here? What have you come for? Surely no little matter has taken us from our homes and families. Of the friends, in Port Hope, our hospitable entertainers, I would ask, why have you invited us here? Why have you give us so hearty a welcome? The one answer ought to be given these questions, "The glory of God and the advancement of His kingdom." As delegates, we must be diligent in this business; we must be prompt in attendance at all the sessions, careful and prayerful in everything said and done. "In honour preferring one another." As entertainers you will best promote the interest of this meeting by being present at all its sessions; let there not be too many Marthas amongst you, give us home-like fare, and come out and help as much, ever so much more by your presence and prayers than you can do in any other way.

THE NORTHWEST EXHIBIT.

The C. P. R. Car of Exhibits Crowded From Morning till Night—An Instructive Lecture in the Evening.

The C. P. R. Exhibition Car of the products of the great Northwest arrived here yesterday and all day long was crowded by those interested in such matters. A great many farmers from the surrounding townships came into town during the afternoon and expressed themselves as most pleased with the exhibit made in the car.

Samples of the different grains grown on the prairie land were tastefully arranged around the sides of the car, together with the natural grasses of the region. The roots which were shown were all and the entire exhibit was one well calculated to place the great Northwest in a favourable light before intending settlers. Souris, Edmonton, Brandon, Calgary, North Bay and all other important points are represented.

Not alone by this novel and enticing exhibit does Mr. Callaway, who has so cleverly managed these things in the past, seek to impress the capabilities of the Northwest upon the visitor. Mr. L. O. Armstrong, the chief colonization agent, delivered a most instructive free lecture during the evening to a large audience, the greater part of which was composed of agriculturists. "Round the World through Canada," was the subject of the lecture, illustrated by stereopticon views, that he has delivered to great audiences in the east. The fact is shown that the Northwest farmer is on the shortest route to either Europe or Asia, and can pour his food products into either in time of with greater facility than the farmers of any other country. Mr. Armstrong makes a strong point of the growing of wheat for feeding, and predicts great developments in this direction. A bushel of wheat is almost as good for feed as two of corn. New Ontario also comes in for some clever descriptive sketches, with its wealth of mine and forest and field, and the Algoma districts are spoken of as a most promising field for the man with an axe and the will to hew a home for himself out of the wilderness. The difference between the prairie lands of the west, where one may begin to plough the day after settlement, and the Algoma lands that need clearing, is laid plainly before the listener. Altogether the lecture is one so instructive that as a geography lesson alone it is of no inconsiderable value.

ALMOST THREE SCORE AND TEN.

The Sudden Death of Bridgenorth's Postmaster.

The death of Mr. Marcus S. Dean, aged 67, of Bridgenorth, occurred last night at about eleven o'clock.

Mr. Dean, who was postmaster and kept a general store at Bridgenorth, was taken ill on Tuesday evening last and upon retiring expressed his fears that he was about to experience an attack of paralysis. Ere morning his fears were realized and when his daughter went to arouse him they found him unable to rise.

All that medical aid could do in endeavouring to effect his recovery was tried without avail and Mr. Dean sank rapidly until his expiry, as stated, at eleven o'clock last night.

The deceased was well known throughout this entire section, having moved to Bridgenorth from the vicinity of Port Hope almost forty years ago. He leaves a widow and six children, viz:—Mr. A. Dean, of Smith; Mrs. Fowler, of Ennismore; Mrs. Samuel Clegg and Mrs. Poole, of Peterborough, and two unmarried daughters who have been residing at home. His two brothers, Dr. Dean, of Brighton, and Mr. M. S. Dean, who lives about five miles out of Port Hope, are both expected to attend the funeral, which takes place Friday afternoon, at 2 p. m. from the late residence of the deceased. The interment will be in the Little Lake Cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. J. C. Davidson.

SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD.

The Attendance at the School and Convent.

Regular meeting of the Separate School Board was held on the evening of Wednesday, 3rd inst. There being present Dr. Brennan, (chairman), presiding, and Messrs. Quinlan, Goselin, Kelly and Lehane. The Rev. Father Collins, local superintendent, was also present.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

School attendance for September:—Convent, on roll, 210; average 205; Murray street school, on roll, 219, average 197; Lake street school, no report.—Received.

ACCOUNTS.

Account from T. Cronin, repairs, $7,75, was ordered to be paid when certified by the Property Committee.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Communication from A. Ovens asking that the Board purchase one of his anatomical charts, which was shown to the members of the Board at a previous meeting.—Received.

RESOLUTIONS.

On motion of Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Lehane, that one be purchased for the Convent, at a cost of $10, the motion was adopted.

Moved by Mr. Quinlan, seconded by Mr. Goselin, that the repairs now being made at Lake street school, amounting to $35, as per contract, be paid when certified by the Property Committee—Carried.

The Board then adjourned.

A BIG CHANCE.

For Some Years Back John Riley Did Not Work on his Farm—He Does Now—The Reason Why.

Milverton, Sept. 24th.—John Riley, a farmer living near here, is able to do his farm work right along now, something he could not do for years. The reason was, he had a bad form of kidney disease, which set in about ten years ago, and gradually grew worse. Latterly Mr. Riley was at times unable to lie in bed or stoop to the ground because of his kidney troubles. Now, he can rake hay in the meadows, follow a plough or handle a reaper with any man in the country. The cause of the wonderful change is nothing more than Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes effected a complete cure of Mr. Riley's kidney disease. These pills always cure.

For stomach and liver trouble, costiveness or billiousness, there is nothing better than "Madill's Stomach and Liver Pills."

Dirty.

Well, we should say so. From the cellar to the garret. With the dust of the summer and the dust of the flies everything is apt to be a little dirty just now, especially the wall paper and window blinds. We offer a remedy for that dirty appearance that comes early in the fall. A new fresh paper and a new set of blinds is the simplest and finest remedy. It will make your home look like new, and give a refreshing appearance to everything around. See the beautiful stock all this month at a genuine discount. IT'S A SECRET —that many women owe their beauty to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The reason—beauty of form and face, as well as grace, radiate from the common center—health. The best bodily condition results from good food, fresh air, and exercise, coupled with the judicious use of the "Prescription." In maidenhood, womanhood, and motherhood, it's a supporting tonic that's peculiarly adapted to her needs, regulating, strengthening, and curing, the derangements of the sex.

If there be headache, pain in the back, bearing-down sensations, or general debility, or if there be nervous prostration, and sleeplessness, the "Prescription" reaches the origin of the trouble and corrects it. It dispels aches and pains, corrects displacements and cures catarrhal inflammation of the lining membranes. It's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money paid for it is refunded.

BENEATH THE WATERS.

THE DEADLY PRESSURE ENCOUNTERED IN SUBMARINE TUNNELING.

Truly One Half the World Does Not Know How the Other Half Lives—Bearing an Atmospheric Pressure of 65 Pounds to the Square Inch.

Laboring on the firm earth, with "all out of doors" to breathe, perspiring, and, mayhap, grumbling at one's hard luck, a person seldom, if ever stops to think that men work day after day deep down in the water, or the mud, with none but artificial light to guide their movements, and only the air that is pumped to them to breathe.

People who work in the open air would have only to labor for a short time in a diver's suit, a caisson, or an air lock, getting a taste of what it is like and how it feels, to be cured forever of grumbling at their lot and to thank their lucky stars that it has been ordained that they work on top of the earth.

The work of a diver, his sensations while under the water, and his experiences have often been written about, but those of the air lock and caisson worker have not. While he does not face the danger of fouling pipes and lines, as does the diver, he stays down longer, gets warmer, and his great danger lies in the stagnation of blood and paralysis, resulting from the changes of atmosphere.

Mr. R. C. Rapier of No. 56 Cambridge street, East Cambridge, is an air lock worker, and talks most interestingly. His work was mainly in the air locks used in building the great Hudson river tunnel. To a Herald reporter he talked of some of the sensations, dangers and experiences.

He said that while a man working on the surface of the earth bears up an atmospheric pressure of fifteen pounds to the inch, men in the locks bear a pressure of from fifteen to fifty pounds of compressed air, according to the depth. The heaviest pressure ever worked under was borne by five divers on the Swedish coast—sixty-five pounds. Four of these died five minutes after coming out.

While, as a general thing, the diver stands not nearly that amount of pressure, and seldom stays down more than two hours, the men in the Hudson River Tunnel stood a pressure of from 45 to 46½ pounds and worked in four hour shifts. Some men stayed down 20 hours at a stretch, but did not work all the time, and Superintendent Haskins stayed down once 24 hours.

The sensations experienced are peculiar. When a man first steps in there is a tingling in the ears and a pain in the head, and when he talks it is apparently through the nose. This is caused by the pressure, and the remedy is to hold the nose, close the month and blow against the ears. This relieves the pain and stops the sensation. When the pressure is all on the worker feels all right and experiences no discomfort. Then there is a sort of exhilaration, and a man does more work in the lock than he could do outside.

Another peculiar thing about the action of the pressure is that a man may have liquor enough aboard when outside to just make him feel jolly, but when he steps into the lock he is as drunk as a loon.

The danger lies in coming out of the pressure into the open air. It is then that a man is apt to suffer from stagnation of the blood and paralysis caused by the change of atmosphere. Besides this a man may be attacked in the head or stomach with severe pains. Three out of five cases where the head and stomach are attacked result fatally.

Another severe malady resulting from the change is what is called the "bends." This is the air getting in between the flesh and the bone. It is extremely painful, and so severe that a quart of whisky administered in half an hour would not intoxicate the patient. The stagnation and paralysis are the worst dangers, and do the work quickly. Many men have been keeled over by these causes, and not a few die. Old timers at the business sometimes get caught. Mr. Rapier himself was twice attacked. The remedy for this paralysis is a quick return to the air lock.

The effect of the pressure varies on animals, as is shown by the mules used in the Hudson River Tunnel. Some of these beasts are kept at work down below for a year and on being brought up are worth more than when they were taken down. Others that had been in the works four months, had to be killed.

The men as a general thing do not remain a great many years at the business, and a man should never work at it after he is 40 years of age.

Cutting a hole and building a tunnel through water is an extremely difficult thing, and by many was thought to be impossible. Still it was done in the case of the Hudson River tunnel, and the method, as told by Mr. Rapier, is very interesting.

The work on the tunnel had progressed until a body of water was struck. How to tunnel through this hole of water was a puzzling question. It was done this way: A so-called balloon was constructed, by making a netting with canvas. The interior of the balloon was then filled with blue clay and salt hay. When filled, the balloon, thirty feet in diameter, weighed 140 tons. The hole of water was then located, and, with aid of a huge steam derrick, the balloon was dropped into the hole. Then several scow loads of dirt were dumped down onto the balloon, and the whole thing was left to settle.

At the end of ten days the work of cutting through the balloon was begun. This was a very difficult job. An idea of what hard cutting it was may be gained from the fact that it took two months to dig through the thirty feet, the plates and brick were going in as the work progressed.—Boston Herald.

The Pineal Gland.

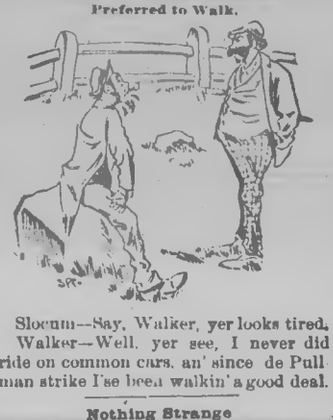
The pineal gland is a small body almost in the centre of the brain. It contains a cavity holding a sandy substance composed of phosphate and carbonate of lime. Its use in the animal economy is absolutely unknown. Fanciful physiologists have conjectured it to be the seat of the soul.—Chicago Herald.

Ready for Anything.

Mr. Friepan—Dear Miss Grabber, may I dare to hope that some day you will be my wife?

Miss Grabber—You may, Henry; and the sooner the better. Get your life insured and the license to-morrow. We'll get married the day after. Delays are dangerous.

Preferred to Walk.



Slocum—Say, Walker, yer looks tired.

Walker—Well, yer see, I never did ride on common cars, an' since de Pullman strike I'se been walkin' a good deal.

Nothing Strange

Intelligent people, who realize the important part the blood holds in keeping the body in a normal condition, find nothing strange in the number of diseases Hood's Sarsaparilla is able to cure. The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

Permanently Cured

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.
